NEW YORK COMMITTEE TO COORDINATE
THE BLACK MARCH AGAINST THE WHITE HOUSE CONFERENCE ON CIVIL RIGHTS,
JUNE 1 AND 2, 1966, WASHINGTON, D.C.
RACIAL MATTERS

Reference is made to memorandum dated May 17, 1966, at Chicago, Illinois, captioned "New York Committee to Coordinate the Black March Against the White House Conference on Civil Rights, June 1 and 2, 1966, Washington, D. C."

On May 18, 1966, CG T-1, who has not been contacted a sufficient number of times to determine the source's reliability, but who was recently in contact with a person who is an associate of Jesse Gray, advised the Chicago Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) as follows concerning this conversation:

Gray continues organizing a protest demonstration against the White House Conference on Civil Rights, June 1-2, 1966. He is hopeful of attracting demonstrators from the New York area in sufficient numbers that would require chartering buses to transport them from New York to Washington. Gray, to date, has not taken a head - count of those pledged to travel to Washington; however, the source believes he will surround himself with loyal people that he can trust and control.

Concerning Jesse Gray, CG T-2, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on November 20, 1958, that Jesse Gray had been the organizer for the Harlem Region of the Communist Party (CP) but that this position had been terminated in November, 1958. On January 24, 1964, CG T-3, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that according to William L. Patterson, Chairman of the New York District of the CP, Jesse Gray was no longer a member of the CP but is friendly to the CP.

Chester Robinson, Executive Director, West Side Organization, and entertainer Dick Gregory, according to CG T-1, are supposed to be actively recruiting in the Chicago area for the above demonstration; however, Gray is not believed to be aware of their efforts or success. During unsuccessful attempts to contact Gregory, the source learned that Gregory was in New York City, and would be travelling to Philadelphia afterward. Travel occurring approximately May 14-20, 1966.

Concerning Nahaz and Mary Rogers, associates of Gray, CG T-1 stated that they are undecided about travelling to Washington to participate in the above demonstration.

CG T-1 understood from the person whom the source conversed with, that Brenetta Howell planned to actively participate in the above conference; however, Bennett Johnson's plans are undecided. Johnson has mentioned that he has considered not attending the conference and utilizing his time in Washington to make contacts of a business and personal nature. Gus Savage continues his plans to travel to Washington.

Concerning Bennett Johnson, on April 9, 1965, CG T-4, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the CP of Illinois, in early 1964, desiring to broaden its forces in civil rights organizations, accepted Bennett Johnson on the Negro Commission of the CP of Illinois and permitted Johnson to attend Commission meetings, although he was not and is not a member of the CP of Illinois Club and in the strictest classification was not and is not a member of the CP. The CP of Illinois currently considers Bennett Johnson as a maverick who cannot be depended upon nor controlled.

Concerning Brenetta Howell, CG T-4 advised on April 21, 1965, that as of that time Brenetta Howell was a member of the CP of Illinois.

Concerning Gus Savage, CG T-4, on May 17,1966, advised Savage, formerly a CP member, is no longer considered to be a CP member at this time. He is still considered to be friendly toward the CP, however, the CP does not trust him since he is attempting to become aligned with a major political party.

Gray reportedly was recently in contact with Entertainer Dick Gregory, during Gregory's recent engagement at the Village Gate in New York City. Gregory supposedly advised Gray he would be bringing an unspecified number of demonstrators from Chicago with him. This source understands demonstrators coming from New York will return to New York after the demonstration on June 1, 1966. On May 28, 1966, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, ascertained that on that date Martin Luther King, Walter Fauntroy (Washington, D.C. representative of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, SCLC, which is headed by King), Clarence Jones and Stanley Levison held a conference, called by King, to discuss his appearance on the Face the Nation television program on May 29, 1966. According to the source, King wanted their thinking on the more important questions that might be put to him, such as the present posture of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), Black Nationalism, the Black Panther Party (a third political party being advanced by SNCC), the coming Presidential Conference on civil rights and Vietnam.

Levison advised that King should remember that the press always depicts him as a moderate and that he should urge a nonviolent but militant attitude. Levison said King should urge the Negro not to take abuse and to say that the economic and political are means and that brotherhood is the end. Levison further counseled that King must make it clear that he is not part of a separatist trend and hopes to achieve unity in the Negro movement.

King next referred to the speech made by Adam Clayton Powell (Representative from New York City), at Howard University, during which Powell called on American Negroes to abandon the conference table in seeking equality and to seek rather a position of "black power" and what he termed "audacious power". King suggested he might be asked about this speech and also about "having conferences as a whole".

In this context, Clarence Jones stated he had read about the attack on the recommendations of the conference (the Presidential conference on civil rights), the fact that SNCC is not going to take part and acts by such groups are negative and will hurt the whole group.

Levison suggested to King that he could point out that under President Truman, a government committee pointed out that the Federal government was the biggest violator of segregation, and made recommendations, and that now the Administration has committees which have unearthed important conditions and spot-lighted them. Levison continued that, however, in the absence of a militant movement which compels the government to act, nothing usually is done. King agreed this was a good way to express it.

Walter Fauntroy suggested that one question might be where the billions of dollars for King's program would come from. Levison stated that one answer would be where did the money come from to finance a war and that the answer to this was that it was necessary as is such things as the beautifying of the nation's highways.

King next asked how he should handle a possible question about a "long hot summer". To this, Jones said he should go no further than President Johnson did when he commented on the Watts area of Los Angeles. Levison suggested that he answer it in a guarded way such as where injustice is located there is a possibility of a riot.

Levison brought up the possibility of a question on Vietnam and Jones stated that the text of King's remarks should be what was in the SCLC resolution on Vietnam. (The resolution adopted at an Executive Board meeting of the SCLC in Miami, Florida, in April, 1966, calling for military withdrawal from Vietnam). Levison suggested an additional point be made that Negroes are shouldering a heavier burden of the war in Vietnam because of the economic status of the Negroes and that there are more Negroes at the front than other Americans. He said this is an unfair position.

Re: Communist Influence In Racial Matters
Internal Security - C

Levison, in commenting on what King might say regarding Secretary of Defense McNamara's statement on the draft, suggested that King could say that he could agree if the government provides equal opportunity and equal justice but, if not, it is unequal to call on anyone and that the government is unfair to Negroes and underprivileged whites in the draft.

On May 29, 1966, Martin Luther King appeared on "Face the Nation", a Columbia Broadcasting System (CBS) Television Program. To a question by one panelist, King refused to specifically predict that violence would occur in the racial field, however, he did say it would be an act of wisdom to anticipate violence.

King called for new programs in all areas costing ten billion dollars a year for the next ten years. He said the Vietnam war was hurting the war against poverty. He said war was not the way to solve social problems, and "we" (the United States), must find a good fast way out of Vietnam.

King urged the United States cease the bombings, negotiate with the Viet Cong, and admit Communist China to the United Nations.

On 5/28/66, NY 3810-S* advised that STANLEY LEVINSON, CLARENCE JONES, WALTER FAUNTROY and MARTIN LUTHER KING were in contact that day to discuss what KING should say when he appeared on "Face The Nation" on 5/29/66.

KING wanted the other's thoughts on how to answer questions about the Alabama elections and the SNCC boycott of the Washington conference. LEVINSON told him to urge nonviolence, but a militant attitude, and to condemn a separatist trend on the part of the Negroes.

If KING is asked where the billions of dollars will come from for the programs KING advocates, it was suggested he say that money is always made available for war and beautifying the highways.

It was decided KING would not make any flat predictions about when or where there will be more violence.

They also discussed Vietnam and LEVINSON suggested KING point out the burden of the war is greater for the Negro than the white man in that the draft is unfair to Negroes.

KING appeared on "Face The Nation" on 5/29/66. He made no specific predictions about coming violence, but said it was an act of wisdom to anticipate violence.

On June 8, 1966, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Stanley Levison (Principal advisor to Martin Luther King, President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, SCLC) was in contact with Joseph Robison (Phonetic) of the American Jewish Congress, (AJC) on that date. The contact, according to the source, concerned the Memphis, Tennessee to Jackson, Mississippi march being conducted by Martin Luther King, Jr., and other civil rights leaders in support of James Meredith.

take sixteen days to complete. He said the number of days needed to complete the march will depend on how many miles they can make each day. Therefore, the sixteen day figure, Levison said, is subject to change.

Upon arriving in Jackson, as now planned, there will be a big rally similar to the one in Montgomery, Alabama, which was held following the Selma to Montgomery march last year.

As for people who desire to go down to march, Levison instructed Robison (Phonetic) to tell them to go to the Centenary Methodist Church, Mississippi Boulevard, Memphis, Tennessee, and from there they would be provided transportation to the point of march.

As for his own plans, Levison said he would join the march prior to its completion. In addition to himself, Levison said Paul O'Dwyer (former New York City politician and brother of one time Mayor O'Dwyer of New York) would also go down to join the march.. TENN. MISS Levison said he would attend a meeting of the SCLC which is scheduled for Monday, June 13, 1966, in Atlanta, Georgia, unless the meeting is cancelled due to King's participation in the march.

Later in the day, the same source furnished information which indicated that Stanley Levison was contacted by Bill Stein (fund raiser of the SCLC). Stein related that he was trying to get financial aid for the march. In addition, according to Stein, he is trying to enlist people to go down to join the march.

Stein said Wyatt Walker, (former Executive Director of the SCLC) told him that he had cancelled two plane loads of people who had planned to depart for the Mississippi march. The reason given by Walker for the cancellation was that he had learned that the "Deacons" (Deacons for Defense) were involved in the march, and that as a result, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) and the Congress of Racial Equality, (CORE) had pulled out of the march. Walker, Stein said, was trying to reach Martin Luther King to persuade him to pull out. Stein said King was not opposed to working with the Deacons, since he (King) saw nothing wrong with them.

Stanley Levison

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in April, 1964, that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA) in July, 1963. In late 1963 and early 1964, he criticized the Communist Party (CP) for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. Levison was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position on civil rights. His differences, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism.

Sessions on Friday, May 27, 1966

From 9:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m., registration of the delegates took place.

of the city to A. Philip Randolph, the National President of the NALC.

The keynote address was given by A. Philip Randolph. Randolph first presented a historical account of the Negro people in the United States from the time of Reconstruction (1865) to the present. Randolph stated that we at the Convention should not become involved in the Viet Nam controversy because many of the people in the civil rights struggle in the past, particularly throughout the South as well as in the North, have deserted the civil rights movement in order to demonstrate for peace. We, as black Americans as well as our friends in the labor movement, cannot fight on two fronts. The civil rights revolution must not be lost. In 1975 there will be 220,000,000 people in the United States of which 27,000,000 will be black Americans. Economic issues facing these millions will be the dominant issue.

Randolph praised the War on Poverty Program as well as President Johnson for calling together the June 1 and 2, 1966, Conference in order to fulfil the rights of the Negro people. Randolph praised the alliance of labor in the civil rights movement and the defeat of the Right to Work laws in California, Oklahoma and Ohio. He said that this same alliance of labor and the Negro people and the civil rights groups can win elections as well as economic freedom and justice.

Randolph received a standing ovation upon completion of his keynote address.

RE: COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE NEGRO AMERICAN LABOR COUNCIL (NALC)

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

From 2:00 to 5:00 p.m., addresses were given by Assistant United States Secretary of Labor Arthur Chapin; Don Slayman, Director of the Civil Rights Department, AFL-CIO, and Ben D. Segal, Director of Liaison, Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.

Upon completion of the above addresses, Herbert Wright, a delegate from Chicago, was given the floor by A. Philip Randolph. Wright reported of the outcome on struggles conducted by NALC in Chicago with the Motorola Corporation in Chicago which included the Myart Case and the Illinois Fair Employment Practices Commission (FEPC). He also spoke of the progress of up-grading Negroes in the railroad industry in the Chicago area as well as in connection with other matters in which the Chicago NALC Chapter has been involved.

Wright reported that the Chicago Chapter has prepared a report for the Convention's consideration, which report sets forth a proposed program to improve the work and expand the activities of the NALC. This Chicago program principally proposes a program of organizing the unorganized which inclues people residing within the ghetto in Chicago and involves ½ million people. Wright pointed out that these ½ million people who are employed earn only $3,000 per year or less. Wright stated that he had with him copies of this program and he asked permission that the Convention give this proposed program for NALC serious consideration. This document or program is entitled "A Suggested WHITE PAPER - THE OTHER CHICAGO - THE CITY'S EMPLOYED POOR", which document was prepared and issued by the Chicago Chapter of the NALC.

It is noted that this document or program was principally prepared by Tim Black, President of the Chicago NALC, however, it is further noted that prior to the time that the Chicago document was finalized, certain portions of the document were reviewed and discussed by leaders of the Illinois Communist Party (CP), and in general, they agreed with its contents.

At 8:00 p.m. there was held a public rally sponsored by the NALC at the Masonic Temple in Baltimore. The principal speakers at the rally included I. W. Abel, International President of the United Steel Workers of America, and Jackie Robinson, Chairman of the Board of Directors, Freedom National Bank, New York, New York, (the former baseball star of the Brooklyn Dodgers).

It was learned that after the rally, a small CP caucus was held that evening which included Jim Jackson, national CP functionary, who stated that he was attending the Convention as a "The Worker" correspondent. This small CP caucus discussed the Chicago proposed program for NALC and Jackson considered it good and felt that it should get as wide a circulation among the delegates as possible. Jackson also urged that if possible, the delegates propose as strong as possible a resolution against the United States oppression in Viet Nam. This caucus also discussed the NALC election which was to be held on Sunday, May 29, 1966, and it was agreed that as far as the interests of the CP are concerned, Cleveland Robinson of New York would be the logical man for National NALC President replacing Randolph.

Sessions on Saturday, May 28, 1966

Sessions commenced at 10:00 a.m. and it was noted that prior to the sessions, Herbert Wright and Ralph Turner, Chicago delegates, were observed distributing copies of the Chicago proposed program to the delegates.

At 10:00 a.m., chairmen were named for six different panels of discussion. Delegates who wished to participate in the various panel discussions were directed to assigned meeting places in the hotel. These panels included:

Jobs, Unemployment and the Negro Worker

Voting, Registration and Equal Representation

Integrated Housing and the Ghetto

Education, Apprenticeship and Training

Project Equality

The Intellectual and the Labor Movement

None of the panel chairmen or resource people involved with the panels were known to be CP members.

RE: COMMUNIST INFLITRATION OF THE NEGRO AMERICAN LABOR COUNCIL (NALC)

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

The panel on Jobs, Unemployment and Negro Worker, had the largest attendance of about 50 people and was chaired by Cleveland Robinson. During the panel, 14 or 15 speakers spoke and included Tim Black, Ralph Turner, Herbert Wright, and Jim Jackson.

In his remarks, Jim Jackson raised the question of Viet Nam and wondered how can we fight poverty, give the Negroes their rights and build a great society in this country if billions of dollars will be spent to support aggression in Viet Nam. Jackson said that we cannot have "butter" and "guns".

There was objection from one of the delegates concerning Jackson's remarks, the delegate claiming that the question of Viet Nam is out of order. The chairman of this panel, Cleveland Robinson, then stated that this was not exactly so, there being a connection with the War on Poverty, full equality, etc., and asked the panel resume speaker to comment on this in his resume. This resume speaker stated that there is a relationship between the two, for if there is going to be less "butter", there will be less "butter" for the poor. He further pointed out that there already has been a cut in the poverty program.

Cleveland Robinson pointed out during this panel that considerable progress could be made in the areas of poverty, civil rights, elimination of slums, and promoting vast job programs (schools, hospitals, etc.,) with the money that is being spent in Viet Nam.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

Other participants spoke of the minimum wage law, lack of jobs, especially among Negroes in the age bracket of 18-25, the need to combat "sweetheart" contracts by labor unions, the need to organize the South, and the need for labor unions to utilize their resources to upgrade Negroes and on-the-job training.

In summation, the resume speaker stated that in order to win voting rights, civil rights and some of the other measures recently passed by Congress, costs the power structure nothing at all but when you begin to demand for increases in minimum wage, Social Security, retirement benefits, a larger share of the economic pie, you then will really get into some real struggles with the power structure since they do not give these things without a real struggle.

CP members who were known to participate in the above mentioned panel included Ralph Turner and Herbert Wright of Chicago, and Jim Jackson of New York.

From 2:30 p.m. to 5:00 p.m., there were six reports made to the delegates based on the panel discussions held during the morning sessions.

During the evening at 7:30 p.m., the NALC banquet was held at the Lord Baltimore Hotel, with Ossie Davis, star of stage, screen and TV, as the main speaker.

6.) Genocide and Human Rights Covenants

In addition, a resolution on Peace was adopted which in substance set forth the United States position and reasons for the United States being in Viet Nam, however, further pointing out that the United States is always ready to discuss peace and maintain peaceful relations around the world.

In regard to the election of a new National President for NALC, three candidates were nominated, namely, Cleveland Robinson, Horace Sheffield, and Frank Evans. Before the voting took place, Sheffield in a long speech declined the nomination.

Cleveland Robinson was elected the new president receiving 18 votes while Evans received four.

It is noted that each 50 members in a Chapter received one vote.

Tim Black of Chicago was one of the vice presidents elected while U. C. Crowder of Chicago was again re-elected vice president.

It was obvious that since A. Philip Randolph chaired the sessions on the last day of the Convention that he was not going to permit any hassels regarding any resolutions, particularly the resolution on Viet Nam, nor was he going to permit any hassel in connection with the election of officers, it being known that Randolph's choice as a successor was Cleveland Robinson.

It was announced during the time of the Convention that 215 delegates and observers registered for the Convention with about 25 to 30 additional people present who, however, did not register. It was further announced that of the 215 delegates and observers registered, 111 were from New York.

It was learned that the NALC nationally has a membership of between 800 and 900.

It was reported that the following NALC Chapters were represented at the Convention:

Boston
Chicago
Cleveland
Detroit
Milwaukee
Philadelphia
Pittsburgh
Westchester, New York
Youngstown, Ohio
Baltimore
New York City

CP members recognized in attendance who attended either the entire Convention or part of the Convention, are as follows:

From New York, New York:

John Cutch
Jim Jackson - a national CP functionary
Agnes Willis

From Baltimore, Maryland:

George Meyers - a leader of the Maryland CP District
Jake Green - a member of the National CP Committee

From Chicago, Illinois:

Rodney Stephens
Carolyn Black
Ralph Turner - in addition to Turner being designated by the Illinois CP District to work in NALC, Turner also is Chairman of the Railroad Club, Illinois CP
Herbert Wright - in addition to also being designated by the Illinois CP District to work in NALC, Wright also is a member of the Railroad Club, Illinois CP, as well as in charge of the industrial work within the Illinois CP

Enclosed for the Bureau and offices listed are copies of LHM in above case.

This LHM summarizes available information obtained to date concerning the "Proposed Conference to Form a Coalition of Militant Negro Radicals, Washington, D.C., 5/30-31/65," as a basis for recommending continued investigation of captioned organization as a Black Nationalist organization.

If not already done, offices receiving copies of this communication are requested to search indices in their respective divisions concerning individuals listed herein as participating in above conference and include pertinent subversive characterizations, where available.

Review of available material received concerning the National Black Coordinating Committee (NBCC) reflects that leading roles in the formation of this organization were played by JESSE GRAY of New York City, (former CP member, alleged to be currently friendly to the CP) and JAMES BOGGS of Correspondence Group. JESSE GRAY is looked upon as leader of the NBCC.

The Executive Board of NBCC consists of LAWRENCE LANDRY of ACT, JESSE GRAY and JAMES BOGGS, who are to give "experienced and philosophically grounded leadership to the group." GRACE BOGGS, wife of JAMES BOGGS, who attended one of the formative conferences of the NBCC urged that once the Negroes had achieved political power in the cities, Marxist theory could then be applied to city government operations.

Opposition to the United States role in Vietnam and Dominican Republic were voiced by speakers at formative meetings of the NBCC.

The organization envisioned by LANDRY, GRAY and BOGGS is an organization for Negroes; they are to assume political control of the cities. At the conference held in Washington, D.C., over Memorial Day week-end, JAMES BOGGS, who presided on occasion, made a tribute to MALCOLM X, deceased leader of the Organization of Afro-American Unity. BOGGS praised MALCOLM's views on "black revolution".

JESSE GRAY also has demonstrated his admiration for MALCOLM X by speaking at an OAAU cultural tribute to MALCOLM X held on 5/19/65, in New York City, and by his urging merchants in Harlem, New York City, to close their shops for one day following the assassination of MALCOLM X as a tribute.

JAMES and GRACE BOGGS are Marxists of the Trotskyite brand. JAMES BOGGS was National Chairman of the Correspondence Group in May, 1962. The Correspondence Group is an off-shoot of the Johnson-Forest Group, which has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

No information has been developed which reflects that the CPUSA, to date, has attempted to penetrate the Coalition of Militant Negro Radicals, or has taken any active interest therein. The following racial and security informants NYO were contacted negatively in May and June, 1965, concerning the captioned organization.

[redacted], who is in occasional contact with JESSE GRAY, has developed no additional information to date concerning the Coalition of Militant Negro Radicals.

From available information it appears that the Coalition of Militant Negroes (or temporarily the NBCC) is oriented toward a Black-Nationalist racial-type organization. No whites were permitted to attend the organizing conference in Washington, D.C. MALCOLM X and his theories of "black revolution" were advanced. It is an organization for Negroes, and for Negro political power.

It is recommended accordingly that a continuing investigation of the Coalition of Militant Negro Radicals be instituted as a Black-Nationalist racial-type organization.

Due to the absence of information indicating CPUSA control or interest, it is recommended that no investigation be conducted under the Cominfil caption and no report will be submitted by NYO, UACB.

It is noted that the NBCC is scheduled to reconvene in Dayton, Ohio, over the weekend of July 4, 1965, to assist W.S. MC INTOSH and his group. MC INTOSH will allegedly host the NBCC during this period.

Cincinnati is requested to alert racial informants and sources as to the scheduled meeting and will afford such coverage as is feasible and obtain pertinent information concerning organization and activities of the NBCC.

Jesse Gray, in April, 1965, had been in contact with militant Negro leaders in various cities which included Cleveland and Dayton, Ohio. Gray made plans for a conference to be held in Washington, D.C. on May 30-31, 1965, which would be a coalition of militant Negro groups. Jesse Gray planned for the coalition to travel from city to city with various groups, assisting each other in conducting street rallies throughout the summer months. The purpose will be to arouse the Negro elements in these cities to the necessity of eliminating police brutality and discrimination against the Negro in the field of housing, employment, and education.

On April 30, 1965, Jesse Gray of New York City and Lawrence Landry of ACT were in contact at Chicago, Illinois. Gray stated that many of the long-standing grievances of the Negroes in the large northern cities have not been alleviated. These grievances were in the area of housing, police brutality, and employment practices. Gray and Landry were of the belief that there would be racial violence in the big northern cities during the coming summer.

They evidenced no intention of engaging in any activities which would lead to violence. However, they felt that it would be the responsibility of militant civil rights organizations to attempt to shape public opinion concerning any such violence when and if it should occur. This effort wouldconsist of educating the public as to the nature of the basic issues involved. Such shaping of public opinion would be done through the media of mass leaflet distribution, street meetings, and rallies and possibly recourse to radio and television appearances by leading civil rights people.

Gray and Landry concluded that the United States Government had taken arbitrary action in Vietnam and the Dominican Republic. They stated that many people who are dissatisfied with the United States Government policies are not Marxists or Communists, but are people who in many instances would turn to violent action and could be taken over and directed by Marxists.

Jesse Gray's attitude was that he felt this would be a welcome step, namely that the activities of such people could be more effectively controlled and directed under Marxist leadership.

At a conference in Detroit, Michigan, during the period May 1-2, 1965, attended by militant Negro leaders of civil rights organizations. Jesse Gray and Lawrence Landry were again present as well as James Boggs and Grace Boggs. The purpose of this conference was to set up a program of action and a philosophy for militant civil rights organizations. The focal point of action was to be the large cities of the United States. The Negro must work to assume political control of the City with its various city governmental agencies, particularly the police force.

Grace Boggs stated that once such political authority had been assumed, Marxist theory could then be applied to city government operations. Harlem, New York City, was suggested as a training site where such a political line should be hammered out for nation-wide application.

Grace Boggs commented that funds to support such a program might be available from countries such as Communist China if a concrete and specific program suiting the criteria of such countries could be worked out.

Plans were made for a conference to be held in Washington, D.C., over the Memorial Day weekend, May 29-31, 1965, to include a total of about 50 people. The purpose of the conference would be to finalize plans for action by militant Negro civil rights groups directed toward furthering the civil rights movement.

The program for the militant Negro civil rights groups was to cover the following points:

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Communist Infiltration
of Coalition of Militant
Negro Radicals

1. The problems of the black people living in the ghetto will only be solved by black people themselves. A united effort should be directed toward "black power". Negroes constituted the revolutionary social force.

2. The civil rights movement which originated in the South cannot solve the problems of the northern ghetto. It remains for the movement in the North to carry the struggle to the enemy--towards the system rather than towards new legislation. The force which keeps the system going is the police.

3. The Negroes must struggle to control and govern the cities.

4. "We must prepare ourselves to be ready for what the masses themselves do spontaneously as they explode against the enemy--in most cases, the police--and be ready to take political power wherever possible."

The following information was furnished by confidential source number 2, during the period May 29-June 2, 1965:

The conference to form a coalition of militant Negroes started at the Hedin House Hotel, Washington, D.C., May 29, 1965 at 9:00 p.m. Approximately 50 persons attended this closed session, which ended at 10:00 p.m. Out of the conferences on May 29 and 30, 1965, emerged the National Black Coordinating Committee (NBCC). Some of the groups participating in these conferences were the following:

Communist Infiltration
of Coalition of Militant
Negro Radicals

ACT of Washington, D.C. and Chicago, Illinois; Freedom Fighters, Incorporated, Cleveland, Ohio; Alliance for Racial Mobility (ARM); Washington, D.C.; Community Council on Housing; New York City; Group on Advanced Leadership (GOAL), Detroit.

In the closed meeting on May 29, 1965, which was presided over by Julius Hobson and Jesse Gray, a tribute was made to Malcolm X, deceased leader of the Muslim Mosque, Incorporated, New York City, by James Boggs of Detroit. In this tribute Boggs praised Malcolm's views on "black revolution" and the futility of waiting to be given freedom. Boggs stated that Malcolm X saw that we must take the freedom and equality that we want and "this is why we are here tonight."

Jesse Gray stated that his group plans to increase black representation and to discourage black votes for white politicians. Lawrence Landry of Chicago urged black control over black vices and a protest for better housing and schools.

Julius Hobson of Washington, D.C. ACT, stated that his group plans to fight for basic changes in the structure of local government to insure better jobs and housing. The representative from the Alliance for Racial Mobility in Washington, D.C. stated that his group intends to fight the "lie" that Vietnam is a war of liberation.

The sessions on May 30, 1965, were also held in the Hedin House Hotel, Washington, D.C. and were chaired by Lawrence Landry, Jesse Gray, and James Boggs. Approximately 55 individuals attended these sessions which started at 10 a.m and ended at 5:45 p.m. James Boggs in his opening remarks stated "we must learn to use political power as a lever to change the social structure of established society. Boggs discussed revolutionary movements in Cuba, Algeria and China.

In the afternoon session the National Black Coordinating Committee was organized with Jesse Gray as leader and Nahaz Rogers of Chicago, as Treasurer. Each organization present was asked to make a pledge for donations. It was announced that the NBCC is scheduled to meet in Dayton, Ohio, over the July 4th weekend to assist W. S. Mc Intosh and his group in a project.

In order to meet operating costs, financial pledges were made and $215.00 was pledged toward a fund raising drive of $600.00. The purpose of the NBCC will be to assist member organizations in planning and conducting their activities.

W.S. Mc Intosh, from Dayton, Ohio, stated that he plans to organize a group and conduct a sit-in in City Hall, Dayton, Ohio, on July 4, 1965. The NBCC is to assist him in this endeavor and Mc Intosh will host the NBCC on that date.

The following individuals attended the various sessions of the NBCC held May 29-30, 1965, in Washington, D.C., as gathered from information furnished by [redacted] confidential source number 1, and confidential source number 2.

Re: Communist Influence In Racial Matters
Internal Security - C

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on June 7, 1966, that Henry Winston and Gus Hall were in contact on that date concerning the shooting of James Meredith in Mississippi on June 6, 1966. Winston related that he and Claude Lightfoot had discussed the case, and had learned (source of information unknown but believed to be the news media) that subsequent to the shots which felled Meredith, and as he was crawling toward Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and local police cars, that there was no return of fire against the assailant (Aubrey Norvell) by the (police and FBI), nor was there protective fire to insure that he (Meredith) made it safely to assistance. Winston said the failure to do those things was a brazen case of "one hundred per cent racist bandits firing murderously at the civil rights fighter". That failure, Winston said, showed that there was absolutely no protection whatsoever afforded to Negro democratic fighters even though there were present "so called law enforcement agents". That failure, according to Winston, was not only a dereliction of duty by local authorities, but has national applications as well which, according to Winston, in "our (Party's) opinion calls for the immediate demand of Hoover's (FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover) resignation for his failure to provide protection for democrats in general and Negroes in particular fighting for equal rights in the South".

Winston then proposed to Hall that the Party note these observations in the form of a statement in the news media in the nation. Hall agreed that Winston's proposal was a good one. The source, however, was unable to furnish information indicating what action, if any, would be taken by the Party.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in August, 1961, that Henry Winston was elected to the National Committee of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA), and Vice Chairman of the Party, during a meeting of the National Committee on August 12 and 13, 1961.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 13, 1964, that Gus Hall was General Secretary of the CPUSA.

According to a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, [redacted] on February 15, 1965, [redacted] Claude Lightfoot was Vice Chairman and a member of the National Committee of the CPUSA, and Chairman of the Illinois Communist Party (CP).

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, learned on June 9, 1966, that, on that date, Stanley Levison was in contact with Dora McDonald, Secretary to Martin Luther King, head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC). According to McDonald, she had received word from Matthew Moore, an official of the United Steel Workers, that the steel workers union was ready to join the march in support of James Meredith to Jackson, Mississippi. Moore, she said, related that the union is ready with money and men and that all that was needed was word from King. McDonald said that Moore instructed her to place a call to I.W. Abel, President of the United Steel Workers, and to follow this with a registered letter with the instructions. She asked Levison to prepare this message for her and Levison acknowledged that they desparately need money and also men for the march. (S) U

The source later determined that Levison prepared the following message for McDonald to send to the United Steel Workers: (S) U

Re: Communist Influence In Racial Matters

March on Jackson, Mississippi, in Support of James Meredith
Racial Matters

"Once again conscience of nation is aroused by another atrocity on a public highway. We are continuing march begun by James Meredith to dramatize need for legislation to protect non-violent protestors seeking constitutional rights as well as for long range solutions. American society must finally adopt to be true to itself. (S) (U)

"We need support of all people of good will in form of personal participation in the march as well as funds to sustain it. We were not prepared for this emergency financially or organizationally. Nevertheless we are trying to meet it while continuing extensive SCLC programs in Chicago, Georgia and Alabama. We deeply appreciate your past support and know we can count the Steel Workers as true friends in this new test facing our democracy. Please send contributions to 334 Auburn, Atlanta." (S) (U)

Levison instructed McDonald to add to the message information as to where the marchers should report and that transportation from Memphis, Tennessee, to the line of march would be provided. (S) (U)

McDonald informed Levison that the United Automobile Workers also is desirous of assisting in the march and wanted to know if she should send the same communication to them. Levison agreed but told McDonald that she should first contact Andrew Young, Executive Director of the SCLC, since he could have been in contact with Walter Reuther, President of the United Automobile Workers. (S) (U) U.S.A.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in April, 1964, that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA), in July, 1963. In late 1963 and early 1964, he criticized the Communist Party (CP) for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. Levison was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position on civil rights. His differences, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism. (S) (U)

JUNE 1 AND 2, 1966

RACIAL MATTERS

APPROPRIATE AGENCIES AND FIELD OFFICES ADVISED BY ROUTING SLIP (S) BY Dta DATE 1-29-80

Reference is made to memorandum dated May 25, 1966, at Chicago, Illinois, captioned as above.

On June 6, 1966, Chicago T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised the Chicago Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that Brenetta Howell and Gus Savage did not attend the above conference. Bennett Johnson, accompanied by his girlfriend Ardenia Fouche, ~~& C~~ traveled to Washington in Bennett's car; however, they did not attend the conference nor did they participate in the CCBM demonstration. (U)

Concerning Bennett Johnson, on April 9, 1965, Chicago T-2, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the Communist Party (CP) of Illinois, in early 1964, desiring to broaden its forces in civil rights organizations, accepted Bennett Johnson on the Negro Commission of the CP of Illinois and permitted Johnson to attend Commission meetings, although he was not and is not a member of a CP of Illinois Club and in the strictest classification was not and is not a member of the CP. The CP of Illinois currently considers Bennett Johnson as a maverick who cannot be depended upon nor controlled. (U) (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ CONFIDENTIAL

Concerning Brenetta Howell, Chicago T-2 advised on April 21, 1965, that as of that time Brenetta Howell was a member of the CP of Illinois. (U)

Concerning Gus Savage, Chicago T-2, on May 17, 1966, advised Savage, formerly a CP member, is no longer considered to be a CP member at this time. He is still considered to be friendly toward the CP, however, the CP does not trust him since he is attempting to become aligned with a major political party. (U)

Chicago T-1 stated Lawrence Landry, National and Chicago Chapter Chairman of the organization ACT, received an invitation to the conference and did attend. He later spoke at a rally following the CCBM demonstration on June 1, 1966. Entertainer Dick Gregory, Stanley Branche of Chester, Pennsylvania, and Stockley Carmichael, new head of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) were present in Washington, D. C. for the CCBM demonstration. (U)

Julius Hobson, Chairman, Washington D. C. Chapter of ACT, was very upset over the small number of demonstrators present to demonstrate on June 1, 1966. Numerous white persons appeared for the CCBM demonstration; however, they were not allowed to participate on orders from Jesse Gray. Among this group were members of Hobson's Chapter of ACT. Gray instructed Hobson to inform this group that they were not welcome, at least the whites. Gray pointed out this was the blackman's march and to allow white participants would endanger his image.

Demonstrators from New York were not as large a group as Gray had anticipated. Gray explained the smallness of his group was due to many who would have made the trip, chose to remain in New York City to receive their welfare checks which arrive approximately the beginning of each month.

Concerning Jesse Gray, Chicago T-3, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on November 20, 1958, that Jesse Gray had been the organizer for the Harlem Region of the CP but that this position had been terminated in November, 1958. On January 24, 1964, Chicago T-4, advised that according to William L. Patterson, Chairman of the New York District of the CP, Jesse Gray was no longer a member of the CP but is friendly to the CP. (U)

According to Chicago T-1 Dick Gregory, entertainer, was in Washington during the demonstration; however, he was scheduled to appear on a radio program. He did not participate in the CCBM March; however, he did speak at a rally following the march. (U)

Continuing, Chicago T-1 advised Ernest Thomas, an organizer of the Deacons for Defense and Justice, was expected to participate in the demonstration, but did not appear. (U)

Chicago T-1 observed both those who participated in the conference as well as CCBM demonstrators considered the conference to be fruitless with little if any, positive results. Gray commented that no one should have attended the conference. Those who attended wasted their time to hear President Johnson state that the Federal Government had done all it could, therefore, it was left up to the state governments. (U)

Concerning Stockley Carmichael, new SNCC Chairman, who arrived in Washington, D. C. late June 2, 1966, Chicago T-1 stated during a conversation Carmichael expoused views that all Negro Americans should begin building independent political, economic, and cultural institutions that will be useful tools to institute social imagess in this country. Politically, SNCC intends to endorse and vigorously support the Black Panther Party which the source described as an independent political party devised by SNCC to run Negro candidates for office. Currently most Black Panther Party activity exists in the southern states under the Panther emblem. (U)

Carmichael was in Washington, D. C. at the expense of the National Broadcasting Company (NBC) as he was scheduled to appear on NBC's "Today" program, but same was canceled in view of recent astronautical flight coverage.

Following the CCBM demonstration and rally Carmichael journeyed to New York City. According to the source, Carmichael during another conversation pointed out that in the future the New York City Chapter of SNCC planned to become involved in community action thereby extending themselves from their usually role of fund raising for their southern operations.

Chicago T-1 further understands that Gray will fully support the Black Panther Party, when requested, although he is actively organizing tenants' councils in Harlem. Gray also expressed that he personally was not interested in causing a riot as he would not like to see another one. (U)

Chicago T-1 related that there was no CCBM demonstration in Washington, D. C. on June 2, 1966, as had been planned. (U)

Racial Matters

DECLASSIFIED BY 66290 ... ON 7-16-92

On June 15, 1966, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Stanley Levison and Martin Luther King, President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), were in contact on that date. Their contact was in reference to the need of funds for the Mississippi march. (U)

King made reference to a conference of the SCLC which was held in Atlanta, Georgia, on June 14, 1966, and which Levison attended, where it was decided that various civil rights organizations engaged in the march will send out their own appeals for funds. (U)

King urged Levison to expeditiously handle the SCLC fund appeal because "they" (the marchers) were in desperate need of money in Mississippi. Levison said he would run a fund appeal letter in the name of the "March Fund" in "The New York Times". (U)

King said the march was going favorably, and that more voter registrations were being obtained than expected. (U)

A news item in "The Atlanta Daily World" (an Atlanta, Georgia daily Negro newspaper), dated May 21, 1965, titled "Albany 'Justice' Assailed" datelined Hapeville, Georgia, sets forth information regarding a semi-annual board meeting of the Southern Conference Educational Fund (SCEF) held in Hapeville during the previous weekend. The article reports that Miss CAROL HOOVER, Atlanta, Georgia, an administrative assistant at the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) was one of our new members added to the board of SCEF at this meeting.

A characterization of the SCEF is attached hereto.

On August 22, 1964, CAROL HOOVER of SCLC, Atlanta, Georgia, told STANLEY LEVISON she was glad to have seen him at a party the previous Wednesday, according to a confidential source. ~~S~~ (U)

She also asked LEVISON for a financial contribution to the campaign fund of DONALD L. HOLLOWELL who was running for Judge of the Superior Court, Atlanta, Georgia. ~~S~~ (U)

LEVISON advised HOOVER that in response to her request he had contributed $50. ~~S~~ (U)

ReBuairtel, 6/10/66.

Sources close to CLARENCE JONES and STANLEY LEVISON have not furnished any additional information to show that JONES, and the group of which he spoke during April, 1966, have made any progress toward the purchase of the "Amsterdam News". However, the following information furnished by NY 5496-S* on June 15, 1966, appears to concern problems which JONES is experiencing in his effort to purchase this newspaper:

On June 15, 1966, JONES was in contact with "DOUG" (undoubtedly DOUGLAS PUGH, Asso. Executive Director of Haryou-Act, an anti-poverty training program for Negro youth in NYC). DOUG indicated that he had talked to a "SAM" (LNU), who said that "this guy" (possibly C.D. POWELL, owner of the "Amsterdam News") had gone through "these changes" about selling "the paper" on one or two occasions. PUGH also indicated that "SAM" told him he did not believe it was a question of the money, but believes "this guy" is psychologically all fouled up at the moment as to whether to really release "this baby" (the newspaper) because it is the only thing he has now in life that gives him any sense of importance.

PUGH expressed his opinion that "our" only position at this point would be to bring "this guy" (possibly C.D. POWELL) in and assure him he would be "Chairman of the Board or something like that." JONES agreed with this, but PUGH added that "he" (POWELL?) was apparently resisting a call from BILL (believed to be BILL VANDEN HEUVEL, who would be putting up the money for the purchase of the paper) and that, therefore, JONES could call "him." JONES said he would be happy to do it.

PUGH continued that he also believed that if "we meet him" he (PUGH) would point out that if "he" died the next day, the paper would go into trust, which means "they" would have to sell to anyone, as an executor of the estate, at the best price. PUGH added that this would not be a Negro situation which "he" (POWELL) is interested in. JONES agreed they should put it to "him" pointedly and PUGH also agreed that JONES should also point out that they would be delighted to have "him" serve as Chairman of the Board because they need his experience and guidance.

The Bureau will be advised of any information received showing that JONES and his group have succeeded in purchasing or are about to purchase the "New York Amsterdam News".

Stanley Levison

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in April, 1964, that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA), in July, 1963. In late 1963 and early 1964, he criticized the Communist Party (CP) for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. Levison was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position on civil rights. His differences, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism. (U)

Bayard Rustin

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights". In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states.

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, page 1, column 2, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA), held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958.

Another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 19, 20, 1964, that Bayard Rustin contacted Benjamin J. Davis on those dates and sought his advise as to how he could escape from a speaking engagement to which he was committed. On the latter contact, Davis told Rustin that he was working on his request and had contacted friends who had contacts with the group to which Rustin was to speak.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 21, 1964, that as of that date, Benjamin J. Davis was National Secretary of the CPUSA. (9)(4)

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF STUDENT NON-VIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE

On June 7, 1966, a confidential source, who has furnished confidential information in the past, advised that George Meyers, Communist Party (CP) District Chairman for the Washington, D. C., Virginia and Maryland district, stated a discussion was held regarding the recent change of leadership of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee at a recent National Committee meeting of the CP. A decision was made at this meeting to wait a period of two months and thereafter, publicly attack Stokely Carmichael. Meyers described Carmichael in profane terms but did not elaborate on reasons for his dislike of Carmichael or the reasons for which Carmichael would be attacked by the CP. (U)

The indices of the Los Angeles Division contain no information identifiable with LENIER EGGLESTON.

Close liaison continues to be maintained with local authorities and sources of the Los Angeles Office for pertinent and significant developments concerning the report of possible racial violence on 7/4/66.

It should be noted that officers of the Los Angeles Police Department, concerned with racial matters, have advised that rumors continue to be received on a daily basis of pending racial violence. These officers feel that the situation in the Watts - Los Angeles area, continues to be tense but at the present time "the situation on the street" is normal for the Watts area. The police continue to remain alert for any signs of heightened racial tension and appropriate steps are thereupon taken to nullify or extinguish the situation.

[redacted] and CS LA 4703-S were advised of the potential for racial violence on or about 7/4/66, on 6/20/66 by SA JOHN S. TEMPLE. b7D

The Los Angeles Division continues to closely follow the activities of the Citizens Alert Patrol aka. and the Bureau will be advised accordingly of any developments that may take place.

INFORMATION CONCERNING

The "People's World", a West Coast Communist publication, on Saturday, June 18, 1966, page 3, columns 1 and 2, reported that concerned individuals in the White communities have initiated efforts to work outside the ghettos to forestall a "long, hot summer" and it was announced that a meeting was scheduled to be held at the First Unitarian Church, 2936 West Eighth Street, Los Angeles (see appendix), on Friday, June 17, 1966, at 8:00 P.M., to discuss "How best to improve police-community relations, specifically in regard to minority groups" and "How best to mobilize, inform and concerned support for the Negro community within our own organizations and communities." The meeting would be sponsored by representatives from the American Civil Liberties Union, Students for Democratic Society, Women for Legislative Action, Los Angeles Du Bois Clubs, and others (see appendix). It was announced that among those expected to be present at the meeting were representatives from the United Civil Rights Council and Negro Attorney Ben Wyatt of the Temporary Alliance of Local Organizations.

Source One advised he was in attendance at a meeting which was held at the First Unitarian Church on June 17, 1966, from 8:00 to 10:30 P.M. He stated the meeting was arranged by the Los Angeles Du Bois Clubs but they desired this fact be kept a ~~secret~~. The meeting was attended by approximately 48 persons, a number of whom were Negroes. Ben Wyatt, a Negro Attorney, was among those in attendance. The main speaker at the meeting was a Negro male whom the informant identified as LEN, age 30-35, height 5'7", stocky build, who was alleged to be a captain in the Civil Alert Patrol which is an organization presently operating in the Watts area of South Los Angeles for the purpose of checking on police brutality. Source One furnished the foregoing on June 20, 1966.

MAJOR URBAN AREAS
7/4/66, LOS ANGELES, CALIF.

The informant stated there was some speculation and discussion on the possibility of a Negro revolt to take place on 7/4/66, and it was brought out that such an uprising would begin with fires in the Watts area which would spread to all areas of Los Angeles wherever Negroes were living. It was indicated at the meeting that many of the Negroes were armed. The informant noted that Len also discussed the Civil Alert Patrol and a collection was taken from those in attendance for the benefit of the patrol. A donation of $10 per person was requested. The informant stated there was also discussion of the possibility of developing a Civil Alert Patrol to operate in those areas of Los Angeles which were predominantly Mexican-American and a delegation was selected to discuss the matter with the Los Angeles Police Commission.

Source Two on June 20, 1966, advised that among those in attendance at the meeting of June 17, 1966, at the First Unitarian Church, Los Angeles, was one Lennie Eggleston, a male Negro, who was a leader in the Citizens Alert Patrol. The informant stated that Eggleston commented on the fact that in the event of another riot Negroes would hit the Baldwin Hills area wherein wealthy Negroes reside. It was indicated that there is a considerable amount of resentment among the Negroes against the wealthy Negroes in the community.

The "Los Angeles Herald Examiner", a large daily-evening metropolitan Los Angeles newspaper, on June 20, 1966, published an article which disclosed that Lenier Eggleston [redacted] b6 b7C for the self styled Watts area for the Community Alert Patrol (aka.) was injured when his auto hit a power pole at Coliseum Boulevard and Chesapeake Avenue, Los Angeles, according to police reports. Police stated Eggleston refused to go with City Ambulance Attendants on Sunday, June 19, 1966, when they offered to take him to the Central Receiving Hospital. Eggleston allegedly told the police he was rushing to the scene of a "major disturbance" when he lost control of his car and it crashed into a power pole. The police reported there was no disturbance and told the press Eggleston had some $200 worth of mobile radio equipment in his car which bore the markings "Community Alert Patrol" on its sides. The paper noted that CAP is a group of South Los Angeles Negroes who contend they are on the lookout for alleged "police mal-practices" in their area.

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE FIRST UNITARIAN CHURCH OF LOS ANGELES

A source advised on May 4, 1965, that the premises of the First Unitarian Church of Los Angeles have been utilized for meetings by Communist Party members and sympathizers over a period of years. Speakers and lecturers at the church frequently espouse Communist causes or follow the Communist Party line. Communist front group literature is distributed at the church. The church is used by some Communist Party members for "mass concentration" work.

This same infiltration extends to adjuncts of the church such as the Unitarian Public Forum and the Unitarian-Universalist Fellowship for Social Justice.

STEPHEN H. FRITCHMAN has been minister of the church since 1948.

Reverend STEPHEN H. FRITCHMAN is described in the Fourth Report, Un-American Activities Committee in California, 1948, page 115, as a very active "Communist fronter" and connected with numerous "Communist front organizations and activities."

Membership in the First Unitarian Church does not, of itself, connote membership in or sympathy with the Communist Party.

W. E. B. DU BOIS CLUB
OF WEST LOS ANGELES

On April 23, 1964, a source advised that the W.E.B. Du Bois Club of West Los Angeles, was organized by RUTH GREENBAUM with the assistance of MARVIN TREIGER in February, 1964.

A second source advised on April 17, 1964, that as of April, 1964, RUTH GREENBAUM was a member of the Southern California District Communist Party (SCDCP) and that MARVIN TREIGER was chairman of the Youth Commission, SCDCP.

The first source above stated that the Du Bois Club was organized mainly to meet the needs of Marxist-Orientated students at the University of California at Los Angeles, (UCLA), but that the club eventually hoped to spread its influence into other areas in West Los Angeles.

The records of the Office of Dean of Student Activities at UCLA, reveal that in February, 1964, the Du Bois Club filed for permission to hold meetings and other special functions on the UCLA campus and that permission was granted. The chairman of the Du Bois Club was listed as RUTH GREENBAUM. In making this application, the club listed a statement of purpose which states in part, "We the members of the W.E.B. Du Bois Club of West Los Angeles, join together to help further the development of a socialist system, free from ignorance, poverty, fear and the economic power exercised by the few over the many.

"Although we view socialism as the likely solution to the ills of the present society, we do not make this an a priori commitment for any honest person to join with us in a fighting for a better America and a more rational world."

A third source advised on March 12, 1964, that at a Communist Party (CP) meeting held in Los Angeles, February, 1964, BEN DOBBS, Executive Secertary of the SCDCP, spoke on the CP youth movement and stated that the DuBois Clubs were one of two youth groups operating in the Los Angeles area, both groups were Marxist-Orientated and that members considered themselves Marxist.

OF WEST LOS ANGELES

A fourth source advised on May 25, 1965, that since its inception, the activities of the Du Bois Club have been mainly limited to participation in protests against alleged racial discrimination, participation in Marxist classes, participation in conferences which lead to the creation of the W. E. B. Clubs of America in the summer of 1964 and participation in demonstrations protesting U. S. intervention in Viet Nam. This source advised that the W. E. B. Du Bois Club of West Los Angeles is now affiliated with the W. E. B. Du Bois Clubs of America and is operating as a chapter of that organization.

WOMEN FOR LEGISLATIVE ACTION

A source advised on May 1, 1963, that the Women for Legislative Action was formed in 1952, claiming to be an independent organization dedicated to non-partisan participation in legislative and civic activities. Its position in favoring or opposing legislation usually parallels the position of the Communist Party and related groups. It also supports legislation to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities. Membership in the Women for Legislative Action does not, of itself, connote membership in or sympathy with the Communist Party.

Another source advised on May 18, 1965, that the Women for Legislative Action continues to be active in the Los Angeles area.

Clarence Jones is the General Counsel to the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, 15 East 40th Street, New York, New York.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 26, 1957, that he identified a photograph of Clarence Jones as a person whom he knew during late 1953 or early 1954 to be a member of and in a position of leadership in the Labor Youth League.(X)U

The Labor Youth League has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Harry Wachtel is the Executive Vice President of the

Communist Influence in Racial Matters;
Demonstrations Protesting the Shooting of James Meredith

Gandhi Society for Human Rights, New York, New York.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information in December, 1949, that Harry H. Wachtel, 41 Broad Street, New York, New York, was on a list of individuals carried as active members of the National Lawyers Guild. (X) (U)

On March 5, 1944, another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information which revealed that the name Harry Wachtel was on a list of names, significance not known, which was maintained at the Headquarters of the Kings County Communist Party (CP) at 26 Court Street, Brooklyn, New York. (S) (U)

Regarding Harry Wachtel's wife, Leonora, it is noted that the same confidential source furnished information on March 5, 1944, which revealed that her name and address were on a list of names of newly elected officers of the Bath Beach Club of the Kings County CP. (S) (U)

With respect to the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, it is to be noted that this organization is an adjunct of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), of which Martin Luther King, Jr., is the president, and serves to raise funds for the SCLC.

(X) A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in April, 1964, that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA), in July, 1963. In late 1963 and early 1964, he criticized the CP for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. Levison was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" (S) (U) of the CP in his position on civil rights. His differences, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism. (S)(4)

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11,18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights". In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states.

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, page 1, column 2, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA) held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 25, 1963, that during a meeting of the National Board, CP, USA, on that date, Benjamin J. Davis remarked that, "Rustin calls me constantly--openly." (S)(4)

Another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 19,20, 1964, that Bayard Rustin contacted Benjamin J. Davis on those dates and sought his advice as to how he could escape from a speaking engagement to which he was committed. On the latter contact, Davis told (S)(4)

Rustin that he was working on his request and had contacted friends who had contacts with the group to which Rustin was to speak. (S) (U)

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 21, 1964, (S) (U) that as of that date, Benjamin J. Davis was National Secretary of the CP, USA.

"The New York Times", August 24, 1964, page 27, column 4, reports that Benjamin J. Davis, National Secretary, CP, USA, died in New York City on the night of August 22, 1964.

CLARENCE JONES was in contact with DOUG (believed to be DOUGLAS PUGH, Associate Executive Director of Haryou-Act, who is involved with JONES in an attempt to purchase the "New York Amsterdam News," a Negro newspaper.) JONES noted that he had spoken with a Dr. POWELL (probably C.D. POWELL, owner of the "Amsterdam News")the previous day, indicating that he told POWELL he was calling to advise of "our continuing interest"(in buying the paper). JONES mentioned that POWELL said he was still interested in their desire to buy the paper.

JONES indicated that he did not get the chance to tell POWELL they would invite him to serve as Chairman of the Board of the corporation which would be established to run the paper. They agreed that JONES should send a note to POWELL advising him of this in view of what DOUG termed POWELL's emotional and psychological attachment to the newspaper.

PUGH mentioned he had lunch with a GEORGE FOWLER (ph) the previous day and indicated that FOWLER told him he is in the process of buying a newspaper which was not named. JONES and PUGH agreed it must be the same paper they are interested in. They agreed also that FOWLER (ph) must be part of the "VINCE ALBANO - JAVITS Combine" (which may be trying to buy the "Amsterdam News" for a Republican and/or ROCKEFELLER interests).

VINCE ALBANO is believed to be VINCENT ALBANO, the county Republican Leader in NYC and JAVITS is undoubtedly Senator JAKE JAVITS of New York.

DISTUREANCE BY NEGRO
TEEN-AGE YOUTHS, CLEVELAND,
OHIO, BEGINNING JUNE 22, 1966

On June 24, 1966, Sergeant JOHN J. UNGVARY, Bureau of Special Investigation, Cleveland Police Department, advised that over 200 police officers would be on duty that evening in the general vicinity of E. 79th Street and Superior Avenue to E. 105th Street and Superior Avenue where racial disturbances created by Negro teenage youths had occurred the two previous nights. He advised that a police command post was being set up in the area and Police Chief RICHARD WAGNER was taking personal charge of the operations.

CV T-1 advised on June 24, 1966 that the Ohio Communist Party (CP) delegation to the CP, USA National Convention which was then in session in New York City had read news items of racial disturbances in Cleveland and were considering sending ANTHONY KRCHMAREK, leader and former Chairman of the Ohio CP, back to Cleveland because of the disturbances. The source stated that he did not know what action KRCHMAREK would be expected to take in this matter. The source also advised the CP Convention was considering sending telegrams to Cleveland's police chief to protest police action in this matter.

Sergeant UNGVARY advised during the late evening of June 24, 1966, and early morning hours of June 25, 1966, that disturbances created by Negro teenage youths began again about 10:15 PM on June 24, 1966, when a total of ten "Molotov cocktails" were thrown by youths from rooftops of various buildings. These burned in the streets and caused no fires. As a result of these fire bombs and large numbers of people in the street the police department blocked off the area to traffic. Sergeant UNGVARY further stated that the police were trying to keep groups from congregating in the area and that a helicopter with a searchlight was being used to spot indications that crowds were gathering at a particular place.

CLEVELAND, OHIO, BEGINNING JUNE 22, 1966

Sergeant UNGVARY advised that sporadic incidents continued to occur until about 3 AM on June 25, 1966. He stated these disturbances were confined to the same area along Superior Avenue as set forth above with more emphasis on the area of E. 105th Street and Superior Avenue. He stated the incidents consisted primarily of rocks and bottles being thrown through windows. He advised that two men's clothing stores, Adler's and Hatlo's, both in the E. 105th and Superior vicinity, were broken into and looted. He advised that no other looting was reported.

Sergeant UNGVARY stated that a "Molotov cocktail" was thrown on the roof of Gale's Super Valu, a grocery supermarket at 8818 Superior Avenue, but no damage was done. He noted that windows had been broken at this store during the disturbance on the previous evening.

Sergeant UNGVARY advised that it was extremely difficult for the police to arrest the youths because they would create a disturbance and quickly disappear behind buildings. He stated that the police reports reflected that practically all the persons involved in these incidents were youths and there was almost no indication of adult participation.

Sergeant UNGVARY stated that it was the consensus of the police officers in the area that most of the trouble was being caused by youths who frequent the Jono "Freedom" Kenyatta (JFK) House, 8801 Superior Avenue. Sergeant UNGVARY describes the JFK House as a private community center operated by LEWIS G. ROBINSON. Further, ROBINSON publicly announced in 1964 his intention to organize a rifle club to protect civil rights demonstrators if police failed to do so. Sergeant UNGVARY advised that a Negro rifle club was known to meet at the JFK House in the spring of 1965.

On March 26, 1965, CV T-2 advised that ALBERT WARE and HARLLEL JONES were the leaders of the Negro rifle club which met at JFK House and they had indicated on a number of occasions that they were affiliated with the Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM). The source stated that most of the talk at the rifle club meetings concerned hatred for white people.

RE: DISTURBANCE BY NEGRO TEEN-AGE YOUTHS,
CLEVELAND, OHIO, BEGINNING JUNE 22, 1966

A characterization of RAM is attached.

Sergeant UNGVARY stated that police officers stationed in the immediate vicinity of the JFK House on the evening of June 24, 1966 heard HARLLEL JONES make several inflammatory remarks to the youths who had congregated there. One officer reported he believed HARLLEL JONES was the person who threw the fire bomb on the roof of Gale's Super Valu, mentioned above.

Sergeant UNGVARY stated that throughout the evening groups of youths would leave the JFK House, fan out into the area, and shortly thereafter incidents would occur. These youths would then be observed by officers returning to the JFK House.

Sergeant UNGVARY stated that during the course of the evening of June 24, 1966, LEWIS ROBINSON was at the JFK House and told news media that these disturbances "were only the beginning." He further reportedly stated that the only way the disturbances could be stopped would be for Cleveland Mayor RALPH LOCHER to walk up and the down the streets telling the people he would rectify his past mistakes in the Negro community.

CV T-3 advised on June 25, 1966 that at about 1:30 AM on that date LEWIS ROBINSON advised the youths at the JFK House that they should stay off the streets the remainder of the night and should become better organized for the night of June 25, 1966.

On June 25, 1966, Patrolman P. ALCHETO, Warrant and Suspect Unit, Cleveland Police Department, advised that three persons were arrested in connection with the above disturbances on the night of June 24-25, 1966 and these were charged with disorderly conduct.

On June 25, 1966, Patrolman J. DOSTON, Property Damage Unit, Cleveland Police Department, after reviewing police reports for the night of June 24-25, 1966, estimated property damage at about $200.00. He stated this consisted primarily of broken windows.

On June 25, 1966, ED KISSEL, a reporter for "The Plain Dealer", Cleveland daily newspaper, who was on the scene of the disturbance, estimated damages at $1,000 or less.

CV T-3 advised that he was in the area of the disturbances throughout the night and stated window breakage and other property damage was negligible.

On June 25, 1966, CV T-4 advised that it was common knowledge in the vicinity of the disturbances that the JFK House youth were the ones primarily involved. This source stated that youths in neighboring Negro areas were not generally in sympathy with the actions of the JFK youth and he knew that youths in the vicinity of East 93rd Street and Hough Avenue, a depressed area in the Negro community, had decided that if the JFK youth came into their neighborhood breaking windows, they would fight the JFK group.

An article in "The Cleveland Press," daily newspaper, issue of June 25, 1966, credited police preparedness with curbing incidents in the Superior-East 105th Street area. The article stated that there were isolated incidents of rock throwing and of firebombs being thrown but the situation was kept under control by the assignment of large numbers of officers to the area.

On the night of June 25, 1966, and early morning hours of June 26, 1966, Sergeant UNGVARY advised that the area was quieter than it had been on previous nights with occasional, isolated instances of rock throwing and broken windows being reported. One report involved the stoning of a news reporter's car in front of the JFK House, and there were two reports of rock throwing and one of window breaking. Sergeant UNGVARY stated that these occasional incidents continued until about 2:45 a.m., June 26, 1966, when the area was reported to be quiet.

On June 25, 1966, CV T-5 advised that he was at the JFK House from early evening until around 11:00 p.m., on that date and the JFK youth apparently had no plans for creating disturbances during that evening.

On June 26, 1966, Sergeant UNGVARY advised that around dawn on that date, a fire substantially destroyed Gale's Super Valu, a grocery supermarket mentioned previously in this memorandum. Damage was estimated to be $45,000.

Sergeant UNGVARY stated investigation by the fire and police departments indicated the fire was started deliberately as a paint can which had been placed inside the store was still burning when firemen arrived. He stated there was evidence of gasoline having been poured on the steps of the building and a trail of drippings led across East 89th Street, indicating the incendiary materials had been brought from that area.

Sergeant UNGVARY noted that the JFK House is located across Superior Avenue from the store. He said no evidence had been developed linking the burning with JFK Youth or with any other groups. He stated no one was injured by the fire.

Sergeant UNGVARY stated that a rumor had been circulated in the Negro community that STANLEY GALE, owner of the store, was the person who fired the shot which injured STEPHEN GRIFFIN, ten years of age, on the night of June 23, 1966.

Concerning the above, Lieutenant CARL DE LAU, in charge of Homicide Unit, Cleveland Police Department, advised on June 27, 1966, that both STANLEY GALE, owner of the store, and JOSEPH OLLICK, store manager, came to the store together on the night of June 23, 1966, after receiving reports the store had been damaged. He stated they denied shooting the youth and made available the weapon they had in their car for ballistics comparison with the pellet lodged in the victim's groin. Lieutenant DE LAU stated the doctors have not removed the pellet and therefore no comparison has been possible to date.

Lieutenant DE LAU stated that investigation has shown that there were shots fired by Negroes both before and after the time the youth was struck by the bullet and despite the large number of people in the area, the police have been unable to locate witnesses who could give a clear account of what happened. He said they have received a number of conflicting statements concerning the shooting. He advised that investigation also indicates that there was considerable ill feeling against Mr. GALE and Mr. OLLICK on the part of a number of residents in the neighborhood.

Lieutenant DE LAU stated that the shooting victim, STEPHEN GRIFFIN, is reported to be in good condition and is expected to recover.

On the evening of June 26, 1966, and early morning of June 27, 1966, Sergeant UNGVARY advised that the situation in the area of previous disturbances was normal throughout the evening with very few people on the street. He stated that the Police Department would keep a large number of officers in the vicinity throughout the night. He advised that there were no arrests or damages attributable to captioned matter during the evening.

On June 26, 1966, CV T-6 advised that FRIEDA KATZ stated that she wanted to get in touch with LEWIS ROBINSON. She stated that she was disappointed that other groups were not helping him solve the racial problems in his neighborhood and she wanted to offer him support.

The source advised that he learned that another person active in the CP in Cleveland had been in touch with ROBINSON and ROBINSON stated that there would be a meeting at the JFK House on the evening of June 27, 1966, to discuss the racial unrest in the area.

On June 9, 1966, CV T-7 advised that FRIEDA KATZ attended the Ohio CP Convention on June 4, and June 5, 1966, and was elected a delegate to the National Convention of the CP, USA.

On June 27, 1966, CV T-1 advised that the interest shown by the above persons was the result of CP instructions to become more actively involved in the civil rights movement.

On June 27, 1966, Mr. MARTIN ROSS, reporter and commentator for Cleveland TV station WJW, advised that on June 25, 1966, at a meeting between Cleveland city officials and several neighborhood groups interested in racial peace, LEWIS ROBINSON presented a list of demands which he said could result in peace in his neighborhood. The demands included a call for the immediate arrest of the persons responsible for shooting of STEPHEN GRIFFIN; a change in the attitude of police officers toward the Negro community; and the construction of a swimming pool and recreation center in the neighborhood.

Mr. ROSS stated that after the above meeting, LEWIS ROBINSON announced that a truce had been reached with city officials. He stated that Mayor RALPH S. LOCHER and other officials deny that any agreement was reached and stated that they had told ROBINSON they would take his requests under advisement.

Mr. ROSS stated that based upon his interviews in the community, he believes the disturbances were planned demonstrations on the part of the JFK House and they did not intend for them to result in wholesale rioting.

On June 27, 1966, Sergeant UNGVARY advised that the Cleveland Police Department would again set up a command post and concentration of officers in the above area on that evening. He stated no information had been received indicating the disturbances would resume.

Pertinent information concerning the above disturbances was furnished to Assistant United States Attorney BERNARD J. STUPLINSKI, Cleveland, and to Special Agent LESLIE SCHECKMAN, U.S. Army Intelligence Office, Cleveland, on June 26, 1966.

The sources referred to above and in the attached characterization have furnished reliable information in the past.

This source stated in May, 1965, there has been no formal headquarters, as such, for RAM but that headquarters have been with FREEMAN since he has played such a dominant role in the leadership of and has directed the policies and activities of the organization.

Within recent months, according to the second source, dissension within RAM has become evident and some dissatisfaction with FREEMAN's leadership has arisen. So far as is known, however, he remains the titular leader of RAM.

To date, according to the second source in May, 1965, RAM has organized units and membership in several of the larger cities in the United States east of the Mississippi River and the organization is currently active in attempting to recruit new members and expand its sphere of influence.

For information of the Bureau and St. Louis, LARRY DON VAUGHT appeared at the Little Rock Office on June 30, 1966, accompanied by his pastor, Rev. DONALD CAMPBELL, Grace Presbyterian Church. Rev. CAMPBELL advised that VAUGHT's parents had discovered W. E. B. Du Bois of America literature in LARRY VAUGHT's possession and were quite concerned over his possible involvement in this organization and accordingly Rev. CAMPBELL had convinced VAUGHT that he ought to come to the FBI Office to discuss the matter. As noted in the enclosed LHM VAUGHT did admit that he is a member of the local chapter of W.E.B. Du Bois of America Club at Washington University, St. Louis, Missouri, but would not discuss his participation in this or any other organization nor did he desire to furnish descriptive data concerning himself. It is believed that he came to the office at the request of his parents and Rev. CAMPBELL and was not really interested in discussing this matter with the FBI. No attempt was made to interrogate VAUGHT to any great degree in view of his reluctance to talk and it was not felt that he has any potential as an informant at this time.

This information is being furnished St. Louis in view of VAUGHT's admission and the fact that there is apparently a small chapter of W.E.B. Du Bois Club of America on the campus of Washington University. VAUGHT stated that he intended to return to Washington University as a student about September 1, 1966.

The Little Rock Division has not received any additional information concerning captioned organization since submission of referenced airtel.

In late 1963, and early 1964, he criticized the CP for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. LEVISON was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position in civil rights. LEVISON's differences with the CP, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism. (U)

Reference is made to Chicago letter dated 7/8/66, wherein, CG 5824-S* advised of comments made by James Jackson, National Board member, Communist Party, USA (CPUSA) during the latter part of June, 1966, concerning Stokely Carmichael, Chairman, Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee. In particular, Jackson reported that Carmichael's mentor and theoretician is Harry Haywood, the same individual who during the 1930's laid out the CP program on the Negro question which set forth the idea of the black belt. (C) (U)

Chicago is requested to recontact CG 5824-S* in an effort to determine whether or not Carmichael is personally acquainted with Haywood and, if so, the degree of such association. It is noted and set forth below that this individual has primarily resided in Mexico since 1960. (C) (U)

COMM-FBI

For the information of Chicago, Harry Haywood's true name is Haywood Hall, born 2/6/1898, at Omaha, Nebraska. He has been a member of the CPUSA since 1923 to December, 1959, when he was expelled. He is a graduate of the Lenin School in Moscow, and in 1937, he was in Spain with the International Brigade. Periodically, he has been a CP functionary at the national level. He has primarily resided in Mexico since 1960. Since February, 1966, he has resided in Detroit, Michigan. However, he has indicated a desire to return to Mexico in September of this year. In 1964, he was reported to have finished a new book entitled, "Revolution In The South," which advocates a violent solution to the Negro question and reportedly the Progressive Labor Party, then known as the Progressive Labor Movement, planned to support its publication with funds from the Chinese communists. During the latter part of June, 1966, JAMES JACKSON, a member of the National Board, Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) and the former Editor of "The Worker," was heard to comment confidentially that in his opinion the new leader of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), STOKELY CARMICHAEL, is a "racketeer who wears $200 suits while in New York but wears blue jeans for his Southern demonstrations and talks black power down South." According to JACKSON, CARMICHAEL's mentor and theoretician is HARRY HAYWOOD, the same individual who during the 1930's laid out the CP program on the Negro question which set forth the idea of the black belt. (U)

While making his comments regarding HARRY HAYWOOD, inquiry was made as to how this individual is now existing since his rich wife divorced him. JACKSON remarked that all he has to live on now is a disability pension from World War I. (U)

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

The Miami Communist Party (CP) recently received a memorandum from the CP, USA, National Negro Commission, urging that resolutions and individual letters supporting the demands of Negro leaders in the current Negro liberation movement in the United States should be sent to the President of the United States and to Congress. The Miami CP received a memorandum dated April 20, 1966, from the CP, USA, National Negro Commission. This memorandum dealt with the necessity of selling the Draft Program of the CP, USA, to prominent Negroes and its distribution to the Negro press and slum areas, ghettos, book shops and libraries. The CP National Office requested statistics on what the Miami CP was doing in this regard.

APPENDIX

JEWISH CULTURAL CENTER (JCC)

The records of the Circuit Court, Dade County, Miami, Florida, reflect that articles of corporation were filed by the Jewish Cultural Center (JCC), and on July 13, 1949, a charter was granted it. The JCC was established as a corporation "not for profit". The general nature of the object of the JCC is to preserve and extend Jewish culture, including, without limitations, educational, theatrical, musical, scientific and literary activities.

On July 27, 1953, a source advised it is his opinion that the JCC is a local "progressive" organization not directly connected with the Communist Party, USA (CP); that the JCC was started by some local members of the CP but not, in his opinion, at the orders of the CP; and that he believes the JCC was formed in order to provide a meeting place for "progressive Jewish groups".

The source advised on January 5, 1955, that the JCC continues to act as a meeting place for "progressive Jewish groups" in the Miami area, and to rent space to any group meeting that qualification. He further advised the JCC in itself is not a communist front organization, but does permit such organizations to hold meetings at the Center.

On May 25, 1965, another source advised that the JCC is dominated by Communist Party sympathizers, and it continues to permit communist front organizations to hold meetings in the Center.

On May 10, 1965, a third source advised that MORRIS ROHINSKY, who is President of the JCC, is presently Chairman of the Miami area Communist Party.

DETAILS:

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

During a meeting of the State Board of the New Jersey COMMUNIST PARTY (CP) on May 1, 1966, IRVING POTASH mentioned that the CP could take credit for placing two members on the union board at the Ford plant in New Jersey because of their picketing for better working conditions for Negroes at the Ford plant. POTASH also mentioned that NICK KOURAMBIS supported the above policies of better working conditions for the Negro and identified his position with that of the CP.

(NK T-1, 5/2/66)

IRVING POTASH, as of April 5, 1964, was Organizer of the New Jersey CP District.

(NK T-2, 4/5/64)

IRVING POTASH was elected to the National Committee of the CP, USA.

NICK KOURAMBIS attended a meeting of the State Board of the New Jersey CP on August 2, 1964.

(NK T-1, 8/4/64)

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

No information developed.

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

On April 27, 1966, AL SUTHERLAND, Security Officer, Curtis-Wright Corporation, Wood Ridge, New Jersey, advised the Newark Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that a picket line under the leadership of the Bergen County, New Jersey, Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), was scheduled to form in front of Curtis-Wright on April 28, 1966, beginning at 3:00 P.M., for what the NAACP called a "Job Discrimination Against Negro Employees" demonstration. The matter began when forty Negro employees of Curtis-Wright told the NAACP that they were denied promotions regardless of seniority and were relegated to maintenance. Charges of discrimination resulted in an agreement between management, labor, and NAACP leaders to meet monthly to discuss the problems of Negro employees; however, the NAACP decided to demonstrate in front of the plant as scheduled because NICHOLAS KOURAMBIS, Vice President of the NAACP, stated that the company did not show good faith while the discussions were in session, and no move had been made to correct the Negro problems.

The NAACP plan called for picket lines from 3:00 P.M. to 5:00 P.M., and if the demonstration failed, another plan was being readied to ask the National Labor Relations Board to examine the contract between the company and the union and to ask the Equal Employment Opportunities Commission to examine future aeronautical contracts.

On April 28, 1966, SUTHERLAND advised a picket line of twelve adults and three children led by NICK KOURAMBIS, under the leadership of the Bergen County, New Jersey, NAACP Branch, demonstrated on April 28, 1966, in front of the main entrance of Curtis-Wright Corporation, Wood Ridge, New Jersey. The demonstrators carried placards reading, "Bergen County Chapter of NAACP - Join Now" and "Protect the Senority Rights of Negroes and Whites of Curtis-Wright by Job Training, Upgrading, Security for Negro Employees". The pickets demonstrated from 3:00 P.M. to 4:45 P.M. No violence or outward disturbances occurred.

IV. MISCELLANEOUS

A meeting of the State Board of the New Jersey CP was held in Northern New Jersey on May 1, 1966. IRVING POTASH attended this meeting. POTASH welcomed other CP members who were not members of the State Board, but who attended also. An individual who appeared to be in charge of political matters discussed various political figures in New Jersey he thought the CP could support. He also inquired of those present if any of the political candidates wished to speak to any Negro groups in the Asbury Park - Neptune, New Jersey, area. Conversation then drifted into a discussion of what those present thought about the idea of forming an independent voters' group. No decision was reached on the matter of arranging for political candidates to speak to Negro groups, nor of forming an independent voters' group.

SUBJECT: THE COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN SOCIAL CONCERNS
COCHRAN CHAPEL METHODIST CHURCH
DALLAS, TEXAS

The Commission on Christian Social Concerns, Cochran Chapel Methodist Church, Dallas, Texas, is making a study of reports of what has been called the influence or possible infiltration by Communists, of the civil rights movement, specifically, of such organizations as National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), etc. It is also concerned over "civil disobedience" and acts of violence growing out of civil rights demonstrations. The Commission is interested in developing among church members a responsible realistic attitude, based on impartial, reliable, carefully considered information.

Three speeches by FBI Director, J. EDGAR HOOVER, appear to be especially pertinent to this study:

"Faith in Freedom" - December 4, 1963
"Our Heritage of Greatness" - December 12, 1964

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION

INTERNAL SECURITY - C

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised during the latter part of June, 1966, that he had learned within the past few days that a meeting of a Club within the Illinois Communist Party (CP), had been held in Chicago in the early part of June, 1966. Representatives of the Illinois CP leadership had been present at this meeting as had Henry Winston, described by the source as a representative at the meeting of the National Office, CP, United States of America, then visiting in Chicago. (C) (U)

The source advised that it was his understanding that this meeting had been held for the purpose of briefing Winston on one of the more serious problems facing the civil rights movement in Chicago with emphasis upon the so called Freedom Movement here under the leadership of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) and the Co-Ordinating Council of Community Organizations (CCCO). CONFIDENTIAL (U)

OF RACIAL MATTERS

During the course of this meeting, the relationship between these two organizations themselves was referred to as one of the most sensitive problems facing the movement, primarily because of the composition of the CCCO. The CCCO is composed of some 35 civil rights groupings, ranging from conservative to militant activists, of necessity rendering the building of a united front and purpose extremely difficult. The SCLC itself has a full time staff, is very mobile and is able to move much faster on issues, this also creating some conflict and friction between the two organizations. The big problem, therefore, which has emerged within the movement here, is the building of unity within the movement itself, with unified positions on the most urgent issues on the part of the leading forces. (U)

Additionally, the labor movement in Chicago was referred to as not reacting to the Freedom Movement in a unified way. Many of the labor groups which are involved prefer to deal with the SCLC rather than with the CCCO, this again creating problems insofar as unity is concerned. (U)

It was agreed that the solution to the problem of unity would represent a real test of the organizational know how of "progressives" in demonstrating the ability to work in a united front with so many different philosophies and organizations and still promote a productive movement. (U)

Any activity or proposal that would tend to strain such a united front should be discarded immediately. (U)

Winston agreed with this summary, indicating that he believed tremendous power existed in this group, meaning the Party and he was gratified to have been able to discuss (U) and be exposed to such an interpretation of the situation. He agreed that the paramount problem facing the civil rights movement in Chicago today was one of struggle for unity. This problem would be decisive insofar as attaining success was concerned and there was no question but that the Party's activities directed toward the Freedom Movement of the SCLC-CCCO be based upon an effort to contribute unity of purpose and strength within the civil rights movement locally. On July 16, 1966, CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT was heard to remark that while in attendance at the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) Convention in Los Angeles, he had appeared on the convention platform and spoke. He stated he had not been invited to speak at the Convention but a situation had arisen which demanded action on his part, and he followed through on it.

According to LIGHTFOOT, at one of the sessions he attended, ROY WILKINS got up and made reference to a very provocative pamphlet which was being distributed in and around the Convention by the Communist Party of the USA - Marxist-Leninist. WILKINS, in talking about this pamphlet, called it to the attention of the Convention and described it as another of the Communist Party's (CP's) ridiculous and provocative attacks against the NAACP. Upon hearing WILKINS' remarks, LIGHTFOOT stated he felt he had to refute WILKINS so he walked directly up to the speaker's platform and grabbed a microphone. He addressed the Convention and told them that the CP, USA had nothing to do with the pamphlet that WILKINS had referred to and that this pamphlet was a product of a renegade group in Los Angeles which consisted of about half a dozen people expelled from the Party and known as the Communist Party of the USA - Marxist-Leninist. LIGHTFOOT stated he categorically denied that the CP, USA had any connection with this document and any attempt to link the Party to it was a fraud. He then stated that after he had finished talking, WILKINS took the microphone and told the Convention that he knew CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT to be a CP leader and an honorable person and that if LIGHTFOOT denies the CP had any connection with this provocative pamphlet, then he would accept this statement and explanation of the matter.

(C) (U)

At this same time, it was learned that following his attendance at the NAACP Convention, CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT flew into New York City where he attended a meeting of the Secretariat, CP, USA, on July 14, 1966. This Secretariat meeting dealt with the civil rights movement and HENRY WINSTON made the main report. This report of WINSTON was an outstanding one and in LIGHTFOOT's opinion should be printed in order that the entire world know about it. WINSTON's report was a very moving one and a good explanation of how the civil rights movement can meet the needs of the people. WINSTON had shown a relationship between the civil rights struggle in this country and the war in Vietnam and had told those present that the Negroes in the streets of this country are now saying that if we are going to die, we will die here in the U.S. in our struggle and not in Vietnam. Yet, LIGHTFOOT noted the others present at this Secretariat meeting did not receive this speech as well as he did. GUS HALL for one was not too enthusiastic and JIM JACKSON only commented that it was a good speech on tactics but the Party gets no credit for tactics. No one wanted to print this report and it was only on his, LIGHTFOOT's, insistence that a motion was made and passed that the report be printed.

CLASS. & EXT. REASON-FCIM 1-2.4 DATE OF REVIEW 7-18-89 7-30-89 Sub B,C,D,E

On July 15, 1966, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, ascertained that on that date Stanley Levison had contacted Andrew Young, Executive Director of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC). They discussed a fund-raising letter which Levison had prepared and Young described the letter as "creative fund-raising". He praised Levison's approach to contributors which was that of being members of a constituency and part of a family. Levison revealed that a suggestion had been made to run this letter, with some revisions, as an advertisement in "The New York Times".

Levison and Young agreed that another paragraph or so should be added to the letter in view of the Chicago riots. Young described the situation in Chicago as the most frustrating one he has been in. He explained that "the people we're working with are so much a part of the problem and so hostile toward the police that we have as much fight to keep them from encouraging the riots". Young continued that the attitude of some of the community organizations, who could stop the riots, is so hostile that they share in the riots vicariously. He admitted that "they're not horrified at the thought of Negroes rioting" and likened the situation, in this regard, to the one which prevailed in the Watts area of Los Angeles.

Racial Disturbances, Chicago, Illinois;
Communist Influence in Racial Matters

Levison asked Young if it was not necessary for "you" (the SCLC group in Chicago) to take a position which did not make it appear as if "you're assuming too much responsibility for putting a lid on it but that you actually throw the gauntlet to Daly. In other words, it's Daly's riot, not your riot". Levison said that if Daly wants to do nothing, he is the precipitator and that, in his opinion, "your role ought to be attacking Daly and making the attack sharp" because Daly could not afford this. Levison predicted that the Chicago riots would cause Daly to lose his position with the Negro vote and with his Negro organization.

Young took issue with Levison's appraisal of the effect of the riots on Mayor Daly. He asserted that the hostility is directed against the Chicago police and not Daly in the same way the anger in the Chicago school situation was directed against Superintendent of Schools Willis and not Daly. He said the rioters are really "wild, young kids and the intellectuals are the ones that give them support and plant ideas".

Levison suggested that a large section of the Chicago population, including part of the Negro middle class, are not unhappy about the riots and feel "they're giving them what they deserve to get". Young again disagreed and insisted that the main bloc of Negroes in Chicago did not feel that way. Young pointed out that Daly is in a very good position "even with us because we have to say that (Orlando) Wilson is a damn good Police Commissioner".

Young noted that the head of the Police Fraternal Society in Chicago has charged that Martin Luther King is the cause of the current rioting by teaching people disrespect for law and order through his advocacy of non-violence. Levison commented that "they grab a situation to cut you down with it" and insisted that responsibility be placed where it belongs. Levison contended that while the focus of the emotion might be directed against the police, it is the function of Young's group (the SCLC in Chicago) to point out that the police are only a part of the municipal apparatus and that the municipal leadership has done nothing about the grievances of the people. Levison emphasized that Young's group had to turn the riots against Mayor Daly because "they're going to turn it against you".

Levison stated that he felt the most dangerous situation "you're in" is not that people will believe that Martin Luther King is responsible for the riots but that King could have stopped them and did not. He said "you've got to place the onus in this thing on Daly for failing to do what needed to be done". He added that then "your meetings", as well as everything else, become constructive because they were demands that Daly do what needed to be done and which he did not do.

Stanley Levison

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in April, 1964, that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America, in July, 1963. In late 1963 and early 1964, he criticized the Communist Party for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. Levison was described by certain Communist Party leaders as being to the "left" of the Communist Party in his position on civil rights. His differences, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism. (U)

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

No information developed.

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

A. Demonstration, Civic Center, Denver, Colorado, April 29, 1966

The April 25, 1966, issue of the "Denver Post" reported that RUDOLPH "CORKY" GONZALES, outspoken Director of the Neighborhood Youth Corps, was fired April 24, 1966, by Denver Mayor TOM CURRIGAN. It was reported that CURRIGAN dismissed GONZALES because he insisted that any person serving the public through appointment by him must conduct himself at all times in a manner befitting the dignity required of a public employee. CURRIGAN said that the reaction of GONZALES to "critical news reports" had violated this tenet.

It was reported in the "Denver Post" on April 28, 1966, that GONZALES had secured a permit from the City of Denver to conduct a mass political rally at the Denver Civic Center from 3:30 to 7:00 P.M., Friday, April 29, 1966.

On April 29, 1966, it was observed that less than 200 people, the majority of Mexican-American descent, gathered at Civic Center at 3:30 P.M. GONZALES spoke at 4:30 P.M. He was followed by other Mexican-American speakers. Participants carried signs protesting the firing of GONZALES and protesting adverse publicity by the "Rocky Mountain News" concerning GONZALES. Speakers continued until 7:00 P.M. The rally increased to just under 600 people and these individuals, at the close of the rally, marched around City Hall. There were no incidents during the rally.

Special Agents, FBI

The "Denver Post," in its issue of April 30, 1966, in reporting on the rally, quoted GONZALES as saying, "Since our country was founded, those people who really cared for justice have demonstrated and spoke out for justice. TOM CURRIGAN doesn't own me. And he damn sure can't tell me what to do 24 hours a day - or even what to think publicly."

GONZALES demanded a change of attitudes in every agency and department in Denver pertaining to Mexican-American individuals.

Present at this rally, made up of primarily Mexican-Americans, were ROBERT TRUJILLO, LEROY STARBUCK and NELLE GARCIA of the Communist Party (CP) branch in Denver, and NORMAN HODGETT, MARY JANE HODGETT, WILLIAM PERDUE and HOWARD WALLACE of the Denver Branch, Socialist Workers Party (SWP).

LEROY STARBUCK and ROBERT TRUJILLO were passing out leaflets and selling "The Worker." TRUJILLO stated he had sold sixteen copies of "The Worker." STARBUCK passed out a leaflet entitled "Terror in the South." This leaflet showed up at the speaker's platform and the person speaking (identity unknown) at that time told the people not to read the leaflet but to take it home and burn it. ROBERT TRUJILLO wanted to take the floor at that time but decided against it and thought probably it would be better to attack the group in another manner for the "book burning." TRUJILLO stated that he was going to see GONZALES about it and insist that none of the people have the right to tell other people what to do and that the people should have the right to read and make up their own minds.

DN T-1 5/5/66

"The Worker" is an east coast communist newspaper.

A characterization of the Denver Branch, SWP, appears as an appendix hereto.

The May 7, 1966, issue of the "Denver Post" reported that the above-named individuals were fined $100.00 each by Judge GEORGE A. MANERBINO, Denver County Court, Denver, on May 6, 1966.

On May 15, 1966, there was distributed to individuals in Denver a legal-size leaflet entitled "Release from the January 6th Committee for Constitutional Rights." The release reports of the demonstration by six members of SNCC at the FBI Office in Denver on January 6, 1966. It reports on their conviction in Denver County Court and sentencing on May 6, 1966. The release reports that the defendants will appeal this conviction to a higher court, and seeks contributions for the cost of the transcript in the amount of $500.00. It reports that Dr. PHILIP PERDEW, the father of JOHN PERDEW, and a Professor at the University of Denver, would serve as a finance chairman of the newly formed January 6th Committee for Constitutional Rights. On May 24, 1966, HARRY K. NIER, Jr. was in New York City. While in New York NIER had discussions with individuals close to the national officers of SNCC, at which time NIER discussed the case in Denver. NIER is reported to have said that this matter should be discussed with STOKELY CARMICHAEL, the leader of SNCC, and NIER suggested that SNCC might use this case in Denver to get some money.

DN T-3 5/24/66

A. PLANS, STRATEGY, PARTY LINE, AND THE LIKE MADE AT NATIONAL MEETINGS INCLUDING EXPRESSIONS BY NATIONAL AND OTHER FUNCTIONARIES

On June 2, 1966, PH T-1 advised that HERBERT APTHEKER was the main speaker at the meeting of the Philadelphia Social Science Forum Committee (PSSFC) held on May 27, 1966, at the Hotel Philadelphia, Broad and Wood Streets, Philadelphia, Pa. During his speech APTHEKER stated the Communist Party was the only political organization where the Negro people felt as much at home as the white people. According to APTHEKER, the CP was waging a struggle for the freedom of the Negro people.

A characterization of the PSSFC appears in the Appendix Section of this report.

On December 13, 1959, PH T-2 advised HERBERT APTHEKER was elected to the National Committee of the CPUSA at the 17th National Convention held on December 10-13, 1959.

On July 5, 1966, PH T-3 advised that HERBERT APTHEKER was elected a member of the National Committee of the CPUSA at its 18th National Convention on June 26, 1966.

B. PLANS, STRATEGY, PARTY LINE, AND THE LIKE MADE AT DISTRICT AND LOWER LEVEL MEETINGS INCLUDING EXPRESSIONS BY LOCAL LEADERS AND RANK-AND-FILE MEMBERS

On April 8, 1966, PH T-4 advised that on the previous day at a meeting of the Club Organizers, Communist Party of Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware (CPEPD), held at 39 East Walnut Lane, Philadelphia, Pa., LOUIS KALB, District Organizer, and FRANK AYCOX, a member of the District Board, CPEPD, stated that efforts have been made to have CP members become more active in the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) and the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee. JOAN AYCOX, an active member of the CP Youth Club, stated that DEBBIE AMIS, another member of the Youth Club, was active in SNCC in Philadelphia.

According to this source, it was announced at this meeting that BAYARD RUSTIN was scheduled to speak at the Zion Baptist Church, Broad and Venango Streets, on school integration. KALB stated efforts should be made to have as many white people as possible attend this meeting.

On April 28, 1966, PH T-3 advised that at a meeting of the District Board, CPEPD, held on April 19, 1966, MELVIN (MICKEY) METELITS, a member of the Professional Club, CPEPD, gave a report on peace and stated that peace statements from Negro leaders such as JOHN LEWIS of SNCC and MARTIN LUTHER KING, Southern Christian Leadership Conference, are important changes in the peace movement.

On April 29, 1966, PH T-3 advised that at a meeting of the enlarged Executive Committee, CPEPD, held April 26, 1966, FRANK AYCOX gave a report on civil rights. The purpose of this report was to prepare a report to be given at the District Convention, scheduled to be held in June 1966. In his report AYCOX stressed the importance of the Negro people's movement to Socialism. He claimed the Party should concentrate on certain organizations like the NAACP, SNCC, and the Negro Trade Union Leadership Council. AYCOX also stated that CP members should immediately assign one person to the civil rights field and that he, himself, should visit the various clubs and have them appoint one person to work in a civil rights group.

On May 10, 1966, PH T-3 advised that at a meeting of the District Board, CPEPD, held on May 3, 1966, FRANK AYCOX stated that he had attended a meeting of the Professional Club, CPEPD, and it was agreed that two of its members would work in the civil rights field.

On June 16, 1966, PH T-3 advised the CPEPD held its District Convention on June 11 and 12, 1966, at the Sylvania Hotel, Locust and Juniper Streets, Philadelphia, Pa. LOUIS KALB, District Organizer, gave the main political report in which he stated the labor and Negro movements must be brought into the peace movement. The civil rights movement is the most important movement in the country today, and the Party must find ways and means of entering the mainstream of the struggle. The Party must urge a strong Negro-labor alliance.

KALB continued that although unemployment is high in this country, the Negro has suffered most. He also stated that skilled Negro workers must be taken into the skilled labor unions. Concerning the local division of the NAACP into branches, KALB stated the CP must support the main branch of the NAACP and oppose any efforts to divide it into branches.

COMMUNIST TACTICS

A. APPEARANCE OF BAYARD RUSTIN, APRIL 14, 1966

On April 28, 1966, PH T-6 advised that a rally for quality integrated education was held on Thursday, April 14, 1966, at the Zion Baptist Church, Broad and Venango Streets, Philadelphia, Pa. This meeting was sponsored by the Coordinating Council on School Integration, 20 South 12th Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

The featured speaker at this affair was BAYARD RUSTIN of New York City, who stated that 11 years had passed since the U. S. Supreme Court ordered the schools in this country to be integrated; however, most of the schools, particularly those in large northern cities, have remained segregated. RUSTIN stated he was in favor of bussing school children to correct racial imbalance. He further stated he had not come to Philadelphia to advise the local school authorities on how to run their schools, but he came only to plead for quality integrated education. He urged the School Board to construct a series of educational parks housing several schools on one site to produce integration and high-calibre education in a natural setting.

In the "Saturday Evening Post," issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, BAYARD RUSTIN is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights." In it, RUSTIN is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party." Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, RUSTIN gave most of his earnings to the "Party." He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states.

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily Worker," February 11, 1957, page 1, column 2, reported that BAYARD RUSTIN, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA), held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957.

The "Daily Worker" was an east coast communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958.

On September 25, 1963, PH T-7 advised that during a meeting of the National Board, CP, USA, on September 25, 1963, BENJAMIN J. DAVIS remarked that, "RUSTIN calls me constantly--openly."

On February 19 and 20, 1964, PH T-8 advised that BAYARD RUSTIN contacted BENJAMIN J. DAVIS on February 19 and 20, 1964, and sought his advice as to how he could escape from a speaking engagement to which he was committed. On the latter contact, DAVIS told RUSTIN that he was working on his request and had contacted friends who had contacts with the group to which RUSTIN was to speak.

On January 21, 1964, PH T-9 advised that as of that date BENJAMIN J. DAVIS was National Secretary, CPUSA.

"The New York Times," February 24, 1964, page 27, column 4, reports that BENJAMIN J. DAVIS, National Secretary, CPUSA, died in New York City on the night of August 22, 1964.

B. APPEARANCE OF DICK GREGORY, MAY 1, 1966

On May 2, 1966, PH T-5 advised that on May 1, 1966, members of the CPEPD were to meet at the residence of AARON LIBSON, a current member of the CPEPD, for the purpose of selling copies of "The Worker," an east coast communist publication. According to this source, only three members of the CPEPD appeared for this mobilization. These individuals took with them fifty copies of "The Worker" and traveled to Town Hall, Brown and Race Streets, Philadelphia, Pa., where comedian DICK GREGORY was speaking under the auspices of the Philadelphia Housing Council of Delaware Valley. According to this source, these CP members sold a total of 15-20 papers.

C. APPEARANCE OF MARTIN LUTHER KING, BRYN MAWR COLLEGE, MAY 29, 1966 NEGRO

On page three of the May 30, 1966 issue of the "Philadelphia Inquirer," a daily newspaper in Philadelphia, Pa., appeared an article entitled "KING Suggests Route to Peace at Bryn Mawr." This article further reflects that MARTIN LUTHER KING's Baccalaureate address at Bryn Mawr College, Bryn Mawr, Pa., on Sunday, May 29, 1966, placed heavy accent on world affairs. He stated Red China must be admitted to the United Nations. Such a move must precede negotiated settlement of the Vietnam conflict because then Communist China would be able to speak for the Vietcong. He said his visit to India last year convinced him that the U. S. would serve humanity better by putting food in the mouths of needy nations rather than military bases on their soil.

KING also claimed the American Negro is freer today than at any time in his history. Non-violence is the most important weapon for the Negro today. He encouraged the graduates to direct their energies to assisting the poor. He said the graduates are sorely needed in the outside world to help those such as he saw going hungry in India.

D. DEMONSTRATION BY BUYERS EQUAL ACCESS MOVEMENT, JUNE 4, 1966

Lieutenant GEORGE FENCL, Philadelphia Police Department, Civil Disobedience Unit, advised June 2, 1966, that he had received information that the Buyers Equal Access Movement (BEAM) was going to demonstrate against the Emlen Real Estate Company, 14 East Evergreen Street, beginning at 9 a.m., June 4, 1966, and against the J. J. Mc Ilhenney Real Estate Company, 908 Cottman Avenue, after the demonstration at the Emlen Company.

Lieutenant FENCL said the demonstration was the group's protest that the real estate offices discriminated against Negro renters and real estate buyers. He also said he believed individuals from the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), Congress of Racial Equality (CORE, and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) who were well experienced in demonstration techniques were to be participants in the demonstration. He had also received information that the demonstration would be outside of these real estate agencies and no attempt would be made by the demonstrators to engage in activity such as a sit-in.

On June 4, 1966, Lieutenant FENCL advised that the demonstration commenced at the J. J. Mc Ilhenney Real Estate Company at 9:30 a.m. on June 4, 1966, with up to 14 pickets in the line. The demonstration had lasted until 4:08 p.m. During the demonstration, Lieutenant FENCL identified among the demonstrators Reverend LAYTON P. ZIMMER, Advisor on Race Relations to the Bishop of Episcopal Diocese of Pennsylvania, DEBBIE AMIS, and JOHN BRYANT, officer of CORE.

PA.

PH T-3 on June 1, 1966, advised that DEBBIE AMIS is an active member of the CPEPD.

The demonstration at the Emlen Real Estate Company began at 11:30 a.m. where five pickets demonstrated and the demonstration ceased at 3:20 p.m.

All meetings described herein were held in Los Angeles, California, unless otherwise noted.

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

(A) COMMUNIST PARTY, USA (CP,USA)

(1) Southern California District Communist Party (SCDCP)

LA T-1 (3/22/66)

The officially elected Concentration Committee of the Moranda Smith Section (MSS), SCDCP, held a meeting on March 9, 1966 at 11111 Wilmington Avenue. WILLIAM TAYLOR, the Chairman of this committee, stated that the purpose of the meeting was to discuss ways to effectively work in the Watts area as a concentration project which had been assigned to the MSS of the Communist Party (CP) by the SCDCP.

LA T-1 (3/29/66)

As of March 29, 1966, WILLIAM TAYLOR was Vice Chairman of the SCDCP.

LA T-2 (4/5/66)

A CP meeting of the Convention Program Committee of the SCDCP was held on March 25, 1966 at 1251 South St. Andrews Place. After a brief discussion on the proposed resolutions one of those present said no resolution on the Mexican-American question had been made and went on to say that in view of the unfounded reports of friction between the Negroes and Mexican-Americans it was necessary that something be done to expose the fact that no animosity existed between these two minority groups.

LA T-3 (4/7/66)

The youth of the SCDCP met on the weekend of April 1 - 3, 1966, on a ranch fifteen miles east of San Juan Capistrana, California. This meeting consisted of four work shops, one being on civil rights. Source advised that he felt the CP was firmly convinced that the American working class Negro was becoming more and more a liability, one reason being that they were turning more toward nationalism than socialism, and secondly, were more capitalistic than any other ethnic group. Source said the Party would just as soon not waste time on the subject of civil rights but felt that unless discussions on the subject were held in the presence of Negroes, the Party would be in great danger of being labeled anti-Negro.

LA T-4 (4/22/66)

A combined meeting of club chairmen and organizational secretaries of the MSS, SCDCP, was held on April 11, 1966 at 3048 South Victoria Avenue. One of the points on the agenda was a discussion of the CP draft program and it was pointed out that the Negro question was dealt with in a hit and miss fashion and not in a constructive manner.

LA T-5 (5/3/66)

At a meeting of the 24th CD Section, SCDCP, held at 2016 Valentine Street on April 19, 1966, the educational was the Party's program for the Negro people. The Negro peoples humiliation, hate and submission to police brutality was discussed. Some of the comrades present felt that the Negro and Mexican people should unite in every cause that would bring about a better standard of living for both. Source said that time ran short for a more fruitful discussion and it was noted that the needs of the Negro people needed a more detailed and further analysis.

LA T-7 (5/25/66)

A meeting of the Pre-Convention Committee of the SCDCP was held on May 20, 1966 at the Hungarian Hall, 1251 South St. Andrews Place. The entire evening was spent in discussing the CP's draft resolution. One phase dealt with recruiting Negroes into the Party. One of those present said the reason Negroes were not in the Party or able to be recruited was because they were aware of the white chauvinism that existed within the Party. This resolution also dealt with the fact that the white people in the Party should become better educated relative to the Negro question in America.

(2) CP Youth Matters

LA T-8 (3/23/66)

A meeting of the Youth Commission, SCDCP, was held on March 22, 1966 at 849 South Citrus Avenue. During this meeting mass work being done by various people present was discussed. One stated she was doing her mass work in the Southside Citizens Defense Committee (SSCDC).

LA T-1 (4/4/66)
LA T-9 (4/1/66)
LA T-10 (4/7/66)

A meeting of the MSS, SCDCP, was held on March 28, 1966 on Third Avenue in Los Angeles. At this meeting and during a discussion of the youth in the Party, BILL TAYLOR said that a proposal would be made to have the youth work in the Negro area.

LA 100-66078

LA T-8 (4/13/66)

At a meeting of the Youth Commission, SCDCP, held at 3285 Sepulveda Boulevard, on April 12, 1966, it was announced that the youth in the CP had been given a questionnaire to fill out concerning summer work in the Watts and Mexican areas of Los Angeles and only four were willing to work.

(3) W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs

LA T-11 (3/23/66)

A meeting called by the Chairman of the Community Relations Committee of the W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs of Los Angeles was held on March 17, 1966 at 652 West 124th Street. Approximately thirty people were present, representing various Negro groups and civil rights organizations. A Black Du Bois Club was formed and ways of working in Watts and other areas were discussed.

LA T-3 (4/14/66)
LA T-12 (4/18/66)

At a regular meeting of the Youth Club, 24th CD Section, SCDCP, held on April 6, 1966, on 4th Avenue, the Chairman of the Du Bois Club's Community Organizing Committe stated that an office had been set up in the Watts area. There was some discussion as to whether only Negro comrades work on this committee.

On May 7, 1966, LEONARD DEADWYLER, a Negro, was shot and killed by Los Angeles Police Department Officer JEROLD M. BOVA, who stopped his car for speeding while DEADWYLER was taking his pregnant wife to the hospital. A coroners inquest into the shooting of DEADWYLER was held during the weekdays from May 19 through May 31, 1966, on which date the Jury returned a majority verdict of "accidential homicide" in the matter.

LA T-13 (6/3/66)

Source advised that the Los Angeles Du Bois Club (LADBC) was spearheading the organization of an Ad Hoc Committee to Protest Police Brutality as the result of the decision in the DEADWYLER case. The group planned to hold a demonstration on June 4, 1966 from 2 to 4 PM in front of the Police Administration Building, 150 North Los Angeles Street. Other groups were invited to join the LADBC in the demonstration which was not to be held under the name of the LADBC.

LA T-14 (6/4/66)

Source advised that the above planned demonstration for June 4, 1966 was held as scheduled and that an estimated thirty Caucasians participated, seven of these being members of the LADBC.

LA T-14 (6/10/66)

Source furnished the following leaflet prepared by the LADBC which was distributed at the demonstration in front of the Police Administration Building in Los Angeles on June 4, 1966:

"THE DEADWYLER CASE

"This vigil at the Central Police Station is to give notice of the beginning of a campaign to change arrest procedures of the Los Angeles Police Department. The Deadwyler incident seems to us to be only a symptom of a policy set down by the mayor of the city and enforced by the Chief of Police.

"The decision by District Attorney Evelle Younger, not to press charges against Officer Bova is no surprise to us. This is not the first such incident to occur in the minority community to be followed by the almost automatic 'excusable homicide', and we believe it is not the last. Only a few months ago a white motorist was shot and killed in a similar incident in the minority community. Last August 36 Negroes were shot down in the streets of South Los Angeles. In not one case was there evidence submitted that the person killed was armed or constituted a threat of bodily harm to anyone. Yet in every case where a police officer killed an unarmed citizen the verdict of 'justifiable homicide' was handed down.

"Not one case was taken to a jury trial or evidence submitted to cross examination; nor did the District Attorney press even the minimum charge of manslaughter.

"In each of these incidents of neglect and abuse of citizens of this city we charge Mayor Yorty with the responsibility. On the basis of the daily provocations by policemen that occur in the minority communities both before and after the Deadwyler incident we allege that Yorty is seeking to make political gains by provocating an uprising in South L.A. and thereby gain support from the white community for putting it down. He apparently believes that the solution of the turmoil in South L.A. is to invoke the greatest degree of violence, and that will give him the ticket to the state Governor's Office.

"It is a matter of public record that Yorty has stood in the way of 'war on poverty' funds allocated for South L.A. At a time when the Mc Cone Commission has stated that no less than 50 thousand jobs would be necessary to forestall a recurrence of last August, Mayor Yorty is practicing cheap political manipulation of the war on poverty board as a means of placing himself in the Governor's Office.

"The people of Watts and South L.A. are victims of a system unable to provide adequate employment of a livlehood that makes life worth living. As the cost of the war in Vietnam escalte, the poor are given less and less chance of escaping their povery. Sargent Shriver reported to Governor Brown that the rising cost of war is taking away funds for the anti-poverty program and the situation in Watts can not be alleviated. If our city is not to experience further turmoil and violence, our city government must act immediately and decisively to relieve poverty and stop police provocation in minority areas.

"We believe that policemen must be made responsible to the public, not only to their superiors. We call for no more 'justifiable homicides' in cases of shootings or innocent citizens and the setting up of civilian control of the police.

"The W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUBS."

LA 100-66078

(4) Southside Citizens Defense Committee (SSCDC)

LA T-15 (2/15/66)

On February 12, 1966, the Board of Directors of the SSCDC met at 10203½ Compton Avenue. One of those present stated that the SSCDC was the only organization of its kind and was not sold out to any political party and did not intend to. As a committee it would not take part in demonstrations, however, each individual was on his own.

LA T-12 (2/23/66)

On February 12, 1966, the SSCDC was one of the organizations who sponsored a picket line, march and rally in front of the 77th Street Police Station. A spokesman for the group told participants present that this affair was a combined effort of peace groups, civil rights groups and other interested parties to demand an end to the war in Vietnam and to demand changes in American foreign policy and basic changes in civil rights in the U.S.

LA T-15 (3/16/66)

The SSCDC held a press conference in their office, 10203½ Compton Avenue, March 16, , purpose of same to announce that the SSCDC was handling the case of two Negro men and two Negro women arrested in the early morning of March 16, 1966 by the Los Angeles Police Department. These people were allegedly beaten, three being booked on a drunk charge and the other for interfering with an arrest. The SSCDC announced they had retained attorneys FRANK and JEAN PESTANA.

LA T-16 (1/28/65)

FRANK and JEAN PESTANA were members of the Scientist's and Engineer's Club of the CP of Southern California. calif

LA T-17 (4/8/66)

On March 26, 1966, JOAN JAMES, Executive Director of the SSCDC, was the main speaker at a reception given by the special committee for the defense of PHILLIP BENTLEY BROOKS, accused of murder during the Watts riots in August, 1965. The affair was held in the offices of the SSCDC, 10203½ Compton Avenue. This reception was held to acquaint more people with the case and to raise funds for the defense. Eight members of the MSS, SCDCP, were present at this reception. Mrs. JAMES appealed to all to support the program of the SSCDC and to strongly urge all possible publicity and funds for the BROOKS case.

LA T-9 (4/29/66)

Source advised he had recently learned that the SSCDC had another case in Compton, California, concerning a Mexican beaten by two deputy sheriffs.

LA T-18 (5/11/66)
LA T-19 (5/11/66)

A meeting sponsored by the Free Press Forum (FPF) was held on April 29, 1966 at 1251 South St. Andrews Place. The speaker of the evening was from the SSCDC who spoke on the defense of PHILLIP BROOKS. The committee was quite surprised that BROOKS had been acquitted. The speaker stated that the SSCDC would continue as a permanent committee and would do everything in its power to help others who were unjustly accused by the police and would continue to help fight police brutality.

The FPF is an activity sponsored solely by the MSS, SCDCP. It is controlled and directed by the MSS, FPF Committee, which is a committee composed entirely of selected members of the MSS, SCDCP.

(B) OTHER COMMUNIST GROUPS

(1) Communist Party, USA, Marxist-Leninist (CP,USA, M-L)

LA T-23 (6/6/66)

Source furnished the following two page leaflet prepared by the Provisional Organizing Committee (POC) to Reconstitute a Marxist-Leninist CP concerning the killing of LEONARD DEADWYLER. Source did not know whether this leaflet had been distributed:

"THE LESSONS OF THE DEADWYLER CASE

"The legal offical book on the Deadwyler case is closed. The people have yet to make their judgement. At this point, the fighting workers of Watts must draw some concrete lessons from this experience.

"First of all, the meaning of the murder: The killing of Deadwyler was an extension of the killings in August and September, This murder is further proof of the fact that in Watts, the method of controlling the Negro people has passed over from reactionary Capitalist Democracy (class justice and class law) to open fascism, (rule by unrestricted terror, killings, and heatings). This murder is further proof that Watts is occupied by Government fascist troops and police. There is no law above the will of the cops and the National Guard that has been quietly convoyed in. We are under a brutal fascist military occupation with all the consequences and implications.

"Secondly: This murder further exposes the unity of the courts and the cops. Both the courts and cops are part of the State machinery. This machine has as its sole purpose the oppression of the masses. It functions solely for the benefit of the ruling class.

"Thirdly: The whole concept of democracy is being shown in its true light. Democracy has never been any more than a smoke screen to cover the inequality of peoples and classes. Now it stands throughly exposed as the political covering for murder and mass oppression.

"The Inquest had two basis purposes. 1) to confuse the whole issue, to inject a multitude of 'legal' questions to cover up the crime, to present the question of the law being above all class and national antagonisms. A purpose of the inquest was to present the state as impartial. The 'threats' of the KKK on the 'right' and the 'Black extremists' on the 'left' aided this impression. Actually it is the cops - part of the states armed forces - that do the killings and the courts - the legal arm of the state - that backs them up and sets them free. Secondly, the inquest was a savage warning to people of Watts that any cop has the right to shoot any Negro or any minority worker and the total force of the state will back him up. It must be seen that today, all the terror organizations - the KKK, the White Citizens Councils, the Minute Men etc. are simply symbols. Today, their functions are carried out by cops, supported by the courts.

"During this struggle it was again shown who are the friends of the people and who are the friends of the enemy. The state has used the tactic of building up his loyal opposition, and attempting to silence his real enemy. The authorities have gone out of their way to publicize the leaflets and statements of the Trotskyites, the revisionist so called Communist Party and the clique of police spies and provcatuers who call themselves Communists. Why have the authorities publicized their program and shown their leaflets

"on T.V.? Only because it was in the best interests of the authorities. On the one hand these traitors support the Toms with calls for peaceful demonstrations and petitions, and on the other hand they call for violence from the Negro people (in either case, nightfall finds them safely tucked away in Torrance and San Franando Valley). The authorities want the unorganized, unarmed disunited Negro workers to attack them - in that way they believe they can kill off the fighters, terrorize the community and destroy the movement.

"P.O.C. has always called for mass confrontration with the enemy. That confrontration must have the form and slogans that reflect the ideological level of the masses at any time. Today POC calls on the workers of Watts to 'Organize in order to fight.' There is no other path. Organization must be based on the reality of the whole police, legal and political apparatus of the state as the enemy.

"The ruling class and their state has declared war on Watts. It is obvious that if we are to fight back, we must have an organized disciplined political army. It is clear that individual actions, or disorganized action by small groups will only aid the enemy and provide the excuse for intensifying their fascist terror. The real fighter, the honest revolutionary today fights for the ideological conviction and organization of the masses. The real heroes today organize in order to fight to win.

"The force and scope of the Negro peoples movement is arousing and activating all the national minorities. Unable to defeat the Negro workers in Watts, the state has been forced to escalate their war against the people and have turned their guns on the Mexican American minority. The courts have attempted to impose the fascist genocidal policy of 'sterilization.' The police have utilized their fascist policy of 'felony stop'. The whole state apparatus has intensified the terror against the Mexican-Americans. The Mexican-American workers are fighting back. They are exposing their Uncle Toms and compradores. They have stopped the police from beating and illegally arresting their brothers. The 'official' sell out leadership will not be able to hold the Mexican-American workers in check.

"The objective unity of the Negro and Mexican-American minority has been a fact for over a century. The political fighting unity is a matter of immediate practical inevitability. Brothers in class, brothers in toil and exploitation, brothers in oppression and discrimination, the unity of the Mexican American, the Indian, the Puerto Rican and the Negro will lay the basis for the unity of the whole working class.

"The workers of Watts are in the front trench in the struggle of the Negro people for liberation. They are in the front trench in the international struggle of the oppressed people against fascist United States imperialism. The eyes of the world are upon us, our allies number in the billions - on with the struggle.

"Issued by the Provisional Organizing Committee to Reconstitute a Marxist Leninist Communist Party in the United States."

LA 100-66078

LA T-24 (7/1/66)

Source furnished a copy of a leaflet issued by the CP, USA, M-L, which was distributed in the Watts area. The leaflet charged "The Rise of Fascism in the U.S.", and stated the people in "Watts Fight Against Police Brutality".

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

LA T-25 (5/20/66)

The Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) sponsored picket lines protesting the killing of LEONARD DEADWYLER (previously mentioned) by an officer of the Los Angeles Police Department, on May 12 and 13, 1966. Picketing took place in front of the Police Administration Building, 150 North Los Angeles Street. Signs carried by the pickets read "protectors or thugs", "end brutality", "protect citizens from the cops" and "put an end to police murder".

In respect to SDS, it is noted that the preamble of the SDS Constitution states "Students for a Democratic Society is an association of young people on the left...; one bringing together liberals and radicals, activists and scholars, students and faculty. It feels the urgency to put forth a radical, democratic program counterposed to authoritarian movements both of communism and the domestic right".

During the 1965 National Convention of the SDS, the preamble of the constitution was ammended to eliminate "counterposed to authoritarian movements both of communist and domestic right." The SDS is opposed to present American foreign policy in Vietnam.

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations", revised, December 1, 1961, pp. 103-104 describes this committee as follows:

"A 'branch' of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born found to be under the 'actual management, direction and supervision' of Communist Party members. The Los Angeles Committee was reorganized in October, 1950, and reported that it 'shall be affiliated to the national organization known as the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born ' The American Committee and the 'various area or local committees * * * constitute * * * one organization within the meaning of the * * * statute (Internal Security Act)' under which the Subversive Activities Control Board found to be a 'Communist-front organization' and ordered it to register as such with the Attorney General."

> (Subversive Activities Control Board, Docket No. 109-53, Report and Order with respect to the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, June 27, 1960, pp. 41, 8, 12, and 51.)

"Cited as a 'regional' organization of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born and one of its 'most complex affiliates.' 'The Committee on Un-American Activities found that in early publications the local affiliates frankly identified themselves as chapters of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born' their representation of themselves as independent groups came only after enactment of the Internal Security Act which would have required them as affiliates, to register as Communist-front organizations.'

LOS ANGELES COMMITTEE FOR DEFENSE OF THE BILL OF RIGHTS, formerly known as Los Angeles Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, Los Angeles Committee for Defense of the Bill of Rights and Protection of Foreign Born

"Control of the local organizations * * * was made possible primarily by virtue of the fact that the leaders of the local group were Communist Party members and therefore, subject to the discipline of the Party * * * The local affiliates * * * were actually little more than administrative staffs, whose purpose it was to implement the program of the Communist Party in their respective areas.

"The Lamp of January, 1950, reported that the Los Angeles Committee for the Protection of Foreign Born had been established on November 29, 1949. Publicly identified Communist ROSE CHERNIN served as 'the operation head' since the time of its organization.

(Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1182 on Communist Political Subversion, August 16, 1957, pp. 86, 87, 55, 33, 54, 58, and 59; also cited in Annual Report for 1956, House Report #53, February 11, 1957, p. 5.)"

The "People's World", a West Coast communist newspaper, issue of 4/23/66, contained an account of results of the 16th Annual Conference of the Los Angeles Committee for Defense of the Bill of Rights and Protection of Foreign Born which was held 4/16/66. The accomplishments include a change of name for the organization to Los Angeles Committee for Defense of the Bill of Rights, inasmuch as Defense of the Bill of Rights is all inclusive.

A source advised on 4/25/66 that the Los Angeles Committee for Defense of the Bill of Rights, still referred to by many individuals as the Los Angeles Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, is currently active in the Los Angeles area.

SOUTHLAND JEWISH ORGANIZATION

A source advised on April 24, 1962, that the Southland Jewish Organization was founded in the early 1940's in Los Angeles as a legitimate Jewish social and fraternal group. In about 1950, it became infiltrated with Communist Party members and sympathizers who had been forced out of the American Jewish Congress. The Southland Jewish Organization is one of the organizations in which the Communist Party is constantly attempting to expand its influence and Communist Party members are encouraged to affiliate with the Southland Jewish Organization as part of their mass organizational activity. Membership in the Southland Jewish Organization does not, of itself, connote membership in the Communist Party.

Another source advised on August 21, 1962, that as of August, 1962, the Southland Jewish Organization was no longer active as an organization; however, some of the individuals formerly connected with the organization occasionally have reunions and social events together.

On May 23, 1966, SD T-1 advised that a CCSA workshop was held at Balboa Park, San Diego, on May 21, 1966, attended by approximately 100 persons including eight CP members and four persons identified by the informant as former CP members. The audience was broken up into three groups, and 23 persons chose to join the group discussing Civil Rights matters. Resolutions were formulated and presented to the workshop for consideration. It was decided that the resolutions would be printed and distributed to those attending, since they would outline a method by which the CCSA can work in the fields of Civil Rights and peace.

COORDINATING COUNCIL FOR SOCIAL ACTION

In January, 1966, a confidential source advised that organizational meetings looking to the formation of a political action group were held under the sponsorship of the San Diego Communist Party with these meetings culminating in the formation of the Coordinating Council for Social Action (CCSA). This council is composed of representatives of various peace, student and civil rights organizations in San Diego. The San Diego Communist Party reportedly hopes to keep the CCSA on a broad basis and to avoid red-baiting.

Communist Party members have taken an active part in this council since its inception and continue to do so by holding office, working on committees and managing the finances.

This source advised on May 9, 1966, that the San Diego Communist Party continues to dominate and control the CCSA through the active participation of Communist Party members.

Title: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - C

Synopsis: NWDCP held convention at Seattle, Washington, 5/28-30/66. CALVIN EVERETT HARRIS, Negro, served as member of Convention Presiding Committee, was named Chairman of Resolutions Committee on Negro Freedom Minority, was elected member of District Committee and was designated as delegate to National CP Convention in 6/66, at NYC. HARRIS made oral report on Negro resolutions. Complete text of resolutions set out. Negroes are being urged to form labor organizations, run for public office and strive for integration. The CP reportedly will study Negro ghetto conditions, analyze the anti-poverty program, greatly increase its Negro membership and influence Negro youth through YPEL and DCA. Attempts will be made to work for the Negro's advancement through PTAs and other organizations; to obtain open housing conditions; to fight for school transfer program financed with public funds; to have white and Negro exchange students; to support neighborhood meetings for white and Negro parents; and to work for agrarian land reform for the benefit of Negroes. CP proposes to aid American Indians in getting better living conditions and restoration of full treaty rights. Seattle Branch, SWP, resigned from national organization because of difference in views on Negro, Chinese and Vietnam matters. YSA at Seattle urges formation of new Marxist revolutionary socialist youth organization to end racism and other problems. CP members participated actively in Seattle school boycott 3/31-4/1/66. CALVIN HARRIS and other CP members are active in CORE and NAACP. HARRIS presented and had passed resolution at CORE meeting to keep pressure on school board by having another boycott. He suggested possibility of another Watts occurring in Seattle if schools are not fully integrated. HARRIS was one of 10 persons attending institute for 45 individuals at University of Oregon on school desegregation financed by $73,988 grant from U.S. Office of Education. -P*-

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

A. Communist Party, USA (CP)

1. Plans, Strategy, Party line and the like made at National meetings, including expressions by national and other functionaries

No information developed.

2. Plans, etc., made at District and lower level meetings, including expressions by local leaders and rank and file members.

During the period May 28 - 30, 1966, the Northwest District of the Communist Party (NWDCP) held a convention at the Washington Hall, 14th and Fir, Seattle, Washington. CALVIN EVERETT HARRIS, a Negro, served as a member of the Convention Presiding Committee, was named as Chairman of the Resolutions Committee on the Negro Freedom Minority, was elected as a member of the District Committee (DC) and was designated as a delegate to the National CP Convention to be held in June, 1966, at New York City.

SE T-1 on 6/1/66

Resolutions dealing with national meetings passed at this District Convention for presentment to the National Convention are set out hereinafter. HARRIS made an oral report to the convention concerning the resolutions on Negro matters.

SE T-2 on 6/1/66

a. Resolutions On Negro Matters.

(1) Negro Freedom Struggle and Civil Rights

Introduction to Section I

WHEREAS: Our Party as the Marxist-Leninist Party of the working class, has the responsibility to analyse and understand the class forces in motion in all struggles and further that although the Negro Freedom struggle is an all class movement, at various stages of the struggle, different class forces are in motion or in leadership.

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED: That the Party at all times be aware of what forces are in motion and their relationships to other forces, either in the ghetto and in white communities and how best to bring the working class into the struggles.

WHEREAS: The Seattle Negro freedom struggle has reached a new level with the recent campaign to end Jim Crowism in the schools. This action has given encouragement to other ghetto areas around the state, and

WHEREAS: The involvement of 4,000 parents and students in two days of organized boycott was a dramatic and powerful demonstration of what can be done when broad forces are unified in struggle, and

WHEREAS: Unity at the top leadership level, unity at the grass roots, and direct confrontation with the power structure - this combination brings success in struggle. Within this, the party played an organized and unifying role.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: Among goals for the future we recommend:

1. Exploration of the organizing of a Negro American Labor Council Chapter in Seattle, Tacoma, Tri-City, and Spokane. This is of vital importance in terms of building working class influence and leadership within the priorities during the next period.

2. Efforts to encourage the filing of Negro candidates for public office, without making it a condition for support, we should try to influence such candidates to speak out on the war in Vietnam, relating it to the civil rights issue and other domestic problems.

3. An in-depth analysis of the special features of the Seattle ghetto and the freedom struggle in the area as a whole, also a state wide study - features which distinguish our situation from freedom struggles elsewhere. We are convinced that such a study will reveal factors that both indicate fruitful directions for our practical work in the field, and will be of keen interest and value nationwide.

4. Among issues we suggest investigation and developing a party position on State wide are (1) An analysis of the anti-poverty program area by area throughout the state. (2) Thorough understanding throughout the party in King County and in the State level, the relationship of ghetto organizations, both civil rights groups and community.

5. Call on leadership in club, section, county, the State and National to place as one of the major responsibilities of the Communist Party of the U.S. To mount a determined and consistent struggle against white chauvinism and all of the manifestations in the mass movements, in the working class, and in the Party itself, as a necessary and vital implementation of the mass line of the Party, of the building of an anti-Monopoly Coalition, of the march to Socialism.

6. Call upon Party Leadership at all levels to emplement by organization classes, Conferences, and self study programs a drive to raise the ideological level of our Party in its understanding and placing of the Negro Question, the National Question, Minority Peoples in relation to the Class Question.

7. Call upon the Party in consultation with the clubs to work out specific plans for launching a determined and concrete drive to greatly increase the Negro membership of our Party in Washington State within a specified time period. We further call upon National Leadership to work out similar plans for a corporation effort to transform the composition of our Party in that respect.

6. Organizing ghetto youth into the Negro Freedom Struggle to vitalize the struggle to build the movement in our state. Implimentation of this occuring on two levels: (1) formation of DuBois Clubs, (2) youth participation be membership in established civil rights groups; also helping build YPEL in the Negro communities of Seattle and Tacoma. Involvement of white students in Negro freedom struggle. (DUBOIS & YPEL infra).

SECTION II

WHEREAS: Civil Rights is a key issue facing all white suburban communities outside the ghetto areas of Seattle, Tacoma, Spokane, and Tri-City, and

WHEREAS: The situation of apathy and ignorance on this issue breeds reaction and racism, and

WHEREAS: On the positive side, the freedom struggles have developed a growing core of forces working for civil rights within the white communities.

BE IT RESOLVED: That all party clubs outside the ghetto area find the ways and means of helping to speed this process -- within the white communities. One concrete way of doing this is for party clubs to fight for Open Housing and Open minds within the white communities, special responsibility of white Party members to combat tendencies in white communities to usurp or substitute for Negro leadership on these issues.

BE IT ALSO RESOLVED: That party leadership on a State, County, and Section level give guidance, and the clubs help local PTA's and other organizations find the ways of participation in civil rights struggles.

WHEREAS: The special oppression and exploitation to which the Negro people are subjected to pervade every aspect of life, with the main burden stemming from economic oppression. The fight for jobs, therefore, is a key part of the civil rights struggle, and

WHEREAS: The school integration struggle is a vital part of this fight, since it poses the goal of quality education on a multi-racial basis. Multi-racial education is Quality Integrated Education.

BE IT RESOLVED: That the party use its energies and resources in helping to build community pressure on the School Boards throughout the state to assume their responsibilities in developing a comprehensive plan for Multi-racial Quality Integrated Education that best meets the needs of this period and the future.

To instruct Party leadership investigation throughout the State of Impact of Industrial expansion on Housing, Jobs, Job Promotion, Education and all other matters of special relations to Negro People and other minorities with an eye to developing specific programs around these points.

This should especially apply to those areas where a ghetto is growing, or where one already exists. In these areas where there are no non-whites, the question should be asked -- WHY? Some specific points of struggle are:

(a) Fight for school transfer program - publicly financed
(b) More exchange students between white and Negro communities - as a starting point.
(c) Insist on compulsory in service training program on race relations for teachers.
(d) Support and work for neighborhood meetings between Negro and white parents where meaningful dialogue can take place.

(2) Resolution On Negro Freedom And The Land Question

Whereas, time and events have brought innumerable changes in the analysis of our Party on Land and Freedom of some years back, however, it still has some validity. There is no escape from the conclusion that freedom and prosperity for the people of the South, Negro and white, can be won only through the drastic overhauling of the present system of land ownership and aggarian relations in the region, and

Whereas, it is precisely at this point that the class struggle and the Negro Freedom struggle are joined. The new feature of this period, that did not exist in as sharp a form after World War II, is the rapid urbanization of the Negro people along with millions of white people. This shift has not changed or altered the character of the land question in the United States. The fact is, that this shift to urban centers has sharpened it.

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, That the above language be included as a special section within the national Draft Program.

(3) The Negro Question And The Party

Dear Comrades, Everywhere: Pierce County

We feel very good about the new period in history. We feel inspired and challenged by the winds of change that are sweeping across the world. We feel great confidence in the way American people are lifting their hands to this wind. We feel our Party coming to life in a new way in response to it. We sense anew how decisive a weapon is the science of the working class, Marxism-Leninism.

In this spirit we would like to ask you if now is not the time for us to take the basic precepts of this great science of ours, and to gather together with great care and thoroughness the new experiences in struggle of the Negro Freedom Movement, put the two together, and present for verification by the people a new evaluation of the Negro Question in the U.S. Could not a current application of our science make it crystal clear for masses of people to understand the special oppression of Negro Americans? Would it not help our Party to sweep aside the barriers to clarity and simplicity, for us to begin here at the real beginning point, the special oppression? Can we not show how and why this is so, and what therefore it means?

If we clear up this basic point, if we begin at the beginning, will it not lead us to understand in a new way that the struggle of a people against being oppressed as a people is the story of all National Liberation movements on all continents, our own included?

Would this not then open our eyes to see and understand how acute is the contradiction between the foreign policy of U.S. Imperialism, dedicated as it is to smashing National and Colonial Liberation Movements everywhere, and the National Liberation struggle of the Negro people as a people right within its own borders? Could we not see then how deeply the U.S. ruling class is in crisis? Would we not then understand how decisively the struggle for peace and the struggle for Negro Freedom are intertwined?

Comrades if we go back to the question of special oppression if we stay with that, then our science will tell us that oppression of people as a people is a product historically of the development of capitalism. This then would lead us to see that oppression of people as a people is a special weapon of the Capitalist ruling class with which it smashes the unity of the working class, pollutes its class consciousness and mercilessly intensifies its exploitation of the class as a whole.

Would this not then free us to speak frankly, yes sharply, to our white working class brothers and sisters of this pollution in their ranks, in their unions, in their political lives? Would it not clarify for us and for them the difference between criticism which weakens the class and the organizations of the class, and criticism which is vitally necessary to halt the cancerous growth of ruling class cells which devour the red corpuscles of working class strength, will, and unity? Would it not make the demand to organize the South and all the unorganized North and South as the No. 1 task of the trade union movement?

Would this not then begin to create the atmosphere where Negro working class consciousness could grow, could begin to feel the confidence in Negro-white working class unity, could assert it's class leadership of the Negro Liberation Movement? Would it not provide the basis, then, for the full intertwining of the Freedom struggle with the class struggle?

Comrades, bear with us a little longer. If we stay with the question of special oppression, if we bring all our science, and all the experiences of the Negro people in struggle to bear on that point, it will free us from certain ideological seesaws. Then we will be able to see self-determination, the determining of one's own destiny as a people -- not as a static political slogan measured in Madison Avenue terms of how well it sells -- but as a dialectical process going on now before our very eyes.

Then we can distinguish for ourselves and for our class (Negro and white) the difference between the petty bourgois, Nationalism of the Black Muslems and Negro business and industry sects, and the militant working class Nationalism inherent in the new movements to contest for political power in Alabama and Mississippi -- in the call for black poll watchers to come home en masse from Watts and Harlem and South Chicago to assist these contests for political power by an oppressed people in the heartland of that oppression. Comrades, it will enable us to surmise the course and contents of this process of self-determination -- to get with what we as Marxists must get with and to reject what we must reject from a working class, scientific standpoint. Finally, Comrades, to stick with the question of Special Oppression will enable us to place the struggles in the North and South in their proper perspective, to see their basic unity and to work to advance that unity as primary and necessary to the full unfolding of this National Liberation struggle, and its merging with the class struggle. If we stick with the basic question of special oppression, we will realize anew that the pollution of racism which has spread outward to engulf every aspect of National life, still has its well spring in the homeland of slavery in America, the Southern States, with their slavery tainted surviving political and social institutions.

We will see the South also as the American homeland of the Negro People from which they have been driven in huge numbers, but in which they have also stayed in huger numbers. We will see the Southern States as areas in which the Negro People once exercised political power during Reconstruction only to see that power wrested from them by force and violence by the Northern Capitalist ruling class in alliance with the politically defeated Slavocracy. We will see the rich black soil of the South -- the land -- which Negro people have been first tied to, and then driven from (as it suited the Capitalist ruling class), -- as soil, bought and paid for by Negro sweat and blood.

We will see present developments in the South as moves to re-establish political power, to reclaim the land, not as unrelated phenomena which present us with worrisome problems of evaluation, but as natural and inevitable aspects of the process of self-determination which cry out for the guidelines of Marxist-Leninist theory and the resultant tactical programming, but within the context of historical inevitability.

Comrades, we ask all of you to think about these things. We ask all of you to seriously assess if now is not the time for our Party to set the machinery in motion for a new Document on the Negro Question in the U.S. Circa -- 1966?

It would mean a massive first hand investigation amongst the Negro Freedom Fighters North and South to collect the full import of their experiences and thinking.

On the other hand, it would also mean a special assignment for Comrade APTHEKER and his co-workers in the area of history, theory and its current application.

We ask your serious consideration.

Comradely,
Communist Party of Pierce County of Washington State

(5) The American Indian Struggles Today

Tucked away in the corners of 25 states are the poorest Americans. Nearly all are being left behind in the march of the Johnson administration's "Great Society".

A statement made at the 1964 "American Indian Capitol Conference on Poverty" by an Indian youth began, "We are gathered here today to present the findings and recommendations of the poverty conditions which exist in our Indian homes. Poverty is nothing new to us. Many of us grew up in such conditions. We are joining in a concerted effort to remove the causes of poverty that destroys life among our people this condition continues to eat away at our existence.

Ex-Commissioner of Indian Affairs PHILEO NASH, early in 1966, estimated only 50,000 Indians are employed out of a total work force of 100,000. These figures are based on the Bureau's low estimate of the actual number of Indian people in the United States. Of the 1,400 Chippewa families at Tuttle Mountain, N.D., only 350 are self-supporting with 175 of these in the O.E.O.'s Title Four work experience program. Among the Devils Lake Sioux at Fort Totten, N.D., there is almost total lack of employment. Even members of the Tribal Council, with the exception of the Chairman, are on relief. Degrees of this situation exist throughout the country.

"A three - point program comprised of an all-out drive to wipe out trachoma, a blinding eye disease which is entirely preventable, there was 124% increase in 1964 over 1963; a preventative mental health project for Alaska; and increased appropriation to speed up elimination of the backlog of sorely needed sanitation facilities were urged on March 16, 1966, before a Congressional Committee, to help half a million American Indians and Alaska Natives extricate themselves" from a vicious circle of poverty and disease". Dr. CARL MUSCHENHEIM, of the Association on American Indian Affairs, made the recommendations before the Senate Sub-Committee on Appropriations in connection with President Johnson's $73,448,000 for the Division of Indian Health for fiscal 1967. He gave these statistics, "average unemployment 45% median family income $1500; average education, 5 years; average age at death, 43 years." Local figures may drop lower than these. The Minneapolis Health Department notes that "the average age for death of resident Indians in Minneapolis in 1955 was 37 years, compared with 46 years for all Indians in Minnesota that year, and 63 for Minneapolis residents.

Because of discrimination in housing and employment in town, many of the Indian people live in the Skid Roads of the cities of Washington State. They are faced with living conditions and an atmosphere in these Ghettos that contribute to demoralization and the need for escape whether momentarily or by movement between home and Ghetto.

The reality that the Indian poor can go home, to deprivation and family and friends, in a few hundred miles, when Ghetto life becomes unbearable, has kept the growth of unity and development of organization at a minimum. In the past, in the main, the strength and unity of organization has sprung from the Indian Communities, such as reservations. In these Ghettos of the Skid Roads the Indian People are among other demoralized people with diverse cultures, needs, and goals of life, and as a result they do not feel the strength of unity which is inherent in the Negro people in the Ghetto areas.

Alongside this are efforts of some tribes and business interests to develop industry where the need is, where the greatest exploitation of Indian workers can be achieved.

During the summer of 1965, Representatives of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers and of the International Ladies Garment Workers Union visited Nash, then of the Bureau of Indian Affairs, to protest the flight of non-union garment factories, such as the BVD Company, from New York to the Navajo Reservation in Arizona. This state has the greatest number of Indians, 82,000, in the United States. They asked, "What was the use of creating a job in Navajo country if it produced a job vacancy in New York?" Those plans were shelved. What is the answer to achieving unity? to the struggle for union conditions, for employment where the great need exists, to benefit the Indian people, not the power structure?

The Fisheries Rehabilitation Program inaugurated by the Quinault Tribe which is a combination of old methods and modern planning, including a fish trap which is now supplying eggs for a continuing re-stocking program on the Quinault and Moclips Rivers, perhaps is one answer to the need.

A 71 year old woodcarver of Washington State spoke in July, 1965, "Now, today, is the time for Indians to wage their own all-out fight against job discrimination that is every bit as real as that practiced against the Negro."

Put a little differently, in the Conference on Poverty in 1964, "There is a great latitude in employment depending upon the locality and available resources of the Indian groups. In some areas there is a lack of employment but not a lack of jobs due to a form of subtle discrimination whose origins are in history. Thus, it occurs that some educated Indians are barred from all but menial labor. All means must be taken to rid these areas of discriminatory practices, overt or covert."

The Inter-Tribal Council of Western Washington is developing an O.E.O. program of assistance to Western Washington Tribes.

The AIWSL, based in Seattle, is endorsing affiliation with the O.E.O. Multi-Service Center. The organization will have special employees who will serve low income Indian families in Yesler Terrace, High Point, Holly Park and White Center Heights, and also families not living in housing projects.

A number of newsletters have been founded by O.E.O. and these, along with the growing number of community action programs, are bringing greater numbers of Indians into motion, and developing greater unity.

The Indian People are using the Economic Opportunity Act as a lever for struggle to meet their needs and demands. Because of the contradictions between the War on Poverty and the War in Vietnam they can be involved in the struggle to divert funds from the war to the people's needs.

The National Indian Youth Council with local representatives and address, has a Washington State project. The American Indian Youth Activities Club, based in Seattle, held a retreat in April at which 98 Indian teen-agers and young professionals met. The theme was the "Indian Outlook".

There have been attempts to cause disunity, some successful. Thorough deep-rooted work will help counteract this, for example the let-down reflected in the Survival of American Indian Association after Gregory's visit and the lack of expected support.

There is much to be learned and experienced, yet this is a period of much more struggle than in 1960.

Among the organized efforts to deter the Indian people from struggle is Moral Rearmament, which is sponsoring youth conferences appealing to youth with the slogan "absolute moral standards". One conference at Alburquerque, New Mexico, drew 752 delegates from Suquamish of Washington State, to Soneys of Canada, to San Carlos Apaches in Southern Arizona.

A statement made by Indian Youth in 1964 explained, "A campaign against Indians is being waged now. The 'Army' is still at work to destroy Indian life. Now they are called Army Engineers. Rather than shooting Indians, it is now more fashionable to drown Indians by building dams. It is obvious that Indian reservations are prime targets for water projects. Indians now have 'dam' problems in New York, Montana, Arizona, and now we hear something about a dam up in Alaska. And 'dam' Indian land isn't worth much these days. That title 'Indian' seems to lower the value. A well known tactic to subdue people has been to cut off their food supply. Our great country still has that 1850 conquering spirit and harasses Indians to take whatever looks good. Manhatten Island was a bargain at a sale price of $24. Today such bargains are still being made with Indian tribes. Through the Indian Claims Commission, Indians are being offered as much as 37¢ per acre."

The fisheries in Washington State have focused much public attention on the Indians' problems. This is shown, in part by the reporting of "Seattle" magazine which featured the pictures of a working man leading a fish-in on its cover and in the covering story. The Muckelshoot Tribe announced a Treaty Trek of 13 miles on May 12. They ask all who wish to support them to trek from their community hall to Federal Way, King County, Justice Court, where they will deliver a copy of the Point Elliot Treaty to the judge. The Nisqually fishermen opened 1965 by flying the American flag upside down at half mast, as an international distress signal. There are fish-ins and wade-ins, the posting of "No Trespass" signs, the constant testing and bringing forth of new ways of struggle.

The fisheries agents have responded in force to the fish-ins with brutality and countless arrests of Indian fishermen and women. In all, fifteen Yakima members have been arrested for fishing on the Columbia River.

The question has not been raised, strongly enough, of the cause of depletion of our waters; the pollution by industry.

When the true history of Washington State is compiled the roll call will include Leschi, Kamiakum, Joseph, and Moses, among others. Certainly we cannot allow such material as "Facts to Help You Know Washington State", distributed by the public schools and the Department of Commerce, stand as "history" for our children to learn. This "fact" sheet includes only two sentences regarding the Indian peoples' history and contribution to our State.

"Indian wars blazed up in 1847 when the Whitmans were massacred and it was another thirty years before the last Indians were convinced a new era had begun for them and the Pacific Northwest", the second, "Governor Stevens met with the Indians all over the Pacific Northwest to sign treaties that would insure valid claim to the land taken by the settlers." Thus is disposed of thousands of years of history, hundreds of years of recent involvement of this area. For instance, the corruption of the history of the murder of Leschi remains a bitter taste in the mouth of many Indians.

Nash of the Bureau, speaking to a Sub-Committee on Constitutional Rights, in effect replied that most of this culture business is left up to the museums and the Smithsonian Institution. He stated that the Bureau focuses on contemporary problems like teaching "good English" rather than developing a native tongue. A young Makah Indian wonders, "What would happen if we asked all Americans, and indeed the rest of the world, to confine their culture to museums. To find out what we were, each of us would have to spend a considerable time pondering the walls of massive buildings gathering ourselves together."

Quoting excerpts of a letter from an Indian Youth to "Fellow Tribesmen" .. "The popular thinking is that American conformity is the only way for Indians' progress. This is a deprivation of human rights to make free choices, this makes no consideration for cultural assets or handicaps; this discourages cultural contributions; this results in a stagnant society. We do not want to let our Indian life die within a fast moving and modern world. We cannot let our culture die because it is rooted deep in this land and is life to native Americans. Neither do we want our culture to be museum relics or mysteries for anthropologists and archeologists, nor to be part-time Indians for tourists. If we are to survive in this modern world as a people we must gear Indian thinking and philosophy to modern times. If Indians of the Americas are to survive their influence must be exerted on the political powers of the American and the World."

The Taholah School started informal classes in 1965 to study the Quinault Indian language at the request of tribal members. The president to the Tribal Council explained "Quinault is a living language spoken fluently only by the older tribal members, and an important cultural heritage which should not be lost."

The "NIYC is gravely concerned about a number of drives to terminate reservations and tribal entities. 'These attempts are (also, ed) being directed by Indian persons who have alienated themselves from the Indian people or expatriated themselves from their tribes."

"The Colville Reservation in Washington (state, ed) provides the most flagrant example of this. The termination effort is being headed by the Colville Indian Association, primarily an off-reservation group based in Washington State's Seattle-Tacoma area. Their motivation of pure greed has caused them to forget the welfare of Indian people of all age levels on the reservation.

They make no consideration of former generations or generations yet unborn, but declare themselves beneficiaries to all that has been secure since time immemorial. The National Indian Youth Council believes that no one is entitled to make claim to a so-called 'rightful share of assets' and thus divide them making no provision for future generations of that which is rightfully theirs."

We are lawfully and honor bound by the special Act of Congress of February 2, 1889, from which title I quote:

> "An act to provide for the division of Dakota into two states and to enable the people of North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana, and Washington to form constitutions and state governments, and to be on an equal footing with the original states, and to make donations of public lands to such states."

Section I of the Act provides:

> "Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States > of America in Congress assembled: That the inhabitants of all that part of the area of the United States now constituting the territories of Dakota, Montana and Washington, as at present described, may become the states of North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana, and Washington, respectively, as hereinafter provided."

Section IV, second part states:

> "That the people inhabiting said proposed states do agree and declare that they forever disclaim all right to and title to the unappropriated public lands lying within the boundaries thereof, and to all lands lying within said limits owned or held by any Indian or Indian tribes; and that until the title thereto shall have been extinguished by the United States, the same shall be and remain subject to the disposition of the United States, and said Indian lands shall remain under the absolute jurisdiction and control of the congress of the United States".

For the last 100 years the Indians have suffered the erosion of their rights as guaranteed in their treaties. There have been repeated efforts by various Republicans, such as in the 83rd Congress, Sen. WATKINS of Utah, Rep. D'EWART of Montana, and Rep. MILLER of Nebraska, who attempted through legislation to take some of the land away from the Indians in the interest of the cattle, timber and mining interests.

Any administration or political party who does not defend the rights of the Indian people guaranteed in this Act irrevocably harms the Indian people and places in serious jeopardy the title to lands owned by the State of Washington. Titles which the statehood Enabling Act granted to the State on the sole and enclusive basis that those states would forever disclaim all right and title to lands occupied by Indians. It therefore follows that the right to the produce, game, and fish indigenous to these lands was granted in perpetuity to the Indians. Therefore any abergation of these rights further places the title of state owned lands in serious jeopardy.

Not only do the Indians have property rights in the lands and streams, but they have a human right to be secure in the possession and use of such property as provided in the Constitution of this State, quote:

"Article I, Section 23. No bill of attainder, ex post facto law, or laws impairing the obligations of contracts shall ever be passed."

As further provided in Article 6, Section II, of the United States Constitution:

"This constitution, and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof, and all the treaties make, or which shall be made, under the authority of the United States shall be the supreme law of the land;"

It was the clear intention of the signers of the Treaty of 1955 that the Indians signatory to it and their successors would be forever assured of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness in their accustomed place and manner.

There is no justification in law, political expediency or public morals for refusal to honor the full spirit and letter of these solemn treaties between sovereign people.

Quoting from the contemporary "History of the St. Regis Akwesasne Mohawks", "It was the Oneida and the Tuscarora Indians, both Iroquois tribes, who fed Washington's army at Valley Forge when the white settlers had refused him another grain of corn.....Washington himself wrote, "If the Indians had been our enemies instead of our friends, the war would not have ended in American Independence." The history continues, the "Torries in '76 continue to oppose freedom and the Spirit of '76 to this day. Europe is full of dictators alright, but so is America."

It has been said, in the book, "Indians and other Americans", "The unfulfilled dream of the Indians of this country is that they will be permitted at last to make the primary decisions affecting their lives and their property. Not that their decisions will be superior to those made by men possibly more skillful; but that, being their decisions, the people will be content to live with them and to change them as experience teaches the desirability of change."

An awareness of the growing struggle of the Indian people needs to be the property, and needs to be shared much more widely, by the forces for progress in this country.

EXTRA MATERIAL

Figures released by the University of Chicago are more revealing than the figures of the Bureau of Indian Affairs. Their total for 1950 is 571,825, a figure which they maintain is conservative. Of this 434,000 are "societal" Indians, that is they are Indians who associate principally with other Indians in Tribal communities. They count only those who identify as Indians. They have not counted important the numbers of Indians who identify as Indians but not as part of such communities; they have not counted many communities such as the unenrolled Mississippi Choctoaw in North Texas, Seminole in South Texas, and Catawba in Oklahoma and Arkansas. Nor have they counted fourteen groups in the southeast who are mixed Indian but think of themselves as new nationalitites and number some 10,000 people. These figures are taken from the book, "Indians and Other Americans". (An article in Political Affairs, 1961 gave the figure as 450,000 for the United States.)

"It is a pitty that so many Americans today think of the Indian as a romantic or comic figure in American history without contemporary significance."

Like the miner's canary, the Indian marks the shifts from fresh air to poison gas in our political atmosphere; and our treatment of Indians, even more than our treatment of other minorities, reflects the rise and fall in our democratic faith." (Felix S. Cohen: The Erosion of Indian Rights, 1950-53).

"The policy makers of 1887 attempted to skip over centuries of historical growth by requiring Indians to become private landowners and to acquire the European psychology of individualism. It did not work out in the expected way, yet the policy makers of today still persist."

Public accomodations
Open Housing
Police brutality
Jobs
Integration

MARION KINNEY, another member of the Section Committee, said that she was not clear on the role of the Young Political Explorer's League (YPEL). WILL PARRY, Chairman of the Committee, said the YPEL is a thoroughly integrated group of young people between 13 and 17 years of age with many assignments but that stress is now being placed by this group on the DuBois Clubs, (DCA).

With regard to some of the above mentioned organizations, the National Negro Labor Council and the Washington Pension Union (WPU), have been designated by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The YPEL is characterized in the Appendix section, as are the DCA.

KAE NORTON, another member of the Committee, said that the Central Area community is bi-racial and that day-to-day organizing is done by few people and does not involve large segments of the community; that the REESE murder should have organized more people than it did; that the Central area is slow moving on the class question; that nationally the civil rights movement has moved into class struggles; that voting rights had been won but that day-to-day struggles have not been solved; and that the class question is that of jobs, food, day-to-day living and education.

On March 17, 1966, the North Central CP Section Committee met at the home of one of the members MARION KINNEY, 210 29th Avenue, Seattle, WA. The Seattle portion of the International Day of Protest activities concerning Vietnam were discussed. CALVIN HARRIS said, after the meeting, a march would take place on March 26, 1966, beginning at Garfield High School and probably ending at the Westlake Mall in downtown Seattle. The affair was scheduled to begin at 1:00 P.M. HARRIS said a turnout of 1,000 people was expected. HARRIS said he will participate in an adult rally at the Tabernacle Church, at 11:00 A.M., on March 26, 1966. This latter rally was to be sponsored by the Congress On Racial Equality (CORE) and the purpose of the affair would concern the forthcoming Seattle school boycott scheduled for March 31 - April 1, 1966.

SE T-10 on 3/23/66

On April 21, 1966, the North Central CP Section Committee again met at MARION KINNEY's. VIVIAN GEORGE, another member of the committee, read a report sent to the meeting by CALVIN HARRIS which stated in part that CORE, NAACP and the Central Area Committee on Civil Rights was sponsoring the school integration program (in the Seattle area). He stated the school boycott was a success and involved about 4,000 students. It had an impact far beyond the Central area. There are two attitudes among participants. Some feel that the boycott program must be broadened and continued. It must involve the grass roots people. Others feel it is time to sit back and let the School Board reflect on the ramifications of a school integration struggle. The Central Area Civil Rights Committee involves people from the Shipscalers' Union, Unitarians for Social Justice, the Catholic Inter-racial Council and the Council of Churches. It has been suggested by those who want to broaden and continue the school integration program that a boycott might be held when school starts in the Fall (1966). Students would refuse to begin school when it re-opens. VIVIAN GEORGE explained that CALVIN HARRIS could not attend this section Committee meeting because he is a member of the Planning Committee for the School Integration Program in view of his connection with his membership in CORE. This Planning Committee had its meeting the same night as the CP Section Committee meeting and HARRIS elected to attend the former.

SE T-10 on 4/26/66

On May 18, 1966, a meeting of the South Central CP Section was held at Renton, Washington. LONNIE HEALY, a member of the Committee, was asked to read a pamphlet she had compiled which would also be read at the forthcoming State CP Convention. It dealt with the Indian situation in the Northwest. It touched upon many Indian tribes and the desires of the Indian people to keep their own culture and not be swallowed by the white man. She mentioned that in one of its schools the Indian language is being taught.

GEORGE RUSSELL and OIVA HALONEN, both members of this Committee, discussed the point that the Indians are very revolutionary and have the feeling they will use guns to defend what is legally and morally theirs. HALONEN mentioned he had a brother who worked closely with the Indians and he hoped to get additional information on this subject. LONNIE HEALY put great stress on the CP showing more concern for the Indians and recognizing that not only the Negro is mis-used by the white man but also the Indian.

SE T-3 on 5/19/66

On May 15, 1966, a convention of the Pierce County CP Section was held at Tacoma, Washington. Included in the business was a report by MARY SUTHERLAND, wife of MILFORD SUTHERLAND, (NWDCP Organizational Secretary), who said there had been a change in the Negro community since the open housing hearings two years ago, and now there is real unity around the Negro struggle. This unity includes some white liberals and the Negroes themselves. Even some of the Negro leaders are looking to the CP for advice. She did not identify these Negro leaders. She went on to say that after the open housing meeting became a referendum, a split came in the community. The ministerial alliance and some white liberals were against the NAACP and some of the forces in the white community, but it was not until the NAACP elections that the real split in the community came. This was one and a half years ago and the split in the Negro community still exists. She said the Party should see what it could do to build this former unity and should get many more Negro members in the Party. No set date or numbers were given. She said the Party should issue a statement on where it stood on the Negro question in Tacoma, so the whole Negro community understands exactly what the relationship of the Party is.

LEON JOHNSON, another CP member, said that the "white only" clause was still in the majority of Trade Unions and should be eliminated so Negroes could be admitted to all unions. He said jobs for Negroes should be investigated.

With regard to information developed at the club level of the CP, a meeting of the Longshore-East Madison CP Club was held March 23, 1966, at Seattle. CALVIN EVERETT HARRIS, Chairman of this club, said he had some pertinent thoughts concerning the "People's World" (PW) with regard to the proposed school boycott. HARRIS said he had talked with VIVIAN GEORGE, a member of this club, and they agreed an article should be written and published in the PW. This article would be in the nature of an evaluation of Marxist thinking of the strong points and weak points of such a boycott. HARRIS said we are the only people who can do this job. After some discussion it was agreed that HARRIS and GEORGE should go ahead and prepare an article for the PW on the school boycott.

At a meeting of the same CP Club on April 6, 1966, VIVIAN GEORGE announced CALVIN HARRIS, Chairman, and MIKE RUBICZ, another member of the club, had asked to be excused as they thought it imperative they attend a CORE meeting that same evening. Mrs. GEORGE said the purpose of the CORE meeting was to evaluate and analyze the effect of the recent school boycott.

SE T-17 on 4/22/66

On April 14, 1966, the club met again and CALVIN HARRIS reported he and MIKE RUBICZ attended several meetings with leaders of organizations which had led the school boycott. HARRIS posed the questions, "Where do we go from here on the school boycott?", and "...Would a picket line at the schools be a more effective tactic?" HARRIS said he hoped to get the club's collective thinking on this issue. Several of the members thought a picket line would help the effectiveness of any projected school boycott, but before such action should be resorted to, the Teachers' Guild should be fully informed. VIVIAN GEORGE recommended the question be brought up at the next club meeting when it was hoped more members would be present. She made the observation some of "our own people" did not back the school boycott by sending the children concerned to the Freedom Schools.

At a meeting of the same club on May 4, 1966, HARRIS read, among others, resolutions on the Indian problem and on Negro-Labor unity. A resolution was drawn up by the club committee stating the CP draft fell far short in solving the Negro question. BURT NELSON, NWDCP Chairman, criticized some of the wording of the resolution and suggested the resolution committee revise it and present it again at the next club meeting.

SE T-17 on 5/23/66

On April 24, 1966, a meeting of the King County CP Youth Club (KCYC) was held at Seattle. It was reported that a Seattle CP Summer Project is being considered. MIKE RUBICZ and CALVIN HARRIS, with others, are working to develop the project. It will be city-wide and will involve the Civil Rights issue. Participants hopefully will be found through the list of those who attended the Freedom Schools during the recent school boycott. One of those working on the committee was a principal at the same Freedom School at which HARRIS worked. PATTI RABBITT, a member of this club, said it is hoped some type of demonstration will be held on May 5-6, 1966, in connection with a proposed second school boycott. If not held then, it is hoped the demonstration will be held later in May.

SE T-10 on 4/26/66

C. P. MEMBER

On May 4, 1966, another meeting of the KCYC was held at which PATTI RABBITT reported those interested in holding Freedom Schools during the summer of 1966, included 25 persons who were once members of CORE. They left CORE at the same time about a year ago because they were dis-satisfied with it. The specifics were not recalled. These people were attempting to set up a separate organization at that time. They opened a small office and staffed it briefly. They eventually gave up. Some of these people were included in the teaching staff of the Freedom Schools. Some are from the South or have worked in the South and believe the children should be taken completely out of the Seattle Public Schools. This attitude seemed to be in the minority and members of the club expressed their disapproval.

The purpose of the Summer Project would be to make and maintain contact with high school students to participate in the school boycott. Hopefully these young people would form a youth organization in the Central Area. Organization in some way in the Central area is of prime interest in the CP locally and to a large part of the "liberal" community. No specific plans were made because it was thought that MIKE RUBICZ should be part of any meeting at which such decisions and plans are made.

SE T-10 on 5/9/66

On March 29, 1966, a meeting of the CP Downtown Club at Tacoma, was held for the purpose of making a list of names of people the Party felt should read the booklet, "New Program of the Communist Party, USA (A Draft)". The list contained all of the Negro leaders in Tacoma.

SE T-11 on 4/8/66

On February 23, 1966, a meeting of the Sno-King CP Club was held at Seattle. It was reported BURT NELSON gave the main report at a recent District Committee meeting in which he emphasized every CP member should be active in the Peace and Civil Rights movements. HEINIE HUFF listed proposals made at the recent District Committee meeting and included the following:

WASH

1. Action in support of Indians right to fish;

2. Exploration of the possibility of Negro candidates and Negro-white unity around issues.

SE T-9 on 3/21/66

On April 2, 1966, a PW Conference was held at Seattle at which THORUN ROBEL, CP member, and CALVIN HARRIS reported on the recent Seattle school boycott. HARRIS said there was very good participation in the boycott and in the Freedom Schools from many groups. ROBEL said she checked with the principal of the junior high school in her neighborhood and found he was surprised there was segregation in Renton, Washington. She requested classes in Negro History be instituted. She wrote letters commending the action of the Mayor of Renton, in helping find rooms for a colored Boeing Engineer. She also wrote to the Chamber of Commerce.

SE T-18 on 4/11/66

On May 25, 1966, a meeting of the CP Indian Affairs Committee was held at Tacoma, Washington. While awaiting arrival of late comers, those present read pamphlets concerning Northwest Indian Treaties and Reservations. A discussion was held concerning the possibility of having Indian speakers at various Indian functions. It was felt more time was needed to acquaint the Committee with the views of the Indians before asking them to speak. It was proposed the Indian culture and history be preserved, money for research be provided; museums be maintained; and the health of the Indians improved. The Indians should have representatives in Congress who are Indians and elected by Indians. There must be a way to maintain the Indian Treaties. Health, sanitation and housing should be stressed. Recognition should be made of the exploitation of the Indians and their land.

B. Socialist Workers Party (SWP)

The SWP, its estranged Seattle Branch and its youth organization, the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA), are characterized in the Appendix section.

1. Plans, Strategy, Party line and the like made at National meetings, including expressions by national and other functionaries.

No information developed.

2. Plans, etc., made at District and lower level meetings, including expressions by local leaders and rank-and-file members.

On February 20, 1966, a SWP, YSA "tendency" meeting was held at Seattle. Discussion included comments to the effect the Vietnam comflict is a racist war, which will bring about defection among Negro soldiers whose numbers in the United States Army exceed the ratio of Negro to whites in the general population. It was said something should be done about this, but no plan of action was made.

SE T-14 on 2/24/66

On April 4, 1966, a meeting of the Seattle Branch, SWP, was held at Seattle. Those present voted to resign as a group from the National SWP organization because of the differences in views on the Chinese question, the Negro question, and the Vietnam war. Details of the differences were not given.

ST-

CALL FOR A NEW REVOLUTIONARY SOCIALIST YOUTH ORGANIZATION

Young people in the United States are on the move towards political consciousness as never before in our time. The present upsurge began with the student sit-in movement in the South- protesting racial segregation and the Fascist-type regime which stands guard over it. The sit-ins inspired youth in the North to acts of solidarity with the Negro students, beginning the breakdown of conformism which had held youth of previous generations enslaved to the status-quo.

From solidarity with the Southern movement the students rapidly proceeded to find common cause with other struggles and the victims of other injustices. Cuba, China, the Congo, and now the murderous war in Vietnam have given the youth movement a rich historical experience, and large numbers of them are now able to link all their causes together in a single package of experience which says there is need for a basic change in the social order.

This experience has found expression in the development of a wide variety of Socialist trends in the various organizations emanating from the Negro liberation and anti-war movement.

It is the historic mission of these radicalized young people to turn their efforts toward the regeneration of Socialist thought in the United States- a process already begun- and the reorganization of the youth vanguard into a new revolutionary socialist youth organization.

We believe the following principles to be the minimum basis for such an organization:

1.) For Socialism in the United States

We hold that the creation of a society of production for use instead of profit is the only solution to the present crises of mankind.

a.) Against Reformism

We believe that the ills of society cannot be cured by reforming the capitalist system. This widely-held illusion must be thoroughly exposed and countered with the advocacy of a complete and basic social change.

b.) An End to Racism

We believe that the brutal racial organization of American society is irrational, against any principle of democracy and justice, and is part and parcel of the American capitalist system of exploitation. The struggle for the complete freedom of the Negro people is intimately linked with the struggle for socialism.

c.) The Role of the Working Class

Karl Marx explained that all social progress under civilization has been the result of the class struggle. This historical truth dictates that among the social classes of modern society only the working class in the final analysis will be able to lead a socialist transformation.

Today the Negroes represent the working class in struggle. But it is the historic mission of the Negro liberation movement to help and lead in the development of general class consciousness and class struggle in the working class as a whole as the social crisis of capitalism unfolds.

d.) For Independent Political Action

Just as the injustices of society cannot be solved by reforming capitalism, we recognize that the political parties of capitlism- the Democratic and Republican machines- can never be a vehicle for social progress.

A new, independent political force controlled by working people, the youth, Negroes, women and based upon the principles of revolutionary change is the urgent political requirement of the day. No support to the liberals who only provide a basis of mass support to the reactionary capitalist political machines.

2.) For World Revolution.

All solidarity with the countries of the Socialist world. Unconditional defense of the colonial revolution.

a.) End the Imperialist Wars Against the Colonial Peoples

The present war in Vietnam is an expression of the need and compulsion of American capitalism to control and rule the world and preparation for the attempted destruction of the Chinese Revolution. We call for the uncondition defense of Cuba, China and all revolutions and for the victory of the National Liberation Front in Vietnam.

b.) For Socialist Democracy

While maintaining support to all the conquests of all the revolutions we do not thereby support the anti-democratic and bureaucratic trends which have developed in some countries as a result of poverty and industrial backwardness. We stand for the democratic control by the working class of all the economic and political institutions of the revolution and socialism

c.) For Genuine Internationalism

The idea that the interests of the working class and peasantry of one or many countries may be sacrificed for the benefit of a given socialist country is foreign to genuine internationalism. This reactionary doctrine expressed in the theory of socialism in one country as developed in the USSR must be resisted and exposed.

Against special national privilege in the socialist revolution. For the support of China in the Sino -Soviet dispute.

3.) The Call

We, the undersigned, hereby call upon the young rebels in the Pacific Northwest to attend a Socialist Youth Conference to be held in Seattle on Sunday, April 24..

The object of the conference shall be to establish a new revolutionary socialist youth organization- independent, broad and militant, an organization with a vigorouse internal political life and at the same time one of socialist action. This organization will be a forum where young radicals can reexamine Marxism in light of the problems and needs of the present generation.

SEATTLE CIVIL RIGHTS GROUPS FEEL BOYCOTT ONLY WAY LEFT TO END SEGREGATION

The various civil rights groups in Seattle have been negotiating with the School Board and submitting suggestions for advancing school integration for many, many years. In the last few years this activity has been stepped up. A history of these recent negotiations runs as follows:

June, 1963--The NAACP submitted suggestions to the School Board for: 1) realignment of school zones, 2) application of the Princeton Plan (pairing of schools) to McGilvra, Harrison, Minor, and Summit, 3) locating new schools for maximum integration, 4) open enrollment, and 5) provide vocational and educational guidance programs where desegregation is not feasible. The School Board responded that nothing was planned beyond the limited transfer program.

July, 1964--Dr. Earl Miller, NAACP Education Chairman, in a letter to the board, repeated the previous suggestions with modifications, more details and further ideas along the lines of educational clusters, paid transportation, and the closure of Horace Mann. The board replied by admitting the voluntary transfer program was falling short of available opportunities, but felt they could not convince the taxpayers of the need for paid transportation. They reaffirmed their belief in the neighborhood school concept. In an immediate reply, Dr. Miller asked for the transfer of the optional zone from Harrison to McGilvra, questioned why Mercer Jr. High was overcrowded while Washington Jr. High was under capacity, and advised that the NAACP was planning court action to implement equality of educational opportunity.

Sept., 1964--Deputy Superintendent Fred Breit replied by turning down these suggestions and adding that the program at Washington Jr. High was "designed to meet the special needs of students enrolled."

In late 1964 the Seattle Congress of Racial Equality submitted a 23 page analysis of de facto segregation in Seattle schools and offered a detailed plan for realigning attendance zones for Junior High and High Schools. Also in 1964 the NAACP proposed to the state legislature an act providing for elimination of racial imbalance in public schools. It was not enacted.

Jan., 1965--The School Board's Citizens' Advisory Committee for Equal Educational Opportunity made some suggestions that could only be termed alternatives to a plan to integrate the schools. They turned down the earlier suggestions of the NAACP and the plan offered by CORE.

May, 1965--A joint letter from NAACP and CORE to the School Board re-emphasized that compensatory education is no substitute for integration and urged the board to study and discuss the various proposals that had been made, at least as a starting point.

May, 1965--The Seattle Urban League proposed in great detail the "Triad Plan". The School Board flatly turned it down, and denied any responsibility to be in the forefront of social change.

July, 1965--The NAACP called for increasing the School Board from 5 to 15 members and proposed that the Legislative Council be asked to facilitate enabling legislation. The reason for this request was that there are no professional educators on the board and the present 5 members act unanimously to perpetuate outmoded concepts. No action was taken on this proposal.

Aside from these highlights, both during and since this time, the various civil rights groups have been in constant communication with the School Board and the School Administration. They have submitted many suggestions drawn from extensive study and from both proposals and plans in effect in other parts of the country, made by some of the nation's leading educational thinkers.

Since the Seattle Public Schools refuse to consider the suggestions submitted, and refuse to come up with a comprehensive plan of their own for integrating the schools, Seattle civil rights groups feel compelled to call for a school boycott to impress on school officials the ever increasing seriousness of the problem.

HALLIE DONALDSON volunteered to teach for two days at one of the Freedom Schools during the school boycott.

HALLIE DONALDSON was reported in April, 1966, as being a CP member according to SE T-9.

On April 24, 1966, a "People's World" reception was held at Seattle. CALVIN HARRIS was present and reminded VIVIAN GEORGE she should attend the National Association for Advancement of Colored People membership meeting on April 25, 1966, to push for another school boycott as soon as possible and to "holler loud and clear" for such a boycott. HARRIS said he was going to Tacoma, Washington to give a talk on the results of the Seattle boycott and this talk coincided with the day of the NAACP meeting. VIVIAN GEORGE said she couldn't be present at the NAACP meeting either because she was a member of the 37th District Democratic Rules Committee and had to be present at the Committee meeting.

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

A. Congress of Racial Equality (CORE)

On April 28, 1966, a CORE membership meeting was held at Seattle, Washington. CALVIN HARRIS and MIKE RUBICZ (supra) were present. HARRIS read and had adopted by vote of those present, a resolution regarding "keeping pressure" on the School Board by deciding to have another school boycott in May, 1966 or in the early Fall of the next school year. He suggested the possibility of another Watts occurring in Seattle if the schools are not fully integrated.

CECILIA GENEVIEVE CORR, aka Mrs. William John Corr, was reported in April, 1966, as being a CP member according to SE T-3.

The June 20, 1966 issue of the "Corelator" published by the Seattle Chapter of CORE, contained an article captioned, "Lessons for Active Learners." It reported CALVIN HARRIS was one of four persons who had left Seattle to attend a six weeks "School Desegration Training Institute" at the University of Oregon. It was stated "the institute should provide some fine insights into the problems and progress to be seen as the United States begins, in earnest, to recognize the need to end de facto as well as de jure school segregation and to make the necessary adjustments...physically and psychologically." The article indicated experts from throughout the country would be on hand to teach and serve as lecturers.

The "Seattle Times", a daily newspaper, in its issue of July 2, 1966, reported on the same institute and stated ten Seattle residents including three staff members of Seattle public schools were among 45 individuals attending the institute, which is the first of its kind on the West Coast. It is being sponsored by the Department of Political Science of the University of Oregon and is financed by $73,988 grant from the United States Office of Education. Among those listed was CALVIN HARRIS.

B. National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP)

On March 28, 1966, a NAACP membership meeting was held at the YWCA, 2820 East Cherry, Seattle, to discuss the forthcoming school boycott. Persons present who have been identified earlier in this report as CP members were:

VIVIAN GEORGE, and CECILIA CORR.

On April 25, 1966, a membership meeting of the NAACP was held at the YWCA. JOHN CORNETHAN, Chairman of CORE, at Seattle, was present. He accused the FBI and other Federal agencies of having tapped the CORE telephone line. He said white radicals and other whites are trying to take over CORE. Also present at this meeting was Dr. H. CLAUDE HUDSON, of Los Angeles, California, who was identified as a National NAACP Board member. He pointed out a conference was held in January, 1965, with Federal officials in Los Angeles, California, regarding racial troubles. At that time, before Watts had its trouble, he pointed out there were all the ingredients of that kind of trouble, particularly since the police department had been so brutal to Negroes since 1923. He said since the Negro had been reared in the tradition of self-defense he wondered how long they would remain non-violent. He said the press helped feed the Watts trouble. There were too many high paying jobs for persons at the top and none for the people at the bottom. He added that the glamour of civil rights work is over and that quiet work must be undertaken. CORNETHAN was asked to take a bow for uniting CORE with the NAACP on the school boycott issue. HUDSON was the only speaker present who suggested the school boycott continue in Seattle.

SE T-19 on 5/5/66

On May 25, 1966, CAL HARRIS attended a NAACP meeting and mentioned to one of the persons present the NAACP is far from the grass roots people. He said the reason for the formation of new civil rights organizations in Seattle, was because of the extremely conservative approach of the NAACP.

SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY - SEATTLE BRANCH

In May, 1941, a source advised that during the month of May, 1941, the Seattle Branch of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) was reorganized and received official recognition as a branch of the Party from the National office of the SWP in New York, New York.

The Socialist Workers Party has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On May 24, 1965, another source advised the Seattle Branch, SWP, with headquarters at 3815 Fifth Avenue Northeast, Seattle, was an affiliate of the National SWP. According to source, membership in the Seattle Branch included RICHARD FRASER, who is a member of the SWP National Committee, and his wife, CLARA FRASER, who is an alternate member of the SWP National Committee.

In April, 1966, a third source stated that the Seattle Branch, SWP, executed a statement of resignation from the National SWP, dated April 9, 1966; that they have made reference to the group as the Seattle Branch, SWP (Unaffiliated) since then; and have temporarily adopted the name Freedom Socialist Party (FSP) of Washington. This group, led by RICHARD FRASER, formerly a member of the SWP National Committee, and his wife, CLARA FRASER, Organizer of the branch, were in disagreement with the National SWP over the questions of the Negro struggle, the colonial revolution, the Vietnamese war, regroupment, woman's emancipation, and party organizational principles.

This Source advised that prior to the resignation of the Seattle Branch, SWP, TOM LEONARD and DEBBIE ROBERTS, aka DEBBIE LEONARD, were transferred by the SWP from New York to Seattle, to try to bring back some of the members to the majority line and prevent the entire branch membership from resigning. They maintain SWP headquarters at their residence at [redacted] Seattle. b6 b7C

WASHINGTON CULTURAL COOPERATIVE (WCC)
Aka Washington Cultural Co-op Association

On February 23, 1960, a source reported the Communist Party (CP), Northwest District Committee, at a meeting in January, 1960, decided to prepare for opening a cooperative bookstore and directed the CP State Board to set up a Party committee for this purpose.

The above source also reported that at a state-wide CP conference held on August 27, 1960, CP District Chairman BURT NELSON reported on the WCC. NELSON announced the committee was determined to have the bookstore opened by the earliest possible date, probably October 15, (1960). He urged support of the WCC.

A second source in February and March, 1960, advised a committee of CP members during those months commenced organization of the WCC with authorized capital of $2,000 which was to sell shares and make other plans for operation for a bookstore selling "progressive" literature at Seattle. In May and June 1960, this source reported BURT NELSON, on May 18, 1960, stated the CP District Literature Commission would concern itself with the bookstore and other types of literature to be sold. On May 31, 1960, BURT NELSON suggested October 1, 1960, as the tentative opening date of the bookstore.

A second source advised on November 2, 1960, the principal aim of the WCC is to establish a bookstore in the Seattle area inasmuch as this need has long been recognized by the Washington State CP due to difficulties encountered in maintaining a Party literature apparatus, and it is desired to have available public facilities to attract supporters and sympathizers. This source stated the WCC has obtained a location for its bookstore at 710 Stewart Street, Seattle, and operations commenced at that location on November 5, 1960.

A third source advised on May 16, 1966, the WCC held its annual meeting of shareholders at the Roosevelt Hotel, Seattle, on May 1, 1966. As a part of the business at this meeting, those present elected a new Board of Trustees. The new Board was instructed to meet at a future time at 710 Stewart Street, Seattle, the location of "Co-op Books," to elect new officers for the WCC for the coming year.

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE,
SEATTLE BRANCH

In September, 1960, a source advised that in July, 1960, the Seattle Branch of the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) was organized and received official recognition as a branch from the National office of the YSA in New York, New York.

A second source reported in November, 1960, DANNY FREEMAN, a Socialist Workers Party member from New York, recently reported to the Seattle Branch, Socialist Workers Party, he was sent to Seattle to help organize the YSA; that he would be the spokesman for the Seattle Branch, YSA; and stated the Seattle Branch, YSA, had ten members.

> The Socialist Workers Party has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On May 24, 1965, the second source stated the Seattle Branch, YSA, which is affiliated with the National YSA, continued to be active, mainly in the vicinity of the University of Washington district. According to the source, the Seattle Branch, YSA, is directed and controlled by the Seattle Branch, Socialist Workers Party. The Seattle Branch, YSA, has its headquarters on the second floor of the headquarters of the Seattle Branch, Socialist Workers Party, at 3815 Fifth Avenue Northeast, Seattle.

In April, 1966, a third source advised the Seattle Branch, SWP, executed a statement of resignation from the National SWP, dated April 9, 1966; that they have made reference to the group as the Seattle Branch, SWP (Unaffiliated) since that time; and have temporarily adopted the name Freedom Socialist Party (FSP) of Washington. This group, led by RICHARD FRASER, formerly a member of the SWP National Committee, and his wife, CLARA FRASER, Organizer of the branch, were in disagreement with the National SWP over the questions of the Negro struggle, the colonial revolution, the Vietnamese war, regroupment, woman's emancipation, and party organizational principles.

This source advised that four members of the YSA, who were also members of the Seattle Branch, SWP, signed the resignation statement; and that three members of the YSA who were not SWP members concurrently resigned from the YSA on the basis of the resignation statement.

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

A. Communist Party, USA (CP)

1. Plans, strategy, Party line and the like made at District and lower level meetings, including expressions by local leaders and rank and file members.

DE T-1 advised on May 2, 1966, that at a meeting of the Michigan District Communist Party (MDCP) Miscellaneous Club, held on April 28, 1966, at 6742 Seneca, Detroit, WILLIAM ALLAN gave a report on Party plans and its prospects. During his talk, ALLAN commented that CP involvement in civil rights, peace groups, trade unions, the War on Poverty, and in other areas have been gratifying.

DE T-2 advised on March 7, 1966, that WILLIAM ALLAN currently is a member of the Club Leadership Council, MDCP, and is the Michigan Correspondent for "The Worker".

"The Worker" is an East Coast Communist newspaper.

DE T-3 advised on April 29, 1966, that a meeting of the MDCP State Committee was held on April 27, 1966, at 2632 Glendale, Detroit. At this meeting THOMAS DENNIS spoke of a special situation which he said exists in the State of Massachusetts, where a Negro is a candidate for the U. S. Senate. He said there is already much opposition to this candidate among the whites and there is no longer a friendly attitude toward the Negroes. DENNIS said the CP will utilize this opposition for its work among the Negroes. He said the whites had set up very special high standards for Negro candidates. They demand that the Negroes be without any faults. The whites asked Negroes questions which would be insulting to their own people. This the CP will use for its own work among the Negroes, pointing out the general bad will of "Mr. CHARLIE" (the white man) and emphasizing that only the CP offers the Negro full and unqualified freedom and equality.

DE T-4 advised during June, 1966, that THOMAS DE WITT DENNIS, JR. attended the CP, USA 18th National Convention in New York, New York on June 22-26, 1966, at which he was elected to the National Committee, CP, USA.

DE T-5 advised on June 27, 1966, that DENNIS is currently chairman of the MDCP.

DE T-2 advised on May 17, 1966, that at a meeting of the MDCP Club Leadership Council held on May 16, 1966, at the Hartford Avenue Baptist Church Recreation Center, 6300 Hartford Avenue, Detroit, DENNIS, who chaired this meeting, discussed Party plans. He said it was desired that one person work in the civil rights movement.

DE T-3 advised on June 14, 1966, that on June 12, 1966, at 2632 Glendale, Detroit, the MDCP State Convention was held.

According to DE T-3, THOMAS DENNIS gave the main report at this convention and during this talk DENNIS said the CP is weak in Michigan among the Negroes. In speaking of the CP goal to increase its membership, DENNIS stated that secret chauvinism among white comrades is one obstacle. He said that this chauvinism must be routed out.

According to DE T-3, during the afternoon session of this convention, CARL WINTER spoke for about 35 minutes on CP discipline and how to combat chauvinism among the members.

DE T-6 advised on January 17, 1966, that during a meeting of the CP, USA National Committee, held in New York, New York, on January 14-17, 1966, CARL WINTER was named Editor of "The Worker".

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

No information developed.

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

A. "Freedom School" - Racial Disturbance at Northern High School, Detroit, Michigan

Detective Lieutenant GEORGE ROLLINS, Special Investigations Bureau, Detroit, Michigan Police Department, advised on April 22, 1966, that the striking students from the Northern High School in Detroit held a meeting at the St. Joseph Episcopal Church, 34 King Street, Detroit, on April 21, 1966. At this meeting a new "Freedom School" was formed. Detective ROLLINS had previously advised that beginning on April 7, 1966, at 11:30 A.M., classes at the Northern High School were dismissed to allow the student body, which consists almost entirely of Negroes, to demonstrate in protest concerning the school's administrative policies. Approximately 2500 students and parents demonstrated by marching two abreast on the sidewalks around the school. This activity was mainly in protest of alleged sub-standard education being offered the students of the Northern High School as compared with other high schools in Detroit.

On April 26, 1966, Detective Lieutenant ROLLINS advised that on this date there was an agreement reached between the students of the Northern High School and the Detroit Superintendent of Schools and all students returned to their classes at the Northern High School.

On April 29, 1966, DE T-3 advised that during a social affair held on April 23, 1966, at 19971 Mark Twain, Detoit, in honor of WILLIAM ALLAN, ALLAN remarked that HERBERT KRANSDORF and NAOMI KOMOROWSKI were not present because they were participating in a meeting at the St. Joseph's Episcopal Church regarding the Northern High School disturbances. ALLAN said a "Freedom School" was being organized and that the KOMOROWSKIs, KRANSDORF and BOLZA BAXTER were the movers and persuaders behind the scenes. ALLAN said "we" want to make the "Freedom School" affair as large as possible and "really shake them up". He said the CP has much to gain from a disturbance like this and the disturbance must be kept going as long as possible.

DE T-7 advised on June 15, 1966, that HERBERT KRANSDORF is currently the District Organizer of the MDCP.

DE T-3 advised on March 21, 1966, that CONRAD KOMOROWSKI was currently a member of the Polish-Bulgarian Club, MDCP.

DE T-5 advised on February 15, 1966, that as of that date NAOMI KOMOROWSKI was a member of the West Joy Club, MDCP.

DE T-8 advised on September 16, 1965, that BOLZA BAXTER is currently chairman of the Freedom Forum Club, MDCP.

B. "FORUM 66"

On June 29, 1966, DE T-9 advised that on June 24, 1966, a "Forum 66" meeting was held at the Central United Church of Christ, Linwood and Hogarth Streets, Detroit. According to DE T-9, the main theme of this meeting was the need for "Black Power". This source advised that among approximately 300 individuals present at this meeting were five persons who are currently members of the News and Letters Committee (NLC) of the Johnson-Forest Group (JFG).

A characterization of the NLC appears in the appendix attached hereto.

JFG has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

DE T-10 advised on June 28, 1966, that a program distributed at the meeting of the Black Arts Convention and Workshop, sponsored by "Forum 66", which, beginning on June 24, 1966, was held at the Central United Church of Christ at Detroit, gave the history of "Forum 66".

According to DE T-10 this program indicated that shortly after a small book store located in a predominantly Negro area of Detroit, was opened it was suggested by an individual long active in the Black Nationalist Movement that a bi-weekly forum be held at this book store to stimulate and educate black people to the glorious past and the promising future for the Negro if he is willing to incorporate programs of self-help and self-determination. This program goes on to state that since its beginning "Forum 66" has grown to a large group of black brothers and sisters dedicated to the active support of Black Nationalism throughout the world.

This program also states: "Forum 66 has helped in the cause of African Liberation through projects in Tanzania, Zimbawab (Southern Rhodesia) and Zambia.

"We have enhanced the cause of the black unity in Detroit through educational endeavors. We are sponsoring this Black Arts Conference in an effort to forge this unity throughout the world.

"Our theme is 'Towards a greater understanding of out heritage'. Our aims are Black Nationalism, Black Unity and self-determination."

leader in the City of St. Louis who has not been "bought out" by the "power structure" and the city administration is PERCY GREEN, Chairman of "ACTION". He asserted he will try to persuade GREEN to attempt to secure some national affiliation. He pointed out if GREEN could get the backing of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING and his organization in Chicago this would add momentum to GREEN's civil rights efforts in St. Louis. WALKER went on to comment that he, himself, plans to visit Chicago in the near future and will talk to a CP leader also active in the KING movement; that if GREEN will meet with this individual and Dr. KING he will be in a position to strengthen his movement in St. Louis.

The Missouri District CP held a State Convention at the Roosevelt Hotel, St. Louis, Missouri, June 5, 1966. The announced purpose of this convention was to elect delegates to the National CP Convention scheduled to be held in late June, 1966, to review progress of the local CP organization and discuss issues to be brought up at the National Convention. A special guest at the State Convention was JAMES E. JACKSON, Editor of "The Worker", and veteran CP functionary.

During the course of the convention RONALD I. LANDBERG, CP member and Area Coordinator for the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA), spoke of recent efforts to organize a DCA chapter on the campus of Washington University, St. Louis, Missouri and secure its recognition by the University's administration. Following LANDBERG's comments about this endeavor, JACKSON asked if there are many Negro students at Washington University and how many Negroes are active in DCA. LANDBERG replied that there are very few Negroes on the campus and none are active in the effort to establish a new branch on the campus.

LANDBERG then spoke of additional plans to establish another branch of DCA in the Negro community of St. Louis. JACKSON commented that before doing this an effort should be made to attract Negro students from other colleges around the city to join DCA. He suggested starting with Harris Teachers College where there is a large concentration of Negro students.

DCA is characterized in the attached appendix.

"The Worker" is an east coast Communist newspaper.

At the State Convention, June 5, 1966, JACKSON said it is undesirable to have any chapter of DCA with all white leadership.

(SL T-3 June 7, 1966)

During his comments at the State Convention, LANDBERG reviewed the opening of DCA Headquarters on North Grand Boulevard and North Market Street in the fall of 1965. This store-front headquarters was closed down on approximately January 1, 1966. LANDBERG said it was a mistake to open this office in a Negro neighborhood when the organization was all white.

(SL T-4 June 7, 1966)

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

A. Communist Party

On April 3, 1966, a special CP State Committee meeting was held in St. Louis, Missouri to hear JOSEPH BRANDT, Business Manager of "The Worker". Another of the speakers was ORVIL T. LEACH, veteran CP member, who reviewed some of his activities in "ACTION". He said he is Chairman of the Community Relations Committee now concerned with cases of alleged police brutality. He stated he is currently investigating a case involving the shooting of a Negro youth by a St. Louis Police officer, March 27, 1966. He further asserted that plans are being made to establish a picket line at the Page-Union District Police Station protesting alleged police brutality. He then asked for Negro volunteers from the CP to go with him and interview the victim's parents and witnesses regarding the circumstances surrounding the shooting. He said he was scheduled to report to a committee of "ACTION" that evening on the progress of his inquiry. He was not successful in securing volunteers.

"ACTION" consists of a group of individuals who have split off from the St. Louis Chapter of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) because they do not believe it is sufficiently militant.

(SL T-2 April 7, 1966)

Four members of the CP, including HERSHEL J. WALKER and ORVIL T. LEACH, attended a social activity sponsored by "ACTION", May 7, 1966. CP members made it a point to be friendly with PERCY GREEN and discussed with him alleged errors in the United States policy regarding Vietnam.

W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA
ST. LOUIS CLUB

A source has advised that a member of the Communist Party (CP) of Missouri attended a conference in Chicago, Illinois, on December 28-29, 1963, for the purpose of initiating a "call" to the new youth organization, and plan for a founding convention to be held in June, 1964. The expenses for this trip, as well as the expenses of two delegates to the founding convention of the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) held from June 19th to 21st, 1964, at 150 Golden Gate Avenue in San Francisco, California, were paid for by the CP of Missouri.

A second source has advised that the organizing of a DCA Club in St. Louis was done at the direction and financial assistance of the CP of Missouri. MIKE ZAGARELL, National CP Youth Director; MORTIMER DANIEL RUBIN, National CP Organizational Director; and CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, member of the National CP Committee, while in St. Louis have met with members of the St. Louis DCA Club to discuss its status and activities.

The second source also advised that approximately twelve young people met on March 7, 1965, in St. Louis and organized the DCA St. Louis Club. They elected officers and executed an application for a charter and membership in the National DCA. Two of the elected officers of the St. Louis Club are members of the CP of Missouri.

Since its inception, the St. Louis Club DCA has been under the complete influence, domination, and control of the Missouri CP.

A third source advised in April, 1966, that despite the concentrated efforts and an expenditure of funds by the CP of Missouri, the DCA Club in St. Louis never became effective and went out of existence on December 31, 1965.

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

No information has been developed.

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

No information has been developed.

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

JOSEPH R. DI SANTI in April, 1966, stated he had an urgent need for $400.00 or $500. After some consideration, he decided to increase his loan with the Credit Union of the Salt Lake City, Utah, Branch of the National Association For The Advancement Of Colored People (NAACP) rather than withdraw his shares in that Credit Union.

(SU T-1, 4/18/66)

JOSEPH R. DI SANTI in July, 1963, was a member of the Utah State Board of the Communist Party (CP).

(SU T-2)

In the early part of May, 1966, DI SANTI ordered five tickets to the annual banquet of the NAACP, Salt Lake City, Utah, which was to be held May 27, 1966.

(SU T-1, 5/9/66)

DI SANTI paid $25.00 for the five NAACP banquet tickets which he ordered.

(SU T-1, 5/17/66)

MARCUS PARR and JOSEPH R. DI SANTI were among those who attended the NAACP Salt Lake City annual banquet May 27, 1966.

(SU T-1, 6/2/66)

MARCUS PARR in July, 1963, was a member of the Utah State Board of the CP.

(SU T-2)

DI SANTI in the latter part of June, 1966, stated he wanted to renew his membership in the NAACP, Salt Lake City.

(SU T-1, 6/29/66)

DI SANTI on July 1, 1966, renewed his membership in the Salt Lake City Branch of the NAACP with a payment of $5.00. He made inquiries pertaining to the activities of the branch.

(SU T-1, 7/5/66)

There are now about 400 members of the Salt Lake City Branch of the NAACP. The principal interest of this branch at the present time is to bring about the acceptance of Negroes in all areas of the State of Utah for housing purposes. There have been no demonstrations by this group during the past three months and none are presently planned. The use of demonstrations in Utah by the NAACP is considered to have lost some of its effectiveness because of the demonstrations which have taken place against the war in Vietnam. The NAACP does not want to run the risk of becoming identified with anti-Vietnam demonstrations and so will carefully consider any demonstrations before this means of gaining civil rights objectives in Utah is again used. Officers of the NAACP in Salt Lake City continue to voice in their meetings the dangers of communism to the civil rights movement but appear to be cognizant of the fact that some persons engage in periodic activities with the NAACP whom they suspect of being members of the CP in Utah. No specific steps have been taken by the organization, however, to challenge members who might be suspected of being CP members.

JOHNIE M. DRIVER was the President of the NAACP, Salt Lake City, until about July 1, 1966, at which time he left Utah for Los Angeles, California, to receive additional training as an Electronics Engineer on the basis of an assignment received by him from Sperry Utah Corporation, where he is employed. Mrs. MIGNON RICHMOND, the First Vice President, automatically became the President in accordance with the rules of the organization on DRIVER's departure. Mrs. RICHMOND is well aware that communists have in the past tried to use the NAACP. It is not considered that any suspected members of the CP in Utah are in a position to exercise undue influence on the activities of the NAACP in Salt Lake City.

JOSEPH R. DI SANTI, [redacted] Utah, whose membership in the NAACP expired January 24, 1966, has now paid dues, which will result in his present membership expiring August 31, 1967. b6 b7C

At the first session of the District Convention, CPUSA, New England District, held at Boston, Mass. on 6/4/66, EDWARD TEIXEIRA mentioned the Party was interested in the campaign of EDWARD BROOKE because it has created interest throughout the country, and the eyes of the political world were centered on Massachusetts.

A meeting of the District Committee, Communist Party, USA (CPUSA), was held on March 20, 1966 at 387 Norfolk St., Dorchester (Boston), Massachusetts. Among those present at this meeting were OTIS A. HOOD, ANNE BURLAK TIMPSON, LEWIS JOHNSON and CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT.

HOOD opened the meeting with a discussion on the new program of the CPUSA. CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT reported he had met with some Negro groups in Boston.

It was brought out at this meeting that a new club had been formed in Dorchester (Boston) with many young people. It was further mentioned that this new club drafted a letter to support the candidacy of EDWARD BROOKE for United States Senator from Massachusetts. LIGHTFOOT at this point said he wanted a copy of this letter to take back with him to be discussed at a national level. LIGHTFOOT pointed out that Massachusetts is the only state in the union where there will be an opportunity to elect a Negro United States Senator.

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT is Vice Chairman and a member of the National Committee of the CPUSA, and Chairman of the Illinois CP District.

C.P. MEMBER

(BS T-2, February 15, 1965)

On April 27, 1966, a meeting of the Michigan District, CP State Board was held at 2632 Glendale, Detroit, Michigan. The chairman of the meeting was TOMMY DENNIS who gave a detailed report regarding his recent trip to New York where he attended a meeting of the CP Central Committee. According to DENNIS, GUS HALL at the latter meeting spoke on the political situation in the United States. DENNIS further reported that a special situation exists in Massachusetts where BROOKE is running for the United States Senate. BROOKE is a Negro and there is already a large opposition to his candidacy among the whites. The CP will accordingly utilize this opposition for its work among the Negroes.

(BS T-3, April 29, 1966)

BS 100-35427

GUS HALL is General Secretary of the CPUSA.

C. P. MEMBERS

(BS T-4, July 12, 1965)

On June 4, 1966, the first session of the District Convention, CPUSA, New England District, was held at the Oval Room of the Bradford Hotel, Boston, Massachusetts. Among the members of the Party who were present were OTIS HOOD, EDWARD TEIXEIRA, ARNOLD JOHNSON from New York, BEN LANDEY, LEWIS JOHNSON and ANNE BURLAK TIMPSON.

EDWARD TEIXEIRA BEN LANDEY was appointed Secretary of the Convention.

OTIS HOOD spoke briefly and introduced EDWARD TEIXEIRA to those present, mentioning that the latter was in the Party for many years and was sent in November, 1965, to a Party school to study and prepare to assume leadership in the New England area.

TEIXEIRA then spoke for an hour and during his talk mentioned that the Party was interested in the campaign of EDWARD BROOKE because it has created interest throughout the country, and the eyes of the political world were centered on Massachusetts.

TEIXEIRA mentioned that another man named ADAMS is also a candidate in Massachusetts for the United States Senate. ADAMS has shown his platform is a peace platform and he should also be supported. TEIXEIRA, however, dwelt at length on BROOKE again and said it is important that the Party do everything in its power to see that BROOKE is a successful candidate because ADAMS would be very weak in the primaries.

ARNOLD JOHNSON was next presented to the convention by OTIS HOOD and JOHNSON praised TEIXEIRA's report. JOHNSON said the entire country is watching BROOKE's campaign because the office he is seeking is the highest office any Negro ever aspired to.

(BS T-1, June, 1966)

"The Worker" an east coast communist newspaper, in its issue of September 22, 1964, on page 7, column 1, described ARNOLD JOHNSON as National Public Relations Director of the CPUSA.

EDWARD S. TEIXEIRA continued as of March 11, 1966, as a member of the National Negro Commission, CPUSA.

The second session of the District Convention, CPUSA, New England District, was held on June 5, 1966, at 88 Hawthorn St., the location of the Russian Club, Chelsea, Massachusetts. At this session, the "Main Report" which had been given by EDWARD TEIXEIRA on the previous evening was attacked by some present. BEN LANDEY said he did not go along with the political aspects of it which was the time spent on BROOKE and ADAMS. LANDEY said he thought it should be more on Party, civil rights and politics.

ANNE TIMPSON said TEIXEIRA's report had been a very good one. In commenting on the political question she said it should be agreed at this convention that the Party support ADAMS but they go to ADAMS and tell him that if he wants the support of all peace loving people of Massachusetts that he must promise in the event he is defeated (in the primaries) he will support BROOKE.

At the second session, TEIXEIRA proposed that his "Main Report" be mimeographed and distributed to all the clubs. This and the other recommendations of TEIXEIRA were adopted.

During this second session OTIS HOOD submitted the names of several people for the District Committee. These were approved by the convention and they included OTIS HOOD, EDWARD TEIXEIRA, ANNE TIMPSON and LEWIS JOHNSON.

Synopsis:

Speaker at meeting of New York State CP said CP must be able to recruit Negroes through the Negro CP comrades. Aim of Buffalo CP, Cold Spring Club, is to work in Negro community and not in peace groups. Speaker at New York State CP Convention outlined conduct to be employed on Civil Rights demonstrations.

1. COMMUNIST MATTERS

On April 18, 1966, PC T-1 advised that on April 16, 1966, that a meeting of the New York State Communist Party in the Hotel Edison on 46th Street, in Manhattan, New York, one RASHEED STOREY spoke on the Negro and Civil Rights. After reviewing recent history of the Negro in the Civil Rights Movement, beginning with the bus boycott in Montgomery, Alabama, STOREY spoke of organizations like the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) and Students Non Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) and National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), being bought off by "tokenism," but he praised MARTIN LUTHER KING for trying to keep the Civil Rights drive alive. After complaining that there have been elements working against the Communist Party recruiting Negroes and having little effect on the Negro, he stated that the Communist Party must get to the Negro again. STOREY said it was up to the Negro comrade to work for the Party in the Negro community. He said white comrades should not come into the Negro community and try to work there.

On May 10, 1966, BU T-1 advised that it had been learned that on May 8, 1966, JOHN MC KENZIE, in a discussion with TONY MASSA, stressed that the purpose of the Cold Spring Club of the Community Part, was to work in the Negro community and not to become involved in peace groups.

GLORIA MASSA, who was also present at this discussion, later expressed agreement with MC KENZIE.

As of May 10, 1966, JOHN MC KENZIE was known to BU T-1 as Chairman of the Cold Spring Club of the Erie County Communist Party.

As of May 10, 1966, TONY and GLORIA MASSA were known to BU T-1 as Communist Party members.

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

On June 14, 1966, BU T-1 advised that on June 12, 1966, during a New York State Communist Party Convention held in the Normandy Room of the Central Plaza Hotel on 2nd Avenue, Manhattan, New York City, a man named "BILL", a delegate to the convention, from Brooklyn, spoke on the Civil Rights movement. He told how the movement has become militant and described how Party people should conduct themselves in demonstrations. He said Party people should be neat and properly dressed; should not engage in fighting; and should stay in line and let the signs they carry speak for themselves.

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL ORGANIZATION

All available information has been reviewed by the Albuquerque Office and no indications were noted of any Communist influence in racial matters in the state of New Mexico during the period May 1 through July 31, 1966.

This review of information reflects that the state of New Mexico has little, if any, racial problem matters and all action taken in connection with racial matters appears to be on a legitimate basis.

Informants and sources have again been re-alerted to immediately report to the Albuquerque Office any information coming to their attention indicating Communist influence in racial movements.

The investigation by Albuquerque of captioned matter for the period May 1, 1966 through July 31, 1966, is completely negative and accordingly no report is being submitted.

In view of the negative character of Albuquerque's investigation, no local dissemination has been made pursuant to Section 87 C, page 12 c of the Manual of Instructions.

DETAILS: AT WASHINGTON, D. C.

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

A. "Free D.C." Movement

"The Worker" an East Coast Communist newspaper, April 26, 1966, Page 6, contained an article by WILLIAM ALLAN, "The Worker" representative in Detroit, Michigan. The article was captioned "A New Turn for the 'Free D.C.' Movement." The article read as follows:

"By WILLIAM ALLAN

"WASHINGTON — After years of debating, lobbying, and letter writing without results, a number of individuals and organizations formed an action group to obtain the right to vote for the citizens of this city.

"Two techniques, educational picketing and educational boycotting, are being used. This technique will be extended to major cities throughout the country to let people know that 900,000 American citizens live in Washington under a government that is not elected by them.

"Washington is administered by an appointed three-man board of commissioners.

"LEADER INTERVIEWED

"We talked to Marian Barry, Jr., director of the Free D.C. movement. Barry was preparing to enter Miss Free D.C. at the beauty contest at the Cherry Blossom Festival Ball in the swank Sheraton Park Hotel.

"Later that evening Miss Free D.C., who is Rosalyn Nixon, 22, and eight members of the Free D.C. movement were arrested when they attempted to enter the hotel's ballroom where the contest was being held. Had Miss Nixon been permitted into that contest she would have been the only Negro entry.

"About 30 pickets outside distributed leaflets supporting the one man, one vote in Washington.

"Miss Nixon was released and the eight were held for trial May 5.

"The Free D.C. movement said Barry, has distributed 200,000 leaflets.

"Thousands of leaflets were carried away by the delegates of the Citizens Crusade Against Poverty, who came from over 100 organizations in many states.

"Over 700 merchants and businessmen — Negro and white — throughout the city have signed petitions to Congress seeking Home Rule and now display the black and orange FREE D.C. stickers. You see them in stores in every street in Washington.

"Over 5,000 people have paid 25 cents for the FREE D.C. button, and 30,000 more have been ordered.

"Opposing this movement is the Washington Metropolitan Board of Trade, which is spending thousands of dollars to defeat the right to vote. The fear of the white racists is that the Negro people, who now are in a majority in Washington will rule the city.

"Also in Congress those who oppose the right to vote are in control of the key Congressional committees, who have blocked D.C. self-government legislation.

"D. C. CONDITIONS

"Barry pointed to the effects of lack of self-government in Washington.

"*School buildings are so dilapidated that whole floors cannot be used for fear they will collapse under the weight of the children. In some Washington schools hundreds of kids must share a single wash basin. The superintendent of schools freely admits that more money is spent per child in schools in white sections than in Negro. Half day sessions and crowded classrooms are commonplace. (The school population is 90 percent Negro and 10 percent white).

"*Washington housing is inadequate. Families of eight are living in a single shabby, basement room, without electricity, just blocks from the Capitol Building. Over 50,000 persons here are in urgent need of low and middle income housing by the most conservative estimates. Garbage goes uncollected for months, except in the "better" sections of the city, where collections are made on a regular schedule.

"*Welfare is inadequate. Thousands of kids were forced to stay home from school during recent cold weather because they didn't have adequate clothing. When children are seen here barefoot in the summer, it's often because they have no shoes, even for Sunday School.

"*Medical facilities for the poor are almost non-existent, more serious cases are sometimes treated only after 8-12 hours of waiting in a crowded clinic.

"*Washington jails are barbaric 'human stockyards' where up to 500 people are kept in a single 'bull-pen' 150x180, sometimes for months, awaiting trial — with no work, no recreation.

"*Cops are known for their brutality.

"Barry cited a recent action when cops broke up a private wedding reception and beat the bride's brother with a blackjack, while he was held on the ground in front of the guests.

"Cops recently broke into 1702 Kilbourne Street, where some SNCC people live, beat and arrested Herman Kitchens, Eddie Brown, Clinto Hobson and a young lady. All four were charged with assault of police officers and now await grand jury action.

"Redbaiting of course, enters the fight. Rep. John McMillan (D-SC), chairman of the House District Committee, responsible for Washington affairs, who admits he only spends about one full day a month on them, calls the fight for 'Home Rule' a Communist plot.

"A bus boycott in Washington organized by SNCC last January to protest a nickel increase in bus fares gave the people faith in their power.

"Besides SNCC, support for the Free D.C. movement has been pledged by over 30 organizations here.

"A petition is now circulating asking Congress to pass legislation to grant to the citizens of the District of Columbia the right to vote, the right to elect a mayor and a city council.

"Petitions can be gotten by writing to the Free D.C. movement, 107 Rhode Island Ave. N.W. Washington, D.C. 20001."

The organization, SNCC, mentioned in the article is the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee.

B. The White House Conference on Civil Rights, Washington, D.C., June 1-2, 1966

GEORGE MEYERS, the District Chairman of the CP, attended The White House Conference on Civil Rights on June 1 and 2, 1966, at the Sheraton Park Hotel in Washington, D.C. JAMES E. JACKSON also attended the conference. MEYERS attended on a press card and he thought that JACKSON did too. According to MEYERS, on June 2, 1966, at the conference, JACKSON made a motion calling for the United States to end the war in Vietnam. However, the moderator would not acknowledge him, since he was not a delegate. Later a representative from the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) made the same motion and it was accepted by the moderator. However, the motion was later dropped.

WF T-1, 6/2/66

"The Worker" January 18, 1966, listed JAMES E. JACKSON as its editor.

On July 12, 1965, WF T-2 advised that JACKSON was a member of the CP National Committee.

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

A. Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC)

At a CP meeting in Washington, D.C., on May 19, 1966, GEORGE MEYERS discussed the shake-up in the leadership of SNCC. MEYERS said he was very concerned over the situation until May 19, 1966, when he had the opportunity to discuss the details of the shake-up with the young people (at SNCC). Since this discussion, MEYERS said he was no longer concerned about the shake-up.

WF T-1, 5/20/66

GEORGE MEYERS was quite upset with the turn of events in SNCC. He said that every time he has been in Atlanta, Georgia, STOKELY CARMICHAEL has always "poor-mouthed" MEYERS, complaining that he (CARMICHAEL) had not eaten in a week. Then CARMICHAEL would show up in New York wearing a silk suit. Also, MEYERS was of the opinion that a white man in the SNCC, name not mentioned, was in very bad need of psychiatic help.

WF T-1, 6/2/66

At a CP meeting in Washington, D.C., on June 6, 1966, GEORGE MEYERS discussed SNCC with regard to the recent change in the SNCC leadership. MEYERS reported that at a recent National Committee meeting of the CP a decision was made to wait for a period of two months before publicly attacking STOKELY CARMICHAEL, the new SNCC leader. MEYERS described CARMICHAEL in profane terms but did not elaborate on the reasons for his dislike for CARMICHAEL or the reason for which CARMICHAEL would be attacked by the CP.

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

A. COMMUNIST PARTY, USA

1. Local CP Plans and Strategy

CV T-1 advised on June 7, 1966 that at the Second Session of the Ohio Communist Party (CP) State Convention, held in Cleveland on June 5, 1966, SAK LEVIN gave a report on proposed political activity for the Party, stating that the CP should work to elect a Negro as mayor of Cleveland and also to elect a Negro congressman from the Cleveland area.

SAK LEVIN

CV T-1 reported on June 7, 1966 that SAK LEVIN attended the Ohio CP State Convention held in Cleveland, Ohio, June 4 and 5, 1966, at which convention he was elected a member of the CP State Committee.

CV T-2 advised on March 29, 1966 that on March 24, 1966, JEAN KRCHMAREK stated the local CP is expecting a Negro to be sent, to Cleveland from New York to help try to recruit some Negroes into the CP.

JEAN KRCHMAREK

CV T-1 advised on June 7, 1966 that JEAN KRCHMAREK was present at the Ohio CP State Convention held in Cleveland on June 4 and 5, 1966.

CV T-1 advised on April 1, 1966 that ANTHONY KRCHMAREK confided on March 31, 1966 that he expects a Negro to be sent to Cleveland to help improve the Party's position among the Negroes. KRCHMAREK stated that the CP hopes to identify the Communists with the civil rights movement, but so far, have not done a good job in this regard.

ANTHONY KRCHMAREK

CV T-2 advised on April 1, 1966 that ANTHONY KRCHMAREK is currently one of the leaders of the Ohio CP and was former Chairman of the Ohio CP. CV T-23 advised on April 9, 1964 that ANTHONY KRCHMAREK is a member of the National Board of the CPUSA.

CV T-2 advised on April 11, 1966 that during a discussion with ANTHONY KRCHMAREK on April 8, 1966 concerning efforts to get more Negroes into the CP, KRCHMAREK stated that the Negroes are not responsive and that the Party is failing to reach them. KRCHMAREK stated that this is the result of mistakes made by the CP in the past on the Negro question. He said that the Party has not done a good job on the whole question of civil rights and that the party has not been identified as an effective force in the civil rights movement.

CV T-2 advised on May 2, 1966 that KRCHMAREK stated on April 24, 1966 that the CP wants to start infiltrating the civil rights movement. He stated that New York wants to train some Negroes for this purpose, but so far, has not found a suitable local person. KRCHMAREK stated that the CP is still considering sending a Negro into Cleveland from New York, but the problem is that this person will have to be paid, and it is questionable whether this can be done.

CV T-2 commented on May 2, 1966 that it was apparent from KRCHMAREK's remarks that the local CP has had no success in getting into the civil rights movement, and he commented that the Party in New York is very disappointed with Cleveland since much better work has been done by the Party in civil rights matters in other sections of the country.

CV T-2 advised on May 20, 1966 that during a discussion with ANTHONY KRCHMAREK on May 19, 1966, he stated that the Party is still trying to get someone in Cleveland to work among the Negroes in an effort to recruit them into the CP; also that the Party is still discussing who might be available from out of town to come into Cleveland for this purpose. KRCHMAREK again reiterated that the local CP does not have sufficient participation in the Negro movement.

As background information for the following items, it is pointed out that there were racial disturbandes in the area of E.79 Street and Superior Avenue to E. 105 and Superior Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio, starting June 22, 1966. Sergeant JOHN J. UNGVARY, Cleveland Police Department, advised that these racial disturbances were caused by Negro teen-age youths and that it was the consensus of police officers in the area that most of the trouble was caused by youth who frequent the Jomo Freedom Kenyatta House (JFK), located at 8801 Superior Avenue in Cleveland. Sergeant UNGVARY described this JFK House as a private community center operated by LEWIS ROBINSON; that ROBINSON publicly announced in 1964 that he intended to organize a rifle club to protect civil rights demonstrators if the police failed to do so. Sergeant UNGVARY advised that such a rifle club did meet in the Spring of 1965 at the JFK House. The racial disturbances during this period consisted of rock throwing, broken windows, some looting, throwing of firebombs, the starting of several fires, and some shooting.

CV T-3 advised on June 24, 1966 that the Ohio CP delegation present at the CPUSA National Convention, which was in session in New York City at that time, read news items of racial disturbances in Cleveland and were considering sending ANTHONY KRCHMAREK back to Cleveland because of these disturbances. Source stated that he did not know what action KRCHMAREK was supposed to take if he came back to Cleveland. Source advised that the CP Convention was considering sending telegrams to Cleveland's Police Chief to protest police action in these disturbances.

CV T-4 advised on June 26, 1966 that as of that date, FRIEDA KATZ was anxious to get in touch with LEWIS ROBINSON regarding the current racial unrest in Cleveland. She stated that she is disappointed that groups such as the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), the Congress on Racial Equality (CORE), etc., are not helping ROBINSON, and she wants to offer him the help of the Citizens for Constitution Rights (CCR). FRIEDA KATZ stated that she is going to get in touch with CHARLES LOEB tomorrow to get his assistance for ROBINSON. CV T-3 advised that LOEB is a former NAACP leader and a current member of the Cleveland Transit Board.

FRIEDA KATZ

CV T-1 advised on June 7, 1966 that FRIEDA KATZ attended the Ohio CP State Convention held in Cleveland on June 4 and 5, 1966, at which convention she was elected a delegate to the National Convention of the CPUSA and also elected a member of the Ohio CP State Committee.

LEWIS ROBINSON

In April, 1964, LEWIS G. ROBINSON publicly announced to local news media that he intended to form a rifle club for the purpose of protecting civil rights demonstrators when the police failed to do so.

On March 25, 1965, CV T-24 advised that a Negro rifle club met regularly at the JFK House and that LEWIS ROBINSON attended meetings of this club.

In his application for Federal employment, dated July 1, 1957, in answer to a question concerning affiliation with communist organizations, ROBINSON replied "I have attended several meetings of the Labor Youth League (LYL) in Boston in 1953."

The LYL has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

CCR

VIRGINIA HARDIN, who has furnished information to the United States Government, is a self-admitted former member of the CP whose cooperation with the Government was publicly disclosed on June 5, 1952. She reported on September 5, 1961 that on September 1, 1961, a CCR meeting was held in Cleveland, Ohio, at which time the name CCR was approved to replace the name, Cleveland Committee to Abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities, which had been the name formerly used by this group. Mrs. HARDIN stated that EDNA KAUFMAN, Chairman and only officer of the CCR, controls the operations of the CCR which has no formal membership requirements. The stated purpose of the CCR is to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities, and to fight against the Smith Act and McCarren Act.

EDNA KAUFMAN

C.P. MEMBER

CV T-1 advised on March 29, 1966 that EDNA KAUFMAN attended an Ohio CP State Conference held in Cleveland on March 28, 1965 at which conference she was congratulated by FRIEDA KATZ for the work she had done to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities which was a "Party assignment."

CV T-4 further advised on June 26, 1966 that he had learned that another person active in the CP in Cleveland had been in touch with LEWIS ROBINSON and was advised that there would be a meeting at the JFK House on the evening of June 27, 1966 to discuss the racial unrest in the Cleveland area.

CV T-3 advised on June 27, 1966 that the interest shown by FRIEDA KATZ and other CP members in the racial problem in Cleveland was the result of CP instructions to become more actively involved in the civil rights movement.

CV T-3 advised on July 21, 1966 that he had learned that on June 27, 1966, one of the local Negro CP youth leaders did approach LEWIS ROBINSON to see whether the CP could assist ROBINSON in his program to further the Negro cause. ROBINSON pointed out to this CP youth leader that the CP believes in integration rather than in Black Nationalist views of ROBINSON's group, and that therefore, he could not accept CP assistance as such. He said, however, that he would accept help from individual Negroes regardless of their affiliations and would accept financial contributions from anyone.

W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA (DCA)

A source has advised that on October 26-27, 1963, a conference of members of the Communist Party (CP), including national functionaries, met in Chicago, Illinois, for the purpose of setting in motion forces for the establishment of a new national Marxist-oriented youth organization which would hunt for the most peaceful transition to socialism. These delegates were told that it would be reasonable to assume that the young socialists attracted into this new organization would eventually pass into the CP itself.

A second source has advised that the founding convention for the new youth organization was held from June 19-21, 1964, at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, at which time the name W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) was adopted. Approximately 500 delegates from throughout the United States attended this convention. The aims of this organization, as set forth in the preamble to the constitution, are, "It is our belief that this nation can best solve its problems in an atmosphere of peaceful coexistence, complete disarmament and true freedom for all peoples of the world, and that these solutions will be reached mainly through the united efforts of all democratic elements in our country, composed essentially of the working people allied in the unity of Negroes and other minorities with whites. We further fully recognize that the greatest threat to American democracy comes from the racist and right wing forces in coalition with the most reactionary sections of the economic power structure, using the tool of anti-Communism to divide and destroy the unified struggle of the working people."

Over the Labor Day weekend, 1965, the DCA held a conference in Chicago, Illinois, and a new slate of officers was elected to the National Executive Committee (NEC) of the DCA. Since Labor Day, 1965, identities of those serving on the NEC has varied, however, according to a third source as of May, 1966, thirteen of the fifteen members of the NEC were members of the CP in the San Francisco Bay area.

As of May, 1966, the headquarters of the DCA was located at 1830 Fell Street, San Francisco, California.

Synopsis: As of July, 1966, Communist Party of Wisconsin (CPW) had taken no definite steps to place members in racial organizations, and it appears that focus has transferred from civil rights to United States intervention in Vietnam. Members, Milwaukee Branch, Socialist Workers Party (SWP), are members of various civil rights groups, but these groups have been fairly inactive recently, and SWP is devoting time to obtaining funds and is taking part in demonstrations protesting United States intervention in Vietnam. DETAILS:

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

No information developed.

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

No information developed.

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

As of July, 1966, the Communist Party of Wisconsin (CPW) had taken no definite steps to place members in any racial organizations. JOHN GILMAN, a member of the State Board of the CPW, has, in the past, been active in the Milwaukee United School Integration Committee (MUSIC), but this group and other civil rights groups in the Milwaukee area have been fairly inactive in the recent past, and no demonstrations have been held. It appears that focus has transferred from civil rights to United States intervention in Vietnam. (U)
(Source: MI T-1, July 28, 1966) (U)

As of July, 1966, the following members of the Milwaukee Branch, Socialist Workers Party (SWP), were members of the civil rights organizations indicated below:

Congress of Racial Equality (CORE):
MYRTLE KASTNER

Negro-American Labor Council (NALC):
MYRTLE KASTNER
WAYNE LEVERENZ
JAMES BOULTON

Milwaukee United School Integration Committee (MUSIC):
ALBERT STERGAR
BETSY STERGAR
MYRTLE KASTNER

National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP):
Most members of the Milwaukee Branch, SWP, belong to this organization.

Recently, the above-mentioned organizations have been fairly inactive, and it appears that the Milwaukee Branch, SWP, is no longer interested in the civil rights cause, but is devoting its time to rummage sales to obtain funds, and is taking part in demonstrations protesting United States intervention in Vietnam.

A characterization of the Milwaukee Branch, SWP, is contained in the appendix hereto.

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

A. Demonstration San Antonio, Texas, June 12, 1966

On June 12, 1966, Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in San Antonio, Texas, observed the following regarding a march and demonstration, protesting the shooting of JAMES E. MEREDITH.

The group, under the guidance of the San Antonio Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), gathered at City Hall in San Antonio, Texas. At approximately 2:00 p.m., then began their march to the Alamo, Texas shrine of independence. The march was led by S. L. DECKARD, President of the San Antonio Branch of the NAACP; MAURY MAVERICK, JR., former Texas State Congressman and Counsel for the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) in San Antonio; and Father SHERRILL SMITH, head of the local Project Equality for San Antonio Archbishop ROBERT E. LUCEY. Approximately 61 persons began the march at City Hall, composed of both Negroes and whites, and upon arriving at Alamo Plaza, they were joined by others, bringing a total of approximately 70 persons.

During the march, two youths carried small signs reading "We shall overcome."

The convocation was brought by the Reverend EMERSON MARCEE, President of the NAACP for the State of Texas. He then introduced the President of the San Antonio Branch of the NAACP, S. L. DECKARD.

DECKARD advised those present that the meeting had a three-fold purpose:

1. Commemoration of the anniversary of the murder of civil rights leader MEDGAR EVERS in Jackson, Mississippi.

2. Protesting the shooting of JAMES P. MEREDITH in Mississippi.

Synopsis:

In April 1966 TERRY GREENE, member of East Bay Industrial Club, CP, Alameda County, California, presented an educational to the club summarizing the contents of a CP publication, "New Program of the Communist Party, USA." The pamphlet stated that social tensions and conflicts are on the rise and that the Negro freedom movement has been the most dynamic element in rising social turbulence and the communist rule is to join with the millions to defeat the Dixiecrats and ultra-right. At a May Day meeting sponsored by the CP, Sonoma County, California, on 5/1/66 GEORGE SANDY, Business Manager of the "People's World" newspaper, stated that the CP will give the right leadership to the movement of the Negro people in their fight for their rights and that today the CP in the United States has a better chance to organize than ever before in its history. San Francisco County Committee of CP instructed organizer of Fillmore Club, CP, to establish liaison with DuBois Clubs of America for more action in the Fillmore District of San Francisco. At Northern California District Convention of CP held at San Francisco on 6/12/66 ROSCOE PROCTOR reported on discussions held by a panel commission on the Negroes' civil rights struggle. The panel commission recommended that the Negro commission be strengthened by the addition of white comrades, establishment of a separate district commission on youth and Negroes combined together to represent the work in the Negro struggles, and by making a study of white chauvinism in the CP itself. CP members participated in "Rally for Justice"

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

A. COMMUNIST PARTY (CP), USA

1. Plans, strategy, Party line, as revealed in Party publications and other propaganda media such as written directives, press releases and the like

At a meeting of the East Bay Industrial Club of the CP, Alameda County, California, held at 2312 Alcatraz Avenue, Berkeley, California, on April 11, 1966, TERRY GREENE, a member of the club, presented an educational to the club summarizing material contained in Chapter 3--The Path Ahead--of a CP publicati entitled "New Program of the Communist Party, USA (A Draft)."

The inside cover page of the pamphlet entitled "New Program of the Communist Party, USA (A Draft)" lists Political Affairs Publishers, Inc., 23 West 26th Street, New York, New York, as publisher of the pamphlet in February 1966. A foreward written by GUS HALL, General Secretary of the CP, USA, states in part as follows:

> "As a political document this program is unique. It is a study of a new kind of contemporary USA as well as a projection in outline of its future development.... We wish to emphasize that it is a draft prepared for submission to the membership of the Communist Party. As such it is,itself,part of the process of formulation which will result eventually in the emergence of the program in final form."

In commenting on the above publication at the meeting of the East Bay Industrial Club, CP of Alameda County, TERRY GREENE stated that the problems of the working people have reached or are reaching crisis proportions, that social tensions and conflicts are on the rise and take on an explosive character. The series of clashes and upheavals in major ghettos demonstrate how much social dynamite is stored in the enclaves of human misery and how swiftly fuel may be ignited. The Negro freedom movement has been the most dynamic element in the rising social turbulence. It has introduced a new style into political life because of its militancy and its demands which are essentially radical because they aim to destroy entrenched social and political institutions and customs. It has had enormous influence upon other sections of the population. In some instances the influence is direct by attacking others, notably youth, to the Negro freedom struggle. Although the Negro freedom movement is the most dynamic expression of change on the national scene it is not the only one highly significant in the movement for peace. In addition to enlisting growing numbers of the younger generation it has also enlisted thousands of women, civil rights activists, labor and religious groups. This movement challenges the corporate establishment. The varied forms of action in which the Negro freedom movement has engaged includes such activities as sit-ins, picket lines, boycotts, civil disobedience, and mass demonstrations. GREENE continued that the next step for the Negro people is political power. Also needed is labor and Negro cooperation toward political independence. GREENE stated that the communist role is to join with the millions to defeat the Dixiecrats and ultra-right, JIM CROW poverty and repression.

SF T-1, April 28, 1966

2. Plans, strategy, Party line and the like made at district and lower level meetings, including expressions by local leaders and rank and file members

At a May Day meeting held under the sponsorship of the CP, Sonoma County, California, on May 1, 1966, at Penngrove, California, GEORGE SANDY, Business Manager of the "People's World" newspaper, San Francisco, was guest speaker. SANDY reviewed his experiences in organizational activities for the CP in the South and Northwest in the 1930's in organizing unions and young Party members. He stated in the late 1930's young people were fighting for their rights to organize workers and to walk picket lines. Today young people are going to the South to fight for the right of the Negro people to vote, for the right to march for peace, and to advocate withdrawal from Vietnam. SANDY stated that the CP will give the right type of leadership to the movement of the Negro people in their fight for their rights and that today the CP in the United States has a better chance to organize than ever before in its history.

SF T-2, May 19, 1966

In May 1966 GEORGE SANDY was employed as Business Manager of the "People's World" (PW) newspaper, San Francisco, and as of July 26, 1966, he was an active member of the Fillmore Club, CP of San Francisco.

SF T-3, July 26, 1966

The PW is a West Coast CP newspaper published weekly in San Francisco, California.

At a meeting of the San Francisco County Committee of the CP held at 700 Kansas Avenue, San Francisco, on May 23, 1966, the organizer of the Fillmore Club, CP of San Francisco, was instructed to establish liaison between the Fillmore Club, CP of San Francisco, and the DuBois Clubs of America for the purpose of initiating more action in the Fillmore district of San Francisco. The Fillmore Club, CP of San Francisco, contains the largest concentration of Negro membership in the CP of San Francisco County, and the Fillmore District of San Francisco has more Negro residents than any other area of the city.

SF T-4, May 26,1966

A characterization of the DuBois Clubs of America is contained in the appendix.

A Negro panel made up of delegates to the Northern California District Convention of the CP held a meeting at 1581 Masonic Street, San Francisco, on June 11, 1966. ROSCOE PROCTOR, a member of the National Committee of the CP, USA, acted as chairman of the panel which consisted of 18 persons. ROSCOE PROCTOR read the draft resolution on the Negro question which had been previously disseminated to CP members. Thereafter a discussion took place on general Negro questions and the present position of the Negro in politics and in labor. It was pointed out that Negro masses are now living in the big cities and have a place in politics and labor. Further discussion took place as to why the Party had no appeal to Negro women. A Negro female member of the panel bluntly informed that the reason why Negro women did not return to the Party was because the white women "showed their butt and the red-blooded men are going to look" and pretty soon the Negro women no longer had their men. With this comment the session adjourned without formulating any resolution and ROSCOE PROCTOR and three other members were delegated to remai to write a resolution.

SF T-5, June 13, 1966

At the June 12, 1966, session of the Northern California District Convention of the CP held at 81 Clementina Street, San Francisco, ROSCOE PROCTOR reported on the conclusions of the panel commission which had met the previous day to discuss the civil rights struggles of the Negro people.

In his report PROCTOR stated that a draft resolution previously disseminated to Party members for study, which included comments on the problems of Negroes, was completely inadequate. According to PROCTOR, the draft resolution takes as the main point of its analysis that the Negro movement is an all class movement -- the Negro people constituting a cross sectio of the classes of society with, of course, a smaller percentage of Negro capitalists. The people on the panel thought that the principal point to be made in an analysis of the Negro movement is the increasing concentration of the Negroes in large urban areas. By the next generation the majority of the population in some large urban areas will be Negro. The Party's program should call for the transformation of the ghettos into places of beauty where white people will want to come. The Party program should not be to get rid of the ghettos. It has developed a new set of stress factors between the Negro people and their allies. Part of this is caused by the Negro becoming aware of his political power at the same time as the poverty program is disrupting the ghettos where the concentration of the Negro power lies.

PROCTOR continued stating that before the program to beautify the ghettos can get under way the war in Vietnam will have to be ended so that more money is available. The Negroes must remember that just because money becomes available it does no mean it will be spent on Negro peoblems. Every dollar will have to be fought for. White chauvinism in unions must be fought if the Negro is to have equal job opportunities. White chauvinism in unions is helping to build right reactionism on the political scene. The Party's position with regard to Negro nationalism is weak. Negro nationalism does exist and there are two kinds. The first has bourgeois overtones and is destructive. The Party should take a position against this kind. The second is positive in character and reveals the Negro developing pride in himself and his race. It develops Negro leadership of the Negro movement but with white allies. The Party should support this and not be as negative about it as it is because it represents a growth of the Negro people. The report from the panel commission made the following organizational proposals:

1. Strengthen the Negro commission, particularly by the addition of white comrades. At present the Negro commission is all Negroes.

2. There should be a separate district commission on youth and Negroes combined together to improve the work in the Negro struggles. This is necessary because it is the youth who are most active in this struggle.

3. There should be a study made of white chauvinism in the Party itself. Several reasons for this were mentioned:

   a. The problems of the Negro women are completely overlooked by the Party.

   b. The composition of the Party at present causes working class Negroes to feel out of place.

   c. Some of the Party's positions could have been written 20 years ago.

It was advocated in the report of the panel commission that discussions by the Party on this subject should be honest and open.

The above report presented by ROSCOE PROCTOR was generally greeted by the delegates in attendance at the convention with silence and everyone seemed a little surprised. ROBERT KAUFMAN, a delegate present from the CP of Alameda County, California, next spoke to the delegates explaining what he thought ROSCOE PROCTOR had meant to say about keeping the Northern ghettos. KAUFMAN said that in order to achieve civil rights the Negro is going to have to have political power. In the Northern cities political power can best be obtained by the concentration of the Negroes as he is now concentrated in the ghettos. CARL BLOICE, a Negro delegate from the CP of San Francisco, took exception to trying to keep the ghettos, stating he favored Negro power but that he does not think it is necessary to keep the ghettos to obtain the power. Negroes do not like ghettos and desire to get out of them and do so as soon as they obtain jobs which will support them in the community outside the ghettos. The idea of making ghettos beautiful places to live is a dream and not a realistic goal.

A female delegate then addressed the convention stating that the report was vague and that it seemed to advocate the reversal of the present Party policy which has been to work for racial integration. The report seems to suggest tht this should be put off in favor of building a Negro power bloc even if it means keeping the segregation of the ghettos. If this is the case this matter whould be submitted to the whole Party.

ROSCOE PROCTOR again addressed the convention stating that the report had not really meant to change the Party policy on integration, but that at this time to further the cause of integration the Negro must have a political power bloc along the lines suggested by ROBERT KAUFMAN. PROCTOR further expressed the thought that the report of the panel which he had made should be taken to the National Convention but with all of the discussion included. This was so decided by the convention. He stated that another thing that should be stressed with the Negro people is that only socialism can solve their problems. The reason this is so true is that the Negro is used as a scapegoat by the capitalist class.

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

No information developed.

IV. MISCELLANEOUS

The "Oakland Tribune", a daily newspaper of general circulation, in its June 29, 1966, issue, page 2, carried an article captioned "Riot Curb Thorny Legislative Issue."

This article concerned a meeting in Sacramento, California of the State Assembly Criminal Procedure Committee before which Mayor SAMUEL YORTY of Los Angeles, California, and Police Chief WILLIAM PARKER of Los Angeles focused attention on a sign reading "B-, B-, B-." The article stated that these signs have been posted in many Negro areas of the State and that YORTY had declared, "No matter what they say, it means"Burn, Baby, Burn." The article further states that the organization that posted the signs, the Non-Violent Action Committee, told the Committee that the message is "Boycott, Baby, Boycott" and is aimed at political candidates who do not favor programs of social reform.

Sergeant CARL DAHL, Intelligence Unit, Oakland Police Department, advised on July 1, 1966, and July 6, 1966, that investigation by the Oakland Police Department and Oakland Fire Department concerning the arson on June 18, 1966, at properties located at 5731 Grove and 5771 Grove Street, Oakland, California, resulted in insufficient evidence for prosecution of the crime of arson.

Investigation did disclose that a witness had observed two men posting "B---, B---, B---" signs on the two buildings, and then hurriedly depart in a green Volkswagen which had a luggage rack painted the same color as the car. The fires broke out shortly after the men departed.

Sergeant DAHL identified photographs of STEVE HAMILTON and STEVE CHERKOSS as closely resembling the two men but could not positively identify them.

STEVE HAMILTON has been identified as President of the May 2nd Movement (M2M) at the University of California, Berkeley, during the fall of 1964.

SF T-15, September 16, 1965

A characterization of the May 2nd Movement is contained in the appendix.

STEVE CHERKOSS has been identified as a member of the Bay Area Progressive Labor Party (BAPLP) on October 10, 1965.

SF T-16, October 10, 1965

It was reported on June 20, 1966, that on June 19, 1966, CLAUDE BEGARIE of San Francisco, California, had "B---,B---,B---" signs in his automobile and was going to Oakland to post these signs.

SF T-17, June 20, 1966

CLAUDE BEGARIE has been previously identified herein.

It was reported on July 6, 1966, that on July 4, 1966, at approximately 5 p.m. that at the corner of McAllister and Fillmore Streets, San Francisco, which is located in a predominate Negro area that a crowd of people were gathered with banners condemning the draft, the war in Vietnam, and the racial problem. The leaders were using bullhorns and were exhorting bystanders to join in a march. The group consisted of: from 10 to 15 persons, all Negroes. The leaders were attempting to start an incident; however, the adults in the area ignored the group but a few youths did join the group for mere excitement.

SF T-18, July 6, 1966

A San Francisco Police Department report reviewed July 6, 1966, and dated July 4, 1966, revealed that at 7:20 p.m., July 4, 1966, two police officers were dispatched to Fillmore and Mc Allister Streets, San Francisco, to investigate "an unusual situation." Upon arriving at the location the officers observed approximately 10 to 15 Negro male adults in the middle of Fillmore Street between Golden Gate Avenue and Mc Allister Streets, San Francisco.

According to the police report a number of the marchers were carrying signs reading, "F--- the White Man" and "Black Supremacy." The leaders of the march were using bullhorns and hollering obscenities to passing motorists and pedestrians to join them in their march up Fillmore Street. Those utilizing the bullhorns were uttering statements, "F--- the White Man," "Black Supremacy", "Black Man Unite", and "Get the Mother F------ Out of Our Neighborhood." The report went on to state that approximately 10 to 12 motorists who had proceeded through mentioned area stopped and advised the reporting officers that their cars had been kicked and bottles had been thrown by persons participating.

The report related that at approximately 8 p.m., July 4, 1966, the reporting officers proceeded to Ellis and Fillmore Streets, the scene of the alleged assault. At that location RICHARD MOORE and BETTY MARLER, white, and residents of Oroville, California, complained that while proceeding through Fillmore and McAllister Streets, their car was kicked by someone and a second person,"apparently also of the group", threw a bottle through the right front window of the automobile, breaking the bottle and cutting Miss MARLER with flying glass. Miss MARLER was treated at Central Emergency Hospital, San Francisco, for minor lacerations of the right arm and cheek, and was released.

The report related that inasmuch as the leaders were unsuccessful in obtaining others to join them, the demonstrators dispersed of their own accord at approximately 8:30 p.m., July 4, 1966.

The report stated that the reporting officers had taken up an observation position at Ellis and Webster Streets, San Francisco, where the marchers could be observed.

A witness related on July 6, 1966, that at the time he was proceeding through Fillmore and Mc Allister Streets, San Francisco,in a car he also observed signs reading, "July 4th Is the Devil's Holiday, " and "We Will Not Fight the Asians for the White B-------." Witness commented that the Negroes in the area of Fillmore and Mc Allister Streets appeared to be disgusted with the rabble rousers and their actions. Witness recalled that when the traffic did not give way to the demonstrators, they then commenced to walk on the sidewalks. He also recalled that as the cars went past, the demonstrators would hold up their signs and would shout obscenities.

On July 6, 1966, numerous photographs were displayed to a witness and he identified AARON CHAPMAN and VINCENT LYNCH as two who participated.

SF T-19, July 6, 1966

AARON CHAPMAN has been identified in February 1966 as Vice Chairman of the Communist Party, USA (Marxist-Leninist) when the organization was founded in September 1965. He resigned in February 1966.

SF T-19, February 5, 1966

VINCENT LYNCH as of September 7, 1965 was a member of the San Francisco cell of the Communist Party, USA (Marxist-Leninist).

SF T-19, September 7, 1965

A characterization of the Communist Party, USA (Marxist-Leninist) is contained in the appendix.

COMMUNIST PARTY, USA
MARXIST-LENINIST (CP, USA, M-L)

On August 24, 1965, a confidential source advised that the West Coast Provisional Organizing Committee for a Marxist-Leninist Communist Party (WCPOC) was formed in Los Angeles, California, on August 23, 1965, under the leadership of MIKE LASKY. Although similar in name, the newly organized WCPOC had no connection whatsoever with the Provisional Organizing Committee for a Marxist-Leninist Communist Party (POC) or the latter's West Coast POC.

On September 7, 1965, the above confidential source advised that a National Conference of the newly formed WCPOC was held over the September 4-5, 1965, weekend in Los Angeles. At that meeting, the name WCPOC was dropped and the CP, USA, M-L was formed under LASKY's leadership. The CP, USA, M-L has the following aims and purposes:

1. To conduct guerrilla warfare training, including the use of firearms;

2. To organize CP, USA, M-L cells in the South to exploit all "racial situations" that might arise there, to agitate the population, and create situations which would require the use of Federal Troops so that Americans would be fighting Americans;

3. To establish and maintain an accelerated recruiting program to include acceptance of anyone who is an anti-imperialist.

On July 26, 1966, CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, the leading functionary of the Communist Party (CP) of Illinois and Chairman of the CP, USA National Negro Commission, stated that within the next few days he planned to travel to Cleveland and Detroit. He stated he would talk to Party people in these cities regarding the Negro question and would specifically take up the meaning of black power and also discuss the Negro ghettos. In connection with this, LIGHTFOOT was heard to remark that in his opinion people should listen to and pay more attention to him because "I am the voice of the ghetto and know what those people are saying." LIGHTFOOT claimed he goes into the ghettos and talks to the people, understands them, and knows how they will react in certain situations. LIGHTFOOT raised this because he felt that GUS HALL, General Secretary of the CP, USA, had not been paying sufficient attention to him and had not been giving him sufficient time during which they could discuss the Negro question.

An article appearing in the July 21, 1966, issue of the Jackson Daily News, Jackson, Mississippi, datelined Washington, D. C., captioned "Eastland Names Reds in March" "Senator Says 11 Communists In Walk To State Capitol". The article is as follows:

"Communist participation in the James Meredith - Mississippi march was exposed by Sen. James O. Eastland today in the Senate.

"Eastland named 11 known Communists who participated in the march.

"'After Meredith was sprayed with birdshot on June 6, Mississippi was invaded by outside agitators including Communists,' he said. 'These Communists actively participated and influenced this march.'

"Eastland named Edward Crawford, chairman of the New York council to abolish the House Committee on Un'American Activities, as one of the Communists taking part in the march.

"'This is the kind of thing that is behind the riots and shootings in the northern cities,' Eastland told the Senate. 'Communists are staging a revolution in this country.'

"Among others named by Eastland on the Senate floor were Earl Harris, a registered member of the Communist Party; Blyden Jackson, former campaign manager for Herbert Aptheker, member of the National Committee Communist Party, USA; Bennett Johnson Jr.; Clarence Jones, who held a position with the Labor Youth League, identified by Eastland as a subversive organization; Phillip Lapsansky, member of the Socialist Workers' Party; Oliver Leeds, member of Communist Party; USA; Stanley Levision, secret member Informant added that CRAWFORD is extremely militant and is a potential troublemaker.

"Phil Lapsansky
Box 95,
Tougaloo, Mississippi
July 25, 1966

"To the editor,

"In the July 21 edition of the Jackson Daily News I am mentioned by Senator James Eastland as one of '11 known Communists' who 'participated and influenced' the recent Meredith-Mississippi March ('Eastland Names Reds in March').

"It is not my intention in this letter to deny Eastland's 'exposure'. I am indeed a 'known Communist' -- a Marxist, a revolutionary socialist, an open advocate of the revolutionary overthrow of capitalism and its replacement with a world Socialist order. Eastland's intrepid snoopers could have saved the taxpayers' money, for in my two years of civil rights activity in this state I have never attempted to hide my political convictions or my affiliations. Far from denying the charge, I am greatly honored to have been denounced on the Senate floor as an implacable foe of this most qualified representative of degenerate racism.

"Eastland's latest blast is a heartening sign to the Negro people and the poor people of the state, for it shows that the old plantation master from Sunflower County is trembling at the spectre of thousands of Mississippians rising up to smash his beloved system of racist oppression.

"Eastland, who constantly talks of Mississippi's 'excellent' race relations, has the tricky job of explaining the mass support of the Meredith-Mississippi March among the state's Negro population, culminating in an enthusiastic rally of some 20,000 at the Capitol in Jackson. The best he can come up with is a handful of alleged communists who happened to be among the tremendous crowd.

"Sorry Senator, but the thousands and thousands of Mississippi people moved to action be recent events in the state know they are not 'infiltrated.' This was the Mississippi peoples' work, 'agitated' by you and your kind and the decadent system you so ably represent.

"The Senator screams 'Communists are staging a revolution in this country.' Speaking from the Senator's home state, I say yes indeed Mr. Eastland, there is a revolution being staged here, and although 'Communists' can hardly be credited with staging it, it is a revolution that deserves the partisan support of all those who work for a society free of racism, violence and exploitation of man by man.

"There is a revolution afoot here to destroy the naked rule of the rich, which has made Mississippi the poorest state in the nation; to destroy the vile racism nurtured by Eastland and his ilk that blinds men to their common interests in struggle and has denied the most basic of human rights to vast numbers in this state; to destroy the attitude of subservience to a 'law and order' designed to perpetuate a reactionary racist order, and to instill the revolutionary will to organize and fight among the opressed masses of this state. There is a revolution afoot here, which will consign all the Eastland's and everything they represent to their long deserved place on the garbage heap of history.

"Eastland sees the handwriting on the wall; and fights back with any weapon he can get his hands on; for he knows that a society free of racist oppression means the social, political and economic death of all the James Eastlands of the world.

"As a 'known Communist' I am proud to be a participant in this revolution that will someday forever silence the James Eastlands.

"/s/ Phil Lapsansky

"Phil Lapsansky"

MIKE HIGSON, former office manager, MFDP, Jackson, Mississippi, on July 29, 1966, advised he had conferred with PHILLIP LAPSANSKY on the evening of July 28, 1966, and LAPSANSKY told him that he, LAPSANSKY, had written a letter to the editor of the Jackson Daily News setting forth his views and answers to Senator EASTLAND's article which appeared in an earlier edition of this newspaper.

LEVISON was described by certain Communist Party leaders as being to the "left" of the Communist Party in his position on civil rights. On November 22, 1957 JOHN BARBER, then a graduate student at Yale University, made an appointment to see BENJAMIN J. DAVIS, JR. Source advised BARBER was desirous of conferring with DAVIS informally in view of his basic interest in economics and politics.

(AT T-4, 11-57)

On February 11, 1966, Special Agents of the FBI observed JOHN BARBER enter the front entrance of Beamons Restaurant, 233 Auburn Avenue, N. E., Atlanta, and stand close to the entrance. At 11:37 a.m., ISOBEL CERNEY was observed to enter the front entrance of Beamons Restaurant and immediately engage BARBER in conversation.

B. Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee

As of July 20, 1966, national headquarters of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) continued to be located at 360-362 Nelson Street, S. W., Atlanta, Georgia.

(AT T-3, 7-66)

No pertinent change in officers of SNCC has occurred since these officers were last reported.

(AT T-3, 7-66)

As of the middle of June, 1966, JOHN ROBERT ZELLNER and his wife, DOROTHY R. ZELLNER, were residing in New Haven, Connecticut and had no present connection with SNCC.

(AT T-3, 6-66)

On June 12, 1963, JOHN ROBERT ZELLNER advised Special Agents of the FBI in Danville, Virginia that he came to Danville on an assignment from SNCC as a photographer and reporter for "The Southern Patriot." He exhibited a telegram dated June 10, 1963 from ANNE BRADEN authorizing him so to act.

However, he said at that time he felt the shooting of MEREDITH did not appear to be a sufficient basis for implementing an immediate appeal. LEVISON explained in all probability a number of civil rights organizations would be asking for funds based on the MEREDITH incident and, therefore, SCLC should avoid immediate action in this regard because such action might be misconstrued by the public as a "grab" for money.

AT 100-6670

As of July 7, 1966, STANLEY LEVISON continued to supervise SCLC's program of soliciting contributions via mail which program is handled by the New York City office of SCLC.

On June 7, 1966, JAMES HARRISON of the SCLC Finance Office inquired of STANLEY LEVISON his opinion as to SCLC using the shooting of MEREDITH as the basis for an immediate appeal for financial contributions to SCLC. LEVISON said he felt this possibility should definitely be kept in mind because subsequent developments in connection with the MEREDITH incident might present opportunity to utilize a carefully worded appeal letter.

On July 7, 1966 SCLC received from HARRY WACHTEL two checks, each dated July 5, 1966, one in the amount of $2,000 and the other in the amount of $3,000. Both checks were made payable to "Voter Education Fund" and were drawn upon the account of AFN, care of HARRY M. WACHTEL, maintained with the Chemical Bank New York Trust Company, 100 Park Avenue (41st Street), New York, New York. The $2,000 check reflected a notation indicating it pertained to SCLC activities in Georgia and a notation on the $3,000 check reflected it pertained to SCLC activity in Mississippi.

During the aforementioned meeting Project Dialogue of SCLC was discussed. It was agreed SCLC did not have sufficient funds available to continue this project. JONES, LEVISON and WACHTEL jointly suggested consideration be given to seeking financial assistance for this project from the Stern Foundation. It was decided at the meeting that JONES and WACHTEL would endeavor to locate a foundation which would provide funds to continue this project. It was also agreed if their efforts were not successful by September 1, 1966, Project Dialogue would then be discontinued.

At this meeting Reverend KING announced he anticipated receiving in the near future $120,000 from Sweden as a result of his tour in that country during the spring of 1966. He said transmittal of this money was delayed because of a necessary audit being conducted by Swedish Government officials. Concerning this tour, Reverend KING explained it had been organized by HARRY BELAFONTE and that BELAFONTE's expenses which SCLC had yet to pay, amounted to approximately $20,000.

(AT T-1, 6-66)

Reverend KING also discussed WILLIAM STEIN, in charge of Church Promotion, SCLC. He complained he was not satisfied with the results of STEIN's fund raising efforts on behalf of SCLC and, therefore, proposed that STEIN's annual salary be reduced by $2500. The meeting agreed to this proposal; however, LEVISON objected. LEVISON declared that STEIN's work was neither clearly understood nor evaluated by SCLC. He said STEIN's work was far more valuable to SCLC (not explained) than Reverend KING believed it to be.

Pursuant to instructions of Reverend KING, several staff members of SCLC participated in a meeting held June 13, 1966 at SCLC headquarters with Reverend KING, CLARENCE JONES, STANLEY LEVISON and HARRY WACHTEL. RANDOLPH T. BLACKWELL was one of the staff members who attended portions of this meeting.

The purpose of this meeting was to examine the current financial position of SCLC and determine methods whereby the monthly expenses of the organization might be reduced. As of June 13, 1966, computations made by the SCLC Finance Office reflected that during the preceding three month period, expenditures of SCLC exceeded receipts by approximately $26,000 monthly.

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL ORGANIZATIONS

A. Southern Christian Leadership Conference

1. General Activities

As of July 20, 1966, headquarters of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) continued to be located at 334 Auburn Avenue, N. E., Atlanta, Georgia.

(AT T-1, 7-66)

At a conference of SCLC officers dealing with SCLC financial matters held June 13, 1966 at SCLC headquarters, Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., President, SCLC, announced that he was in receipt of a letter from HARRY G. BOYTE, Director, Project Dialogue, SCLC. Reverend KING said in this letter BOYTE pointed out he did not feel the services he was rendering to SCLC justified the compensation he received from SCLC. Consequently, BOYTE stated he planned to leave SCLC.

(AT T-1, 6-66)

On July 7, 1966, FRANCIS SIMS, Secretary to Program Director, SCLC, informed some employees of SCLC that RANDOLPH T. BLACKWELL, Program Director, SCLC, would commence a leave of absence from SCLC during August, 1966. SIMS mentioned no further details on this occasion.

(AT T-1, 7-66)

On July 20, 1966, Reverend KING mentioned during a meeting with several SCLC officers he was currently endeavoring to assist HARRY G. BOYTE in obtaining new employment. He furnished no further details regarding this matter.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS
IS - C

With the continuing increase of racial unrest and activities relating to the civil rights movement in this country during the past year, there has been a pronounced increase in the attempts of the Communist Party, USA, (CPUSA) to inject itself into the racial movement. The National Negro Commission of the CPUSA has recently issued several directives instructing its membership of the utmost necessity to participate in the civil rights movement.

The emphasis given to the Negro question at the 18th National Convention of the CPUSA, in New York City, in June, 1966, further illustrates the increased involvement of the Party in these activities. The Vice-Chairman of the CPUSA, Claude Lightfoot, in presenting the resolution on the Negro question to the Convention emphasized that the CPUSA must be known as the "best fighter" for Negro rights in the United States and stressed the need for the Negro working class to take the lead in the civil rights struggle. He also called for the broadest linking of the civil rights struggle with the struggle for peace.

Based on the action taken at the Convention, the keynote now is that the Party will boldly step forward and lead its own civil rights struggles and join with more militant elements. Henry Winston, the Party's new National Chairman, is going to be the leader in this field, and it can be anticipated that he will give much impetus to this movement, and that the Party will operate in a considerably more open and public fashion than they have in recent years.

There has been an increasing tendency not only on the part of the CPUSA, but other communist groups such as the Progressive Labor Party, and the Socialist Workers Party to relate the civil rights struggle with internal struggles in nonwhite countries such as Vietnam, Rhodesia and South Africa. This presents these groups with more opportunities to inject their propaganda into the civil rights struggles and thus develop greater influence in this field. It also provides a sounding board for the introduction of international personalities and philosophies.

In our continuing investigations of subversive organizations we must be constantly alert to any indications of attempts of these organizations to influence, infiltrate or control civil rights organizations, and civil rights activities and racial incidents. Our responsibilities to keep the White House and appropriate agencies of the Federal Government promptly advised of all activities of such organizations in this field should not be overlooked. All pertinent information relative to subversive activities in the civil rights field should be promptly submitted to the Bureau in a form suitable for dissemination. This should not be interpreted as precluding the use of the telephone or teletype in advising the Bureau of important developments if the circumstances dictate.

The importance of this field of our operations should be immediately brought to the attention of appropriate Agent personnel in your office, and this matter should be afforded your continued close attention.

With the continuing increase of racial unrest and activities relating to the civil rights movement in this country during the past year, there has been a pronounced increase in the attempts of the Communist Party, USA, to inject itself into the racial movement. There has also been an increasing tendency of other communist groups, such as the Progressive Labor Party and the Socialist Workers Party to intensify and expand their efforts in this same field.

During the recent 18th National Convention of the Communist Party, USA, it was emphasized that the Communist Party, USA, must become known as the "best fighter" for Negro rights and it was stressed that the civil rights struggle should be linked with the struggle for peace.

It is felt that we should, at this time; instruct the field to be constantly alert for all indications of attempts of subversive organizations to influence, infiltrate or control civil rights organizations, civil rights activities and racial incidents, in view of our responsibilities to keep the President and other representatives of the Government promptly advised of all pertinent developments in this field.

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

A. Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA)

1. Plans, Strategy Made at National Level of the Party

During the evening of June 22, 1966, the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), held the first session of its 18th National Convention in New York City. The Convention was held at Webster Hall, 119 East 11th Street, New York City, and lasted from June 22, 1966, through June 26, 1966.

GUS HALL*, in making his introductory speech, dealt with many issues, one of which concerned civil rights. In that regard HALL charged that capitalism had refined the practice of slavery, and he described the civil rights struggle as a crisis of United States democracy and minorities and as a movement turned into a most meaningful struggle for democracy. Victory in the struggle for equality, according to HALL, lies in the fact that the working class is meeting the same opposition as the civil rights movement, thus forcing that class to coordinate the economic and political struggle.

HALL mentioned that there were minority groups consisting of Mexican-Americans and Puerto Ricans, with each group suffering discrimination that is linked with oppression of their homeland by imperialism. Class unity, HALL said, will be extended to all oppressed minorities.

During the afternoon session of the 18th National Convention, CP, USA, which was held on Wednesday, June 23, 1966, in New York City, a meeting of the Negro Rights Panel was held.

HERBERT WRIGHT* was the main speaker, emphasising in his report that the center of the struggle for the Negro people was in Chicago, Illinois. He said the merging of the forces of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING's* Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), the Coordinating Council of Community Organizations, and the Negro American Labor Council (NALC), also has its impact in the fight for full equality for the Negro people in Chicago. The central issues emerging from these efforts, according to WRIGHT, are essentially those projected in the CP Draft Resolution on the Negro question, specifically: abolishing the ghetto, the economic question, political representation, quality education, and building the Negro labor alliance.

Following WRIGHT's remarks, a discussion period ensued during which time other panel members made observations, none of which were reported by the source.

The summary of the Panel was made by CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT*, who said the main task of the white comrades was to fight white leaders, while the job of the Negro comrades was to fight Negro "misleaders".

NY T-2

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT* delivered the report of the Panel on Negro equality during the afternoon session of the 18th National Convention, CP, USA, which was held on June 24, 1966.

LIGHTFOOT said in his report of the Panel, that in his opinion the resolution from the Panel needed to be strengthened, specifically the matter of the Party's responsibiliti in connection with the current civil rights struggle and the responsibilities for future civil rights struggles. It was thought, LIGHTFOOT* said, that the Party must be the initiator of struggles, a force encouraging others in the struggle and a supporter of the struggles initiated to the limit of the ability of the Party.

Following extended discussions, LIGHTFOOT said that there would be no summary as the time was limited. However, he urged that the incoming National Committee, National Board, and Negro Commission, initiate specific campaigns, one of which should struggle for Negro youth. He said it was being recommended by the Panel that a sub-committee take the discussion into account and amend the Draft Resolution and then present it as the CP's position on the Negro question. LIGHTFOOT's motion was approved overwhelmingly by the Convention.

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT*, while reporting on the Negro question during the afternoon session of the 18th National Convention, CP, USA, which was held on June 24, 1966, in New York City, said there was considerable work to be done on the Negro Resolution. Furthermore, he felt that it was time for the Party to put out a major document on this issue. He said that due to the fact that 70 per cent of the Negro population in the United States live in cities, it was important that the Party get such a document prepared for distribution.

LIGHTFOOT said that Negro cadre in the Party must work with the Negroes in the ghettos. He also recommended that the CP Negro Commission work on these questions. Additionally, LIGHTFOOT recommended that the procedures discussed by the Negro Panel be considered by the Negro Commission of the Party.

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT*, in giving the Negro Commission report during the June 24, 1966, session of the 18th National Convention, CP, USA, held in New York City on June 22 through 26, 1966, observed that a transition was taking place in the civil rights struggle. And when asked how individual Communists should view the struggle he said, "We believe that we must strengthen our role in the Party, we must encourage others to action, and we must support the efforts of other types of organizations." He said the Party must initiate new struggles, and must be the best fighter in struggling for rights.

LIGHTFOOT observed that the youth of America are no longer susceptible to "red baiting"; that no one has the Negro people in his pocket; therefore, this gives the CP the opportunity to lead. In leading, LIGHTFOOT said, the Party must do the following things: link up all civil rights and peace groups; focus on economic problems; and finally, increase the income of the individuals living in the ghettos.

LIGHTFOOT went on to state that there were certain political aspects relative to the Negro question. He said the Negro must fill the ballot boxes in the South and must defeat Mayors YORTY of Los Angeles, DALY of Chicago, and LINDSAY of New York and the Dixiecrats.

LIGHTFOOT said the Party must make the unemployed and the student youth able to stand in the arena of the Party's great struggle. The Party, according to LIGHTFOOT, must struggle for higher Negro quality of political representation.

On the question of white chauvinism, LIGHTFOOT said the times require that the Partyhave a new mode of inter-racial living. He said when Negroes are struggling for identity, they must have the white participation and support.

On June 7, 1966, HENRY WINSTON* and GUS HALL* were in contact concerning the shooting of JAMES MEREDITH in Mississippi on June 6, 1966. WINSTON related that he and CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT* had discussed the case and had learned that subsequent to the shots that felled MEREDITH and as he was crawling toward Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and local police cars, there was no return of fire against the assailant, nor was there protective fire to insure that MEREDITH made it safely to assistance. WINSTON said the failure to do those things was a brazen case of "100 per cent racist bandits firing murderously at the civil rights fighter. That failure," WINSTON said, "showed that there was absolutely no protection whatsoever afforded to Negro democracy fighters even though there were present 'so called' law enforcement agencies. That failure," according to WINSTON, "in 'our' opinion called for the immediate demand of J. EDGAR HOOVER's resignation as Director of the FBI for his failure to provide protection for democracy in general and Negroes in particular, fighting for equal rights in the South."

WINSTON then proposed to Hall that the Party note these observations in the form of a statement in the news media of the nation. HALL* agreed that WINSTON's* proposal was a good one.

2. Plans and Strategy Made at District and Lower Level Meetings of the Party

On June 12, 1966, the third day's session of the New York State Communist Party Convention (NYCP) was held in the Grand Ballroom, Central Plaza, 111 Second Avenue, New York City. The Convention, which lasted from June 10 through June 12, 1966, was held in its entirety at Central Plaza.

MILDRED MC ADORY EDELMAN* reported for the Panel on Negro and Puerto Rican Work. She reported four main points which emanated from the Panel, specifically: that there must be a concentrated effort by the Party to eliminate the ghetto areas of New York City; the Party must work for unity between the trade unions and Negro people; white chauvinism must be completely eliminated; and the Convention should issue a resolution around the issue of Cuba and Puerto Rican independence.

NY T-7
June 12, 1966

On April 8, 1966, a CP, USA, New York District Board Meeting was held at Academy Hall, Room 156, 853 Broadway, New York, New York. S1

RASHEED STOREY* delivered the main report, dealing with the Negro question. In his opening remarks, STOREY* said the Party was very weak on the Negro question and that although it had generally been discussed on a State and National level, it had not been thoroughly discussed throughout the Party on a club level. He said there was a lot of talk concerning Negro and white unity, which he said was wrong. He said it should be discussed on the plane of Negro and white workers; that, he said, was the key to the Negro question. He said full employment for Negroes and Puerto Ricans and job opportunities for everyone were the key issues to be considered by the Party.

STOREY said that Negroes and Puerto Ricans had been upgraded slightly in order to get City and Government jobs, but remarked that that was only a token of what could be done throughout the country. He said when there was a crisis in New York City it concerned Negroes and Puerto Ricans, their problems and what could be done to solve them.

The Party, according to STOREY, has not played its full role in the ghetto areas. He said Party clubs should be reorganized so that they could work in the community where there was a need for help in the Negro and Puerto Rican ghettos.

In reference to Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING's* efforts to eradicate slum conditions in Chicago, STOREY said something should be done along those lines in Harlem and the Bedford Stuyvesant sections of New York City.

MIKE DAVIDOW, a member of the New York District CP, commented that what was needed by the Party was a known spokesman in the Harlem area.

April 14, 1966

On April 16 and 17, 1966, a meeting of the New York District CP Committee was held in New York City. The first day's session was held at the Edison Hotel and the second session was held in the Manhattan Hotel.

RASHEED STOREY* presented the main report, the one dealing with the Negro question. In his report, STOREY said the Negro question had been discussed by the Party on the national and state levels, but had not been discussed throughout the City on club and district levels. As a consequence of not having done so, STOREY said there was a weakness existing in the New York District.

Conceding that there had been some upgrading of Negroes in the State and City Governments in so far as labor is concerned, STOREY said however, on the whole the Negroes had not made too many important gains in job employment, apprenticeship training programs, education, and union status. In fact, STOREY claimed that the Negro people were worse off now than ever, and specifically pointed to housing as an example of their plight. He said the "left" should take the initiative in the struggle within the ghetto areas to solve the conditions of bad housing for the Negro and Puerto Rican people.

STOREY reported, in referring to the Civil Rights Act of 1964, that there was a tendency by many people to think that the Negro fight was over. He conceded that the fight was far from being over.

STOREY said that crises had arisen in Negro organizations because many of their leaders had entered into anti-Party programs and therefore the Party was weaker.

STOREY said there was white chauvinism among the cadre engaged in civil rights and in the peace movement as well. But, on the brighter side, he said the peace organizations in Harlem were growing and the Party concentration in those areas was paying off. According to STOREY, the national leadership of the Party desires Party concentration in Harlem, and wants to get a Party spokesman in that area.

In recommending specific points for the Party, STOREY said it should push both major parties in the US to support more Negro candidates for State and National positions. If they did that, according to STOREY the Party could support those candidates.

Following STOREY's report, a discussion period ensued and after the period, the report of STOREY's was passed without change.

3. Plans as Revealed in Party Publications

"The Worker" is an East Coast Communist newspaper.

In the May 17, 1966, issue of "The Worker", on page 2, there appeared an editorial captioned, "After 12 Long Years". The editorial, dealing with the Supreme Court ruling of 12 years ago, invalidating segregation in the Nation's schools, said although the decision cleared the way for the Nation to erase "this shameful blot on American democracy", the vast majority of Negro children in the South and the North are still confined to overcrowded ghetto Jim Crow schools.

The Federal Government, the editorial commented, in the administrations of Presidents JOHNSON, EISENHOWER, and KENNEDY, was responsible for the failure to carry out in life the order of the Supreme Court for desegregation of the schools.

"As the years lengthen", the editorial notes, "it is becoming clearer that the Federal Government is stalling on segregation in the schools. It is not using its vast police and economic power to force the racist elements who control the school systems in the South and many places in the North to end education segregation. The Department of Justice is dragging its feet on bringing into court the white supremacists who are violating the Supreme Court's school desegregation order and the United States Constitution. The Department of Health, Education, and Welfare is helping the racists get huge sums of Federal money without really ending school Jim Crow."

In offering an end to the alleged discrimination, the editorial said a speedy end to the Negro ghetto school system was the major test of President JOHNSON's "oft-proclaimed commitment to full rights for the Negro people. Up to now he has flunked the test miserably."

"It is obvious", the editorial concluded, "that the President would have to feel the full blast of the pressure of the people before he would move adequately against the racists who were continuing to segregate Negro school children. Every American who cherishes democracy is urged to act with his neighbors to force an end to the crime of segregation against all the children of the Nation."

The June 12, 1966, issue of "The Worker," on page 3, an editorial captioned, "No Idle Tears", also dealt with the MEREDITH shooting. The editorial in essence fixed responsibility for the shooting. It said President JOHNSON could not absolve himself with a sanctimonious expression of right of the murderous attempt on the life of JAMES MEREDITH by a racist assassin.

"The President", the editorial continued, "and his predecessors have always been sorry after the atrocity!"

The editorial said the President and his administration have done nothing to prevent these atrocities and the many other unrecorded ones against the Negro people, South and North, or against white civil rights workers.

"President JOHNSON", the article continued, "has the power to prevent the white supremacists who control Southern states from continuing their reign of terror against the Negro people. He has sworn to uphold and defend the Constitution and laws of the United States which guarantee the Negro citizens full protection of equal rights."

"However, the 'President's FBI Agents'", the article says, "stood idly by while the racist assassin pumped shotgun shells into the body of MEREDITH. They watched as MEREDITH dragged himself across the highway to the cover of a parked car."

The editorial questioned why MEREDITH was shot, and in answering said he had planned to march through Mississippi to defend the rights of all Americans under the Constitution, to promote free elections in that state. Because of his actions he symbolized the onward march of freedom throughout the country.

"But President JOHNSON", the editorial noted, "who is sacrificing thousands of young Negro and white GI's in Viet Nam, with the phony excuse that they are to defend democracy and freedom did not send Federal Troops to Mississippi to prevent the attempted assassination of JAMES MEREDITH, or to defend freedom and democracy for the Negro people."

The editorial concluded on the note that President Johnson must bring home the Negro GI's in Viet Nam to defend their people in Mississippi from racist supremacists.

"Political Affairs" is self-described as the theoretical journal of the Communist Party, USA.

In the April, 1966, issue of "Political Affairs", there appeared an article attributed to CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT*, captioned "Civil Rights. A New Phase". LIGHTFOOT*, in opening his article, referred to the fact that Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING and the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) recently opened a civil rights drive in Chicago, Illinois, to eradicate slums. However, the overall results of the drive, according to LIGHTFOOT*, could be judged only by history. So, therefore, LIGHTFOOT* said this new phase of the civil rights struggle affects every aspect of "our" national life, and new developments would be spawned in many directions. According to LIGHTFOOT*, his article limited itself to a discussion on how to build a closer alliance between the Negroes and the labor movement and end the struggle for a political realignment.

LIGHTFOOT* said a significant crossroad had been reached where objective conditions were maturing for the strengthening of the Negro-labor alliance. Most civil rights leaders, he noted, had always favored strong ties with the labor movement. The problem, however, has always lain with the labor movement, he noted.

The problems within the house of labor, LIGHTFOOT* said, were not civil rights problems per se. They are much deeper. He said labor was passing through a period on which its posture with regard to purely trade union questions had declined .

The virtual absence of a militant Left-wing in the labor movement has resulted in the Right-wing forces having unchallenged domination while the center forces, in the absence of pressure from the Left, gravitated toward the right, LIGHTFOOT* observed. As a result, the article stated, the working class became divided in some respects between the more affluent and the less affluent workers. This growth of the labor aristocracy provided the mass basis for much of the ability of the Right wing labor leaders to dull the fighting capacity of the labor movement.

As a consequence of a program which favored one section of the workers over another, LIGHTFOOT* said, problems have accumulated which will erupt as did Watts in relation to the civil rights movement last year. The dissatisfaction of the workers, LIGHTFOOT said, was to be seen in union elections in some internationals as well as on the local level. As a consequence of this and the hardening activities of the Government's attitude toward labor, the unions were being forced to fight more militantly for the general demands of labor itself, which in turn require it to fight more energetically for the rights of the Negro people and for peace and the general welfare.

LIGHTFOOT* said, for a long time the only force which waged militant struggles was the Negro people's movement. Later the youth came in, then the Church, and now there are signs that labor will also come in. The enlargement of forces to do battle for the things each component element is committed to was the much needed condition to impell all to wage joint struggles against a common foe. It is these features, LIGHTFOOT said, which should encourage all who have lost hope in labor's capacity, to join, in a meaningful way, the civil rights battles.

Following the 1964 elections, civil rights leaders emerged with a greater understanding of the need to carry the struggle forward into the political arena. They had combined their forces, LIGHTFOOT said, to defeat BARRY GOLDWATER. In the course of doing that, they came to feel that the center of gravity of the civil rights struggle would rest in the political arena.

Some people, according to LIGHTFOOT*, suggested that street demonstrations should be substituted for actions at the ballot box. "We Communists", LIGHTFOOT* said, "do not subscribe to such a view." Political action in his mind, should mirror a variety of forms of social protest, and the demonstration form should not be the least among them. The demonstration remains a most potent weapon to influence the political machinery to respond to the needs of the people. However, what the new phase of the civil rights struggle chiefly calls for, in LIGHTFOOT's* way of thinking, is the election of "real pro-labor, pro-civil rights candidates to office in all branches of government."

LIGHTFOOT*, in reporting the Party's belief as to what was required to change inequalities in racial matters, said a new People's Party was needed. But conditions, in his words, had not ripened to the point where this objective could be carried out. "Meanwhile, therefore, civil rights, peace and labor forces in every area are needed to come together and map out plans on how to deal with the immediate situation, doing these things that are possible and practical as of now", LIGHTFOOT said.

LIGHTFOOT* said it was idle chatter to talk about a new People's Party unless the Dixiecrats strength in the South was broken. As a corollary to the Southern struggle, the Negro and labor movement in the North needed to become independent of the Democratic Party, to promote Negro and labor representation at every level of Government, and either to force changes on the present officeholders or eventually to eliminate them.

However, becoming independent does not mean forming a new party at this time. The basis for such development, in LIGHTFOOT's opinion, does not exist. The establishment of independent policies by Negro and labor forces would be a step in that direction. He concluded on the note that the labor movement is the key factor in the civil rights struggle.

Other Communist Groups

Progressiwe Labor Party (PLP)*

The April 5, 1966 issue of "Challenge - De Safio", a newspaper published in English and Spanish every other week by the PLP in New York City, page 3, carried an article captioned "Cops Beat Two, Jail Three, on East Side", written by MARY LAUB*. In this article it is claimed that New York City plainclothesmen from the New York City Police Department had beaten two youths without provocation and then were arrested by the Police officers for "interfering" with an arrest of a narcotics suspect.

The article quotes the two victims as stating they were treated like dogs on the street.

The April 19, 1966, issue of "Challenge", page 2, carried an article captioned "Two Girls Beaten, Jailed" written by FELIPE DE JESUS*. In this article, it is claimed that two Puerto Rican sisters were victims of Police brutality on Tuesday, April 12, after t h e two girls went into a supermarket at 104 Avenue B, New York City, where they asked the owner for a certain type of cake. According to the article, the owner called them stupid, and asked them to leave the store. The two girls claimed that the store owner and his wife kicked and beat them after accusimg them of stealimg from the store. The store owner locked the door and called the police. The police arrived and then the police also hit and kicked the two girls according to the article.

The May 3, 1966, issue of "Challenge", page 2, carried an article captioned "Police Brutality Must Go", written by ZAIDA LOPEZ, a Puerto Rican girl, who was one of two sisters referred to in the story in "Challenge" dated April 19, 1966.

Miss LOPEZ, who was accused of shoplifting in a supermarket at 104 Avenue B, New York City, set forth in her article that the police always favor the rich, many innocent people are jailed by the police and the police are guilty of police brutality.

The June 21, 1966 issue of "Challenge", page 4, carried an article captioned "Resistance" written by a special correspondent in Chicago which was an article about Puerto Ricans rebelling in Chicago. The article claims that the uprising in Chicago, started after the police kicked a pregnant Puerto Rican woman in the stomach and another defenseless Puerto Rican had been shot four times. The article accuses the police of attacking the people.

The July 5, 1966 issue of "Challenge", page 3, carried an article captioned "Puerto Ricans Rebel, Chicago Speaks Out" written by FELIPE DE JESUS.

The article sets forth that "June 12 and 13, in Chicago will go down in history as the days Latin Americans in the United States raised the revolutionary flag of Lares and followed the lead of their brothers in the fatherland and around the world. It is almost two years since the Harlem rebellion. Since then black people, North and South, have temporarily controlled whole areas and have merely flexed their muscles ..."

The article then sets forth statements of individuals in Chicago who complained of Police brutality against Puerto Ricans in Chicago, higher prices charged to Puerto Ricans for rent and food and the poor jobs available to Puerto Ricans in Chicago.

On June 12, 1966, the PLP sponsored a street meeting at West 104th Street and Broadway, New York City, from 1:30 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. to commemorate Puerto Rican Flag Day.

All of the speakers referred to the imperialistic enslavement of Puerto Rico by the United States and called for unity among all revolutionary organizations in the world.

On June 19, 1966, the source learned that FELIPE de JESUS, a PLP member in New York City, had gone to Chicago on or about June 16, 1966 "to get in on the rebellion." DE JESUS reportedly met with MILTON ROSEN, President of the PLP, prior to leaving for Chicago and apparently gave DE JESUS instructions on what to do upon his arrival in Chicago.

On May 17, 1966, THOMAS JOHNSON, a reporter for the "New York Times", a daily newspaper in New York City, interviewed WILLIAM EPTON, Vice President of the PLP and Chairman of the PLP Harlem Club, to obtain EPTON's assessment of the last two years since the Harlem riots in July, 1964.

EPTON advised that "essentially nothing has changed in the community as far as the conditions of the people. We still have the highest rate of unemployment, dope addiction, poor hospital service, the highest rate of tuberculosis, the highest rents and the worst slums. Harlem has always been and it still is a potential bomb that any action on the part of the police can ignite and make it go off. Brutality of the police against the people has not changed one bit since 1964. One can still walk the streets and feel the same tension one felt in 1964. Now in the black community there is the added impetus of the war in Viet Nam. The black people feel that it is not their war and they have no interest in it but it is another ingredient added to a very difficult tense situation."

EPTON accused the City of New York of not carrying out its responsibilities and was trying to find someone to use as a scapegoat when all they had to do was to look and see all the elements that make people want to rebel against their present system and that was what actually happened.

EPTON claimed that at that particular time the PLP was trying to give some kind of leadership to the people against the police tactics in the Harlem community and as a result the PLP bore the brunt of the city's attack.

In answer to a question that the Harlem riots were "Communist inspired", EPTON replied that New York City Deputy Mayor, PAUL SCREVANE, "Like most people who have no consciousness or awareness of what is going on in the black community panicked."

EPTON further stated that there is a kind of feeling among white politicians that someone always has to tell the black people or lead the black people to do things. The white politicians seem to think that the black people are not aware of their own conditions, therefore, someone has to tell them what their conditions are which forments an insurrection. EPTON stated that SCREVANE had this old worn out white supremacy idea about black people that someone has to tell them to do something, therefore, anyone who speaks out against the conditions of the people is immediately called a Communist, left wing, left lead, left influenced or Communist inspired.

In the event of another riot, EPTON stated that the PLP's role is quite clear and the PLP states publicly what they are going to do. The PLP supports any position the people take on their own behalf and in their own defense. Whatever the people decide to do and if the PLP considers it a just form of struggle, the PLP will support and do everything it can to make that support as organized as possible.

EPTON further stated that the only way the black people in Harlem can make progress is being organized together to present their grievances in some sort of organized fashion.

EPTON stated that once the people are organized and whatever action they decide to use in their own interests to achieve their ends for national liberation for the black people in the United States, the PLP will support their actions.

On July 16, 1966, Special Agents (SAS) of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) observed a street meeting at 116th Street and Lexington Avenue, New York City, sponsored by the PLP.

A mimeographed leaflet was being distributed at this meeting, which read as follows:

"WE WILL WIN!

"After almost 350 years of slavery, beatings, intimidations, terror, brainwashings and murder the black people are still fighting back and refuse to suffer more indignities.

"Since we were first brought over here as slaves in 1619 the black people have fought back, revolted and organized to gain our complete freedom and liberation, and that fight is still going on.

"TODAY THE BATTLE IS BEING WAGED BY OUR BROTHERS IN CHICAGO!

"LAST YEAR OUR BROTHERS AND SISTERS IN WATTS, LOS ANGELES FOUGHT GALLANTLY AGAINST THIS RACIST GOVERNMENT AND THEIR POLICE RAISING THE SLOGAN 'THIS IS OUR VIETNAM!'

"IN 1964 IT WAS IN HARLEM, ROCHESTER, PHILADELPHIA AND OTHER CITIES.

"THE PUERTO RICAN PEOPLE IN CHICAGO ROSE UP TO DEFEND THEMSELVES AGAINST THE SAVAGE ATTACKS OF THE POLICE IN CHICAGO!

"THE BLACK PEOPLE ARE ORGANIZING IN THE SOUTH TO CONTROL THEIR OWN DESTINY IN THOSE AREAS WHERE THEY ARE THE MAJORITY OF THE POPULATION!

"THE COLORED PEOPLES OF ASIA, AFRICA AND LATIN AMERICA ARE WAGING MILITANT STRUGGLES AGAINST THIS SAME U.S. GOVERNMENT!

"ALL OVER THE UNITED STATES WHITE WORKERS ARE GOING OUT ON STRIKE FOR MORE WAGES, BETTER WORKING CONDITIONS, AND THEY HAVE TAKEN A MORE MILITANT STAND!

"THE STRUGGLE GROWS & SPREADS!

"The Vietnamese people are fighting against the same common enemy that is oppressing us here. We have no business being over there when our fight is for our liberation here in the United States. The latest statistics show that 50% of the troops that go into combat in Vietnam are Black!!!!

"The United States Government is murdering us in Vietnam, Chicago, Harlem, Watts and across the south. WE MUST ORGANIZE TO PUT A FINAL END TO THESE CRIMES COMMITTED AGAINST COLORED PEOPLES BY THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT!

Mr. SMITH described the term "Black Power", which was recently used by the National Director of CORE, as an economic and political power to advance the aims of the Negro so he can attain his natural status as a United States citizen. He stated the "Black Power" concept is not associated in any way with violence, anti-white sentiments, black nationalism or any other misinterpretation by the press. Mr. SMITH stated he had no knowledge of any specific instances of Communist Party influence or control in the civil rights movement, of which CORE is a part.

II. INTEREST OF THE CP IN THE NALC

A CP New York District Negro Commission meeting was held on February 26, 1966, at the Chelsea Hotel, 575 Sixth Avenue, New York City. Two NYNALC caucus members were in attendance. One of these caucus members spoke on the NALC and its history and connection with the labor movement. This spokesman also stated that there was no coordination within the Party itself concerning the Negro and labor activities. As an example, the speaker pointed out that when the NALC has an apprenticeship training program, the NYNALC caucus members have no idea of whom they can send to this NALC program. Further, that the same 2 people are doing all the work in the caucus group and that it needs to be expanded by bringing both young and old into it.

NY T-8
February 28, 1966

The Executive Committee of the Trade Union Commission of the New York District CP met on March 4, 1966 at 550 Grand Street, New York City.

JAMES TORMEY* chaired the meeting.

It was stated that the Trade Union Commission should evaluate the work done in the NALC. Further it was stated that the NYNALC should have an educational program so that the membership can be taught how to become more effective.

NY T-15
March 8, 1966

On March 13, 1966, the Trade Union Commission of the New York District CP met at the Hotel Manhattan, 45th Street and Eighth Avenue, New York City.

Among those in attendance were several NYNALC caucus members. One of these caucus members stated the NALC door was open to the Party. He asked that the Trade Unionists for Peace (TUFP)* come to the NALC and work for peace.

NY T-16
March 14, 1966

"The Worker", an east coast Communist newspaper, in its edition of March 22, 1966, carried an article entitled "Negro Labor Council to Press for Job Training, Works Program".

The article stated a feature of the coming annual NALC convention scheduled for May 27 - 29 in Baltimore would be the discussion of how to build support for the on-job vocational training program for integration of Negro workers in mass production industries drawn up by the Cleveland Chapter of the NALC.

The program, known as the Evans Plan, was adopted as part of the NALC program at the first meeting of the NALC's Executive Board in January.

It called upon the federal government to set up a nationwide on-the-job program, with equal opportunity for Negro and white to help fill the critical shortage of technically skilled workers.

Among the other points the program adopted by the NALC were:

"Massive public works program to provide more jobs

"Integration of Negroes in apprenticeship programs

"Join in War on Poverty

"Support of a minimum wage of $2 an hour...

"Abolition of the Black Ghettos which will bring billions of dollars into the homes of black and white workers and provide low-cost and middle income housing for all Americans

"Appointment of a Negro to membership on the National AFL-CIO Executive Council when the next vacancy occurs..."

On April 11, 1966, the New York District CP Board met in Room 15, Academy Hall, 853 Broadway, New York City.

In talking about the New York Labor Movement, JAMES TORMEY* stated, among other things, that the main thing we must do is to stress Negro-Puerto Rican labor unity; organize the unorganized, especially among the low-paid and develop a special relationship with the NALC.

NY T-15
April 12, 1966

"The Worker", in its edition of May 17, 1966, reported that the sixth annual convention of the NALC scheduled May 27 at the Lord Baltimore Hotel would hear I. W. ABEL, President of the United Steel Workers. ABEL, it stated, had spoken at the NALC founding convention in 1960.

III. NYNALC CP CAUCUS AND/OR RELATED ACTIVITIES

Source, on various dates during 1966, identified the following individuals as members of the NYNALC CP caucus:

AGNES WILLIS
LEO RABOUINE
ARTHUR and MARIAN KNIGHT
JOHN CUTCH
JOSEPH CHENERY

NY T-8
1966

Source learned that JIM TORMEY* instructed an NYNALC caucus member in February, 1966, to contact two longshoremen from the Brooklyn Local of the Longshoremen's Union in an attempt to involve more Negro longshoremen in the NALC. TORMEY stated that these two individuals are not "our people", meaning they were not CP members. TORMEY characterized them, however, as "good guys", who have a lot of influence with Negro longshoremen. TORMEY stated that "our people in the industry" want to see them become active in the NALC.

TORMEY stated that both individuals should be contacted and an attempt made to get at least one of them into the NALC.

NY T-15
February 28, 1966

On February 23, 1966, a regular membership meeting of the NYNALC took place at 217 West 125th Street, New York City. Approximately 50 individuals were present including several CP caucus members.

The major part of the meeting was taken up with the matter concerning a letter from the National Board of the NALC to the chapters advising them that the NALC desires to form an alliance with the Trade Union Movement. A long letter addressed to the National Board of the NALC was read criticising this action. The chapter's endorsement of this letter was received and it was to be sent out in the name of the Executive Board of the New York Chapter.

NY T-15
March 1, 1966

On March 2, 1966, an NYNALC caucus member reported to JIM TORMEY* that he had contacted the wife of one of the two men from the Longshoremen's Union, whose name TORMEY had previously given him.

The caucus member stated he was unable to reach TORMEY's contact and was told he could contact him at a meeting of a splinter group of the Negro longshoremen from the Longshoremen's Union. TORMEY's contact was not present at the meeting but the NYNALC caucus member spoke to the group about the advantages of joining the NYNALC.

TORMEY stressed the importance of lining up the longshoremen Negroes to get them back into the NALC.

The NYNALC caucus member advised TORMEY of the last NALC membership meeting and how the NALC National Board had come out with a letter advising them that the NALC was to form an alliance with the Trade Union Movement in the United States. The spokesman pointed out how the membership meeting was against this alliance and had called for a press release in opposition to the release made by the National Board.

The spokesman also stated that a representative of the National Board who was at the meeting attempted to defend the National Board's actions.

TORMEY stated that this statement from the National Board was a good one and that if the NYNALC caucus member had been at the last NYNALC caucus meeting, he would have known the Party's position on this matter.

TORMEY stated that the reason for the Party's position is that the CP does not desire a Negro community to rally against the Trade Union Movement. TORMEY suggested to the caucus member that he try to get out of this situation gracefully and attempt to head off the damage that was done by the issuance of this press release by the NYNALC criticizing their National Board. TORMEY stated that this is factionalism and disruption in the NALC and this type of thing should not be taken out into the public. TORMEY stated that this is a declaration of war by the NYNALC against the national organization and that this is not good for the rank and file trade unionists within the NALC.

TORMEY also stated that CORE (Congress of Racial Equality) was going to start a push for equal hiring in the Building Trades. TORMEY stated he would prefer to see the NALC be the leader in this movement because if CORE starts the push, they will also attack the Building Trade Unions. TORMEY told the caucus member that he and another individual should start a push against discrimination in hiring in this field.

March 2, 1966

On March 5, 1966, an NYNALC CP caucus meeting was held at 435 East Ninth Street, New York City. JIM TORMEY*, HENRY WINSTON* and CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT* were also in attendance.

It was announced that the NALC convention would be held May 27 - 30, 1966, at the Lord Baltimore Hotel, Baltimore, Maryland.

A discussion ensued concerning the recent criticism that the NYNALC had drawn against a press release of A. PHILIP

RANDOLPH. RANDOLPH had urged support of all unions, regardless of whether they had discriminated against Negro and Puerto Rican workers. The NYNALC had criticized this stand and stated that labor should be censored for this. One of the caucus members did not support this theory. TORMEY stated that the other caucus members should have voiced their objection to the stand taken by the NYNALC as the Party did not want several Negro groups battling with the unions over this issue. Therefore, he wanted the caucus group to work hard for a retraction of this stand by the NYNALC.

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT* then proceeded to review the work of the NYNALC CP caucus and commended it highly for what it had done. He stated that it had saved the NALC in New York from members of the NALC who were against the policies of RANDOLPH and CLEVELAND ROBINSON. He contended the Party should and would set up in other cities throughout the United States CP caucus groups like the one in New York.

Another caucus group spokesman stated the New York caucus group should be enlarged and if this was done, they would be able to do more work within the NALC. The spokesman mentioned there were only five or six members in the caucus group and were limited to the work they could do. The spokesman concluded stating it was imperative that this caucus group be enlarged so that they could take up the battle against the Building Trades for its discrimination.

TORMEY and other Party functionaries, including WINSTON, were in favor of this suggestion and stated that they would try to enlarge the caucus group in the near future.

The NYNALC CP caucus met at 435 East Ninth Street on April 3, 1966.

There was a discussion re the last NYNALC membership meeting. Criticism was leveled at the group for not nominating one of the caucus members for the Executive Board.

Another one of the caucus members was nominated for the Executive Board but declined because they had served during the past two elections and desired to serve on the Election Committee again.

NY T-15
April 4, 1966

Source stated that a meeting of the NYNALC CP caucus group was held at 151 West 16th Street, New York City, on April 23, 1966.

Among the CP functionaries present were:

WILLIAM L. PATTERSON*
JAKE (JACOB) GREEN*,
Baltimore, Maryland
TOMMY DENNIS*,
Detroit, Michigan
JIM TORMEY*

Source advised that a general discussion took place at the meeting regarding the forthcoming NALC convention to be held in Baltimore, Maryland, May 27-29, 1966.

JAKE GREEN stated that unless the NALC national organization stepped in and helped organize this convention, it would probably be a failure. He stated his reasons for this conclusion were that the Baltimore Chapter was small and the chapter's president was trying to do the whole job himself. He stated it was too much of a job for one person.

It was decided at this meeting that CLEVELAND ROBINSON (NALC Vice President and Assistant to the President) should be contacted and asked to look into the Baltimore situation, and if it warranted it, help should be sent to Baltimore from the National NALC office.

Source stated that a possible successor to NALC President A. PHILIP RANDOLPH was discussed, since it was rumored that he may go into retirement. Possible successors mentioned were HORACE SHEFFIELD, NALC Vice President from Detroit; JOSEPH OVERTON, NALC Secretary from New York, and CLEVELAND ROBINSON, Vice President and Assistant to the NALC President.

The CP members at the meeting agreed to support CLEVELAND ROBINSON.

Also discussed at the meeting were the following propositions:

1. To back RANDOLPH's resolution to attempt to secure $100,000,000 for the elimination of ghettos.

2. Propose a resolution to elect more Negroes on federal and state levels.

3. Attempt to have the convention introduce and approve a resolution advocating "Peace in Viet Nam".

RFM:kxb

NY T-8
April 25, 1966

JIM TORMEY* met with an NYNALC caucus member on May 13, 1966.

TORMEY stated with regard to the coming NALC convention that the caucus members should support CLEVELAND ROBINSON for the presidency of the NALC should RANDOLPH retire as rumored. TORMEY stated that they should not support JOE OVERTON for that position since the latter at the last convention presented peace resolutions supporting President JOHNSON. TORMEY stated that either he or CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT* would meet with the Party members at the Baltimore convention.

NY T-8
May 16, 1966

The NALC held their annual convention at the Lord Baltimore Hotel, Baltimore, Maryland, from May 27 - 29, 1966.

Prior to the convention, A. PHILIP RANDOLPH held a national Executive Board meeting at the same place. At the Executive Board meeting, plans of the convention were discussed and the resolutions to be brought forward were also provided to the NALC Vice Presidents. At this time, RANDOLPH made known his resolution on peace. RANDOLPH's intent was that this resolution would hold off any full debate on the convention floor concerning the United States continuing the war in Viet Nam.

CLEVELAND ROBINSON, HORACE SHEFFIELD, and TROY BRAILEY were against this resolution in the present form.

NY 100-153735

ROBINSON stated that the NALC should not oppose President JOHNSON's stand in Viet Nam; however, if they supported RANDOLPH's resolution, it would appear that they were giving their consent to the JOHNSON Administration policy in Viet Nam and actually apologizing for the way the President was conducting the war. RANDOLPH stated that he would change this resolution prior to presenting it on the convention floor.

CLEVELAND ROBINSON won the election as President of the NALC.

On the convention floor, RANDOLPH presented his peace proposal which was passed, and it appeared that he had not changed it one bit from the one he had presented to the Executive Board on May 26, 1966.

The Party did not exert any influence or domination at the NALC convention nor did it hold any caucus meetings while in Baltimore.

On May 30, 1966, an NYNALC CP caucus meeting was held at 151 West 16th Street, New York City. JIM TORMEY* was also present at this meeting.

The meeting was held principally to discuss with TORMEY the results of the NALC convention held in Baltimore, Maryland, May 27 - 29, 1966.

The Party, although not exerting any influence on the convention, felt that they had gained a victory, since CLEVELAND ROBINSON was elected as President of the NALC. Also they were pleased that AGNES WILLIS had been re-elected as Vice President of the NALC. TORMEY stated that the Party was disappointed that they were unable to get a peace resolution before the convention which would be in favor of their position, rather than the one A. PHILIP RANDOLPH had proposed, which backed the JOHNSON Administration. However, TORMEY stated, we gained two points, and by losing on the peace issue it is not too bad.

SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE
NEW YORK AFFILIATE

The Southern Christian Leadership Conference will be abbreviated by the initials SCLC. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.* is President of the SCLC, which is headquartered in Atlanta, Georgia.

The "Research Committee" of SCLC is a committee made up of MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.* and his advisors, STANLEY LEVISON*, CLARENCE JONES*, HARRY WACHTEL*, and BAYARD RUSTIN*, all of New York City.

AL DUCKETT, Public Relations man, New York City, stated that a tour of singer BILLY ECKSTINE had to be cancelled due to ECKSTINE's illness. The money from this tour was to go to SCLC, but because of the cancellation, DUCKETT had lost MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.* and SCLC's business. However, DUCKETT complained that Mrs. KING still owed him $1,800 for work he had performed for her.

CLARENCE JONES* stated on April 14, 1966 that he had spent all of his time while he was at an SCLC Board Meeting in Miami, Florida, arguing over what should go into the SCLC resolution on Viet Nam. JONES remarked "We gave it to them. We gave it to JOHNSON". JONES claimed the resolution appeared on the front page of the "New York Times" and that it showed his "fine handwork" in drafting the resolution.

April 14, 1966

The "New York Times" dated April 14, 1966, page 1, contained an article datelined April 13, 1966, Atlanta, Georgia, captioned "Dr. King's Group Scores Ky Junta". The article stated that SCLC, headed by MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.*, "called on the Johnson Administration today to abandon the ruling military junta of South Viet Nam and consider withdrawing from the country altogether." It also urged the Administration to seek free elections in Viet Nam. According to the "New York Times" article, the Executive Board of SCLC adopted this resolution at a meeting in Miami, Florida and MARTIN LUTHER KING, announced it at a news conference there. It was noted that it was the first time SCLC had taken a formal stand on the Viet Nam war.

"The Worker", dated April 19, 1966, also had a page 1 story favorable to the above SCLC resolution on Viet Nam.

"The Worker" is an east coast Communist newspaper.

On April 18, 1966, STANLEY LEVISON* and ADELE KANTER, Office Manager, SCLC Office, 200 West 57th Street, New York City, N.Y. were in contact. KANTER inquired if LEVISON knew anything about the impending SCLC "Newsletter". LEVISON stated that he had discussed it with JUNIS GRIFFIN, SCLC Public Relations Director, N.Y. who said the letter was being prepared. KANTER advised LEVISON that she had a conversation with JAMES HARRISON, SCLC bookkeeper, Atlanta, GA. on April 17, 1966 and he apprised her of the breakdown of the duties of SCLC personnel engaged in financial matters. HARRISON stated he was the individual who handled the receipts and payroll matters. LEVISON stated that that was correct. KANTER further mentioned to LEVISON that $10,000 was in a Boston bank and KANTER had inquired if the money had come from a donor or not. HARRISON advised that the sum had come from an anonymous donor. KANTER further told LEVISON that she inquired of HARRISON as to why SCLC in New York had not received a receipt for a $1,000 donation from the labor union in New York. HARRISON stated the $1,000 was in a separate bank account and was being used to pay back money the SCLC had borrowed. LEVISON told KANTER to determine if the $1,000 check from the Transport Workers Union, which had originally been made payable to Dr. KING* rather than to SCLC, had been straightened out. LEVISON stated the check was returned by SCLC hoping the union would make a larger contribution. Before concluding their contact, LEVISON told KANTER that he recently talked to MARTIN LUTHER KING about Chicago, and KING advised him that he could not work with the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) because they could not be trusted.

On April 23, 1966, STANLEY LEVISON* and CLARENCE JONES* were in contact. LEVISON mentioned that MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.* wanted to talk to him about SCLC's program in Chicago, however, they had not been able to get together. LEVISON was of the opinion that KING wanted to discuss the formulation of the Chicago program. LEVISON mentioned that BAYARD RUSTIN* was in Chicago to unify many civil rights groups. LEVISON further stated that according to HARRY WACHTEL*, RUSTIN was disturbed because SCLC had recently passed the resolution on Viet Nam. RUSTIN had attended a civil rights meeting in Washington, D.C. recently where the civil rights organizations agreed they would not get involved in the Viet Nam war.

JONES* stated to LEVISON* that he had watched the newspapers very closely for a statement by a major civil rights leader attacking KING's* position on Viet Nam, but to date, there had been none. JONES stated the Viet Nam resolution came precisely at the time that people in the United States Senate were saying the same thing. LEVISON acknowledged there were similar statements from other prominent people, such as Senators COOPER of Kentucky and RUSSELL of Georgia, but disagreed that the reticence of civil rights leaders who spoke was due to this. LEVISON believed the civil rights leaders were holding their tongues because they were glad KING had stuck his neck out. LEVISON stated that ROY WILKINS, Executive Secretary, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) and WHITNEY YOUNG, Executive Direcotr, Urban League, now were considered by President JOHNSON as his men. LEVISON stated that KING is now in a different relationship with the White House than he used to be. LEVISON stated that WILKINS and YOUNG were accomplishing what they wanted in Washington and it put KING in a less advantageous position, which is where YOUNG and WILKINS wanted him to be. U.S.A.

On April 29, 1966, STANLEY LEVISON * and DORA McDONALD, Secretary to MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.*, were in contact. U.S.A.

MC DONALD stated that KING had scheduled a meeting of certain key SCLC personnel for May 2, 1966, in Atlanta and he wanted LEVISON to attend. LEVISON remarked that he had already discussed the meeting with KING and that he (LEVISON) planned to be there.

On May 1, 1966, STANLEY LEVISON* and CLARENCE JONES* were in contact. LEVISON told JONES of his plans to attend a meeting in Atlanta of the "Structural Committee" of SCLC which was scheduled for May 2, 1966. LEVISON inquired of JONES if he had made any progress in obtaining the contribution for SCLC from a trade union. JONES replied that he had been unable to get the contribution, but he was continuing his efforts.

On May 7, 1966, MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., STANLEY LEVISON and CLARENCE JONES* had a conference. They discussed the elections held in Alabama on May 3, 1966. All agreed that JOSEA WILLIAMS, Director of SCLC's Special Projects, should not have been permitted to select the Negro candidates who made the races. They agreed they would have picked a different slate altogether from that selected by WILLIAMS. LEVISON suggested that KING write an article for a national magazine analyzing the Alabama vote because KING's statements on the election results had not received much publicity in the press. LEVISON stated he would try to get an article in "Harpers","Atlantic," or the "Saturday Evening Post" but if unable to do so, he was confident he could get an article in the magazine section of the "New York Times".

LEVISON* than suggested that he and JONES* get together with KING* for several hours to exchange ideas on the article. KING stated any meeting would have to take place in Chicago because he was returning there on May 10, 1966. They all agreed to meet in Chicago on May 12, 1966.

On May 11, 1966, CLARENCE JONES* commented that he was going to Chicago on May 12, 1966 to see MARTIN LUTHER KING*. He stated that he had to work on the draft of a statement which he was to give to SANFORD GOTTLIEB, National Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy (SANE). The statement was to be attributed to MARTIN LUTHER KING and was for use in connection with the Voters March on Washington, D.C., to be held May 15, 1966 in protest of the United States policy in Viet Nam. JONES stated that the March's sponsors had asked KING to attend but JONES commented that KING would be unable to do so. JONES indicated that the next best thing would be to have the lengthy statement from KING and that this was one of the number of reasons he (JONES) was going to Chicago.

KENNEDY had acknowledged the letter sent to him by MARTIN LUTHER KING* which had been composed by LEVISON and applauded his (KENNEDY's) statement on Viet Nam. MC DONALD answered that Senator KENNEDY had written a beautiful two page letter to KING. LEVISON requested a copy of this letter so that he could see how Senator KENNEDY treated the matter.

On May 13, 1966, CLARENCE JONES* was in contact with ANDREW YOUNG, Executive Director, SCLC, concerning the proposed statement from MARTIN LUTHER KING* for the Voters March on Washington on May 15, 1966. JONES stated that he had in mind a letter or a statement from KING which would essentially be a restatement of the SCLC resolution on Viet Nam. JONES wanted KING's authorization to compose the letter in such a manner and stated he would say nothing new, but would include that KING regretted he could not attend the March. YOUNG agreed and believed the letter would be acceptable.

On May 14, 1966, ANDREW YOUNG and CLARENCE JONES* were again in contact and YOUNG agreed to JONES' preparing a letter which would essentially be the SCLC resolution on Viet Nam with a few omissions. JONES indicated that he prepared the statement, addressed it to NORMAN THOMAS and Reverend WILLIAM COFFIN, Co-Chairman of the March and signed the letter MARTIN LUTHER KING*. The letter contained, in part, the following:

"American policy has become imprisoned in the destiny of the military oligarchy. Not only the Viet Cong, but Buddhists, Catholics and students in Vietnam have expressed contempt for the government we are blindly supporting in Vietnam. The continuation of this war has curtailed Domestic Welfare programs in this country causing the poor, whites and Negroes, to bear the heaviest burden both at home and on the war front.

"The principle of dissent has also been affected because of efforts to characterize opposition to the war as disloyal.

"As one committed to non-violence I believe the war must be condemned on the ground that was is not the way to solve social problems.....I believe the moment is now opportune and the need urgent to reassess our position and seriously examine the wisdom of prompt withdrawal. Our government must seriously and sincerely seek free elections and pledge to abide by the results."

May 14, 1966

On May 17, 1966, STANLEY LEVISON* and MARTIN LUTHER KING* were in contact. Their contact was to discuss an article LEVISON was writing for KING. The article was to present KING's analysis of the recent Alabama elections. KING stated he liked the article that had been prepared by LEVISON. However, KING had several comments he wanted to make. He stated that with reference to the coverage of the Confederation of Alabama Political Organizations (COAPO), he wanted it known that there was also another political organization in the state. He stated he did not want it to appear that SCLC was blowing its own horn, even though COAPO had come out of SCLC's activities. KING stated that COAPO was the first grassroots political organization known to the state of Alabama.

KING* further stated that JOSEA WILLIAMS had recently made a statement in Alabama to the effect that some of the labor people were trying to put money behind Alabama gubernatorial candidate and former congressman, CARL ELLIOTT. They wanted to give the money to Negroes to organize for ELLIOTT. KING stated that some of the Negroes that were to receive some of this money were from COAPO. JOSEA WILLIAMS had stated that as a result of the hard work and sacrifice COAPO had gotten Negroes to register, but now labor was trying to come in and make the decisions. KING stated that when Ohio labor officials heard of WILLIAMS' statement they became upset, and KING received three or four phone calls from labor officials. KING concluded by stating that in the future, he would have to rely more on wealthy people for aid in solving the economic problems of SCLC.

On May 28, 1966, MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., WALTER FAUNTROY, a Washington, D.C., representative, SCLC, CLARENCE JONES and STANLEY LEVISON* held a conference to discuss the appearance of MARTIN LUTHER KING on the television show "Face The Nation". KING wanted the thinking of the others on some of the questions which might be put to him, such as the posture of SNCC, black nationalism, the Black Panther Party, the Presidential Conference on civil rights and Viet Nam.

LEVISON advised that KING should remember the press depicts him as a moderate and he should urge nonviolent but militant attitude. LEVISON stated that KING should urge the Negro not to take abuse and the economic and the political are means, and brotherhood is the end. LEVISON further counselled KING to make it clear that he is not part of a separatist trend and that he hoped to achieve unity in the Negro movement.

KING referred to a speech made by ADAM CLAYTON POWELL in which POWELL called on American Negroes to abandon the conference table in seeking equality and to seek a position of "black power" and what he termed "audacious power". KING stated he might be asked about POWELL's speech and also about having conferences. CLARENCE JONES* commented that the fact that SNCC is not going to take part in the Presidential conference on civil rights and other such acts by civil rights groups are negative and will hurt the whole group.

LEVISON* suggested to KING* that he should point out that under President TRUMAN a government committee indicated the Federal Government was the biggest violator of segregation, and made recommendations, and that now the Administration has committees which have unearthed important conditions and have spotlighted these conditions. LEVISON stated that in the absence of a militant movement which compels the government to act, nothing usually is done. KING agreed that this was a good way to express it.

FAULTROY suggested that one question might be where the billions of dollars for KING's program would come from. LEVISON indicated that the one answer would be where did the money come from to finance the war and for the beautification of highways.

Next, KING*wanted to know how to handle a question concerning a "long, Hot summer". LEVISON* suggested that he answer in a guarded way, such as where injustice is located there is a possibility of a riot.

LEVISON* brought up the possibility of the question on Viet Nam and JONES* stated that the answer should be the SCLC resolution on Viet Nam. LEVISON suggested an additional point that Negroes are shouldering a heavier burden of the war because of their economic status. He stated that there were more Negroes at the front than other Americans and this was an unfair position. LEVISON further commented that KING might say he agreed with Secretary of Defense McNAMARA's statement on the draft stating that if the government provides equal opportunity and equal justice he would agree, however, it is unequal to call Negroes and underprivileged whites in the draft.

On June 8, 1966, STANLEY LEVISON* was in contact with one JOSEPH ROBISON (Phonetic), identified as representing the American Jewish Congress. This contact concerned the Memphis, Tennessee to Jackson, Mississippi, March being conducted by MARTIN LUTHER KING* and other civil rights leaders in support of JAMES MEREDITH. LEVISON stated the civil rights leaders wanted all the assistance they could get. He then gave some details of the March and instructed ROBISON to tell anyone who was interested to go to the Centenary Methodist Church, Mississippi Boulevard, Memphis, Tennessee and transportation would be provided to the March. LEVISON indicated that he would also join this March prior to its completion. Later on June 8, 1966, STANLEY LEVISON was in contact with WILLIAM STEIN, church fund raiser for SCLC. STEIN related that he was trying to get financial aid for the March and was trying to enlist people to join the March. STEIN told LEVISON that WYATT WALKER, former Executive Director, SCLC, told him that he had cancelled two plane loads of people who planned to join the March because the "Deacons for Defense" were involved in the March, and as a result, NAACP and the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) had pulled out. WALKER was trying to reach MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. to persuade him to pull out of the March. STEIN stated, however, that KING was not opposed to working with the Deacons for Defense since he saw nothing wrong with it.

On June 9, 1966, STANLEY LEVISON* was in contact with DORA MC DONALD. According to MC DONALD, she had received word from MATTHEW MOORE, an official of the United Steel Workers, that the steel workers union was ready to join the march in support of JAMES MEREDITH to Jackson, Mississippi. MOORE, she said, related that the union was ready with money and men and that all that was needed was word from KING.* MC DONALD said that MOORE instructed her to place a call to I. W. ABEL, President of the United Steel Workers, and to follow that with a registered letter with the instructions. She asked LEVISON to prepare this message for her and LEVISON acknowledged that they desperately needed money, also men, for the march. (S) (U)

LEVISON* prepared the following message for MC DONALD to send to the United Steel Workers: (S) (U)

"Once again conscience of nation is aroused by another atrocity on a public highway. We are continuing march begun by James Meredith to dramatize need for legislation to protect non-violent protestors seeking constitutional rights as well as for long range solutions. American society must finally adopt to be true to itself. (X)W

"We need support of all people of good will in form of personal participation in the march as well as funds to sustain it. We were not prepared for this emergency financially or organizationally. Nevertheless we are trying to meet it while continuing extensive SCLC programs in Chicago, Georgia and Alabama. We deeply appreciate your past support and know we can count the Steel Workers as true friends in this new test facing our democracy. Please send contributions to 334 Auburn, Atlanta. " (X)W

LEVISON* instructed MC DONALD to add to the message information as to where the marchers should report and that transportation from Memphis, Tennessee, to the line of march would be provided. (X)W

MC DONALD informed LEVISON* that the United Automobile Workers also is desirous of assisting in the March and wanted to know if she should send the same communication to them. LEVISON agreed but told MC DONALD that she should first contact ANDREW YOUNG, since he could have been in contact with WALTER REUTHER, President of the United Automobile Workers. (X)W U.S.A.

On June 10, 1966, HARRY WACHTEL* and STANLEY LEVISON* made arrangements to attend an SCLC meeting on June 13, 1966. WACHTEL told LEVISON that he heard MARTIN LUTHER KING* was coming back from Mississippi on June 12 and wanted the Atlanta meeting to begin the morning of June 13.

NY T- 17

On June 10, 1966, STANLEY LEVISON* and CLARENCE JONES*

also discussed the SCLC meeting. LEVISON indicated the meeting would concern finances and would be based on a memo he had sent MARTIN LUTHER KING* several weeks ago. This memo indicated that only about one half of the income that was anticipated by SCLC would actually come in. The entire years budget would be expended in the first six months. LEVISON stated that SCLC keeps talking about a reserve, but the reserve of $100,000 amounts to only one months budget and would not solve any problems. LEVISON stated that he was going to recommend that KING resume holding rallies in cities. JONES mentioned that GEORGE LAWRENCE, SCLC representative, New York City, had again become active. LEVISON and JONES agreed that the only time LAWRENCE became active was when something newsworthy occurred, such as the Mississippi March.

LEVISON* and JONES* then discussed the Mississippi March and LEVISON indicated it was planned for 16 days and would get to Jackson on the 22nd or 23rd of June, where a large rally similar to the one held in Montgomery, Alabama, would take place. LEVISON and JONES indicated they both would join the March the last few days. LEVISON stated that he was fearful the March would dwindle to a handful if it continued for too long. He and JONES agreed that the emphasis should be on getting people to join the March. LEVISON informed JONES that SCLC was requesting people to go to the March and noted that United Steel Workers and the United Automobile Workers Unions had offered to help. JONES stated that he believed individuals such as RALPH HELSTEIN* should be given some responsibility. LEVISON agreed and stated HELSTEIN could lead a delegation of important trade unionists and could put up the money to charter a plane from Chicago. LEVISON and JONES then agreed that they would meet on June 12, 1966 to discuss recommendations which they would make to MARTIN LUTHER KING concerning SCLC's contribution to the Mississippi March.

On June 12, 1966, a conference was held between MARTIN LUTHER KING*, STANLEY LEVISON*, BAYARD RUSTIN* and WALTER FAUNTROY. This conference was in regard to the Mississippi March in progress which was protesting the shooting of JAMES MEREDITH. KING stated that he had decided to extend the time for the completion of the March until June 26, 1966. He expected to have approximately 2,000 participants in the March and 20,000 to 25,000 in Jackson for the climax. KING requested BAYARD RUSTIN* and WALTER FAUNTROY to go to Mississippi to aid in the March. RUSTIN expressed reluctance to go for fear that STOKELY CARMICHAEL of SNCC and FLOYD MC KISSICK, National Director of CORE and "other left wingers would take advantage" of him and that "it might degenerate into a black nationalist thing". U.S.A.

KING* agreed that CARMICHAEL would give them trouble but stated it was good that CARMICHAEL did not have a large following. KING stated that CARMICHAEL had complained that SCLC was getting all of the publicity.

The above conference then shifted to civil rights demands on the Federal Government. KING stated that the civil rights movement would not be able to get the billions of dollars they wanted because of the Viet Nam war.

Before concluding the conference, LEVISON* agreed that he would raise funds for the purpose of aiding the Mississippi March and received permission from MARTIN LUTHER KING to run an advertisement in the "New York Times" to raise money.

On June 15, 1966 MARTIN LUTHER KING* and STANLEY LEVISON* were in contact concerning the need for funds for the Mississippi March. KING referred to the SCLC conference held in Atlanta, Georgia on June 14 which LEVISON had attended and indicated that it was decided at this conference that various civil rights organizations engaged in the March would send out their own appeals for funds. KING then urged LEVISON to expeditiously handle the SCLC fund appeal because the marchers were in desperate need of money. KING commented that the March was going favorably and that more voter registrations were being obtained than were expected.

On June 18, 1966, STANLEY LEVISON* and ANDREW YOUNG were in contact. YOUNG requested LEVISON to furnish expenses for a "gang of kids" who were planning to leave Chicago on June 19 or June 20 to join the Mississippi March. LEVISON agreed to send the necessary funds of $930 on that date. LEVISON further commented that it had been decided to raise funds through the use of SCLC mailing lists rather than placing an advertisement in the "New York Times". LEVISON further agreed to request funds from various church organizations and he agreed to furnish YOUNG with a list of between 50 and 100 institutes from which SCLC might obtain contributions of $1,000. LEVISON advised YOUNG that he would remain in New York City and work on getting money for the Mississippi March until near the conclusion of the March.

On June 18, 1966, STANLEY LEVISON* was in contact with WALTER FAUNTROY. They discussed the Mississippi March and how to provide transportation for the individuals interested in joining the March. On June 19, 1966, CLARENCE JONES* and STANLEY LEVISON* were in contact. They agreed to go to Jackson, Mississippi on June 23, 1966. JOHN TARGUSEE*, an associate of CLARENCE JONES, had made six reservations in his name for a flight to Jackson.

On June 20, 1966, STANLEY LEVISON* and ADELE KANTER were in contact. LEVISON stated he did not know where the New York people could join the Mississippi March on June 23 but that he would be able to find out. He suggested that those interested in joining the March be encouraged to take the regularly scheduled trains to Jackson, Mississippi. ADELE KANTER mentioned that a New York Committee for a MEREDITH March had been formed and BAYARD RUSTIN* was made the coordinator.

On June 21, 1966, CLARENCE JONES* and HARRY WACHTEL* were in contact regarding the Mississippi March. Arrangements for the flight had been made by BAYARD RUSTIN*.

On June 22, 1966, a conference took place between MARTIN LUTHER KING*, STANLEY LEVISON*, CLARENCE JONES* and HARRY WACHTEL*. KING advised them of the pressing financial problems encountered in the Mississippi March and that they were $9,000 in the red and were expecting to be at least $20,000 in the red by the end of the March. KING stated that a meeting between SCLC, SNCC and CORE took place on June 22, 1966 and that all three organizations indicated they were without funds. KING stated that he would raise $10,000 before June 26 and SNCC and CORE had agreed to raise $5,000 and $4,000 respectively.

KING stated that the Mississippi March had received a very poor reception as of that time and attributed this to the black nationalist controversy, the statements made in Mississippi concerning violence and the credability of the March itself. He stated that funds had not been received and this necessitated personal appeals to individuals. KING requested the names of individuals that might furnish funds. HARRY WACHTEL* stated he would appeal to RALPH HELSTEIN* and WALTER REUTHER. KING advised that he had received $5,000 from REUTHER on June 19, 1966. STANLEY LEVISON* advised KING to contact THEODORE KHEEL, New York City Attorney, and to get from him names of other people who might contribute. KING stated that JAMES HOFFA, Teamsters Union, had given $25,000 to aid the March, and HOFFA should be recontacted to determine if the teamsters would give more. KING stated that all money collected should be sent to the First Methodist Church, Jackson, Mississippi.

U.S.A.

In analyzing the poor reception given the March, KING* stated people misunderstood it and that , in fact, several times he had considered pulling out. All of those participating in the conference agreed that the ideological differences between the participating civil rights organizations would have to come to a head as soon as possible. They stated they did not understand how a confrontation had been avoided for such a long period.

NY T-17

On July 1, 1966, MARTIN LUTHER KING* and STANLEY LEVISON* were in contact. KING discussed his desire to write an article in a national magazine restating his philosophy of nonviolence. LEVISON told KING that such magazines are not interested in a restatement but are looking for something different. KING stated that he wanted to clarify many misconceptions that have developed concerning his philosophy and to explain why a mood of violence has come into being in the Negro freedom movement. He mentioned that he would include a discussion on "Defensive Violence". KING stated that he believed there was no military solution to the Negro problem.

LEVISON* maintained that a magazine of smaller circulation might accept such an article. He contended that civil rights as an issue does not have the centrality it did previously and that, therefore, magazines are not interested because they feel their readers are not that much interested. LEVISON suggested that a restatement of KING's philosophy of nonviolence could be properly done in a book and that it was time for another book by KING. KING said he would work on the book in September, 1966.

KING* and LEVISON* also discussed the possibility of getting out another fund-appeal mailing. It was LEVISON's opinion that such an appeal should be held off until September, 1966, since appeals had been made in April and May, 1966.

LEVISON* noted that the Summer of 1966 promised to be sparse from a standpoint of income unless some special efforts could be generated. He insisted that the financial situation has to be watched very carefully and that they must become very selective about projects. LEVISON blamed the current financial squeeze on a combination of the war in Viet Nam and the impression the anti-poverty program has created. He explained that a large number of the liberal elements have moved to another issue while a large number of the elements in the Negro community have moved over to "a kind of social welfare approach".

KING* agreed that there is a serious problem but felt there are sources of income that have not been tapped. LEVISON* commented on the inroads that have been made on this fund-raising efforts by the anti-poverty program. He asserted that ministers have become an arm of this program with the result that not only is money lost but dedicated men are removed from the mass action ranks.

LEVISON* posed the question of the proper method to be pursued under the existing conditions. He stated that to proceed on the old basis could be fatal. He noted as examples CORE and SNCC. He said that as they die they will become noisier and more militant in their expression. He said that SCLC should avoid finding less and less interest by repeating old slogans and the call for action of another period. LEVISON felt that it is vitally important to hold a "retreat" to examine this question and KING agreed. They decided, tentatively, to hold this "retreat" in Chicago the week before the convention of the SCLC scheduled for the first week in August (in Atlanta, Georgia).

KING* and LEVISON* also agreed to explore the possibility of Federal grants as a source of funds as well as grants from foundations.

July 1, 1966

On July 12, 1966, MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR* and STANLEY LEVISON* discussed a freedom movement rally held July 7, 1966 in Soldier Field, Chicago, Illinois. KING believed 60,000 people had attended, although the police had estimated 30,000. Both KING and LEVISON felt the rally went well.

KING* stated he wanted to discuss an "action program" with LEVISON* because SCLC was confronted with financial problems. KING stated he was convinced there was money to be obtained in Chicago, it was just a matter of organizing. He felt most members would support them as well as most social clubs. He believed they could raise $50,000 in Chicago and that people in the white community had money which they had not tapped as yet.

KING* advised LEVISON* that he was considering getting WILLIAM STEIN to spend a month to six weeks in Chicago organizing a fund drive. KING stated if a situation arose where STEIN needed a "front man", KING could provide a Negro for the job. LEVISON stated a Negro preacher would be good to work with STEIN and LEVISON believed STEIN would go to Chicago and do the job.

LEVISON* commented that it is necessary to raise the money in Chicago because SCLC cannot make an appeal somewhere else for Chicago. He said the attitude would be that SCLC could raise it in Chicago, that there are churches there. LEVISON continued that he would discuss it with STEIN, that he does not see why it cannot be done. LEVISON noted, however, that it meant rearranging the plans he had. He said he wanted STEIN to work on a dialogue for foundations and that they already had drawn up a prospectus. He added that he would have to take this over himself and handle the foundations.

KING inquired if LEVISON could work on this and get it to Chicago by July 18, 1966. LEVISON said it could not be done that way because, in dealing with foundations, it is necessary to make appointments with the directors at their convenience. He said he had wanted STEIN to meet with them. LEVISON stated that he believes that foundations are now the places to go and that he cannot think of any other source today that should be more interested in the balanced approach KING has. He said he is anxious to make as many of these approaches as possible.

This source described the RCFI as being composed of former members of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) who had split from the SWP and who were led by JAMES ROBERTSON. This source stated that this political unit has its main center in New York City, where it publishes "Spartacist" on a very irregular basis, but their formal meetings are held at least once a week.

A second source advised on March 4, 1964, that FARRELL DOBBS, National Secretary of the SWP, sent a letter to all SWP branches in February, 1964, in which he advised that the expelled leader of a minority faction of the SWP, JAMES ROBERTSON, announced on February 10, 1964, that his faction would publicly criticize the SWP and had followed this with a public organ called "Spartacist" in which they attacked the SWP.

The November-December, 1965, issue of "Spartacist," in its masthead described this publication as follows: "...published bi-monthly by supporters of the Revolutionary Tendency expelled from the Socialist Workers Party." TRADE UNIONISTS FOR PEACE (NEW YORK)
Also known as Labor For Peace

A source advised on August 16, 1965, that a meeting of 16 people was held on August 12, 1965, in Room 18K, Academy Hall, 853 Broadway, New York, New York. The chairman of the meeting stated the meeting was called to form an organization to be tentatively called "Labor For Peace" for the purpose of mobilizing the labor class for the cause of peace, particularly in Vietnam. The chairman stated that, "We as Party people are organizing this group, but we want it to broaden and expand to include workers who are not associated with the Party." He stated it was necessary to mobilize the rank and file union membership to the cause of peace to such an extent that the union membership will support "our organization."

A second source advised on August 20, 1965, that the name of the new group called "Labor For Peace" had been changed to Trade Unionists For Peace (TUFP). This same source stated on September 17, 1965, that at a meeting of the TUFP which was held on September 16, 1965, at the Hotel Woodstock, 137 West 43rd Street, New York City, it was stated that the aims and purposes of the organization was to organize trade unionists who are interested in peace and against United States intervention in Vietnam.

A third source advised on September 23, 1965, that at a meeting of Club 19, of the Communist Party (CP), United States of America (USA), which was held on September 22, 1965, in Brooklyn, New York, it was stated that since none of the organizations for peace in Vietnam have won the support of the workers, the CP had set up an organization in the trade union movement called the TUFP.

A fourth source advised on December 14, 1965, that at a meeting of the CP, USA, New York District Trade Union Commission, which was held on December 12, 1965, in New York City, it was stated that the CP had set up a caucus of Party members in TUFP which formulates the kind of policy to be carried out by this organization. It was also stated that it was up to the Party to involve workers in this organization and attempt to tie up the ideas of peace with economics.

The second source advised on May 9, 1966, that the TUFP is currently located in Room 408, at 857 Broadway, New York, New York.

ENCLOSURE

Statement of the Cleveland Branch of the Socialist Workers Party on the Hough Outbreak (U)

Recent events in America's black ghettos, including Cleveland's Hough area, demonstrate an understandable response by the Negro communities affected to the compounding horrors of the Jim Crow system of exploitation, discrimination and segregation. The conditions of mass unemployment, slum housing, price gouging and police brutality imposed on the vast majority of black Americans by the power structure, locally and nationally, are designed to squeeze every last nickel of extra profit out of the black communities. The power structure aims to maintain a system of super-exploitation of Negro workers. The Jim Crow system, a source of huge profits to American business, seeks to prevent the black communities from organizing themselves politically to fight for elementary justice and the right to a decent life. (U)

The victims of Hough - the victims of the Jim Crow system - have become the victimized! The four dead - all Negroes - are dead either as a result of poor police judgement or of the insane prejudice of brainwashed whites that is fanned by those who profit from the exploitation of the black communities. Cleveland's Democratic administration carries blood on its hands here just as surely as President Johnson's administration carries blood on its hands in Vietnam. (U)

Hundreds of Negroes have been arrested and countless hundreds brutalized by the police. We join all those who demand an end to the reprisals against the people of Hough and for freedom for the victims. We support those who demand a removal of the troops from the ghetto. Did Mayor Locher request the troops to control white racist mobs in Collinwood and Murray Hill in 1964 who were trying to prevent Negro children from going to school? He did not! And, neither did he use either police or troops to prevent members of a vigilante mob in Murray Hill from murdering Benoris Toney. Why are the troops and police always directed against black people? (U)

We urge everyone to support the defense of those victims, those individuals, whom the power structure is attempting to "set-up" as scapegoats. The scurrilous police and newspaper attacks against the JFK House, the vague and unfounded propaganda about "bomb schools" are publicized while the real criminals go free. The real criminals are those who profit from human misery. The politicians who protect those exploiters are no better. We urge the united defense of any individual, civil rights activist, community and political organizations that the police attempt to frame-up to cover their own misdeeds. (U)

We support the defense of Henry Toumos, charged by police with assault, whose wife and child were seriously injured by police bullets. We demand a full investigation of police responsibility in the deaths of Mrs. Joyce Arnett and Percy Giles. We demand vigorous police work to apprehend the killer of Samuel Winchester. We demand an investigation of failure of police to contain Murray Hill vigilantes from among whose number are the killers of Benoris Toney. We demand that his killers get the full penalty of the law. We demand dismissal of the re-arrest warrants issued against veteran civil rights activists Lewis Robinson, James Russell and 27 others from the civil rights, anti war, trade union and socialist movements, that have been made in connection with last year's arrests at Dobs Hall. The new warrants against those persons are in the pattern of Locher, the police and the newspapers to cover up their responsibility for oppression and violence. (U)

We support the demand raised to remove Safety Director McCormick and Chief of Police Wagner from their posts. We support the establishment of a Citizens Police Review Board, elected on a district basis, with Negro organizations and community groups putting forth their own candidates and electing such a board/from within the ghetto, and not appointed from somewhere high up in the power structure.

We support the idea of an inquest conducted by the Negro community itself to avoid the kind of whitewash the McCone Commission made of the Watts situation.

The conditions of grinding poverty, slums, price gouging and police abuse in Hough and other black ghettos are a direct result of the profit system and its political representatives - the Democratic and Republican parties. Whether it is Democratic Mayor Locher in Cleveland or Democratic President Johnson in Washington, both carry out programs that insure profits for the exploiters and exclusion of Negroes from the fruits of our society. Johnson carries out a dirty war against the colored peoples of Vietnam at a cost of billions of dollars that are desperately needed for jobs, housing, schools, recreational facilities in the black ghettos of America. Locher carries out a program of urban renewal that worsens ghetto housing conditions. He keeps a police chief and a safety director who bear responsibility for acts of police brutality and dual standards of law enforcement. And when the victims of this misery, this injustice - the people of the ghetto - revolt in protest, Locher calls on his friend the Republican Governor of Ohio to send in troops. The troops didn't come to create jobs. The troops didn't come to build homes. The troops didn't come to repress police brutality. The troops came to enforce the authority of a politically bankrupt city administration that bears a major responsibility for Hough.

The massive problems of unemployment, slum housing, etc. cannot be solved within the framework of the profit system. The Democratic and Republican parties that politically represent the capitalist system of profit and the Jim Crow system of super profits from Negro exploitation cannot and will not provide solutions. The solutions must be forced by the people themselves. We must all understand that the uprising in Hough was an attempt to force a solution - any solution - to make everyone hear: "WE CAN'T, WE WON'T TAKE ANYMORE!"

President Johnson and his Democratic and Republican big business supporters are spending more than $13 billion this year to kill the colored peoples of Vietnam. We say: STOP THE WAR IN VIETNAM NOW! BRING THE TROOPS HOME NOW! Spend that money so that black people in America can live, not so other colored peoples elsewhere will die as a result of the military aggression of a corrupt American ruling class.

In Lowndes County, Alabama, black Americans are organizing themselves politically independent of the Democratic and Republican parties. They are exercising their right to self-determine their politics and program and the leadership of their own organizations. This concept of black power, of Negroes controlling their own struggle, is the only road to equality. That is, organizing independently, developing power and bargaining as equals. Everyone ought to understand that right and support it. Should the black communities of Cleveland decide to exercise their political potential through black power, anyone who genuinely believes in equality should welcome it. The Negro people are perfectly capable of working out their own program, strategy and tactics. Three hundred years of oppression have dictated to them the necessity of preventing their programs from being "turned around" by so-called "friends" or their communities to be dominated by the exploiters and the political parties of the exploiting class.

RE: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

A characterization of the Cleveland Branch of the SWP is attached.

LEWIS ROBINSON

In April, 1964, LEWIS G. ROBINSON publicly announced through local news media that he intended to form a rifle club for the purpose of protesting civil rights demonstrators when the police fail to do so.

In his application for Federal employment dated July 1, 1957, in answer to a question concerning affiliation with Communist organizations, ROBINSON replied, "I have attended several meetings of the Labor Youth League in Boston in 1950." (The Labor Youth League has been cited by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.) (U)

JESSIE THOMAS, Cleveland Police Department Officer, who infiltrated the Communist Party in Cleveland as an informant, advised on July 21, 1966, that in the latter part of June, 1966, he approached LEWIS ROBINSON to see if the Communist Party could assist in furthering the Negro cause. ROBINSON pointed out that the Communist Party (CP) believes in integration rather than in the Black Nationalist views of ROBINSON's group, and therefore he (ROBINSON) could not accept CP assistance as such. ROBINSON said, however, that he would accept help from individual Negroes regardless of their affiliations and would accept financial help from anyone. (U)

A second and third source advised in July, 1966, that ROBINSON is not a member of or sympathizer of the SWP in Cleveland. However, during the past year, he has attended one or two public forums and social functions of the SWP. (U)

RE: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

JAMES RUSSELL (U)

A first source advised on January 22, 1965, that JAMES RUSSELL has attended a number of public meetings sponsored by the Cleveland Branch of the SWP, but that he only attends those meetings in which he has a particular interest, being meetings in which problems of the Negro race are discussed. He has no interest at all in the SWP. (U)

The third source advised on November 22, 1965, that an SWP sponsored social was held in Cleveland on November 13, 1965, for the purpose of raising funds for the current national SWP fund drive. JAMES RUSSELL was present. (U)

Pages 17631-17636. The House continued consideration of H.R. 14765, the Civil Rights Act of 1966. Further debate will be held on the bill today. Congressman Cramer, (R) Florida, offered an amendment providing that whoever moves or travels in interstate or foreign commerce or uses any facility in interstate or foreign commerce with intent to incite, promote, etc., a riot or other violent civil disturbance, etc., shall be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned not more than five years, or both. The amendment was adopted. Congressman Harsha, (R) Ohio, in speaking in support of the amendment stated "It is known among members of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that certain Communist groups are responsible, in some occasions, for inciting these riots." Congressman Pucinski, (D) Illinois, also spoke in support of the amendment. He stated "Earlier today I called the FBI to inquire what the agency was doing in Chicago to pick out those who start these riots. I was annoyed to learn the FBI has no right to go into a situation like this even if only to investigate. The amendment before us would give the FBI such a right. - - - - The FBI and our own police in Chicago have proof that there are all sorts of forces from all over the country coming into Chicago, coming into Cleveland, and so forth. These are people who have no basic concern for civil rights or the dignity of men. - - - - J. Edgar Hoover stated the situation correctly, when he quoted William Foster, head of the Illinois Communist Party, as saying that they will take every advantage they can by arousing hatred and distrust among both sides."

Pages 17691-17732. Congressman Buchanan, (R) Alabama, spoke concerning communism, extremism and civil rights. He stated "It can no longer be ignored nor denied: the doctrine of civil disobedience has brought terror and tragedy to the United States. Those who have advocated civil disobedience—the right to obey only those laws with you think are just—have sown to the wind and America is reaping the whirlwind." Mr. Buchanan commented on the activities of certain organizations in connection with the civil rights movement. He stated The American public should be told the full truth about such organizations as the Revolutionary Action Movement and the Progressive Labor Party, which J. Edgar Hoover has described as "another group seeking to exploit Negro unrest—a Marxist-Leninist group following the more violent Chinese Communist line." Mr. Buchanan quoted from the testimony of Mr. Hoover before the House Appropriations Committee and other miscellaneous material during his remarks. Mr. Buchanan stressed the need for an investigation by the House Committee on Un-American Activities of possible Communist and extremist influence of the civil rights movement.

(BA T-1 on June 1, 1966)

On the evening of Friday, May 27, 1966, HERBERT WRIGHT, JIM JACKSON, and RALPH TURNER met in JACKSON's hotel room. JACKSON urged that, if possible, delegates propose a resolution against the United States oppression in Vietnam that would be as strong as possible.

During a panel on Jobs, Unemployment and the Negro Worker, held on Saturday, May 28, 1966, TIM BLACK, RALPH TURNER, HERBERT WRIGHT, and JIM JACKSON were four of about fifteen speakers. In his remarks at this time, JIM JACKSON raised the question of Vietnam. He said he did not see how we can fight poverty, give the Negroes their rights, and build a great society if billions of dollars are to be spent to support aggression in Vietnam. Despite an objection from one of the delegates present concerning JACKSON's remarks, he was permitted to go on with his speech.

Among the resolutions adopted by the convention was a resolution on peace which in substance sets forth United States position and reasons for being in Vietnam; however, further pointing out that the United States is always ready to discuss peace and maintain peaceful relations around the world.

B. DEMONSTRATION BY U-JOIN at 945 N. BROADWAY, BALTIMORE, MARYLAND, JUNE 4, 1966.

On June 4, 1966, about twenty pickets representing Union for Jobs or Income Now (U-JOIN) picketed the realty office of JACOB GLOTZMAN, 945 N. Broadway, Baltimore, Maryland. They carried signs protesting that GLOTZMAN was a slum landlord who exploited his Negro tenants. This picketing consisted of about twenty people and lasted for about one hour from 11:00 a.m. to noon. There were no arrests or incidents in connection with this demonstration.

U-Join is the community action arm of the Students for a Democratic Society, (SDS). SDS was formed by a group of 200 students at a meeting in Port Huron, Michigan in 1962. It is a militant socialist-oriented organization which has adopted a policy of non-exclusion of subversives. The SDS currently claims a membership in excess of 3,000 from 90 chapters of the United States.

C. DEMONSTRATION BY CONGRESS OF RACIAL EQUALITY (CORE), AT BALTIMORE, MARYLAND, JUNE 4, 1966.

At approximately 12:15 p.m., June 4, 1966, CORE held a street meeting at Federal and Bond Streets, Baltimore, Maryland. This meeting consisted of several CORE speakers discussing CORE objectives and urging the support of U-JOIN in the latter organization's fight against slum landlords. A crowd of about 150 people, mostly Negroes, were in the vicinity of this street meeting. There were no incidents or arrests in connection with it.

D. DEMONSTRATION BY U-JOIN AT CITY HALL, JUNE 6, 1966, AT BALTIMORE, MARYLAND.

Approximately 35 persons representing U-Join picketed City Hall, Baltimore, Maryland, 5:20 p.m. to 6:20 p.m., June 6, 1966. They carried signs protesting landlord-tenant relationships as they relate to the slum areas of Baltimore. The signs indicated that the "slum lords" are exploiting Negro tenants, and that they are refusing to make modern improvements in their property.

(Lt. GEORGE HASSON, Baltimore, Md. Police Department on June 7, 1966)

E. MARCH AND MASS DEMONSTRATION AT BALTIMORE, MARYLAND, JUNE 12, 1966.

On June 12, 1966, CORE in association with other community groups held a march and mass demonstration to protest the shooting of JAMES MEREDITH in Mississippi. A group representing U-Join participated in this march and demonstration. During the march, CORE leaders had A. ROBERT KAUFMAN, Spartacist leader in Baltimore, and several of his associates, were removed from the marching group by police at the request of CORE leaders who did not desire their presence in the march and demonstration. JAMES MOTT, one of the associates of KAUFMAN who was ejected, carried a sign which said, "Organize armed self-defense against racist terror."

(Observed by Special Agent of the FBI)

A characterization of the Revolutionary Committee of the Fourth International also known as the Spartacist Group is appended hereto.

F. DEMONSTRATION BY "MOTHER'S RESCUE FROM POVERTY" ASSISTED BY CORE, BALTIMORE, MARYLAND, JUNE 30, 1966.

The Mother's Rescue from Poverty", an organization directly affiliated with U-Join, assisted by CORE, conducted a demonstration at City Hall, Baltimore, Maryland, from approximately 3:00 p.m. to 5:30 p.m., June 30, 1966, to protest inadequacies in welfare payments. Approximately 50 persons participated in the demonstration and there were no incidents or arrests in connection with this demonstration.

(Officer HARWOOD BURRITT, Baltimore, Maryland Police Department, on June 29, 1966 and June 30, 1966)

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS.

The Communist Party (CP), in the Maryland area, has exerted no significant influence in racial matters in recent months.

MD (BA T-2 on August 8, 1966)

DAVID HARDING, the spokesman for Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), which is the parent organization of U-Join, stated that SDS is an organization which consists mainly of students from Johns Hopkins University, and he described the group as consisting of individuals who consider themselves "radicals" or the "New Left" because they prefer to handle social problems by going to the root of things.

(Johns Hopkins Newsletter on March 4, 1966)

Members of the Baltimore Spartacist Group have actively participated in the activities of U-Join, however, it is the informant's opinion that they do not dominate or control U-Join in any way. However, their affiliation with the Spartacist Group is well known to leaders of U-Join and they accept their assistance and participation without protest.

(BA T-3 on August 8, 1966)

REVOLUTIONARY COMMITTEE OF THE FOURTH INTERNATIONAL (BALTIMORE BRANCH)

A source advised on September 9, 1964, that the Revolutionary Committee of the Fourth International (RCFI) was also known as the Spartacist Committee and the Spartacist Group. This source described the RCFI as being composed of former members of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) who had split from the SWP and who were led by JAMES ROBERTSON. This source stated that this political unit has its main center in New York City, where it publishes "Spartacist" on a very irregular basis, but their formal meetings are held at least once a week.

A second source advised on March 4, 1964, that FARRELL DOBBS, National Secretary of the SWP, sent a letter to all SWP branches in February, 1964, in which he advised that the expelled leader of a minority faction of the SWP, JAMES ROBERTSON, announced on February 10, 1964, that his faction would publicly critize the SWP and had followed this with a public organ called "Spartacist" in which they attacked the SWP.

The November - December, 1965, issue of "Spartacist," in its masthead describes this publication as follows: "...published bi-monthly by supporters of the Revolutionary Tendency expelled from the Socialist Workers Party." This masthead sets forth that the editor of the publication is JAMES ROBERTSON, and its main address is Post Office Box 1377, General Post Office, New York, New York.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

A third source advised on May 25, 1966, that during April, 1965, a Baltimore Spartacist Group was formed under the leadership of A. ROBERT KAUFMAN, which is affiliated with the Spartacist Group which has its headquarters in New York, New York. The source stated that the Baltimore Spartacist Group was still functioning as of May 25, 1966.

COMMUNIST PARTY, USA
PUBLIC APPEARANCES OF PARTY LEADERS

Source made available a one page flyer which reflected that Claude Lightfoot, communist spokesman, would speak at a political affairs forum on August 12, 1966, at the Sheraton-Blackstone Hotel, Chicago, Illinois, on the topic Black Power and its role in the Negro peoples movement. This flyer reflected it was printed under the signature of the Youth Commission, Communist Party (CP) of Illinois.

Another source advised on August 15, 1966, that the forum was attended by approximately 35 - 40 individuals, mostly youth, who are in the CP or sympathetic to the CP.

This source advised that Claude Lightfoot, Chairman, CP of Illinois, the speaker at this affair on August 12, 1966, stated the reason the slogan black power receives so much space in the news media today is because the media is owned by the ruling class and the slogan black power is being distorted in order to divide Negro against Negro and Negro against white.

He stated the slogan became popular because it explains the dissatisfaction with the past twelve years of activity in the civil rights movement with only token accomplishments being realized. Lightfoot stated the Negro has made little, if any, progress because of the present power structure in the Corporate, Political and Military bodies which afford the Negro no room in the top echelon of these segments of the power structure.

Lightfoot warned of the dangers of the slogan black power and said it should be used with the slogan peoples power, as the term black power is not sufficient. He advised that a political realignment is necessary to place power in the hands of the common man.

Lightfoot stated that to bring about the change in political realignment it is necessary to bar the path to power of the ultra-right and the cold war liberals. He stated the cold war liberals must be dumped from power because they have a history of giving in to the ultra-right. He remarked that the new breed of liberals such as the peace candidates and the new left, are the ones to bring about the necessary change. Lightfoot in his remarks warned the youth that they must not lose sight of coalition with other groups. He stated they should not isolate themselves because much can be accomplished through working in [illegible] spheres other than their own.

Lightfoot explained that many Negroes gave evidence of being unable to understand their real enemy as was evidenced in Watts where numerous small business owners were destroyed, however, the real enemy, the big corporations, were left undisturbed.

Lightfoot concluded his speech by saying that in order to get black power the Negro must share ownership [illegible] in his place of employment. He stated that black power will be realized when a nationalization of our natural resources takes place, which cannot happen unless there is cooperation between peoples power and black power.

The LHM is classified ~~confidential~~ because information from CV T-2 through CV T-6 could reasonably result in the disclosure of informants of continuing value and thereby compromise their future effectiveness.

The Agents who interviewed Patrolman JESSE THOMAS and FRED GIARDINI on 8/9/66 were SAs [redacted] and ROBERT S. BURGINS, Jr.

Information was set forth from CV T-4 [redacted] in the LHM that FRIEDA KATZ stated on 8/6/66 that she hopes to recruit a person into the CP in the near future who will be of assistance to the CP in exercising some influence in the civil rights movement. The person to whom she referred is [redacted] and he will continue to furnish any additional information developed concerning captioned matter.

"The Plain Dealer," Cleveland daily newspaper, on 8/10/66 carried a headline "Jury Blames Hough Riot on Professionals, Reds." This referred to a 17-page report released on the night of 8/9/66 by the Cuyahoga County Grand Jury probing the riots. On 8/10/66, Patrolman JOHN PATTON, who is in charge of Bureau of Special Investigations of Cleveland PD in the absence of Sgt. JOHN J. UNGVARY, advised that he was surprised to see such emphasis placed on communist involvement in the disturbances because, to the best of his knowledge, the information on which the Grand Jury based its findings regarding communist influence was limited to the testimony of JESSE THOMAS and FRED GIARDINI and to general comments by Sgt. UNGVARY.

The information from THOMAS and GIARDINI is included in the enclosed LHM. The information to which Sgt. UNGVARY testified regarding ROBINSON was substantially the same as that set forth in the characterization of LEWIS ROBINSON in the LHM. All of this information has been previously furnished the Bureau.

Arrangements have been made to obtain a copy of the Grand Jury findings. This will be set forth, together with an analysis where appropriate, in the LHM currently under preparation captioned "Participation of Violent Elements in Riots and Disturbances."

NEGRO

N.Y.

On August 9, 1966, Patrolmen Jesse Thomas and Fred Giardini, Cleveland, Ohio, Police Department, were interviewed by Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation concerning their knowledge of captioned matter. It is noted that these officers served in an undercover capacity for the Police Department from about June of 1965 until their identities were disclosed on August 2, 1966, after testifying before a Cuyahoga County Grand Jury probing the recent racial disturbances in Cleveland. They were both members of the Communist Party (CP) Youth Club and W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) in Cleveland at the time their identities became publicly known.

A characterization of DCA is attached.

Jesse Thomas advised that on June 24, 1966, while the CP National Convention was in session in New York, the Ohio delegation, of which he was a member, read news items of racial disturbances in Cleveland. He said that Philip Bart, Chairman of the Ohio CP, considered sending his assistant, Anthony Krchmarek, back to Cleveland because of these disturbances, but did not do so. He stated that no mention was made of what action Krchmarek would have been expected to take if he had gone back to Cleveland.

ENCLOSURE

Re: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

Thomas stated that the Ohio delegation discussed the racial disturbances and as it appeared from news reports that Lewis G. Robinson, operator of a community center known as the Jomo "Freedom" Kenyatta House (JFK), 8801 Superior Avenue, Cleveland, was receiving a large share of the blame for the disturbances, Jesse Thomas and Frieda Katz were instructed to see if they could be of any help. Thomas stated that Frieda Katz is a member of the Ohio CP State Committee and was also a delegate to the National CP Convention.

Thomas stated that as he is a Negro himself, it was suggested that he make the contact with Robinson. Thomas contacted Robinson telephonically on June 26, 1966, and was invited to a meeting at the JFK House on June 27, 1966. Thomas stated that although this meeting was supposedly held for the purpose of discussing the recent racial disturbances, it turned out to be a meeting at which the speakers talked about a recent black unity meeting in Detroit, Michigan, and the speakers were all strong supporters of black nationalism.

After the meeting, Thomas told Robinson that he represented the CP and wanted to know if the CP could assist Robinson. Robinson replied that his followers were supporters of the black nationalist philosophy, did not believe in integration, and therefore it would be impossible to cooperate with the CP as a unit. He said, however, that Negro members of the CP or any other organization could participate in JFK activities, and he would accept financial support from anyone.

Thomas stated that he subsequently contacted Robinson by telephone and asked him to stop by the DCA headquarters which was located in the Negro Hough area. He said that on July 14, 1966, Robinson did come to the DCA office and talked with Thomas and four other DCA members who were there. Thomas stated that since the DCA was working on a summer project in the Hough area at the time, they discussed the possibilities of coordinating their work in the fields of police brutality, housing and jobs with the work of Robinson's group. Thomas stated that Robinson again pointed out that only Negroes could work with him as white people were unacceptable to Robinson's group. Thomas stated that it was agreed that some joint efforts might be made in the fields mentioned above. He stated there was no discussion of CP or DCA Marxist philosophy with Robinson.

Thomas stated that the Hough area riots began on July 18, 1966, just a few days after the above meeting, and there was no further contact between DCA or CP people and Robinson, to his knowledge, and they did not actually engage in any joint activities.

Concerning Robinson, Thomas stated that it is his opinion that Robinson is an extreme opportunist who would take advantage of any offer which might benefit himself or his group. He said that Robinson would like to be a Cleveland City Councilman under the present governmental structure and would also like to be head of a black nationalist government setup in the Negro community if that opportunity presented itself. He said that, in other words, Robinson would grasp at anything to further himself and to keep his name in the forefront.

Thomas stated that the CP and the DCA did not take an active part in the racial disturbances, to the best of his knowledge.

Thomas also advised that Philip Bart had told him that the CP wanted to get out a leaflet on police brutality in the June, 1966, racial disturbances in the Superior Avenue area. He stated that he recalls seeing some leaflets on police brutality at DCA headquarters on July 18, 1966, the day the Hough riots started, but these leaflets were picked up by someone along with some other literature and taken from the headquarters. He said he did not read the leaflet himself and they were never distributed.

Thomas advised that Philip Bart had indicated to him that he was acquainted with Lewis Robinson. Thomas stated that apparently no working relationship existed between them however, because he, Thomas, had to work out his own way of getting in touch with Robinson when told by the CP to do so. Thomas stated that he did not know of any other contact between Robinson and CP people, other than that stated above.

Fred Giardini advised that he was not present at any of the above discussions and could add nothing to the remarks of Jesse Thomas concerning captioned matter. He stated that he knew of no active participation by the CP and DCA in the riots themselves.

LEWIS G. ROBINSON

In April, 1964, Lewis G. Robinson publicly announced through local news media that he intended to form a rifle club for the purpose of protecting civil rights demonstrators when the police fail to do so.

CV T-1 advised during the period January-March, 1965, that meetings of a Negro rifle club were held regularly at the JFK House at that time. He stated that instructions were given in judo and the handling of rifles and that discussions at the meetings concerned guerrilla warfare tactics, hatred of whites, and the coming revolution by Negroes in this country. He stated that Lewis G. Robinson was frequently in attendance at meetings of the rifle club and the two principal leaders of the club had indicated on a number of occasions that they were affiliated with the Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM).

A characterization of RAM is attached.

In his application for Federal employment dated July 1, 1957, in answer to a question concerning affiliation with communist organizations, Lewis G. Robinson replied, "I have attended several meetings of the Labor Youth League (LYL) in Boston in 1950."

Re: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

The LYL has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Sergeant John J. Ungvary, Bureau of Special Investigations, Cleveland Police Department, advised in November, 1965, that Lewis Robinson was among those arrested by police on November 14, 1965, during a disturbance at a Socialist Workers Party (SWP) public social function.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

In July, 1966, CV T-2 and CV T-3 advised that Lewis Robinson attended one or two public forums and social functions sponsored by the SWP during the past year in Cleveland, but is not a member or sympathizer of the SWP.

CV T-4 advised on August 8, 1966, that during a discussion with Frieda Katz on August 6, 1966, concerning the recent Hough riots and the civil rights movement generally, she stated that the CP had nothing to do with the riots, either in the instigation of them or participation in them. She said that the DCA youth lived in the Hough area, because they intended working in that area, but they likewise had nothing to do with the riots, other than to assist a few of those persons injured in the riots.

Frieda Katz stated that the CP would like to get into the civil rights movement, but so far has been unsuccessful because the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), and similar type organizations, shy away from the CP and known CP members. She said that getting into the civil rights movement is a principal aim of the CP and she hopes to recruit a person in the CP in the near future who will be of assistance to the CP in exercising some influence in the civil rights movement in the Cleveland area.

Re: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

On August 9, 1966, CV T-5 advised that an Ohio CP State Board meeting was held on August 3, 1966. The source stated that a question was raised as to why the Hough area was chosen for DCA summer project since there was little possibility of accomplishing anything there due to the lack of Negro organizers to work in the area. Wallace Kaufman, a member of the Ohio CP State Committee, stated that he had instructed DCA workers to move out of the Hough area during the racial disturbances. He said that the State CP Board had not been kept advised of what was going on at the DCA project and what their plans were.

CV T-6 advised on August 3, 1966, that on the evening of August 2, 1966, Philip Bart, Frieda Katz, Wallace Kaufman and other Ohio CP leaders discussed the disclosure by news media that Jesse Thomas and Fred Giardini were actually undercover police officers and had testified on that date before the Cuyahoga County Grand Jury probing the racial disturbances. According to the source, these CP leaders were puzzled as to what information Thomas and Giardini could give to the Grand Jury concerning CP and DCA involvement in the racial disturbances that would be significant enough to justify disclosing their identities as police officers.

CV T-6 stated that he knew of no actual participation by the CP or DCA in the racial disturbances.

The sources referred to in this memorandum and in the attached characterizations have furnished reliable information in the past.

- C O N F I D E N T I A L - (U)

REVOLUTIONARY ACTION MOVEMENT

On November 3, 1964, a source made available a document entitled, "The Revolutionary Action Movement Manifesto", the document having been obtained by the source from an individual known to be a member of the Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM).

This document stated, in part, that RAM was officially organized in the Winter of 1963 by Afro-Americans who support the revolutionary objectives of ROBERT F. WILLIAMS, now residing in Cuba, and his concept of organized violence to achieve the liberation of the Afro-American people in the United States. This Manifesto disclosed that RAM had oriented its program to one of education and political revolution and the organization of a "black" political party with revolutionary objectives, having recognized the need for a "black revolution" that could and would seize power. RAM philosophy is described in this document as one of revolutionary nationalism, that is, one involving the struggles of the non-white races of the world against exploitation and enslavement by the white capitalist and imperialist nations.

Regarding WILLIAMS, it should be noted that on August 28, 1961, a Federal warrant was issued at Charlotte, North Carolina, charging him with Unlawful Flight to Avoid Prosecution for the crime of kidnapping. Subsequent to the issuance of this warrant, WILLIAMS fled the United States to Cuba, where he now publishes a monthly newsletter entitled, "The Crusader" from Havana.

This source in September, 1964, advised RAM is dedicated to the overthrow of the capitalist system in the United States, by violence if necessary, and to its replacement by a socialistic system oriented toward the Chinese communist interpretation of Marxism-Leninism. RAM is entirely non-white in membership, clandestine in nature, and owes its primary allegiance to the "Bandung World", that is, the non-white races of the world rather than to any national entity, as such.

On November 16, 1964, a second source advised he learned recently from a RAM member that the organization began in Detroit, Michigan, largely under the impetus of DON FREEMAN, described as the "Father" of RAM and referred to as RAM's "Black Stalin." FREEMAN served as RAM Chairman, with MAXWELL STANFORD, now of New York City, formerly of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, serving as RAM Field Chairman.

This source stated in May, 1965, there has been no formal headquarters, as such, for RAM but that headquarters have been with FREEMAN since he has played such a dominant role in the leadership of and has directed the policies and activities of the organization.

Within recent months, according to the second source, dissension within RAM has become evident and some dissatisfaction with FREEMAN's leadership has arisen. So far as is known, however, he remains the titular leader of RAM.

To date, according to the second source in May, 1965, RAM has organized units and membership in several of the larger cities in the United States east of the Mississippi River and the organization is currently active in attempting to recruit new members and expand its sphere of influence.

INTERNAL SECURITY - C

CP of Illinois leaders at state and lower level meetings discussed CP policy on civil rights movement and stressed need for unity among civil rights groups; called for state funds for public housing and public works; and urged CP members to support MARTIN LUTHER KING's movement in Chicago. A decisive CP program in 1966 was to revive Negro American Labor Council (NALC) and through it organize the unorganized and mobilize this force with the civil rights movement. CP members are currently active in NALC. At direction of CP of Illinois Chairman, CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, a new CP club was organized to work in civil rights movement. As of 7/66, the CP program to penetrate and influence this civil rights movement was to work through this club toward moving CP people into various civil rights groups. Some CP members observed at Civil Rights Rally, 3/12/66. Copies of "The Worker" and reprints of its articles distributed at civil rights affairs. LIGHTFOOT wanted W.E.B. DuBois Clubs (DCC) activity around tenants councils, petitions for rent control, etc. He desired four people to work in connection with KING's movement, utilizing DCC West Side Freedom Center as headquarters. DuBois Clubs at national convention stressed "black political power". DuBois Clubs is considered integral part of civil rights movement and is seeking support of civil rights groups in a DuBois Clubs rally in Washington, D.C., 8/66, protesting U.S. intervention in Vietnam war. I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

A. Communist Party (CP), USA

1.) Plans, etc., made at district and lower level meetings including expressions by local leaders and rank and file members.

a. CP of Illinois State Board Meetings (U)

On April 15, 1966, a meeting of the CP of Illinois State Board was held to discuss the civil rights movement. (U)

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT opened the meeting indicating that what Chicago needed was for the MARTIN LUTHER KING movement to develop a program that clarifies the objectives of the civil rights movement. They must review the slogans and make them meaningful to the people. He said there are three categories that need examination. (U)

(U)

The first category is things that should be done from day to day. These issues involve housing, welfare, and other general aspects. They must set up instruments to process the problems of the people in the community. They should also establish some form of help to the unemployed and with the help of the trade unionists process the grievances that the people in the community have in connection with aid to dependent children, welfare, etc. That is, they should expand their general slogans of ending slums to set up some structure by which people can come to them and have their grievances processed. The structure should include membership organizations, membership cards, and an approach to solving the immediate problems of the ghettos. (U)

The second category is the establishment of community centers, much like that established in the East Garfield area, Chicago. The same united front center approach should be utilized in the Chicago Lawndale area and south side area as in the East Garfield area. If the CP could influence them into extending these community type councils all over Chicago, it would make the struggle city-wide. At the same time steps must be taken to strengthen the Coordinating Council of Community Organizations (CCCO). (U)

Third, there should be a clarification on certain immediate goals. There should be projected some achievable practical problems and their solution. There should be no head-on confrontation with the DALEY machine (Mayor RICHARD J. DALEY of Chicago), but rather a statesmanlike approach which would welcome DALEY into the fight. LIGHTFOOT said it is necessary to project broad public works projects to expand job opportunities for all. In this regard, he said we must keep in mind the burning necessity of the organization of the unorganized in developing stronger ties in the trade union movement. He said this concept which had been projected by JIM WEST at the last Board meeting should be the CP's main contribution. (U)

JIM WEST indicated that the CP must develop a program to keep the movement intact if the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) should decide to pull out. (U)

WEST discussed the position taken by the steel unions on the state income tax as a springboard for conducting the fight on slums. If we can convince the civil rights movement that the fight against slums requires an all-around attack against the "JIM (U)

CROW" system, including programs already outlined by the trade union movement, we can move the labor movement closer to the civil rights movement. This work means a more specific approach to political problems in Chicago. WEST continued that the CP must develop in the civil rights movement a research program that explores all the problems. This research program should present a plan for a city-wide attack against slums. It should also consider a city-wide conference, in the near future, of labor and civil rights groups, projecting this program for Chicago. (U)

During this meeting, it was stated, in connection with projecting the program for the organization of the unorganized, this proposal was a very good one and could help re-establish the Negro American Labor Council (NALC). CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT wanted to be introduced formally to TIM BLACK the leader of the NALC, so that the project could be discussed with him. HERBERT WRIGHT, a member of the State Board in attendance, related that BLACK had been contacted and was interested in the project. (U)

EARL DURHAM, also a State Board member in attendance, indicated that one of the problems was trying to develop an approach for the progressive labor forces that would enable them to play a more significant role in shaping the decisions being made by the top labor leadership in regards to the civil rights movement. (U)

LIGHTFOOT indicated he would try to develop a relationship with AL RABY, convenor of the CCCO, in order to put forth certain suggestions. LIGHTFOOT then indicated that the CP needed to establish a method of operation by which CP members involved in the civil rights movement could be coordinated. He indicated the first step was the establishment of a new club under EARL DURHAM's leadership and finding places for these people in the civil rights movement. The other area, according to LIGHTFOOT, was for DURHAM to be the hub of influence, particularly with AL RABY and if possible Reverend JAMES BEVEL of the SCLC. He said the CP people active in the civil rights movement will accept the decisions and the programs advocated by RABY without challenging their origin. LIGHTFOOT wanted HERBERT WRIGHT to establish the same type of contact with TIM BLACK, head of the NALC. (U)

On May 31, 1966, during a meeting of the State Board, CP of Illinois, HERBERT WRIGHT, a member of the Board, delivered a report on his attendance at the NALC convention held in Baltimore, Maryland. His report noted that JAMES JACKSON of the CP, USA National Office had attended the meeting as a representative of the press as had GEORGE MEYERS, a CP member of Baltimore. He reported that this meeting had been considered successful and was run with a firm hand by A. PHILLIP RANDOLPH. RANDOLPH refused to support the resolution opposing the war in Vietnam and this resolution was defeated on the floor of the convention. ~~X~~ (U)

[(CG T-2, 6/1/66)] ~~X~~ (U)

On June 14, 1966, during a CP of Illinois State Board meeting, a report was given regarding the NALC. It was reported that the NALC was trying to "get off the ground"; that they had accepted the idea of organizing the unorganized. They were meeting on June 19, 1966, to discuss this campaign. TIM BLACK reportedly did not think it wise to go into the CCCO to launch this campaign. ~~X~~ (U)

It was indicated that the problem had become complicated because the Industrial Union Division, AFL-CIO (IUD), had also developed a committee to discuss the position of the unorganized. The problem was how to get them together. ~~X~~ (U)

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT indicated that the goal must be for NALC to act as a "gadfly but not as the organizer" since it does not have the resources. ~~X~~ (U)

Regarding the problem of the SCLC, the necessity for a fight for a unified program was indicated. It was said that MARTIN LUTHER KING's movement was split too far nationally. LIGHTFOOT wanted the CP to get a discussion together in order to unify this movement. ~~X~~ (U)

[(CG T-1, 6/16/66)] ~~X~~ (U)

A source related that as of July, 1966, the current CP of Illinois program to penetrate and gain influence in the civil rights movement in Chicago was to work through the newly organized CP club, the Lorraine Hansberry Club, and attempt to work CP people into the various civil rights groups in Chicago. The objective of this program is to ultimately place CP people in a position where the CP can influence and control these organizations. ~~X~~ (U)

b. Meetings of and Expressions by CP of Illinois Leadership

On February 17, 1966, during a meeting of the CP of Illinois Professional Section held in Chicago, LOU DISKIN gave a report on the MARTIN LUTHER KING movement. His report explained why KING chose Chicago as his point of concentration; noted that the civil rights movement had transformed, i.e.; Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) was out; and the Students for Non-Violent Co-Ordinating Committee (SNCC) was changing emphasis and was more on economic issues now; a main objective was to strengthen SCLC and the labor movement; that SCLC was working closely with the CCCO but would overshadow the CCCO. He said the SCLC will work on the west side and north side; that they were conducting a discussion of non-violence and seeking out leaders of all groups; that all mass and professional organizations have a role in this movement, which he felt may overlap with the aims of the peace movement. (U)

DISKIN urged all to discuss with their clubs what organizations each member is active in and also to discuss how they could tie up with the KING movement so that its activity could be co-ordinated. (U)

[(CG T-3, 2/28/66) (U)

In February, 1966, several CP of Illinois leaders met to discuss activity of the DCC West Side Freedom Center which was engaged in civil rights work on Chicago's west side. CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT wanted HERBERT WRIGHT to work with CHUCK HARRIS, Chairman of the West Side DCC, for the purpose of moving activity around the tenants council, petitions for rent control, etc. LIGHTFOOT desired that there be three or four people working as a nucleus including SYLVIA WOODS, also a CP member, to work in connection with the MARTIN LUTHER KING movement and utilizing the West Side Freedom Center as headquarters. (U)

[(CG T-4, 3/3/66)] (U)

On March 21, 1966, a meeting was held of certain CP of Illinois leaders to discuss the problem of two Negroes running for the State Senate in the 24th District of Chicago. It was agreed that the Negro civil rights leaders should select one of the two candidates in order to avoid a split; and further, it was decided that they should persuade AL RABY of the CCCO to agree with this position. (U)

[(CG T-1, 3/23/66)] (U)

In mid-April, 1966, JIM WEST wanted to see to it that the NALC would assume the task of organizing the unemployed and would fight for the "bread and butter issues" for the unorganized because he felt that the NALC could emerge as a leading factor in the civil rights struggle in Chicago.

[(CG T-4, 4/14/66)] (U)

On April 15, 1966, a CP of Illinois meeting was reportedly held at CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT's house regarding the civil rights movement. It was reported that LIGHTFOOT spoke of a need for clarity in MARTIN LUTHER KING's civil rights program. LIGHTFOOT felt KING was overlooking the day-to-day needs of the people in the ghetto. He felt that it was OK to organize the tenants but they should also consider the organization of grievance committees in large buildings and develop community councils as well as going into some of the basic problems which are facing the people in the ghetto. According to LIGHTFOOT, the ghettos include the unemployed, under-employed, low-paid, and unorganized. LIGHTFOOT felt that the "bread and butter issues" in the ghetto should be stressed and he felt that as an immediate goal they should write an open letter to Mayor DALEY, thanking him for his efforts to eliminate slums; they should hail DALEY in all his efforts to solve the problems of slums and housing; and recognizing that the problem of housing could not be settled without federal and state aid, there should be a meeting with Governor KERNER requesting state funds for housing, public works, etc. (U)

Concerning funds for public works, LIGHTFOOT felt that this could be done because funds are available and the need does exist. He felt this would lead to some independent action and would develop independent political action. (U)

JIM WEST reportedly wanted the Party to propose a city-wide conference to project these ideas and see if the heads of labor would support a drive to organize the unorganized workers in Chicago. WEST felt that it was necessary for the CP to have a public relations job to develop the various segments of the civil rights movement in Chicago. (U)

~~SECRET~~ (U)

It was learned that the group had discussed the differences which exist among civil rights forces in Chicago, the lack of initiative on the part of AL RABY of the CCCO; and they reportedly discussed the possibility of sitting down and attempting to unify these people. (U)

LIGHTFOOT wanted to establish contact with certain civil rights leaders in Chicago. Plans reportedly were made to meet specifically with TIM BLACK of the NALC in an effort to reactivate the NALC. (U)

During the early part of April, 1966, the CP of Illinois leadership met, at which time CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT discussed the general problems regarding Negro-white unity. He expressed dissatisfaction with the CP nationally in the struggle against white chauvinism. He cited several examples throughout the country wherein the CP failed to take the initiative in the Negro struggle. (U)

LIGHTFOOT spoke of CHUCK HARRIS, leader of the DCC on Chicago's west side, and said HARRIS was one of the key people in this area. LIGHTFOOT noted that white comrades working for HARRIS were repelled by his glorified self-image and ambitious drive. He said, however, that there must be ways found to work with HARRIS because he reflects the general problem in winning Negro recruits to the CP. (U)

It was agreed that in spite of HARRIS' weakness, he had done outstanding united front work and he won the respect of the civil rights forces on Chicago's west side. (U)

LIGHTFOOT proposed a CP group to work under the leadership of EARL DURHAM consisting of the following individuals: (U)

JOSH ALVES
CHUCK HARRIS
JOYCE LIGHTFOOT
ROSE SIMPSON
BERTRAND PHILLIPS
ERNEST DE CUIR] (U)

~~SECRET~~ (U)

He suggested that the contents of this group should be Marxist-Leninist and they should constitute the perspective for organizing a bigger group which would discuss political and ideological problems. (U)

[(CG T-1, 4/4/66)] (U)

In mid-May, 1966, the CP of Illinois leadership was concerned about the CP's program to work with NALC. Regarding this matter, the CP leadership was unhappy with RALPH TURNER's work in the NALC and they wanted to work on a new program. The CP desired to find someone to co-ordinate this program who could give assistance to TIM BLACK. (U)

The CP leadership discussed the Negro forces in Chicago in general. They felt there were all kinds of Negro forces that could be put to work on both the north and west side of the city, but there was no one presently capable of tieing these forces together. It was noted that on the south side in particular, the potential Negro forces were very good but no one was guiding them or doing anything to get the best from them. (U)

The CP leadership recognized numerous CP people in the Hyde Park area but, according to JIM WEST, there was an ideological failure of the Party and the Party, therefore, was not in a leadership position of the Negro masses there. It was decided that it was going to be necessary to see to it that the Party took some steps to concentrate on non-Party forces in these areas in order to mobilize them and get them working and co-ordinated, from a Party point of view, on political activities, expecially around the campaign of one individual who was running for the Democratic nomination to the United States Senate. While it was originally felt that JIM WEST could be sent in to work with these Negro forces, it was later decided that they would talk to MILTON COHEN, a CP of Illinois State Board member, and try to get him to agree to contact these forces on the south side, particularly non-CP people. (U)

On June 7, 1966, a special CP meeting was held in Chicago which included a visitor, HENRY WINSTON, a CP, USA functionary from the National Office of New York City. This meeting was held to bring WINSTON up to date on the civil rights movement in Chicago. A report was given on the civil rights movement relative to the strength and weaknesses of the various organizations; the successes and failures of the civil rights movement. The report generally pointed out the weaknesses of the CCCO representing 35 civil rights organizations in Chicago, and the strength of the SCLC which had a full-time staff. The key point was the lack of unity in the civil rights movement. The report stressed the need for a unified movement. (U) ~~SECRET~~ (U)

CAROLYN BLACK, a CP member and staff worker for the SCLC, indicated that she does not wish to comment on how it looks from her area (SCLC) but, she said, the SCLC has been busy trying to organize a unit in the slums. She related that they had broken down the west side unit into several areas: Garfield Park; Lawndale; North Lawndale; Near North Side; etc. She explained that each of these areas was attempting to establish organizations, building by building. She said there were groups of tenants who would be able to process grievances with the landlord and also would become involved in other community problems. She felt that it was a positive move and, except for the fact that there was not a unified program as yet, there was organizational work going on. (U)

HENRY WINSTON asked BLACK's opinion on what it would take to do away with slums and she discussed the population in given areas, etc., and estimated it would take billions of dollars. (U)

Several speakers, including CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, stressed the need for a united front in the civil rights movement and HERBERT WRIGHT concluded the meeting by likewise emphasizing the need for a united front. He felt the struggle for unity was decisive and he felt that it was in this direction that the Party needed to make its contribution to the civil rights movement. (U)

In early July, 1966, CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT in a discussion regarding the CP's position on the inner struggle going on within the civil rights movement, indicated that the CP could not join up with either of the extremes in this movement. One extreme being headed by MARTIN LUTHER KING and the other by individuals like STOKELY CARMICHAEL of SNCC. According to LIGHTFOOT, the CP's position on this must be respectable and, therefore, the Party must find occasion to criticize KING which would give them the opportunity to criticize more strongly "the left tendencies in the civil rights movement". On July 2, 1966, CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT and his wife departed Chicago for Los Angeles, California, where LIGHTFOOT planned to attend the national convention of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) which was taking place in July in California. It was the opinion of several CP of Illinois leaders that LIGHTFOOT should not have left Chicago at this time but should have stayed in Chicago to take care of local matters. It was reported that most of the CP of Illinois leaders agreed LIGHTFOOT should have stayed in Chicago to participate in the MARTIN LUTHER KING integration drive in Chicago which was to climax the second week of July and that the National Office should have sent someone else to cover the NAACP convention in Los Angeles. In connection with the civil rights rally held at Soldiers Field in Chicago on July 10, 1966, JIM WEST, a leading CP of Illinois functionary, claimed that he had written a seven-page story about the affair which he sent to "World News", a weekly publication by "Izvestia", the daily evening newspaper which is the official organ of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet of the USSR. He also sent an article to "New Aids", official newspaper of the CP of India, and an article for "The Worker." (U)

"The Worker" is an East Coast Communist newspaper.

WEST's assessment of the rally stressed two important factors: 1) Unity, regardless of individual points of view, noting that all the organizations involved in the movement were present; and 2) Labor, noting that the trade unions were well represented including some leading trade unionists who spoke. According to WEST, although the demands made by KING were all middle class demands, the success of the rally and the above important factors were hopeful signs. (U)

c. CP of Illinois State Convention

The CP of Illinois State Convention was held in Chicago June 4-5, 1966. One subject discussed at length was the draft resolution on the Negro question which was being given for the CP, USA National Convention scheduled for the end of June in New York. The resolution dealt with the technical problems of the movement. It stressed the Negro-labor alliance. The resolution indicated the status of the Negro people in this country and it dealt with several ideological questions: the link between civil rights and peace, white chauvinism, Negro nationalism, the right to self-defense, the role of white liberals in the civil rights movement, and the role of the CP. (U) ~~SECRET~~

Various delegates discussed the various facets of the resolution. Emphasized was the struggle against white chauvinism; open occupancy; struggle against factionalism in the leadership of the CP movement; struggle to prevent mass exodus of whites from integrated neighborhoods; etc.

A summation of the discussions indicated that the delegates at this state convention endorsed the main line of the draft resolution, that being an estimate of the current civil rights movement; a stress on Negro-labor alliance; the status of the Negro people in the United States; and the ideological questions contained in the resolution. The criticisms of the panel were that the role of white communists and progressives in white communities needed elaboration. The estimate about tokenism under capitalism needs evaluation. (i.e., Negro progress other than tokenism is doubtful under capitalism). There need be deeper estimates of the significance of Watts and Reverend KING's movement; more evaluation on guaranteed annual income and should include the organization of the unorganized for the north.

During the CP of Illinois State Convention held in Chicago June 4-5, 1966, HENRY WINSTON of the CP, USA, spoke about the CP movement. He said that in the South where Negroes are in the majority not a single Negro had been elected to any political offices such as Lieutenant Governors, Attorney Generals, etc. because legal and extra legal terror prevents them from voting, much less running for these offices. He charged that if the United States is to succeed in its new-colonialism, it has to put on a hypocritical show of no segregation in government and try to show "only such struggle as exists between black and white masses". He charged that the failure to achieve equality for the Negro is to endanger democracy. He said the struggle in SNCC shows the impatience of the Negro to achieve these goals; that CARMICHAEL of SNCC would help the Negro achieve not integration but political power. He said that with such power the later integration of whites into that power structure would take place if the whites want integration. WINSTON said that the sharing of power by Negro and whites is necessary and that for a strong coalition the CP must discuss with SNCC their policy and they must help unify this group. (U) ~~SECRET~~

During the CP of Illinois State Convention in Chicago June 4-5, 1966, CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT spoke of the historical background in the struggle for civil rights and human dignity in America dating back to the American Revolution. He said the civil rights movement today is being joined by peace movements, noting that in the past these forces fought separately. He stated that it has taken a long time for the civil rights movement to realize that one cannot win civil rights within the framework of a war-oriented economy. He said it has taken the peace movement a long time to realize that one cannot win peace with the foreign policy that supports governments which abrogate human freedom and civil rights. LIGHTFOOT discussed many forms of activity in the civil rights struggle that have emerged and he warned all to remember the threat of fascism which still exists in the United States today. He stated that while neo-fascism was hurt in the defeat of GOLDWATER for United States President, the "cancer has not been cured!" and the right-wing element is still active.

LIGHTFOOT noted the good work being done by some CP people. He stated that now is the time that the old must now listen to youth and give them the rights to a few mistakes. He pointed out that the CP must have confidence in the work which it is doing; without a strong CP there would be no revolution of the civil rights problem in the United States. He continued that the CP must become identified with human suffering and it must develop a greater class consciousness leading to the organization of the unorganized.

He indicated that leaders of the CP of Illinois had met with the leaders of various civil rights and peace groups and that these organizations have indicated that they were willing to accept the help of CP members. He said they have indicated that they were not interested in one's political thinking. WEST stated that the Party supports these various civil rights and peace groups and will give its wholehearted support to the groups. Statements were read from a report given by CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT at Syracuse University. It was pointed out that the civil rights movement in Chicago had been dragging its feet and that MARTIN LUTHER KING in Chicago had not really stimulated the civil rights movement. ~~S~~ (U)

JOSH ALVES stated that reports coming from the civil rights movement activity in Chicago do not express the feelings of the poor. He complained that the leadership was held by the middle and upper class people who fostered non-violent action. He said the poor people who are directly concerned with these problems are more militant and in his opinion the feelings of these people are that the civil rights movement at this time is getting nowhere in Chicago and that the only way this could change would be by having a more radical force of activity. ALVES said he feels that the low income class people are currently angry and ready to do anything that would further their cause. ~~S~~ (U)

LESTER DAVIS reported that the civil rights movement in Chicago has been lax in noting that following all demonstrations and protest marches last summer no plan of action was formulated to fill the vacuum that was created when these demonstrations lost force. ~~S~~ (U)

It was mentioned that the MARTIN LUTHER KING movement in the South was good in that it was recognized that there was a need for direct action to obtain a change. It was stated that there was no force in Chicago to lead the Negro in the movement. It was also mentioned that there may be a broader coalition with the individuals connected with the civil rights movement developed at a future date which would involve both CP and non-CP individuals. It was believed that in this manner an accurate estimate would be constantly available concerning the status of the civil rights movement in relation to all organizations connected with this movement. ~~S~~ (U)

e. General CP of Illinois Meetings

On May 6, 1966, a meeting of the CP of Illinois was held in Chicago for the purpose of hearing a report in connection with the Chicago freedom struggle. HERB WRIGHT gave this report and pointed out that the struggle in Chicago has its problems and weaknesses. He attempted to point out the Party's role in the struggle and he gave the prospects for success. He reported that the CCCO, which is made up of 38 to 40 civil rights organizations in Chicago, is involved in the struggle; however, none of the organizations, according to WRIGHT, seem to have any labor or working class base. He pointed out that none of the groups have ever advanced the real "bread and butter issues" facing the workers. He felt that out of all the organizations in CCCO the NALC has the greatest potential. He reported that MARTIN LUTHER KING's role in SCLC at first held high promise of accelerating the freedom struggle and developing a united front; however, this has not materialized. He said the need for organizing the unorganized is the main issue in Chicago, and that the Party's role in the struggle was adequately expressed by GUS HALL in his pamphlet "Labor - The Key Force," which spelled out the lack of working class participation in the civil rights struggle. He pointed out that a program to organize the unorganized, the unemployed, and the under employed would motivate broad working class participation, there being 500,000 such people so involved in Chicago. A program of this magnitude would involve the labor movement and make an essential contribution toward victory. (U)

A source related that on February 5, 1966, during the annual celebration of "The Worker" held by the CP of Illinois in Chicago, approximately 300 people were in attendance, and CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT was one of the principal speakers. LIGHTFOOT stated that he wanted to emphasize one point and that is that everyone must support the civil rights movement to end slums and discrimination. He talked about MARTIN LUTHER KING's struggle in Chicago and said that everyone must do everything possible to help him solve this problem of discrimination.

On February 20, 1966, during a conference of "The Worker" held in Chicago it was stated that a "The Worker Brigade" was to be organized to be sure that "The Worker" would be distributed at every civil rights affair and affairs of peace and labor organizations. It was said that 500 copies were to be sold and thousands of poverty fliers distributed at the MARTIN LUTHER KING festival on March 12, 1966, in Chicago. 53 subscriptions were to be given to leaders of civil rights and other mass movements. W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs of America (DCA)

At a high level CP of Illinois meeting held in mid February, 1966, a report was entertained concerning the status of the DCA operations in Chicago. It was reported that the activities in Chicago centered around the west side club, which is a part of the SCLC complex on Chicago's west side. The name of the DCA club appears there with the United Front Committee, which is organizing activities within the East Garfield Park area, and the club has been active in organizing tenants' unions and securing jobs for young people under a youth program. MARTIN LUTHER KING's movement was dealing with the real issue; his tenant union will organize along the same lines as labor unions and "there is cooperation between the two of us"; DCA needs to realize that it is an integral part of the civil rights movement but must be in better control of what is going on within the movement. Du Bois Clubs of Chicago (DCC) as of March, 1966, continued to be a part of the United Front Committee Organization active on Chicago's west side, generally organized and directed by SCLC personnel. The DCC is included in all activities; however, community discussion concerning the continuation of this association has centered around the controversial nature of CHUCK HARRIS, not generally liked within the community. He discussed a "fight-back" in retaliation against attacks by Attorney General NICHOLAS KATZENBACH charging DCA as a CP front. HALLINAN related that the Attorney General's attack caused a positive reaction; that the membership has grown as a result of the attack. He explained that the DCA was preparing a brief asking support of the people to present to the court not only their (DCA) complaint against the citation but would include SNCC, civil leaders and other civil rights leaders. During the DCA National Convention held in Chicago June 17-19, 1966, a civil rights and minority problem workshop was held under chairmanship of CHUCK HARRIS, the Community Field Director of DCA, and FRANKLIN ALEXANDER, the DCA National Chairman. The main theme of this workshop was that emphasis was to be changed from working for civil rights and integration from the way it had been done in the past to an emphasis on "black political power." An illustration of this theory was the efforts of certain powers from the Watts area to be incorporated and secede from the rest of the Los Angeles area. FRANKLIN put across the point that non-violence has its place but is not always the solution to the problem. He said the reason that no large scale riots occurred subsequent to the DEADWYER killing in Los Angeles was because they were not organized well enough to make sure that not only Negro people would be killed but also whites and that in the next riot, "not only Watts will burn but also Beverly Hills."

The general concensus of the minority caucus was that leadership of any minority area should be by the people of these areas even if the leadership is not always qualified.

During a workshop on the DCA summer project, it was pointed out that the DCA would sponsor a march on Washington scheduled for August 28, 1966. DCA would seek the support of civil rights and peace organizations to converge on Washington, D.C., on that date to insure the success of the demonstration. The theme of this march would be in the form of a protest against the United States involvement in Viet Nam and also grievances to be submitted regarding the poverty program.

CANTER indicated that NEUHOUSE did not know how to run a campaign and CANTER agreed to take the campaign reins if NEUHOUSE would so agree. D. Racial Riots in Chicago, July, 1966

Source learned that STANLEY LEVISON reportedly contacted ANDREW YOUNG, Executive Director of SCLC, around mid-July, 1966, and pointed out to him that SCLC should not take a position wherein it appears SCLC is assuming too much responsibility for putting a lid on the Chicago riots. Rather, the blame should be placed on Mayor RICHARD DALEY of Chicago, that is, should be termed DALEY's riot and not SCLC's riot. LEVISON encouraged SCLC to sharply attack DALEY as it would cause him to lose Negro votes. Although SCLC reportedly was of the opinion that the rioters were really wild young kids supported by adults, LEVISON felt that a large section of the Chicago population, including part of the Negro middle class was not unhappy about the riots and feel that Chicago was getting what it deserved. LEVISON reportedly stressed the need to place the blame on DALEY or the blame would be placed on SCLC. He cautioned that SCLC could be placed in the embarrassing position of being blamed not for causing the riots, but for not stopping them when MARTIN LUTHER KING could have done so. It is therefore necessary to place the blame on DALEY for failing to do what was needed.

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

A. Negro American Labor Council

In early April, 1966, HERB WRIGHT and RALPH TURNER, both CP members, reportedly met with TIM BLACK on the question of reviving the Chicago Chapter of NALC in order that NALC in Chicago could give some direction to the freedom movement. BLACK agreed to do whatever was feasible in this regard. He felt that they could issue a press release and work along with the Independent Labor Committee and project their ideas along with this committee. It reportedly was agreed that they would start working on this program. ~~S~~ (U)

On April 17, 1966, TIM BLACK, at the invitation of CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, met with LIGHTFOOT and several other CP members to discuss the question of reviving the NALC Chicago Chapter. It was pointed out that the basic program was to use the NALC to organize the unorganized and to mobilize this new force with the civil rights movement in Chicago. ~~S~~ (U)

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT felt that this program was in agreement with the national policy of the NALC. He felt further that this program would possibly be the key to MARTIN LUTHER KING's success in Chicago. ~~S~~ (U)

It was agreed generally that the "bread and butter" issues or the economic issues were the key issues to the ghetto. LIGHTFOOT felt that if BLACK would get back into the movement with the NALC it would be possible to have the CCCO and the MARTIN LUTHER KING forces rally around the program. (U)

No specific plans were made during this meeting to reactivate NALC. (U)

During the latter part of April, 1966, a member of the Illinois CP State Board reportedly met with TIM BLACK for the purpose of discussing a possible NALC program and methods of activating such a program through the CCCO. The essence of the program was to work through the NALC to organize the unorganized labor and to unite the labor movement with the civil rights movement. (U)

TIM BLACK was receptive to this program and agreed that they would attempt to implement the program. He suggested a meeting to reactivate NALC and make plans to send Chicago delegates to the forthcoming National NALC Convention in Baltimore, Maryland, scheduled for the latter part of May, 1966. (U)

The National Convention of NALC was held in Baltimore, Maryland, May 27-29, 1966. The Chicago Chapter was represented by six or seven delegates, including four CP members: (U)

[RALPH TURNER
HERB WRIGHT
RODNEY STEPHEN] (U)

The Chicago delegation presented a report for the Convention's consideration, which sets forth a proposed program to improve the work and expand the activities of the NALC. The Chicago program principally proposed a program of organizing the unorganized, which included people residing within the ghetto in Chicago and involves one-half million people. It was stated that these one-half million people who were employed earn only about $3,000 per year.

This program is entitled "A Suggested White Paper - The Other Chicago - The City's Employed Poor." A document was prepared regarding this program, principally by TIM BLACK, President of NALC, Chicago Chapter; however, prior to the time that the document was finalized, certain portions were reviewed and discussed by the CP of Illinois leadership, and they agreed with its contents generally. The program was adopted by the Convention.

A source related that as of July, 1966, there was still no headquarters for the Chicago Chapter of NALC in Chicago; that the membership totaled only around 18 to 20 people. The current CP members in the Chicago Chapter are: (U)

RALPH TURNER
HERB WRIGHT
RODNEY STEPHEN

(U)

TURNER and WRIGHT have been directed by the CP of Illinois to work with NALC in order to revive the organization. (U)

The basic interest of the CP in NALC is to use the organization as a vehicle for the program of organizing the unorganized and mobilize this movement into the civil rights movement. Thus far the program has met with little success. (U)

C. Coordinating Council of Community Organizations (CCCO) and The Independent Labor Committee (ILC)

The ILC, also known as the CCCO Labor Committee has no headquarters in Chicago, but meets in various offices of certain labor unions involved or in private residences. It was independently created by a group of trade unionists active in the CCCO to involve trade unionists in civil rights struggles in Chicago and to combat discriminatory hiring practices. The ILC is composed of some former Negro-American Labor Council (NALC) members who more or less drifted into the newly created ILC in the fall of 1965 as a result of the inactivity and inefficiency of the Chicago Chapter of the NALC. The ILC has become an organization of concentration by the Illinois CP, but there is no direct control or influence of this group by the Party. A number of present and former CP members are known to be active in the ILC, however, no CP caucus is known to operate.

The ILC maintains no active membership as such, is primarily a paper organization with some 45 participating members. In December, 1965, in order to maintain some degree of organization, officers were elected, one of whom was JACK BURCH, elected Vice-President.

In late 1963 and early 1964, he criticized the CP for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. He was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position on civil rights. His differences, however, were merely technical and he continued his ideological adherence to communism. (U)

In connection with TOURNOUR source advised in January, 1966, that he is considered by the CP locally to be a "non-Party communist" as described in Marxist-Leninist terminology. These are people who carry out most of the CP's program but will not join the CP because they feel for one reason or another discipline will not be to their liking. In September, 1965, source advised that TOURNOUR had been the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) Midwest Regional Secretary in charge of the Task Force in Chicago, during the period of the summer, 1964, until the time he was fired by the CORE National Office, in January, 1965. TOURNOUR then arranged for a group of Midwest CORE representatives to finance his employment as a Staff CORE member of the Midwest area. As such, TOURNOUR had continued as head of the CORE Task Force from January until June, 1965, when a Chicago newspaper ran an article concerning his activities which resulted in a public statement by the CORE National Director that TOURNOUR had been fired.

AFRICAN AMERICAN HERITAGE ASSOCIATION, Formerly known as Afro-American Heritage Association

A source advised on May 11, 1965, that the African American Heritage Association (AAHA) with headquarters at 306 East 43rd Street, Chicago, Illinois, was known as the Afro-American Heritage Association until February, 1961. It was founded by ISHMAEL FLORY around 1958 and incorporated in the State of Illinois as a non-profit organization. It was founded ostensibly for the purpose of teaching African history and culture to American Negroes. AAHA is strongly influenced by the Communist Party (CP) of Illinois. It is represented by both communist and non-communist members, and some people with strong nationalistic tendencies. This organization reflects CP policy on some issues and opposes CP policy on others; for example, the CP rejects the concept of Afro-American as a reference term to the American Negro and rejects aspects of nationalism, both of which are reflected in the AAHA program. FLORY is a member of the CP of Illinois and theoretically under the discipline of the CP. He is the guiding force in AAHA and controls policy and decisions in AAHA.

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, Chairman, CP of Illinois, in 1964 spoke of a plan to beef up AAHA's membership in a concentrated drive toward making AAHA a mass organization. However, this plan never fully materialized and LIGHTFOOT currently is undecided about the matter. LIGHTFOOT has appeared at some AAHA affairs in 1964 and 1965. He occasionally meets with FLORY and he still encourages CP members to cooperate with FLORY.

A second source advised on May 6, 1965, that in 1962 the CP worked with FLORY to organize AAHA Chapters under the leadership of CP members. The aim of this program included the reactivation of ex-CP members and recruitment of new CP members. This program was never successful and became defunct in 1963.

Since 1963, the South Side area of the CP of Illinois has been holding CP meetings at AAHA headquarters. Many South Side CP members currently are members of AAHA and participate in AAHA affairs. The South Side CP groups cooperate in some AAHA affairs, especially in affairs dealing with the Negro rights movement.

CHICAGO COMMITTEE TO DEFEND THE BILL OF RIGHTS

The Chicago Committee to Defend the Bill of Rights (CCDBR) maintains headquarters in Suite 424, 431 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois.

A source advised in July, 1960, that RICHARD CRILEY, then a member of the Civil Liberties Commission of the Communist Party (CP) of Illinois, met with key leaders of the CP and was authorized by the CP to form a new organization with broad mass support so long as the new organization would protect the Party interests.

This source advised in October, 1960, that on October 28, 1960, CRILEY reported to the CP leadership that the CCDBR had been organized. He outlined its aims and purposes as being to obtain mass support to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) and to defend Smith Act and Taft-Hartley victims. He said there would be no formal affiliation with any other national organization having the same purposes. The CP leadership agreed with the general direction of the CCDBR as outlined by CRILEY.

A second source advised on October 31, 1960, that the CCDBR was formally organized on October 26,1960, with RICHARD CRILEY as Executive Secretary after he motivated organizing the meeting of October 26, 1960.

A third source advised on May 5, 1965, that the original stated purposes for the CCDBR continue to be adhered to with CRILEY continuing as the motivating force behind the Committee. The Board of Directors, however, now includes many individuals in the religious, educational and labor fields who are not known as CP members.

OF CHICAGO (DCC)

On May 3, 1965, a source advised that on June 30, 1964, a group of young people who attended the founding convention of the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA), met in Chicago and adopted a statement of purpose and constitution forming the DCC as an affiliate of the national DCA.

This source further advised that at a meeting of the Chicago Area of the Midwest Region of the DCA held April 3, 1965, the boundary of the Chicago Area was established to include all of Illinois north of Springfield, Illinois, and all of Indiana. At this meeting, TED PEARSON was elected Area Coordinator.

A second source advised on May 9, 1966, that as of May, 1966, TED PEARSON, Chairman of the Youth Club of the Communist Party (CP) of Illinois, continued to be the Chicago Area Coordinator of the DCA, and the official headquarters is located at the PEARSON apartment, 1808 North Cleveland Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

The second source advised that there are currently two clubs operating in the Chicago Area, one on the west side and the other on the near north side. The west side club operates a club house known as the West Side Freedom Center at 2908 West Madison Street which is open seven days a week to the teen-agers on the west side.

W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA (DCA)

A source has advised that on October 26-27, 1963, a conference of members of the Communist Party (CP), including national functionaries, met in Chicago, Illinois, for the purpose of setting in motion forces for the establishment of a new national Marxist-oriented youth organization which would hunt for the most peaceful transition to socialism. The delegates were told that it would be reasonable to assume that the young socialists attracted into this new organization would eventually pass into the CP itself.

A second source has advised that the founding convention for the new youth organization was held from June 19-21, 1964, at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, at which time the name W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) was adopted. Approximately 500 delegates from throughout the United States attended this convention. The aims of this organization, as set forth in the preamble to the constitution, are: "it is our belief that this nation can best solve its problems in an atmosphere of peaceful coexistence, complete disarmament and true freedom for all peoples of the world, and that these solutions will be reached mainly through the united efforts of all democratic elements in our country, composed essentially of the working people allied in the unity of Negroes and other minorities with whites. We further fully recognize that the greatest threat to American democracy comes from the racist and right wing forces in coalition with the most reactionary sections of the economic power structure, using the tool of anti-Communism to divide and destroy the unified struggle of the working people."

Over the Labor Day weekend, 1965, the DCA held a conference in Chicago, Illinois, and a new slate of officers was elected to the National Executive Committee (NEC) of the DCA. Since Labor Day, 1965, identities of those serving on the NEC has varied; however, according to a third source as of May, 1966, thirteen of the fifteen members of the NEC were members of the CP in the San Francisco Bay area.

As of July, 1966, the headquarters of the DCA was located at 180 North Wacker Drive, Chicago, Illinois.

FREEDOMWAYS ASSOCIATES, INCORPORATED

The records of the New York Secretary of State, Albany, New York, show the certificate of incorporation of Freedomways Associates, Inc., was filed on March 2, 1961.

The Winter, 1965, issue of "Freedomways" is self-described as "A Quarterly Review of the Negro Freedom Movement," published by Freedomways Associates, Inc., 799 Broadway, New York City. This issue lists JOHN HENRIK CLARKE as Associate Editor, ESTHER JACKSON as Managing Editor and JOHN L. DEVINE as Art Editor of the publication.

A source made available information on July 1, 1964, disclosing that JOHN HENRIK CLARKE attended the first and founding meeting of the American Institute for Marxist Studies (AIMS) which was held on December 19, 1963, and continued on January 10, 1964.

This source also made available information on August 14, 1964, disclosing CLARKE is an "associate" of AIMS.

The Winter, 1963, issue of "Freedomways," page 44, states that ESTHER JACKSON became one of the leaders of the Southern Negro Youth Congress (SNYC), which existed from 1937 to 1949. The SNYC has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

According to a second source, ESTHER JACKSON is the wife of JAMES JACKSON, whom the source identified on October 14, 1964, as being a member of the National Committee of the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA).

On January 30, 1961, SYLVIA M. BRENNER DEVINE, 415 South 50th Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, advised that her former husband, JACK DEVINE, mentioned on December 17, 1960, he was still in the CP and the CP is his whole life.

On May 24, 1961, a fourth source advised that a report was given on "Freedomways" at a meeting of the National Board, CP, USA, held on that date. It was stated that the original plan called for the publication to be openly Marxist, but that it was later decided it would not be avowedly a Marxist publication. Editorials are in the hands of a mixed group of Marxists and non-Marxists. It was stated that the central purpose of "Freedomways" is to develop a theory and positive criticism of currents in the Negro movement, as well as to raise the level of understanding and discussion taking place in Negro life today and to project a socialist and pro-Soviet orientation.

On May 25, 1961, the fourth source advised that "Freedomways" was set up for the CP, USA, by JAMES JACKSON.

NATION OF ISLAM, Formerly Referred to as the Muslim Cult of Islam, Aka. Muhammad's Temples of Islam

In January, 1957, a source advised ELIJAH MUHAMMAD has described his organization on a nationwide basis as the "Nation of Islam" and "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

On May 7, 1965, a second source advised ELIJAH MUHAMMAD is the national leader of the Nation of Islam (NOI); Muhammad's Temple of Islam No. 2, 5335 South Greenwood Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, is the national headquarters of the NOI; and in mid-1960 MUHAMMAD and other NOI officials, when referring to MUHAMMAD's organization on a nationwide basis, commenced using either "Mosque" or "Temple" when mentioning one of "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

The NOI is an all-Negro organization which was originally organized in 1930 in Detroit, Michigan. MUHAMMAD claims to have been selected by Allah, the Supreme Being, to lead the so-called Negro race out of slavery in the wilderness of North America by establishing an independent black nation in the United States. Members following MUHAMMAD's teachings and his interpretation of the "Koran" believe there is no such thing as a Negro; that the so-called Negroes are slaves of the white race, referred to as "white devils," in the United States; and that the white race, because of its exploitation of the so-called Negroes, must and will be destroyed in the approaching "War of Armageddon."

In the past, officials and members of the NOI, including MUHAMMAD, have refused to register under the provisions of the Selective Service Acts and have declared that members owe no allegiance to the United States.

On May 5, 1958, the first source advised MUHAMMAD had, upon advice of legal counsel, tempered his personal statements and instructions to his ministers concerning the principles of his organization in order to avoid possible prosecution by the United States government; however, he did not indicate any fundamental changes in the teachings of his organization.

On May 3, 1965, a third source advised MUHAMMAD had, early in July, 1958, decided to de-emphasize the religious aspects of the teachings of Islam and to stress the economic benefits to be derived by those Negroes who joined the NOI. This policy change, according to MUHAMMAD, would help him acquire additional followers and create more interest in his programs.

PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY (PLP)
PROGRESSIVE LABOR MOVEMENT (PLM)

A source advised on April 20, 1965, that the PLP, formerly known as the PLM, held its first national convention April 15-18, 1965, at New York City, to organize the PLM into a PLP. The PLP will have as its ultimate objective the establishment of a militant working class movement based on Marxism-Leninnism.

"The New York Times", City Edition, Tuesday, April 20, 1965, page 27, reported that a new party of "revolutionary socialism" was formally founded on April 18, 1965, under the name of PLP. The PLP was described as an outgrowth of the PLM. Its officers were identified as MILTON ROSEN, New York, President, and WILLIAM EPTON of New York and MORT SCHEER of San Francisco, Vice Presidents. A 20-member National Committee was elected to direct the party until the next convention.

According to the article, "The Progressive Labor Movement was founded in 1962 by Mr. Rosen and Mr. Scheer after they were expelled from the Communist Party of the United States for assertedly following the Chinese Communist line."

The PLP publishes the "Marxist-Leninist Quarterly," a theoretical magazine; "Progressive Labor", a monthly magazine; "Challenge", a New York City newspaper; and "Spark", a West Coast newspaper.

The June 1, 1965, issue of "Challenge", page 6, states that, "this paper is dedicated to fight for a new way of life-where the working men and women own and control their homes, factories, the police, courts, and the entire government on every level."

The source advised that the PLP utilizes the address of General Post Office Box 808, Brooklyn 1, New York, but also utilizes an office in Room 622, 132 Nassau Street, New York City, where PLP publications are prepared.

SOUTHERN CONFERENCE EDUCATIONAL FUND, INC.

"The Southern Patriot," a monthly publication, shows that it is published by the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc. (SCEF).

"The Southern Patriot" was cited as an "organ" of the Southern Conference for Human Welfare (SCHW) by the Committee on Un-American Activities House Report 592, on the SCHW, June 12, 1947.

The SCHW was cited as a communist front by the Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 592, June 12, 1947.

An amendment to the charter of the SCHW changed the name of that organization to the SCEF, and listed its purpose as being to improve the educational and cultural standards of the Southern people in accordance with the highest American democratic institutions, traditions, and ideals. The amendment was dated April 26, 1946.

A source advised on March 2, 1961, that Claude Lightfoot, a Communist Party functionary, stated at a meeting of the Communist Party in Baltimore, Maryland, on February 25, 1961, that the Communist Party is not connected with any progressive movement but indirectly they do have some influence in the SCEF.

A second source, who is familiar with some phases of Communist Party activity in the New Orleans areas, advised on May 28, 1965, that during the time the SCHW was in existence, Communist Party (CP) members have not been encouraged to work in the SCEF. The source stated the SCEF is a progressive, liberal organization, which he considers a CP front organization because it has gone along with the Communist Party on certain issues, particularly on the racial question.

On May 28, 1965, the second source advised that in the past he has considered James Dombrowski, the Executive Director of the SCEF, to be a communist, if not an actual Communist Party member, because he followed communist principles.

The second source also advised on May 28, 1965, that many people who are officials and members of the SCEF, while liberal in their views, are by no means communists.

MR. TOLSON:

Marvin Watson called late last night to indicate that the President had decided that he would not meet with the 14,000 summer interns (young men and women who have summer employment in the Government) on the White House grounds. The President made the decision that he would speak to these youngsters on the Washington Monument grounds at the Sylvan Amphitheater.

Watson stressed the fact that the President would appreciate having seven or eight FBI Agents scattered among the crowd just to make certain that things were all right. He stated he knew this was strictly the responsibility of ~~Secret~~ Service, however, the President had indicated he would feel better if the FBI were on hand.

Watson also indicated that he should be advised immediately in the event any intelligence was picked up reflecting that any of the beatniks or riffraff up on the Hill protesting against the House Committee on Un-American Activities hearings might attempt to attend the session at the Washington Monument grounds. I told him we would be particularly alert to this matter.

16 SEP 2 1966

In connection with this latter point, I called Watson at 9:10 a. m. this morning following a call from Mr. Sullivan's Division. Watson was advised that one Shelia Ryan, a student at Catholic University, and a member of the National Committee to Defend the Civil Rights of the Antiwar Movement, had obtained a permit to picket on 17th Street across from the Washington Monument grounds. I told Watson that while this was some distance away from where the President would be speaking, he nevertheless should know that this permit had been obtained to picket between 10:00 a. m. and 1:00 p. m. today. Watson expressed appreciation.

Watson stated the President also wanted to make certain that the Director had dispersed all FBI Negro Agents to Negro ghettos throughout the country. He stated the President wanted these Negro Agents to live in the ghettos so that they could promptly report to the FBI any matter of subversion which was causing rioting. Watson stated the President was coming closer and closer to the belief that subversion was behind all rioting in the United States.

Watson asked if we had a sufficient number of Negro Agents in the FBI. I replied that the number of Negro Agents was not the problem, that the problem pure and simple was obtaining qualified individuals. I stated that the Director had had Negro Agents since 1924, however, it was most difficult to obtain qualified Negro Agents inasmuch as once these individuals obtained a college degree, one of several factors prevented them from coming to work for the FBI. I told Watson that in numerous cases these individuals had somewhat of a bad background. I mentioned that in other cases the prospective applicants themselves did not want to sacrifice by putting in the long hours we find it necessary to perform in fulfilling our heavy responsibilities.

Watson stated that he certainly understood all this, however, he hoped that we were on top of the situation. I told him that we had excellent sources of information among all subversive groups and that, as he could tell from the intelligence being sent to him on a daily basis, we were definitely on top of the situation.

RESPECTFULLY,

V

A. G. has publicly denied this. I think we should perhaps a memo to Mr. Tolson on it & show President's views. I hope we don't close our eyes to it as we did to the Students for a Democratic Society being a Communist front until they publicly announced it.

SUBJECT: SUBVERSIVE INFLUENCE IN RIOTS

ORIM

Historically the Communist Party, USA, has regarded Negroes as a primary target group for agitation, infiltration, and recruitment. Negroes have been subjected constantly to intensive and extensive communist propaganda. The Communist Party seizes upon any opportunity presented to exploit the racial issue. Martin Luther King and his Southern Christian Leadership Conference have, over the years, received advice and guidance from such dedicated communists as Stanley Levison and Hunter Pitts O'Dell, a former national leader in the Communist Party. C. T. Vivian, an official in the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, is a former communist. Levison went to Atlanta, Georgia, to confer with King during the June, 1966, march from Memphis to Jackson. He was in Chicago to confer with King in connection with King's activities for open housing in August of 1966. Clarence Jones, Harry Wachtel, and Bayard Rustin, all with histories of prior communist affiliation, have also been close advisors of King and his organization.

REC-6 EX-103 100-442527-1959

Basically each riot which has occurred in the United States since the Summer of 1964 followed a single incident generally involving efforts on the part of police to effect an arrest of a Negro. The Communist Party and other subversive organizations exploited the riots after they had begun. Examples follow:

16 SEP 2 1966

NEW YORK

The New York City riot which began July 18, 1964, was preceded by protest demonstrations against an off-duty police officer who shot a Negro youth while attempting to make an arrest on July 16, 1964. The Progressive Labor Party, then called the Progressive Labor Movement, a Marxist-Leninist group oriented toward Red China, was reported to be active in stirring up the Negroes against the white communities and once the riot started took advantage of the situation. It distributed one thousand inflammatory leaflets in the riot area. William Epton, national vice chairman of this organization and a former member of the Communist Party, organized and led young Negroes in fighting the police during the riot. In an inflammatory street speech he warned "...we are going to have to kill a lot of these cops, a lot of these judges and we will have to go up against the Army...." His activities in fomenting and adding to the disorder led to his arrest and subsequent conviction on charges of criminal anarchy. The Communist Party, USA, of course, and other communist-type organizations had a propaganda field day.

In addition, on July 19, 1964, Jesse Gray, a former organizer of the Harlem region of the Communist Party, called for one hundred single revolutionaries who were ready to die to correct what he termed the police brutality situation in Harlem.

PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA

Following an attempted arrest of a Negro woman in a predominantly Negro neighborhood in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on August 28, 1964, Abyssinia Hayes, a well-known Negro agitator, leader of a small black nationalist group and former member of the Nation of Islam which preaches hatred against the whites, mounted the porch of a house urging the people who had gathered at the scene to violence against police officers and thereafter the crowd began attacking police and throwing stones and bricks at passing cars. The following two days saw riotous conditions in the area. During the course of the riots, members of the Communist Party, USA, were observed distributing numerous copies of "The Worker," the East Coast communist newspaper, in the riot area. Hayes was arrested by the Philadelphia police and among other things charged with inciting to riot. A subsequent search of his home revealed knives, an automatic pistol, fifty gallons of flammable liquid and a quantity of communist-Marxist literature.

LOS ANGELES

Communists were quick to exploit the Watts area riot in Los Angeles, August 11-15, 1965. On August 14, 1965, members of the W. E. B. DuBois Clubs, a communist youth organization, and the Socialist Workers Party, a communist Trotskyite organization, staged a demonstration at the police administration building and on August 16, 1965, the DuBois

Club members circulated leaflets calling for expulsion of the Los Angeles Chief of Police. Communist Party members prepared articles for a communist publication written in an effort to place blame for the riot on local authorities. The leader of another procommunist China communist splinter group stated in October, 1965, that his group had spent over two years carrying on agitation against the police in the Watts area. He added that his group was engaged in the formation and development of units and squads to fight against "police brutality" and "United States imperialism" which could, in the future, provide the basis for "liberation armies."

During the riot which erupted in the Watts area in Los Angeles on March 15, 1966, the Southside Defense Committee, which was set up by the Communist Party, held a press conference protesting alleged police brutality in connection with the arrest of four members of the W. E. B. DuBois Clubs who were in the riot area.

A disturbance which occurred in the Watts area of Los Angeles on May 17, 1966, is directly attributed to actions of the communists who organized the rally at the Will Rogers Park in the Watts area to protest the killing of a Negro, Leonard Deadwyler. An inflammatory handbill announcing the rally was prepared by a Communist Party member and following the rally approximately five hundred individuals led by a paid organizer of the W. E. B. DuBois Club who was driving an automobile equipped with loud-speakers proceeded to the 77th Street Division of the Los Angeles Police Department where they staged a boisterous picketing demonstration. A news vehicle was attacked and one occupant seriously wounded, a liquor store window was broken and looted; bottles and bricks were hurled at passing cars. An inquest into the death of Deadwyler on May 19, 1966, was disrupted to such an extent by unruly spectators that it had to be recessed. The Progressive Labor Party, a violence-prone pro-Chinese communist organization, got into the act during the inquest by distributing a leaflet captioned "Wanted for the Murder of Leonard Deadwyler, Bova, a Cop." At the courthouse while the inquest was in progress, the Communist Party circulated a petition calling for indictment of the officer involved in the shooting.

CLEVELAND

In connection with riots which began in the Hough area of Cleveland, Ohio, on the night of July 18, 1966, a Cuyahoga Grand Jury reported that "The outbreak of lawlessness and disorder was both organized, precipitated and exploited by a relatively small group of trained and disciplined professionals of this business. They were aided and abetted willingly or otherwise by misguided people of all ages and colors, many of whom are avowed believers in violence and extremists and some of whom are also either members of or officers in the Communist Party."

A prior disturbance had begun on the night of June 22, 1966, in the vicinity of the JFK House, a private community center in Cleveland, which continued nightly through June 25, 1966. The Bureau sources, as well as sources of the Cleveland Police Department, agree that the June disturbance was organized by leaders and members of the JFK House and that JFK youths were primarily involved. The three principal leaders of the JFK House have been affiliated with the Revolutionary Action Movement, an all-Negro black nationalist procommunist China organization, whose nominal leader is Robert F. Williams, a fugitive from justice now residing in Communist China. In addition to their involvement in the June disturbance, the grand jury reported that these leaders caused two thousand pieces of literature to be printed and circulated citing alleged incidents of "police brutality" on the eve of the Hough area riots in July. The greatest number of these were circulated to youths of non-voting age under the guise of urging the defeat of a levy at the polls, and while not instigating the July riots, the JFK House people did exploit the Hough area during the course of the riots.

According to a [redacted] b7D

 CONTINUED - OVER

Party-sponsored public function. Robinson's wife visited Cuba in 1961 and, in fact, was employed by the Ministry of education while in Cuba. She traveled without State Department permission. She has also attended Socialist Workers Party public functions. Communist contacts with Robinson occurred prior to the July 18 riot with the last contact being July 14, 1966.

During the course of the Hough area riots, four members of the W. E. B. DuBois Club were arrested in the riot area with a considerable amount of communist literature in the car. In this connection it is noted that the DuBois Club headquarters had been set up in the Hough area of Cleveland.

CHICAGO

During a disturbance in Chicago in August, 1965, leaflets containing inflammatory statements were distributed in the troubled area by members of Sparticist, a Trotskyite organization, composed of former members of the Socialist Workers Party. The leaflets compared the riot situation in Chicago to Vietnam and Santo Domingo.

During the course of the Chicago riot which began July 12, 1966, Douglas Andrews, the leader of a civil rights organization and also a former member of the Revolutionary Action Movement, together with twelve other members of the civil rights organization, were arrested by the Chicago Police Department following receipt of information that they were preparing Molotov cocktails for use later in the riot area.

DETROIT

In Detroit on August 9, 1966, a riotous situation developed following an attempt by police to arrest three Negroes. The same night, General Gordon Baker, Jr., a leader of the Revolutionary Action Movement, and several of his associates were arrested by police. These individuals were in possession of weapons and were en route to the riot area.

In all of the above and similar situations, the Communist Party has seized every opportunity to exploit the situation, to set itself up as the "champion" of social protest, and to portray itself as the "leader" in the struggle for full and equal rights. In other words, the Communist Party wants to "keep the pot boiling" by any possible means.

SUBJECT: SUBVERSIVE INFLUENCE IN RIOTS

In connection with my memorandum of August 20, 1966, captioned as above, the Director noted that the disposition at the hands of the police and courts for overt acts committed was not set forth. They follow.

NEW YORK

William Epton, National Vice Chairman of the Progressive Labor Party, a violence prone, Marxist-Leninist group oriented toward Red China, was arrested for his part in the New York City riot which began July 18, 1964. He was charged with conspiracy to incite riot, advocating criminal anarchy and conspiracy to advocate criminal anarchy. He was convicted on each count and was sentenced to one year in prison on each count with the sentences to run concurrently. Epton is presently free under $25,000 bail pending appeal of his conviction.

Jesse Gray, the former organizer of the Harlem Region of the Communist Party who during the course of the New York riot called for 100 revolutionaries who were ready to die to correct what he termed the police brutality situation in Harlem, was not arrested. An injunction, however, was obtained July 24, 1964, prohibiting Gray and others from conducting demonstrations in the central Harlem area of New York City. This injunction was dissolved by the New York Supreme Court September 17, 1964.

SUBJECT: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RIOTING REQUEST FOR INFORMATION FROM ATTORNEY GENERAL

(CIRM)

On 8/11/66, Mr. J. Walter Yeagley, Assistant Attorney General, Internal Security Division of the Department, contacted Night Supervisor Thomas J. Smith, Domestic Intelligence Division, and advised as follows:

Yeagley had just received a call from Attorney General Katzenbach, who asked him to call the Bureau. He said that Katzenbach stated he has to testify before some Senate Committee next week and the topic will deal with communist influence in rioting. He said that this will not be confined to rioting wherein civil rights are involved, but will involve any rioting and/or demonstrations such as could occur in connection with Vietnam protests and demonstrations.

Yeagley said that this stems from the recently announced findings of the Cleveland Grand Jury which said in effect that the Cleveland riots were instigated and/or influenced by communist elements. He said that Katzenbach stated that the Bureau has furnished him information which is undoubtedly current up to this date, but that in view of the Cleveland announcement, he would like to have this information brought up to date so that he can testify on the most current situation.

Yeagley said that he will need this information no later than Tuesday morning, 8/16/66, so that it can be furnished to the Attorney General. Yeagley will not be in his office until after noon, 8/12/66. However, he will phone Mr. Sullivan's office around noon to furnish any more details he can obtain as to the nature of the Senate Committee hearing involved and as to the information desired.

Pages 20145-20157. Congressman Buchanan, (D) Alabama, spoke concerning Communist infiltration in the civil rights movement pointing out that he brought this to the attention of the House some weeks ago. He stated "I pointed out that Communist Party Leader Gus Hall and FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover agreed that this infiltration was present. - - - - the evidence continues to reveal that Communist influence and infiltration are expanding rather than contracting within the civil rights movement in this country. - - - - And now solid evidence has been offered of Communist participation and perhaps even leadership in the recent riots in Cleveland." At this point Mr. Buchanan quoted from the report issued by the Cuyahoga County (Ohio) Grand Jury on the riots in the Hough area of Cleveland. Mr. Buchanan made reference to the Revolutionary Action Movement and stated "RAM, as described by FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover, is--'A highly militant, secretive organization following the Chinese oriented Marxist-Leninist line and believes in replacing the capitalistic system with socialism.'" Mr. Buchanan also quoted from the October 1964 FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin, Mr. Hoover's testimony before the House Appropriations Subcommittee on March 4, 1965, and an FBI news release of January 5, 1966, regarding the W. E. B. DuBois Clubs and their connection with the Communist Party.

Congressman Sweeney, (R) Ohio, pointed out that yesterday, Attorney General Katzenbach seemed to go out of his way to make the point that Communists or black nationalists really were not to be blamed for the violence on our city streets and that the ingredients for the riots and explosions are attributable to slum area conditions and not subversive activity. Mr. Sweeney advised that Attorney General Katzenbach also indicated his disagreement with the contents of the Cuyahoga County, Ohio, grand jury report regarding riots in Cleveland. Mr. Sweeney indicated the grand jury's report with his remarks. Re: Communist Influence in Racial Matters

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 6, 1966, that a conference was held on that date by Martin Luther King, President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC). It included, in addition to King, Stanley Levison, Harry Wachtel, Lawrence Reddick, Cleveland Robinson (Secretary-Treasurer of Local 65, Retail, Wholesale and Department Store Workers, American Federation of Labor - Congress of Industrial Organizations, AFL-CIO), Bayard Rustin (Organizer of the March on Washington), Clarence Jones, Junius Briggs (Phonetic), Ralph Cranston (Phonetic) and Walter Thorcase (Phonetic).

The conference was called to hear and discuss a letter over King's signature which is scheduled to be distributed to the Negro youth of America. The letter, which was actually written by Rustin, implores the Negro youth of America to adhere to non-violent tactics in trying to obtain equality.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Re: Communist Influence in
Racial Matters
Internal Security - C

Rustin said the letter would be read on the National Broadcasting System on Monday, September 12, 1966, and will be mailed to two categories: (A) Boys Clubs, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, settlement houses, basketball teams and other organizations where Negroes between the ages of 16-25 can be reached; (B) Negro ministers, Negro Press, Negro college presidents, high school principals, fraternal organizations and to unions with large membership. Rustin said King should not read the letter alone, but instead, should have A. Philip Randolph (President of the Negro American Labor Council, NALC) present in order to protect King from fallout. Rustin said not many people dared attack Randolph.

The following, in essence, is what the letter states:

King said he was writing not as a civil rights leader, but as a father deeply concerned about the future of his own children. Not since the time he joined the Freedom Movement had he ever felt so much grief, he observed. As the new school term opens, King noted, many of the youth of America desire to go to school but have insufficient resources with which to do so. And in this regard, King remarked that only yesterday, September 5, 1966, he wired President Johnson urging him to make available enough funds so that all poor young persons in the country could return to school.

Re: Communist Influence in
Racial Matters
Internal Security - C

King notes in the letter that he also urged the President to place before Congress a bill to create public works to provide meaningful employment for every able-bodied young person who needs it, whatever his present skills, his training, his color, may be. King said he was convinced that the tragic ordeals "we" had passed through this summer were the results of the fear, the frustration, and the hopelessness on both sides that springs from "our" nation's failure to make it possible for all youth, especially Negroes, to obtain quality integrated education and dignified work.

Continuing, King said, the progress which has been made in race relations was derived from demonstrations which were free of bitterness, hatred and violence. "We" King said, must not let a tiny minority of hateful bigots provoke "us" into emotional behavior, into actions which would destroy "our" movement and would separate "us" from others in society whose help "we" sorely need. "We", King continued, must not fall into this racist trap. He implored the Negro youth to whom he speaks in the letter, to remember that Molatov cocktails, looting and hating cannot, and will not, solve the problems "we" really care about.

In conclusion, King urged the youth to be prepared to use their energy in non-violent mass action protests in their community.

Following Rustin's reading of the letter, King said the letter should also be aimed at the white people. He said to do otherwise, could result in him being branded as an "Uncle Tom".

Re: Communist Influence in
Racial Matters
Internal Security - C

Stanley Levison said he did not like the statement that King had contacted President Johnson about unemployment and jobs. His objection was over the fact that King had already asked the President about 90 times, although nothing has come of it. As an alternative, Levison said President Johnson should be "threatened" by stating that if no action is forthcoming by May, 1967, King and Randolph would have a march on Washington. Levison's suggestion was not well received by the other conferees. In fact, as an alternative, Cleveland Robinson wanted something about the Peace Movement included in the letter. He said the peace issue was a basic issue in view of the many Negroes in Vietnam. (U)

Harry Wachtel suggested King hold a meeting in the next three or four days to plan the letter more objectively. Rustin said he would dress up the letter before King's arrival in New York City on Sunday night. (U)

Stanley Levison

A ~~confidential~~ source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in April, 1964, that Stanley Levison was a U.S.A. ~~secret~~ member of the Communist Party, USA, (CPUSA) in July, 1963. In late 1963 and early 1964, he criticized the CP for not being sufficiently militant in the Civil Rights struggle. Levison was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position on Civil Rights. Levison's differences with the CP, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism. (U)

Clarence Jones

Clarence Jones is the General Counsel to the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, 15 East 40th Street, New York, New York.

A ~~confidential~~ source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 26, 1957, that he identified a photograph of Clarence Jones as a person whom he knew during late 1953 or early 1954 to be a member of and in a position of leadership in the Labor Youth League. (U)

The Labor Youth League has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Lawrence Dunbar Reddick LAWRENCE REDDICK

Lawrence Dunbar Reddick is Professor of Social Sciences at Coppin State College, Baltimore, Maryland. He currently resides at 3704 Winterbourne Road, Baltimore, Maryland.

A ~~confidential~~ Source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised she had learned that Dr. Reddick, then Director of the Schomburg Library, 103 West 135th Street, New York City, was one of the most important unpublicized members of the Communist Party (CP). Source stated Reddick seemed to be a source of information in regard to socialism and communism in the United States and the Soviet Union.

Re: Communist Influence in
Racial Matters
Internal Security - C

A ~~confidential~~ source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, said that he met Lawrence Dunbar Reddick in 1943, through Eugene Gordon, a staff member of the "Daily Worker" and that both Gordon and Benjamin J. Davis advised him that Lawrence Dunbar Reddick was at that time a member of the CP. The source said that Reddick was an instructor at the George Washington Carver School.

The "Daily Worker" was an east coast communist newspaper, which suspended publication on January 13, 1958.

The George Washington Carver School has been designated by the U.S. Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On February 5 and 11, 1954, Lawrence Dunbar Reddick was interviewed by Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation at Atlanta, Georgia. He, at that time, stated that he was not, and had never been, a member of, or a sympathizer with, the Communist Party.

A ~~confidential~~ source, who has furnished reliable in the past, advised that on January 18, 1964, Dr. Lawrence Reddick visited with Benjamin J. Davis at the home of Jacob Green, State Chairman of the CP in Maryland. During conversation between Reddick and Davis, it was mentioned that they had attended school together in Georgia, and Reddick commented that if he had stayed with Davis, he would have also joined the CP.

Communist Influence In Racial Matters

Harry Wachtel is the Executive Vice President of the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, New York, New York.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information in December, 1949, that Harry H. Wachtel, 41 Broad Street, New York, New York, was on a list of individuals carried as active members of the National Lawyers Guild. (C) U

A characterization of the National Lawyers Guild is attached hereto.

On March 5, 1944, another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information which revealed that the name Harry Wachtel was on a list of names, significance not known, which was maintained at the Headquarters of the Kings County Communist Party (CP) at 26 Court Street, Brooklyn, New York. (C) ~~X~~ (X) (U) HARRY H. WACHTEL

Regarding Harry Wachtel's wife, Leonora Wachtel, it is noted that the same confidential source furnished information on March 5, 1944, which revealed that her name and address were on a list of names of newly elected officers of the Bath Beach Club of the Kings County CP. (C) ~~X~~ (X) (U)

With respect to the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, it is to be noted that this organization is an adjunct of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), of which Martin Luther King, Jr., is the president, and serves to raise funds for the SCLC.

Page A4598. Congressman Walker, (R) Mississippi, extended his remarks concerning a resolution (H. Res. 330) he introduced last year to provide funds for the House Committee on Un-American Activities to investigate the possibility of Communist involvement in the civil rights movement. He included an article by David Lawrence entitled "Communist Leader Admits Civil Rights Agitation" which appeared in the Meridian (Mississippi) Star on August 25th. Mr. Walker pointed out that Mr. Lawrence presented even further proof that a complete investigation of the entire civil rights movement would be in order."

Page A4633. Congressman Derwinski, (R) Illinois, placed in the Record an editorial from the Harvey (Illinois) South Suburban News entitled "Communism Offers No Solution To The Negro's Problem." The editorial states "Three years ago when Robert F. Williams of Monroe, North Carolina slipped through an FBI dragnet to seek refuge in Cuba, Mao Tse-tung of Red China made a world wide appeal for support of Negro-Americans in their fight for freedom. - - - - An overwhelming majority of Negro Americans many years ago reached the conclusion that Communism, be it Chinese or otherwise-- offered no solution to their problems. - - - -That is why it is so ridiculous for whites in this country to claim that demonstration and marchers in this country are Communist inspired or that civil rights organizations are run by Communists.

Pages 21208-21209. Senator Byrd, (D) Virginia, commented on an article which appeared in the Chicago Tribune regarding a speech made by Doctor J. H. Jackson, president of the National Baptist Convention. He advised that Doctor Jackson spoke at a press conference preceding the opening of the convention's national meeting in Dallas at which time Dr. Jackson was asked about the Communist influence in recent demonstrations. Mr. Byrd stated Dr. Jackson, in his reply, stated that Attorney General Nicholas Katzenbach has said there was little Communist influence in the civil rights movement. - - - - Dr. Jackson added these words: 'I'm sure he didn't mean that.' I continue to quote Dr. Jackson: 'There are too many obvious facts that tell us there is a conspiracy to break the will of those who put the American way of life first.'" Mr. Byrd went on to state "these are very significant words from an outstanding American citizen, who is the head of the Nation's largest Negro organization." Mr. Byrd commented on the grand jury report on the Cleveland riots and stated the Attorney General gave the study little credance, if any, and, in my judgment, is tiptoeing around this whole very important issue of violence which is taking place in many of the cities of our Nation."

Pages A4712-A4713. Congressman Rumsfeld, (R) Illinois, pointed out that "there have been increasing reports of Communist infiltration and influence in radical organizations and civil rights activities throughout the country. This is a serious development, to which the general public should be alerted." He included an article written by Jack Mabley entitled "Cops Digest Groups Doing Work of Reds" which appeared in the August 30 issue of the Chicago's American. The article cites the activities of Chester Robinson in connection with marches in Chicago. It states "One of Robinson's close pals in the Illinois prison at Joliet was a man who is now head of a communist front outfit. In recent months Robinson has been attending meetings of the W. E. B. DuBois clubs, a known communist front group. - - - - We do not know whether Robinson and the CORE and SNCC people are influenced by Communists. But we do know that in planning a march into Cicero, they are flouting responsible Negro leadership and they are doing the work of the Communists--turning American against American."

Los Angeles, California

In the "Los Angeles Times" of August 18, 1966, I-3, was an article reporting on a status report of the Mc Cone Commission to Governor Edmund G. Brown. The report stated significant progress had been made on all but a few recommendations of the Commission; however, it criticized the Los Angeles Police Department for failing to staff the office of Inspector General as a means of improving police-community relations.

In the Los Angeles "Herald-Examiner" of August 19, 1966, A-2, was an article reporting that Mayor Samuel W. Yorty had criticized the above Mc Cone report for having "political overtones" in that it accentuated State efforts and played down local efforts regarding Watts. Yorty pointed out the high cost of special school programs and stated many constructive actions have been taken by the Los Angeles Police Department to improve relations with the community. He also criticized the State Department of Employment for not providing more jobs for the Watts area.

Mexican-American Activity

In the "Los Angeles Times" of August 27, 1966, I-19, was an article reporting Poverty Director Sargent Shriver had breakfast with 30 Mexican-American leaders in East Los Angeles on August 26, 1966. Mexican-American leaders asked Shriver how they could gain the attention of the "power structure" to make it more aware of their needs. Shriver answered that the opening of four new community action agencies in Southern California was part of an effort to bring their program closer to the people, as his agency had discovered what worked in one area might not work in another area. Ralph Guzman, Assistant Director of a Mexican-American study project at University of California at Los Angeles, arranged a tour for Shriver through the "barrios" of Mexican-Americans in Riverside and San Bernardino Counties.

In the "Los Angeles Times" of September 3, 1966, I-20, was an article reporting that the Economic and Youth Opportunities Agency (EYOA) had formally surrendered control of the Youth Training and Employment Project (YTEP) in East Los Angeles on September 2, 1966, to a new agency formed by four Mexican-American organizations. The YTEP agency, at 207 North Breed Street, Los Angeles, has reportedly trained more than 3,600 teenagers in vocational skills.

In the "Los Angeles Times" of August 17, 1966, I-3, was an article reporting James Meredith, Negro civil rights leader, had led a crowd of 100 demonstrators on a six-mile voters registration march in South Los Angeles. Meredith called County Registrar of Voters Benjamin Hite a "damn fool" when Hite stated apathy was the reason 200,000 eligible Negroes did not vote. Meredith stated the reason Negroes did not register was "historical - they're not accustomed to voting".

In the "Los Angeles Times" of August 25, 1966, I-1, was an article reporting that Ronald Frye, a key figure in the incident which triggered the Watts riot of August, 1965, had, after many months obtained a job in an aircraft plant through the help of the Manpower Development and Training Center of the Urban League of Los Angeles. The article reported his brother, Marquette Frye, also involved in the start of the Watts riot, was still unemployed and the Urban League indicated they would be glad to help him obtain a job.

In the "Los Angeles Times" of August 30, 1966, I-3, was an article reporting that Sam Lewis Fulton, convicted of shooting Lawrence Gomez, water truck driver during the racial disturbance of March 15, 1966, in South Los Angeles, was sentenced on August 29, 1966, to life imprisonment.

Riot at Teen Post
Junior Olympics

On August 30, 1966, a racial riot between Negro and Caucasian youths, including Mexican-Americans, occurred during the presentation of a "Junior Olympics" athletic event by the Teen Posts of Los Angeles at the Los Angeles Coliseum, 3911 South Figueroa Street, Los Angeles.

The riot started at 1:15 PM and was controlled by 2:00 PM. An estimated 500 to 1,000 teenagers were involved in fighting or watching the fighting outside the coliseum. An Emergency Control Center was set up by the Los Angeles Police Department outside the coliseum at about 1:15 PM and was discontinued about 6:00 PM. The Los Angeles Police Department continued extra patrols in the area during the evening of August 30, 1966. Twenty two-man police units responded to the riot call. Seventeen Caucasians were treated for injuries resulting from the riot, including a woman leader of an East Los Angeles Teen Post and a television cameraman. No Los Angeles Police Department officers were injured. The "Junior Olympics" continued for approximately two hours after the disturbance.

The Los Angeles Police Department advised on August 31, 1966, that one fourteen-year old male Negro, named Johnnie A. Wilson, was arrested for assault with a deadly weapon. Two other juveniles were detained but not booked. Police Captain Louis Sunyich was quoted in the "Los Angeles Times" of August 31, 1966, as stating the police had stayed away from the above event at the request of Teen Post officials.

In the "Los Angeles Sentinel", Los Angeles Negro newspaper of September 1, 1966, page A-1, was an article reporting that Mayor Samuel Yorty defended the Teen Post program in the face of the above disturbance. He stated he believed most of those present acted in a constructive manner and that the Teen Posts had done a generally good job in keeping youth occupied during the summer. The article reported the disturbance was sparked by a battle between Negro and Mexican-American youths.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

In the same issue of the "Los Angeles Sentinel", page A-1, was an article by Brad Pye, Jr., sports columnist for the paper, about the above disturbance. He criticized "coward bullies (who) attacked whites, took their property like savages...". He also reported:

> "War on Poverty may be all right, but it seems to me it's high time we have a War on Parental Negligence... a War on Bad Manners...A War on Disrespect for Authority... A war on Disrespect for Ourselves.... War on Common Indecency."

In the "Los Angeles Times" of September 1, 1966, II-1, was an article concerning the above riot at the "Junior Olympics". Lincoln C. Hilburn, Special Advisor for the Teen Post Program, blamed "a black nationalist plot" for the outbreak of fighting. He stated the majority of those present conducted themselves in an orderly manner. He stated that when fights broke out between Negro and Mexican-American youths it was called a "riot" but if it happened in Palm Springs or Newport it was called "good natured rivalry".

In the Los Angeles "Herald-Examiner" of August 30, 1966, page A-10, was an article reporting City Councilman Billy G. Mills would serve as chairman of the Second Annual Watts Christmas Parade on December 10, 1966. He invited all interested organizations to join in making the parade a success for the children in the area.

In the "Los Angeles Sentinel" of September 1, 1966, page A-1, was an article reporting the Los Angeles County Grand Jury had indicted five "Black Muslims" on August 26, 1966, for the August 14, 1966, shooting of Samuel Harris, "a young sect member who allegedly became disenchanted and bolted the movement". The article reported Harris was paralyzed from a bullet in his spine.

In the Los Angeles "Herald-Examiner" of August 31, 1966, and the "Los Angeles Times" of September 1, 1966, were articles reporting Attorney General Thomas C. Lynch had made public a report entitled, "Watts Riot Arrests", published by the State Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation after an eleven-month study. This study was of 5,927 persons arrested for offenses in connection with the riot of August, 1965. The Attorney General in summary outlined the background of the average adult and juvenile arrested. The report set out that in addition to Negroes arrested, 15 white people, 68 Mexicans and 6 persons of other races were arrested in connection with the riot.

On August 21, 1966, a minor racial disturbance occurred at 113th and Figueroa Streets in South Los Angeles at 2:40 AM. Police officers stopped three brothers, CLIFFORD, EARL and JACK DRAPER, about traffic violations. A fourth brother, MELVIN DRAPER, and his wife, GLORIA, appeared and interfered with police. One officer was struck with his own night stick and injured. A crowd of about 150 Negroes gathered and threw rocks and bottles at the officers. Twelve police units responded to a call from the officers and the crowd dispersed. All the brothers and the wife mentioned above were arrested on various charges.

III. CURRENT EVALUATION OF VIOLENCE

Los Angeles, California

On August 26, 1966, source one, [redacted], advised a high degree of tension had existed in the area of the Ramona Gardens Teen Post, 2858 Lancaster Avenue, Los Angeles, between Negro and Mexican-American gang members. An altercation had occurred around August 8, 1966, however, Negroes in the area had recently apologized to Mexican-Americans, who accepted the apology and the tension was thereby eased. b7D

On August 29, 1966, a Los Angeles Police Department unit answered a routine disturbance call at 2133 East 115th Street in the Watts area of Los Angeles. They found two Negroes fighting in the street and arrested one of them, the other escaping. Moments later ten male Negroes attacked and overpowered officers. One officer was kicked and beaten. Seven police cars responded and upon arrival found approximately 40 Negroes present, shouting "burn-baby-burn". The situation was quickly controlled. Four Negroes were arrested, one for battling with a police officer and two were held on traffic warrants. The fourth man was released without obtaining his name.

On August 11, 1966, Dr. H. Claude Hudson, National Executive Board member of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, stated he thought the racial situation in Watts was slowly improving and he did not expect violence similar to the riot of 1965. He stated there is some improvement in Negro-police relations and some economic improvement in the area.

On August 16, 1966, Ernie A. Smith, Head of the Afro-American Citizens Council, advised he did not think the racial situation had improved. He could not state exactly why he believed the situation had not improved but stated this was his belief.

On August 23, 1966, George Ernest Bryant, President of the Urban League in Los Angeles, advised he could foresee no great potential for violence in the next six months. He stated the recent Watts Summer Festival (WSF) indicated a new trend in thinking by the Negroes in attempting to help themselves. He stated he was particularly impressed that the youth in the area had participated so well in the festival.

Pacoima, California

Pacoima is an area of Los Angeles in the San Fernando Valley. In the "Valley Times" of North Hollywood, California, issue of August 19, 1966, page 1, was an article reporting Dr. Arnold Fletcher, Valley College History Professor, who just finished serving five years on Los Angeles Police Commission, predicted a riot in Pacoima because the situation was similar to what had existed in Watts prior to their riot. He stated something must be done across the nation or "the United States is in for dark days". He stated the crisis "could be a shooting war as violent and widespread as the American Civil War". He criticized politicians who used Negroes to get elected, promising them aid and then cutting off the promises after election.

Fresno, California

On August 23, 1966, Detective Jack A. Kelley, Fresno Police Department, advised he did not see any great potential for racial violence in the Fresno area. He stated there were the usual minor instances where Negro and Mexican teenagers threw stones at police cars in the area, and there was some rivalry between Negro and Mexican teenage gangs. He stated all incidents had been promptly controlled by police units assigned to the area.

IV. IDENTITIES OF ORGANIZATIONS INVOLVED IN LOCAL RACIAL SITUATION

On August 22, 1966, source two advised that on August 21, 1966, there was a special meeting of the Los Angeles Du Bois Club (LADBC) (See W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs of America Appendix) at the Sunset Vista Room of the University of California at Los Angeles campus recreational center.

Daniel Gray spoke at this meeting as a representative of the Non-Violent Action Committee, and stated the whites present had better choose their side now "before the next time", since a white friend or enemy could "get lost in the action". He stated the whites claim they want to help "us poor Negroes" but no whites were seen burning cars or looting last time. He stated, "If it goes again, we won't be shooting around the cops this time but at them, and with a lot more accuracy too". He stated even the fire bombs would be strategically set. He referred to no particular planned event during his speech.

On July 9, 1965, source one advised that F. Daniel Gray was then a member of the Central Los Angeles Club of the W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs of America.

On August 17, 1966, source one advised that the Los Angeles Police Department had on July 17, 1966, arrested six members of the Black Cats club which operates out of the old Elks club building at 1106½ East Vernon Avenue, Los Angeles. Leader of the club is Brother Obdell Franklin. One of the group arrested, a juvenile named Ricky Fisher, admitted to police that the club made fire bombs and discussed tactics the club would use against police officers in another riot. He stated they were also trying to get other gangs in the area to join them so they would be more effective against police in the future.

On August 26, 1966, source one advised the Black Cats and the Roadrunner Gang, who had been active during July, 1966, are practically unheard of at the present time. Source stated this could be attributed to the arrest of their leader, Obedell Franklin, who is also called Brother Obdell.

Franklin is currently serving 90 days in the County Jail for failure to appear on a warrant. Also, since the above arrest of the Black Cats, the group has been more quiet. Source advised Franklin is allegedly pastor of the Church of the Resurrection at 1106½ East Vernon Avenue, Los Angeles.

On August 29, 1966, source three furnished a leaflet issued by the Provisional Organizing Committee for a Marxist-Leninist Communist Party (See Appendix). The leaflet was issued on the first anniversary of the Watts riot of August, 1965. A copy of this leaflet is attached.

In the "Los Angeles Times" of August 18, 1966, II-1, was an article reporting that the Community Alert Patrol (also known as the Citizens Alert Patrol) (CAP) had been temporarily halted by the Temporary Alliance of Local Organizations (TALO) on August 18, 1966, to show good faith while TALO was attempting to negotiate for better police relations with city officials.

In the "Los Angeles Sentinel" of August 25, 1966, page A-1, was an article reporting that the Sons of Watts Improvement Association (SOWIA), organized recently, might take over from the CAP. Billy Tidwell, Co-Chairman of the WSF, an organizer of the SOWIA, stated the new group could best handle the problems. He stated the group of about 90 men all lived within Watts and composed the bulk of the "law-keeping" units during the WSF. He stated the group controlled Watts and would be in the forefront of any riot, or in the forefront of any effort to improve themselves. He stated the group was presently anxious to help better their community. The article further reported that Lenier Eggleston, former head of the CAP, had indicated it would return to its activities and had severed its connection with TALO. Robert Brock, Chairman of TALO, announced Eggleston's group could not use the name CAP, a registered name under TALO.

V. IDENTITIES OF LEADERS AND INDIVIDUALS INVOLVED

As set out under IV, F. Daniel [illegible], leader of Non-Violent Action Committee, spoke about future racial violence at a meeting of the LADBC on August 21, 1966, in Los Angeles.

As set out under number IV above, Obedell Franklin, alleged leader of the Black Cats gang, is presently serving a 90-day jail sentence.

As set out under number IV above, Billy Tidwell, Co-Chairman of the WSF, indicated the organization SOWIA intended starting a group similar to the CAP, but Lenier Eggleston, former head of the CAP, spoke of reactivating that group.

VI. EXISTENCE OF CHANNELS OF COMMUNICATION BETWEEN MINORITY LEADERS AND LOCAL OFFICIALS

In the "Los Angeles Times" of September 2, 1966, I-1, was an article reporting that Chief of Police Thad Brown had breakfast at a Watts area church on September 1, 1966, in the first personal visit by a Los Angeles Police Chief to that area in years. Brown assured those present of his complete cooperation in making the Los Angeles Police Department better, and the community a better community. Negro ministers spoke hopefully that this was a sign of better cooperation between community and police.

VII. OBJECTIVES SOUGHT BY MINORITY COMMUNITY AND POSSIBLE POINTS OF CONTENTION

In the "Los Angeles Herald-Dispatch", Los Angeles Negro newspaper, issue of August 18, 1966, page 1, was an article reporting that Lawrence F. La Mar, Executive Editor of the Negro Press Bureau, had written the National Broadcasting Company urging them not to broadcast a news special entitled, "The Angry Voice of Watts". He indicated he felt a showing of this violence was a "threat to peace" in Los Angeles and in the entire nation. He wrote that it "could only whet the appetites of the hoodlum element" in the area. An editorial comment after this letter indicated the editor, Mrs. Pat Alexander, felt the show proved there were national news agencies willing to "foment and continue racial strife".

WATTS - ONE YEAR LATER

One year has passed since the Watts uprising. In that year, the whole character of the Negro Revolution has changed. To the everlasting glory of Watts, it was here that the struggle of the working class to take the leadership of the Negro Liberation movement was completed.

In history, Watts represents a whole new form of struggle. The bloody battles of Chicago, Omaha, Cleveland and [illegible] were natural heirs of the process that began here. No matter what the form of the armed struggle may be, the imperialists' concept of 'peaceful non-violent integration' was shattered forever on the streets of Watts. In this fact lies the historical significance of Watts.

Since last August, the process of political division of the people has gone on very rapidly. In the hope of destroying the peoples movement, the government has brought up hundreds of Negroes. Traitors, who a year ago were fighting the police and National Guard, have accepted the bribe and appear daily on the enemys TV and in the enemys press. For the cash payment of a few dollars and a political pat on the head, they join the enemy camp and praise the police and the political structure of the state. The militants turned Uncle Tom. Good riddance - honest workers have taken their places. On the other hand, the Uncle Toms who were isolated by the uprising have attempted to change hats and try to appear as militants. They fool no one. In a final effort to hold back the movement, the revisionist Communist Party of the USA openly joined the imperialists and ran candidates in the election fraud. They urged the people of Watts to vote in elections organized by the imperialists. The people of Watts had already voted in the streets - No more oppression - no more exploitation! Watts rejected the trap prepared by their enemies - the revisionist phoney Communists, the DuBois Clubs and all the political filth who urged them to 'register and vote'.

The struggle in Watts has not stopped. Hardly a week goes by but there is a violent battle in the streets against the fascist police. The poverty in Watts is a continuing fact. The 5,000 jobs boasted about by Brown and Yorty are filled by the children of Watts who slave with picks and shovels and brooms in the hot summer sun, while children in other areas spend summers at the beach and in camps. Watts has become the happy hunting ground for the most vile type of opportunists who are trying to make political hay off of the misery of the people. No one can deceive and subdue the people. We PCC Communists are confident of their final victory.

This fight is fundamentally a class struggle. No force on earth can stop it. The end can come only with the workers overthrowing the ruling class and establishing Socialism in America. This is the path taken by all working classes and all oppressed peoples. By taking and converting all industry and land to use by the people and not for private profit, national oppression, poverty and war will end.

Watts represents a high point in the Negro revolution - the the movement of the worker

PROVISIONAL ORGANIZING COMMITTEE FOR A MARXIST-LENINIST COMMUNIST PARTY (POC)

The Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications revised and published December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, contains the following on pages 142-143.

1. Found to be "a new Communist splinter group." The Provisional Organizing Committee for a Marxist-Leninist Communist Party "also known as the POC [illegible] formed in August, 1958 by a number of Communist Party members who were dissatisfied with the trends and policies of the party and, while within it, had referred to themselves as the Marxist-Leninist Caucus."

"The leaders and participants in the Provisional Organizing Committee group had been expelled from the Communist Party on the technical charge of 'disruptive, factional, anti-party activities.'

"The POC group is composed largely of extreme left-wing elements from the Communist Party. Throughout the party's history, there have been contending right and left-wing factions which, in periods of turmoil such as the party has gone through in the recent past, have fought for control. The POC elements lost out in this recent struggle within the U.S. party ***."

"The one fact that is completely clear today is that the POC group is made up of hard-core, dedicated, and extremist Communists, who despite their present differences with the Communist Party leadership, are intent upon doing all within their power to speed the achievement of the goals of international communism."

(Committee on Un-American Activities, Annual Report for 1959, House Report 1251, February 8, 1960, pp. 59 and 70.)

SUBVERSIVE AND EXTREMIST
ELEMENTS IN RACIAL VIOLENCE

Communists and other subversives and extremists strive continuously to precipitate racial discord and to take advantage of racial problems in the United States. Such elements were active in exploiting and aggravating the riots, for example, in Harlem, Watts, Cleveland, and Chicago. The enclosed document, entitled "Subversive and Extremist Elements in Racial Violence," analyzes a number of riots and disturbances of the past three years and delineates the role played in them by communists and other subversives and extremists.

Although this document was prepared by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, it is not based on any specific investigation conducted by this Bureau. This document, which is an analysis of available intelligence data, is being furnished for your information.

A copy of the enclosure is being furnished to the Honorable Marvin Watson, Special Assistant to the President, and the Vice President. Upon removal of the classified material, this letter becomes unclassified.

SUBJECT: SUBVERSIVE AND EXTREMIST ELEMENTS IN RACIAL VIOLENCE RESEARCH-SATELLITE MATTER

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED DATE 5-8-01 BY 60267 USDTMF 03075

It is recommended that captioned document prepared by the Research-Satellite Section be furnished to the Honorable Marvin Watson, Special Assistant to the President; the Vice President; and the Attorney General, and his deputies.

Captioned document is an intelligence analysis of a number of riots and disturbances which erupted in the United States during 1964, 1965, and 1966. This document emphasizes that communists and other subversives and extremists strive continuously to precipitate racial discord and to take advantage of racial problems in this country. Such elements were active in exploiting and aggravating the riots, for example, in Harlem, Watts, Cleveland, and Chicago.

The study shows that, for the most part, these riots and outbursts were sparked by a single incident, generally following an arrest of a Negro by local police for some minor infraction of the law. Although most of the riotous situations were characterized by spontaneous outbursts of mob violence dominated by young hoodlums, the involvement of other violent, lawless, subversive, and extremist elements became readily apparent as the rioting progressed.

The cumulative effect of almost 50 years of Communist Party activity in the United States cannot be minimized, this study points out, for communist activity has contributed to disrupting race relations and has exerted an insidious influence on the life and times of our Nation. A prime example of this is noted in this study. For years, communists have waged a campaign against "police brutality" designed to discredit law enforcement and to accentuate racial issues. The disorders of

Memorandum for W. C. Sullivan
RE: SUBVERSIVE AND EXTREMIST
ELEMENTS IN RACIAL VIOLENCE
RESEARCH-SATELLITE MATTER

the past three years highlight the enormous success achieved by this communist smear campaign in popularizing the cry of "police brutality" to the point where it has been widely accepted by many noncommunists, particularly by Negroes and other minority groups.

This study analyzes racial riots and disturbances against the background of known communist aims and objectives. It shows that communists seek to advance their cause by injecting themselves into racial situations and exploiting them.

In analyzing the riots and disturbances of the past three years, this study also deals with other factors which have contributed to racial turmoil and violence. It notes that a certain susceptible segment of the Negro population has been aroused and influenced by demagogic public statements of prominent persons--notably civil rights leaders--which have encouraged, advocated, or condoned lawlessness and civil disobedience. This has had the effect of relieving the participants in mob action of all responsibility for their reckless actions. In addition, it is noted that the nationwide publicity given to riotous activity in one locality has served to stimulate impressible people in other areas of the country to mass action.

From this study, it is apparent that the net result of the racial activities of communists and other subversives and extremists has been to promote an increasing breakdown of respect for law and order across the Nation and a flagrant disregard for the personal and property rights of our citizens. Moreover, their activities have played a major role in poisoning the atmosphere and in creating a climate of conflict between the races.

PREFACE

This document is, in essence, an intelligence analysis of a number of riots and disturbances which occurred in cities and communities throughout the United States during 1964, 1965, and 1966. Its contents were derived from public sources, public officials, police officers, knowledgeable observers, and FBI sources. This document should not, however, be considered as a report based upon the results of any specific investigation conducted by the FBI.

OVERVIEW

Season for Strife

Summer, in the United States, has become the season for racial strife. In the past three summers, racial outbreaks--ranging from minor disturbances to major riots--accompanied by arson, looting, and attacks on law enforcement officers, have erupted with such frequency as to become almost as commonplace as summer thunderstorms.

For the most part, the riots and disorders that have occurred in this country since the Summer of 1964 were sparked by a single incident, generally following an arrest of a Negro by local police for some minor infraction of the law. Although most of the riots and disturbances have been characterized by spontaneous outbursts of mob violence dominated by young hoodlums, the involvement of other violent, lawless, subversive, and extremist elements became readily apparent as the rioting grew and spread.

Exploitation by Communists and Others

Communists and other subversives and extremists strive and labor ceaselessly to precipitate racial trouble and to take advantage of racial discord in this country. Such elements were active in exploiting and aggravating the riots, for example, in Harlem, Watts, Cleveland, and Chicago.

The riots and disturbances of recent years have given communists a golden opportunity to emphasize the Marxist concept of the "class struggle" by identifying the Negro and other minority group problems with it. Communists seek to advance the cause of communism by injecting themselves into racial situations and in exacerbating them (1) to intensify the frictions between Negroes and whites to "prove" that the discrimination against minorities is an inherent defect of the capitalist system, (2) to foster domestic disunity by dividing Negroes and whites into antagonistic, warring factions, (3) to undermine and destroy established authority, (4) to incite

Negro hostility toward law and order, (5) to encourage and foment further racial strife and riotous activity, and (6) to portray the communist movement as the "champion" of social protest and the only force capable of ameliorating the conditions of the Negroes and the oppressed.

The cumulative effect of almost 50 years of Communist Party activity in the United States cannot be minimized, for it has contributed to disrupting race relations in this country and has exerted an insidious influence on the life and times of our Nation. As a prime example, for years it has been communist policy to charge "police brutality" in a calculated campaign to discredit law enforcement and to accentuate racial issues. The riots and disorders of the past three years clearly highlight the success of this communist smear campaign in popularizing the cry of "police brutality" to the point where it has been accepted by many noncommunists, especially by Negroes and other minority groups.

The net result of agitation and propaganda by communist and other subversive and extremist elements has been to create a climate of conflict between the races in this country and to poison the atmosphere.

Infectious Effect

Other developments have also contributed to the racial turmoil and violence that this Nation has experienced during the past three years. There is little doubt that a certain susceptible segment of the population has been aroused and influenced by demagogic public statements of prominent persons--notably civil rights leaders--which have encouraged, advocated, or condoned lawlessness and civil disobedience. This has had the effect of developing contempt for constituted authority and relieving the participants in mob action of all responsibility for their irresponsible actions. In addition, the nationwide publicity given to riotous activity in one locality has served to infect and excite impressible people to mass action in other areas of the country.

PATTERN OF VIOLENCE

Origin and Nature of Disturbances

During the past three summers, the United States has been wracked by a series of explosive racial riots and disorders, accompanied by arson, looting, and attacks on law enforcement officers. Almost daily, racial violence has erupted somewhere in the country.

It goes without saying that certain economic, social, and psychological factors and developments helped to set the stage for each of the riots and disorders that have occurred since 1964. Over a period of years, seething Negro frustration and resentment arising from inequality of employment opportunities; de facto segregation in schools and housing; distrust of the police; and agitation and propaganda by subversives, extremists, and demagogues have built up tension in many of the Nation's Negro communities to the point of explosion. Only a spark has been needed to ignite incendiary situations.

Most of the riots and disturbances of the past three years have been characterized by spontaneous outbursts of mob violence dominated by the actions of Negro youths ranging in age up to the middle twenties. These youths--individuals as well as roving bands--were usually in the forefront screaming racist slogans, hurling missiles at the police, setting fires, and engaging in sniping and looting. As the rioting grew and spread, it became obvious that subversives and extremists, as well as teen-age gangs, delinquents, criminals, rabble-rousers, agitators, troublemakers, and irresponsible individuals, were ever present, ever ready, and ever willing to engage in violent acts or to lend encouragement to the rioters.

The Anatomy of Riots

A definite pattern of events has been discernible in all the major riots of the past three years. Almost invariably, they began in a similar way. They were triggered by Negro reaction to a minor, routine incident involving police action in a highly combustible, depressed, all-Negro area.

100-443529-1

There were initial hostility toward and violent interference with the police. The charge of "police brutality" was shouted repeatedly. Soon, a milling crowd--composed of all ages and both sexes--gathered with startling spontaneity and swiftness, seemingly materializing from nowhere. Some were mere bystanders and curiosity seekers, while others--mainly youths seeking excitement or violence--immediately joined in the activity.

Fired by rampant rumors which distorted and exaggerated the incident, new recruits arrived to swell the crowd. As the mob grew in size and unruliness, the degree of excitement and hysteria intensified as it was fanned by subversives, extremists, hotheads, and irresponsible trouble-makers who recommended drastic courses of action. At some point, when the frenzy reached a fever pitch, the riot was on--like a cattle stampede--unless checked by the application of immediate, decisive, and substantial police action.

As the riotous situation developed, several distinct elements became evident: young hoodlum teen-age groups and gangs who usually initiated the violence by throwing rocks or by similar actions; older lawless elements with pent-up bitterness and frustration, especially toward the police, who became participants; rank-and-file rioters who were participating but not on an active, vehement scale; and bystanders who followed the mob on the fringes but did not engage in most of the direct violence, vicariously enjoying the "show" and even shouting encouragement without taking any risks or doing any fighting, and many times resorting to looting in the wake of the mob.

The police were subjected to every conceivable kind of abuse--heckling, ridicule, jeers, obscene remarks, curses, and threats. As the mob spirit spread like wildfire, every effort by responsible public officials, police officers, and Negro and white leaders to induce the crowd to disperse and return home had no effect. Complete contempt for the law, the individual, and the property rights of others became appallingly evident. Utter chaos prevailed.

Missiles and objects were thrown and other brutal or violent acts were perpetrated. Each act aroused the mob more and more. Among the targets selected for acts of violence or mob attacks were police, other symbols of authority, and white-owned business establishments. Supermarkets, pawnshops, gunshops, and liquor, hardware, jewelry, clothing, drug, television, furniture, and department stores were prime targets.

Widespread vandalism and plundering took place. News of the rioting swelled the ranks of the rioters by an ever-increasing number of persons who were interested principally in looting. Adults in the riot area carried away liquor, groceries, clothing, television sets, pieces of furniture, and other portable items. Often this occurred in the presence of police or shopkeepers, who were powerless to do anything but acquiesce. In some areas, the plundering was done by women and even by children.

Vehicles such as streetcars, buses, trucks, and privately owned automobiles that happened to be parked in or passing through the action zone were potential and actual targets. In some instances, white occupants were pulled from vehicles and beaten. Then the cars were overturned and set on fire.

False fire alarms in the troubled area were frequent. There were also many cases of arson as fires and explosives were set off by the rioters. Sniping often took place in the larger riots, and gunfire broke out between rioters and police.

The Molotov cocktail was a favorite weapon. In addition, cherry bombs and firecrackers were exploded. Every conceivable type of object, such as rocks, bricks, paving stones, cans, pieces of scrap metal, broken glass, eggs, rotten fruits and vegetables, and animal and human excrement, was hurled at police units in action.

The riots were characterized by a blind, irrational, hysterical, and vicious attack on all constituted authority. Rioters ran through the streets shouting, "Down with whitey," "Get whitey," "Uncle Tom must die," "Burn, baby, burn," and "Kill, kill, kill." Assaults were directed at Negro as well as white police officers striving desperately to achieve order. Victims of the rioting were more often Negro than white.

The Watts riot of August 11-20, 1965, was the biggest and costliest riot that the United States has experienced in this century. Disorder covered a 46.5-square-mile area of Los Angeles, and panic was widespread in many surrounding racially mixed neighborhoods. The riot resulted in 34 deaths, 1,032 injuries, the arrest of over 3,000 adults and more than 500 juveniles, and $42 million in property damage. More than 600 buildings were damaged--200 totally destroyed. The riot ended only after 13,900 National Guardsmen, in addition to 934 police officers and 719 officers from the sheriff's office, pacified the riot-torn area. 1, 1A, 2, 3

In every riot of the past three years, only large-scale and determined police action, sometimes augmented by the state police or the National Guard, succeeded in bringing an end to the violence and the restoration of law and order. Since any racial disorder can explode into an outright riot, only a prompt, efficient, and impressive display of force by the police has prevented innumerable commonplace incidents in many communities from escalating into perilous situations.

ACTIVITIES OF SUBVERSIVE AND EXTREMIST ELEMENTS

General

Many subversive and extremist organizations, groups, and individuals on the American scene seek and labor ceaselessly to cause trouble and to take advantage of racial friction. Nationally, the most prominent are the Communist Party, USA, the pro-Peking Progressive Labor Party, Klan organizations, the National States Rights Party, and the American Nazi Party. In nearly every Negro community, there exist black nationalist and extremist groups of every type such as the Revolutionary Action Movement and the Deacons of Defense and Justice. Hoodlum Negro youth gangs, as well as Negro and white racists and demagogues, are active in every major city.

Undoubtedly the organizations having the greatest disruptive impact on race relations in the United States have been communist and Klan organizations. While there is no way to assess the amount of racial hatred and discord that the communist movement and the Klan movement have generated in this country for approximately 50 years, there is reason to believe that the cumulative, insidious influence and effect of the Communist Party and the Klan on the life and times of our Nation have been substantial.

Consider, for instance, the Marxist orientation that must have prompted one of the resolutions adopted at a planning conference on "black power" convened in Washington, D. C., on September 3, 1966, by Congressman Adam Clayton Powell and attended by representatives of Negro organizations. This resolution, it is reported, called for Negroes to determine whether capitalism or socialism is more feasible politically for the advancement of "black power." 3A

Communist Organizations

Communist Party, USA

Exploiting Racial Turmoil

Since communism thrives on discontent and chaos, racial violence, hatred, and bigotry are grist for the communist propaganda mill. The riots and disturbances of the past three years have given the Communist Party, USA (CPUSA), a field day to popularize the Marxist concept of the "class struggle" by identifying the problems of the Negroes and other minority groups with it. These racial disorders have enabled the Party to indict the capitalist system and to charge that it has exploited the Negroes, along with all other minority groups in the United States, for centuries. "The Worker," an east coast communist newspaper, proclaims that these disturbances have exposed "the generations of poverty and rejection, the exploitation and the discrimination, by the industrial capitalist system."

The CPUSA has a membership estimated by its leaders to be in excess of 10,000. But Gus Hall, the Party's general secretary, refers to 100,000 "state of mind" communists when he talks of Party strength. Many of these "state of mind" communists--former Party members, sympathizers, rebellious-minded youth, and the like--have been and can be activated in aiding the Party in its exploitation of racial issues.

The CPUSA has a number of obvious objectives, all designed to advance the cause of communism, in injecting itself into and exploiting racial controversies and situations. These aims include the following: (1) to intensify the frictions between Negroes and whites to "prove" that the discrimination against minorities is an inherent defect of the capitalist system, (2) to foster domestic disunity by dividing Negroes and whites into antagonistic, warring factions, (3) to undermine and destroy established authority, (4) to incite Negro hostility toward law and order, (5) to encourage and foment further racial strife and riotous activity, and (6) to portray the communist movement as the "champion" of social protest and the only force capable of ameliorating the conditions of the Negroes and the oppressed.

To attain these goals, the CPUSA engages in mass agitation and propaganda. The illustrations that follow show the Party in action, including such means of agitation and propaganda as the press and printed material, communist front organizations, infiltration of noncommunist organizations, and demonstrations.

"Police Brutality"

A primary communist aim is to alienate the Negroes against established authority. Ever since the CPUSA was founded in 1919, it has been communist policy to charge "police brutality" wherever possible in a calculated campaign to discredit law enforcement and to intensify racial issues. The aggregate effect of this continuing smear campaign is that communists have achieved enormous success in popularizing this cry to the point where it is being used more and more by noncommunists, particularly Negroes and other minority groups.

"Police brutality," according to communists, is a paramount cause of racial violence. In commenting on the Harlem riot of July, 1964, "The Worker" charged that "...the real criminals...are not the chanting demonstrators nor the youngsters who fought off the clubs. They are the men who, under cover of the police badge, established the 'law and order' of terrorism by wildly beating into submission all who happened to cross their paths. The bloodletting and violence in Harlem rest squarely on the shoulders of the New York City authorities." 5

A sizable disturbance took place in the Puerto Rican community of Chicago in June, 1966, which was finally settled only by firm police action. This disorder prompted "The Worker" to claim that "the outrage committed against the Puerto Rican people by the Chicago police is the latest publicized example of the brutality of these 'servants' of the people throughout the nation against the Negro people, the Puerto Ricans and the poor of every nationality." 6

The net effect of charges of "police brutality" is to provoke and encourage mob action by developing contempt for constituted authority and relieving the participants of all responsibility for their reckless actions.

Advisors to Martin Luther King

The Communist Party views legitimate Negro fraternal, protest, and improvement organizations as targets for infiltration and exploitation. Communists continually stress the desirability of influencing, penetrating, or gaining control of Negro mass organizations, with the aim of promoting communist ends.

For instance, Martin Luther King and his Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) have, over the years, received counsel and guidance from such dedicated communists as Stanley Levison and Hunter Pitts O'Dell, a former national leader in the CPUSA. Levison went to Atlanta, Georgia, to confer with King during the June, 1966, march from Memphis, Tennessee, to Jackson, Mississippi. He was also in Chicago in August, 1966, to confer with King in conjunction with King's demonstrations for open housing. Clarence Jones, Harry Wachtel, and Bayard Rustin, all with past histories of communist affiliation, have likewise been close advisors of King and the SCLC. 7

Philadelphia Riot

Officials of the Communist Party in Philadelphia took advantage of the riot in that city on August 28-31, 1964, to prepare a statement and an article which appeared in "The Worker" for September 1, 1964. It was charged that the rioters singled out the police for vengeance, because "for years the people have suffered the outrages, terror and indignity of a police force that has viewed the community as a 'jungle,' the nickname bestowed on the community by the city's officialdom." 8

Four Party members distributed some 200 copies of this issue of "The Worker" in the riot area. About 45 copies were sold, and the remainder were given away on a door-to-door basis. Copies of three Party pamphlets were also distributed along with the newspaper. 9

Watts Riot and Later Disorders

The Watts riot of August, 1965, was the type of racial trouble upon which communism feeds, because it permitted the party to capitalize on a tragic development. In the wake of this riot, the Party's Southern California District issued an eight-page pamphlet bearing the title, "Watts' Upsurge: A Communist Appraisal." This pamphlet claimed that Mayor Samuel Yorty and Chief of Police William Parker--who has since died--were to blame for the deaths of more than 30 people and the jailing of over 3,000. 10

On August 14, during this riot, members of the communist-controlled W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) and members of the Socialist Workers Party, a Trotskyist organization, staged a demonstration at the Police Administration Building in Los Angeles. Two days later, DCA members circulated leaflets calling for the expulsion of Chief of Police Parker. In addition, CPUSA members prepared for a communist publication articles placing blame for the riot on local authorities. 11

The Communist Party in Los Angeles also created a communist front organization called the South Side Citizens Defense Committee to "aid" individuals arrested during the riot. This front group concentrated on charges of "police brutality." 12

During a disturbance which took place in the Watts area on March 15, 1966, the South Side Defense Committee held a press conference to protest alleged "police brutality" in connection with the arrest of four individuals--three of them DCA members--who were together in the troubled area. Three were charged with being drunk and the fourth with interfering with an arrest. They received sentences ranging from five to 30 days in jail. 13

In the Spring of 1966, leaders of the Communist Party's Southern California District gave instructions to three members of the Los Angeles branch of the DCA to establish a DCA club in the Negro community in southeast Los Angeles which would seek new recruits and serve as a vehicle through which the Party could work within the Watts area. 14

The accidental slaying in Los Angeles of Leonard Deadwyler, a Negro, by Jerold Bova, a white policeman, on May 7, 1966, gave the communists an additional provocative incident with which to keep the pot boiling. The South Side Citizens Defense Committee and the Los Angeles branch of the DCA sponsored a memorial meeting on May 16 at the Zion Baptist Church, which was attended by 300 persons. 15

On May 17, a rally held at Will Rogers Park in Los Angeles to protest Deadwyler's death drew 300 persons. One of the principal organizers of this rally was Franklin Delano Alexander. Not only is Alexander a CPUSA member but he was also elected national chairman of the DCA at a convention in June, 1966. He was assisted in making arrangements for the rally by his sister, Charlene Alexander Mitchell, who has been a member of the CPUSA national committee for a number of years. In addition, another Party member prepared an inflammatory handbill to advertise the rally.

Among those in attendance at the rally were Dorothy Healey, William Taylor, and Robert Duggan. Healey is the chairman and Taylor is the vice chairman of the Southern California District of the CPUSA. Duggan, who is chairman of the Los Angeles branch of the DCA, was elected to the CPUSA national committee at its 18th National Convention in June, 1966. During the rally, Alexander and others made provocative speeches in which the police were severely criticized.

Following the rally, some 500 persons, led by Alexander in an automobile equipped with loudspeakers, proceeded to the 77th Street Division of the Los Angeles Police Department, where they staged a boisterous picketing demonstration. A vehicle containing representatives of the press was attacked, and one occupant was seriously wounded. After a window in a liquor store was broken, the store was looted. In addition, bottles and bricks were hurled at passing automobiles. 16

The Communist Party loudly and insistently demanded that Officer Bova be prosecuted for Deadwyler's "murder." Accordingly, Dorothy Healey prepared a petition addressed to the District Attorney of Los Angeles. The petition called for Bova's immediate indictment for murder. 17

DuBois Club Members in Riot Areas

During the Chicago riot of July 12-19, 1966, representatives of the DCA visited the riot-torn area as observers in order to ascertain if any instances of "police brutality" were taking place. 18

In the late evening of July 14, 1966, during the course of a disturbance on Chicago's West Side, some 35 Negroes, a number of whom were known to be members of the DCA, proceeded to the Loop area from the West Side. These individuals, armed with bricks and Molotov cocktails, intended to throw these missiles into Loop department stores, including Marshall Field, but when they found the Loop too busy and too well lighted, they returned to the West Side without accomplishing their purpose. 19

On July 18, 1966, during a riot in the Hough area of Cleveland, four members of the DCA were detained by the Ohio National Guard. Communist literature was found during a search of the automobile in which these individuals were riding. Subsequently, two of the four were arrested by Cleveland police and charged with obstructing police officers. They were released on bond to await trial. 20

Offer of Party Aid

It has been reported that a member of the Communist Party in Cleveland, on instructions from the Party's Ohio district organizer, contacted Lewis G. Robinson, director of the JFK House in that city, during June and July, 1966. The contact was made to offer the Party's cooperation with Robinson in the fields of "police brutality," housing, and jobs. Robinson was not receptive to the offer. He explained that, since he and his followers were black nationalists and did not believe in integration, only Negroes could work with his group. However, he did indicate a willingness to accept aid from individual Negro Party members and financial support. 21

The JFK House (the initials stand for Jomo Freedom Kenyatta)* was a privately operated Negro community center until it was closed recently. While open, it was regarded by Cleveland police as a focal point for racial violence.

Dayton Disorder

A major disturbance erupted in Dayton, Ohio, on September 1, 1966, which necessitated calling out the National Guard. Sporadic acts of violence and looting continued until the following day. Several hours after the disorder began, W. Sumpter McIntosh, Jr., one-time member of the Communist Party and now a Dayton civil rights leader, reportedly demanded a meeting with Dayton city commissioners and allegedly threatened a full-scale riot later in the day if they did not agree to such a meeting. However, a city official indicated that it was then too late to talk to people participating in the disorder. McIntosh was believed by police to have had a part in inciting Negroes once the disturbance started. Police officers saw McIntosh conferring with groups of Negroes in the troubled area who were later arrested for looting. 21A, 21B

* Jomo Kenyatta is president of Kenya, Africa.

OK on PLAGIARISM

Vietnam War against Negroes' Welfare

For the past few years, communist propagandists have promoted the line that American foreign policy--particularly when it runs counter to communist objectives--has a direct bearing upon the successes and failures of the civil rights movement in this country. Communists hold that this country's preoccupation with the "imperialist" war of "aggression" in Vietnam is contrary to the welfare and best interests of the Negro people, since the war is preventing the Government from formulating the programs and expending the funds necessary to alleviate the Negroes' plight.

In the Eyes of the World

Communists are not content to exploit and to publicize instances of racial violence to exclusively American audiences, but they see to it that the message is transmitted to every part of the globe through the world-wide communist propaganda apparatus. They do not confine themselves to facts, but resort to distortion, exaggeration, and the big lie. Communists thus capitalize on the adverse propaganda effect that racial outbursts in the United States produce in the eyes of the rest of the world, particularly among the African and Asian people.

Progressive Labor Party

Communist splinter groups are also busy exacerbating racial incidents. One of the most active has been the Progressive Labor Party (PLP), which has a membership of between 160 and 500. Of the militant Marxist-Leninist organizations in the United States whose policies closely adhere to those of Red China, the most important is the PLP, which was known as the Progressive Labor Movement (PLM) prior to April, 1965. 22

Harlem Riot

A riot erupted in the Harlem area of New York City--July 18-23, 1964--following the fatal shooting of James Powell, a 15-year-old Negro youth, by Police Lieutenant Thomas Gilligan on July 16. The PLM began immediately to aggravate the tense situation. It printed and then distributed in Harlem thousands of copies of a handbill containing a photograph of Gilligan under the caption, "Wanted for Murder." The PLM also conducted a series of demonstrations in Harlem to protest the shooting, to charge "police brutality," and to demand Gilligan's arrest and prosecution.

At a meeting of the PLM held in New York City on July 21, plans were formulated for the PLM to print leaflets containing instructions on the making of Molotov cocktail bombs. 23

Once the Harlem riot reached its peak, the PLM leadership reportedly considered how to spread the chaos to other parts of the city. During the riot, Fred Jerome, editor of the PLM newspaper "Challenge," published a signed editorial in which he declared, "The vision of half-a-million--or a million--angry black men and women, supported by allies in the Puerto Rican and other working class communities, standing up to their oppressors, is haunting the ruling class. People have already begun to speak of 'guerrilla warfare' and 'revolutionaries.'" 24

William Epton, a Negro and now one of two PLP national vice chairmen, is also chairman of the PLP's Harlem Club. He is a former member of the CPUSA. During the Harlem riot, Epton organized and led young Negroes in fighting the police. In a haranguing street speech in the center of Harlem on July 18, he warned:

> "...we will not fully be free until we smash this state completely and totally. Destroy and set up a new state of our own choosing and our own liking. And in that process of smashing this state, we're going to have to kill a lot of these cops, a lot of these judges, and will have to go up against their army. We'll organize our own militia and our own army. If we don't do it, brothers, we'll be subjugated; we'll be kept in chains for another two or three hundred years...."

Epton also declared that all the "people in this world who are free got their freedom through struggles and through revolution.... We will take our freedom. We will take it by any means necessary...as we know the beast that we are dealing with..." 25

For his part in openly advocating and promoting violence during the Harlem riot, Epton was arrested and later convicted on charges of criminal anarchy. After he was sentenced to one year in jail, Epton appealed his conviction. He is presently free under $25,000 bail pending the outcome of this appeal. 26

"Wanted for Murder"

An inquest into the death of Leonard Deadwyler, the Negro who was accidentally shot by a Los Angeles policeman on May 7, 1966, was conducted at the Los Angeles County Courthouse. PLP members distributed handbills on several occasions during the course of this inquest. One leaflet urged the complete "wipeout" of the Los Angeles Police Department. Another flyer contained a photograph of Chief of Police Parker under the caption, "Wanted for Murder." 27, 28

Communist Party, USA, Marxist-Leninist

Another pro-Peking communist splinter group is the small Communist Party, USA, Marxist-Leninist (CPUSA, M-L). At a press conference held in Los Angeles on October 7, 1965, Michael Lasky, general secretary of the CPUSA, M-L, stated that his group had spent over two years agitating against the police in the Watts area. He viewed the Watts riot as a rejection by Negroes of the policy of nonviolence as a means and method of struggle.

Lasky announced that the CPUSA, M-L was engaged in the formation and development of self-defense units and squads to fight against "police brutality" and "United States imperialism." According to Lasky, these squads could provide the basis for "liberation armies" in the future. Lasky forecast that what happened in Watts was, for all practical purposes, a poor dress rehearsal for what will be taking place nationally in a few years. 29

During a disturbance in the Watts area in mid-March, 1966, Lasky held a press conference in which he criticized "brutal United States imperialism" for the disorder and demanded the removal of police from Watts. [30]

CPUSA, M-L members distributed literature at the time of the inquest into Leonard Deadwyler's death. The leaflets attacked Los Angeles Mayor Yorty and urged people to arm themselves against "police brutality." [31, 32]

Trotskyist Groups

Other communist splinter groups have endeavored to exploit Negro frustration and unrest. During the Watts riot, for example, members of the Socialist Workers Party, a Trotskyist organization with a national membership estimated at 440, joined with representatives of the W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America on August 14, 1965, to demonstrate at the Police Administration Building in Los Angeles. [33]

The Workers World Party, a Trotskyist splinter group with a membership of 50, circulated a leaflet at various locations in New York City during the Harlem riot in August, 1964. In this leaflet, entitled "Who Killed James Powell?" Police Lieutenant Gilligan was described as a "racist, trigger-happy cop" and the product of a "fascist-type police force that recruits and trains people for brutality." [34]

During a disorder in Chicago in August, 1965, copies of a leaflet captioned "Drive the Cops Out" were distributed in the troubled area by members of the Spartacist Committee, a group of a dozen former members of the Socialist Workers Party. The leaflet denounced President Johnson, Mayor Daley, and School Superintendent Willis. It also compared the situation in Chicago with the situations in Vietnam and Santo Domingo. [35]

White Organizations

Klan Organizations

Penchant for Violence

The most infamous of the white extremist groups are 14 Klan organizations which are the lineal descendants of the original Ku Klux Klan (KKK) founded a century ago. These Klan groups, with a total membership of over 14,000, continue to promote the KKK's theory of "white supremacy."

The Klan, like other white extremist organizations, foments and perpetuates racial discord by its blatant racist activities. Over a period of years, Klansmen have committed murders, bombings, mutilations, whippings, and abductions--with Negroes as their principal victims.

A recent example of the Klan tradition of violence resulted in the arrest of the Imperial Wizard and 14 other members of the White Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of Mississippi for the bombing of the home of Vernon Dahmer on January 6, 1966. Dahmer, a Hattiesburg, Mississippi, Negro leader, later succumbed to injuries he suffered during the bombing. The Klansmen were indicted on charges of violating the Voting Rights Act of 1965 and are awaiting trial.

Harassing Negroes

The Klan also engages in demonstrations designed to antagonize and intimidate Negroes. On May 1, 1966, some 75 pickets of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), a civil rights organization, demonstrated at a Baltimore apartment house to protest refusal of the management to lease to Negroes. Several dozen individuals, some in Klan regalia, staged a counterdemonstration to the CORE demonstration. They were led by Charles J. Luthhardt, self-proclaimed white supremacist candidate for Governor of Maryland. Five individuals, two of whom had dogs, stood by as Klan security guards. 36

During disturbances in Jacksonville, Florida, in July, 1966, two white supremacists harassed members of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), a civil rights organization. On July 12, Warren Henry Folks, an outspoken segregationist, and Albert T. Massey, who has belonged to several defunct Klan organizations, picketed NAACP headquarters in Jacksonville. Massey wore a bright red Klan robe. A group of some 450 Negroes, who had gathered to jeer Folks and Massey, finally closed in around them and started to throw bottles and bricks. Folks was struck on the head. He was removed by police who placed him under arrest. Massey fled from the scene.

On July 18, Folks walked into the path of the leaders of an NAACP march of 200 participants and attempted to make a citizen's arrest of the president of the Jacksonville Branch of the NAACP. Folks was arrested immediately. Massey, who was also present, was ordered from the area by police after he had exchanged taunts with the marchers. 37

A group of Klansmen picketed a civil rights organization known as the Action Coordinating Committee to End Segregation in the Suburbs (ACCESS) at an apartment rental office in Arlington, Virginia, on August 21, 1966. The rental office had been the scene of weekly demonstrations by ACCESS. On August 21, nine men and women wearing Klan robes and carrying signs reading "Keep Virginia White" and "Smash Black Arlington" appeared in the vicinity of the rental office. Shortly after their arrival, members of ACCESS set up their regular picket line near the Klansmen, but no trouble ensued. 38

National States Rights Party

The National States Rights Party (NSRP) is an anti-Jewish, anti-Negro, white-supremacy organization composed of fanatical segregationists and one-time members of Klan organizations. It has a membership of about 75.

Baltimore

CORE's designation of Baltimore as a major target for its activity in 1966 attracted the NSRP to that city. The NSRP, with headquarters in Augusta, Georgia, had not been active previously in Baltimore. Several NSRP rallies were organized by the "Reverend" "Connie" Lynch in Baltimore during July, 1966. Lynch, a notorious hatemonger from Bakersfield, California, speaks throughout the United States in behalf of the NSRP. Noted for his fiery racist speeches, he has spoken in such racial trouble spots as St. Augustine, Florida, and Bogalusa, Louisiana.

At the NSRP's second rally in Baltimore on July 27, Lynch told his audience that he would lead them into a "clear-cut race riot." At the last rally, held on July 28, hundreds of white youths, incited by Lynch and other NSRP speakers, roamed through an east Baltimore Negro district, overturned garbage cans, ran across lawns, and shouted racial epithets. 39, 40, 41

In August, 1966, Chicago was the scene of a series of civil rights marches--spearheaded by Martin Luther King's Southern Christian Leadership Conference and the Chicago Freedom Movement--into white neighborhoods demanding open housing. These marches aroused bitter and retaliatory white reaction. On August 7, some 1,500 civil rights demonstrators marched through a crowd of some 2,000 jeering, rock-throwing whites in an all-white neighborhood of Chicago's Northwest Side to demand an end to housing discrimination. One knot of counter-demonstrators carried the banner of the NSRP, a red lightning bolt superimposed on a Confederate flag. 42

The "Reverend" "Connie" Lynch appeared at Marquette Park in Chicago on August 21 wearing a vest decorated as a Confederate flag. He was arrested as he harangued a crowd of white people who had gathered to protest against Martin Luther King and his marchers. 43

American Nazi Party

The American Nazi Party (ANP), another white hate group which preaches and promotes antagonism toward Negroes, Jews, and communists, is led by George Lincoln Rockwell. ANP membership is estimated to be less than 200. In the same manner as the Klan and the National States Rights Party, the ANP engages in activities calculated to create disorder in conjunction with civil rights demonstrations. The ANP has headquarters in Arlington, Virginia, but Rockwell and his aides make frequent appearances in areas where racial tension exists.

ANP representatives were in Chicago on August 3, 1966, at the scene of a march for open housing led by Martin Luther King. In opposition to the march, ANP members distributed to white residents a four-page flyer captioned "White Men Organize White Guard...A Call to Arms from George Lincoln Rockwell." This throwaway denounced "black power," "blood-thirsty, black savages," and "rampaging black scum." It also stated that Rockwell and his associates were prepared to train white men for "anti-insurrection warfare" so they could protect their "home and family" against "black mobs." 44

On August 14, 1966, more than 1,000 persons, who had gathered in Chicago's Marquette Park to protest King's marches, heard ANP leader John Patler speak. Patler, standing on a park bench, urged the white crowd to assert itself as he shouted, "Japan is controlled by the Japanese, Israel is controlled by the Jews, and America should be controlled by the whites." Patler also told members of his audience that they should prepare for the "white revolution." With each reference to Negroes by Patler, the crowd screamed: "White power! white power! white power!"

Soon after Patler's harangue, 3,000 rioting whites stormed through the park and hurled bottles and rocks at passing Negro motorists. Two cars were tipped over and set afire before police quelled the rioters. 45, 46

One week later, on August 21, George Lincoln Rockwell appeared in Marquette Park. Also present to harangue the mob of 500 with cries of "white power" were representatives of the Klan and the National States Rights Party.

Teen-agers shouted "Sieg Heil" and gave the Nazi salute as Rockwell told them to get guns "to fight niggers in Coon County--we're about ready to play cowboys and niggers." When police moved to prevent others from speaking, a gang of 200 white youths started rampaging through the area. They set upon a car containing a Negro male and a white female, broke the windows with rocks, and tried to get to the occupants. After the couple was rescued, the ringleaders were taken to the police station. White youths then began a march on the station house, but they were turned back by police.

Elsewhere in Chicago, white youths attacked King and his civil rights marchers with bricks, stones, and bottles. The marchers proceeded among cursing, jeering, and screaming whites. 47

Negro Organizations

Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee

"Black Power"

The Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) is a civil rights organization which excludes whites from its activities. It has become increasingly militant and belligerent under the new leadership of Stokely Carmichael, a young firebrand who frequently leads Negro crowds in chanting the rallying cry, "black power, black power."

At a CORE rally held in a Cleveland church on August 5, 1966, Carmichael gave the 600 Negroes in attendance the following description of black power: "When you talk of black power, you talk of bringing this country to its knees. When you talk of black power, you talk of building a movement that will smash everything western civilization has created. When you talk of black power, you talk of picking up where Malcolm X* left off. When you talk of black power, you talk of the black man doing whatever is necessary to get what he needs. We are fighting for our lives."

At this rally, Carmichael also admonished Negroes not to serve in the United States Armed Forces. He said, "When Johnson calls, let's stand together and say, 'No, I'm not going.' Any black man who fights in this country's army is a black mercenary." 48

Inflammatory Statements

Carmichael's frequent incendiary remarks can only have the effect of inciting a certain susceptible segment of the Negro people. For example, he made some provocative comments at an impromptu outdoor rally in southeast Washington, D. C., on August 21, 1966, less than a week after a disorder had occurred outside a police station in the Anacostia section of Washington. In a reference to the youths who had stoned the station house, Carmichael said, "They didn't do the job the right way. What they should have done was kill the (police) dogs."

* Malcolm X, a dissident leader of the Nation of Islam, a black nationalist organization, was assassinated in February, 1965, in New York City.

Carmichael then threatened, "If we don't get the vote, we're going to burn down the city. Don't be ashamed when they start talking about looting. The white folks are going to be running tomorrow, and they should take their dirty cracker cops with them." 48A

A few days later, on August 30, Carmichael told a Harlem rally of militant Negro leaders: "In Cleveland they're building stores with no windows--all brick. I don't know what they think they'll accomplish. It just means we have to move from Molotov cocktails to dynamite." 49

Manifestations of Violence

On August 13, 1966, a squad of 20 heavily armed police raided a SNCC meeting place in North Philadelphia. The raid was staged after police received information that SNCC meeting places were becoming storehouses for arms, ammunition, and dynamite. Several sticks of dynamite were found during the raid. Four persons--three of whom were SNCC members--were arrested on a charge of illegal possession of dynamite. Three were discharged, while one of the SNCC members was held under bond for the grand jury. 50

Carmichael and two of his aides were arrested by police at SNCC headquarters in Atlanta on charges of inciting a disturbance in that city on September 6, 1966. The disorder was touched off by the shooting of a Negro automobile-theft suspect by a white policeman. SNCC members reportedly told Negro demonstrators that the Negro had been "murdered while handcuffed." 50A

Revolutionary Action Movement

One of the most dangerous Negro hate organizations is the Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM). It is a very small, secret, all-Negro group which follows the leadership of Robert F. Williams and the militant Chinese communist line. RAM advocates urban guerrilla warfare as a means of attaining its goal--the revolutionary overthrow of the United States Government and the subsequent rule by the black race along Chinese communist lines. Williams, a native of Monroe, North Carolina, fled to Cuba with his family in August, 1961, hours before he was indicted on charges of kidnaping a white couple and holding them for several hours during a racial disturbance. Williams is currently issuing his familiar anti-American propaganda blasts from Peking, China. 51, 52

JFK House, Cleveland

The JFK (for Jomo Freedom Kenyatta) House was a privately operated Negro community center in Cleveland. Harllel Jones and Albert Ware-Bey, both supervisors at this center, have indicated on a number of occasions that they were affiliated with RAM. The JFK House was considered by Cleveland police to be the principal potential trouble spot for racial violence. From the time this center opened in 1964 until it was closed on July 26, 1966, for alleged sanitary violations, it was a hang-out for teen-age hoodlums and black nationalists. In addition, the Medgar Evers Rifle Club, a Negro group allegedly organized to protect civil rights demonstrators, met at the JFK House during 1965. Ware-Bey was also a leader of this rifle club. 53, 54

It was the consensus of the Cleveland police that the Superior Avenue disturbances, which began on June 22, 1966, were largely caused by JFK House youths. Police had the JFK House under surveillance throughout these disorders and observed that groups of youths would leave the JFK House and fan out into the troubled area. Shortly thereafter incidents would occur. Then the youths would be seen returning to the JFK House. Police officers also heard Harllel Jones make several inflammatory remarks to the youths. One officer believed that Jones was the person who, on the evening of June 24, threw a fire bomb on the roof of a supermarket. No damage resulted from this attempt at arson. 55

In February, 1965, Jones reportedly gave out instructions on "How to Construct a Molotov Cocktail" at a meeting of the Medgar Evers Rifle Club. During meetings of this rifle club at the JFK House in early 1965, instructions were given in judo and in the handling of rifles. Discussions at these meetings also related to guerrilla warfare tactics, hatred of whites, and the coming Negro revolution in this country.[56]

Jones talked with representatives of the news media on the afternoon of July 28, 1966, while waiting to testify before the Cuyahoga County Grand Jury probing the recent racial disturbances in Cleveland. Jones was quoted as saying, "There will be riots here next week--next month--next year. Conditions which caused the riots haven't been eliminated. I have a gun. I don't trust any white man."[57]

Lewis G. Robinson, director of the JFK House, is known to have attended several meetings of the Labor Youth League, a defunct communist youth front organization, in Boston in 1950. He and his wife Beth have attended public functions of the Trotskyist Socialist Workers Party in Cleveland in recent years. Beth Robinson visited Cuba in 1961 and while there she was employed by the Cuban Ministry of Education compiling statistics.[58, 58A]

Chicago

Douglas Andrews, a former member of RAM, was arrested on July 14, 1966, by the Chicago Police Department following receipt of information that he and 12 members of a civil rights organization which he headed were preparing Molotov cocktails for use in the troubled area. Andrews was charged with inciting a riot and other violations. No disposition has been made of his case.[59]

Detroit

On the night of August 9, 1966, General Gordon Baker, Jr. (General is his given name), a Detroit RAM leader, and several of his associates were proceeding by automobile to participate in a disturbance involving 150 Negro youths. Baker and three of his aides were arrested. Found in their possession were two Army carbines, an Italian rifle, a .45 caliber pistol, ammunition, a bayonet, and other weapons. After charges of carrying concealed weapons were lodged against them, they were released under bond pending trial.[60]

Nation of Islam

One of the most important of the Negro extremist organizations which react to racial situations is the Nation of Islam (NOI). The NOI--which is a corruption of Islam ideology--is a personally oriented organization headed by a Negro who calls himself Elijah Muhammad. Members are commonly called "Black Muslims" and they total approximately 5,000.

On May 20, 1966, the NOI distributed a leaflet entitled "Stop Police Brutality!" at the Deadwyler inquest in Los Angeles. The leaflet called for an immediate end to "police brutality" and "mob attacks" against Negroes. 61

Jonas X Little-Little was one of more than 500 persons arrested by the Chicago police during a riot which occurred July 12-19, 1966. Little-Little, who was arrested on July 15 for disorderly conduct, was allegedly affiliated with the NOI at one time. 62

Within minutes after the initial incident which triggered the Philadelphia riot of August, 1964, a former NOI member named Abyssinia Hayes, who is also known as Shaykh Muhammad, appeared on the scene. Mounting a porch of a house, he urged the people who had gathered to commit violence against police officers. He claimed that the police had brutally abused the Negro woman they had arrested. Thereafter, the crowd attacked the police and threw stones and bricks at passing cars. In a short time, the riot was in full fury.

Hayes was arrested on charges that included inciting a riot. A subsequent search of his home by the police uncovered an automatic pistol, knives, 50 gallons of flammable liquid, and a quantity of communist literature. Hayes was convicted on charges of inciting to riot and was sentenced to serve from 18 months to three years in prison. 63

After Hayes was expelled from the Nation of Islam in 1956 for striking one of its officers, he later formed his own organization, the National Muslim Improvement Association of America. It has about 20 members. Hayes, who has a volatile temperament and violent temper, served in the United States Army in the early 1950's but was dishonorably discharged after committing a number of breaches of discipline. He was court-martialed twice--once for striking a noncommissioned officer and the other time for assaulting two fellow soldiers with a knife. 64

Harlem Community Council on Housing

Jesse Gray, one-time organizer for the Harlem Region of the CPUSA, and now director of the Harlem Community Council on Housing, has led picketings, sit-ins, and other types of demonstrations against the New York City Police and other municipal agencies protesting "police brutality" and poor housing. He agitates ceaselessly among Negroes, urging them to organize themselves into a "black power structure." Gray maintains that "the only way to deal with the white man is with Molotov cocktails and bricks." 65

During the Harlem riot in July, 1964, Gray spoke before an audience of 500 people, half of whom were black nationalists, at a rally held in a Harlem church on July 19. Gray called for "100 skilled black revolutionaries who are ready to die" to correct what he termed "the police brutality situation in Harlem." One way to correct the situation, he asserted, was "guerrilla warfare." He also maintained that New York City could be changed by 50,000 well-organized Negroes. 66

Deacons of Defense and Justice

Deacons of Defense and Justice (DDJ) is an all-Negro organization of armed members formed with the aim of affording protection to civil rights workers in areas of the country where it deems law enforcement to be insufficient. Its activities are centered in Louisiana, where it was founded. It is estimated to have less than 200 members.

Charles Sims, president of the DDJ, indicated that he planned to take, on June 25, 1966, a carload of DDJ members to Philadelphia, Mississippi, the scene of racial tension. When asked if he planned to be armed, Sims replied, "We always have weapons on hand." 67

Ernest Thomas, northern director of the DDJ, was in Chicago in the Spring of 1966 to recruit members. He appeared on a Chicago radio program on May 23, 1966, and made the following assertion: "We are fighting for our freedom and this means at all costs....we intend to have our freedom one way or the other...." 68

Youths and Gangs

Young Negro hoodlums have been a constant and ever-increasing source of trouble and concern to law enforcement officers in every part of the country. They have exhibited deep-seated and bitter defiance of the police, and they can generally be found in the lead wherever there is riotous activity. Their actions contribute materially to the chaos of racial disorders.

During the Watts riot of August, 1965, for instance, the Los Angeles Human Relations Commission called a meeting in the hope of cooling the neighborhood's emotions. Amid the placating speeches, however, one high school youth seized the microphone and announced that rioters would attack adjacent white neighborhoods that night. The mood of the meeting instantly changed. 69

Neighborhood youth gangs, which are prevalent in Negro communities in most big cities, bear such names as "Devil's Disciples," "Supremes," "Cobras," "Vice Lords," "Bishops," "Roman Saints," "Gents," "Blackstone Rangers," and "Black Panthers." One gang will vie with another for control of an area. As a consequence, gang fights, shootings, knifings, and vandalism occur with frequency. These gangs also extort money from school children and engage in muggings, purse snatchings, and the stealing and stripping of automobiles. 70, 71, 72, 73, 74

Some of these gangs acquire a sizable arsenal of weapons, including firearms. As one teen-age gang in Chicago marched toward Mayor Daley's neighborhood recently, police recovered from the gang members the following weapons: eight pieces of tire chain, two lengths of rubber garden hose, four sawed-off baseball bats, three bats with spikes, a hammer with one claw removed, two meat cleavers, and a six-foot whip.[75]

During racial disorders, members of Negro youth gangs are quick to jump in and add to the turbulence by breaking store windows, tossing fire bombs into buildings, sniping, looting, and overturning and burning automobiles. They usually roam the riot area in small bands of six or less, spontaneously select a target, inflict damage, and then flee.[76]

FANNING THE FLAMES

Flouting the Law

In addition to the organizations, gangs, and individuals involved in inciting or intensifying racial situations, there are some prominent public figures and recognized civil rights leaders who have done much--wittingly or unwittingly--to foment violence by preaching disrespect for law and order. Through demagogic statements which encourage, advocate, or condone lawlessness and civil disobedience, these leaders have incited the Negro masses to lash out and try to seize by force that which they have been repeatedly told has been denied to them.

Joseph Le Fevour, president of the Fraternal Order of Police, which has 4,000 Chicago policemen as members, recently described Martin Luther King as "no more than a demagogue and a professional agitator. He instructs people to practice civil disobedience and violate the law to draw attention to their civil rights plight. Then he immediately puts up a smoke screen and the very people who violate the law, when they are arrested, scream 'police brutality.' He preaches non-violence, yet wherever he goes, violence erupts." 77

Power of News Media

During the past three years, some Negro leaders have periodically issued ominous predictions of violence to come, named specific cities as targets for organized civil rights activity, or warned that as many as several score of cities were ripe for riots. These inflammatory statements have been given nation-wide publicity in the press, on television, and over the radio. Provocative statements such as these have only served to arouse Negroes to mass action and violence.

Representatives of the news media have frequently been so active in their coverage of a riot that they have tended to generate excitement among the rioting elements. During the course of many of the riots and disturbances, radio and television interviews have been conducted with the participants, thereby affording self-seeking individuals an opportunity to circulate wild and unfounded rumors, especially of so-called "police brutality." These interviews have heaped fuel on the fire by attracting others to the riot area.

In a case involving the press, a rumor spread in the Hough area of Cleveland during the July, 1966, riot that an organization whose members wore red robes was organized for violence. It was later ascertained that this rumor originated when a man wearing a woman's red duster appeared during the early period of the disturbance, but the press promptly described his apparel as an African-type robe and a symbol of a black nationalist organization. As a result of this distorted newspaper publicity, the hoodlum element in the Hough area adopted red robes as a symbol of terrorism and subsequently JFK House habitues were seen in public wearing various colored robes. 78

Reaping the Harvest

There is no question but that the national publicity accorded the reckless statements made by prominent people, together with the lurid treatment given by some segments of the news media concerning civil disorders while they were in progress, have had an infectious effect on people in other parts of the country. The stage is frequently set for an outbreak in one city by disorders which have occurred in other cities.

Unlawful activities under the guise of civil rights demonstrations have seriously jeopardized the struggle for civil rights. White resentment and retaliation are now manifesting themselves more and more--fed by such white racist rabble-rousers as George Lincoln Rockwell and the "Reverend" "Connie" Lynch--as a result of continually threatened and actual violence, particularly by the exponents of "black power."

This Nation has been reaping the harvest from the seeds of hate and violence that have been sown, a considerable amount of it by the actions of communist and other subversive and extremist elements intent on undermining and destroying the very fabric of American society.

A characterization of the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) is attached hereto, and source utilized therein has furnished reliable information in the past.

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 15, 1966, that Bill Mc Adoo, a member of the PLP in New York City, was in Atlanta, Georgia and had contacted Bill Epton, Vice President of the PLP and Chairman of the PLP Harlem Club in New York City, in regard to helping the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) raise bail for Stokley Carmichael, National Chairman of SNCC.

According to the source, Mc Adoo advised Epton that Carmichael's bail had been reduced to $1000.00 and SNCC needed $75.00 more to make this bail. Epton advised Mc Adoo to give SNCC the $75.00 and Epton would reimburse Mc Adoo at a later date.

The source further advised on September 16, 1966 that Bill Mc Adoo, who was then in Detroit, Michigan, had been in contact with Bill Epton in New York City and advised Epton that he had given the $75.00 to Stokley Carmichael the previous night in Atlanta, Georgia. Mc Adoo further stated that he had instructed "them" to send the bond receipt to Epton in New York City.

Mc Adoo further advised Epton that Epton should send the $75.00 to reimburse him to his brother, Leonard Mc Adoo. Mc Adoo stated that he had had a meeting in Detroit and everything turned out well and he was going to meet with "them" again Sunday; therefore, he would not be leaving for Cleveland, Ohio before Monday.

The source further advised that on September 17, 1966, Bill Epton had made the statement that Bill Mc Adoo's trip to Atlanta had been very good and "we" sent them "tons and tons of stuff" because "they" had requested a lot of literature as "they" want to set up study groups and things like that.

INTERNAL SECURITY - X

Reference is made to memorandum dated August 10, 1966, at Little Rock, Arkansas, and memorandum dated August 17, 1966, at New York, New York.

As of July 30, 1966, VERNON CRUTCHFIELD, a field representative of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), was the only SNCC representative assigned to the Crittenden County, Arkansas, area. CRUTCHFIELD continues to maintain his residence in North Little Rock, Arkansas, and does not stay any length of time in Crittenden County. CRUTCHFIELD advised that he and other unknown representatives of SNCC had made an all-expense-paid trip to Russia. CRUTCHFIELD claimed that while in Russia, he had been offered a free scholarship to attend a Russian school. CRUTCHFIELD's only comment as to what they did in Russia was that they "just looked around." CRUTCHFIELD did not elaborate on what kind of school he was offered a scholarship to attend in Russia.

JONES THEN STATED THE GREAT NEED FOR SUCH TALKS AND THAT THERE IS NO PERSON IN THE CIVIL RIGHTS MOVEMENT WHO IS IDEOLOGICALLY ''TAKING ON" STOKELY CARMICHAEL (CHAIRMAN OF SNCC) XXX SNCC). JM JONES SAID CARMICHAEL IS ~~RE~~ REAPING POLITICAL HAVOC AND MUST BE "ISOLATED LIKE A BLACK TROTSKYITE," THAT CARMICHAEL IS ABSOLUTELY INSANE AND THERE IS TOO MUCH TOLERATION OF HIM. LEVISON AND JONES AGREE THAT WHAT HAPPENED IN GEORGIA (NOMINATION OF LESTER MADDOX) WAS INCREDIBLE AND DIDN'T HAVE TO HAPPEN IF "THAT IDIOT STOKELY" DID NOT START A RIOT IN ATLANTA. JONES ASKED WHO WAS NOW RUNNING SCLC AND LEVISON STATED THAT RANDY (RANDOLPH BLACKWELL) AND HARRY WHITE WERE GONE AND IT IS NOW BEING RUN IN ATLANTA, HOSEA (HUDSON) IS IN CHARGE OF SOUTHERN DIRECT ACTION, (JIM) BEVEL (PHONETIC) OF NORTHERN DIRECT ACTION, DOROTHY COTTON OF CITIZENSHIP TRAINING SCHOOL, FRED BENNETT OF PUBLIC RELATIONS. LEVISON SAID ANDY (YOUNG , EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, SCLC) IS NOW RUNNING SCLC AND IN HIS OWN STYLE WHILE HOSEA (HUDSON) AND (JIM) BEVEL (PHONETIC) EACH IS DOING PRETTY MUCH WHAT HE WANTS. LEVISON SAID KING CITED A DESPERATE NEED FOR SOMEONE IN CHICAGO, POSSIBLY GEORGE (WILEY) THAT SCLC IS RUNNING SHORT OF MONEY AND THAT " WE SHOULD GET BUSY WITH BENEFITS AND FREEDOM RALLIES." LEVISON REPORTEDLY TOLD KING THAT MAIL WILL NOT BRING IN ANY MONEY UNTIL NEXT FEBRUARY. JONES STATED THAT KENNETH CLARK(ASSOCIATED WITH HARYOU) WAS TRYING TO REACH KING IN NEW YORK. LEVISON SAID CLARK

HAS BEEN WORKING ON TWO GRANTS, ONE FOR ESTABLISHING A PLACE, UNDER THE GUISE OF A FELLOWSHIP, WHERE LEADERS CAN GO FOR REST, REFLECTION AND MEETINGS. HONES STATES CLARK IS GETTING FUNDS FROM THE FORD FOUNDATION. JONES SAID THAT DOUG PRUITT (PHONETIC) WENT TO THE FORD FOUNDATION AND IS GOING TO BE SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO MC GEORGE BUNDY. PRUITT, HE ADDED, WANTS TO GET IN TOUCH WITH MOST CIVIL RIGHTS LEADERS TO GET THEIR IDEAS ON HOW THE FORD FOUNDATION CAN BE MOST EFFECTIVE. LEVISON SUGGESTS A MEETING WITH PRUITT(PHONETIC) . LEVISON SAID THAT PRUITT (PHONETIC) TOLD HIM OF THE FORD FOUNDATION'S INTEREST IN DEALING WITH POVERTY IN THE GHETTO AND LEVISON SUGGESTS THAT SCLC, AS AN AGENCY, SHOULD DEVELOP SOME OUTLINES AND TRY FOR A RESPONSE FROM

THE FOUNDATION. JONES[redacted]SKS LEVISON TO EXPLAIN TO[redacted]ING THE NEED FOR AN IDEOLOGICAL VOICE TO GO AFTER STOKELY CARMICHAEL HAMMER AND THONG AND POLITICALLY ISOLATE HIM.

This LHM is classified "~~Secret~~" because it contains information from NY 3810-S* and NY 694-S*. The first source furnishes information of a highly sensitive nature about racial matters in the USA and the Communist infiltration thereof, and the last source in furnishing the information used to characterize STANLEY LEVISON, furnished a concentration of information. It is for these reasons that the "~~Secret~~" classification is used.

SUBJECT: PRELIMINARY INQUIRY INTO POSSIBLE SUBVERSIVE INFLUENCE IN RACIAL VIOLENCE BY THE HOUSE COMMITTEE ON UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES

A copy of a press release has been received originating from the Committee on Un-American Activities, U. S. House of Representatives, advising that Representative Edwin E. Willis, Louisiana (Democrat), Chairman, has directed the Committee staff to undertake a preliminary inquiry into "organized rioting, burning, looting and other tragic acts of violence." The purpose of the inquiry, according to Mr. Willis, "is to determine whether these acts of mass violence may have been planned and instigated by subversive elements, or to what extent, if any, such elements have succeeded in broadening and prolonging them after they have broken out."

We are following this matter closely for pertinent developments.

He is [redacted] in the Negro community at McGehee, Arkansas, and about ten or twelve times this year he has been visited by two Negroes at his shop, [redacted], wanting him to call a "mass meeting" of the Negro population to discuss voter registration. Since he did not consider voter registration for Negroes in McGehee a problem, he has ignored their request.

In early September, 1966, these same two individuals came to his shop and again tried to get him to call a "mass meeting." They remained in his [redacted] shop during the entire day talking with him between customers. One of the subjects they discussed was the meaning of "black power." When they left the shop, one of them handed him a newspaper, asked him to read it, and told him he could get a copy of it for him every two weeks if he wanted it. The paper left by this individual is described as the "Vietnam Courier," Issue Number 69, dated July 28, 1966, self described as an information

On September 15, 1966, ROBERT WHITFIELD, [redacted], Arkansas, advised a Special Agent of the FBI that he was a volunteer worker for the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee in Arkansas.

R. E. BRIANS (NA), Chief of Police, Little Rock Police Department, Little Rock, Arkansas, advised on October 3, 1966, he has determined that certain individuals sympathetic with the SNCC had distributed material explaining "black power" in shopping centers in Little Rock, Arkansas, area on Saturday, October 1, 1966. The identity of the individuals distributing this material is not known, but it is believed that WILLIAM WALTER HANSEN, former Project Director of SNCC, MITCHELL ZIMMERMAN and HOWARD HIMMELBAUM, who were formerly Field Secretaries for SNCC, were the prime movers behind this dissemination.

HIMMELBAUM and ZIMMERMAN reside in an apartment at [redacted], and it has been reported to Chief BRIANS that there are "wild" parties going on at this apartment, participated in by members of both races.

Arkansas Gazette.

From the People

JULY 13, 1966.

'Black Power'—Another Definition

To the Editor of the Gazette:

The charge of "black racism" is only another attack against the civil rights movement. But it is a very revealing attack, because it indicates something that civil rights militants have long known: That when the struggle turned from attacking the symbols of oppression to dealing with the institutions which have profited from racism, there would be no "overwhelming national consensus."

Perhaps the fundamental error is the belief that (in the words of the Gazette) "the more important of the needed civil rights measures (have) been won in Congress. This ignores two things.

First, what has been "won" in Congress has always been lost in the White House. Laws have become only another symbol, because no administration, Democratic or Republican, has been willing to enforce the laws in a manner which makes them a reality for the great majority of American Negroes.

School desegregation under the 1964 Civil Rights Act is typical. The enforcement of this law has been so token, so gutless, so inadequate that 22 persons in the section of the Office of Education responsible for equal education have resigned in frustration in the last year. Orders from "on high" prevented them from doing their jobs—and from enforcing the law. And those orders came from the same one who sent his boy Hubert to attack SNCC and CORE as racists!

What does it mean to say this law has produced only tokenism? It means that the high goal of the Office of Education for this fall, 12 years after Brown v. Board of Education, three years after the Civil Rights Act, is that only 85 per cent of Negro schoolchildren should go to inferior, segregated schools. And the enforcement of the rights of black people to equal education has probably received more attention than any other matter.

The second thing the Gazette editors ignore in their assumption that the battle has been won, is that the laws which have been passed do not begin to face the problems of the black man who makes $2 a day.

The solution to the problem on this level is one which attacks the interests of many within the "great consensus." The whole pitch of the New South for industrialization rests on the low wage scales which could not be maintained if the government saw to it that the third of the South that is black earned a living wage. Perhaps this is part of the reason LBJ considers Senators Eastland, Byrd, and McClellan more important members of his coalition than Walter Reuther and Dr. King. Perhaps this is why the illegally elected r a c i s t congressmen from Mississippi were seated. If the President has given only token enforcement to laws granting symbols, can we expect him to be serious about changing the substance of life for black people in America?

As for the idea that we're all moving toward a great, integrated society (with the exception of a few rednecks, in other states), perhaps your readers might ponder some of the results of the 1963 Lou Harris polls on white attitudes toward Negroes. (Cf. his "The Negro Revolution in America.") Thirty-nine percent of white Americans think Negroes have less native intelligence than whites. Sixty per cent think they smell different. Sixty-eight think Negroes laugh a lot. The world is not yet quite the way we would like it to be.

It is in recognition of this that SNCC has called for "black power." Black power does not mean hating white people—I am a white man and I feel no anomaly in working for black power. Nor does it mean the total exclusion of white persons from the struggle. Nor is it separatism.

The cry for black power is a cry of those who have always been powerless in our society—and subject to the power of others. They now make the outrageous suggestion that they should use power themselves, not only be the objects of power—and that they will use their power to better their own lot. Where poor black people are in the majority, they can use their ballots to elect their own. All along, Negroes have been asked why they don't make their own way, like all the other ethnic groups. And now that they are doing it, they are racists. It is not racism, but realism to recognize that no white in a county 80 per cent Negro will work for poor black people. He is not excluded because of his color; he excludes himself.

The real racism, the real obsession with race is the belief that it is so important that there be white faces in government, that black people should allow racist plantation owners or their puppets to remain in government. The real racism is the belief that a government is bad just because it is black. The attempt to persuade Negroes that they can have pride in their color is seen as being anti-white. This is a new, more sophisticated racism, for it does sophisticated Negro inferiority—it only insists that whites define the terms of black self-pride.

Where is the real racism—in those who, recognizing the effects of American racism, would create the preconditions of an equalitarian, integrated society, or in those who, in the name of "integration," insist on maintaining the supremacy of whites over Negroes? And the new racism is no less virulent for being sponsored by the Texas president of the United States.

ORIGINATION OF THE TERM BLACK POWER

The term "black power" has been familiar with me since I was small in the West Indies and when I first came to the U. S. at the age of ten. SNCC vocally started it among civils rights organizations on the Mississippi March. However, even prior to then Adam Clayton Powell had mentioned the term several times in a speech delivered at Howard University.

THE SUPPOSITION THAT BLACK POWER IS OBTAINED IN COUNTIES WHERE NEGROES OUTNUMBER RACIST WHITE.

Black power means that for once black people are going to have political power. You see, up to this point the black people in this country have had only a moral force. They repeatedly talked about moral power. They tried to get to the conscience of the people so that the so—called "white liberals", whatever that means, would then speak and say that the black poor people need this. It is a good thing morally, but black people themselves have not had the power to sit down and negotiate with whites. Now if in fact--black people in Mississippi have all the delta they can sit down with Paul Johnson, and they can say to him, "we represent x number of Votes. We want this." They don't have that now and that is what they have to get.

ORTAINING BLACK POWER

What I think we have to do to get black power is to organize ourselves politically, register to vote, and to form independent political bases which will then allow us the chance to carry out and make effective the changes we need to bring about decent lives. I am saying that in counties where black people out-number whites they have the right to organize themselves politically and to via the vote seize the power. Just like the Irish people did in Boston and like the Jewish people did in New York with LaGuardia.

THE FALSE ALARM OVER THE CRY OF BLACK POWER

Personally I don't see why the cry of black power should cause any false alarm. We are aware that the cry of the unions was, "Workers of the World Unite." And they were uniting themselves. The people worrying were their employers who exploited them. So when people say, "black power", it seems to me the only people who should be worried are the people who are exploiting and oppressing black people. However, black power as it is used by the press, I feel, is a creation of the press to destroy the black community.

HOW THE CONCEPT OF BLACK POWER INVOLVES COOPERATION WITH THE WHITE COMMUNITY

The concept "black power" does in fact involve cooperation with the white community. The question is when do you do that. We say that when you do it now, you do it from a point of weakness. You beg them. You say, "look, man it's morally wrong for you to treat us this way. We're marching and getting beat up. You should be ashamed of yourself." Rather from a point of strength you say, "we have x number of votes. We want this road fixed right away or else we won't vote for you." Now that seems to me to be a much different point.

GROSS MISCONCEPTION OF THE LOWNDES COUNTY FREEDOM ORGANIZATION AS THE BLACK PANTHER PARTY

The name of the organization in Lowndes County is not the "Black Panther Party." The symbol happens to be a black panther. The name is the Lowndes County Freedom Organization. I am very much concerned about that because Americans—particularly white Americans —have been referring to it it as the Black Panther Party, and that is their problem with sex and color. They do not refer to the Alabama Democratic Party as the White Rooster Party, and that happens to be the emblem of that party.

CONFIDENTIAL

SHIFTING TREND IN LOWNDES COUNTY (ALABAMA)

Lowndes County is 80 per cent black and 20 per cent white. It has been ruled by that minority by force, by violence, and by every illegal trick that one can think of. Now the black people in Lowndes County have organized themselves around the question and the issue that they have been oppressed, which is their blackness. They have been oppressed simply because they are black. And, like any other group in the country, they have organized around the issue of oppression.

THE SUPPOSITION THAT THE LOWNDES COUNTY FREEDOM ORGANIZATION LOSES THE FLECTION IN LOWNDES COUNTY

If the people lose and it is the democratic process, then there is nothing that they can do. But if they are cheated out of the votes then it seems to me that there must be some means for them to achieve p ower.

BLACK U.S. SOLDIERS FIGHTING IN VIETNAM

I feel that Negroes now fighting in Vietnam should leave and come back here to fight for these elections. Of course that has to be an individual decision. My own feeling is that there is no reason why black people should be fighting for free elections in Vietnam for some other people to get free elections when they don't have it in their own country. I feel that first they should have free elections in their country and then decide whether or not in fact they want to participate in that war. Again, it is an individual decision based upon what the consequences are.

OUR REASONS FOR REJECTING AN INVITATION TO ATTEND THE WHITE HOUSE CONFERENCE

1) The foundations of racism are not rooted in the behavior on black Americans, yesterday or today. They are rooted in an attempt by Europeans and white Americans to exploit and dehumanize the descendants of Africa for monetary gain. This process of universal exploitation of Africa and and her descendants continues today by the power elite of this country. In the process of exploiting black Americans, white Americans have tried to shift the responsibility for the degrading position in which blacks now find themselves away from the oppressors to the oppressed. The White House Conference, especially with is original focus on the Negro family as the main problem with which America must deal, accentuated this process of shifting the burden of the problem.

2) Regardless of the proposals which stemmed from the conference, we know that the Executive Department and the President are not serious about insuring constitutional rights to black Americans. For example, murders of Civil Rights workers and black citizens roam free in this country with the desire to kill more freedom fighters, and the national government claims it is impotent in many situations to bring about justice. Anothe example is the Police Chiefs, Sheriffs, and officials who have victimized, beaten and jailed black people and further suppressed our dignity are fully aware that they were in effect given a blank check by the Executive Department of this government to inflict these lawless acts upon Negroes, since it is common knowledge throughout the South that killing a "nigger" is like killing a coon.

3) We feel that the President called the conference within the U.S. at a time when U.S. prestige internationally, was at a low ebb due to our involvement in the Vietnam Civil War, the Dominican Republic, the Congo. South Africa and other parts of the third world. We could not be a party to attempts by the White House to use black Americans to recoup a loss of prestige internationally.

4) Our organization is opposed to the war in Vietnam and we cannot in good conscience meet with the chief policy maker of the Vietnem war to discuss human rights in this country when he flagrantly violates the human rights of colored people in Vietnam.

5) We reaffirmed our belief that people who suffer must make the decisions about how to change and direct their lives.

THE QUESTION OF FREE ELECTIONS

This country is fighting in Vietnam. We are dropping bombsin Vietnam around the whole question of free elections and the right for people to participate in the decisions that affect their lives. Now that is precisely the same thing we are doing in Lowndes County. We are fighting for people to have free elections and that this government and this country has a responsibility to the black people in Lowndes County, to insure them free elections. Now if this country neglects to do that then it seems to me that the responsibility of assuming free elections lies inthe hands of the black people in Lowndes County and anybody else in the country who is willing to have free elections there. Whatever means to be decided are left up to them and they are completely justified if they have tried every legal means and this country does not respond.

CONFIDENTIAL

HYPOCRISY AND CIVIL RIGHTS LEGISLATION

I think that the fact that no federal registrars have been sent into the 600 counties and the fact that the U. S. has federal registrars indicates a certain degree of hypocrisy. Frankly, I don't go along with the feeling in this country that the government is doing so much. Instead I give the responsibility and all the credit to the black people in this country who stood up and started to rebel, that the rebellion brought the voting rights bill and the voting rights bill had to be passed because the government was aware of the fact that if they did not the black people would move to disrupt this country, and that internationally this country could not afford that. So it had to pass the voting rights bill

It should be noted that the Voting Rights Bill is very tricky. To cite just one example, the literacy portion of that bill expires on August 6, 1970 and the literacy test can once again be used. Now what that means is that if federal registrars are not in Mississippi and black people do not vote, that Eastland can move to reinstitute literacy tests by 1970 and be elected again by 1970 too, because he will block black people from voting. And the government has not spoken to that issue and they will not because Eastland happens to be a very powerful figure.

COALITION

If people wanted to be really serious they would look at the Alabama primary on May 3, 1966. They would realize that there are no white moderates in Alabama. That state voted wholeheartedly for Wallace. If there are to be any white moderates and if there is to be any coalition, then people have to go into the white community and develop that base. What we are saying to the white workers in the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee is that you have to get into that community and organize that base. So that when we talk about coalitions, we will have somebody we can have coalitions. Not the George Wallaces and not the "Dixies" in the South.

INTEGRATION -- AN INSIDIOUS SUBTERFUGE FOR WHITE SUPREMACY WHEN INITIATED BY BLACKS

Integration is an insidious subterfuge for white supremacy when initiated by Blacks. What I mean is that throughout this country since 1954 there has been a move for integration. That is all we talk about. Now what has been happening in this country is that you have poor black kids, for example, in the South that are told to go to white schools because they are good. They leave their black schools which they are told are bad. The problem is that during this process there is no one who speaks to the issue of that black school which now has in it the rest of the students.

In the North you take black kids out of the ghettos and you bus them to white neighborhoods, again to good white schools. This process definitely heightens the inferiority process in those children who are left there and who go there. White kids never initiate a move for intergration. They only very rarely move into black schools. White people who believe in integration-- Westchester and in Hollywood-- never move into Watts or Harlem--if they truly believed in integration this would not be the case. And what I am saying is that what black people have to do is to, among themselves, develop their communities first. They must control their school boards and when they control their school boards they will have good schools. After this happens then you can talk about integration. Then you can send white kids to black schools and send black kids to white schools. Until you do that you have an insidious subterfuge for white supremacy, because you have black people being asked to forsake their neighborhood.

THE TRAGEDY OF THE WATTS RIOT

I think that the tragedy of the Watts riot was that it was romanticized by white people in their articles about "let's get whitey." Another tragic thing about it was that the black people of Watts have not been benefited. They were not able to use that riot to achieve anything at all, and that is tragic because what it means is that it leaves an atmosphere for more riots.

In regards to who is to decide what steps are taken to solve their problems. I will never say that the people who rioted had no right to riot or that is outside of the way to get whatever they want to get. They have the right todecide whatever means, they want to use to achieve that, and that is up to them entirely. They live in Watts with rats and roaches. They are the ones that live in Harlem, Chicago, and the delta of Mississippi. They are the people earning three dollars a day. They are the poverty striken people and they have to speak to the ways to get out of it and I cannot andwill not tell them that they must do it a certain way.

CONFIDENTIAL

THE USE OF VIOLENCE

I don't organize around violence or around nonviolence. The Student Nonviolent Coordinationg Committee organizes black people to get certain things that they have to get like decent houses, decent jobs, decent schooling, and a right to participate in decisions thataffect their lives. The question of violence or nonviolence just happens to be tactical as far as we are concerned and we have made that clear since 1960.

THE CIVIL RIGHTS MOVEMENT

I think the civil rights movement has to not act act as a buffer zone between the black community but to express the feeling of the black community in the tone of the black community.

SNCC's DIRECTION

As I see the problem in this country, it is an economic problem in terms of black people being forced and exploited. We are, mind you, propertyless people in this country. We are property-less and we have to seek to redress that and the only means open to us now are political means. Soowe grasp that political power now and then we see how we can work with that political power to then achieve economic power. It is quite true that we never received our forty acres and a mule.

If we had political power the Chief of Police of Indianola---who was the Chief of Police last year that beat up black people---and is now the C.A.P. director in Sunflower County, Mississippi---would not have had that power.

FINANCE

I think we are going to lose a lot of money from a number of whites who will be concerned that we are no longer acting the way they define that we should act and that now we're "acting out." When we took our Vietnam stand, against the war and in sympathy with draft resisters, we realized that it would mean a sharp cut in funds. However, it has always been our policy to never let funds decide for us what we will say.

MESSAGE TO WHITE AMERICANS

I think that whites have to realize is that psychologically the Negro has been in a box that he could not get out of and that what he wants to do now is to do what everybody else in the world has done. He wants to build something of his own; something built with his hands. And that is not anti-white. When you build yourcown house it does not mean that you tear down the house across the street. It just means that you're building your own house.

Whites in this country have to understand that black people don't want to have to look to Tom, Dick, and Harry. Negroes want something that they can own and control. That's what everybody in this world wants and if white people are sincere in this country about freedom they have to realize that.

Although there are still only two paid SNCC workers in the state of Arkansas, namely MYRTLE GLASCOE, [redacted], Arkansas, and ROBERT CABLETON, [redacted], Arkansas, several of these Caucasian SNCC Field Secretaries who were formerly on the SNCC payroll continue to maintain their interest in the organization and continue to consider themselves the Arkansas Project of the SNCC. They consider themselves an autonomous organization since their funds have been cut off by the national organization of the SNCC. These individuals are HOWARD HIMMELBAUM, MITCHELL HARRIS ZIMMERMAN, and WILLIAM WALTER HANSEN. HIMMELBAUM is still trying to find other employment, ZIMMERMAN has indicated he is leaving Arkansas and returning to Princeton University to continue his education, and HANSEN was employed for a short time by the Opportunities Industrial Center but was recently dismissed from this employment and is now a student at Little Rock University. HIMMELBAUM and ZIMMERMAN reside in [redacted], and consider this the headquarters for the "Arkansas Project."

II. GENERAL RACIAL CONDITIONS

Los Angeles, California

In the "Los Angeles Times" of September 19, 1966, II-1, was an article reporting that the Federally funded "Operation Cool-It" had transported 1,300 poverty area youths to Catalina Island as the final activity of the summer. The article reported that Louis Lomax, a Negro who heads a controversial type television program, had organized this group to operate swimming pools, hold beach parties, and various excursions throughout the summer. Some local anti-poverty officials indicated the $262,000 received by Lomax might have been better spent on "Operation Headstart," however, others pointed out that the period between Labor Day and the opening of school was traditionally one of high delinquency, and this program might have helped avert such delinquency. Lomax stated he was approached by the Office of the Vice President of the United States to set up the program and he received $1,250 per month while the project was in operation.

In the "Los Angeles Times" of September 20, 1966, II-12, was an article reporting that the Economic and Youth Opportunities Agency (EYOA) had asked for 8.5 million dollars to expand the Teen Post program in the Los Angeles area, since the original amount allocated was only 1.5 million dollars.

In the "Los Angeles Times" of September 22, 1966, II-8, was an article reporting that sponsors and administrators of nearly 150 Teen Posts in the Los Angeles area had planned a mass meeting to discuss their problems if they do not receive adequate funds to continue the Teen Post program.

Mexican - American Matters

On September 21, 1966, Reverend Antonio Hernandez, Executive Director of The Cleland House of Neighborly Service in Los Angeles, advised there are no signs of any planned racial disturbances in the Mexican - American communities of Los Angeles. He pointed out, however, that the area had explosive possibilities, capable of being ignited by an incident which would probably involve young people in the 18 to 20 years of age category. He stated such an incident would probably involve young gangs in the area, and stated there was considerable resentment among Mexican-Americans over what they considered to be the inequality of the poverty program as between Negroes and Mexican-Americans.

In the "Los Angeles Times" of September 27, 1966, I-3, was an article reporting that Mayor Samuel Yorty agreed with a delegation of Mexican-Americans who visited him that they were not receiving proper attention from the poverty program. He stated he believed Sargent Shriver, head of the Office of Economic Opportunity (OEO), was making a mistake in allowing Congressman Augustus Hawkins to run the program, especially the Neighborhood Adult Participation Program (NAPP). Miss Irene Tovar, who resigned as head of the Pacoima NAPP Outpost, announced that 30 Mexican-Americans were to begin a 12 day prayer vigil to bring about a change in the administration of the NAPP.

In the "Los Angeles Times" of September 22, 1966, II-1, was an article reporting there was a meeting of nearly 400 corporation officials in Los Angeles, sponsored by the California Fair Employment Practices Commission. Speakers and officials agreed that old personnel procedures had to be abandoned and new tests developed to insure the tests relate to the job and to insure all races get "an equal break."

In the "Los Angeles Times" of September 26, 1966, II-1, was an article reporting that general contractors in the Southern California building industry had formulated plans for an assault on discrimination in employment, together with the American Federation of Labor - Congress of Industrial Organizations (AFL - CIO) Building Trades Council.

The OEO also agreed to finance first-year costs of 100 portable classrooms to replace sub-standard buildings.

In the "Los Angeles Times" of September 24, 1966, III-5, was an article reporting that Mrs. Rena Frye, whose arrest was one of those which many people believed sparked the August, 1965 Watts riot, had been fined $250.00, given a suspended 30 day jail sentence, and two years probation in Municipal Court, Los Angeles.

In the "Los Angeles Sentinel," a Los Angeles Negro newspaper, issue of September 22, 1966, page A-1, was an article reporting that Attorney Johnny Cochran had filed suit in behalf of Mrs. Leonard Deadwyler against the City of Los Angeles for the wrongful death of her husband, and for emotional distress, in the sum of $3,000,000.

Leonard Deadwyler was shot and killed on May 7, 1966 by a Los Angeles Police Department officer while transporting his pregnant wife to the hospital.

III. CURRENT EVALUATION OF VIOLENCE

Los Angeles, California

On September 19, 1966, Dr. H. Claude Hudson, National Committee member of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), advised tensions between the Negro and white communities are definitely improving. He foresaw no possibility of a riot unless it was of a spontaneous nature, based upon an incident such as an arrest. He stated the feeling of the Negro community toward the Los Angeles Police Department had improved recently, since Acting Chief of Police Thad Brown had indicated an interest in improving the relationship of his department with the Negro community.

Dr. Hudson further advised the National Nominating Committee of the NAACP was in the hands of younger, more militant, members and he, together with older members of the National Committee, had not been renominated for office. He stated he and others plan to run for office independently, which is permitted under the bylaws of the NAACP.

Venice, California

Venice is an area of Los Angeles immediately adjacent to Santa Monica, California.

On September 26, 1966, the Venice Division, Los Angeles Police Department, advised that on September 25, 1966 at 11:30 p.m., a rock was thrown through the rear window of a police patrol car cruising in a predominantly Negro area. The incident occurred at 519 Indiana Avenue, Venice, and approximately 200 persons gathered at the scene. No injuries were sustained by the Los Angeles Police Department officers and no arrests were made.

On September 29, 1966, the Los Angeles Police Department advised that at 10:25 p.m. on September 28, 1966, a Yellow Cab carrying three male Caucasian passengers was stopped by a crowd of male Negroes in the 700 block of Indiana Avenue. The passengers became frightened and fled. Rocks were thrown in the cab and the driver called the police. When 17 police units arrived, a crowd of over 200 young Negroes of both sexes threw rocks and bottles at police. Obscene language and verbal abuse were directed towards the officers. Thirteen Negroes were arrested for rioting, lewd language, and failure to produce identification. No police officers were injured and two police vehicles were damaged. The Los Angeles Police Department advised that residents of the area attempted to assist police in dispersing the crowd and forcing rioters away. The Los Angeles Police Department considered the situation in Venice to be quiet but more tense than in the recent past.

In the "Santa Monica Evening Outlook" newspaper of Santa Monica, California, September 30, 1966, page 1, was an article reporting that Virgil Brown, president of the Santa Monica - Venice Branch, NAACP, announced his group was investigating complaints of police methods in the incident which occurred on September 28 - 29, 1966 and if their findings warrant it, they would support the defense of those arrested. He pointed out they wanted all the facts before they decided on a course of action. Brown was quoted as stating that "Venice tensions have reached the boiling point." He announced meetings had been called with Santa Monica and Venice police to discuss complaints by Negroes that they were being harassed.

In the same issue of the above newspaper was an eye witness article by Managing Editor R. D. Funk of a "routine" traffic arrest. Funk had been visiting the headquarters of Project Action at 1138 Washington Boulevard, Venice. This group is an organization of Negroes, the majority of whom are on probation or parole. The organization was established so the group could help each other find jobs and stay out of jail. The director, John Fleming, proceeded to the location of the arrest and talked to police.

The article reported complaints of citizens that the area was a "concentration camp," that they were harassed, and that they missed the former captain in charge of the Venice Division, Los Angeles Police Department, who had been transferred.

San Pedro, California

San Pedro is a section of Los Angeles in the Long Beach Harbor area of Los Angeles, policed by the Los Angeles Police Department.

On September 25, 1966, the Los Angeles Police Department was dispatched to check a disturbance at a Mexican wedding reception at the American Legion Hall in San Pedro. When officers attempted to arrest one person, a crowd of more than 100 Mexican-Americans threw rocks and bottles at police. Eight arrests were made. The Los Angeles Police Department advised they did not consider the incident to be racial in nature.

Fresno, California

On September 23, 1966, Cecil C. Hinton, director of the "B" Street Community Center in Fresno, advised that considerable progress had been made by the administration of the City of Fresno to avoid any racial strife in the area. He advised he could not forsee any potential violence in that area within the next six months.

On September 23, 1966, Detective Jack A. Kelley, Fresno Police Department and member of the NAACP, advised the racial situation had not changed since he was last contacted. He stated the appointment of a Negro Director of Human Relations by the City of Fresno and the recent appointment of another Negro as Race Relations Director by the Fresno Redevelopment Agency had aided immeasurably in heading off any potential for violence.

On September 26, 1966, Steve Edney, president of the San Pedro - Wilmington Chapter, NAACP, advised the racial situation appeared calm in his area and he knew of no situation which might trigger violence in the near future.

On September 28, 1966, Earnest B. Campbell, president of the Long Beach Chapter, NAACP, advised he considered the racial situation in that area to be calm, as he feels the majority of Negro people do not want violence and if violence arises, it will be spontaneous and precipitated by individual Negroes.

Ventura - Oxnard, California

On September 23, 1966, Fred Brown, member of the Ventura - Oxnard Chapter, NAACP, advised he had no information of any recent problems of a racial nature in the area in which he resides.

IV. IDENTITIES OF ORGANIZATIONS INVOLVED IN LOCAL RACIAL SITUATION

United Klans of America, Inc.,
Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (KKK)
(See Appendix)

On September 13, 1966, Source 1 advised that during a meeting of the Peace Action Council (PAC) on September 12, 1966 at the Mt. Hollywood Congregational Church, Hollywood, California, it was announced that the Pacoima Congregational Church, 9988 Laurel Canyon Boulevard, Pacoima, was planning a large motor caravan to a KKK rally to be held on September 17, 1966 in Soledad Canyon, Saugus, California. The individuals in the caravan expected to picket, demonstrate, and protest the holding of this rally.

> The PAC was formed during the early summer of 1966 for the express purpose of protesting the war in Viet Nam during the National Governors' Conference in Los Angeles from July 4 - 8, 1966. Following the conclusion of that conference, the PAC members decided to continue as a group to sponsor similar protest demonstrations at a later date.

On September 13, 1966, Mr. Roger S. Fischer, Administrative Officer, United States Forestry Service, Angeles National Forest, Pasadena, California, advised that the land on which the rally was to be held is land of the United States Government and the person holding the lease has subleased the land for the rally. Fischer stated this information was furnished to the United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C., so that it could be presented to the United States Department of Justice for a legal opinion regarding the right of the Klan to use the land.

On September 15, 1966, the United States Forestry Service stated the Klan had been advised they could not burn a 40 foot cross, since it was a fire hazard.

On September 17, 1966, the above rally began at 7:45 p.m. in the open area of Soledad Canyon, Saugus, California. The delay was caused when the electrical generator to be used to light the 40 foot cross was inoperative. Approximately 200 persons were gathered at the rally, many of whom were newsmen and persons who came to heckle the Klan. Approximately 11 individuals were wearing KKK garb. The main speaker was William V. Fowler, chairman of the KKK, who made a speech in which he made derogatory remarks against Negro and Jewish people. Representatives of the National States Rights Party (NSRP) (See Appendix) shared the podium with Fowler.

Approximately 135 individuals carried signs and picketed the rally.

Approximately 100 deputies of the Los Angeles Sheriff's Office covered the above rally to insure against violence, but there was no violence.

In the "People's World" of September 24, 1966, page 3, was an article reporting the opening of another American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) Police Malpractice Complaint Center at 2222 East First Street, Los Angeles, in the Mexican-American section of Los Angeles. Arthur Garcia, director of the center, stated his office had been very busy receiving complaints, indicating the people in the area believed a police problem existed, whether it did or not.

On September 30, 1966, Source 5, [redacted], advised the Special Community Problems Unit of the Los Angeles Police Department had visited Teen Post Number 510, Echo Park Teen Post, 1903 North Echo Park Avenue, Los Angeles. The visit was on September 21, 1966. Officers visiting the post talked to the director, Mr. Leonard Potash. Potash stated that (James) Sager, his former assistant, had resigned to resume schooling. Potash stated the new assistant director would be Mario Romo, who was in charge of another program during the summer.

On September 6, 1966, Source 4 advised that on August 9, 1966, James Sager was present at a meeting of the Mexican Commission of the SCDCP at 4247 Woolwine Drive, Los Angeles.

In the "Los Angeles Sentinel" of September 29, 1966, page A-1, was an article reporting that defense witnesses would challenge the constitutionality of a "criminal syndicalism" indictment against John Wesley Harris, Jr., Negro member of the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) (See Appendix). Harris was indicted in connection with distributing anti-police, pro revolutionary literature during the inquest into the death of Leonard Deadwyler in May, 1966. The article also reported that a number of students representing various student groups were in court to show their support of Harris.

VI. EXISTENCE OF CHANNELS OF COMMUNICATION BETWEEN MINORITY LEADERS AND LOCAL OFFICIALS

In the "Los Angeles Sentinel" of September 22, 1966, page A-6, was an editorial by Colonel Leon H. Washington, Jr., commenting that it was very gratifying to notice that Acting Chief of Police Thad Brown appeared anxious to work with the Negro community. In the "Los Angeles Times" of September 20, 1966, II-2, was an article reporting that a group of parents calling themselves "Parents for Neighborhood Schools" in the Shadow Hills area of Los Angeles assailed the Los Angeles Board of Education for reallocating students from a predominantly integrated school to a predominantly Caucasian school. NATIONAL STATES RIGHTS PARTY (NSRP)

On November 26, 1957, a source advised that the United White Party (UWP) was organized at a convention held in Knoxville, Tennessee, on November 10, 1957. An article in the November 26, 1957, issue of the "Greenville Piedmont", a newspaper of Greenville, South Carolina, reported "the recent formation of a new political party, to be known as the United White Party." According to the article, the party was formed at a recently held meeting in Knoxville, Tennessee, at which many klansmen were represented. The UWP was reported as being opposed to all "race mixing organizations and individuals."

The July, 1958, issue of "The Thunderbolt", self-described as the "official Racial Nationalist Organ of the National States Rights Party" (NSRP), reported that rank and file "States Righters" had merged with the UWP under "the banner of the National States Rights Party", with national offices at Post Office Box 261, Jeffersonville, Indiana.

NOT AGREE WITH BUT HIS OWN STATEMENT TO THE PRESS WAS HIS FEELING ON THE MATTER. LEVISON EXPLAINED THAT THE STATEMENT IS A LITTLE DIFFERENT FROM THE ENDORSEMENT.

LEVISON COMMENTED THAT "THE NEW YORK TIMES" ARTICLE BY GENE ROBERTS WAS PLACED IN THE PAPER INTENTIONALLY FOR THEY APPARENTLY WANT HIM TO TAKE THAT POSITION.

RUSTIN SAID KING STILL HAS TO MAKE UP HIS MIND PUBLICLY AND STATE WHETHER HE ENDORSES THE STATEMENT OR NOT. LEVISON EXPLAINED WITH REGARD TO KING'S POSITION THAT IT COULD BE THAT THERE IS ONLY A CERTAIN MARGIN OF DIFFERENCE BETWEEN KING AND THE OTHERS, AND KING DIFFERS ONLY IN THE FACT THAT HE DOES NOT WANT TO IGNORE OR ISOLATE THOSE WHO HAVE AN ERRONEOUS SLOGAN AT THE PRESENT TIME.

RUSTIN MENTIONED HE HAD TALKED TO FLOYD MC KISSICK, DIRECTOR OF Committee on Racial Equality ~~CORE~~, THAT MORNING AND HIS POSITION IS THAT HE JUST DOES NOT KNOW WHY THE GAME OF TELLING WHITE FOLKS WHAT THE PURPOSES ARE HAS TO BE PLAYED AND THAT THEY HAVE BEEN TELLING THE WHITES FOR TOO LONG WHAT THEY BELIEVE.

RUSTIN MADE THE OBSERVATION THAT KING WILL BE IN A JAM WHEN

HUNDREDS OF NEGROES IN THE COUNTRY WILL BE ENDORSING AND SIGNING A STATEMENT OF THIS NATURE IF HIS NAME IS NOT ON IT. RUSTIN SAID IN HIS OPINION IT IS A VERY SERIOUS MISTAKE FOR KING. LEVISON EXPLAINED THAT IT IS HIS FEELING THAT KING WILL NOT SIGN THE STATEMENT NO MATTER HOW MANY WERE GOING TO SIGN IT. RUSTIN COMMENTED THAT ONE CANNOT CONTINUOUSLY PUT HIMSELF IN THE MIDDLE THIS WAY AND THAT IS WHAT KING HAS DONE AGAIN. RUSTIN SAID THIS IS BAD WITH A LARGE SEGMENT OF WHITE LIBERALS AND IT IS ALSO BAD WITH THE NEGRO MIDDLE CLASS. LEVISON STATED HE WAS NOT CONVINCED OF THAT BUT ADDED IT MAY BE BAD WITH SOME WHITE LIBERALS.

LEVISON SUGGESTED THAT RUSTIN SHOULD WRITE TO KING ABOUT THIS SITUATION. LEVISON MENTIONED HE HAD TALKED ABOUT ARRANGING A TRIP FOR KING AND HIS WIFE TO AFRICA AND LATIN AMERICA AND PLACE EMPHASIS ON THE THEME OF KING'S INTEREST IN THE POOR OF BOTH WHITE AND BLACK. IN ORDER THAT WHEN HE RETURNS HE CAN BE THE SPOKESMAN FOR BOTH WHITE AND BLACK POOR.

END PAGE THREE

NY THREE EIGHT ONE ZERO DASH S ASTERISK ALSO FURNISHED INFORMATION THAT LEVISON WAS IN CONTACT WITH ANDY YOUNG ON THAT SAME DATE. LEVISON ACQUAINTED YOUNG WITH THE STORY IN "THE NEW YORK TIMES" THAT "DOCTOR KING ENDORSES RACIAL STATEMENT, BACKS NEGRO REPUDIATION OF BLACK POWER CONCEPT." LEVISON SUGGESTED THAT KING HAS TO WRITE A LETTER TO THE TIMES IN WHICH HE CLEARLY DEFINES WHERE HE STANDS. YOUNG MADE THE SUGGESTION THAT THEY NEED TO SAY THAT THE PRESS CAME OUT AND DEFINED THE CONTEXT OF THE STATEMENT IN THE PRESS AND GAVE A MISLEADING EFFECT TO IT AND THE PRESS SHOULD NOT CONTINUE TO DO THIS. LEVISON SAID THAT RUSTIN FEELS KING CANNOT STAY IN THE MIDDLE; IT COULD DO HIM TREMENDOUS HARM; LEVISON SAID HE TOLD RUSTIN THAT IS WHERE KING WANTS TO BE. LEVISON ALSO SUGGESTED THAT THEY COULD ALSO SAY THAT KING IS ENDORSING THE FOUR PRINCIPLES IN THAT STATEMENT.

YOUNG EXPLAINED HE FEELS THAT KING IN HIS STATEMENT SHOULD SAY THAT WHILE HE REALIZED THE ROLE OF URBAN LEAGUE AND NAACP, HE NEVER THOUGHT HIS ROLE TO BE SYNONYMOUS WITH THEIRS, AND THAT WHILE HE UNDERSTANDS THE FRUSTRATIONS OF THE BLACK PEOPLE AND THEIR DISILLUSIONMENT WITH THE ADMINISTRATION, HE IS NOT READY TO GIVE UP.

END PAGE FOUR

LEVISON AGREED WITH THIS. YOUNG INDICATED THAT HE BELIEVES THAT THE ADMINISTRATION IS TRYING TO DIVIDE "US", BUT HE ADDED THAT KING IS NOT READY TO SAY THIS. LEVISON INDICATED THAT HE WOULD LIKE TO GET SOMETHING INTO THE TIMES BY MONDAY.

NY 3810-S*

NY THREE EIGHT ONE ZERO DASH S ASTERISK ALSO FURNISHED INFORMATION THAT LEVISON WAS IN CONTACT WITH MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. ON THAT SAME DATE. LEVISON MENTIONED THE ARTICLE IN THE TIMES ABOUT KING'S ENDORSEMENT OF THE STATEMENT AND KING REPLIED,"THAT JUST SHOWS YOU HOW YOU CAN GET INTO A BIND". LEVISON STATED HE IS CONVINCED THAT RUSTIN DID THIS; AND HE THINKS THAT RUSTIN WANTS TO BOX KING IN. LEVISON SUGGESTS THAT THE WAY TO HANDLE THIS IS TO SEND A LETTER TO "THE TIMES" ACKNOWLEDGING THE ENDORSEMENT OF THE STATEMENT BUT ADDING THAT THE ENDORSEMENT WAS OF THE FOUR PRINCIPLES THAT KING HAD ALWAYS ACCEPTED, HOWEVER, THE PRESS HAS CHOSEN TO READ THIS ACT AS A REJECTION OF BLACK POWER CONCEPTS AND THE ORGANIZATIONS AND THIS YOU CANNOT ACCEPT AND MUST CLARIFY WHAT YOUR POSITION IS - REJECTING BLACK POWER AS A SLOGAN AND ANY INJURY IT MAY CAUSE BUT NOT REJECTING THE NEED FOR PARTICIPATION AND POWER OF NEGROES. KING SAID HE THOUGHT THAT THIS WOULD BE THE ONLY WAY OUT, AND HE ADDED THAT WHAT BOTHERS HIM IS THAT WHEN HE MAKES TACTICAL ERRORS IT IS USUALLY WHEN HE IS TRYING TO DEAL WITH RUSTIN. LEVISON COMMENTED THAT KING WILL HAVE "TO RETHINK" THIS BUSINESS OF TREATING RUSTIN AS AN ADVISER. KING INDICATED THAT IT MAKES HIM LOOK AS IF HE DOES NOT HAVE ANY INTEGRITY ESPECIALLY AFTER HE TOLD MC KISSICK THAT HE DID NOT SIGN THE PETITION. KING SAID HE MUST BE IN A POSITION WHERE HE WILL NOT BE LUMPED IN WITH ROY WILKENS AND WHITNEY YOUNG.

KING MENTIONED THAT HE WILL BE GOING TO DETROIT IN THE MORNING.

On October 10, 1966, the Atlanta Constitution, a daily Atlanta newspaper, on page 9 of its morning edition, published an article captioned "King Weighs Opposing All Black Power Groups" bylined GENE ROBERTS. This article referred to an interview of Reverend KING on October 9, 1966 regarding divergence of policy among various civil rights organizations and the need for unification thereof. The article credited Reverend KING with saying he felt there was now a need for SCLC to decide " - - whether the philosophies of his Southern Christian Leadership Conference and the black power organizations are so diametrically opposed we can't get together." In this connection the article continued "He added that he and his top aides would try to reach a decision on this question on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week, when he has scheduled a closed door meeting to discuss ways of combating a new wave of white backlash."

Special Agents of the FBI, on October 12, 1966, observed CLARENCE JONES, STANLEY LEVISON, BAYARD RUSTIN, and HARRY WACHTEL arrive at the Atlanta Airport at 7:10 p.m., via Eastern Airlines flight number 103. These individuals were met by a male Negro (identity not known) driving a 1965 Ford country sedan bearing 1966 Georgia registration 1J-45510. They shortly thereafter proceeded in the aforementioned automobile to University Plaza Apartments, Inc., 635 Fair Street, S. W., Atlanta, which they entered at 7:58 p.m.

In a news broadcast commencing at 11:00 p.m., October 12, 1966, station WSB TV, Atlanta presented a brief interview of BAYARD RUSTIN conducted October 12, 1966 at the Atlanta Airport. Introductory comments to this interview stated RUSTIN was in Atlanta to attend an SCLC conference pertaining to "black power." The interview of RUSTIN was essentially limited to several comments by him in opposition to the qualifications of Georgia Gubernatorial candidate LESTER G. MADDOX of Atlanta.

Re: Communist Influence in Racial Matters
Internal Security - C

On October 12, 1966, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information which disclosed that Stanley Levison and his brother, Roy Bennett, were in contact on that date. According to the source, they discussed in length the civil rights picture. Their comments were in substance as follows:

Levison said he would go to Atlanta, Georgia, on October 13, 1966, to attend a meeting of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference's advisers. In that regard, he referred to a statement which recently appeared in "The New York Times" indicating that the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) advisers would vote to expell the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) and the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE)(from the family of recognized civil rights organizations). He said the question of expulsion would be discussed since it was on the agenda, and had been placed there after Bayard (Bayard Rustin), the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), and the director of Jewish agencies had placed the statement in the newspaper. Levison said, however, he did not feel that King and his advisers would join with the NAACP in a move to expell SNCC and CORE, since to join with the NAACP against these organizations would be suicidal for King.

Re: Communist Influence in Racial Matters
Internal Security - C

In emphasizing that a difference exists between CORE and SNCC, Levison said CORE was trying to break away and be more responsible, but that Stokely Carmichael (director of SNCC) was not. In view of his attitude, Levison said he should be isolated while at the same time, an effort should be made to keep some of the elements that follow SNCC. Actually, Levison said, "What you're contending for is a substantial number of Negroes who are attracted to the slogan (black power). That's who you don't want to alienate because they are the young upcoming activist groups", Levison commented. He said, "It's almost like in the Soviet Union. There is an age breakdown here".

Levison said he and Clarence Jones agree that the slogan (black power) has to be done away with. The word "black", Levison commented, is fine and King should have used it much more in the past. "Black consciousness", "black unity" and the word "power" are good, according to Levison.

Levison said the words "black power" could not be used together because now black power has been associated with riots, violence, and that it was silly to hold on to a slogan that is not terribly good anyway. Levison then said, "The analogy I make is, the Communist Party for many years urged armed revolt - then when they decided to change, no matter how many times they put it in their Constitution, and no matter how many times they said it, nobody ever accepted it". He pointed out that he was referring to the general press when he said nobody ever accepted it. "They" (the Party) were still divided leftists, into those who believed in violence and those who did not, Levison observed.

Bennett inquired of Levison if he had drawn an analogy between the emergence of the slogan with "self-determination in the black belt". Levison replied negatively and added, that self-determination had existed long before the slogan black power. Bennett agreed, but said after the "San Francisco Conferen of the 'New Politics Movement', they came out with two things, both of which were discarded by the Communist Party". In enumerating, Bennett said one was the Third Party, and the other was the question of self-determination in the black belt. The last item, according to Bennett, really means separatism. Levison concurred, cautioning not to say that black power had brought it forward, because it had come forward quite a bit before. When SNCC went into Mississippi, he said, they were talking about parallel institutions, control and the black country.

~~Levison~~ then told Bennett of having recently talked to Mike Miller, whom he described as a new employee of the Ford Foundation. He said Miller had indicated a desire of the Foundation to give a grant to the SCLC. Bennett said it was very obvious why the Foundation wanted to help the SCLC, because they were fearful of CORE, therefore, wanted to give to the SCLC instead.

Miller, according to Levison, was formerly a professor at Syracuse University, Syracuse, New York, before joining the Ford Foundation about two months ago. He is also a member of the SCLC Board, according to Levison.

Their next topic of concern was the matter of voter registrations in the South. In that regard, Levison said the SCLC must concentrate on getting every eligible Negro registered. He cited the state of Georgia as a prime example of a situation where unregistered Negroes could have turned the election of Lester Maddox into defeat if they had been on the rolls. He said there were 250,000 unregistered Negroes at the time of the primary, and had they voted, they could have changed the entire picture.

Levison asked Bennett what he thought about "white blacklash", and how serious he thought it was. Bennett answered that in the non-liberal community like West Orange, New Jersey, it was very nasty and would have an effect. In the liberal community, he said, it would have a neutral kind of effect and would slow down some people. He said the white liberal community was paralyzed and did not know what to do; that they felt the entire Negro community did not want them but on the other hand, felt that something should be done for the Negroes.

Levison, in commenting on America's attitude toward integration, said white America accepted readily certain forms of desegregation: lunch counters, right to vote, and never accepted anything else.

Re: Communist Influence in Racial Matters
Internal Security - C

In delving deeper into the white community's attitude, Levison said this summer was the first time the Negro community impinged on the white liberals and the whites said no to Negro demands. The white liberal had no intention that he would have to accept change that would involve housing, schools, equal employment, and higher taxes to reorganize the cities and to dissolve the slums. Bennett asked if Levison was attributing the whites' madness to that. Levison said he was not, but said that was the cause of black power.

Bennett said if the scare of black power is what is wrong with the white community, such fear could be removed by eradicating slums and inequalities. He said the necessary funds for eradicating slum conditions could be provided if the war in Vietnam could be halted. He said American whites must be convinced of the need to spend the necessary funds to help Negroes. The same people who urge black power say the causes of inequality cann be eradicated because there is insufficient money to spend on such causes.

Levison said those who talk of black power contend that changes will not take place because a prejudiced white America will not spend that kind of money on Negroes.

Levison, in expressing his opinion on methods to end segregation, said the only real way is to have a matching of classes. In explaining what he meant, Levison said the only place where integration had worked was where the same economic groups were involved.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in April, 1964, that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, USA (CPUSA) in July, 1963. In late 1963 and early 1964, he criticized the CP for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states.

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, page 1 column 2, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 25, 1963, that during a meeting of the National Board, CP, USA, on that date, Benjamin J. Davis remarked that, "Rustin calls me constantly--openly."

Another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 19, 20, 1964, that Bayard Rustin contacted Benjamin J. Davis on those dates and sought his advice as to how he could escape from a speaking engagement to which he was committed. On the latter contact, Davis told Rustin that he was working on his request and had contacted friends who had contacts with the group to which Rustin was to speak.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 21, 1964, that as of that date, Benjamin J. Davis was National Secretary of the CP, USA.

"The New York Times", August 24, 1964, page 27, column 4, reports that Benjamin J. Davis, National Secretary, CP, USA, died in New York City on the night of August 22, 1964.

Re: Communist Influence in Racial Matters

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information on October 15, 1966, which disclosed that Stanley Levison and Bayard Rustin (organizer of the March on Washington, 1963), were in contact on that date. Their contact was in regard to the question of black power and a statement which appeared in "The New York Times" on October 14, 1955, concerning this issue. The following is in substance what Levison and Rustin said: XU

Levison said that when he asked Martin Luther King (President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference) (SCLC) the reason for his positive reply to the question "Do you endorse the statement issued by other civil rights leaders", he replied, "I thought we agreed that this is what I would say". Levison added he then reminded King of what he had told him earlier saying he should say he found nothing in it that he did not agree with, but his own statement to the press was his feeling on the matter. Levison explained that the statement was different from the endorsement. XU

Levison commented that "The New York Times" article by Gene Roberts was placed in the paper intentionally for they apparently wanted him (King) to take that position. XU

Re: Communist Influence In Racial Matters
Internal Security - C

Rustin said King had to make up his mind publicly and state whether he endorses the statement or not. Levison explained with regard to King's position that it could be that there was only a certain margin of difference between King and the others, and King differs only in the fact that he did not want to ignore or isolate those who have an erroneous slogan at the present time.

Rustin mentioned that he had talked to Floyd McKissick, Director of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), that morning and his position was that he just did not know why they continue telling "white folks" what their purposes are and they have been telling the whites for too long what they believe.

Rustin made the observation that King would be in a jam when hundreds of Negroes in the country would be endorsing and signing a statement of this nature if his name was not on it. He said in his opinion that it was a very serious mistake for King. Levison explained that it was his feeling that King would not sign the statement no matter how many were going to sign it. Rustin commented that one cannot continuously put himself in the middle this way and that was what King had done again. Rustin said that was bad with a large segment of white liberals and it was also bad with the Negro middle class. Levison said he was not convinced of that but added that it may be bad with some white liberals.

Levison suggested that Rustin should write to King about this situation. Levison mentioned that he had talked about arranging a trip for King and his wife to Africa and Latin America and place emphasis on the theme of King's interest in the poor of both white and black., in order that when he returned he could be the spokesman for both white and black poor.

The same source also advised on October 15, 1966, that Levison was in contact with Andrew Young (Executive Director, SCLC), on that date. Levison acquainted Young with the story in "The New York Times" that "Doctor King Endorses Racial Statement, Backs Negro Repudiation of Black Power

Internal Security - C

Concept". Levison suggested that King had to write a letter to "The Times" in which he could clearly define where he stood. Young made the suggestion that they needed to say that the press came out and defined the context of the statement in the press and gave a misleading effect to it and the press should not continue to do this. Levison said that Rustin felt that King could not stay in the middle; it could do him tremendous harm. Levison said he told Rustin that King wanted to be in the middle. Levison also suggested that they could also say that King was endorsing the four principles in that statement.

> With regard to the statement to which reference is made, on October 14, 1966, "The New York Times" on page 27, carried an article which was captioned "7 Negro Leaders Issue a Statement of Principles Repudiating 'Black Power' Concepts". Although King was not one of the signers of the declaration, the statement quoted Dr. John Morsell, Assistant National Director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), as having said that the absence of King's name was not a rejection by King of the statement.

The four principles in the statement to which Levison referred are:

> "We are committed to the attainment of racial justice by democratic process".
> "We repudiate any strategies of violence, reprisal or vigilantism, and we condemn both rioting and the demogoguery that feeds it".
> "We are committed to integration, by which we mean an end to every barrier which segregation and other forms of discrimination have raised against the enjoyment by Negro Americans of their human constitutional rights".

Re: Communist Influence in Racial Matters
Internal Security - C

> "As we are committed to the goal of integration into every aspect of the national life, we are equally committed to the common responsibility of all Americans, both white and black, for bringing integration to pass".

Young explained that he felt that King in his statement should say that while he realized the role of the Urban League and the NAACP, he never thought his role to be synonymous with theirs, and that while he understood the frustrations of the black people and their disillusionment with the administration, he was not ready to give up. Levison agreed with Young. Young indicated that he believed that the administration was trying to divide "us", but that King was not ready to say so. Levison indicated that he would like to get something in "The Times" by Monday.

> "The New York Times", Monday, October 17, 1966, on page 42, carried an article captioned "Dr. King Clarifies His Stand". In it King is reported to have endorsed the four principles contained in the October 14, 1966 statement of the seven Negro leaders. He said, however, that he did not endorse the manifesto because he feared it might be interpreted by the press and public as an attempt to "excommunicate" from the civil rights movement such black power-oriented organizations as the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) and Congress of Racial Equality (CORE).

On October 15, 1966, the same source advised that Stanley Levison and Martin Luther King were in contact on that date. Levison mentioned the article in "The Times" about King's endorsement of the statement and King replied, "That just shows you how you can get into a bind". Levison said he was convinced that Rustin did that; and he thought that Rustin wanted to box King in. Levison suggested that the way to handle the matter was to send a letter to "The Times" acknowledging the endorsement of the statement, but adding that the endorsement was of the four principles that King had always accepted; however, the press had chosen to read this act as a rejection of the black power concepts and the organizations and this he could not accept and must clarify what his position was, rejecting black power as a slogan and any injury it might cause, but not rejecting the need for participation and power of Negroes.

King said he thought that that would be the only way out, and he added that what bothered him was that when he made tactical errors, it was usually when he was trying to deal with Rustin. Levison commented that King would have to rethink the business of treating Rustin as an adviser. King indicated that it made him look as if he did not have any integrity especially after he told Floyd McKissick of CORE that he did not sign the petition. King said he must be in a position where he would not be lumped in with Roy Wilkins of the NAACP and Whitney Young of the Urgan League.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on October 15, 1966, that on that date, Clarence Jones made the following observations:

Martin Luther King not only refused to sign the statement (the statement condemning Black Power by civil rights leaders), but Bayard Rustin was the one who played the role. What happened was that the American Federation of Labor and the Congress of Industrial Organizations (AFL-CIO) working through Rustin, and the Administration working through Whitney Young (Head of the Urban League), tried to come up with this kind of statement. Rustin was prepared to present it to King but King would not sign it.

King said he did not agree with Stokely Carmichael on everything but Carmichael does articulate what many of the young people feel. King asked Rustin how he, King, could have their respect and continue to have a dialogue with them if he signed some statement "by some Mickey Mouse Negroes".

Floyd McKissick had contacted King and said he was grateful that King did not sign the statement.

Re: Communist Influence in Racial Matters
Internal Security - C

King does not want to be cut off from the young people. King has been working with (youth) gangs in Chicago and he knows these gangs reflect the way Carmichael feels. King knows he can go into a room with these gangs and carry on a discussion with them.

The source also advised on October 15, 1966, that Clarence Jones introduced Douglas Pugh to Martin Luther King. Jones described Pugh as the person who has a substantive role in the planning of the (Ford) foundation concerning poverty and civil rights. Jones said he felt it was important for King to talk with Pugh. USA

Pugh told King that he had spoken to Jones about McGeorge Bundy (Head of the Ford Foundation), who is ready to move in the civil rights field. King noted that he was scheduled to meet with Bundy on Tuesday (October 18, 1966), after which he wants to work out a proposal which will be helpful to the (Ford) foundation. Pugh suggested that in King's meeting with Bundy the conversation should be broad and imaginative and that King should talk in terms of big money. Pugh noted the White House Conference (on civil rights) had suggested a ten year program which has to be financed. USA

King suggested that he meet with Pugh after his discussion with Bundy. Pugh stated that King could reach him at the Ford Foundation which he recently joined after having worked with Haryou-Act and the anti-poverty program.

Re: Communist Influence in Racial Matters

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in April, 1964, that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, USA (CPUSA) in July, 1963. In late 1963 and early 1964, he criticized the CP for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. Levison was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position on civil rights. His differences with the CP, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism. (S) (U)

Clarence Jones is the General Counsel to the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, 15 East 40th Street, New York, New York.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 26, 1957, that he identified a photograph of Clarence Jones as a person whom he knew during late 1953 or early 1954 to be a member of and in a position of leadership in the Labor Youth League.

The Labor Youth League has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Communist Influence In Racial Matters

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states. X4

My dear Mr. Hoover:

The enclosed form letter, " A Statement on the Death of Jonathan Daniels and the Prosecution of Justice"was read to the congregation of our church St. Mary's (Episcopal), Sunday, August 21, 1966, by the rector of the Church. My husband and I were present that morning and were especially concerned and annoyed when the part "Signed By--" was read. Who could help but be irritated and upset by the reading of names of people who, it appears, continue to incite and create terrible trouble in this, our country.

After the service I asked the rector if the Bishop had asked him to read the letter and he replied in the negative. My question was prompted by the desire to know whether the letter was being read in all the churches in the diocese. He stated, that is, our rector, that he is a member of the ESCRU. I asked that he give me the copy of this communication (enclosed) which he did. I have thought about the matter of writing to you all the intervening weeks and so am at last writing to ask if you can help, with any information, to clarify the questions which appear in the enclosed letter. What do you know of the ESCRU, and why would that organization want to publicize the names of S. Carmichael, Bayard Rustin, J. Rauh, and others as those who signed the statement? Would it be possible for you to send me information as to the background of the non-clerical group who signed the statement? CORRESPONDENCE

Your reply will be deeply appreciated. Thank you.

Sincerely, Eleanor B. (Mrs. N.M.) Appelget

A STATEMENT ON THE DEATH OF JONATHAN DANIELS AND THE PROSECUTION OF JUSTICE

One year ago today, Jonathan Daniels was murdered by race hatred in Hayneville, Alabama. He was an Episcopal seminarian and civil rights worker for the Episcopal Society for Cultural and Racial Unity. The hand that held the murder weapon is still free a year later to strike again, for the assailant has been no more restrained by those of his community who mocked justice than by the routine investigation of Federal authorities.

As fellow workers with Jonathan Daniels in the struggle for racial equality, and as friends of ESCRU, we mourn his loss, and we fear for our country.

State and local law enforcement agencies did not prevent his murder and, indeed, there were strong indications that some of them were implicated. Federal officials have not acted to bring the murderer to justice through the means open to them. Now we are about to enact more Federal civil rights law; but we have seen too many murders, too much brutality, and too much flouting of existing law to be confident that more laws will make much difference if there is not also a greater determination to uphold and enforce these laws.

The Department of Justice claims that its file on Jonathan Daniels is still open, but they admit that no present investigative activity is proceeding. What has happened to the likelihood that there was a conspiracy of local officials in this crime? What of the standing of the assailant as a law officer insofar as Federal intervention is concerned? What of the 1965 Civil Rights Act with its provisions regarding physical harassment of those associated with voter registration efforts? The file may still be open, but, sadly, it appears that it is largely empty because of inaction or disinterest?

The alienation, the disappointment, the bitterness and the hostility which are emerging this year from some sectors of the Negro community must be seen as the inevitable response to a society that murders a Jonathan Daniels, that kills many more black men and women whose names are not even remembered, and which then hides behind unenforced laws and meaningless open files.

It is time for the Department of Justice and the FBI to stop merely collecting reports and maintaining files and get on with the business of acting vigorously on the basis of existing laws. Without such determination, the new legislation will be a hollow symbol.

This meeting commenced on the evening of October 12, 1966 and was expected to terminate late in the afternoon of October 13, 1966 or early October 14, 1966, according to JUNIUS GRIFFIN (Director of Public Relations and Office Administrator, SCLC), and "involved eight members of the SCLC's research committee."

The article reflected GRIFFIN named the following individuals as being in attendance at this meeting:

RALPH D. ABERNATHY (Vice President and Treasurer, SCLC)

JAMES BEVEL (Administrator of Chicago Project and in charge of Chicago Field Staff, SCLC)

DETAILS:

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

SCARLETT PATRICK said on July 20, 1966, that the first problem of the W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUB at Newark, New Jersey, was the acquisition of new members. She said the Newark DU BOIS CLUB would concentrate primarily on education in the Newark, New Jersey, schools which were suffering from defacto segregation.

Excluded from automatic downgrading and declassification

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

A characterization of the W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUB OF NEW JERSEY is contained in the Appendix attached hereto.

SCARLETT PATRICK attended a COMMUNIST PARTY (CP) Youth Training School in New Jersey from June 14 - 20, 1965.

(NK T-2, 8/29/65)

SCARLETT PATRICK was one of twelve CP members who attended a meeting of the NEW JERSEY COMMUNIST PARTY State Board on September 11, 1966.

(NK T-3, 9/12/66)

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

In July, 1966, IRVING POTASH, while visiting in New Jersey, remarked that the CP is weak in membership, particularly in Negro membership. POTASH also said the Civil Rights movement in the Newark area is weak and the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF COLORED PEOPLE and CONGRESS OF RACIAL EQUALITY have lost members. POTASH said he did not know the answers to these problems, but he felt the answers lie in political action. Later, POTASH spoke of ERNIE THOMPSON and his new group in Newark, N.J., called Committee for Political Independence. He said this group was responsible for getting a Negro elected recently in a ward of East Orange, New Jersey, and POTASH said this effort represents the first success of "black power" in the Newark area.

(NK T-4, 7/13/66)

IRVING POTASH, as of April 5, 1964, was Organizer of the NEW JERSEY CP District.

(NK T-5, 4/5/64)

IRVING POTASH was elected to the National Committee of the CP, USA.

(NK T-6, 6/26/66)

ERNIE THOMPSON attended a State Conference on the Negro Question held by the NEW JERSEY CP on April 5, 1959. The conference dealt mainly with a resolution on the Negro Question made by the National Committee of the CP, USA. ERNIE THOMPSON disagreed with the resolution, pointing out that the concept of a Negro nation had previously been proven a valid concept by the study of Marxism.

(NK T-7, 4/6/59)

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

No information developed.

IV. MISCELLANEOUS

On August 30, 1966, Chief JOSEPH L. SMITH, Jersey City, New Jersey, Police Department, made available reports of Captain RAYMOND V. BLASCZAK and Captain FREDERICK J. HAHNER, Jersey City police, concerning a "press conference" held on August 24, 1966, in Jersey City, attended by STOKELY CARMICHAEL of the STUDENT NONVIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE (SNCC); and an appearance by CARMICHAEL in Jersey City on August 28, 1966. Captain BLASCZAK's report on the August 24, 1966, "press conference" stated that CARMICHAEL claimed to be present to speak on local Jersey City issues concerning the need for a better anti-poverty program and he would lend his support to the merger of the various black organizations on a city, county and state level. Further, these efforts should develop into a national drive for a more effective anti-poverty program for poor people and the broadening of a new political movement of black people. CARMICHAEL said Jersey City's anti-poverty program must be controlled by black people and if the poor black people cannot control it, the entire program should be stopped; using whatever tactics necessary.

Captain HAHNER's report of the August 28, 1966, appearance of CARMICHAEL stated that CARMICHAEL spoke on black power as applied to politics. CARMICHAEL said Negroes should love and help each other, but the love should stop at that point.

Both of the above reports noted that CLARENCE COGGINS was present at the appearance of CARMICHAEL in Jersey City on August 24 and August 28, 1966, and COGGINS spoke at the August 28, 1966, gathering about the adversities Negroes encountered throughout New Jersey.

NK 100-48052

A characterization of CLARENCE COGGINS is contained in the characterization of the LABOR-NEGRO VANGUARD CONFERENCE attached.

LABOR-NEGRO VANGUARD CONFERENCE

On January 15, 1963, the first source advised that the LNVP was then using the name LABOR-NEGRO VANGUARD CONFERENCE (LNVC).

The May 2, 1965, issue of the "Newark Evening News," a daily Newark, New Jersey, newspaper, contained an article that the LABOR VANGUARD DEMOCRATS, running as insurgent slate in the June 1, 1965, Democratic Primary, opened their official campaign May 1, 1965, with a "May Day Rally" in Military Park at Newark.

WILLIAM CLARK headed the LABOR VANGUARD DEMOCRAT ticket as candidate for Governor of New Jersey. Other candidates on the ballot were ESTHER NETTE of Newark, candidate for Assembly, HERMAN D. KLEIN of East Orange, candidate for Freeholder, and ALVIN OLIVER of Newark, candidate for Essex County Clerk.

On April 12, 1963, the first source advised that there had not been any activity on the part of the LNVC for about one year. According to this source, CLARENCE COGGINS appears to be using the LABOR VANGUARD DEMOCRATS' name to further his political aspirations.

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - C

Synopsis:

FOR THE PERIOD JULY 16, 1966, THROUGH OCTOBER 15, 1966

CP wants to recruit among Negroes and become more active in civil rights field. There are so few Negroes in CP that any Negro who shows initiative is picked up and promoted. Socialist Workers Party (SWP) states it has not attracted Negroes, although it has been active in local Congress on Racial Equality. Although CP wanted to assist LEWIS ROBINSON of JFK House in Cleveland, just prior to Hough area riots, no information has been obtained from sources showing Communist element took any part in the Cleveland riots. Both CP and SWP members reported active in Cleveland CORE.

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

A. COMMUNIST PARTY, USA

1. Local Communist Party (CP) Plans and Strategy

CV T-1 advised on June 14, 1966, that CONNIE BART said on June 13, 1966, that the CP would like to have closer identification with the protests in the civil rights field and in the anti-war movement. She stated that if the CP is to recruit among the Negroes, it must become more active in civil rights field.

CONNIE BART

CV T-10 advised on June 7, 1966, that CONNIE BART attended the Ohio CP State Convention held in Cleveland, Ohio, June 4 and 5, 1966, at which convention she was elected a delegate of the CP, USA National Convention and also a member of the Ohio CP State Committee.

CV T-2 advised on July 13, 1966, that a meeting of the CP Youth working on the CP summer project was held in New York City on June 27, 1966, and during the course of this meeting, the Cleveland delegation got together to discuss the aims of this summer project in Cleveland. Among the six aims of this project in Cleveland were the following two:

1. The key target is Negro youth

2. Recruit Negro girls.

CV T-1 advised on July 1, 1966, that during the course of discussing the CP National Convention with ANTHONY KRCHMAREK, he stated that the CP is going to give more direct support to the civil rights movement.

ANTHONY KRCHMAREK

JOSEPH DANNERY, Announcer for Cleveland Radio Station WJW, advised on September 12, 1966, that ANTHONY KRCHMAREK appeared on a program of that station on August 21, 1966, and at KRCHMAREK's specific request, he was introduced as being Ohio State Chairman of the CP.

CV T-14 advised on July 6, 1966, that KRCHMAREK was a member of the newly elected National Committee of the CP, USA.

CV T-1 advised on August 18, 1966, that JESSE THOMAS, a Negro, is relatively a newcomer into the CP MEMBER who has been identified as having been an undercover police officer. & N.Y., OHIO

On August 5, 1966, PHILIP BART was questioned as to how such newcomers can advance in the CP so quickly without having a complete check of their background made. BART stated that there are so few Negroes in the Party that any Negro who shows any initiative and intelligence is picked up and promoted in the Party. BART stated that this has been going on in the Party throughout the country and that if the CP expects to grow, this is just one of the chances it will have to take. BART further commented on this date that the CP had absolutely nothing to do with the instigation of the recent riots in Cleveland; that the Party could not expect to gain politically or otherwise from such riots; that all he could see in these riots was the destruction of property by the people who most needed that property for shelter; and that these riots were no favor to the civil rights movement.

PHILIP BART

CV T-10 advised on June 7, 1966, that PHILIP BART was present at the Ohio CP State Convention held in Cleveland, Ohio, on June 4 and 5, 1966, at which convention he was elected a delegate to the CP, USA National Convention, as well as a member of the Ohio CP State Committee.

CV T-14 advised on July 6, 1966, that BART was a member of the newly elected National Committee of the CP, USA.

CV T-3 advised on August 8, 1966, that FRIEDA KATZ commented on August 6, 1966, that the CP would like to get into the civil rights movement, but so far has been unsuccessful because the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) and similar type organizations shy away from the CP and known CP members. She stated that getting into the civil rights movement is a principal aim of the CP.

FRIEDA KATZ

CV T-10 advised on June 7, 1966, that FRIEDA KATZ attended the Ohio CP State Convention held in Cleveland, on June 4 and 5, 1966, and during the course of this convention was elected a delegate to the CP, USA National Convention and was a member of the Ohio CP State Committee.

CV T-3 advised on August 29, 1966, that a Citizens for Constitutional Rights (CCR) meeting was held at the home of FRIEDA KATZ on August 22, 1966.

KATZ stated that it was up to the white people to try and work more in the field of civil rights in order to bring peace and harmony among the races. She stated that she would like to see the CCR obtain more members so that when the CCR offers its aid to a Negro organization, it can offer it as a group.

CCR OHIO

VIRGINIA HARDIN, who has furnished information to the U. S. Government, is a self-admitted former member of the CP whose cooperation with the Government was publicly disclosed on June 5, 1962. Mrs. HARDIN advised on September 5, 1961, that on September 1, 1961, a CCR meeting was held at Cleveland, at which time the name CCR was approved to replace the name Cleveland Committee to Abolish the House Committee on Un-American activities, which had been the name formerly used by this group. EDNA KAUFMAN, Chairman and only officer of the CCR, controls the operations of the CCR which has no formal membership requirements. The stated purposes of the CCR are to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) and to fight against the Smith Act and McCarran Act.

EDNA KAUFMAN

CP MEMBER

CV T-10 advised on March 29, 1965, that EDNA KAUFMAN attended an Ohio CP State Conference held in Cleveland on March 28, 1965, at which conference she was congratulated on the work she had done to abolish the HCUA, which was referred to as "a Party Assignment."

CV T-3 advised on June 30, 1966, that on June 26, 1966, FRIEDA KATZ stated that she is anxious to have some of the Negroes who are active in the CP movement get in touch with LEWIS ROBINSON to see if there is anything the CCR can do to help ROBINSON in this racial trouble.

KATZ stated that she had not heard that any of the organizations such as the NAACP or the Congress on Racial Equality (CORE) were doing anything for ROBINSON.

KATZ thought she might call one of the writers from a local Cleveland Negro newspaper, to see if "we can help." JESSE THOMAS was one of those that FRIEDA KATZ asked to contact ROBINSON. THOMAS later said he had contacted ROBINSON and had arranged a meeting with ROBINSON on the next evening to see what could be done about the racial unrest.

LEWIS ROBINSON

In April, 1964, LEWIS G. ROBINSON publicly announced through local news media that he intended to form a rifle club for the purpose of protecting civil rights demonstrators when the police fail to do so.

CV T-11 advised during the period January-March, 1965, that meetings of a Negro rifle club were held regularly at the JFK House at that time. He stated that instructions were given in judo and the handling of rifles and that discussions at the meetings concerned guerrilla warfare tactics; hatred of whites, and the coming revolution by Negroes in this country. He stated that LEWIS G. ROBINSON was frequently in attendance at meetings of the rifle club and the two principal leaders of the club had indicated on a number of occasions that they were affiliated with the Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM).

A characterization of RAM is attached.

Sergeant JOHN UNGVARY, Bureau of Special Investigations, Cleveland Police Department, advised in July, 1966, that the JFK House (referred to above) is a private recreation center, operated by LEWIS ROBINSON, and known as Jomo 'Freedom' Kenyatta House.

In his application for Federal employment dated July 1, 1957, in answer to a question concerning affiliation with Communist organizations, LEWIS G. ROBINSON replied, "I have attended several meetings of the Labor Youth League (LYL) in Boston in 1950."

The LYL has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

In July, 1966, CV T-6 advised that LEWIS ROBINSON attended one or two public forums and social functions sponsored by the SWP during the past year in Cleveland, but is not a member or sympathizer of the SWP.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On August 9, 1966, JESSE THOMAS was interviewed by SA ROBERT E. KEHRES and SA ROBERT S. BURGINS, JR. THOMAS stated that on June 24, 1966, at the National Convention of the CP, USA in New York City, the Ohio delegation read the news of the racial disturbances in Cleveland, and that PHILIP BART considered sending ANTHONY KRCHMAREK to Cleveland because of these disturbances. No mention was made of what KRCHMAREK would have been expected to do had he returned to Cleveland.

THOMAS further stated that the Ohio delegation to the National Convention decided that as it appeared from news reports that LEWIS G. ROBINSON and the JFK House were receiving a large share of the blame for the disturbances, that JESSE THOMAS and FRIEDA KATZ should see if they could be of any help to ROBINSON.

THOMAS stated that as he himself is a Negro, it was suggested that he make the contact with ROBINSON and that he telephonically contacted LEWIS ROBINSON on June 26, 1966, at which time he was invited to a meeting at the JFK House on June 27, 1966.

THOMAS said that although the meeting was supposedly for the purpose of discussing recent racial disturbances, all of the discussion pertained to Black Nationalism. THOMAS said that after this June 27th meeting at the JFK House, he told ROBINSON that he, (THOMAS), represented the CP and wanted to know if the Party could assist ROBINSON. ROBINSON replied that his followers were supporters of the Black Nationalist philosophy, did not believe in integration, and therefore it would be impossible to cooperate with the CP as a unit. ROBINSON said however, that Negro members of the CP or any other organization could participate in JFK House activities, and that he would accept similar support from anyone.

CV T-2 advised on July 28, 1966, that at a CP Youth meeting held in Cleveland, July 13, 1966, it was stated that LEWIS ROBINSON of the JFK House, is supposed to meet with the Du Bois people on July 14, 1966, to discuss mutual activities.

A characterization of the W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs of America (DCA) is contained in the appendix hereto.

JESSE THOMAS further advised on August 9, 1966, that he subsequently contacted LEWIS ROBINSON by telephone and asked him to stop at the DCA Headquarters in Cleveland, which headquarters are located in the Hough Avenue area of Cleveland.

THOMAS said that on July 14, 1966, ROBINSON did come to the DCA Office and talked with THOMAS and four other DCA members who were there. THOMAS stated that since the DCA members were working on a summer project in the Hough area at that time, they discussed the possibility of coordinating their work in the fields of police brutality, housing, and jobs with the work of ROBINSON's group. ROBINSON again pointed out that only Negroes could work with him as white people were not acceptable to his group.

THOMAS stated that it was agreed that some joint efforts might be made between the DCA and ROBINSON's group.

JESSE THOMAS further advised on August 9, 1966, that the Hough area riots began in Cleveland on July 18, 1966, a few days after the meeting with LEWIS ROBINSON, and that there was no further contact between the DCA or between the CP group people and LEWIS ROBINSON, to the best of his knowledge, and that they did not actually engage in any joint activities. THOMAS further stated that to the best of his knowledge, neither the CP nor the DCA took any active part in the racial disturbances in Cleveland.

CV T-1 advised on August 18, 1966, that PHILIP BART stated that on August 16, 1966, that although the CP had nothing to do with the riots, nevertheless, the Party can use the identification of the Party with these riots, as set forth in the Cuyahoga County Grand Jury report, to cement the CP position as a political party favoring the civil rights goal of the Negro people.

CV T-1 advised on August 22, 1966, that ANTHONY KRCHMAREK stated that date that although the CP had nothing to do with the recent riots in Cleveland, nevertheless, he could see their reason of these riots. KRCHMAREK stated that the Grand Jury report enhanced the CP in the eyes of Negroes, rather than hurt the CP because the Party gained politically identifying it with the Negro cause, which possibly could not have been otherwise obtained.

B. SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY (SWP)

1. Local SWP Plans and Strategy

CV T-4 advised on June 30, 1966, that at a school held June 24, 1966, in Cleveland, and sponsored by both the SWP and the Young Socialist Alliance, there was discussion of the lack of Negroes in the almost white SWP, and it was pointed out that while the SWP is inclined to pat itself on the back over its successes, nevertheless it should be kept in mind that the SWP did not attract Negroes, which is a very serious oversight.

A characterization of the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) appears in the appendix hereto.

CV T-5 advised on July 25, 1966, that a meeting of the Cleveland Committee to End the War in Vietnam was held in Cleveland on July 19, 1966, at which time DANNY ROSENSHINE reported that he had been at a meeting of the OHIO Cleveland CORE, with BAXTER HILL, to organize the International Days of Protest. Source stated that BAXTER HILL is currently Chairman of the Cleveland CORE. CONGRESS OF RACIAL EQUALITY

DANNY ROSENSHINE

CV T-5 advised on May 2, 1966, that ROSENSHINE is a current member of the SWP in Cleveland and is Chairman of the Cleveland Committee to End the War in Vietnam, being paid by the SWP to devote full time to this anti-war movement.

CV T-6 advised on August 16, 1966, that an SWP meeting was held in Cleveland on August 12,1966, at which time the club Executive Committee report was given by ERIC REINTHALER, who is organizer of the SWP in Cleveland.

REINTHALER reported that he, DANNY ROSENSHINE, and DENNIS SWEETENHAM had attended a meeting of the Cleveland Chapter of CORE on the night of August 11, 1966, and that they were instructed to attend this meeting by the local SWP Executive Committee. The purpose of this CORE meeting was to organize a Cleveland committee - a citizens committee - to investigate the Hough riots, this investigation to be in opposition to the recent inquiry made by the Cuyahoga County Grand Jury.

After a long discussion, the SWP membership voted to permit these SWP members to attend further meetings of CORE, but only in an advisory capacity. The membership declined to permit JOHN CLOUD to work in CORE as an officer.

DENNIS SWEETENHAM

CV T-5 advised on May 6, 1966, that SWEETENHAM was a current member of the SWP in Cleveland.

JOHN CLOUD

CV T-5 advised on May 6, 1966, that JOHN CLOUD is a current member of the SWP in Cleveland. OHIO SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY

CV T-7 advised on August 16, 1966, that at the August 12, 1966, meeting of the SWP, JOHN CLOUD was refused permission to run for an office in the local CORE; it was reported that CLOUD had actually been doing the work of an officer in trying to rebuild CORE.

CV T-5 advised on August 16, 1966, that a forum, sponsored by the SWP was held on August 14, 1966, in Cleveland, subject matter being the Hough Avenue riots. ERIC REINTHALER was one of the speakers and stated that the SWP believes in a Negro making his own decisions for his own neighborhood; the SWP believes in taking the money from the power structure and giving it to the workers; and the only way you can accomplish this is to have a social revolution and do away with capitalism.

2. SWP Literature Showing the SWP Injecting Itself Into Civil Rights Struggle.

CV T-4 on August 3, 1966, furnished a "statement of the Cleveland Branch of the SWP on the Hough outbreaks," issued by the SWP in Cleveland. It states in part:

> "Hundreds of Negroes have been arrested and countless hundreds brutalized by the police. We join those who demand an end to the reprisals..... We urge everyone to support the defense of those victims, those individuals whom the power structure is attempting to 'set-up' as scapegoats.....
> "The conditions of grinding poverty, slums, price gouging and police abuse in Hough and other black ghettos are a direct result of the profit system.... The massive problems of unemployment, slum housing, etc., cannot be solved within the framework of the profit system.....President JOHNSON and his Democratic and Republican big business supporters are spending more than $13 billion this year to kill the colored peoples of Vietnam. We say: STOP THE WAR IN VIETNAM NOW. BRING THE TROOPS HOME NOW. Spend that money so that black people in America can live, not so other colored peoples elsewhere will die as a result of the military aggression of a corrupt American ruling class."

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

There was rioting in Cleveland, Ohio, starting

June 22, 1966, and ending approximately June 24, 1966, this being confined primarily to the Superior Avenue area of Cleveland, and again during the period of July 18, through approximately July 23, 1966, which is commonly referred to as the Hough riots.

The "Cleveland Plain Dealer", a newspaper of general circulation, in its issue of August 10, 1966, carried a headline "Jury Blames Hough Riot on Professionals, Reds." This referred to a 17 page report released on the night of August 9, 1966, by the Cuyahoga County Grand Jury which had been probing into the cause of the riots.

The first item of the report reads:

> "This jury finds that the outbreak of lawlessness and disorder was both organized, and exploited by a relatively small group of trained and disciplined professionals at this business. They were aided and abetted, wittingly or otherwise, by misguided people of all ages and colors, many of whom are avowed believers in violence and extremism, and some of whom were or are either members of or officers in the Communist Party."

The report then deals with LEWIS ROBINSON and states, "that irrefutable evidence was shown to the effect that ROBINSON pledged reciprocal support to and with the Communist Party of Ohio."

The report states that it was established before the Grand Jury that the leaders of the "W.E.B. DuBois Clubs and the Communist Party, with interchangeable officers and virtually identical concepts, arrived in Cleveland only a few days before the Hough area disorder. They took up residence at 1844 East 81st Street, only a short distance from the central point of tensions of the Hough area troubles. These men, who came from Chicago, New York, and Brooklyn, were MIKE BAYER, otherwise known as MIKE DAVIDOW; DANIEL MACK; RONALD LUCAS; and STEVE SHREEFTER. They were constantly together. They made swift contact with the JFK House leaders and with PHILIP BART, of Middlehurt Road, Cleveland Heights, Ohio, and his wife, CONNIE, who, the evidence showed are the leaders of the Communist Party throughout the Ohio Vally District including Cleveland."

MIKE BAYER

CV T-10 advised on June 7, 1966, that the Ohio CP Convention was held in Cleveland on June 4 and 5, 1966, and although MIKE BAYER was not present, he was elected at this convention to be an alternate delegate to the CP, USA National Convention to be held in New York City on June 22 - 26, 1966.

CV T-10 stated that BAYER is a CP youth leader in Cleveland.

DANIEL MACK

CV T-2 advised on August 24, 1966, that DANIEL MACK attended a number of W.E.B. DuBois Club meetings, and CP Youth Club meetings while in Cleveland, Ohio, during the Summer of 1966.

RONALD LUCAS

CV T-2 advised on August 9, 1966, that at an Ohio CP State Board meeting held in Cleveland, on August 3, 1966, LUCAS was appointed a member of the Ohio CP State Board.

STEVE SCHREEFTER

CV T-13 advised on July 13, 1966, that the 18th National Convention of the CP, USA convened at Webster Hall, New York City, on June 22, 1966, with STEVE SCHREEFTER being observed in attendance.

Sergeant JOHN UNGVARY, Head of the Cleveland Police Department Subversive Squad, advised on August 1, 1966, that he has no information specifically showing subversive forces to have played an active role in the Hough disturbances.

Patrolman JOHN PATTON, Bureau of Special Investigation, Subversive Squad, Cleveland Police Department, advised on August 10, 1966, that he was surprised to see the emphasis placed on Communist involvement in the Hough riots, because to the best of his knowledge, the information on which the Grand Jury based its findings regarding Communist influence was limited to the testimony of JESSE THOMAS and FRED GIARDINI, and to the general comments of Sergeant UNGVARY.

OHIO

FRED GIARDINI, former member of the CP Youth Club in Cleveland and member of the Cleveland DuBois Club, was a Cleveland policeman operating undercover for the Police Department.

He was interviewed by SA ROBERT E. KEHRES and SA ROBERT S. BURGINS, JR. on August 9, 1966, at which time he advised that he had no information linking the CP with the Hough Avenue riots.

CV T-1 advised on July 21, 1966, that during the course of a discussion with CONNIE BART concerning racial violence in the Hough area, she stated that the CP does not believe in that kind of action. Source stated that CONNIE BART's views against this violence were so strong that it seemed apparent that there was no actual CP involvement in these riots.

CV T-1 advised on July 25, 1966, that one of the persons present at the CP bookstore on July 23, 1966, commented to CONNIE BART that any Negro who is not in favor of the recent rioting was a traitor to his race. This remark made CONNIE BART very upset and she became very emphatic stating that the CP does not believe in such rioting and disturbances.

She stated that only irresponsible people would condone such action. She stated that CP does not want to be connected in any way with violence and that if this person persists in making such comments, he should stay away from the bookstore. She stated that she realizes that the Negroes took such action because of their frustrations, but that the CP had nothing to do with it.

CV T-1 advised further on July 25, 1966, that on July 23, 1966, PHILIP BART stated that although the DuBois Club has its headquarters in the Hough area, where the rioting occurred, the DuBois Club did not take an active part in the rioting and that the Party did not believe in this kind of action.

CV T-8 advised on July 28, 1966, that a meeting of the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America, National Executive Committee was held in Chicago, Illinois, on July 25, 1966. CHUCK HARRIS and HUGH FOWLER, both members of this National Executive Committee, were present. FOWLER was Chairman of this meeting. HARRIS reported briefly on his organizing trip to Cleveland where he worked in the Hough area during the Cleveland riots. Source stated that HARRIS' report saluted the militancy of the Cleveland rioters in their attacks on the National Guard.

FOWLER mentioned that an inflamatory statement had been prepared by the DuBois Club in Cleveland, and FOWLER described efforts made to secrete this literature from the National Guard.

JESSE THOMAS advised on August 9, 1966, that the Cleveland DuBois Club had leaflets printed concerning alleged police brutality in the Superior Avenue riots in Cleveland in June, 1966, but that these leaflets were never distributed. He said he observed them at the DuBois Headquarters on East 81st Street in Cleveland, but he believed that they were removed just prior to or immediately after the beginning of the riots.

The "Cleveland Press", a daily newspaper of general circulation in Cleveland, Ohio, in issue of July 29, 1966, contained an article stating that the following members of the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America appeared before the Cuyahoga County Grand Jury, which was probing into the Hough riots starting July 18, 1966: MICHAEL BAYER, RON LUCAS, STEVE SCHREEFTER, and DANIEL MACK. The newspaper stated that these DuBois members invoked the Fifth Amendment when questioned by the Grand Jury.

On August 9, 1966, CV T-2 advised that an Ohio CP State Board meeting had been held on August 3, 1966. A question was raised at this meeting as to why the Hough area was chosen for the DuBois Summer Project since there was little possibility of accomplishing anything in the Hough area due to the lack of Negro organizers to work in that area.

One of the members of this State Board said that he had instructed the DuBois workers to move out of the Hough area during the racial disturbances and he complained that the State Board had not been kept advised of what was going on in this DuBois Summer Project.

CV T-3 advised on August 8, 1966, that during a discussion with FRIEDA KATZ on August 6, 1966, concerning the recent Hough riots, she stated neither the CP nor the DuBois Club had anything to do with these riots, either in the instigation of them of in participating in them. She stated that members of the DuBois Club lived in the Hough area because they intended working in that area in an effort to get the DuBois Club going, but that they likewise had nothing to do with the riots other than to assist a few of the persons injured.

CV T-4 advised on August 23, 1966, that an SWP Public Forum was held on August 14, 1966, in Cleveland, at which time there was discussion concerning the Grand Jury report of the Hough Avenue riots. Speakers of this forum included BAXTER HILL, President of CORE, RON LUCAS, of the W.E.B. DuBois Club, ERIC REINTHALER of the SWP, LEWIS ROBINSON of the JFK House, and JAMES RUSSELL, who is connected with Freedom Fighters, but who said he represented himself only. BAXTER HILL said that CORE and other Negro groups would hold its own inquest into the Hough problems. He denounced the Grand Jury report on the Hough riots and contended that there was no outside professional leaders in this riot.

REINTHALER, in his talk, managed to get in the comment that in a socialist society, such as Cuba or China, they do not have these problems for everyone is equal and there is no color line.

JAMES RUSSELL

SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY

CV T-4 advised on January 22, 1965, that JAMES RUSSELL has attended a number of public meetings sponsored by the Cleveland Branch of the SWP, but he only attends those meetings in which he has a particular interest, being meetings in which problems of the Negro race are discussed. He has no interest at all in the SWP.

OHIO
N.Y.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General pursuant to the Executive Order 10450.

CV T-6 advised on November 22, 1965, that an SWP sponsored social was held in Cleveland on November 13, 1965, for the purpose of raising funds for the current National SWP Fund Drive. JAMES RUSSELL was present.

CV T-12 advised in May, 1965, that although he has no information indicating that JAMES RUSSELL is affiliated with the Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM), RUSSELL is a close friend of DON FREEMAN.

A characterization of RAM, in which DON FREEMAN is identified is attached.

CV T-3 advised on August 29, 1966, that a citizens' review on the rioting in the Hough area was held in Cleveland on August 23, 1966, for the purpose of having the witnesses testify as to what they think cased the riots, and testify as to how they were treated by the police and the National Guard.

BAXTER HILL is one of the prime organizers of this hearing, and in addition to CORE, the NAACP, The Urban League, the Hough Committee Council, the Negro Pastors Association, the National Association of Social Workers, and the Poverty Board are also sponsoring organizations of this inquiry.

About 500 to 600 persons were present among them being HERMAN KIRSCH; FRIEDA KATZ; BONNIE HOLT; RUTH LENCL; PHIL BART; RACHAEL TOWNE; and ANTHONY KRCHMAREK.

HERMAN KIRSCH

CV T-5 advised on May 6, 1966, that HERMAN KIRSCH is a current member of the SWP in Cleveland.

BONNIE HOLT

CV T-5 advised on May 6, 1966, that BONNIE HOLT is a current member of the SWP.

RUTH LENCL

CV T-10 advised on June 7, 1966, that the first session of the Ohio CP State Convention was held at Cleveland, Ohio, on June 4, 1966, RUTH LENCL being present.

RACHAEL TOWNE

CV T-5 advised on May 6, 1966, that RACHAEL TOWNE is a member of the SWP in Cleveland.

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

A. THE CONGRESS ON RACIAL EQUALITY

The "Cleveland Plain Dealer", a newspaper of general circulation in the Cleveland area, issue of September 21, 1966, lists the newly elected officers of CORE in Cleveland. It is noted that BAXTER HILL has been replaced as chairman of CORE. Among the officers is ART EVANS, listed as being a Vice-Chairman. The "Cleveland Plain Dealer", issue of July 12, 1966, also lists ARTHUR EVANS as being first Vice-Chairman of CORE's Racial Action Council.

ARTHUR EVANS ~~ART EVANS~~ OHIO

CV T-4 advised on April 1, 1965, that ARTHUR EVANS was the first of three speakers at a SWP public forum meeting held in Cleveland, on March 21, 1965, at which time he and the other speakers were critical of the suspension of DONALD FREEMAN as a Cleveland school teacher because of FREEMAN's activity in connection with the RAM. SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY

As noted in Section I of this report on the SWP, JOHN CLOUD, ERIC REINTHALER, DENNIS SWEETENHAM, and DANNY ROSENSHINE have all participated in activities of CORE.

CV T-8 advised on July 28, 1965, that at a National Executive Committee meeting of the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America, held in Chicago, on July 25, 1966, HUGH FOWLER stated that he had talked to RUTH TURNER about the DuBois Clubs racial action when he was in Cleveland, on July 22, 1966, at a peace conference. FOWLER stated that RUTH TURNER was very receptive to the DuBois plan.

~~RUTH~~ TURNER OHIO

CV T-9 advised on June 1, 1966, that RUTH TURNER, long time Executive Secretary of Cleveland CORE has left Cleveland and is working for CORE in Washington, D. C. CONGRESS OF RACIAL EQUALITY

CV T-3 advised on August 19, 1966, that during a discussion with FRIEDA KATZ on August 15, 1966, concerning the recent riots in Cleveland, and concerning BAXTER HILL, at that time the head of Cleveland CORE, FRIEDA stated that she had joined CORE in Cleveland. She further stated that RUTH TURNER used to run Cleveland CORE, but that during the time RUTH TURNER was in charge, she (FRIEDA KATZ) could never get "closer than the mailing list."

CV T-3 advised on August 19, 1966, that at a SWP public forum held in Cleveland on August 15, 1966, BAXTER HILL announced that he wanted all of those persons who had been called before the Cuyahoga County Grand Jury to testify concerning the Hough riots to come to a CORE meeting.

One of the persons HILL will ask to come is PHILIP BART. CV T-9 advised on September 22, 1966, that this "CORE meeting" to which BART was asked, was actually the Citizens' Review on the rioting wich was sponsored by CORE, NAACP, the Urban League and others, and that the only reason BART was asked to be present was because his name appeared in the Grand Jury release as having been involved in the riots.

CV T-5 on August 22, 1966, furnished a leaflet received from the SWP and entitled, "Public Hearings On The Hough Revolt", these hearings to begin August 23, at Liberty Hill Baptist Church. The leaflet lists the telephone number to be called for further information concerning these hearings, this phone number being the number of the local CORE.

CV T-1 advised on August 30, 1966, that on August 26, 1966, ANTHONY KRCHMAREK discussed the fact that PHILIP BART had been present at the public hearings on the Hough riots, at which BAXTER HILL was in charge.

KRCHMAREK said that at these hearings, BAXTER HILL made the comment that he would welcome support from anyone who was willing to work for civil rights.

CV T-8 advised on September 23, 1966, that a CP, USA Youth Conference had been held at New York City, September 12 - 14, 1966, at which time MIKE BAYER and RON LUCAS reported on the summer project in Cleveland, their report being to the effect that this summer project had been a disaster but that out of this project came good relationships with Negro groups including CORE.

WATTS AT 8811 JOHN AVENUE, WAS MURDERED LAST NIGHT BY POLICE AS HE DROVE ON THE HOLLYWOOD FREEWAY IN NORTH HOLLYWOOD. THE YOUTH WAS UNARMED AND YET HE WAS BLOWN TO PIECES BY A SHOTGUN FIRED BY A RACIST COP. THIS MURDER REPRESENTS THE THIRD MURDER OF AN INNOCENT WORKER IN CALIFORNIA IN THE LAST SIX MONTHS.

"THE EXCUSE USED BY THE COPS FOR THIS LATEST MURDER WAS THAT YOUNG MR. BIRKLEY WAS DRIVING AN 'ALLEGEDLY' STOLEN AUTOMOBILE. IT HAS NOT BEEN CONFIRMED THAT THE AUTO BEING DRIVEN WAS ACTUALLY STOLEN, BUT EVEN IF IT WAS, DOES DRIVING A STOLEN AUTOMOBILE WARRENT THE DEATH PENALTY? OF COURSE NOT! THIS KILLING IS ANOTHER BRUTAL MURDER BY THE RACIST IMPERIALIST POLICE. THE POLICE ARE HIRED KILLERS AND THUGS OF THE BOURGEOISIE WHOSE JOB IT IS TO BEAT DOWN THE WORKERS AND INTIMIDATE THE POOR AS MUCH AS POSSIBLE. JUST AS WITH LEONARD DEADWYLER LAST SPRING, OR MATTHEW JOHNSON IN SAN FRANCISCO LAST MONTH, THE POLICE MURDERED ELMO BIRKLEY OF WATTS FOR BEING POOR, NOT FOR ANY CRIME HE COMMITTED AGAINST SOCIETY.

If the intelligence contained in the above message is to be disseminated outside the Bureau, it is suggested that it be suitably paraphrased in order to protect the Bureau's cryptographic systems.

II. GENERAL RACIAL CONDITIONS

Los Angeles, California

In the "Los Angeles Times" of October 4, 1966, II-1, was an article reporting that conditions in the poverty areas where Negroes and Mexican-Americans live were becoming worse, even though the general Los Angeles area was most prosperous. The article furnished statistics that the average family income in these areas had dropped nearly $400 in the last five years, that 26 per cent of the households in South Los Angeles were headed by women, and between two and three per cent more families were in the poverty category than in 1960.

In the "Los Angeles Times" of October 6, 1966, Part 8, Page 1, was an article reporting the opening of a Police Malpractice Complaint Center in the Pacoima area of Los Angeles, California. The Center was established by the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU). The director of the Center, David Fulton, Jr., stated the Pacoima area was "smoldering" and stated "whether it blows up may depend on offices such as this one."

In the "Los Angeles Sentinel," Los Angeles Negro newspaper, issue of October 13, 1966, Page A-3, was an article reporting that a California assembly group was probing the coverage of race riots by newspapers. Some newsmen present indicated they believed newspaper coverage had contributed to racial violence while others opposed any attempt to limit such news coverage since they felt that a press information center in the area of a riot would bog down the collection of news.

In the "Los Angeles Sentinel" of October 13, 1966, Page A-6, was an editorial by Colonel Leon H. Washington, Jr., commenting upon the reconstruction of larger businesses in the general Watts area. The editorial commended the businesses who were rebuilding and urged respect for law and order as the community's way of rewarding such businessmen.

On October 6, 1966, Sheldon Charles Mays, Realtor and National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) member, stated he learned that the organization called "Sons of Watts" had made a series of records which they had sent to San Francisco during its recent racial distrubances. The records urged an attitude of calm and an end to violence. Mr. Mays did not know whether these recordings were used or not.

III. CURRENT EVALUATION OF VIOLENCE POTENTIAL

Los Angeles, California

In the "Los Angeles Herald-Dispatch," Los Angeles Negro newspaper, issue of October 6, 1966, Page 1, was an article reporting that Dr. Raymond Jordan, head of a group of volunteer workers with the Operation Headstart program had held a meeting at which he predicted racial violence unless funds for their program were forthcoming. Reverend Jordan was quoted as stating that if the Democratic Party wanted to keep California they would have to deal with "the little people."

On October 14, 1966, Source 1, a [redacted] b7D advised the "Los Angeles Herald-Dispatch," published by Mrs. Pat Alexander, was considered to be an agitating influence in the Negro community. Source states Mrs. Alexander appeared intent upon disrupting the Negro community and causing strife and violence.

On October 10, 1966, George Ernest Bryant, President of the Urban League in Los Angeles, advised he believed the racial situation in Los Angeles was improving. He mentioned several efforts being made by the people of Watts to help themselves. He cited the sponsoring of a baseball team by the Urban League, a training course for Negro girls in the Watts area, and numerous activities at community parks which provide recreation for the youth of the area.

Compton, California

Compton, California, is an area immediately south of the Watts area of Los Angeles, California.

POSSIBLE RACIAL VIOLENCE
MAJOR URBAN AREAS
RACIAL MATTERS

On October 4, 1966, Captain Harold Lindemulder, Compton Police Department, advised that there appeared to be no increase in tensions which could result in racial violence; however, he pointed out that housing in the Compton area is becoming scarce and Negroes are attempting to move into Lynwood, California, a Caucasian area east of the Watts area and north of Compton. He stated Lynwood newspapers reported that the Caucasians of the area are opposing such a move by Negroes, and stated Lynwood, or an area nearby, could become a possible future trouble spot in the matter of racial unrest.

Pomona, California

In the "Los Angeles Times" of October 6, 1966, I-13, was an article reporting that training sessions on human relations were being given by the Pomona Unified School District, in an effort to improve racial relations in the Pomona area.

San Pedro, California

On October 4, 1966, Lieutenant Leonard, Harbor Division, LAPD, advised there was no increase in the potential for violence in that area as a result of a recent LAPD arrest at a Mexican-American wedding in San Pedro. He advised disturbances resulting from Mexican-American celebrations are common and do not constitute a new problem for the LAPD.

Venice, California

Venice is a section of Los Angeles policed by the LAPD.

On October 3, 1966, Sergeant Warren Schroeder, Watch Commander, Venice Division, LAPD, advised the racial situation had been quiet since a disturbance on September 28, 1966, but stated tension was high and racial violence could occur at any moment.

In the "Evening Star News" of Culver City, California, issue of October 3, 1966, Page 1, was an article reporting that the LAPD had reported recent disturbances in Venice had been caused by a group of "young trouble makers." The article reported Venice had "more than its share of bitterness, deep poverty and violence potential." The LAPD stated that there was an increasing incidence of rock throwing at patrol cars, and the same group of young people were always involved. The article continued with interviews of older Negroes in the area who agreed that trouble was always caused by a few, and interviews with young Negroes who blamed police methods for the increased trouble in the area.

In the "Los Angeles Times" of October 10, 1966, I-3, was an article reporting that an angry crowd of 20 to 30 men took a drunk suspect from two arresting police officers in the 600 block of Indiana Avenue, Venice. The crowd assaulted the officers. Fifteen police cars responded and arrested three Negro men on suspicion of taking a prisoner from an officer. The drunk suspect escaped.

In the "Los Angeles Sentinel" of October 6, 1966, Page A-1, was an article reporting that Venice was becoming a slum area with high unemployment, with its employed being engaged in menial jobs. The Negro population was reported at about 10,000. Older Negro residents of the area were reportedly resentful of newcomers to the area, many of whom are in conflict with the law.

On October 12, 1966, Source 1, a [redacted] advised that Captain Jack Morris had been in charge of the Venice Police Department for a considerable period of time. He stated Captain Morris did not totally enforce the law in the Negro community and considered retreat from a serious situation as being justified in some instances. Top LAPD officials thereupon decided that in view of recent flareups it was time to place a more aggressive officer in charge of the Venice Division. Captain Morris was thereupon replaced by Captain Thomas McTighe who was instructed to "clean up the area." Source advised many inhabitants of the Venice area were extremely unhappy with the change in administration. Captain McTighe has made efforts to maintain a strong position and enforce the law.

In the "Evening Outlook," newspaper of Santa Monica, California, issue of October 12, 1966, Page 6, was an article reporting that a Police Malpractice Complaint Center had been opened in Venice, California, in a center sponsored by the Methodist Church. The Center was operated by the ACLU. Reverend D. Michael Cooney, pastor of the above church, stated they were aware of tensions in the Negro community and felt the center would provide a channel of communication in the community.

In the "Evening Star News" of Culver City, California, issue of October 14, 1966, Page 1, was an article reporting that the LAPD, civic leaders and Negro residents got together recently in Venice and established a "Community Committee" to work on the problem of police-community relations. The meeting was chaired by Virgil Brown, president of the Santa Monica-Venice Chapter, NAACP, and other prominent Negro leaders were present. Captain McTighe (above) tentatively agreed to have three or four police officers confer with the group once a week in an effort to iron out differences. Several speakers charged the police had harrassed the recently established ACLU Complaint Center by placing police cars in front of the Center. Captain McTighe denied any knowledge of such action. John Fleming, director of "Project Action," a Negro self-help organization in the area, named the committee to work with the police.

Santa Barbara, California

On October 17, 1966, Dr. Eugene Harris, president of the Santa Barbara Chapter, NAACP, advised there appeared to be little potential for violence in the Santa Barbara area because of the small Negro population, the moderate Negro demands, and because of work done among the poorer Negro families to organize and channelize their complaints.

IV. IDENTITIES OF ORGANIZATIONS INVOLVED IN LOCAL RACIAL SITUATION

Los Angeles, California

In the "Los Angeles Herald-Examiner" of October 4, 1966, Page A-15, was an article reporting that Mayor Samuel Yorty, in a speech given at Houston, Texas, had stated that Communist agitators and extremists were working in Los Angeles to spark more violence. He stated Communists had carried on a long campaign of charging police brutality in Los Angeles, which created the climate for an outbreak. Yorty also pointed out that in 1964 the National Urban League had rated Los Angeles as the best large city in the nation for the Negro.

In the "Los Angeles Sentinel" of October 6, 1966, was an article reporting that the Community Conservation Corps (CCC), funded by the Department of Labor and local organizations, would extend its program through November 30, 1966. The CCC program was established to enlist young people to work in cleaning up and transforming Watts and other areas in Watts, California. The group helped create "vest-pocket parks" and playgrounds throughout the community.

John Wesley Harris, Jr.

On July 27, 1966, source 2 advised that as of that date John Wesley Harris, Jr., was a member of the Los Angeles Club, Progressive Labor Party (PLP)(see appendix).

On October 7, 1966, source 3 advised that John Harris had been recently indicted by a Los Angeles County Grand Jury on a charge of criminal syndicalism. Source advised Harris had telephonically contacted Stokely Carmichael of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) on October 6, 1966 concerning Carmichael's possible public appearance in Los Angeles to speak for the recently formed "Committee to Defend John Harris" (CDJH).

POSSIBLE RACIAL VIOLENCE
MAJOR URBAN AREAS
RACIAL MATTERS

On October 12, 1966, source 4 advised he had learned that Carmichael was coming to Los Angeles in the near future to make speeches in the Watts area. Carmichael's expenses are to be paid by the CDJH, and funds raised by his speeches are to be divided equally between the CDJH and SNCC.

On October 10, 1966, source 5 advised that at a meeting of the Negro Commission, Southern Californis District Communist Party (SCDCP) in Los Angeles, Bill Taylor, vice-chairman of the SCDCP, stated that "old" criminal syndicalism laws, originally passed against the Communists, were being used to stop Negroes from speaking. He gave as examples the arrest of Stokely Carmichael in the South and John Harris in Los Angeles. He stated since this was the case, the Communist Party (CP) must back Harris in his court fight and they must do everything to obtain the support of as many organizations as possible. Taylor stated the CP would work through the Southside Citizens Defense Committee (see appendix) or through the Los Angeles Committee for Defense of the Bill of Rights (see appendix) to help Harris.

On October 12, 1966, a Special Agent of the FBI obtained a four-page PLP leaflet concerning John Harris at a literature booth on the University of California at Los Angeles campus. A copy of this leaflet is attached.

On October 14, 1966, source 1 advised Elmo J. Birkley, male Negro, age 15, was shot and killed by a LAPD officer during the early morning hours of October 14, 1966. Source stated the police chased Birkley in a stolen automobile on a high-speed chase on the Hollywood Freeway. When the car became involved in a minor accident, Birkley leaped out of the car, reached toward his belt as if reaching for a gun, and was shot with a shotgun. In the car with Birkley were James William Lindsey, [redacted] and Anna Louise Pryor, [redacted] Source stated Birkley was on probation, Lindsey was on parole and Pryor had a prior criminal record including violation of parole, suspicion of burglary and possession of marijuana. Source 1 stated top police officials were concerned over possible racial violence as a result of the shooting.

On October 14, 1966, source 6 furnished a CP, USA Marxist-Leninist (CP, USA M-L) leaflet concerning the shooting of Birkley, a copy of which is attached. This leaflet announced a meeting concerning the shooting of Birkley, to be held on October 14, 1966.

On October 14, 1966, source 7 advised there was a CP, USA M-L meeting at 9122 South Compton Avenue, Los Angeles, with a total of approximately 16 individuals in attendance.

On October 15, 1966, the LAPD advised that the above meeting started at approximately 8:00 P.M. and appeared to have ended at about 8:30 P.M., as there was no one in attendance at that time. The LAPD estimated approximately 12 persons were in attendance at the meeting.

In the "Valley Times," newspaper of Van Nuys, California, issue of October 18, 1966, Page 16, was an article reporting that the Sons of Watts and the Community Alert Patrol, Negro self-help organizations, were credited with preventing possible incidents during the past week end as a result of the shotgun death of Elmo J. Birkley (above). The article quoted Sergeant Cornelius Cooper, of the LAPD Community Relations Bureau, as stating that teams of men numbering almost 100 from the two organizations were on the streets over the week end to avert possible violence. Sergeant Cooper stated the patrols were "highly successful" and no incidents were reported. Cooper referred to a "CP, USA" (CP, USA M-L) leaflet (above) which was distributed in Watts, which stated Birkley was killed by "police executioners."

In the "Los Angeles Times" of October 3, 1966, I-3, was an article reporting a group of middle class Negro women from the Leimert Park section of Los Angeles had formed a group called "The Feminine Touch, Incorporated" to help the residents of Watts and other poor Negro areas of Los Angeles in any way they could. Mrs. Barbara J. Dyce, president of the organization, stated they were offering to help the areas by doing what the residents felt was necessary, rather than what the group believed was necessary. The group plans to donate half the funds raised to self-help Negro organizations and the other half to the more traditional Negro organizations in order to bring the militant and conservative Negro groups together.

VII. OBJECTIVES SOUGHT BY MINORITY COMMUNITY AND POSSIBLE POINTS OF CONTENTION

In the "Los Angeles Sentinel" of October 6, 1966, Page A-1, was an article reporting that Los Angeles Assemblyman Mervyn M. Dymally called for legislation requiring the immediate dismissal of policemen who discharge their weapons when their life is not in danger. Dymally referred to the shooting of a Negro in the recent riot in San Francisco, and to the shooting of May, 1966, of Leonard Deadwyler in Los Angeles. Dymally also criticized police for being insensitive to the problems in "the ghetto" and stated their attitude appeared to be "that crime goes with poverty and that it must be kept from spreading to better neighborhoods."

VIII. REACTION OF LEADERS AND MEMBERS OF THE COMMUNITY TO MINORITY DEMANDS

arrested for "criminal syndicalism"

John Harris, Progressive Labor Party organizer in Watts faces 1 to 14 years as a "criminal syndicalist". His crime -- passing out leaflets at the Deadwyler inquest pointing out that the cop who shot Deadwyler was a murderer and moreover denouncing the system that creates such a "legal" murder.

At 5:30 p.m. September 20, 1966, six plainclothesmen broke into the house where John Harris lives. Although claiming to have a warrant they refused to show it. They handcuffed John Harris and then ransacked the apartment throwing things around, ripping down pictures and causing other damage. They carried off boxes of personal property of the three people who live there as "evidence". They also took PL literature that was stored there. For example, they took 250 copies of the new PL magazine, copies of Spark and Free Student. They also took books and notes for classes, all this as "evidence".

WHAT IS "CRIMINAL SYNDICALISM?"

The criminal syndicalism law states that is is illegal to speak or leaflet so as to advocate "change in industrial ownership" or "effect political change" by so-called criminal means. A Grand Jury meeting secretly apparently decided this is what John was doing, and set the bail at $15,000.

Criminal syndicalism is an anti-labor law passed in 1919 and was last used to convict farm labor organizers in the Sacramento Valley in 1937. The law is meant to deal with revolutionary socialists and is a candid reflection of the undemocratic essence of a class divided society. I[redacted]e the anti-riot portions [redacted] the proposed Civil Rights law, it is intended as a weapon against those who call for fundamental change. Such was John's offense. He questioned the "justice" of the Deadwyler hearing and advocated revolutionary solutions. In so doing he was in perfect tune with the mood of the black community of South Los Angeles. Clearly, a "criminal syndicalist" is someone who represents a view dangerous to America's rulers. ("You have your freedom until you need it," says Bertrand Russell.)

WHO IS JOHN HARRIS?

John Harris was born and raised in Birmingham, Alabama, the son of a steelworker. From his earliest years, he was exposed to systematic racial oppression and injustice and he early determined to fight it. When in 1960 the freedom riders came to town he joined with them. Later in college he became chairman of the Howard University chapter of SNCC. In 1964 he left school to work in the South where he was project director for SNCC in Sunflower County, Mississippi -- stronghold of the Ku Klux Klan. There he was arrested and beaten by the cops and his home was attacked by the Klan. From his one and a half year's experience in Mississippi he concluded that more basic changes were necessary. He left the South and came to Los Angeles shortly after the Watts rebellion. Having seen the effects of the police riot and having heard about the systematic police murder of scores of black citizens, he decided to do political work in Watts. In December, 1965, impressed with the work of Bill Epton and the program of the Progressive Labor Party, he joined PL and became a revolutionary communist.

WHY THIS ARREST NOW?

In fact, they are arresting John to scare and terrorize PL members and others who protest conditions in the black ghetto. Although John is not guilty of any criminal or illegal act, he certainly is guilty of protesting the wretched living conditions in Watts. He has spoken and written about the fact that real income in Watts declined 8% since 1960 while rising in the rest of L.A. He has passed out leaflets which pointed out that in Watts is one of the biggest concentrations of industry -- yet black people living there aren't given jobs in these plants, and that there is 37% unemployment there. He has constantly worked to expose the outrages of Yorty's brutal cops in Watts who constantly murder and maim black people, the Deadwyler case being only one example. He has publically denounced the war in Vietnam and urged his black brothers not to fight in that war. He has told them to oppose the draft and warmly supported such people as Richmond and Key who refused to be inducted on the grounds that they are a colonial minority and shouldn't fight the colonial master's dirty war against colored people of Southeast Asia. What is more, John has held classes which sought to get at the root cause of U.S. oppression both at home and abroad. He has not hesitated to name the real enemy, U.S. imperialism, and has stated unequivocally that imperialism in this country must be replaced by a socialist system. He has stated openly that he is a communist and proud of it. For this he was arrested on "criminal syndicalism".

HARLEM—PHILADELPHIA—ATLANTA—LOS ANGELES—

In Harlem, late in 1964 Bill Epton, chairman of Harlem PL, was indicted for "criminal anarchy" -- his crime - trying to organize a peaceful demonstration to protest the murder of black people during the "police riots" that summer. A year later he was found guilty; he is now out on $25,000 appeal bond. This summer in Philadelphia, young SNCC workers were falsely charged with possessing dynamite and held on huge bail. Their crime -- organizing in the black community. Next it was the turn of the Atlanta cops who, after brutally suppressing a protest by black citizens of another police murder, arrested Stokely Carmichael for inciting to riot. His crime -- advancing the slogan black power. Now in Los Angeles John Harris is arrested for criminal syndicalism. Tomorrow, no doubt, it will be somebody in San Francisco. And the "crime" will again be the same -- organizing the black community around a militant program.

It is clear Johnson is ordering his local stooges to begin a nationwide round-up of all black militants who refuse to sell out, because rebellions in black ghettos are harming his war effort. Though the charges are serious and the bail huge, we declare that the real guilty ones are Johnson and company for pursuing the genocidal war against Vietnam; Yorty and the police who daily are brutally murdering and maiming black people; the General Motors and Goodyear plants in South L.A. who poison the air of Watts but refuse to hire its residents. We must expect that as we get more effective in our protests, repression such as this will get worse. But this won't stop us, on the contrary we will redouble our efforts!

WHAT CAN BE DONE? Politically, all honest people interested in building a truly just society must break from the "two party" farce conducted by the American ruling class. Work to free themselves and others from the illusions of this system. It was under this "lesser evil" Brown that this frame-up was concocted. Recognize that in the black ghettos the battle has already been joined. That the war against imperialism is a class war. The victory of the Vietnamese people and the struggles of all other colonial peoples is a part of our own crucial struggle against the "free enterprising" system of exploitation and war.

Finally: Support the program and work of John Harris and the Progressive Labor Party. Money is desperately needed.

WATTS YOUTH MURDERED BY POLICE

Elmo Jerry Birkley, 15 years old, who lived here in Watts at 8811 John Avenue, was murdered last night by police as he drove on the Hollywood Freeway in North Hollywood. The youth was unarmed and yet he was blown to pieces by a shotgun fired by a racist cop. This murder represents the third murder of an innocent worker in California in the last six months.

The excuse used by the cops for this latest murder was that young Mr. Birkley was driving an "allegedly" stolen automobile. It has not been confirmed that the auto being driven was actually stolen, but even if it was, does driving a stolen automobile warrent the death penalty? Of course not! This killing is another brutal murder by the racist imperialist police. The police are hired killers and thugs of the bourgeoisie whose job it is to beat down the workers and intimidate the poor as much as possible. Just as with Leonard Deadwyler last Spring, or Matthew Johnson in San Francisco last month, the police murdered Elmo Birkley of Watts for being poor, not for any crime he committed against society.

How many more murders by the bourgeois police must there be before they learn their lesson? The people must organize into armed defense units in order to protect themselves from the brutality of the police. The reactionary violence of the ruling class and its police must be met with the revolutionary violence of the people. The only way that the workers can liberate themselves is if they arm with guns and organize for their own defense. The organized, unified strength of the people, led by the Party of the proletariat, the Communist Party U.S.A. (Marxist-Leninist) is invincible.

PROTEST THE POLICE MURDER OF YOUR NEIGHBOR, ELMO JERRY BIRKLEY. ATTEND THE PROTEST MEETING TONIGHT, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1966, AT 8 PM, AT THE PEOPLE'S VOICE BOOK STORE AND READING ROOM, 9122 SOUTH COMPTON AVENUE, LOS ANGELES (CORNER OF S. COMPTON AVENUE AND E. 92ND STREET). TELEPHONE: 569-2542.

Stop police brutality; support and join the People's Armed Defense Groups. OPPOSE REACTIONARY VIOLENCE WITH REVOLUTIONARY VIOLENCE.

Issued by the Communist Party, U.S.A. (Marxist-Leninist), Los Angeles Branch.

LOS ANGELES COMMITTEE FOR DEFENSE OF THE BILL OF RIGHTS, formerly known as Los Angeles Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, Los Angeles Committee for Defense of the Bill of Rights and Protection of Foreign Born

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations", revised December 1, 1961, pp. 103-104, describes this committee as follows:

1. "A 'branch' of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born found to be under the 'actual management, direction and supervision' of Communist Party members. The Los Angeles Committee was reorganized in October, 1950, and reported that it 'shall be affiliated to the national organization known as the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born ' The American Committee and the 'various area or local committees * * * constitute * * * one organization within the meaning of the * * * statute (Internal Security Act)' under which the Subversive Activities Control Board found the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born to be a 'Communist-front organization' and ordered it to register as such with the Attorney General."

(Subversive Activities Control Board, Docket No. 109-53, Report and Order with respect to the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, June 27, 1960, pp. 41, 8, 12, and 51.)

2. "Cited as a 'regional' organization of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born and one of its 'most complex affiliates.' 'The Committee on Un-American Activities found that in early publications the local affiliates frankly identified themselves as chapters of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born'; their representation of themselves as independent groups came only after enactment of the Internal Security Act which would have required them, as affiliates, to register as Communist-front organizations'.

"Control of the local organizations * * * was made possible primarily by virtue of the fact that the leaders of the local group were Communist Party members and therefore, subject to the discipline of the Party * * * The local affiliates * * * were actually little more than administrative staffs, whose purpose it was to implement the program of the Communist Party in their respective areas.

"The Lamp of January, 1950, reported that the Los Angeles Committee for the Protection of Foreign Born had been established on November 29, 1949. Publicly identified Communist ROSE CHERNIN served as 'the operation head' since the time of its organization.

The "People's World", a West Coast communist newspaper, issue of 4/23/66, contained an account of results of the 16th Annual Conference of the Los Angeles Committee for Defense of the Bill of Rights and Protection of Foreign Born which was held 4/16/66. The accomplishments include a change of name for the organization to Los Angeles Committee for Defense of the Bill of Rights, inasmuch as Defense of the Bill of Rights is all inclusive.

A source advised on 4/25/66 that the Los Angeles Committee for Defense of the Bill of Rights, still referred to by many individuals as the Los Angeles Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, is currently active in the Los Angeles area.

(A) COMMUNIST PARTY, USA (CP, USA)

(1) SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA DISTRICT COMMUNIST PARTY (SCDCP)

LA T-1 (5/23/66)
LA T-2 (6/10/66)

At an SCDCP Youth Convention held on May 21, 1966, at 1853 South Arlington Avenue, a report on the events concerning the LEONARD DEADWYLER inquest was given. The CP decided to take the following action:

1. Try to get other white organizations and peace candidates to make statements demanding that the police officer involved be tried for murder.
2. Organize a telegram and letter writing campaign to the District Attorney demanding the police officer be tried.

Sources advised that the feeling of the CP was that they did not want whites to go to the inquest because they were afraid it might lead to a racial outburst and this was not the image they wanted to portray. It was decided to have a broad press conference on Tuesday, May 24, 1966, where people would make statements. A mass meeting would also be called at which time a demonstration would be called for. The CP wanted to have this demonstration in a white section of town so that no incidents between black and white would occur. They would also try to keep it away from the county courthouse. The CP line is to throw as much attention and pressure as possible on the mayor and chief of police and not have this attention diverted by racial conflict.

On May 7, 1966, LEONARD DEADWYLER, a Negro, was shot and killed by Los Angeles Police Department Officer JEROLD M. BOVA, who stopped his car for speeding while DEADWYLER was taking his pregnant wife to the hospital. A cornor's inquest into the shooting of DEADWYLER was held during the weekdays from May 19, to May 31, 1966, on which date the jury returned a majority verdict, "accidental homicide", in the matter.

LA T-3 (6/1/66)
LA T-4 (6/3/66)

A meeting of the 24th Congressional District Section, SCDCP, was held on May 22, 1966, at 4946 Marathon Avenue, to discuss the Draft Program of the CP. During this discussion the question of Negroes in trade unions and labor in general came up. It was stated that trade unions were not taking civil rights into consideration, and too, that they, the CP, must demand that Negroes be taken into trade unions. It was also stated that the CP's future depended on how the Negro fared in the end; that in order for communists to confront the white person about the problems of the Negro, communists must know the problems of the Negro.

LA T-5 (6/3/66)

A SCDCP district-wide meeting was held on May 27, 1966, at 1251 South St. Andrews Place. The Mexican-American resolution was discussed, which dealt with the isolation of the party and the Mexican people and the failure of the party to recognize their shortcomings and potential.

LA T-6 (6/8/66)

At a meeting of the South Central Club, Moranda Smith Section (MSS), SCDCP, held on June 1, 1966, at 5131 South St. Andrews Place, the election of delegates to the SCDCP District Convention took place. All Negroes were elected and one of those present claimed that the fear of offending the Negro and the apparent bending over backward in siding with the Negro was happening throughout the party.

LA T-7 (6/13/66)
LA T-8 (6/20/66)
LA T-9 (9/1/66)

The SCDCP District Convention was held on June 12, 1966, at Dooto's Music Center, 13440 South Central Avenue. DOROTHY HEALEY was the main speaker and one of her remarks was that every white comrade must be alert regarding civil rights issues; that too many separate organizations were in the civil rights field thereby reducing unity among them; and that no strong front existed by the white community in the Negro movement.

DOROTHY HEALEY is publically known as Chairman of the SCDCP.

LA T-10 (6/17/66)

On June 13, 1966, there was a follow-up meeting of the members of the Resolution Committee and the delegates to the National Convention of the CP, USA. This meeting was held at 1251 South St. Andrews Place. Most of the resolutions for the National Convention were passed on with comments of approval. The resolution on the Negro people's movement was accepted with the agreement that it needed to be strengthened.

LA T-11 (7/12/66)

At a meeting of the Monterey Park Club, SCDCP, held on July 11, 1966, at 332 West Gleason Street, Monterey Park, during a discussion on the Negro movement, one of those present stated that the CP had lost its chance to help the Negro; that they now have so many benefits they could not possibly promise more and then produce.

LA T-10 (8/3/66)

At a meeting of the Negro Commission, SCDCP, held on July 28, 1966, at 5731 South St. Andrews Place, one of those present projected the idea that the commission should attempt to lay the foundation for the discussion of activities that would bring about the unity of the Negro people with labor and with the white community; that a Negro-Negro, Negro-labor, and Negro-white alliance was of the utmost importance.

LA T-12 (8/2/66)
LA T-8 (8/10/66)

At a meeting of the District Committee and Section Organizers, SCDCP, held on July 30, 1966, at 1251 South St. Andrews Place, it was stated that the left must work on the common issues in a united way and that the struggle for peace must be tied up with domestic issues in terms of the Negro people's rights. It was also stated that the question of "black power" could and must be understood and worked out by the left and other organized progressive forces.

LA T-13 (8/26/66)

At a meeting of the South Central Club, MSS, SCDCP, held on August 24, 1966, at 1235 West 68th Street, one of those present spoke on the Mexican question and stated that the party must do a lot of work on the Mexican question because most Mexicans did not know what the CP stood for.

LA T-2 (9/8/66)

The SCDCP sponsored a Marxist class held on August 31, 1966, at 1661 Federal Avenue. The topic for this class was "Imperialism and the Negro Revolution." The present and past conditions in the United States around the American Negro were discussed.

LA T-14 (9/16/66)

On September 11, 1966, the Southwest Regional Conference of Mexican-American CP Members met at 3875 City Terrace Drive. It was stated that they had to unite the Mexican-American and the Negro in their war on poverty program, and too, that within one year a Mexican-American should be appointed to be a spokesman for the CP in connection with Mexican-American matters. It was also stated that one page of the "People's World" (PW) should be printed in the Spanish language.

The PW is a West Coast communist newspaper.

(2) COMMUNIST PARTY YOUTH MATTERS

LA T-2 (6/14/66)

At a meeting sponsored by the SCDCP held on May 20, 1966, at 1853 South Arlington Avenue, there was a discussion on the coming National Convention of the CP, USA. During this discussion a report was given evaluating CP youth activities throughout the country. A comment was made that money was available to sponsor and support full time personnel to work in the Watts area of Los Angeles throughout the summer. Each comrade was urged to evaluate his own abilities and to attempt to organize his life around donating a large portion of time to this summer project. It was stated that the Negro question and its ramifications throughout the country was one of the most important questions in America today in relation to the growth of the party.

LA T-5 (6/17/66)

An SCDCP District-wide meeting was held on June 3, 1966, at 1251 South St. Andrews Place. One of those present spoke of the need to unite behind the Negro youth in protesting to the police because they, the Negro youth, were being picked up and beaten for no reason at all. The adults were asked to give support to the youth because they were unable to solve their problems.

LA T-15 (8/17/66)

During a discussion of CP youth matters on August 3, 1966, at 1539 Fourth Avenue, one of those present stressed the need to place more Negroes in leadership throughout the youth apparatus and the party as a whole. This person said that he felt that any time one had any type of discussion on the Negro question without the value of a Negro leading the discussion was a mistake.

LA T-1 (6/6/66)

On May 31, 1966, a meeting of the Steering Committee of the Los Angeles Du Bois Clubs (LA DBC) was held at 2017½ West Beverly Glen Drive. During the discussion the question of guerilla tactics and violence which the LA DBC would engage in in the event of another Watts riot came up. It was mentioned that a LA DBC "guerilla tactics committee" be formed to work out what the LA DBC could do in the event of another outbreak. One of those present said that if the Negro people wanted the riot, they should support them by rioting along with them.

LA T-1 (7/19/66)

During the LA DBC conference held on July 17, 1966, at the Sunset Recreation Center on the University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA) campus, all of those present discussed the present Negro movement. He said the left and the LA DBC could not just play an agitational role but that they were actually going to have to get in the struggle and participate in it. He said just pointing out the enemy was not enough but that they had to help the Negro burn down the enemy's place.

LA T-16 (8/22/66)

A special meeting of the LA DBC was held on August 21, 1966, at the Sunset Vista room of the UCLA campus recreational center. DANIEL GRAY spoke at this meeting as a representative of the Non-Violent Action Committee, and stated the whites present had better choose their sides now "before the next time," since a white friend or enemy could "get lost in the action." He stated the whites claim they want to help "us poor Negroes" but no whites were seen burning cars or looting last time. He stated,"if it goes again we won't be shooting around the cops this time but at them and with a lot more accuracy to." He stated even the fire bombs would be strategically set. He referred to no particular planned events during his speech.

LA T-17 (7/9/65)

57 F. DANIEL GRAY was then a member of the Central Los Angeles Club of the W. E. B. Du Bois Clubs of America.

LA T-18 (7/27/66)
LA T-19 (7/18/66)
LA T-20 (7/18/66)

The semi-monthly meeting of the MSS Committee, SCDCP, was held on July 11, 1966, at 5731 South St. Andrews Place, during which meeting the financial condition of the South Side Citizens Devense Committee (SSCDC) was discussed. The Executive Director of this committee had not received any salary for her full time job since January. It was pointed out that this committee was without funds to carry on the legal fights it had been conducting. Several affairs had been organized by the SSCDC to raise money but the party comrades always failed to show up and never got others to attend. It was proposed that the financial condition of the SSCDC be discussed in each party club and section and that each club contribute a monthly sustainer to the committee.

LA T-13 (7/29/66)

Source advised that he learned recently that every CP club in the MSS, SCDCP, had agreed to pay $.50 extra per month to pay the expenses of the SSCDC.

(B) OTHER COMMUNIST GROUPS

(1) COMMUNIST PARTY, USA, MARXIST - LENINIST) (CP,USA, M-L)(SEE APPENDIX)

On May 26, 1966, a Special Agent of the FBI in Los Angeles obtained a copy of a leaflet captioned, "YORTY is a Liar", issued by the CP, USA, M-L. This leaflet was obtained in front of the Los Angeles County Court House and read as follows:

"Last Saturday, Mayor Yorty of Los Angeles called for the arrest of Communists, and he singled out the Communist Party U.S.A. (Marxist-Leninist), saying 'the time has come for the arrest and prosecution of persons openly trying to incite riot in our city'. Mayor Yorty is shouting 'red' in a big political grandstand to hide the real facts of the situation, in his polularity contest with his close associate Governor Brown. We say boycott the elections!

"It is really the capitalist system, and not the Communists that was responsible for the recent outbreak in Watts in protest to the murder of Leonard Deadwyler;

"it is really the capitalist system, and not the Communists that was responsible for the Watts uprising of August 1965. U.S. imperialism's reactionary and racist policies - as pursued by their representatives Yorty, Parker, and Brown, in oppressing the workers, expecially in the minority districts, could bring forth only the most violent protest from the people in response to the reactionary violence of the bourgeois state aparatus. Mayor Yorty is shouting 'red' as a smokescreen to cover for the reactionary policies of U. S. monopoly capital. Yorty has no more right to arrest the Communists than Officer Bova had to murder Leonard Deadwyler!

"Yorty, in attacking the Communist Party U. S.A. (Marxist-Leninist), shows that he knows the difference between our Party and the revisionist Dorothy Healey, who is on Yorty's side. It is hard to tell the difference between Yorty and Healey - they are both for 'lower taxes', 'war on poverty', and they both support the Johnson administration. Oh, tell us please do, Mr. Mayor, what are the differences between yourself and Mrs. Healey.

"The Brown-Yorty-Parker administration has already placed its verdict on the Deadwyler case - officer Bova will be defended by the court for his murder of Leonard Deadwyler. The inquest is a show trial in which is paraded a score of police officers and witnesses, only to come forward with a pre-determined verdict in support of the police brutality of the bourgeois state aparatus.

"Our Party states that the workers can fight against police brutality only by organizing into people's defense groups. We must answer the reactionary violence of the ruling class by the revolutionary violence of the people. As our General Secretary, M. I. Laski stated, 'Our aim is to lead the working class in revolution,

SI

"we will develop and encourage people's defense groups for the defense of the working class against the terror of the ruling class'.

LA T-21 (7/18/66)

On July 18, 1966, source furnished the following mimeographed leaflet issued by the CP, USA, M-L, entitled "Armed Workers can be Free":

"People of Watts, organize for defense against police brutality. The police, agents of the rich, are paid to keep the poor under direct oppression. They are paid to beat and murder workers. The workers must arm to defend themselves against this reactionary violence. The People's Armed Defense Group is organizing for the protection of workers from police brutality.

"It is the right of everyone to arm for defense against attack. The workers of Watts must use this right. The people can curb the brutality of the police in only one way - by defending themselves.

"The rich are a small minority. They fear the anger of the poor. They must hire 'legalized' murderers (police) to protect their weak, selfish interests. The poor are kept in 'their place' by consistant abuse and attack. 'Their place', according to the capitalist, is in the welfare offices or on jobs that barely pay enough to keep a person alive.

"The capitalist system, based on the exploitation of the many by the few, cannot resolve the problems of the poor. The rich grow and remain wealthy on your poverty. In order to keep you poor, hungry, jobless and without the basic necessities of modern life which are rightfully yours, the rich must use violence. They depend on the police to use brutality against the workers. You need not take this abuse. Police brutality can be checked if the people are armed in their own defense.

"Mayor Yorty and Police Chief Parker are representatives of the rich and administors of police brutality. They are not concerned with the democratic rights of the people. They will not protect or help you. They are paid to keep you oppressed and exploited. You cannot depend on these officials of the bourgoios state for help. The working class can only depend on themselves. Organized into self defense groups, the people can begin to protect their rights and interests. The People's Armed Defense Group can help you organize self defense groups.

At a weekly meeting of the CP, USA, M-L, held on July 29, 1966, in Los Angeles, a proposed demonstration in front of the Watts Police Department to commemorate the killing of Watts workers in August, 1965, was planned for August 11, 1966. They planned to use a truck and loudspeaker to create a disturbance.

LA T-23 (8/13/66)

Source advised that the above proposed demonstration on August 11, 1966, had not taken place and that the club had no current plans for such a demonstration.

✓ (2) PROVISIONAL ORGANIZING COMMITTEE FOR A MARXIST-LENINIST COMMUNICT PARTY (POC)(SEE APPENDIX)

LA T-21 (8/29/66)

On August 29, 1966, source furnished the following leaflet issued by the POC on the first anniversary of the Watts riot of August, 1965:

WATTS - ONE YEAR AFTER

One year has passed since the Watts uprising. In that year, the whole character of the Negro Revolution has changed. To the everlasting glory of Watts, it was here that the struggle of the working class to take the leadership of the Negro Liberation movement was completed.

In history, Watts represents a whole new level of struggle. The bitter bloody battles of Chicago, Omaha, Cleveland and New York are extensions of the process that began here. No matter what the Toms or the state may do, the imperialists concept of 'peaceful non-violent integration' was smashed forever in the streets of Watts. In this fact lies the historical significance of Watts.

Since last August, the process of political division of the people has gone on very rapidly. In the hope of destroying the peoples movement, the government has brought up hundreds of Negroes. Traitors, who a year ago were fighting the police and National Guard, have accepted the bribe and appear daily on the enemys T.V. and in the enemys press. For the cash payment of a few dollars and a political pat on the head, they join the enemy camp and praise the police and the political structure of the state. The militants turned Uncle Tom. Good riddance - honest workers have taken their places. On the other hand, the Uncle Toms who were isolated by the uprising have attempted to change hats and try to appear as militants. They fool no one. In a final effort to hold back the movement, the revisionist Communist Party of the USA openly joined the imperialists and ran candidates in the election fraud. They urged the people of Watts to vote in elections organized by the imperialists. The people of Watts had already voted in the streets - No more oppression - no more exploitation! Watts rejected the trap prepared by their enemies - the revisionist phoney Communists, the DuBois Clubs and all the political filth who urged them to 'register and vote'.

The struggle in Watts has not stopped. Hardly a week goes by but there is a violent battle in the streets against the fascist police. The poverty in Watts is a continuing fact. The 5,000 jobs boasted about by Brown and Yorty are filled by the children of Watts who slave with picks and shovels and brooms in the hot summer sun, while children in other areas spend summers at the beach and in camps. Watts has become the happy hunting ground for the most vile type of opportunists who are trying to make political hay off of the misery of the people. No one can decieve and subdue the people. We POC Communists are confident of their final victory.

This fight is fundamentally a class struggle. No force on earth can stop it. The end can come only with the workers overthrowing the ruling class and establishing Socialism in America. This is the path taken by all working classes and all oppressed peoples. By taking and converting all industry and land to use by the people and not for private profit, national oppression, poverty and war will end.

Watts represents a high point in the Negro revolution - the the movement of the worker

(3) PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY (PLP)(SEE APPENDIX)

On May 26, 1966, the following flyer issued by the PLP was distributed in front of the Los Angeles County Courthouse regarding the DEADWYLER inquest which was in progress:

"Wanted for the Murder of Leonard Deadwyler: (a member of the concentration camp) 'Bova - the - cop' (a guard in the concentration camp)

"Bova is just one cop in the police department. They must be all wiped out before there is complete freedom. South Los Angeles - Watts is one big concentration camp in which its citizens are subject to systematic extermination.

"WE MUST LEARN TO DEFEAT THE ENEMY BEFORE WE ARE ALL EXTERMINATED.

"THE MEMBERS OF THE CONCENTRATION CAMP CAN BE WIPED OUT BY HUNGER ALSO. THAT'S WHY UNEMPLOYMENT IS HIGH.

"South Los Angeles is a big industrial complex. There are factories that employ thousands right in the backyards -- (General Motors on Alameda and Goodyear on Central just to name two large ones) - of our homes.

"Black people make up 80% of the South L. A. area. Black people should make up 80% of the work force in the South L. A. Area.

"WE SHOULD BE ABLE TO WORK WHERE WE LIVE.

"The slogan should be raised:
'IF 80% OF US DON'T WORK HERE, YOU DON'T PRODUCE.'
Production can be stopped.

"Murder by cops and death by unemployment are methods of systematic extermination.

"THIS EXTERMINATION ISN'T GOING TO BE STOPPED BY GOING TO THE COURT OF THE EXTERMINATOR AS ADVISED BY SOME 'NEGRO' POLITICIANS AND PREACHERS.

"GEORGE, WASHINGTON AND THE AMERICAN REVOLUTIONARIES NEVER WENT TO KING GEORGE'S COURT FOR JUSTICE. THEY SMASHED KING GEORGE'S COURT. THE JEWS NEVER ASKED TO GO TO HITLER'S COURT.

"THE CONCENTRATION CAMP MUST DEVELOP ITS OWN COURT AND ITS OWN METHOD OF TRIAL.....

"These slogans must be raised:

'BRING PARKER, YORTY, AND BOVA TO TRIAL FOR M U R D E R - IN A COURT OF THE PEOPLE.'

'DISARM THE GUARDS IN THE CONCENTRATION CAMP'.

'IF 80% OF US DON'T WORK IN THE FACTORIES, YOU DON'T PRODUCE!!!'

"Progressive Labor Party
399-6819"

On June 1, 1966, Mr. EDWARD DREW, Chief Clerk, Federal Court, Los Angeles, furnished a copy of the following leaflet captioned, "The Need for Revolution", issued by the PLP concerning the DEADWYLER case. Mr. DREW stated he obtained this leaflet which was being distributed outside the DEADWYLER inquest on an unknown date:

"'..Shall the millions forever submit to robbery, to murder, to ignorance, and every unnamed evil which an irresponsible tyranny can devise, because the overthrow of that tyranny would be productive of horrors? We say not. The recoil, when it comes, will be in exact proportion to the wrongs inflicted; terrible as it will be, we accept and hope for it...'

"Frederick Douglass
-1856

"There are 50,000 unemployed black workers in the South Los Angeles Area. Eighty percent of the South L. A. area is black yet black people make up only some 5% of the jobs in factories right in the neighborhood like General Motors on Alameda and Goodyear on Central. Contrary to the lies preached by the capitalists and their apologists, 90% of the jobs in these factories can be done by illiterates. How much training does it take to put a wheel on a car in an assembly line or turn a bolt. The retraining program IS A FRAUD!!!

"Between 1960 and 1965 the average white family income in Los Angeles rose 14% - but the black family's income fell 8%.

"Every killing that happened at the hands of the cops during the August rebellion was ruled 'justifiable homicide.' Was it justifiable to shoot people in their apartments or anywhere?

"Why? - The cops, Yorty, Parker, Brown, and the whole lot are paid to protect the interests of the rich white imperialists. Those who own factories like GM and Goodyear. South L. A. is a big industrial complex with enough jobs for everyone in the area.

"The national guard was really sent in to protect the big industries, not the small corner stores, liquor stores, and pawn shops.

"It is these big industrialists and their spokesmen like Yorty and Brown who must be defeated.

"They can't be defeated by pleading and begging. Any nation has the right to revolution and self-determination. REVOLUTION IS NECESSARY. They must be totally replaced. Revolution means a complete overthrow of the system. NO ACCOMMODATION!! NO COMPROMISE. The community must be organized block by block. There must be a block leader for each 20 houses who organizes for defensive and offensive actions. Maps must be constructed of the whole neighborhood.

"We must not fear revolution but we must welcome it.

> '...Revolution is bloody, revolution is hostile, revolution knows no compromise, revolution over turns and destroys everything that gets in its way. And you, sitting around here like a knot on the wall, saying, I'm going to love these folks no matter how much they hate me. No, you need a revolution....'

LA T-24 (10/12/66)

On October 12, 1966, SUE DOUGLAS stated that the PLP was going to pass out literature in the Watts area of Los Angeles in the next few days concerning the recent arrest of JOHN HARRIS for cirminal syndicalism by the Los Angeles District Attorney's Office. DOUGLAS commented that if HARRIS was not freed, "We will really get a riot going." It was also mentioned that at a meeting of the Committee to Defend John Harris (CDJH) held at 1169 Mullen Avenue, on October 11, 1966, the PLP would attempt to pack the courtroom during the trial of HARRIS with PLP members and sympathizers.

LA T-25 (7/27/66) SI SI

JOHN WESLEY HARRIS, JR. and SUSAN TINA DOUGLAS, as of July 27, 1966, were both members of the Los Angeles Club, PLP.

JOHN WESLEY HARRIS was indicted by the Los Angeles County Grand Jury under the California Criminal Syndicalist Act. Mr. HARRIS was arrested at his home, 22½ Thornton Avenue, Venice, on September 20, 1966. The indictment charged that Mr. HARRIS allegedly distributed leaflets concerning LEONARD DEADWYLER during the inquest of that case.

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

A. COMMUNIST PARTY, USA (CP)

1. Plans, strategy, Party line and the like made at national meetings, including expressions by national and other functionaries.

DE T-1 advised on July 28, 1966, that a meeting of the Michigan District CP (MDCP) Executive Committee was held on July 11, 1966, at 6300 Hartford Avenue, Detroit, Michigan. At this meeting THOMAS DEWITT DENNIS, JR., gave the report concerning the recent National CP Convention which along with the accompanying discussion took up the entire time of the meeting. Among the items discussed was the "Negro question" and DENNIS reported the CP position concerning this matter. DENNIS said that "black power" means more ecomonical and political power for the Negro. It means that in the countries having a majority of Negroes, the Negroes should be the ruling people. DENNIS said this is no different than the situation now existing in countries or in cities where Polish or Italians are the majority. He said in such areas the Polish or the Italians are the ruling people. DENNIS said the CP takes the position that its rules should be integrated with the majority rules. He said that regarding the matter of the self defense, the CP position is that self defense should include white people. That is, the white people should be involved in the self defense of Negroes and then the police would not kill as many Negroes. Also, the Government should be involved in the self defense of the Negroes. DENNIS said the CP also takes the position that it should support all peace candidates.

DE T-2 advised during June, 1966, that THOMAS DEWITT DENNIS, JR., attended the 18th CP National Convention held in New York, New York, on June 22 to 26, 1966, at which he was elected to the National Committee of the CP, USA.

DE T-3 advised on June 27, 1966, DENNIS is currently the Chairman of the MDCP.

2. Plans, strategy, Party line, and the like made at District and lower level meetings, including expressions by local leaders and rank and file members.

DE T-4 advised on July 28, 1966, that on July 24, 1966, at the Armenian Hall, 12th Street and Davison in Detroit, the second part of the MDCP State Convention was held. According to the informant, HERBERT KRANSDORF furnished a report at this meeting which lasted approximately one hour and fifteen minutes. KRANSDORF described the current world situation, the escalation of the war in Vietnam and the growing threat of war throughout Asia. KRANSDORF also spoke of the emerging slogan of the oppressed Negro people, namely, "black power," and the coming Negro revolution. He said the CP's aim is to disrupt the cities and to tear down the shameful pattern which now exists. He stated the Negro people are dynamic and are moving rapidly, hence, the CP aim must be concentrated on their front. He also pointed out that the CP in Detroit must also concentrate upon the current union matters which are closely allied with the Negro.

DE T-5 advised on June 15, 1966, that HERBERT KRANSDORF is currently District Organizer of the MDCP.

DE T-6 advised on August 9, 1966, that during a meeting of the MDCP, East Detroit Club, on August 1, 1966, at 19178 Collinson, East Detroit, Michigan, CHARLES DEWEY spoke about "black power". According to DE T-6 DEWEY said "black power" is the slogan first used by STOKLEY CARMICHAEL, national leader of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), and a Negro leader of some prominence in the United States. According to DEWEY this slogan does not mean domination of Negroes over whites but means that the Negro is entitled to power as a citizen in order to obtain equal housing, decent jobs and the like and also the power to have the right to vote and select people to represent him from his own community.

DE T-6 advised on August 9, 1966, that CHARLES DEWEY is currently Chairman of the MDCP, East Detroit Club.

DE T-4 advised on August 18, 1966, that a meeting of the Auto Section, MDCP, was held at the residence of WALLACE CHRISTIE in Detroit on August 9, 1966. According to the informant, WILLIAM ALLAN reported at this meeting concerning the recent rioting by Negroes in Lansing, Michigan. ALLAN blamed everything on the John Birch Society, the "cops" and Michigan State Governor ROMNEY. ALLAN said "this is the revolution." He said that police are "brutal beasts" and there will be many other riots breaking out in Detroit. He referred to these riots as "acts of Negro self defense".

Also at this meeting according to DE T-4 CARL REINSTEIN spoke of the coming convention to be held in Grand Rapids, Michigan, by the Michigan Conference for Fair Employment Practices Commission (FEPC). He said he will have a program prepared for this convention and everyone will know this is a CP program. REINSTEIN said he will demand that more Negroes participate in the apprenticeship programs and that the United Auto Workers (UAW) should set up there own apprenticeship programs with more attention being given to the Negro. REINSTEIN said that there should be a massive break through and Negroes should be forced upon white employers and white neighborhoods. He said the reason for this program is that the CP wants to make inroads in the Negro community. According to REINSTEIN such a program will convince the Negroes that the CP is their great friend and it will also put the UAW on the spot.

DE T-7 advised on March 7, 1966, that WILLIAM ALLAN currently is a member of the Club Leadership Council, MDCP, and he is also the Michigan Correspondent for "The Worker."

"The Worker is an east coast Communist newspaper.

DE T-4 advised on December 1, 1964, that as of that date, WALLACE CHRISTIE was a CP member.

DE T-7 advised on May 27, 1965, that CARL REINSTEIN was currently attending MDCP Club Leadership Council meetings as MDCP Club Chairman or as the representative of his CP Club.

DE T-4 advised on August 15, 1966, that a meeting of the MDCP State Board was held on August 10, 1966, at 4325 Buena Vista, the home of THOMAS DEWITT DENNIS, JR. At this meeting, there was discussion regarding the recent rioting in the Detroit Negro community by WILLIAM ALLAN. According to ALLAN it was not accident that the riot started in the Negro area on the east side of Detroit. He said "our friends" worked there for a number of months and an embryonic riot did occur there last year. ALLAN spoke about this rioting for about one hour. He said the CP must put the blame for the rioting on the Detroit Police Department. He added the CP must utilize these events to there fullest and during the discussion that followed the main theme was how to utilize the rioting to the advantage of the CP. Discussion also concerned methods of blaming the police department for the rioting and at the same time telling the people that the CP is their only defender and teacher. Among decisions reached was the decision that COLEMAN YOUNG and another Negro political figure should initiate legislative investigation into this matter. It was pointed out both these individuals "are our's". It was also decided letters should be written to the newspapers on this subject condemning the police department and the role of the newspapers. It was decided that the FEPC should be brought into the picture and demand should be made that a meeting of the UAW and the FEPC be held. It was agreed that such a meeting should be easy for the CP to dominate.

DE T-8 advised on September 23, 1965, that as of that date COLEMAN YOUNG was a member of the Freedom Forum Club, MDCP.

DE T-6 advised on September 7, 1966, that during a meeting of the MDCP East Side Club held on August 17, 1966, at 19178 Collinson, East Detroit, the topic of "black power" was discussed. During the course of the meeting, according to the informant, HERBERT KRANSDORF stated he did not agree with those who feel this slogan is in error. KRANSDORF stated "we should join these people in their struggle instead of being against them." He said "black power" does not necessarily mean what the capitalist press would have one believe. He said the capitalist press always distorts things to make them sound corrupt. According to KRANSDORF, "black power" means the Negro wants to be in a position where all Negroes are allowed to vote and elect there own people to certain positions; that is, they want "political power."

DE T-4 advised on September 14, 1966, that a meeting of the MDCP State Committee was held on August 19, 1966, at 5703 Chene Street, Detroit. At this meeting the first matter discussed concerned the future policy of the CP. THOMAS DEWITT DENNIS, JR., gave a long and disjointed report wherein he stated that the CP aim is to utilize to the fullest extent the Negro revolution. He stated the Negroes are turning down all patterns of American life and the CP regards this as being good and very useful. According to DENNIS the Negro is the most dynamic of all Americans and he is doing the job which the CP should be doing. He said the Negroes dynamic ideas are very useful and this is the reason why the CP regards the civil rights movement as part of its struggle.

DE T-4 advised on Sepember 12, 1966, that as of August 30, 1966, the MDCP had established a "Negro Commission" headed by BOLZA BAXTER with THOMAS DEWITT DENNIS, JR., as one of the participating members.

DE T-4 advised on August 30, 1966, that BOLZA BAXTER is a current member of the MDCP State Committee and the Chairman of the MDCP "Negro Commission."

DE T-8 advised on September 14, 1966, that during a meeting of the Trade Union Discussion Club held on September 6, 1966, at 19971 Mark Twain, Detroit, WILLIAM ALLAN discussed "black power". ALLAN commented that it was surprising how little the CP members as individuals know about the current racial situation. He said that a forum should be held in the CP to acquaint the membership with the civil rights movement and the meaning of "black power."

DE T-4 advised on September 14, 1966, that a meeting of the MDCP State Board was held on September 7, 1966, at the residence of WILLIAM ALLAN in Detroit. At the meeting HERBERT KRANSDORF presented a long report discussing the recent Negro rioting in Detroit. KRANSDORF said some of the rioters are now coming up for trial and the CP must utilize this occasion for its own gain. KRANSDORF said there is a nationwide conspiracy on the part of the FBI, the "Birchers" and the local police to provoke such riots. He said that to make Negroes riot is the best way to discredit the Negro revolution, since by doing this, they are taking away from the Negros their gains. He said such rioting will frighten the whites and the Negroes will be branded as animals and their movement "to the left" will be arrested. KRANSDORF said the CP "line" should be that there is a conspiracy between the FBI, the John Birch Society and the police.

DE T-4 advised on September 14, 1966, that during a meeting of the Polish-Bulgarian CP Club held on September 8, 1966, at 5854 Chene, Detroit, CONRAD KOMOROWSKI spoke of the Negroes rioting. According to the informant, KOMOROWSKI took the position that these riots are so much "hogwash", and that the riots are typical police frameups and police conspiracy. He said that WILLIAM ALLAN is preparing a memo on the rioting which will then be distributed by the CP to members and friends of the CP. KRANSDORF said that "we must do a good job of that."

DE T-4 advised on March 21, 1966, that as of that date CONRAD KOMOROWSKI was a member of the Polish-Bulgarian CP Club.

DE T-4 advised on September 14, 1966, that at a meeting of the Ford CP Club, MDCP, held on September 10, 1966, at Detroit, WILLIAM ALLAN gave a report concerning the Negro riots. According to the informant, ALLAN stated that these riots were instigated by the FBI, the "Birchers" and the Detroit Police Department. He said that by instigating these riots the FBI wanted to scare the white liberals and the progressives. ALLAN said the CP must expose the role of the police and the facist FBI. ALLAN spoke of various means by which this must be accomplished, including the distribution of a special memo and also the probable establishing of a special defense committee for the victims of the rioting.

B. JOHNSON-FOREST GROUP (JFG)

1. Plans, strategy, Party line and the like made at national meetings, including expressions by national and other functionaries.

The JFG has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

DE T-9 advised on September 13, 1966, that the first session of the 1966 News and Letters Committees (NLC), JFG, Convention was held on September 3, 1966, at the Fisher Young Men's Christian Association (YMCA), Dexter and West Grand Boulevard, Detroit.

According to DE T-9 the main report at this session of the convention was given by the NLC national chairman and, in part, it concerned Marxism-Humanism versus Communism and "race and class." It was pointed out that employment is high in the United States of America at the present time but the rate of Negro unemployment is up considerably. From the President JOHNSON prior to the civil war to the present President JOHNSON, the Negro has been unpaid, uneducated and unhoused. This is because of the system of private capitalism. Even state capitalism is no better. In China, the youth gangs run rampant and in China even love making is wrong. According to the scientists by 1970 the world will have its greatest famine due to the population explosion. Even at the present time, two-thirds of the world is hungary. There are pockets of poverty and unemployment in the United States and approximately eight per cent of the unemployment is for the Negro and four per cent is for the general public.

According to the informant, further during this report it was stated that the philosophy of the ruling class has always determined the attitude of all society. The ruling class has said that the Negro and slaves are synonymous; however, this is untrue. MOSES and the Jews were slaves in Egypt, and many of the great contributors to the world's ideas were former slaves. The truth concerning the Negroes is that the Africans lost out to ELI WHITNEY's cotton gin.

Now in the world situation the Negro must maintain his status and must not turn to "black power", for this is synonymous with outside agitation and does not constitute self determination.

According to DE T-9 on September 19, 1966, the second session of the NLC National Convention was held at the Fisher YMCA in Detroit, on September 4, 1966. According to this informant, during the second session of this convention discussion concerned "organization" and "who we are and what we stand for." During the course of the ensuing discussion, it was stated that the NLC must organized the unorganized in the ghettoes of their cities, and the rank and file must get out and speak to the people.

The civil rights movement is a mass movement and its momentum carries everyone with it. It was stated "we must win others or else it is not mass movement."

2. Plans, strategy, Party line and the like made at District and lower level meetings, including expressions by local leaders and rank and file members.

DE T-9 advised on August 1, 1966, that a meeting of the local NLC Club was held on July 29, 1966, at 8751 Grand River, Detroit. According to DE T-9 those present at this meeting talked on the current issues advocated by STOKLEY CARMICHAEL and others in the civil rights movement that advocate "black power." Some of the individuals present were assigned to distribute NLC literature at a coming rally to be held in Detroit, which would feature CARMICHAEL as the main speaker. It was also stated during the meeting "we have seen the struggles for freedom as the civil rights movement gained momentum in 1963 with the events in Birmingham, Alabama, in 1964 with the Mississippi freedom summer projects and then during the GOLDWATER for president campaign." Comments followed concerning ensuing events and mention was then made of the "Negro revolution" which gained new momentum during 1966 with the Mississippi march and the invention of the slogan "black power." It was stated that the NLC needs a method for following these ever changing philosophies. It was stated that "growth is necessary" and "all of us have to contribute to the Movement because we are Marxists-Humanists. All of their writings have advanced our philosophies. Now we need to preach more than practice. It is easy to work in the Civil Rights Movement but now we need to recruit for ourselves."

✓ A characterization of the NLC is contained in the appendix attached hereto.

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

No information developed.

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

INTER-UNIVERSITY COMMITTEE FOR DEBATE ON FOREIGN POLICY (IUCDFP)

DE T-4 advised on September 22, 1966, that a meeting of the MDCP State Board was held at the residence of HERBERT KRANSDORF in Detroit, on September 14, 1966. At this meeting THOMAS DEWITT DENNIS, JR., furnished a report regarding his participation at a National Conference of peace organizations known as the National Leadership Conference sponsored by the IUCDFP, which was held on the campus of the Western Reserve University, Cleveland, Ohio, September 10 to 11, 1966. DENNIS reported that he and two other CP functionaries were delegates to this conference. He said the meeting was organized on a "non-exclusion" basis which meant that all organizations which declared themselves for peace were able to participate. DENNIS said the organizers of this affair were very happy to have CP organizers present. They were afforded every courtesy and consideration. He said that during the conference plans for the coming year's activities, including peace marches were discussed, and new officers were elected. DENNIS reported that the main activities, insofar as the CP is concerned, concerns the peace movement, and also the Thanksgiving and Christmas seasons to come.

According to DE T-10 on October 21, 1966, the IUCDFP is a national Vietnam protest organization aimed at altering United States foreign policy through activity of the academic community and intellects, nationally and to some degree internationally. The organization since its founding in 1965 was originated and has been headquartered at Ann Arbor, Michigan, its initiators having been associates with the faculty of the University of Michigan (U of M), Ann Arbor, Michigan. Its 1965 Secretary was publicly identified as Professor ANATOL RAPOPORT, U of M.

DE T-11 advised on September 12, 1966, that a National Leadership Conference called by the IUCDFP was held in the Hatch Auditorium of Baker Hall at Western Reserve University (WRU), Cleveland, on September 10 to 11, 1966. The purpose of the conference was to bring about a national unification of anti-war and civil rights groups and to decide when the next national protests against the War in Vietnam would take place. The source stated that approximately 70 persons were in attendance when the conference began on the morning of September 10, 1966, and an estimated 150 were present for the final session on the afternoon of September 11, 1966. The source stated that representatives of various organizations throughout the country were present and a total of 137 persons registered for the conference.

DE T-12 advised during April, 1966 that ANATOL RAPOPORT is employed on the faculty of the U of M, Ann Arbor, and was listed as a faculty sponsor to the U of M campus chapter of the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) on the founding of that organization at the U of M as a campus chapter in April, 1966.

A characterization of the DCA appears in the appendix hereto.

ANATOL RAPOPORT was interviewed by Special Agents of the FBI at Ann Arbor, on January 30 and January 31, 1958, at which time he stated that he joined the CP cell at the University of Chicago, Illinois, in November, 1938, while a student there. He continued as a CP member until December, 1941, when on entering the United States Army, he left the CP. He stated that he has had no further organizational connection or conscious association of any kind with the CP since that date.

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

A. Communist Party, USA

No information developed.

B. Other Communist Groups - Socialist Workers Party

The Socialist Workers Party has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

A characterization of the Denver Branch, Socialist Workers Party (DBSWP), appears as an appendix hereto.

Plans, etc., made at district and lower-level meetings, including expressions by local leaders.

On September 19, 1966, BILL CROSBY, Organizer, DBSWP, made available the text of his report on "Tasks and Perspectives, Part II, National Historic Context." Denver Branch Socialist Workers Party

"Civil Rights. The most significant development within the civil rights has been threefold:

"1. The appearance of violence in the ghetto and increasing advocacy of violence in defiance of civil rights.

"2. Movement for independent black political action -- Black Power. and its potential as an ally for our socialist transitional program.

"3. Widespread influence for the ideology of Malcolm X and its evolution encompassing the colonial revolution and growing sympathy for socialism. In addition, the more militant civil rights sectors and the ghetto disdain support of the war. This at least shows a rational self-interest which is consistent with the interest of the working class as a whole. However there is not much organized protest. The Administration continues in its efforts to buy off the black leadership through various war on poverty programs. Since the death of Malcolm X there has been no one to fill his shoes as a revolutionary leader and anti-capitalist spokesman. The Watts riots indicated the latent power in the ghetto, and also indicated the lack of revolutionary leadership. Certainly the conscious emphasis placed on the relationship between the negro struggle in the United States and the Colonial Revolution is now lacking since the death of Malcolm X. The participation of civil rights activists in the anti-war movement is to be strongly encouraged wherever possible."

BILL CROSBY's report released September 19, 1966, entitled "Tasks and Perspectives, Part III, Local Context," contains the following:

"The most exploited sections of the working class generally which include negro and minority segments of both employed and unemployed should bear our closeset scrutiny. We must seize any opportunity to sink our roots solidly within the working class in order to be ready and able to steer when the working class begins to move. We should reflect at this point the role that the YSA can play in this area.

"Civil Rights - The civil rights movement in Denver is still unformed and in its embryonic stage. We should watch for stir ings in the black mass consciousness and continue our dialogue with its black leaders. It may be that the Black Power slogan will have an awakening effect. We should give assistance in the development of its young black intellectuals. The potential of black independent political action must be remembered.

We should also recognize that civil rights activity in Denver at present is in a state of quiescence. The activities are in the main artificially induced by the SNCC leader. Our participation should be one of disciplined assistance. Because of our numbers we should throw our weight in the areas that promise the most return for our efforts. Developing our relationship with (the most conscious) black leaders seems to be the best qualitative step we can take in the civil rights movement in Denver. General propaganda and education through forums and group discussion can supplement individual contact with mass work."

A characterization of YSA (Young Socialist Alliance) appears as an appendix hereto.

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

A. Denver Friends of SNCC Meeting, August 5, 1966

The Denver Friends of SNCC (Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee) held a meeting August 5, 1966, at the Mount Gerard Church, East 39th and Grape Street, Denver, Colorado. Reverend CLIFTON WHITLEY of Mississippi was the principal speaker. WHITLEY stated that he was the representative of the Democratic Freedom Party in Mississippi. He spoke on "Black Power." He stated that black power in his county in Mississippi is just exactly what they want and what it should be as the Negro population is about 75 per cent and the Negro is the majority. WHITLEY spoke of the different actions taken to boycott the stores in Mississippi and stated that at times it is necessary to force people not to shop at the stores by taking their shopping bags away from them.

WHITLEY spoke about the importance of unity between the Hispano and Negro groups in Denver. He spoke about the war in Vietnam and stated that it was in the interest of the Negro people and other minority people to support this war in Vietnam.

Approximately fourteen individuals attended this meeting, including Communist Party (CP) member NELLE GARCIA and DBSWP members NORMAN HODGETT and DENNIS ATKINS.

B. International Days of Protest Rally, Denver, Colorado, August 6, 1966

The Denver Stop the War Committee sponsored a march and rally in Denver on August 6, 1966, opposing United States policy in Vietnam. Two of the scheduled speakers were identified as LAUREN WATSON, described as a civil rights leader, and CLIFTON WHITLEY, Jr., described as a candidate for the United

International Days of Protest Rally

States Senate on the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party ticket. COLO
MARY WALTER, chairman of the committee, began the rally at the State Capitol at approximately 3:00 P.M. She reported that the chairman of the meeting would be attorney EUGENE DEIKMAN.

HAROLD PAGE MARTIN testified on May 17, 1956, for the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA), Denver, that he was a former member of the CP and that while he was a member of the CP, EUGENE DEIKMAN was also a member of the CP at Boulder, Colorado.

On May 18, 1956, EUGENE DEIKMAN appeared before the HCUA in response to a subpoena and when asked if he was a member of the CP, invoked the Fifth, Sixth, Ninth and Tenth Amendments.

DEIKMAN introduced LAUREN WATSON who read from a prepared text and the essence of his address was that he opposed the war in Vietnam on the basis that the "white power" structure of the United States was using Negroes of the United States to fight "their brothers" in Vietnam. WATSON stated that, "The white power structure has trained Negroes in how to use guns and to kill in Vietnam. When they come back to the United States, watch out, WHITEY."

DEIKMAN introduced Reverend CLIFTON WHITLEY who stated that he was opposed to the war in Vietnam because it was illegal. He stated that Negroes in Mississippi were being drafted by draft boards that contained no members of the Negro race. WHITLEY further stated that he felt he had a chance for candidacy to the Senate if the Negro people would be allowed to register and vote.

Re: Stop the War Committee

As of August, 1966, the Denver "Stop the War Committee" had been holding meetings in Denver and sponsoring demonstrations in Denver protesting

United States policy in Vietnam. This committee is an ad-hoc-type committee utilized to lend a sponsor name to demonstrations. MARY WALTER is chairman of the committee and various members of the DBSWP are generally the guiding figures in all Vietnam demonstrations.

Re: ROBERTA DE LUXE

COLD

At 12:20 P.M., on January 6, 1966, a group of individuals, who had been escorted to the reception room of the Denver Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation by a General Services Administration (GSA) building guard, were met by the Special Agent in Charge (SAC) and Assistant Special Agent in Charge of the Denver FBI Office. The Denver FBI Office is located in the New Federal Building. This meeting took place in the reception room since the group refused an invitation by the SAC to meet in his office.

Included in the group was ROBERTA DE LUXE. A spokesman for the group identified it as representing the Denver Area Friends of SNCC. The spokesman said the group was protesting the recent slaying of SAMUEL YOUNGE, a Negro civil rights worker in Tuskegee, Alabama.

The group was told by the SAC that the FBI is an investigative agency which gives immediate, thorough attention to investigative matters within its jurisdiction, but it is not a protective agency and, consequently, does not have authority to furnish protection to anyone.

After the spokesman for the group had stated the purpose of the group's visit and after the SAC had explained the responsibilities of the FBI, the group was asked whether they had any additional business to transact. When they indicated they did not, they were requested to leave the reception room. Several members of the group did leave. Six individuals, however, refused to leave and began a sit-in. Consequently, they were escorted from the reception room and out of the New Federal Building by representatives of the U. S. Marshal's office and GSA guard personnel.

When the six individuals, including DE LUXE, reentered the New Federal Building on January 6, 1966, they were arrested by representatives of the Denver Police Department on a local charge of disturbance. An additional charge of resisting an officer was subsequently lodged against ROBERTA DE LUXE, who threatened a city jail guard with a knitting needle at the time she was being booked at the Denver City Jail on January 6, 1966.

The six individuals were subsequently tried in Denver County Court and on May 4, 1966, the jury found each of them guilty of the disturbance charge. On May 6, 1966, the judge fined each of the six $100.00. DE LUXE was acquitted of the resistance charge.

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

A. Denver Area Friends of SNCC and January 6th Committee for Constitutional Rights

The Denver Area Friends of SNCC is controlled by its chairman, Mrs. JAN PHILLIPS. There are no other officers and membership, just a mailing list. Neither the CP nor the DBSWP dominates or controls the Denver Area Friends of SNCC.

DN T-2 9/21/66

A meeting of the Denver Area Friends of SNCC was held at the residence of BILL CROSBY, Organizer, DBSWP, on June 9, 1966. This meeting called itself the January 6th Committee for Constitutional Rights. This new committee was organized within the Denver Area Friends of SNCC to give support to the defense of the six individuals arrested and charged with disturbance January 6, 1966, and who were subsequently sentenced on May 4, 1966. The chairman of this specific meeting held June 9, 1966, was HARRY KAUFMAN NIER, Jr. NIER was one of the defense attorneys for the ~~six individuals~~. NIER was chairman of the former Denver Chapter, FPCC. In addition to CROSBY, three other members of the DBSWP were in attendance at this meeting, at which time it was decided to ask people for direct contributions.

Dr. PHILIP W. PERDEW issued a mimeographed leaflet dated June 10, 1966, appealing for contributions for the January 6th Committee for Constitutional Rights. DN T-1 6/15/66

On August 5, 1966, Dr. PHILIP W. PERDEW furnished a financial statement concerning funds raised by the January 6th Committee for Constitutional Rights. In this report he announced that $845.45 had been raised from contributions and other methods. He reported that the money had been used for purchase of a transcript of the trial and other trials. He reported that the amount left over would be used as the case progressed into higher court. In view of the success of the solicitation for funds there was no further need for the continuation of the January 6th Committee for Constitutional Rights.

A review of the records at the Immigration and Naturalization Service, 20 West Broadway, New York City, on August 15, 1966, reflected that VERNON CRUTCHFIELD, [redacted] a United States citizen, having Passport Number [redacted] departed John F. Kennedy International Airport, Queens, New York, on June 1, 1966, en route to Paris, France, via Pan American Airlines, Flight Number 118.

As of July 30, 1966, VERNON CRUTCHFIELD, a field representative of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), was the only SNCC representative assigned to the Crittenden County, Arkansas, area. CRUTCHFIELD continues to maintain his residence in North Little Rock, Arkansas, and does not stay any length of time in Crittenden County. CRUTCHFIELD advised that he and other unknown representatives of SNCC had made an all-expense-paid trip to Russia. CRUTCHFIELD claimed that, while in Russia, he had been offered a free scholarship to attend a Russian school. CRUTCHFIELD's only comment as to what they did in Russia was that they "just looked around." CRUTCHFIELD did not elaborate on what kind of school he was offered a scholarship to attend in Russia.

LR T-2, 9/14/66

VERNON CRUTCHFIELD is no longer connected with the SNCC. He is reported to have left the State of Arkansas, and it is rumored that he may have gone to Mexico.

[redacted] one of them handed him a newspaper, asked him to read it, and told him he could get a copy of it for him every two weeks if he wanted it. The paper left by this individual is described as the "Vietnam Courier," Issue Number 69, dated July 28, 1966, self-described as an information weekly published at 46 Tran Hung Dao Street, Hanoi. There are only two paid SNCC field workers in the entire State of Arkansas and one of these individuals is ROBERT CABLETON who is located at Gould, Arkansas.

On August 19, 1966, an enlarged CP South Central Section meeting was held at Seattle, Washington. The principle business was to hear reports on the National CP Convention held at New York City in June of 1966. Among those speaking was HILDUR JO HUGHES, who paid her own way and attended the national convention as an alternate delegate. She stated it is "Our job to bring class consciousness to the front; to organize the unorganized; and work for Negro - white unity." She added there should be a less patronizing air of white toward Negro comrades.

SE T-1 (9/20/66)

HILDUR JO HUGHES distributed to those present at the above meeting a document containing information emanating from the CP National Office captioned "The Primaries: A Political Change". Portions of this document were reproduced and a copy is attached.

THE PRIMARIES: A POLITICAL CHANGE

A limited analysis of the recent primaries shows a new stage in the political thinking and actions of the people in all parts of the country as demonstrated by the election victories and high votes for peace and freedom candidates. This is of such magnitude and importance that w e – together with all other peace advocates and participants in the Negro freedom movement must reexamine our assessments and activities so that greater results are achieved in November as the groundwork is laid for more decisive victories in 1968.

The victories of Negro candidates and the new role of the Negro voter in Alabama, Georgia, Texas, North Carolina and throughout the South – and in all parts of the country is quickly creating a new political situation. This is indicated by the election of a Negro sheriff in Alabama and the defeat of Congressman Howard Smith and the Byrd machine in Virginia, by the election of a Negro woman lawyer to the State Senate of Texas, and the re-election of Julian Bond in Georgia, and the role of the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party. The fact that 54 Negro candidates entered the Alabama primaries, that 24 came through the peimaries, and that 200,000 Negroes voted out of 235,000 registered indicates the mass character of the voting campaign in defiance of the White Citizens Council and KKK terror and violence, and of every form of intimidation. The election of Negro candidates to state legislatures in the South – and in increasing numbers in the North and West is part of the picture. The Julian Bond election and campaign is an important mass event which combines the Negro Freedom with the struggle for Peace and an end to the war in Vietnam.

(2) Plans, et cetera, made at District and lower level meetings, including expressions by local leaders and rank-and-file members.

On August 17, 1966, a meeting of the North Central CP Section membership was held at 6717 Sycamore Northwest, Seattle, Washington. Among those present was CHUCK LEGG, a CP member, who stated in effect some Negroes favor smashing the existing unions and then re-building them. LEGG said he believes it is necessary to teach labor history to Negroes and to teach Negro history to labor.

SE T-3 (8/31/66)

Another source at the above-mentioned meeting reported JO HUGHES, a CP member, stated she had confidence a mass Party can be built and recruiting can take place among the Negro people, trade unions, and the like.

SE T-4 (9/12/66)

On August 19, 1966, at a meeting of the South Central CP Section, held at LONNIE HEALEY's home, [redacted] HEALEY reported on her trip to New York to attend the National CP Convention. In addition to her comments on the convention, she said she had been invited to attend a tribal meeting of the Yakima Indians on August 20 and 21, 1966. b6 b7C

SE T-2 (8/26/66)
SE T-5 (8/26/66)

On September 13, 1966, a meeting of the White Center CP Club was held in Seattle. In attendance was CP member LONNIE HEALY, who stated she had received an invitation to attend the Northwest Conference of Northwest Indian Tribes and Supporting Non-Indian Organizations, scheduled to be held at Yakima, Washington, during the latter part of September, 1966.

SE T-6 (9/15/66)

With regard to CP clubs outside the immediate Seattle area, a joint meeting of the Downtown and Trade Union CP Clubs, of Tacoma, Washington, was held in that city on June 8, 1966. MARY SUTHERLAND, CP member and wife of MILFORD SUTHERLAND, who is the Northwest District CP (NWDCP) Organizational Secretary, stated the peace groups should see to the linking of themselves to the struggle of the working class, the trade union movement, and the Negro movement. CP member NORMA RADER said that she was in favor of a six-months plan of hard work, especially in the Negro ghetto areas. She proposed finding the areas having the most unemployed Negroes and the areas most suitable for the recruiting of Negroes into the CP.

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

No information developed.

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

A. Du Bois Clubs of America (DCA)

The DCA are characterized in the Appendix Section.

On July 10, 1966, CP members PATTI RABBITT and MARION "HONEYBEE" WHEELER, were present at a meeting of the King County CP Youth Club (KCYC) at Seattle. They both talked regarding their attendance recently at the National Conventions of the DCA and of the CP. They stated the main topic discussed at the DCA Convention was the concept of "black power". It was decided white people should work with whites in the white communities and black people in the black communities. This is because people can best communicate with people of a somewhat common background. A white person has difficulty communicating with a black person because he really does not understand the racial problem.

SE T-9 (8/5/66)

At a meeting of the Sno-King CP Club held in Seattle July 27, 1966, CP members HENRY HUFF and WILL PARRY spoke of the problem of keeping the Negro-White membership in the DCA at the proportion of 50%. They stated the head of the organization nationally is a Watts man and another officer is from a militant Chicago group. Both stressed the Party is with the Negro all the way. In a discussion of "black power" HUFF quoted GUS HALL's statement of about seven years ago to the effect that whereever there is a majority of Negroes, they should be the governing power; and the CP will back them up all the way. PARRY added even when there is a minority, "We will try to get them into power".

SE T-10 (8/10/66)

Another source reported further concerning the above meeting and said PARRY stated the Negroes have joined the DCA in such large numbers, that they far outnumber the whites.

SE T-11 (8/10/66)

On August 23, 1966, a meeting of the Sno-King CP Club was held in Seattle. Among the CP members present was HELEN "DOOD" HUFF, CP member, who commented on the last CP Section meeting she went to, which was attended by several CP youth representatives who were present to report on the activities of the DCA and the Young Political Explorer's League (YPEL). She said in the Seattle area the YPEL has a Negro majority in its membership, whereas the DCA has a Negro minority.

SE T-3 (8/23/66)

The YPEL is characterized in the Appendix Section.

B. National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP)

The August, 1966, issue of the "NAACP Tacoma Branch Newsletter", Tacoma, Washington, carried an item concerning the DCA at Tacoma. The source of the material in the item is not known. Reproduction of portions of this "Newsletter" is attached.

TACOMA BRANCH NEWSLETTER

BEWARE OF W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUB

It has come to our attention that some people are trying to organize Negro youth into a W.E.B. DuBois Club here in Tacoma. They are attempting to organize around issues that involve civil rights. It is the responsibility of our Branch and every Branch member to warn every young person that the W.E.B. DuBois clubs have been found to be under the control of the Communist Party. The DuBois clubs are on the Attorney General's list of subversive organizations dedicated to the overthrow of the United States Government by unconstitutional means.

W.E.B. DuBois was a founder of the NAACP and one of the greatest Negro Americans. The use of his name cannot hide the fact of a communist front organization. Our Branch must warn and urge young people not to become involved in the DuBois clubs.

-1- SEATTLE CHAPTER AT LARGE -
W. E. B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA (DCA)

A source advised that on October 26 - 27, 1963, a conference of CP members, including national CP functionaries, was held in Chicago, Illinois, to set in motion forces for the establishment of a new national Marxist-oriented youth organization which would hunt for the most peaceful transition to socialism. These members were told that it would be reasonable to assume that young socialists attracted into this new organization would eventually pass into the CP

A second source advised the founding convention for the new youth organization was held on June 19 - 21, 1964, at San Francisco, California, at which time the name "W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA" (DCA) was adopted. Approximately five hundred delegates from various parts of the United States attended this convention.

A third source advised in June, 1964, that KAE NORTON, MICHAEL RUBICZ, CAROLYN BURDICK, J. C. BURDICK, and STEPHEN RUBICZ, who were members of the King County CP Youth Club in Seattle, Washington, at that time, attended the above founding convention. A fourth source advised in January, 1965, that at a meeting of the King County CP Youth Club held in Seattle on December 16, 1964, it was decided conditions were different in Seattle than elsewhere and it would take some time before a DCA club would be formed in Seattle,

A fifth source furnished a copy of a report of the State Board of the Northwest District, CPUSA, entitled "Perspectives For The Work Of The Party For The Coming Year", prepared for discussion at the October, 1965, meeting of the District Committee, Northwest District, CPUSA. This document contained a section entitled "For A Breakthrough To A New Level Of Statewide Youth Activity" which stated a CP youth commission should be re-constituted and among its work, "it should assure the formation of Du Bois Clubs in the major cities."

A sixth source furnished in June, 1966, a document in the form of a "call for a Washington State DuBois Club Organizing Conference" on June 4, 1966, which stated "We are calling this conference because we feel it is important that Du Bois Clubs be formed in Washington (State) this summer". This sixth source stated this organizing conference was held in Seattle on June 4, 1966, and the chapter was formed and named "Seattle Chapter At Large of W. E.B. DU BOIS Clubs of America". A total membership of five persons was registered including MICHAEL RUBICZ, PATRICIA RABBITT and MARION WHEELER. MARION WHEELER acted as Chairman of this conference and MICHAEL

APPENDIX

RUBICZ and PATRICIA RABBITT were chosen as Temporary Chairman and Treasurer, respectively, of this chapter. During this organizing conference, the DCA was described as a multi-purpose organization to deal with problems of civil rights, peace, and freedom. The Seattle Chapter will concentrate on school integration activities in the Seattle area. This source stated that the Seattle Chapter has no headquarters or an official publication and no formal membership dues have been established although membership registration fees of one dollar per person per year were initiated by the Seattle Chapter.

The sixth source also advised that a meeting of the Seattle Chapter At Large of DCA was held in Seattle on June 8, 1966, at which plans were discussed for the possiblity of sending delegates from this DCA Chapter to the national convention of the DCA being held in Chicago, Illinois, on June 17 - 19, 1966.

On June 1, 1966, the fifth source advised that MICHAEL RUBICZ, PATRICIA RABBITT, MARION WHEELER, were in attendance at the Northwest District CPUSA, convention held in Seattle on May 28 - 30, 1966, and were selected as delegates from that district to the National CP convention in June, 1966.

YOUNG POLITICAL EXPLORERS LEAGUE (YPEL)

A source stated REE ANN HALONEN, daughter of OIVA HALONEN, who was then the Chairman of the Communist Party's Industrial Section at Seattle, had said on July 29, 1957, that the youth group in Seattle was considering adoption of the name Young Political Explorers.

A second source advised a meeting of the Communist Party (CP) Downtown Club in Seattle was held on October 30, 1958. WANDA HUBBARD, CP member, stated she was the youth director of the Young Political Explorers. She stated there were two groups in Washington, and the Seattle group had fifteen active members. The age limits were from twelve to twenty years of age. The purpose of the group was to examine all political ideas, including socialism.

A third source also reported on the CP Downtown Club meeting on October 30, 1958. WANDA HUBBARD stated the youths had chosen the name of Young Political Explorers, which is a statewide CP organization and was formerly known as the Labor Youth League. HUBBARD stated it is directly supported and directed by the CP.

The Labor Youth League has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

A fourth source advised MARY SUTHERLAND, Youth Director of the Northwest District of the CP, stated on May 17, 1961, that she was handling two youth groups, one of which was the teenage youth group.

The fourth source advised on March 14, 1966, the Young Political Explorers League continues in existence in the Seattle area and is under the guidance and leadership of MARY SUTHERLAND.

A. Communist Party (CP)

In early July, 1966, HERSHEL J. WALKER, Chairman, Missouri District CP, asserted the CP has achieved some success in getting civil rights groups to include peace in Vietnam as part of the fight for Negro freedom. He further said the next step will be to get the various peace groups to include the civil rights fight as part of their programs for peace. WALKER commented this will be a much more difficult step, adding that he has commenced to work in this direction in St. Louis within a local peace group.

(SL T-1 July 18, 1966)

At a meeting of the State Committee, CP, July 10, 1966, plans were made to schedule the second phase of a CP State Convention later in the month. The first phase of the convention had been held in early June, 1966, at St. Louis, Missouri. WALKER said there must be a discussion of "masswork", that is, how CP members can become involved in outside organizations and influence their activities. He said there should be a detailed discussion on how organizations directed towards civil rights and peace can be united. WALKER observed it is very important that the CP have members in mass organizations who are in a position to influence decisions made when important issues arise. He pointed out that had there been enough CP members active in the civil rights movements to give direction, the phrase "black power" would never have been coined. However, the CP on a national basis was not sufficiently entrenched in the civil rights movement and the phrase "black power" is now a reality. WALKER said this matter was discussed at the National CP Convention in late June, 1966, and it was agreed this is undesirable. In view of its wide-spread use, the CP, however, cannot isolate itself by continued opposition and the best thing to do is use it properly. WALKER further said that the young people at the National CP Convention were inclined to approve this phrase because they feel it will move more Negroes and arouse pride in themselves. However, most of the people at the convention disagreed because they realize the phrase may be used for improper purposes and not to further interest in the civil rights movements.

The State Committee discussed various facets of this problem and finally agreed the phrase should be used to express the necessity for the Negro to register and vote and thereby use "black power" to elect desirable candidates for public office. It was further agreed that CP members should explain the correct meaning of "black power" so it is not used incorrectly.

(SL T-2 July 14, 1966)

At the State CP Convention, July 24, 1966, there was a preliminary discussion of a proposed outline for action by the local CP organization. LORETTA WAKMAN, veteran CP member, urged that steps be taken to promote educational integration. She complained that integration is not complete in the St. Louis school system; that busing has failed and new schools are only being built in Negro neighborhoods. She said the CP should call for the establishment of huge campus-style educational complexes which would afford a high level of educational opportunity. This would also serve as a method of fully integrating Negro and white youths.

(SL T-3 August 5, 1966)

In mid-August, 1966, HERSHEL J. WALKER asserted he has been very busy with a local "peace group", trying to find out how key individuals feel about connecting the peace movement with the fight for civil rights.

(SL T-1 August 31, 1966)

A meeting of The St. Louis Citizens for Peace in Vietnam (SLCPV) met on August 20, 1966. A small group of individuals were present, including HERSHEL J. WALKER and another CP member. The purpose of the meeting was to search for ideas which would forcefully bring to the consciences of people the urgency of stopping the War in Vietnam and concentrate on developing better housing for the masses. There was some discussion of conducting daily picket lines in the St. Louis area with the participants wearing black. No specific conclusions were reached at this meeting.

SLCPV is an organization composed of individuals from various groups in the St. Louis, Missouri, area, who have banded together to work for peace in Vietnam.

(SL T-4 August 22, 1966)

At a CP meeting on September 11, 1966, HERSHEL J. WALKER complained that "nothing much" is being done in the interests of peace in the St. Louis area at the present time. He said unless there is some drastic change it does not appear there will be any action in the near future. He then observed until the peace movement is merged with the civil rights movement it will make little progress in the Negro community.

(SL T-5 September 13, 1966)

CP members have complained that WALKER is spending too much time in the peace movement and neglecting his CP duties as Chairman of the Missouri District.

(SL T-6 September 12, 1966)

A new program is being drafted for action by the local CP organization. It calls for accelerated activity by CP members in Negro organizations.

(SL T-7 September 27, 1966)

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

A. Socialist Workers Party

RICHARD K. CLARKE, Organizer, St. Louis Branch, Socialist Workers Party (SWP), mailed out invitations to a speech by FRANZ J. T. LEE at Trinity Evangelical Church, Educational Building, Sunday, September 18, 1966. The church is located at 600 North Euclid Avenue. CLARKE addressed these communications on letterhead of the "Alexander Defense Committee", which also includes the statement "aiding victims of oppression in South Africa". Headquarters are at 873 Broadway, New York, New York. The invitation by CLARKE asserted that LEE spoke at the United Nations "before the Special Committee on Apartheid".

CLARKE enclosed a biography of LEE which states he was born of poor colored parents in Africa in 1938 and participated at Cape Town in the "liberation movement". In 1961 he joined a newly formed "African Peoples Democratic Union of Southern Africa", described as "a political party committed to a program of full democratic rights for all citizens and radical land reform". The brochure further says that LEE became acquainted with Dr. NEVILLE ALEXANDER and the ten other young men and women who were later sentenced along with Dr. ALEXANDER to prison terms ranging from five to ten years for their opposition to Apartheid. In 1963, LEE traveled to West Germany, where he organized "the Alexander Defense Committee" and became its Executive Secretary. The brochure fruther states that in 1965 LEE became European Representative of the "African Peoples Democratic Union of Southern Africa" and is currently studying at the University of Frankfurt. He has lectured before audiences in Germany, France, Greece and England. This brochure is issued by the Alexander Defense Committee, 873 Broadway, New York, New York.

(SL T-8 September 14, 1966)

At a meeting of the St. Louis Branch, SWP, during August, 1966, CLARKE distributed biographical sketches of FRANZ J. T. LEE to other members and said he planned to have a public meeting in St. Louis which would feature LEE as a speaker. He further said he was working with a certain group in St. Louis interested in South African affairs and he hoped to have them assist in sponsoring the meeting.

(SL T-8 August 24, 1966)

The meeting featuring LEE as principal speaker was held as scheduled, September 18, 1966. Approximately 100 persons attended, most of whom were from the "St. Louis Committee on Africa". Many of those present appeared to be students. LEE spoke against Apartheid.

(SL T-8 September 21, 1966)

The St. Louis Branch, SWP, is characterized in the attached appendix.

JOSEPH R. DI SANTI, in July, 1963, was a member of the Utah State Board of the CP of Utah.

(SU T-2)

In the latter part of August, 1966, DI SANTI contacted [redacted] Salt Lake City, Utah, in order to determine whether a loan for his son-in-law had been approved. He was advised that the loan had been approved and a check would be delivered to DI SANTI.

(SU T-1, 9/1/66)

On September 14, 1966, DI SANTI made inquiry of a member of the NAACP, Salt Lake City, with respect to a NAACP picnic which was to be held in Liberty Park, Salt Lake City, September 15, 1966.

(SU T-1, 9/19/66) b7D

The Salt Lake City Branch of the NAACP held a picnic in Liberty Park, Salt Lake City, on the evening of September 15, 1966. Among those present were MARCUS PARR, ROBERT ARCHULETA and JOSEPH R. DI SANTI.

(SU T-4, 9/20/66)
(SU T-3, 9/21/66)

In July, 1963, ROBERT ARCHULETA was the secretary-treasurer of the CP of Utah, and at the same time, MARCUS PARR was a member of the Utah State Board of the CP of Utah.

(SU T-2)

In the latter part of September, 1966, DI SANTI contacted [redacted] in order to make inquiry with respect to withdrawing some of his money.

(SU T-1, 10/7/66)

There are now about 375 members of the Salt Lake City, Utah, Branch of the NAACP. The principal interest of the branch continues to be to cause the acceptance of Negroes in all areas of the State of Utah for housing purposes. There have been no demonstrations by this group during the past three months and none are presently planned. It is anticipated, however, that demonstrations will be used by the NAACP in Salt Lake City during the coming session of the Utah State Legislature beginning in January, 1967, in the event it appears that the legislature will not easily pass a law pertaining to open housing for Negroes and other minorities. These demonstrations will be given consideration in spite of the fact that the NAACP in Salt Lake City has during the recent past avoided the use of demonstrations because of the bad name that demonstrations have received as a result of the anti-Vietnam demonstrations in the United States.

The office of the NAACP in Salt Lake City continues to be aware of the dangers of communism to the civil rights movement although there has been no specific mention of this danger during the past three months. No specific steps have been taken by the organization to challenge members who might be suspected of being CP members.

Mrs. MIGNON RICHMOND, [redacted] continues to be the acting president but new elections will be held in the near future. She is well aware that communists have in the past tried to use the NAACP. It is not considered that any suspected members of the CP in Utah are at the present time in a position to materially influence the activities of the NAACP in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Among the current members of the NAACP, Salt Lake City, are the following:

ROBERT ARCHULETA, [redacted]
Membership expires September 30, 1967;

Members of CP of Northern California Negro Commission held meetings in August 1966 on black nationalism to influence people in minority, civil rights and political groups. The PLP on 9/28/66 demonstrated in San Francisco against use of National Guard to quell San Francisco racial riots. Meetings of the Committee for Lowndes County held in Berkeley, California, to raise funds and give assistance to Lowndes County in their racial problems, this committee being controlled by SWP and YSA members. CP strategy and proposed plan of action during San Francisco racial riots of 9/27-29/66 set out. CP member is chairman of SACCORE.

2. Plans, strategy, Party line and the like made at national meetings, including expressions by national leaders and other functionaries

A meeting of the CP was held at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, on July 24, 1966. At this meeting ROSCOE PROCTOR, a member of the National Committee of the CP, USA, gave a report on the National Convention of the CP, USA, to CP members in the Northern District CP of California. PROCTOR reported on the program of the CP concerning minorities, civil rights, and the Negro question. PROCTOR reported that the CP favors self-defense by Negroes when attacked. He also reported that the Negroes must have an alliance with labor. He also stated that there must be "racism" not only in the normal day-to-day living but also within the CP. He reported that years ago "we used the term" white chauvinism but now the term is "racism." PROCTOR stated Negroes must build a political power bloc if further advances are to be made for the Negro people.

SF T-2, August 10, 1966

2. Plans, strategy, Party line and the like made at district and lower level meetings including expressions by local leaders and rank and file members

A meeting of the East Bay CP Industrial Club was held at 2718 Alcatraz Avenue, Berkeley, California, on June 27, 1966. At this meeting there were present two members from the youth club of the CP of Northern California, namely, PERRY CARVER and PHIL DAVIS. The chairman of this meeting was LLOYD VANDEVER who stated that the primary subject for discussion was a report from the two members of the youth club who were members of the Iron Workers Union. VANDEIVER called upon PERRY CARVER to make a report upon progress being made to integrate the Iron Workers Union. CARVER stated that it was necessary for Negroes to penetrate the Iron Workers Union and get as many Negroes into the union as possible under the program of the CP being the vanguard in Negro movements. CARVER reported that the Federal Government has established an apprenticeship program under which the Government will pay the employee half of the base salary as an iron worker under the apprenticeship program. However, he charged that the Federal Government did not know that it was being "hoodwinked" out of several thousand dollars especially in their contracts with employers which stated that there would be no discrimination because of race, creed, color, and so forth. He charged that some of the building trade unions have come up with an aptitude test which does not pertain to the building trades. He charged that the aptitude test used in the Iron Workers Union did not pertain to the work that an iron worker has to do and the aptitude test is only a gimmick to keep the Negroes out of the union. CARVER did state that the employers are ignorant of the fact that this aptitude test is being used by the Iron Workers Union, however, it is necessary for the Negroes and the CP to attempt to remove from the executive board of the Iron Workers Union individuals who are keeping the Negroes out of the union.

PHIL DAVIS continued the discussion started by CARVER and elaborated upon the aptitude test. His discussion concerned the mathematical problems that were given to Negroes and how they were tested in repairing refrigerators, TVs, radios and other electrical appliances which had nothing to do with the work of a member of the Iron Workers Union. DAVIS reported that there would be a legal contest in the courts of this aptitude test which had nothing to do with the work of an iron worker and it was necessary for the CP to finance and support a legal contest in the courts to show discrimination against the Negroes in the Iron Workers Union.

A meeting of the Fillmore Club of the CP of San Francisco was held August 10, 1966, at 411 Pierce Street, San Francisco. At this meeting the proposal was made that the Fillmore Club collect money for the youths who were at that time incarcerated in the San Francisco County Jail serving sentences for convictions on a racial demonstration held in 1964 at the Sheraton-Palace Hotel. There was also a discussion at this meeting about racial demonstrations in Eastern cities. It was the feeling of those present that in the very near future the United States will undergo a major change in areas of racial discontent and that certain housing improvements for minorities would result. It was felt that the CP should attempt to further infiltrate these demonstrating groups, and attempt to bring understanding to those minorities that the CP is willing to help them as much as possible. JUANITA WHEELER, a member of the Negro Commission of the CP of Northern California, asked for members of the Fillmore CP Club to accompany her to San Bruno, Jail #1 of the San Francisco County Jail, to visit the young people who were incarcerated and to furnish them with money to buy necessities which might be needed while they were incarcerated.

SF T-4, August 29, 1966

B. OTHER COMMUNIST GROUPS

1. Plans, strategy, Party line and the like made at national meetings, including expressions of national leaders and other functionaries

JUANITA WHEELER called a meeting of Negro people at her residence, [redacted] on August 1, 1966. JUANITA WHEELER is an employee of the "People's World" newspaper and a member of the Negro Commission of the CP of Northern California.

The "People's World" is a West Coast communist publication.

ST

JUANITA WHEELER requested CP member RICHARD THOMAS to call this meeting of young Negroes who were interested in or belong to political action groups and civil rights groups. JUANITA WHEELER was concerned that there were so few Negroes in the current civil rights activities in San Francisco and that civil rights agitation in San Francisco at that time was at a standstill. JUANITA WHEELER desired that the Negroes should do more to improve their condition, especially in the Hunters Point and Bayview districts. There was a discussion concerning the black nationalist groups such as the Afro-American society going into the ghettos and infiltrating student programs in the schools. There was a discussion that the Negroes must take a militant stand against the white people if they were to accomplish their aims for civil rights, housing, jobs, and equal status in the community. At this meeting RICHARD THOMAS, who led the discussion along with JUANITA WHEELER, revealed to those present that he was a member of the CP.

SF T-5, August 1, 1966

A second meeting was held at the instigation of JUANITA WHEELER on August 9, 1966, at [redacted] This meeting consisted of a debate on the subject of black nationalism vs. black power. At this meeting RICHARD THOMAS told those present if he was given an ultimatum by the CP to choose between black nationalism and Marxism he would take the position of black nationalism. Others present at the meeting stated that the CP position on Marxism is the only true way to solve the race problem in the United States. There was controversy between those present on the subject of black nationalism and Marxism and some present stated that the black nationalists in the United States are hypocrites and liars. The final conclusion among those present was that the CP position on the Negro question was proper and Marxism was the only method open to the Negroes for their liberation. b6 b7C

SF T-5, August 9, 1966

The Bay Area Progressive Labor Party (BAPLP) on September 28, 1966, staged a demonstration at 16th and Mission Streets, San Francisco, California, which attracted approximately 60 people. This was a demonstration during the San Francisco racial riots which occurred between September 27 and September 29, 1966. Speakers at this corner rally tied the San Francisco racial disturbances with a general attack on United States policies in Vietnam, the war on poverty, the lack of welfare benefits, and a protest against the use of the National Guard to quell the riots in San Francisco. Those present were urged to picket the National Guard Armory, 14th and Mission Streets, San Francisco, California, to protest the use of the National Guard to stem the riots in San Francisco. Pickets then moved from 16th and Army Street to the National Guard and from there to the San Francisco City Hall and Civic Center to picket a meeting scheduled by the Mayor and the Board of Supervisors who were then in a discussion concerning the cause of the racial disturbances in San Francisco triggered by the killing of MATTHEW JOHNSON, a 16-year old boy by a San Francisco police officer. The pickets of PLP carried signs stating "JOE don't Have To Go to Vietnam" and "Take the Guns Away from the Cops." The group was addressed by ERIC JOHNSON, JOHN ROSS, JAY FRANK, LARRY MC COY, and CHRIS RAISNER, all members of the PLP of the Bay Area. Special Agents of the FBI observed these individuals at the meeting urging those present to protest police brutality and the use of the National Guard to stem the riots.

SF T-6, September 28, 1966

A characterization of the BAPLP is contained in the appendix.

A business meeting of the Lowndes County Committee, Berkeley chapter, was held September 6, 1966. At this meeting were present DAVID WARREN of the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA), RICHARD AOKIE of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP), BILL PERDUE of the SWP and YSA, and ROGER FILENE of the YSA. The chairman of the meeting was DAVID WARREN and he announced that the prime reason for the meeting was to secure a financial report on funds that were to be made available for Lowndes County, Alabama.

SF T-14, September 3, 1966

A second meeting of the Lowndes County Committee was held on September 13, 1966, for the purpose of raising funds to be sent to the individuals fighting for civil rights in Lowndes County, Alabama. It was reported that $550 had been sent to civil rights workers in Lowndes County which had been raised by the Berkeley chapter.

SF T-14, September 14, 1966

The Lowndes County Freedom Organization, also known as the Black Panther Party, was originated in Berkeley, California, by a group of 25 to 30 individuals on July 18, 1966. On this date a meeting was arranged by DAVID WARREN of the YSA and BRIAN SHANNON of the SWP. At this meeting WARREN spoke about the economic, political and social conditions in Lowndes County, Alabama. WARREN stated that a group called the Lowndes County Freedom Party was attempting to seize political leadership in this community and that he had been in contact with this group and they appealed for outside aid in the form of publicity and funds.

SF T-14, July 20, 1966

A characterization of the YSA and SWP is contained in the appendix.

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

A. COMMUNIST PARTY (CP), USA

1. Information concerning CP direction and influence over and participation in racial demonstrations, disturbances, drives, boycotts, and other similar activities with racial overtones.

A source reported on September 27, 1966, that during the racial disturbances in San Francisco, California, there appeared to be no organized pattern underlying the racial disturbances eminating from subversive or radical groups or other outside sources in the Hunters Point and Fillmore areas.

SF T-7, September 28, 1966

A source advised on September 27, 1966, that during the racial disturbances in the Fillmore area between the hours of 9 p.m. and 12 midnight it appeared that all the trouble was caused by roving bands of young Negroes throwing rocks and breaking windows but that there was no organized group of individuals who were leading the rioters.

SF T-8, September 28, 1966

On September 29, 1966, the CP leaders in San Francisco were concerned about the racial disturbances in San Francisco and they discussed the advisability of having the chairman of the CP, namely, ALBERT J. LIMA, issue a public statement disavowing any CP responsibility for the racial violence in San Francisco and at the same time deploring the conditions of the Negroes which caused the outbreak. The CP leaders felt a statement was necessary because they understood that an unidentified news source had charged that the CP was involved in the violence.

SF T-9, September 29, 1966

On October 5, 1966, it was reported that HERBERT NUGENT, former chairman of the CP of San Francisco, stated that the CP was taken by complete surprise by the racial riots because conditions in San Francisco were not considered to be explosive. After the disturbances broke out the CP through some of their youth members tried to intercede through their racial contacts among young Negroes to calm conditions and not arouse the Negroes. CP leaders believed that a tenseness of racial relations is undesirable because it defeats CP policy and makes the solution of civil rights problems more difficult in the long run.

SF T-2, October 5, 1966

It was reported on September 30, 1966, that JAMES FOREST, Chairman of the San Francisco County CP, consulted with other CP leaders on September 28, 1966, to obtain a consensus on the tone of a statement which the CP was considering issuing on the racial riots. FOREST claimed that he had heard a telecast on TV which attributed to the CP some responsibility for the racial riots. FOREST believed that this alleged complicity should be denied and that the CP should also note that the riots were the outgrowth of discrimination in hiring Negroes, lack of jobs and additional opportunities for Negroes, inadequate housing and other undesirable ghetto conditions effecting the Negro people.

SF T-9, September 30, 1966

It was reported on September 29, 1966, that members of the PLP rushed out and participated in the racial disturbances in San Francisco in an effort to capitalize upon them.

SF T-11, September 29, 1966

On October 6, 1966, a meeting of the CP of San Francisco was held at which time GEORGE SANDY, a member of the CP of San Francisco and former business manager of the "People's World" newspaper, made an extremely caustic criticism of the CP, stating that there was a total lack of CP leadership during the San Francisco racial disturbances. At this meeting SANDY stated he was appalled because no special meeting of the CP was called, not even a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Fillmore Club of the CP, which is made up of CP members, especially Negroes, living in the Fillmore district of San Francisco which was one of the troubled areas during the racial disturbances. He was particularly caustic because the CP did not even offer a press release of any kind to the news media on TV or radio stations concerning the CP position during the racial disturbances. He charged failure of the CP to take any action which goes to prove that the CP does not know what is going on and are completely isolated from the mainstream of the masses concerning the Negro people. SANDY added that if those present at that meeting thought his remarks condemning CP leadership were too harsh, they were, in fact, extremely mild compared to what he planned to say of a critical nature at the next meeting of the San Francisco County Committee of the CP concerning the Negro question. SANDY stated he could only conclude that if a communist revolution actually occurred the Party would be asleep and know nothing about it.

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

As of August 1, 1966, the Southern Alameda Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) and the Southern Alameda Chapter of the Congress of Racial Equality (SACORE) are the only two organizations in the East Bay District of the San Francisco Bay Area that are sponsoring integration in Alameda County. SACCORE is the primary force prodding integration in housing, jobs, and social organizations in Alameda County. The chairman of SACCORE is JAMES FORSYTH, a member of the CP of Northern California. JAMES FORSYTH in 1964 was a chairman of the CP Club of the East Bay and regularly attended meetings known as CP club chairmen meetings during 1964.

The masthead in the February 8, 1965, issue of "Spark" reflects it is published by the Progressive Labor Movement of the Bay Area, P. O. Box 73, Station A, Berkeley....page 4 of this issue of "Spark" carries an article describing MORT SCHEER as the "West Coast organizer" of the Progressive Labor Movement (PLM).

A source advised on January 7, 1965, that MORTIMER SCHEER, following a press conference in San Francisco, California, on January 7, 1965, related that he was the West Coast Organizer for the PLM and National Vice Chairman. PLM was started about three years ago as a national organization located mainly in the New York and Buffalo areas, and he has been here since last July striving to organize PLM. He stated PLM has several publications, including "Progressive Labor", a monthly, and the "Marxist-Leninist Quarterly."

The April 19, 1965, issue of the "San Francisco Chronicle, a daily San Francisco newspaper, carried an article which related that the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) was officially formed April 18, 1965, after a four-day convention in New York. The Source advised that as a result of a national convention held April 15-17, 1960, at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, the BAYSA became a branch of the national organization to be known as the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) and will carry out in the Northern California area the policies of the YSA.

A second source advised April 28, 1966, that the BAYSA is currently active and is composed of three locals: the San Francisco YSA, the Berkeley YSA, and the San Jose YSA.

He discussed factions extant in the movement without naming them, saying that one group emphasizes self-defense tactics while the other believes in pacifist-type tactics. MERRILL said the BBWWP believes in self-defense but emphasized he did not mean the BBWWP advocates use of force and violence in the Civil Rights situation.

APPENDIX

WORKERS WORLD PARTY

On April 17, 1959, a source advised that on February 12, 1959, a Socialist Workers Party (SWP) minority group under the leadership of National Committee member SAM BALLAN split from the SWP.

The source stated that this minority group, referred to as the Marcyites, after many years of program and policy differences on varied issues concerning tactics and interpretation of political events, split from the SWP on the grounds that the Party was liquidating itself by departing from the Marxist precepts of LEON TROTSKY and retreating from the fight for the world socialist revolution. The final issue which ultimately forced the split was the minority's opposition to the SWP regroupment policy which involved cooperation with the Communist Party (CP) periphery - individuals characterized by the minority as petty-bourgeois.

The minority program, according to the source, advocated unconditional defense of the Soviet Union and has as its goal the building of a revolutionary party with a complete proletarian orientation for the purpose of overthrowing capitalism in the United States and throughout the world.

On May 12, 1960, the source advised that this minority group had chosen the name Workers World Party.

On May 2, 1966, a second source advised that the Workers World Party, which maintains headquarters at 46 West 21st Street, New York, New York, supports the People's Republic of China in its ideological dispute with the Soviet Union.

The SWP and the CP have been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

BUFFALO BRANCH
WORKERS WORLD PARTY

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

On October 6, 1966, PH T-1 advised that HENRY WINSTON, National Chairman, CPUSA, appeared at an "open meeting" sponsored by the Communist Party of Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware (CPEPD) held on September 30, 1966, at the Hotel Philadelphia, Broad and Wood Streets, Philadelphia, Pa. The topic of his speech was entitled, "A Communist View of Power, Black and White."

WINSTON stated communists approach the question of power, black and white, in relation to current events such as those incidents in San Francisco, St. Louis, the senseless killing of a handcuffed Negro in Atlanta, Ga., and the election of segregationalists throughout the country. The attack upon the Negroes in the United States can be compared with the attacks upon the Jews in Hitler's Germany. These attacks could also lead to a Third World War.

According to WINSTON, the press has used the slogan "Black Power" as a divisive method. He pointed out that uprisings which have taken place have been started by Negro youth and this is easily understood because they are the forefront of the unemployment situation that exists today and are the victims of economic oppression. One of the problems existing today is the building of black and white unity. The Communist Party (CP) has always supported this and the Negroes need the white man just as the white man needs the Negroes. The CP is dedicated to building unity and will fight for unity within the Negro peoples' movement. He defined "Black Power" as meaning freedom from social and economic oppression which could also mean political power.

B. PLANS, STRATEGY, PARTY LINE AND THE LIKE MADE AT DISTRICT AND LOWER LEVEL MEETINGS INCLUDING EXPRESSIONS BY LOCAL LEADERS AND RANK AND FILE MEMBERS

On July 12, 1966, PH T-2 advised that at a meeting of the Trade Union Club, CPEPD, held on July 10, 1966, JARVIS TYNER, leader, Philadelphia Branch of the W. E. B. Du Bois Clubs of America (DCA), gave a report on the summer project sponsored by the DCA.

On July 5, 1966, PH T-1 advised JARVIS TYNER was a member of the National Committee, CPUSA.

According to TYNER the DCA planned to concentrate in North Central Philadelphia, the area north of Girard Avenue and west of Broad Street. They planned to contact the industries in Philadelphia in an effort to seek jobs for young Negro and Puerto Rican youth with the hope of recruiting them into the DCA and eventually into the CP.

A characterization of the DCA appears in the Appendix Section of this report.

On September 20, 1966, PH T-1 advised that JARVIS TYNER and SONDRA "SANDY" PATRINOS had both quit their respective jobs for the summer months and both had worked full time on the summer project of the Philadelphia Branch of the DCA. This project concentrated on unemployment problems of the Negro youth in the vicinity of the DCA Clubhouse, 1633 Fairmount Avenue, Philadelphia, Pa. Neighborhood response to efforts of the DCA in connection with the summer project was slight and no real progress was made. JARVIS TYNER did manage to get a few jobs for unemployed Negro youth at his previous place of employment. Leaders of the Philadelphia Branch of the DCA had expected that the summer project would entice many new members into the Philadelphia Branch of the DCA and that the name of the DCA would be recognized as a leader in community affairs in the North Philadelphia area.

The overall results of the summer project were disappointing to the leaders of the DCA and there has been no appreciable increase in the membership. TYNER was expected to return to his summer job and PATRINOS was expected to seek new employment.

On September 27, 1966, PH T-3 advised that SONDRA "SANDY" PATRINOS was District Organization Secretary, CPEPD.

On July 27, 1966, PH T-1 advised that SANDY PATRINOS at a meeting of the Youth Club, CPEPD, held on July 11, 1966, proposed that the youth as well as the adults support the picketing of the U. S. Post Office, 30th and Market Streets, Philadelphia, Pa., on July 14, 1966, which was sponsored by the Committee on Racial Equality (CORE) in protest of alleged discrimination in the upgrading of Negroes. LOUIS KALB, District Organizer, CPEPD, stated he felt the Party should support peaceful demonstrations but should not participate in demonstrations involving civil disobedience. However, the youth have agreed to support CORE's fight with the Post Office but will leave the picket line immediately in the event there is any indication of civil disobedience.

On August 26, 1966, PH T-1 advised that at a meeting of the Executive Committee, CPEPD, held on August 23, 1966, it was proposed and accepted that the District re-establish the Negro Commission for the purpose of handling matters involving civil rights.

On August 26, 1966, PH T-1 advised that SANDY PATRINOS stated the Philadelphia Police Department had arrested several members of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) for possessing dynamite and having this dynamite at their headquarters. According to PATRINOS this was definitely a "frame up" and believed the dynamite was planted in the SNCC office by an individual friendly with the Philadelphia Police Department.

PATRINOS further remarked that she and JARVIS TYNER had met with WILLIAM MATHIS, Chairman of CORE in Philadelphia, and as a result of this arrest CORE plans no immediate action and expressed a desire not to take any joint action with SNCC in the future. PATRINOS and TYNER have also made efforts to discredit CECIL MOORE, President of the National Association For the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), in the eyes of other civil rights organizations in the Philadelphia area. They claim he is on the police payroll and is the most disunifying force in the civil rights movement.

On September 12, 1966, PH T-1 stated that at a meeting of the leading officials of the CPEPD held on September 6, 1966, it was proposed that at the first meeting of the Negro Commission of the CPEPD which was recently established, the agenda should include a general discussion of a civil rights movement in this country with emphasis on the local situation.

On September 15, 1966, PH T-1 advised the first meeting of the North Philadelphia Club of the CPEPD was held on September 8, 1966. This Club is made up of members of the former Unity Club plus those CP members who reside in that general area. This Club is composed mostly of Negroes because of the geographical division. Because the Negro peoples' movement is at its most revolutionary peak, the well functioning Party Club with ties in this area is considered a top priority by the district leaders.

C. PLANS, ETC., AS REVEALED IN PARTY PUBLICATIONS AND OTHER PROPAGANDA MEDIA SUCH AS WRITTEN DIRECTIVES, PRESS RELEASES AND ALIKE

On August 3, 1966, Confidential Informant PH T-4 made available a copy of the "Statement of the CP of Eastern Pennsylvania on the War in Vietnam." This statement was published by the Communist Party of Eastern Pennsylvania, Shubert Building, 250 South Broad Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

This statement further reflects that the Communist Party of Eastern Pennsylvania believes the bombing of Hanoi and Haiphong marks a dangerous new stage in the creeping escalation of the Vietnam War and a further step toward war with China. It encourages the United States to get out of Vietnam. It further states the Negro people are being asked to wait once again while the oppression of ghetto life is intensifying. Negroes are being drafted far out of proportion to their numbers in the population. Negro casualties are proportionately greater than their numbers in the Army. This has led the "Philadelphia Independent," a Philadelphia Negro oriented newspaper, to initiate the demand that JOHNSON appoint a fact-finding commission to investigate these charges.

COMMUNIST TACTICS

A. DEMONSTRATION BY CORE AT U. S. POST OFFICE 30TH AND MARKET STREETS, JULY 1966

On July 16, 1966, Inspector MILLARD T. MEERS (NA), Civil Disobedience Unit, Philadelphia Police Department, advised

there were approximately 30 demonstrators sponsored by CORE that began demonstrating at the U. S. Post Office, 30th and Market Streets, Philadelphia, Pa. This demonstration was in protest over alleged discrimination in the upgrading and hiring of Negro employees. CORE began demonstrating on July 7, 1966, and continued through July 15, 1966.

On July 13, 1966, demonstrators representing CORE commenced picketing at the U. S. Post Office at 30th and Market Streets. Later these pickets attempted to block traffic at the intersection of 29th and Market Streets and after sufficient warning by the Philadelphia Police Department, nine individuals were arrested on charges of disorderly conduct.

The following individuals were observed participating in the demonstration:

ARLENE TYNER

JARVIS TYNER

SONDRA PATRINOS

DEBORAH AMIS

NUREL DEEN STOREY

On September 27, 1966, PH T-1 advised that JARVIS TYNER and NUREL DEEN STOREY are members of the National Committee, CPUSA, and that ARLENE TYNER and DEBBIE AMIS are active members of the CPEPD and SONDRA PATRINOS is District Organization Secretary, CPEPD.

B. APPEARANCE OF MARTIN LUTHER KING IN PHILADELPHIA, SEPTEMBER 26, 1966

On September 26, 1966, Captain ROBERT WOLFINGER, Police Intelligence Squad, Philadelphia Police Department, advised MARTIN LUTHER KING, President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) accompanied by RALPH T. ABERNATHY, Vice-President and Treasurer, and BERNARD LEE, special aide to the president, SCLC, arrived in Philadelphia to attend the "Freedom Show" held at Convention Hall, Philadelphia, Pa. KING stated that confusion over the meaning of "Black Power" has been a factor in the decreasing contributions to the civil rights movement; however, at the "Freedom Show" his organization was presented with a check for $10,000 which was presented to the Reverend RALPH D. ABERNATHY, Vice-President and Treasurer of the SCLC. The $10,000 was part of the profits from the show sponsored by GEORGIE WOODS, a local disk jockey, at which more than 9,000 people attended.

On September 27, 1966, Confidential Informant PH T-5 advised that before the "Freedom Show" began JAMES DOLSEN and SANDY PATRINOS, current members of the CPEPD, were observed on the sidewalk in front of Convention Hall passing out throwaways announcing the open meeting of the CPEPD to be held September 30, 1966, featuring HENRY WINSTON as the main speaker.

C. DEMONSTRATION AGAINST INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF CHIEFS OF POLICE (IACP) BANQUET OCTOBER 5, 1966

On October 5, 1966, Captain MICHAEL ROTMAN, Civil Disobedience Unit, Philadelphia, Pa., Police Department, advised that a group of young Philadelphia civil rights adherents would demonstrate in front of the Benjamin Franklin Hotel at 7 p.m. on October 5, 1966. This demonstration was in protest of police brutality in general as the IACP represents police departments throughout the world. Captain ROTMAN stated that it was expected that members of the Young Militants, SNCC and DCA would take part.

The demonstration began at 7:10 p.m., October 5, 1966, with a total of 10 pickets. The demonstration was orderly and ended at 8:30 p.m. All signs were shown to be part of Operation Alert. Operation Alert is described as follows:

> On August 17, 1966, PH T-3 advised that a leaflet currently being distributed in Philadelphia, Pa., concerning Operation Alert contains the following pertinent information:

"Operation Alert is a program to help stop police brutality. It is set up and run by Philadelphia Civil Rights and community organizations. We will be patrolling your community to spot incidents of police brutality."

PH T-3 advised the leaflet listed a phone number for Operation Alert which is listed to the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), 2229 North Broad Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

PH T-3 advised that it was believed Operation Alert originated at a meeting of members of CORE, SNCC and DCA on August 2, 1966, at the headquarters of the DCA in Philadelphia, 1633 Fairmount Avenue. At this meeting plans were discussed to patrol racially mixed neighborhoods and attempt to locate instances of police brutality. Plans were also discussed to monitor police radio calls in an effort to become immediately aware of trouble spots and potential arrest cases involving Negroes and to thereafter immediately proceed to the area and be witness to any act of police brutality.

On October 4, 1966, PH T-3 advised he was unaware of any police brutality cases coming to the attention of Operation Alert since the plan first went into effect. Although Operation Alert has patrolled in Negro neighborhoods during the evening hours, police radio calls have not been monitored. At the present time the evening patrol has been limited to weekends.

A Special Agent of the FBI observed the demonstration and identified the following individuals in the picket line:

JARVIS TYNER, member of the National Committee, Communist Party, USA.

DAVE BELL X

ARLENE TYNER

SANDY PATRINOS

FANNIE CRAWFORD

PH T-1 on July 5, 1966, advised JARVIS TYNER was elected to the National Committee, CPUSA, at the 18th National Convention, CPUSA, held in New York City, June 22 - 26, 1966.

PH T-1 on July 5, 1966, advised DAVE BELL, ARLENE TYNER and SANDY PATRINOS are members of the Youth Club, CPEPD.

On October 4, 1966, PH T-3 advised FANNIE CRAWFORD was a member of the Philadelphia Branch of the DCA.

COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

On July 20, 1966, PH T-2 advised a meeting of SNCC was held on Sunday, July 17, 1966, at the Church of the Advocate, 18th and Diamond Streets, Philadelphia, Pa. STOKLEY CARMICHAEL, National Chairman of SNCC, was the featured speaker. Among those in attendance at this meeting was JAMES QUINN, SANDY PATRINOS and DEBORAH AMIS.

On September 23, 1966, PH T-1 advised JAMES QUINN was a current member of the CPEPD.

On August 23, 1966, PH T-1 reported that DEBORAH AMIS was a member of SNCC and that SANDY PATRINOS and JARVIS TYNER have been cooperating and working closely with the leaders of SNCC in connection with the activities of "Operation Alert" previously described.

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

RACIAL DISTURBANCE
DAYTON, OHIO
SEPTEMBER 1, 1966

From approximately 3:30 AM on September 1, 1966, to September 7, 1966, a racial disturbance occurred at Dayton, Ohio.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

The following information was obtained from observation by Special Agents of the FBI, close liaison with Dayton police officials and officer personnel, Dayton city officials and the Command Post at the Dayton Police Department.

The disturbance began at about 3:30 AM, on September 1, 1966, after the shooting of LESTER J. MITCHELL, male Negro, age 39, while he was standing on the sidewalk near the entrance to his residence of 1020 West Fifth Street, Dayton, Ohio. Allegedly, MITCHELL was talking with several other Negroes when he was hit by shotgun fire from a passing red automobile containing two or more white men. MITCHELL died in a Dayton, Ohio, hospital at 7:50 PM, September 1, 1966.

After uniformed police officers arrived to investigate the shooting, a crowd of Negroes at the scene grew in size and became abusive. Officers called for assistance as rocks were thrown and nearby windows broken.

After MITCHELL's body was removed from the area, groups of younger Negroes of varying numbers roamed about West Fifth Street and West Third Street throwing rocks and other objects which caused some property damage to windows and automobiles in that area.

Between 9:30 and 10:00 AM, September 1, 1966, shop and store windows were broken in at the 1100 and 1200 blocks of West Third Street and looting began.

Shortly after 10:00 AM the Mayor of Dayton personally read the Riot Act and proclaimed a state of emergency beyond the power of local authorities. At about 11:45 AM, the Governor of the State of Ohio, authorized the dispatch of National Guard Units to Dayton. During the afternoon of September 1, 1966, the first of approximately 1,000 National Guard Troops under the command of Colonel JAMES CLEM began arriving in Dayton in support of local law enforcement.

On September 3, 1966, the Mayor of Dayton issued a statement reporting the preceding 24-hour period as reasonably normal in police and fire operations. The Mayor reported that the National Guard force in Dayton was being reduced. On September 7, 1966, the last National Guardsmen departed from Dayton, Ohio. Activities of the local police departments as of the time of the guard's departure had returned to nearly normal.

During the period noon, September 1, 1966, to 10:00 AM, on September 3, 1966, approximately 170 arrests were made in Dayton, many of which were related to a) looting, b) inciting to riot, c) carrying concealed weapons, and d) disorderly conduct.

The "Dayton Daily News," in its final edition of September 2, 1966, carried a news item captioned "Casualities in Unrest Treated at Hospitals." This item went on to identify 31 individuals treated for injuries, largely minor in nature, at local hospitals in Dayton, as a result of the disturbance and rioting. One of these individuals was identified as a police officer.

Police officers and local news media identified W. SUMPTER MC INTOSH, JR. as attempting to inject himself into the disturbance.

W. SUMPTER ~~MC~~ INTOSH, JR. Ohio

[redacted] a self-admitted member of the Communist Party [redacted] b6 b7C b7D [redacted] and who voluntarily cooperated with the FBI [redacted], advised during 1949 that W. SUMPTER MC INTOSH, JR. was a member of the Communist Party at Dayton, Ohio, from 1946 until 1948. [redacted] said that MC INTOSH was not very active, but did attend a number of meetings of the Communist Party. [redacted] stated that to his knowledge, MC INTOSH was not a member of the Communist Party during the year 1949.

It was reported by Dayton city officials and through the news media that on September 1, 1966, MC INTOSH demanded that the Mayor of Dayton release three persons who had been arrested, saying that they had nothing to do with the disturbance. At a later time, MC INTOSH demanded to meet with City Commissioners and other officials and threatened a full scale riot later if no such meeting was permitted. MC INTOSH indicated publicly he was holding the Chief of Police and the City of Dayton responsible for the existing situation for refusing to come down and "meet with us." MC INTOSH also called for a public meeting to be held at his office at 1135 West Third Street, Dayton, Ohio.

During the afternoon and evening of September 1, 1966, Police Officials reported no ring leaders of the disturbance were identified. Police officials believed that W. SUMPTER MC INTOSH, JR. appeared to be behind an apparent attempted organization of the rioters, however, he had been unable to gain any real support. Police reported seeing MC INTOSH talking with various groups assembled on street corners and noted that later some of these people had been arrested as looters.

On September 2, 1966, CI T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, reported that MC INTOSH, with little or no support, was formulating demands to present to the Dayton City Administration regarding its police department. His demands would include transfer of personnel assigned to the Vice Squad, integrating police cruisers in the West side area of Dayton and additional appointments of Negroes to the police force. Source further reported that there was no indication that MC INTOSH was instrumental in leading or organizing rioters, who as a matter of fact, had no leadership. This source reported that MC INTOSH is largely regarded by the west side community as ineffectual, was in effect shouting from the shadows since he had no support or following to speak of.

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

A. Communist Party (CP), USA

(U)

1. Plans, strategy, party line and the like made at CP of Illinois meetings, including expressions by CP of Illinois leaders and rank and file members

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

a. General

The CP of Illinois influence in the Chicago Freedom Movement can be summed up as follows:

The CP of Illinois claims that they have a program and policy relative to the Chicago freedom movement; however, this influence can best be characterized by the statement that within the CP of Illinois program relative to the civil rights movement there are a lot of chiefs but no Indians. In reality, the CP of Illinois exerts little if any influence in the freedom movement in the Chicago area.

The civil rights organizations active in the Chicago area in which the CP of Illinois attempts to exert some influence are as follows:

National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP);
Congress of Racial Equality (CORE);
West Side Organization (WSO);
Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC);
Student Non-Violent Co-ordinating Committee (SNCC);
Chicago Urban League (CUL);
Co-ordinating Council of Community Organizations (CCCO);
Negro-American Labor Council (NALC).

It is understood that the CP of Illinois still has LESTER DAVIS, a CP of Illinois member, assigned to the Chicago Branch of the NAACP, but at the current time DAVIS is doing little or nothing to implement CP policy relative to the NAACP.

(U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Relative to CORE, GENE TOURNOUR, a member of the CP of Illinois, is also a member of CORE. How much influence TOURNOUR exerts in CORE is not known. (C) (U)

CHUCK HARRIS, a CP of Illinois member, maintains a form of relationship with the WSO, but HARRIS seems to have lost his close ties with the CP and, therefore, it is not known how much influence he currently exercises relative to the WSO. (C)

Relative to the SCLC, at the current time there are no CP of Illinois members active in this organization.

Relative to SNCC, and the Chicago Urban League, there are at the current time no known CP of Illinois members active in these two groups.

Concerning the CCCO, it is to be noted that GENE TOURNOUR is a salaried staff member of the CCCO and is considered to be one of AL RABY's right-hand men. TOURNOUR is specifically assigned by the CCCO to the job of organizing hospital workers in the Chicago, Illinois area. HERB WRIGHT, also a CP member, is an alternate delegate from the NALC to the CCCO. It is believed that TOURNOUR and WRIGHT exert very little if any influence in the CCCO.

Concerning the NALC, the CP of Illinois currently has three individuals, all CP members, who form a collective from the CP of Illinois within the NALC. The main objective of this collective at this time is to involve the NALC in a program of organizing the unorganized Negro workers in the Chicago area, with a particular emphasis of organizing Negro hospital workers. This NALC program is to be carried on with the assistance of the Industrial Union Department (IUD) of the AFL-CIO. (C) (U)

Recently at a joint meeting, representatives of the IUD and the NALC, various methods of approach for organizing these hospital workers were explored, and during the meeting, the CP of Illinois recommendations were injected into the meeting with the view that these recommendations would be adopted. (C) (U)

CONFIDENTIAL

However, these recommendations were turned down by the IUD.

TIM BLACK is currently the President of the Chicago Chapter of the NALC and although not a CP of Illinois member, BLACK will work with individuals he knows to be members of the CP and will utilize these individuals or any Communist organization to achieve his goals or objectives. Recently, BLACK directed a letter to EDWIN BERRY, Director of the Chicago Urban League, attacking BERRY and AL RABY for being under the influence of white liberals in the CCCO. BLACK accused BERRY and RABY of selling the Chicago freedom movement for a "mess of potage." BLACK by his actions, is creating confusion in the Chicago freedom movement, because he is apparently going along with the concept of the "Black Power" group in Chicago, which is being led by ROBERT LUCAS. (U)

As a result of BLACK's actions, a factional group has developed within the CCCO and the Chicago Freedom Movement which is creating extensive confusion among the leaders of the civil rights movement in Chicago. This has reached such a point that AL RABY is absenting himself from CCCO meetings over his disgust with the situation.

Further, confusion exists within the CCCO and the civil rights movement in Chicago because of a split which has developed on the question of whether the conservative group led by AL RABY and EDWIN BERRY within the CCCO are allowing the white liberal element within the CCCO to "call the shots," insofar as the direction the civil rights movement should take in its future program. (U)

The CP of Illinois has exerted little or no influence in the Chicago Freedom Movement in the Chicago area.

Two members of the CP of Illinois are still assigned to the Chicago Branch of the NAACP, for purposes of exercising and implementing CP of Illinois decisions on current racial issues within the NAACP; however, neither of these individuals hold any influence within the NAACP. One of these individuals, who has held office in the Chicago Branch of the NAACP does not contemplate running again for office in the organization and the other individual is not currently meeting with the CP of Illinois. (U)

An individual, a member of the CORE, who is also a member of the CP of Illinois, remains a member of CORE; however, has been unable to exercise any major influence in CORE. (U)

Another CP of Illinois member has a working and personal relationship with CHESTER ROBINSON in the WSO; however, this individual's influence in the WSO is on the basis of his being a member of the Negro race and is not based on his membership in the CP of Illinois. (U)

Relative to the SCLC, the CP of Illinois formerly had two CP members active in the SCLC but both of these individuals have left the Chicago area. At the present time, CP of Illinois has no one active in that organization. (U)

Relative to the CCCO, the CP of Illinois has two individuals who have connections with the CCCO but are in no position to influence the policies and activities of the CCCO.

Concerning the NALC, there are three CP of Illinois members who are in a position in the NALC to actively implement CP decisions on racial matters within the NALC. These three CP members are currently attempting to establish a stronger CP of Illinois influence within the NALC. (U)

At the present time the CP of Illinois continues to emphasize the Negro-Labor Alliance and has selected the NALC as the organization through which the CP will attempt to strengthen and extend the Negro-Labor Alliance within the Chicago Freedom Movement. Relative to the integration of schools in the Chicago area, the CP of Illinois is conducting a policy of wait-and-see concerning any program they desire to implement because of the appointment of the new Chicago School Superintendent JAMES REDMOND, who was selected to replace former School Superintendent BENJAMIN C. WILLIS. (U)

b. CP of Illinois State Board Meetings

On July 26, 1966, the CP of Illinois State Board held a meeting in Chicago, Illinois. (U)

Among those present for this meeting were LOU DISKIN, CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, HERB WRIGHT, EARL DURHAM, JAMES WEST and TED PEARSON. (U)

The main item listed on the agenda for discussion at this meeting was a report by HERB WRIGHT on the NALC and the relationship of this organization to a trade union movement. (U)

During his report WRIGHT stated the primary purpose of his report was to apprise the Board of work and efforts of the NALC in organizing the unorganized and working with Chicago's employed poor. (U)

WRIGHT mentioned that he had met with CHARLES CHAIKLUS, co-ordinator of the IUD, AFL-CIO, and that he had enlisted CHAIKLUS' cooperation and willingness to work with the NALC in its organizational campaign. (U)

WRIGHT advised that the IUD had advanced the proposal to establish five labor-civil rights centers in the Chicago area. WRIGHT stated that the NALC has had two membership meetings since the NALC National Convention and that many of the individuals currently involved in NALC work are new to the NALC and have a base among the employed poor. (U)

WRIGHT stated that these individuals are primarily from Locals 738 and 743 of the National Brotherhood of Teamsters (IBT), and some of these individuals are also members of Local 335 of the Textile Workers Union. (U)

WRIGHT stated that these individuals have many problems of poor pay, poor working conditions, etc., and that they are ripe for development since no one seems to be helping this type of person except NALC and the CP. (U)

CONFIDENTIAL

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

WRIGHT then commented on a CCCO meeting which he had attended on July 23, 1966, and which was attended by Doctor MARTIN LUTHER KING. (U)

Relative to the CCCO meeting, WRIGHT advised the Board that the whole CCCO Steering Committee had been abolished and a new committee established. He stated that the new committee is now called the CCCO Chicago Freedom Committee. WRIGHT stated that this new committee includes in its membership such people as Doctor MARTIN LUTHER KING, AL RABY, EDWIN BERRY, CHESTER ROBINSON, REV. ARTHUR ~~FRAZIER~~, JOHN MC DERMOTT, CHARLES HAYES and JAMES WRIGHT. (U)

WRIGHT stated that no one from the NALC or CORE was named to this committee. (U)

WRIGHT stated that because of the actions that had occurred at the July 23, 1966, meeting, considerable resentment had developed among the representatives to the meeting from various civil rights organizations and that as a consequence of this resentment, a caucus of the dissatisfied element was called to meet on July 29, 1966, at 3201 South Parkway, Chicago, Illinois. (U)

Following WRIGHT's report, it was suggested by several of the CP of Illinois State Board members that HERB WRIGHT be designated to contact either AL RABY or Doctor MARTIN LUTHER KING and inquire as to why the NALC was omitted from membership on the newly formed CCCO Chicago Freedom Committee. (U)

It was the consensus of the CP of Illinois State Board that Mayor RICHARD J. DALEY of Chicago was trying to get Doctor MARTIN LUTHER KING out of Chicago and that the formation of the new freedom committee by the CCCO was, in fact, a political move by the DALEY forces within the CCCO and that this action would bring about the failure of the Chicago Freedom Movement. (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

During the Discussion, CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, Chairman, CP of Illinois, a member of the CP, USA, National Negro Commission, inquired as to whether or not the drive for organizing the unorganized among the Negro workers in Chicago was actually making any real progress. (C) (U)

LIGHTFOOT stated that in his opinion, the primary function of the CP of Illinois relative to the Negro-Labor Alliance was for the Party to build the NALC and through this organization work in the industrial area. He also recommended that the CP emphasize the benefits of the organization of the unorganized in its contacts with the Negro business community. He said that the CP should also utilize its contacts among the doctors in the various hospitals in Chicago in an effort to find workers in the Chicago hospitals who are susceptible to organization at this time. (C) (U)

JAMES WEST also recommended to HERB WRIGHT that he emphasize to the IUD that since the IUD has 59 labor union locals, the IUD should call these locals together with their full membership in order to muster the full support of these locals in organizing the hospital workers. WEST also stated that the NALC should develop support for the publication of a small newspaper which could be used to inform the people in the Negro communities as to the developments in the labor front. WEST also noted that in the near future the AFL-CIO State Convention will be held and that resolutions should be prepared to present to this state convention which would emphasize the development of the Negro-Labor Alliance, the organization of the unorganized, the peace issue, etc. (C) (U)

WEST also noted that the CP, USA will shortly attempt to revise the CP, USA Steel Commission and that he and others would be going to Cleveland, Ohio and Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, where they will be contacting CP members in this effort to re-establish the Steel Commission. (C) (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

CONFIDENTIAL

WEST also noted that the merger of the steel unions and the [illegible] Union is almost completed and will be announced at the coming national convention of the Steel Workers Union. He said that this merger will give the CP the opportunity to rebuild the CP clubs in steel. In this connection WEST noted it was the expectation of the CP of Illinois to re-establish the CP of Illinois Steel Club around NATE SHARPE, a CP of Illinois industrial club member. (C) (U)

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT again commented and noted that in February, 1967, the CP, USA, along with other prominent national Negro groups were working to establish a Negro Civil Rights Conference and that it was expected this conference would have from 2,000 to 3,000 delegates. LIGHTFOOT stated that this conference or meeting was tentatively scheduled to take place in the Harlem Section of New York City and that he and other CP national leaders are already working on this conference. (C) (U)

((CG T-1 , 8/1/66)) (C) (U)

A CP of Illinois State Board meeting was held on October 18, 1966, at Chicago, Illinois. (C) (U)

Among those present for this meeting were the following: (C) (U)

JACK KLING,
JAMES WEST,
CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT (C) (U)
LOL D[illegible]SKIN,
BLAINA WISHART
EARL DURHAM.

Also attending this meeting as an invited guest was GENE TOURNOUR. (C) (U)

The main item for discussion at this meeting was the Chicago civil rights movement and the main report on this question was delivered by EARL DURHAM. (C) (U)

CONFIDENTIAL

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

DURHAM opened his remarks by stating that he would not give facts and figures on the status of the Chicago Civil Rights Movement but instead would concentrate on the political problems facing the movement. (U)

DURHAM stated that the Chicago Civil Rights Movement was in some form of a crisis. This crisis was exemplified by a clash which had developed between the elements in the civil rights movements who feel that more power should be given to the grass roots organizations and individuals, and those who feel that the movement should be controlled through established, respectable agencies and organizations. (U)

DURHAM stated that this crisis confronting the Chicago Civil Rights Movement is reflected across the country and that it actually began approximately two years ago when the National Council of Churches withdrew its support of the organizations working in Mississippi, and the National Council at that time attempted to isolate the SNCC. DURHAM reported that since that time there had been a blow up at the Democratic National Convention when the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party was threatened with the loss of funds by WALTER REUTHER, head of the United Automobile Workers Union of America and others. (U)

DURHAM noted that these events had the effect of reducing the unity of the civil rights movement and creating confusion in the minds of many individuals. He also noted that such events created the idea that unless more of the peoples organizations become involved in policy decisions, the freedom movement would fail. (U)

DURHAM noted that the respectable agencies and organizations in Chicago have become the pivotal organizations in the Chicago Civil Rights Movement. He stated that such agencies as the Chicago Urban League, the City Missionary Society and elements of the Church Federation of America, along with the leadership of the IUD of the AFL-CIO, had for all practical purposes been the main link between Doctor MARTIN LUTHER KING, the SCLC and the Chicago Civil Rights Movement. (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

CONFIDENTIAL

DURHAM stated that the smaller, less known but as professionally adept community organizations have had little or no voice in determining the direction and policy of the civil rights movement. (U)

DURHAM stated, therefore, that the time had arrived when a decision has to be made as to how to maintain all the elements of the civil rights coalition, as the CP is undertaking its program to strengthen a base among the poor and the low paid workers. (U)

DURHAM noted because of the present crisis and the existing frustrations among many of the rank and file civil rights workers, they have begun to question the wisdom of the present structure and leadership of the CCCO and because of this attitude, many splits have taken place within the CCCO and among the other civil rights organizations who make up its membership. (U)

DURHAM stated that at the present time, there is a faction within the CCCO whose only claim to leadership is that the present leadership of the CCCO has not produced any satisfactory results. DURHAM stated that this faction is led by TIM BLACK of the NALC and BOB LUCAS of CORE. This faction according to DURHAM, through its activities reflects the dissatisfaction that prevails in the lower ranks of the Chicago Civil Rights Movement. DURHAM noted that there are attempts underway at the present time to unify the dissatisfied elements within the CCCO and to bring some form of clarity to its program and direction. DURHAM noted that at the present time the CP of Illinois does not have substantial influence within the CCCO but the situation still prevails where the CP's opinions are sought and respected. DURHAM stated that because of this, the CP still has the possibility of sustaining a degree of unity within the civil rights movements on the issues being supported by the CP. He stated that the current role of the CP has been to give ideological direction but the Party should now be in a position to offer material help as well as man power and also to present a consistent line. (U)

CONFIDENTIAL

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Following DURHAM's report, GENE TOURNOUR commented and noted that none of the existing organizations in the CCCO could be termed grass roots organizations. He noted that there is a degree of willingness on the part of the CCCO leadership to do community work but there just are not the resources within the organization to implement this willingness. TOURNOUR also noted that the faction which has developed within the CCCO also does not have a plan of work to build in the community. (U)

JAMES WEST then commented and noted that because of this development the CP has to make a more careful assessment of the coalition that does exist. WEST stated that such a coalition does not exist anywhere else in the country. He noted that the coalition as it does exist represents about 40 organizations, the IUD and the SCLC. He stated that the big question for the Party is to understand this coalition, what it really represents and how the coalition can be built and strengthened. (U)

WEST stated that in his opinion the Party's problem is that it has not resolved its role in the Negro movement and the CP must fight for a policy and for non-exclusion. WEST stated that this has not been done yet by the Party. (U)

WEST further stated that he believes the Party should emphasize a formation of a "left group" within the Chicago Civil Rights Movement and if possible, the CP should issue position papers on the various issues confronting the civil rights movement. Lastly, WEST proposed that a group of "left people," namely CP members, be called together for a day-long meeting to clarify positions and direction and to create a program for civil rights. (U)

TED PEARSON next commented and indicated that it was his opinion that many of the elements within the factional group in the CCCO had attempted to make the trade union leadership in this country the main enemy and that because of this attitude, the leadership position of the coalition had been weakened. (U)

PEARSON also recommended that the CP should discuss how to get the W. E. B. Du Bois Clubs of America reorganized and back into a role in the civil rights movement. (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT then commented and indicated that the discussion to date at this meeting had indicated to him that there was very little difference between the civil rights movement in Chicago and the civil rights movement across the nation. He indicated that the problems of Chicago are also the problems of the nationwide movement. (U)

LIGHTFOOT stated that the CP, USA is facing a new stage in the struggle for civil rights and that the civil rights movement requires even a higher degree of unity than it did in the past. He stated that there has been a hardening of the resistance to the civil rights movement and although the CP had been responsible for the passage of some civil rights bills by Congress, these initial efforts had not been sufficiently implemented. (U)

LIGHTFOOT stated that there is evidence of a disorganization in the Negro Civil Liberties Movement and among its liberal allies. He said that because of this development there is a need for the CP to redefine its civil rights program and its relationships. LIGHTFOOT noted that the Party could not resolve all of the problems of the civil rights program but it can help in some way. (U)

LIGHTFOOT noted that during the 1960s there were very few trade union leaders who spoke out for civil rights. He noted that this situation has somewhat improved of late but those union leaders who do speak out use their offices and money to act as Monday morning quarterbacks to the civil rights movement and this has led to breaks and disputes between the civil rights movement leadership and these trade union leaders. (U)

LIGHTFOOT stated that the CP's role must be to conduct and identify the struggle and the arguments for the civil rights movement, but to do so as though the CP were arguing within its own family with the objective of not to break it but to consolidate it. In this connection LIGHTFOOT noted that the main task of the CP of Illinois was to help define the proper scope of the CCCO--what it is, what it can do, and what it cannot do, and explain that the CCCO should not be considered a form of organization that can conduct struggles of a mass character on every issue that confronts the civil rights movement in the City of Chicago. (U)

LIGHTFOOT stated that the CCCO should be identified as only a mobilizing force in the civil rights movement and that the CCCO can be used by the civil rights movement to help clarify issues and present a unified approach to Mayor DALEY's administration. (U)

LIGHTFOOT stated that the CCCO cannot reflect the grass roots organizations inthe ghetto. He stated other forms of organizations should be found to serve this purpose. LIGHTFOOT stated that the CP should concentrate on helping strengthen the tenants unions the operation of the bread basket movement and the other economic ties in the community. LIGHTFOOT cautioned, however, that the CP of Illinois should not get involved with the factional disputes that do exist. (U)

The remaining State Board members who commented relative to the civil rights movement in Chicago noted that the main emphasis of the Party should be for the necessity of unity within the civil rights movement and further that the CP of Illinois should fight for non-exclusion from this movement. It was also noted that the CP of Illinois should not be critical of what the movement does but should be ready to offer alternatives. It was also mentioned that the CP of Illinois needs to pay attention to the building of the CP in the Negro community. In this connection it was noted that there was no viable CP organization in the ghetto and few if any CP members were involved in any of the policy making positions in the existing grass roots Negro organizations. (U)

This meeting was closed with a comment by JAMES WEST to the effect that he had prepared a Party document on the results or effect on the so called white backlash in the coming fall elections in Chicago. (U)

WEST noted that the document was rather lengthy and because of this, there would be no time to discuss its contents; however, he briefly stated that the document tried to cover an analysis of the reactionary vote that may take place in the Chicago area as a result of anti-civil rights sentiment that had developed in the Chicago area during this last summer. He also noted that the document would attempt to show that the trade union movement was becoming more active in civil rights. He stated he also tried to handle some of the questions as to whether a victory by CHARLES PERCY for the U.S. Senate would reflect a backlash vote. (U)

c. CP of Illinois Staff

On August 1, 1966, the CP of Illinois Staff held a meeting at 36 West Randolph Street, Chicago, Illinois. (C)

During the course of this meeting JAMES WEST reported on the results of his travels to Cleveland, Ohio, and Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, where he attempted to organize the CP leadership toward the view of reorganizing the CP, USA National Steel Commission. (C) (U)

During WEST's comments he digressed from the steel commission question to other CP matters and never did state whether the CP was successful in reorganizing the commission. (C) (U)

WEST did say, however, during his remarks, that a program of apprenticeship training has been instituted in Cleveland, Ohio, through the efforts of the Urban League in that city and the NAACP and WEST recommended that such a program be instituted in Chicago through the NALC. (C) (U)

The next item discussed during this meeting was a report by CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT on the W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs of America, and the activities of this organization in the Negro ghetto on the west side of Chicago. LIGHTFOOT stated that the W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs located on the west side had adopted the CP of Illinois State Board's recommendation to create a program for obtaining jobs for young Negro youth but had done little to implement the program. LIGHTFOOT noted that had the program been implemented the Du Bois Clubs would now have sufficient troops of their own to carry on the program. LIGHTFOOT explained that the reason for lack of action was that CHUCK HARRIS had been taken in by the SCLC and was losing his identity as the Du Bois Clubs leader on the west side. (C) (U)

LIGHTFOOT stated that the W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs should be a part of the civil rights movement and not just a "me too part." LIGHTFOOT stated that the Du Bois Clubs should inject its own issues into the freedom movement by carrying on its own program for obtaining jobs for Negro youth and by organizing the unorganized workers. LIGHTFOOT pointed out that such a campaign regarding the unorganized workers could be instituted by the Du Bois Clubs relative to the Sears, Roebuck and Company on the west side where many of the workers are still unorganized. LIGHTFOOT also proposed that the W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs undertake a petition campaign, said petition to be circulated among school dropouts, Negro youth gangs and the unemployed, demanding substantial Negro employment at Sears and Roebuck inasmuch as the company is located in an all Negro area and thousands of Negroes do business with the company. (S) (U)

LIGHTFOOT also noted that members of the W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs are not clear in their thinking as to who the main enemy is of the working class. LIGHTFOOT noted that the Du Bois Clubs members should be educated to the fact that the main enemy of the working class is actually monopoly capitalism and that Sears, Roebuck and Company is one of the giants of monopoly capitalism. (S) (U)

The next item discussed was the NALC and its current drive to organize the unorganized. (S)

(U) (CG T- 1, 8/1/66) (S) (U)

On August 31, 1966, a CP of Illinois Staff meeting was held at a private residence, 204 West North Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. (S) (U)

The meeting concerned itself with a discussion relative to the Chicago Civil Rights Movement and the program of organizing Negro hospital workers by the IUD and the NALC. During this discussion, the question arose as to whether or not this drive to organize the hospital workers should be carried on by the IUD or some other specific trade union. It was pointed out that the IUD has had the responsibility of attempting to kick off this drive but that the IUD was not in a position to carry on. As a result of this discussion, it was suggested that the assignment be undertaken by the City, County and Municipal Workers of the Retail, Wholesale and Department Store Clerks Union. Following this discussion, it was decided that a CP of Illinois committee be set up to carry on this organizing work relative to the hospital workers and this committee was to consist of the following CP members: (S)

(CG T- 1 , 8/31/66)

On October 20, 1966, a CP of Illinois Staff meeting was held at 36 West Randolph Street, Chicago, Illinois. (U)

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, Chairman, CP of Illinois, led a discussion concerning the aldermanic campaigns in Chicago and the possibility of increasing Negro representation on the City Council of Chicago. In this connection LIGHTFOOT recommended that the CP of Illinois offer its resources and support to GUS SAVAGE who was running as an alderman from his ward. LIGHTFOOT felt that SAVAGE, a Negro, although not controlable by the CP, would advance the CP's interests if he were elected an alderman because SAVAGE is still in a position where the CP of Illinois through LIGHTFOOT can sit down with SAVAGE and argue with him from a CP point of view. LIGHTFOOT closed his remarks by indicating he was recommending that the CP of Illinois concentrate on the SAVAGE campaign. (U)

JIM WEST then spoke and indicated that SAVAGE's campaign may have merit but that the CP should discuss the entire context of its election policy because it was projected that the Party would itself enter a candidate in the aldermanic campaign and that LIGHTFOOT's proposal indicated that he was reversing the CP's policy. WEST suggested instead of supporting SAVAGE that the SAVAGE campaign committee make open overtures to the entire "progressive movement" and ask this movement for support. WEST stated that more could be achieved in this manner rather than have the CP exclusively support SAVAGE. (U)

WEST's comments angered LIGHTFOOT and he stated that he felt WEST was lecturing him on how a political campaign should be conducted and he indicated he needed no such lecture from WEST. WEST interrupted LIGHTFOOT and stated LIGHTFOOT had asked for opinions and he had given his opinion. (U)

LIGHTFOOT challenged WEST's statement and said WEST had not given an opinion but had undertaken an attitude against LIGHTFOOT's leadership of the Party. (U)

WEST answered by noting that if this was LIGHTFOOT's position, he would give no more opinions. (U)

The meeting then resolved itself into a heated argument among those present and LIGHTFOOT finally demanded that a special meeting be called at which time the question of his Party leadership be discussed. (U)

LOU DISKIN then broke in and stated that the CP of Illinois should have the meeting recommended by LIGHTFOOT but that the meeting should be held in a framework of discussion of the entire leadership problem of the CP of Illinois. (U)

LIGHTFOOT retorted that he did not care what framework was adopted. He did wish to discuss the problems of white chauvinism directed at his leadership. LIGHTFOOT stated that he wanted at this meeting to discuss some of the actions that JAMES WEST was guilty of. (U)

WEST injected the comment at this point that what LIGHTFOOT really wanted was to discuss JIM WEST. LIGHTFOOT's retort was that WEST could take his remark any way he desired but LIGHTFOOT still wanted the meeting to be held. (U)

At this point the opinion of EARL DURHAM was solicited as to the LIGHTFOOT recommendation for Party support of the SAVAGE campaign and DURHAM remarked that he did not think the time was proper for such a discussion. He noted, however, that he is not sure why SAVAGE needed the CP of Illinois for his campaign and that he, DURHAM, still had his reservations as to whether the CP should go all out in the campaign. (U)

DURHAM noted that it would be an advancement for the CP of Illinois if SAVAGE were elected and, therefore, he was not arguing against CP participation in the campaign. He stated, however, that in his opinion two things must be done: first, the CP would have to influence the program that SAVAGE would run on, and secondly, this program must be reflected in SAVAGE's campaign literature and in the local community newspapers. (U)

d. CP of Illinois Youth Commission

On August 12, 1966, the CP of Illinois Youth Commission held a forum at the Sheraton-Blackstone Hotel, Michigan and Balboa Streets, Chicago, Illinois. The main speaker for this forum was CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT who spoke on the concept of "Black Power."

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT in his remarks stated that the term, "Black Power" was being interpreted to mean whatever the particular individual who was discussing the concept wanted it to mean. LIGHTFOOT noted that the U.S. Government was utilizing the "Black Power" concept to attack the civil rights movement along with the help of certain newspapers, television stations and radio stations.

LIGHTFOOT stated that the government was first, trying to scare the people of the United States with the idea that SNCC, CORE and other Negro civil rights organizations were so violent they were out to kill the white man and should be disbanded; secondly, the government was trying to split the civil rights movement and pit one civil rights organization against the other around the black power concept; thirdly, the government was trying to pit the white man against the black man.

LIGHTFOOT pointed out that the term, "Black Power" was used over 50 years ago by W.E.B. DU BOIS, but had never gotten off the ground. He noted it was used many times since but had never gained any particular meaning as an idea until the United States Government started to use it against the civil rights movement.

LIGHTFOOT stated that by definition, "Black Power" means the Negroes' economic, voting, political and labor power. LIGHTFOOT noted that this power by this definition is also used by the whites. LIGHTFOOT noted that the worse thing that could happen to the Negro civil rights movement at this time is to have the Negro and white split over this concept . LIGHTFOOT stated that the white man must realize that the Negro has the ability to lead and the white man must recognize this. LIGHTFOOT said that an example of the ability of the Negro to lead the white man in certain areas was what has taken place in the trade union movement where there are many Negro union leaders doing an excellent job of leadership for both the white and Negro worker. e. CP of Illinois Clubs

On August 17, 1966, the CP of Illinois South Central Freedom of the Press Committee, also known as the South Side Section of the CP of Illinois, held a meeting at 306 East 43rd Street, Chicago. (U)

During the course of this meeting VERSTA MILLER criticized the manner in which ISHMAEL FLORY, a member of the South Side Section of the CP of Illinois was running a fund raising program for a civil rights project of the club. MILLER stated that the manner in which FLORY was approaching the problem ostracized the CP of Illinois white membership. According to MILLER, FLORY was pushing the concept of Black Power and that because of this the white CP members were not contributing. MILLER noted that he wanted this type of action stopped because he did not want the white members of the CP of Illinois to believe that the South Side Section is pushing the Black Power concept. (U)

ISHMAEL FLORY, who was in attendance, responded to MILLER's criticism by noting that he had been told by the CP to see to it that every member of this club bought a copy of the following books which would give them an understanding of the meaning of Black Power. FLORY stated that from MILLER's comment it was apparent that MILLER did not understand this comment and he recommended that MILLER buy these books and read them. The books and pamphlets recommended by FLORY to the club were as follows: (U)

1. "Political Affairs," Vol. XLIV #8, August, 1966.
2. "The State" by V. I. LENIN.
3. "Journal of Human Relations" first quarter, 1966.

During the course of this meeting, ISHMAEL FLORY spoke concerning a CP fund drive that was then underway and FLORY stated that the white membership of the CP of Illinois was lagging in their work relative to the civil rights movement. FLORY stated that the white members of the CP are letting the Negro bourgeoisie and the white chauvinists take over the civil rights movement. (U)

FLORY stated that in his opinion CP members should be out in the streets busting heads and calling the shots instead of permitting the Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING to make all kinds of concessions and compromises. FLORY stated that the civil rights and freedom organizations by their actions are drawing the world's attention from the Viet Nam war by marching in the streets and causing a little trouble here and there. (U)

FLORY continued and stated that the CP, USA and the CP, Soviet Union are currently not following LENIN's policy as they were taught in the old days and this is why Red China is angry with Russia. FLORY stated that Red China is the only Communist country that is currently following the true Marxist - Leninist teachings. (U)

f. CP of Illinois Members Active in The CCCO

In early August, 1966, a meeting occurred between GENE TOURNOUR and representatives of the CP, USA National Youth leadership. The purpose of this meeting was to discuss EUGENE TOURNOUR's relationship to the CP, USA and his relationship to the civil rights movement in Chicago. (C) (U)

During the discussion at this meeting, TOURNOUR pointed out that at the time he came to Chicago to work in the civil rights movement, it had been agreed by the CP of Illinois leadership that he would not function openly as a member of the CP but would maintain regular communication with the CP through EARL DURHAM, head of the CP Negro Commission. TOURNOUR noted that he was dissatisfied with this arrangement, and he now wishes to participate in regular discussion with the CP of Illinois leadership on an organized basis, particularly with Communists who are active in trade union activity. (C) (U)

TOURNOUR noted that the reason for his desire to change was that he has found there are serious problems in his ability to communicate with the CP leadership on the problem of Communist infiltration into the civil rights and labor movements. He noted that there have been several immediate opportunities for the CP in the civil rights movement and due to the difficulty of communicating, these opportunities passed by before he, TOURNOUR, could discuss them with the CP leadership. (C) (U)

As an example of what he was referring to, TOURNOUR cited the fact that the position of secretary to AL RABY of the CCCO had become available and could have been filled by a CP member if immediate action had been taken. TOURNOUR noted that because of this, he desires to participate in a regular CP of Illinois collective which can discuss primarily the current drive of the CP and the civil rights movement to organize the hospital workers in Chicago. On September 23, 1966, a meeting of the CP members active in the civil rights movement in Chicago and the CP Illinois leadership was held at CP headquarters, 36 West Randolph Street, Chicago, Illinois. (U)

During this meeting it was indicated that a meeting of those CP members active in a CP collective within the CCCO and the civil rights movement was to be held some time the following week. It was proposed that LOU DISKIN, a member of the CP of Illinois State Board, appear before this group and discuss the CP of Illinois's program relative to the CCCO. During the meeting it was stated that DISKIN would be unable to meet with this CCCO CP caucus because of other commitments. (U)

Also during the meeting the CP collective working within the CCCO was identified as consisting of the following individuals: (U)

g. CP Members Active In The NALC

As of August, 1966, the CP of Illinois State Board decided to select several CP Negro youths to assist HERB WRIGHT in his work within the NALC. (U)

During late August, 1966, RODNEY STEPHENS, a Negro youth, who is also a member of the CP of Illinois, was one of several CP Negro youths, who were selected and assigned to work with HERB WRIGHT, CP of Illinois State Board member within the NALC. (U)

The only objection that STEPHENS voiced relative to this assignement was that he lived in a far Western suburb of Chicago and would not be available for this work every evening. (U)

h. CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT's Role In the Civil Rights Struggle in Chicago

In late August, 1966, CP members active in the civil rights movement in Chicago, Illinois held a discussion with LOU DISKIN, CP of Illinois State Board member at CP of Illinois headquarters, 36 West Randolph Street, Chicago. (U)

CONFIDENTIAL

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

During this discussion, LOU DISKIN stated that there was a lack of activity and work being performed in the Illinois CP District because CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, Chairman of the CP of Illinois, who should be at the District Office conducting Party work and activities was off somewhere writing a book. DISKIN also noted that LIGHTFOOT, who is Chairman of the CP, USA National Negro Commission, resided right in the middle of the civil rights struggle being conducted in Chicago and with all this activity going on in his backyard, LIGHTFOOT was still unavailable and at home writing the book. (U)

DISKIN in his comments implied that LIGHTFOOT was no longer performing the function of leader of the District and additionally, indicated that other Negro CP members such as EARL DURHAM were not doing much more. (U)

DISKIN indicated that the only CP of Illinois Negro leader who was accomplishing anything was HERB WRIGHT. DISKIN indicated that all the members of the CP of Illinois State Board recognize HERB WRIGHT's ability to organize and at the present time HERB WRIGHT was the only Negro CP leader who has a "hot" thing going. (U)

During this meeting the efforts of HERB WRIGHT to bring CP Negro youth into the civil rights movement was discussed and it was stated that VERSTA MILLER of the Southside Section, CP of Illinois was assisting HERB WRIGHT in obtaining the services of some CP Negro youth for this purpose. (U)

(CG T- 1 , 8/25/66)

On August 26, 1966, a discussion was held among CP members present at the CP of Illinois headquarters, 36 West Randolph Street, Chicago. During the course of this discussion, it was stated that CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT was currently staying at his residence and was busy writing a book on the concept of "Black Power" in a white man's world. It was stated that many (U) of the CP of Illinois officers do not agree with some of the things that CLAUDE LIGHFOOT is saying in his book. It was stated that the book will be finished and published some time at the end of 1966. (C) (U)

In late September, 1966, CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT was still at his residence, 9600 South Genoa, Chicago, writing his book which would carry the title something like "Black Power versus White Power". As of late September, 1966, LIGHTFOOT was indicating that he had approximately 2 or 3 more weeks of work on his book before he completed it for publication. (C) (U)

JOYCE LIGHTFOOT, a member of the CP of Illinois and CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT's wife, is helping CLAUDE write the book and during its preparation CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT and JOYCE LIGHTFOOT are continually arguing over their respective interpretations of the meaning of the civil rights movement in the United States. JOYCE LIGHTFOOT, although a CP member, tends to support the Black Nationalists in the civil rights movement whereas CLAUDE attacks the Black Nationalists and defends the CP, USA's position. As a result of their arguments, JOYCE LIGHTFOOT is called a Black Nationalist by her husband. She, in turn, calls CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT a Black Capitalist. (C) (U)

When LIGHTFOOT completes his book, he plans to enter the November 8 Fall elections and campaign on a civil rights program. LIGHTFOOT does not have any broad plans for the campaign strategy other than to appear on television and to speak over the radio and to have some pamphlet distribution. (C) (U)

From discussions with LIGHTFOOT, it appears that he is so completely engrossed in writing his book that he has little time for anything else and that his proposed campaign in the Fall elections is strictly a secondary problem to him. Also it would appear that CLAUDE's book is being prepared by him for whatever monetary value he can personally gain from the publication of this book. (U)

B. Other Communist Groups

1. Chicago Branch, Socialist Workers Party (CBSWP)

On September 2, 1966, the Executive Committee, CB SWP held a meeting in Chicago, Illinois.

During the course of this meeting the proposed Cicero march by civil rights organizations in Chicago was discussed. It was stated that the SWP would not sell literature or participate in the march. It was noted, however, that two SWP members DICK MC BRIDE and HERMAN PORTER, had been designated by the CB SWP to observe the march and to report back to the Executive Committee.

Also during the meeting the program for holding SWP forums on various issues of the day was discussed and in this connection it was stated that one of the projected forums being held in the future was on the subject of civil rights and that an effort would be made to have Father JAMES GROPPI of Milwaukee come to Chicago and address one of these forums. SWP member ED HEISLER was designated to contact Father JAMES GROPPI, who is a priest active in civil rights work in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. HEISLER was to report back to the Executive Committee the results of his contacts with the priest and with recommendations as to the possibility of a forum to be addressed by Father GROPPI. HERBERT WRIGHT and GENE TOURNOUR were among those in attendance at this meeting. This group met for the purpose of discussing a program of organizing the hospital workers in the Chicago area. It was agreed that this group would hold another meeting during the latter part of August, 1966, and the full staff from IUD, NALC and other civil rights groups would be invited. (U)

Approximately 80 persons attended this rally, and the purpose of the rally was to raise bail and legal defense funds for STOKELY CARMICHAEL and other SNCC members arrested in Atlanta, Georgia, during recent demonstrations there. GUS SAVAGE was one of the speakers at this rally.

The purpose of this meeting was to discuss ways to rebuild the Chicago chapter of the NALC, and in all only about 22 persons were present. WRIGHT chaired the meeting and informed those present that unless they were truly interested in rebuilding the Chicago NALC chapter they should not take membership blanks. (U)

HERB WRIGHT, NATE SHARPE, CHARLIE WILSON and RALPH TURNER, all of whom are CP members, have been assigned by the CP of Illinois to work within the NALC. IV. MISCELLANEOUS

member of NFORO-American Negro Labor Council

As of early September, 1966, a split had developed within the CCCO between the so-called militants and conservatives as to the manner in which the civil rights movement in Chicago should be conducted. As an example of this split, it is to be noted that TIMUEL D. BLACK, head of the Chicago Chapter NALC, wrote a letter dated September 7, 1966, entitled "An Open Letter" and directed this letter to EDWIN C. BERRY, Executive Director, Chicago Urban League, 4500 South Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. BLACK in this letter criticized BERRY's manner of working in the civil rights movement as well as other leaders of the civil rights movement in Chicago, whom BLACK considered as part of BERRY's conservative group. This letter is set out in full as follows: (U)

AN OPEN LETTER

"Mr. Edwin C. Berry,
Executive Director,
Chicago Urban League
4500 S. Michigan Avenue
Chicago, Illinois

"Dear Bill:

"As you may have guessed, I am writing to you a long overdue letter that perhaps should have been written to you in April of this year. Since that night and the astounding days following, I have had a lot of time to think and ponder over the personalities, the roles and the problems of "so-called" leaders in the Civil Rights Movement. Another vexatious problem to which I have given considerable thought has been what form should the movement take and what vehicles it should use, what tactics it should employ and in whose hands should be entrusted the responsibility for bringing the "Freedom Ship" in - safely and victoriously???? (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

"It is my opinion, shared by numbers of other people involved and interested in civil rights, that the above questions are basic, crucial and really need immediate attention lest the movement be betrayed for a "mess of pottage". Bill, do you remember the story of how Jesus Christ was betrayed by one of his own for a few pieces of silver? Some of us believe that Dr. Martin Luther King is now historically related to this same problem. We believe that we have ample evidence, based upon past experiences, to support our fears. (U)

"As I indicated earlier, this letter to you is long overdue, but I am rather glad I have waited because it has given me more time to reflect, to observe and to watch current events unfold. (U)

"As you may remember, Bill, I have known you for about ten years, though you have not known me as long. You have been more prominent in the news than I and so I have had the advantage of seeing you through both the public and private sectors of your life. I have had the additional opportunity of being yourson's teacher and so I have been able to observe the "father of the man" rather intimately. (U)

"Let me say at this point that you are one the shrewdest, coldest, most brilliant and most calculating operators I have ever had contact with and I have been around a little while. You are a Machiavellian pragmatist in the most complete sense. Because of this, I am very frightened for the welfare of Dr. King, S.C.L.C., C.C.C.O. and the whole civil rights movement in this city. You may note that I did not say that I was worried about the Chicago Urban League. I need not be because it is about the Urban League that you are so pragmatic. To borrow a phrase from the late Secretary of Defense, Charles E. Wilson, "What's good for the Urban League is good for civil rights". And woebegone unto anyone who steps into the path of this view. (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

"So far, I have been generalizing - sort of setting the climate for more specific things to look into. I'll just deal with a few. You know, Bill, we sort of became co-partners, organizationally, in May of 1963 - through C.C.C.O. and the school issue. Mrs. Wendell Green was to be the principal speaker at Dunbar Vocational School and you acted as a co-conspirator with about twenty other people and organizations to embarrass her. The venture was successful. You had a personal vendetta against her and Dr. Ben C. Willis and that event was, for you, a successful undertaking, though your role was in the background of it. (C) (U)

"During this same period, the Chicago Chapter of the Negro American Labor Council, C.O.R.E. and S.N.C.C. planned some demonstrations against obvious, flagrant segregation and discrimination in employment by the Motorola Corporation. Do you remember, Bill, how you and your deputy administrator, Al Prejean, tried to frighten us off of this project and, failing to do so, continued to confuse us on the issues. In fact, at the behest of you and Arthur Brazier, a special meeting was called of C.C.C.O. at which we were called, of all things, "Johnny-come-latelies" because we had issued a statement under our own name condemning the practices of the Motorola Corporation. We agreed in writing at that meeting - for the sake of harmony - that no member of C. C. C. O. would make a major civil rights statement or take any major action without the approval and support of the majority of the constituent members. (C) (U)

(An important aside: It is interesting to note that when, finally, we entered into negotiations with the officers of the Motorola Corporation, we learned that the Chicago Urban League had been attempting negotiations with them for two years. Though I had asked you persistently and consistently during the period of preparation for direct confrontation, Bill, you have given NO indication that this was so. However, one of your representatives was one of the most ever-present in attendance - once the doors were opened.) (C) (U)

"For an interesting description of a conception of your role in civil rights and employment, see Professor Robert Mc Kersies' account through a symposium dealing with "Minorities and Employment", printed in a national, professional journal named Industrial Relations and published by the University of California at Berkeley in May, 1964. (U)

(Another aside: The summer of 1963 saw the beginning of Rev. Brazier's observed frequent visits to Mayor Daley's office ALONE! Your single visits to his honor's were to be noted later - in early 1966 - just before the Mayor's Bond Issue Drive and just before the Black-Newhouse state senatorial SELL - OUT.) (U)

"You know, Bill, a city-reared boy like me should have been putting some of these pieces together in '63 and noting what the real Edwin Berry was like but I just didn't. I remember, vividly, now your affection and open support of "Chuck" Davis, Secretary of local N.A.A.C.P., when he was obviously making unauthorized deals with President of the Board of Education, Clair Roddewig, and other members of the Board of Education. As the convenor of C.C.C.O., he far overstepped his bounds and was reprimanded, severely and almost unanimously, for such unauthorized and undesired behavior. As composed as you usually are, you were livid with anger as you demanded an apology and an expression of appreciation for him as he angrily resigned. You recall that your requests were granted magnanimously and humorously BUT "Chuck" Davis's summary resignation was accepted spontaneously. (U)

"Frankly, Bill, I was a bit surprised at your steadfast defense of "Chuck" Davis because you were in Chicago and, certainly, knew about the role that he played as one of the architects and engineers of Mayor Daley's take-over of the local chapter of the N.A.A.C.P. in December, 1957. That take-over signalled the demise-of-leadership of one of the most gifted and devoted civil rights workers Chicago has ever seen -- in the person of Willoughby Abner. This is what "Boss" Daley wanted and willed. Yet you fervently supported such a "turncoat" as "Chuck" Davis. Events later were to indicate that you were only acting in your true role. (U)

"Another factor was your strong opposition against the admission to C.C.C.O. of such organizations as The Independent Voters of Illinois (IVI), Protest At The Polls and Voters For Peace, on the grounds that they were political and that the Urban League, by charter, could not engage or be in consort or affiliate with any political organization. You were very vocal and firm to this position and thinly-veiled allusions about withdrawal of the Urban League from C.C.C.O. seasoned your remarks. You were supported in this "neutralist" position by The Woodlawn Organization, Catholic Interracial Council and the N.A.A.C.P. Because of the power and influence of these organizations, the applications of the above-named applicants were returned with refusal for admission. (U)

(An Aside: It is interesting to note that, in recent Bond Issue, of all things -- that precisely the three organizations that stood firmly against admitting politically-oriented groups are the same three organizations that took separate positions from C.C.C.O. in support of the Bond Issue????) (U)

"Another fact that everyone knows by now is the very political role you and Albert Raby played in the recent candidates' selection for State Senatorship. If those acts were not political, man, I have not seen any politics. (U)

"By the way, Bill, the fact that you and Al lied and bludgeoned the I. V. I. into supporting Richard Newhouse -- against their wishes and judgment, with your rascists threats to discredit them among Negroes - insured the defeat of a proved and true liberal fighter for racial causes in the person of Abner J. Mikva. You gave support to the bigots of South Chicago who indicated that Abner should be more like you. They called Abner Mikva - Martin Luther Mikva. In Spite of your lies and vilifications of me to the I.V.I. Board, I am still a member of that Board and was recently returned as one of the four Chicago representatives to the National Board of the Americans For Democratic Action (A.D.A.), where Negroes are sorely needed to help shape domestic and foreign policy for presentation to various governmental bodies. (U)

"There are so many incidents I could allude to in order to spell out your role in civil rights. Your crowning achievement, for me, was the role you played in getting me to come to the "bargaining table" with Dick Newhouse. I had no idea about the various ways in which you two were connected. I am more aware now of those relationships, both politically and organizationally, as subtle as they may seem to be. I was not aware that, prior to our first meeting on that Sunday at your office, that you were seen entering the mayor's office on no less than four occasions, ALONE! Now, Bill, ordinarily, political independents and "real" civil rights leaders DO NOT enter the headquarters of the enemy ALONE. (U)

"Two main issues were at stake, politically, at that juncture. The over-riding one was the Bond Issue which had been conceived at some North Shore suburban conclave and had to be sold to the electorate. The other was the Mikva-O'Hara campaign which national prominence as a struggle between real independent politics, and machine politics. From the White House down to City Hall and to the Korshak - Holman dynasties in the 2nd Congressional District, the word was out: MIKVA MUST BE DEFEATED. To win, Mikva needed a strong, well-known, independent Negro Candidate who could not only win but could raise the amount of participation in the Negro communities along independent lines. To have Mikva lose, the regular Democratic Organization needed a Negro candidate (officially and unofficially) who would get Mikva's support but would bring nothing substantial to enhance Mikva's chances in the Negro communities against the machine. When I entered the race it was quite obvious to almost everyone, including Newhouse's closest active supporters, that he had very little going for him. Newhouse did not have sufficient petitions even though he had been working at it for two months prior. Within less than a week, I had not only the necessary strong signatures for my petitions and had filed them in Springfield, but had generated enthusiasm and support (financially and numerically) that was wonderful to behold. Bill, you know, and everyone familiar with political climate and activity was aware that Black and Mikva were going to win! Fred Hubbard, running to the west but also having the 24th Senatorial District as part of the 1st Congressional District, was going to be greatly helped. The pint of view of the regular Democratic Organization was that something had to be done--that combination had to be weakened. (U)

"Well, Bill, history has recorded that you and Al Raby and the committee that I, in my blind trust, agreed upon - DID IT. You saved face for the regular democratic machine in the two areas under discussion. You knew Richard Newhouse was not interested in civil rights except as an obstructionist and as an opportunist. He wanted "in" for Newhouse. You knew O'Hara's lack of leadership on civil rights issues in the Congress. You knew of his position on Vietnam and of his position as Chairman of the Sub-committee on African Affairs, particularly as it relates to American economic interests in South Africa. You knew all of this; yet, you made the decision to assure the election of these two men. (U)

"You dumped the opportunity to get two men into office whose public records on the issues of civil rights and human justice and economic equality were always in the interest of the underdog and the downtrodden. Such was so in my case -- without pay (such as you receive) and very often at personal sacrifice and danger to my professional career as a teacher.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

"With all of the above - and more - as evidence of the past and with more evidence piling up in the present, it is my conclusion that you are neither Pro-Negro nor Pro-Civil Rights. My opinion is shared by many others. I could have brought up many other "behind - the - scenes" deals that could have been executed under the capable leadership and/or instigation of yourself. I could, but this would no longer be considered a letter. It would become a book. (U)

"Let's come to your current role. Al Raby is, fundamentally, a fine "guy" and has all of the ingredients to become a great local leader. Quick fame and success have, temporarily, made him a bit power "happy". I think - and hope - he will recover. One thing may retard the recovery and progress. It may be that he has become influenced and enamoured with your style of living and your urbane sophistication. This trend has caused him to become sidetracked from real and dynamic grassroots leadership. I hope that he will come through without a severe hangover from the "Bill" Berry Intoxication. (U)

"C.C.C.O. has had no delegates' meetings for more than six weeks, though many important decisions have been made and are still being made in the name of the Coordinating Council of Community Organizations. Al Raby is speaking very little for himself these days. There are spokesmen speaking in his name and, without authority, in the name of C.C.C.O. Interesting, though, how often "Bill" Berry's name appears in the news media as the Chicago Civil rights authority. Interesting, also, how many meetings on C.C.C.O. and the Chicago Freedom Movement affairs are held in the Urban League offices--without any community or grassroots leadership present. These decisions, which will affect the lives of all of the depressed and deprived communities, have no members or elected representatives present to approve or disapprove of them. I have a feeling, Bill, that you are responsible for much of this. Basically, you do not trust people. You do not trust the honesty and innate integrity of people to make decisions about their own destinies. (U)

"To this extent, I think you are dangerous to the civil rights movement in this city and to the welfare of Dr. Martin Luther King and the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. (U)

"I shudder when I think of how close you are, as an advisor and confidante, to Dr. King. I dread to think of what will happen when the decisions might be made in civil rights based upon, "What's good for the Urban League and Bill Berry is good for civil rights". I hope that Dr. King, S.C.L.C., Al Raby and C.C.C.O. will become wary of your motives and tactics and will remove themselves from the danger-zone. To fail to do so, just might prove to be disastrous and perhaps even fatal. (U)

"I write this overdue letter to you, Bill, in all honesty and candor and as a result of long reflections on one of the most crucial problems of our time, i.e., "Negro leadership in a civil rights crisis". Say hello to Joe for me. The Army has been good for him. He needed a change of environment. Unfortunately, the majority of the Negroes in this city do not have any such avenues of escape." (U)

"Respectfully yours,

"Timuel D. Black, President
Chicago Area Chapter,
Negro American Labor Council (U)

"P.S. I was shocked at the uproar that you, Al Raby and Newhouse made when I asked the simple question (after I had signed the agreement to abide by this committee's decision on who would become the candidate for State Senator in the 24th District), 'Will you let us know what were the criteria and evidence on which the committee would have made its decision?' I asked Al Raby and Rev. Lynward Stevenson (one of those on the committee) the same question after the decision had been reached. NO REPLY. I know, now, why everyone was so upset when I posted the first question. I know, now, why the SILENCE when I asked again." (U)

CHICAGO COMMITTEE TO DEFEND THE BILL OF RIGHTS

The Chicago Committee to Defend the Bill of Rights (CCDBR) maintains headquarters in Rooms 801-803, 431 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois.

A source advised in July, 1960, that RICHARD CRILEY, then a member of the Civil Liberties Commission of the Communist Party (CP) of Illinois, met with key leaders of the CP and was authorized by the CP to form a new organization with broad mass support so long as the new organization would protect the Party interests.

This source advised in October, 1960, that on October 28, 1960, CRILEY reported to the CP leadership that the CCDBR had been organized. He outlined its aims and purposes as being to obtain mass support to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) and to defend Smith Act and Taft-Hartley victims. He said there would be no formal affiliation with any other national organization having the same purposes. The CP leadership agreed with the general direction of the CCDBR as outlined by CRILEY.

A second source advised on October 31, 1960, that the CCDBR was formally organized on October 26, 1960, with RICHARD CRILEY as Executive Secretary after he motivated organizing the meeting of October 26, 1960.

A third source advised on May 11, 1966, that the original stated purposes for the CCDBR continue to be adhered to, with CRILEY continuing as the motivating force behind the Committee. The Board of Directors, however, now includes many individuals in the religious, educational and labor fields who are not known as CP members.

FRIDAY NIGHT SOCIALIST FORUM,
Also known as Militant Labor Forum

On May 2, 1966, a source advised that the Forum is a paper organization set up by the Chicago Branch, Socialist Workers Party(CBSWP), Chicago, Illinois, for Socialist Workers Party (SWP) members and sympathizers. Open meetings held under the auspices of this Forum are geared to the activities that the SWP is pursuing at a particular time, e.g., unemployment, election campaign, Cuba, segregation, etc.

SUZANNE BUCH, a CBSWP member, is in charge of the Forum and schedules meetings under the name of the Forum in order to conceal the SWP sponsorship of same. The meetings of the Forum generally are held at Chicago SWP headquarters although the Forum, in the past, has sponsored other affairs, such as meetings, socials and picnics held at other locations.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL
SECURITY MATTER-SNCC

STUDENT NON-VIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE (SNCC)
INTERNAL SECURITY-SNCC

The following sources have furnished reliable information in the past:

A source reported on October 7, 1966, that JOHN HARRIS, recently indicted by a Los Angeles County Grand Jury on a charge of Criminal Syndicalism, had telephonically contacted STOKELY CARMICHAEL of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) on October 6, 1966, concerning his possible public appearance in Los Angeles to speak for the recently formed Committee to Defend John Harris (CDJH).

On October 12, 1966, a second source advised that at a meeting of the CDJH held at 1169 Mullen Avenue, on October 11, 1966, it was mentioned that CARMICHAEL is coming to Los Angeles in the near future to make speeches in the Watts area of Los Angeles. CARMICHAEL's expenses are to be paid by the CDJH and in addition to his own appearance, he is also to make speeches for the CDJH to help raise funds for the CDJH and SNCC. The funds raised are to be split equally between the two organizations. The CDJH is currently awaiting written confirmation from CARMICHAEL before advancing him travel expenses.

A third source advised on July 27, 1966, that JOHN WESLEY HARRIS, JR. was a member of the Los Angeles Club, Progressive Labor Party (see appendix).

Copies of this memorandum are being furnished the United States Attorney and Secret Service, Los Angeles as well as appropriate local military agencies. Local law enforcement agencies have been advised.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

RE: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

On December 12, 1966, NY T-1 advised that a meeting of the Communist Party, United States of America, (CPUSA) Negro Commission, was held on December 8, 1966, at the Wellington Hotel, New York, New York. The Chairman of the meeting was WILLIAM PATTERSON, the Reporter, CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, and the Secretary, DEBBIE AMIS.

The meeting lasted nearly five hours. However, much of the time was taken up by speakers relating civil rights activity and problems in their local areas. As a result, the meeting wandered from one topic to another in the civil rights field without any objective thought being given to the subject matter of Party policy. The meeting did agree on the following areas of activity:

1. The CPUSA should develop support for the 185 billion dollar "Freedom Budget" proposed by A. PHILIP RANDOLPH, prominent civil rights leader, to eliminate poverty and slum areas during the next ten years. USA

2. The CPUSA will wholeheartedly support Representative ADAM CLAYTON POWELL, New York City Congressman, in his fight to retain his seat in Congress and chairmanship of the House Labor and Education Committee. The Party feels that POWELL is a roadblock in the path of anti-labor and anti-Negro legislation. The Party will portray Congressmen and individuals who are against POWELL as white supremists and as anti-union. The Party will state that the attempt to oust POWELL is a direct attack on the Negro people and must be defeated. BC

3. A large Afro-American Conference, national in scope, is planned for the Spring of 1967 in New York, New York. The purpose of the conference will be to aid the emerging nations of Africa and a protest against the imperialistic policies of the United States. The conference ostensibly will be sponsored by a large number of well-known civil rights and anti-imperialist leaders.

The Party has already begun working quietly on this project.

II. GENERAL RACIAL CONDITIONS

Los Angeles, California

On October 25, 1966, source 1, a highly placed official in the Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD), advised that on October 24, 1966, LAPD officers, in response to an anonymous telephone call observed two male Caucasians and two male Negroes in an alley at 95th Street and Central Avenue, Los Angeles. The men advised they were making a "research and training" film for the Teen Posts in the area. The men were using an automobile bearing the word "Police" on the front doors, and uniforms resembling those worn by LAPD officers were observed in the car. The two male Caucasians interviewed were Stephen Grumette and Albert Lambrosa. Grumette stated he represented the Brooks Foundation of Santa Barbara, California.

> Source 1 advised on October 25, 1966, that the name of Steve Grumette was maintained on the mailing list of the Progressive Labor Party (PLP)(see appendix) on September 23, 1966.

On December 8, 1966, Mr. Russell Furse, Executive Director, Brooks Foundation, 2020 Alameda Padre Serra, Santa Barbara, advised the Foundation was engaged in research and development of instructional communications. He stated the motion picture referred to above was a legitimate project of the Foundation and they had notified the LAPD six weeks in advance that they would do location shooting at 110th and Wilmington Streets, Los Angeles. He stated they had also advised the LAPD on the day they had done the film. Furse stated they were making a study of anti-social persons in the Negro community and the project was intended to help some of the Negroes in the Watts area to "work out their frustrations in a community project." He stated it was not the intention of the Foundation to encourage any riot or unlawful action. He stated the story line of the film was in the hands of a Baptist church Teen Post in the Watts area, headed by Bill Marshall, and Furse had suggested they delete the portion of the film concerning police brutality. Mr. Furse stated Steve Grumette was hired as a temporary cameraman for the film and stated Albert Lambrosa, of the Brooks Foundation, based in New York City, was project director. Budd Shulberg was initially responsible for interesting the Foundation in the film project.

There is no information in the files of the Los Angeles Office identifiable with Albert Lambrosa or the Brooks Foundation.

Budd Schulberg (Seymour Wilson Schulberg)

On June 19, 1952, Schulberg, a Hollywood writer, admitted to a Special Agent of the FBI that he had been a member of the Communist Party in Hollywood, California, from approximately 1937 to 1940. He identified 16 other individuals as members of the Communist Party during this same period. He also names communist-dominated organizations with which he had been associated up to 1949.

On October 24, 1960, source 2 advised that in October, 1960, Schulberg appeared to be "very far left of center" but appeared to be "bitterly anti-communist."

On December 8, 1966, source 3 advised the Brooks Foundation appeared to be a legitimate organization and neither it nor anyone connected withit had ever been connected with any subversive organizations in the Santa Barbara, California, area.

In the "Daily Variety," magazine of the Hollywood movie industry, issue of November 11, 1966, Page 1, was an article reporting the Watts Film Festival, set up to show new movies to residents of the depressed area for 25 cents a ticket, had an immediate obligation of $3,000 which had to be met within six weeks. The article pointed out weekly expenses for the Festival were $110; however, a maximum of $150 per week was taken in in admissions. Bruce Corwin, Co-director of the Festival, indicated the possibility of aid from some government agency to help the Festival continue in operation.

In the "Open Forum," publication of the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) of Southern California, issue of December, 1966, Page 1, was an article reporting that four Police Malpractice Complaint Centers sponsored by the ACLU had received 79 allegations of police misconduct since opening their first office in Watts in July, 1966. In 43 of the allegations, staff members of the centers recommended formal complaints be filed with approrpiate reviewing authorities. Among the allegations were 15 cases of false arrest, 17 of brutality and 11 complaints ranging from homicide to verbal abuse.

In the "Los Angeles Times" of December 10, 1966, I-3, was an article reporting that Edward Lee King had been convicted of arson in connection with the Watts riot of August, 1965. He was convicted largely on the basis of an anonymous confession on television, and on "voiceprint" testimony identifying his voice as that of the individual who appeared on television. He is due to be sentenced on January 17, 1967.

In the "Pasadena Star News," newspaper of Pasadena, California, December 16, 1966, I-6, was an article reporting that Paul Jacobs, a staff member of the Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions in Santa Barbara, had been present as a speaker at a two-day conference at the University of Southern California (USC) on December 15 and 16, 1966. The conference analyzed the McCone report on the Watts riot of August, 1965. Jacobs stated Los Angeles police had "the image of a combat organization for South Los Angeles residents." Jacobs criticized the McCone report for the "attitudes of its authors." He stated the McCone Commission intended to defend the LAPD before they began their investigation.

In the "Los Angeles Sentinel," Los Angeles Negro newspaper, issue of December 22, 1966, Page 1, was an article reporting the Economic and Youth Opportunities Agency (EYOA) had agreed to forward a request to Washington, D.C., for funds to finance two thirds of $270,000, the cost of building a new "Watts Happening" coffee house in the Watts area of Los Angeles.

In the "Los Angeles Sentinel" of December 22, 1966, Page 8A, was an article reporting the Opportunities Industrialization Center (OIC) had already trained and placed more than 200 people in various jobs in the Los Angeles area and the outlook for jobs in 1967 was very favorable. The OIC had been financed for the first nine months by a Ford Foundation grant, and is now attempting to raise $100,000 in a fund drive to continue operations.

In the "Los Angeles Sentinel" of December 22, 1966, Page 10B, was an article reporting many job openings were available through the offices of the Los Angeles Urban League. There is no charge for this service either to applicant or employers.

In the "Los Angeles Sentinel" of December 22, 1966, Page 2A, was an article reporting that the Community Conservation Corps (CCC), an adjunct of the Watts Labor Community Action Committee (WLCAC), had received confirmation from the Department of Labor that they would receive a total of $325,725 to further their program through June, 1967. The CCC project serves 1,400 to 1,800 children and young adults in the Watts area of Los Angeles. The Corps manages recreational, educational and social activities in the area.

POSSIBLE RACIAL VIOLENCE
MAJOR URBAN AREAS
RACIAL MATTERS

In the "Los Angeles Sentinel" of December 29, 1966, Page A3, was an article reporting the Community Skill Center was in operation at 150th and Figueroa Streets in Los Angeles. The Center is funded by a 3.5 million dollar Federal grant to train people in the poverty area for jobs.

In the "Los Angeles Times" of December 23, 1966, I-3, was an article reporting the Apartment Association of Los Angeles County had taken sharp exception to a suit by the California Fair Employment Practices Commission (FEPC) which resulted in a Reseda, California, property owner being ordered to reserve one apartment for possible use by a Negro. The Association issued a statement that the property owner had been "deprived without trial or chance to defend himself in the use of his property for at least 15 days and possibly several months." The Association stated the property owner was forced to hire an attorney while the plaintiff was furnished free counsel. The statement concluded that the Rumford Act under which the suit was brought denied apartment owners "the right...in American jurisprudence that no man is guilty until so proved."

In the "Los Angeles Times" of December 30, 1966, I-3, was an article reporting that Paul Bullock, University of California at Los Angeles economist, stated that as long as the poor in Watts take the cynical view that a job is only a source of money and not a step toward a career, the war on poverty would not succeed. He stated nothing in the background of the youth in the ghetto suggests any certainty of reward as a result of self-sacrifice. He stated it may not make good sense to a Negro poor person to "give up hustling 'pot' in order to concentrate on a car wash job." He speculated that "white collar" crimes of income tax cheating, price fixing and usury "rob society a great deal more than do the dramatic crimes of the urban ghetto."

III. CURRENT EVALUATION OF VIOLENCE

Los Angeles, California

On December 20, 1966, source 4, a Negro who is closely associated with the Negro community in Los Angeles, advised he believed the situation in the Watts area of Los Angeles had improved, but whether the improvement would continue would depend on the direction of the poverty program. He stated if funds are cut or the program is curtailed, tensions will increase and gains made will be lost.

On December 20, 1966, source 5, a Negro closely associated with the Negro community in the Los Angeles area, advised he did not believe there had been any real lessening of tensions in the Watts area and stated another riot could develop if circumstances similar to those in August, 1965, arose. He stated the only way to improve the racial situation was for Negroes to help themselves.

On January 3, 1967, source 1 advised the racial situation in the Los Angeles area was relatively calm and there had been no recent incidents of a racial nature which might give way to violence. Source stated, however, that a routine arrest or street fight could trigger violence at almost any time.

Pacoima - Shadow Hills area

Shadow Hills is a part of the City of Los Angeles on the edge of Sunland, California, which is also part of the City of Los Angeles. The area is northwest of downtown Los Angeles and immediately east of Pacoima, California.

In the "Los Angeles Times" of January 3, 1967, II-1, was an article reporting increasing racial tension in the Shadow

Hills area. The Los Angeles City Board of Education ruled in 1964 that Shadow Hills children should attend Maclay Junior High School in Pacoima instead of overcrowded Mt. Gleason Junior High School in Sunland. In July, 1965, the School Board made such attendance mandatory. Maclay school has a student body which is one-third "Anglo," one-third Mexican-American and one-third Negro. Many people in the area insist the problem involves racial prejudice, and neighbors, churches and youth groups have been "splintered" by bitterness of the problem. Those opposing the transfer of children to Maclay Junior High claim the School Board is engaged in "forced integration."

IV. IDENTITIES OF ORGANIZATIONS INVOLVED IN LOCAL RACIAL SITUATION

The following organizations referred to under Section II above have been involved in the racial situation in the Los Angeles area:

The ACLU, through four Police Malpractice Complaint Centers.

The Urban League continues to find jobs for workers in the poverty areas of Los Angeles.

The OIC continues to train workers in the poverty areas of Los Angeles.

The WLCAC still administers the CCC, helping youth in the Watts area of Los Angeles.

The Community Skill Center is teaching job skills to persons in the poverty areas of Los Angeles.

Under Section VII below, the Westminster Neighborhood Association, Incorporated, (WNAI), continues to be involved in the Watts area of Los Angeles.

V. IDENTITIES OF LEADERS AND INDIVIDUALS INVOLVED

Ted Watkins is chairman of the WLCAC, which continues to administer the CCC in the Watts area of Los Angeles.

Under Section VI below, Archie W. Hardwick, Executive Director of the WNAI, writes a regular column in the "Los Angeles Sentinel" newspaper.

In the "Los Angeles Sentinel" of December 22, 1966, Page B-9, was an article reporting that the trial of John Wesley Harris, Jr., had been set for March 6, 1967, in the Superior Court of Los Angeles. Harris faces a possible prison term of one to 14 years if convicted of criminal syndicalism for distributing inflammatory leaflets during a period of racial tension in Los Angeles in March, 1966.

John Wesley Harris, Jr.

VII. OBJECTIVES SOUGHT BY MINORITY COMMUNITY AND POSSIBLE POINTS OF CONTENTION

In the "Los Angeles Sentinel" of December 29, 1966, Page 6A, was a column written by Archie W. Hardwick, Executive Director of the WNAI. Hardwick referred to the two-day seminar at the USC on December 15 and 16, 1966, discussing the McCone report on the Watts riot. He stated it was time to stop the various "studies" and start implementing the proposals and conclusions of these studies. He stated the result of all the studies was a "great big, fat, round ZERO." He reported that only after eight weeks of study had the McCone "committee" invited 20 agency leaders involved in such problems to the proceedings, as "an after thought." He stated the "committee" had already reached its own preconceived conclusions and disregarded the proposals of those really qualified to understand the problems.

VIII. REACTION OF LEADERS AND MEMBERS OF THE COMMUNITY TO MINORITY DEMANDS

In the "Los Angeles Sentinel" of December 22, 1966, Page A3, was an article reporting that Mayor Yorty, in a speech in New York City to an audience of police officers had stated Los Angeles would not have a police review board as long as he was mayor. He stated political officials "must back their police chiefs and police force." The article also reported Yorty had called on Governor Ronald Reagan to create a department of Urban Affairs to work with cities on problems which are of concern to the state.

SECURITY MATTER - C

When Assistant Director W. C. Sullivan inspected your office recently, he met and talked with United States Ambassador to Japan, U. Alexis Johnson. It was quite apparent that Ambassador Johnson was unaware of the communist influence being exerted on Martin Luther King, Jr., and his group, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

The Legal Attache, Tokyo, is, therefore, authorized to deliver in person to Ambassador Johnson the enclosed document entitled, "Communism and the Negro Movement - A Current Analysis." Upon delivery, the classification of this document should be pointed out to the Ambassador and a request made that he handle it accordingly.

Re Bureau approval dated 12/6/66, to interview ALBERT ROY [redacted]. This was in relation to two sales representatives of the Xerox Corporation, Washington, D. C., advising that Colonel HASAN, who is also known as ALBERT ROY [redacted], recently told them that the Communist Party had offered him $10,000 in cash if he would lean toward CP doctrines in organizing his organization. HASAN told the sales representatives that he refused this offer. They said HASAN indicated this offer took place in Los Angeles, California, where HASAN (OSBORNE) operated a rig shop, possibly in 1963 - 1964.

ALBERT ROY [redacted] was interviewed on 12/20/66, by SA'S PAUL E. [redacted] and C. EDWIN [redacted] at the Blackman's Development Center, 910 Kennedy Street, N.W.; this is the headquarters of the captioned organization. [redacted] advised at this time that he now calls himself Colonel HASAN JEHU-ALLAH, although he has not had his name changed legally. He described the organization as being a combination of a "Back to Africa" movement and a separation of the races as advocated by the Nation of Islam, especially MALCOLM X. It would have American Negroes return to Africa to establish their own nation, completely void of any white people. [redacted] stated he wanted to get his people away from racial violence and especially from the International Zionist Communist Movement, which movement he said was the greatest menace to the United States. He could not offer any specific about this movement, however, and said he knew about it through experience and observation.

[redacted] advised that he was in Los Angeles, California, from 1933 to January, 1936, when he returned to Washington, D. C. While in Los Angeles, he was Chairman of the Self-Determination Committee. It came to his attention that perhaps this committee had been infiltrated by the CP and he was determined to find out about this. [redacted] said that in either late 1934 or early 1935, he went to the Progressive Book Store on 5th Avenue, Los Angeles, and left a message those that he wanted to see a representative of the CP.

[redacted] was contacted very soon after that by a man named [redacted] and arrangements were made that they would hold a clandestine meeting at 11 p.m. at Western and Adams Boulevard. The two men then proceeded to 2010 Crenshaw Boulevard where [redacted] operated a wig shop. [redacted] identified himself as holding some official position with the CP in Los Angeles. Upon inquiry, [redacted] indicated that the Self-Determination Committee had not been infiltrated by the CP.

The conversation of the two men then changed to a discussion concerning freedom of the Negro. [redacted] told [redacted] about his plans for the organizing of Negroes to return to Africa and be free of any white rule. At this point, [redacted] indicated that he might possibly give [redacted] "some financial support," but only under the condition that [redacted] limit his organization to within the continental limits of the United States. [redacted] stated that he refused to do this, and since there could be no agreement on this point, the meeting was terminated. [redacted] advised that this was his one and only contact with [redacted] or any other CP official in this matter. He described [redacted] as follows:

Age:	About 60 -65
Race:	White
Complexion:	Ruddy

WFO 100-[illegible]

Hair: Red, turning Height: Medium
Build: Stocky
Complexion: Very clear

[illegible] said that Dunn did not offer him any specified amount of money, and only indicated that financial support might be available if he changed his plea.

[redacted] on 4/2/53 identified [illegible] Dunn as Executive Secretary of the Southern California CP District.

During the course of the interview on 12/23/53, [illegible] was a very calm and reticent subject, and gave the impression of being a cool man. Although he did not finish high school, [illegible] apparently has read quite a bit and speaks with apparent intensity on a number of subjects. In view of the impression of being somewhat cautious and inclined to exaggerate, other sources contacted relative this case considered.

[illegible] served from 8/23/44 to 8/23/53 for [illegible] at Lewisburg, Pennsylvania. He was also committed for mental observation at Washington, D. C., from 1/27/53 - 2/11/53.

In view of the unfavorable impression gained during the course of the interview with [illegible], additional contacts with [illegible] at this time are not contemplated.

Re: Communist Party, USA, National Committee Meetings, Hotel Wellington, New York, New York, December 3-7, 1966. Communist Party Negro Commission Meeting, Hotel Wellington, New York, New York, December 8, 1966

A confidential source furnished the following information December 9 - 12, 1966, concerning Communist Party (CP) National Committee Hearings held at the Hotel Wellington, 55th Street and 7th Avenue, New York, New York, December 3 - 7, 1966. The source also furnished information concerning a CP National Negro Commission Meeting held December 8, 1966 at the same location.

On December 3, 1966, at the outset of the CP National Committee Meetings, Herbert Aptheker, Theoretician for the Party, announced that his daughter, Bettina was returning to Berkeley, California because of the student unrest on the campus. Herbert Aptheker stated that both students and faculty in large numbers were expressing their opposition to the war in Vietnam. Aptheker requested those present to sent funds to help the students who were opposed to the Vietnam War. Aptheker then indicated that approximately 80% of the students at the University of California stayed away from the classes the previous day and a number of departments of the school were closed. Aptheker advised that some 400 faculty members were in full support of a student strike. Aptheker stated that the students were aroused because military recruiting stands had been set up on the campus.

The first session of the National Committee Meetings was begun at about 9:30 a.m., on December 3, 1966. Elsie Dickerson, CP National Committee member, acted as Chairman. Some 60 to 70 persons were in attendance during the course of the day.

Re: Communist Party, USA

The principal speaker for the day was Gus Hall, CP General Secretary, who talked at length about the November, 1966 elections in the United States. In substance, he urged CP members everywhere to oppose the ultra-right groups and to exert every effort to end the war in Vietnam. Hall said that the desire for peace in Vietnam was the strongest factor in the November, 1966 elections. He stated that efforts should be begun immediately towards influencing the 1968 elections. He suggested that independent political activity and work through established political parties should be gotten underway at once. Hall said that in the recent elections in most cases the voters were given little choice in the selection of candidates, but that they took every opportunity to express dissatisfaction with the war-like Johnson administration.

Hall told those present that the Vietnam War was causing inflation, high cost of living and cutbacks in the welfare program at home. He said that the war was isolating the United States from not only Socialists, but Capitalist countries.

Hall said that the Vietnam War was harmful because it served as a cover for the ultra-right groups in the country. He urged the need of independent political action everywhere possible to attack the ultra-right groups and assist in the break-up of the two major political parties. He then added that he was not advocating the formation of a new party at the present time since it was still too early for such a step. He then added that this should not stop them from thinking about an independent candidate for President in 1968.

Hall said that one of the valuable signs in the recent elections was the election to office of over 100 Negroes throughout the country. He urged those present to continue this growing force of Negro office holders.

He told the group that the fight for Civil Rights should be assisted by the labor and peace forces and felt that progress was being made in that direction.

He stated that the fight against the draft should be pressed not by the youth alone, but by the entire community since it was part of the fight against the Vietnam War.

During the morning of December 4, 1966, no National Committee Meeting was held. Instead, National Committee members and Party sympathizers went to the Kensico Cemetery, White Plains, New York, to unveil a headstone for Benjamin Davis, deceased CP National Leader. About 100 persons gathered at the Unity Funeral Home, 126th Street and 8th Avenue, New York, New York, at about 10:00 a.m. Two buses took the group to the cemetery.

At about 11:30 a.m., the ceremony got underway with CP National Leaders Arnold Johnson, Tom Dennis and William Patterson, acting as a guard of honor. A number of addresses were made at the grave side. CP National Leaders Gil Green and Henry Winston were among the speakers.

During the afternoon of December 4, 1966, the CP National Committee Meetings were resumed.

The only activity was discussion on Gus Hall's report of the previous day. This afternoon session had as its Chairman John Stanford, CP National Committee Member from Texas.

On December 5, 1966, the National Committee Meetings were resumed. Some 50-55 persons were in attendance. The meeting was chaired by a Ralph (Last Name Unknown) from Oregon. Carl Winter, Editor of "The Worker" made a report on the condition of the newspaper.

"The Worker" is an East Coast Communist Newspaper.

Winter stated that during September, 1966, "The Worker" building had been damaged by a bomb. Winter stated that a $100,000 campaign fund was being undertaken which was to last through June, 1967. The purpose of the fund was to restore the building. Winter also stated that in connection with the fund campaign, there was to be a drive for 2,000 new subscriptions to "The Worker."

Winter then went into a long talk on the history of the newspaper, emphasizing that it was the only publication in the United States which gave the truth to the American people as to the growing power of Socialism.

On December 6, 1966, the National Committee Meeting was chaired by a white male from Chicago, who operated the CP Bookshop in that city. The principal speaker was Henry Winston, National Chairman of the CP, USA. His topic was the Negro struggle in the United States. He outlined the Civil Rights Movement. He pointed out that "black power" arose naturally out of the Civil Rights movement and was part of the struggle. He stressed that the CP, USA, must support the struggle of the Negro everywhere or the party could not endorse such aspects of the struggle as "black power" since it was devisive in nature. Winston stated that although the past year had shown a great gain in the number of elected offices held by Negro American, the Negroes in the United States had a long way to go before they could hold an important amount of political power.

Winston stated that the CP, USA, had to help the American Negro organize, vote and use all the political avenues to establish themselves in power. He emphasized that the period from the 1950's through the mid 1960's was the time for protest and demonstration and that in the future the Negro people in the United States had to begin to exercise political effectiveness.

Winston said further that the Negro people, although still clinging to the Democratic Party, were beginning to look for new forms of independence. He predicted that this would increase as the cost of the Vietnam War began to cut into living standards and hurting the Negro American who received the lowest pay.

On December 7, 1966, the National Committee Meetings were resumed. Helen Winter, CP National Committee member, acted as Chairman. A spokesman for youth stated that the Youth Commission had met and was fully opposed to the war in Vietnam and the draft. He urged mobilization of students on college campuses so that they could voice their opposition to the war.

The youth spokesman pointed out that the youth in America were facing a number of problems that were growing in strength and complexity. He pointed out that there was an ever increasing draft; that funds for education were being cut while tuition costs were rising. He said that the war in Vietnam was causing inflation and that less students were being deferred. He also mentioned that non-students were also affected by the war, especially the Negroes.

He emphasized the need for increased political action on campus through the United States and urged a student strike on behalf of the peace movement.

Also on December 7, 1966, Gus Hall, CP General Secretary, told the group about his recent world-wide trip through Socialist and non-Socialist countries.

He described his enthusiastic reception in the USSR and his meeting with the Central Committee of that country.

He said that Khrushchev had been removed from office because he had no long-range perspective.

Hall stated that the United States had gotten into the Vietnam War through a miscalculation which is leading to its isolation from the rest of the world. Hall said that the United States was entering into a period of inflation because of the war and that the American people would soon be hit with shortages and high taxation.

Hall stated that in visiting in Socialist countries it was obvious to him that Socialism had overcome the handicap of industrial backwardness that it had inherited from past societies. Hall said that in the future, Socialism would be able to compete with Capitalism from a broad, modern, industrial base. Hall said that in the world of Communism, Red China stood alone. He said that errors had been made in the past because of a lack of an industrial base and that at the present time the activities of the Red Guards were preventing the working class elements from producing a true Communist society.

After his talk, Gus Hall stated that the CP National Board had met on the evening of December 5, 1966 and had proposed a new National Board. Hall then said that he was going to furnish the list of names, but before he gave the list he wanted visitors who were not members of the National Committee to leave the hall. About two or three persons then left.

Gus Hall then stated that the persons who were selected either had personal contact with or were in the trade union movement. He then furnished the following list of names:

Claude Lightfoot
William Patterson
James Jackson
Jack Kling
Gus Hall
Henry Winston
Irving Potash

On 8/17/66, a summit meeting was held in Chicago regarding the current racial situation. As a result of this meeting, a number of agreements were formulated and currently these agreements are to be implemented through a new organization known as the Metropolitan Chicago Leadership Council (MCLC). This organization will concern itself with the racial situation not only in Chicago but in the suburban communities surrounding the city. The MCLC has the strong support of Mayor RICHARD J. DALEY and BENJAMIN HEINEMAN, Chicago-Northwest Railroad Company. The chairman of this organization is JOSEPH COOK, President of Illinois Bell Telephone Company.

During recent weeks, forty individuals have been interviewed for the position of executive director of the MCLC. Of this number EDWARD LEE HOLMGREN was chosen to fill this position. [redacted] stated that HOLMGREN currently serves as executive director of Baltimore Neighborhood, Incorporated. He is married to MARTHA BLANKENSHIP HOLMGREN. (It is noted that report of SA ROBER A. VILLEMURE dated 4/4/63 at Chicago captioned EDWARD CLIFFORD HOLMGREN, aka, states that HOLMGREN was divorced in Chicago, 6/6/58 from MARTHA BLANKENSHIP HOLMGREN. This report also indicates that a marriage license was issued to EDWARD LEE HOLMGREN and MARY TEMPLE HOLMGREN, 6/19/58, and they were married 6/21/58, Evanston, Illinois.)

According to [redacted], HOLMGREN was an active member of the Hyde Park Communist Party (CP) in 1946 and was a member of the American Youth for Democracy at the University of Chicago in 1946 and 1947. He was a contributor with his wife to the Clinton Jencks Defense Committee in 1954. In 1942 he reportedly belonged to a Marxist CP Club with a residence address of 10 East Cedar Street, Chicago. He allegedly made a report in 1947 to MOLLIE WEST of the CP of Illinois regarding housing matters in Chicago. In 1960, he was affiliated in some capacity with the Chicago Urban League.

[redacted] advised that JOSEPH COOK and PAUL M. LUND, Senior Commercial Manager, Illinois Bell Telephone Company, are both generally aware of the above information.

SECURITY MATTER - C

An article appeared in the November 30, 1966, issue of the "Chicago Sun-Times", a Chicago daily newspaper which contained the following information:

A former Chicago housing specialist was named executive director Tuesday of the council set up to enforce this summer's open housing agreement in Chicago, Illinois. He is Edward L. Holmgren, a native Chicagoan and now executive director of the Baltimore Neighborhoods, Incorporated, a private non-profit agency specializing in stabilizing racially mixed neighborhoods.

Holmgren attended the University of Illinois and the University of Chicago where he majored in political science. From 1949 until 1959 Holmgren was in charge of tenant selection for the Chicago Housing Authority (CHA). After leaving the CHA Holmgren worked for some three years as a housing specialist for the Chicago Urban League.

This article continued stating that Albert A. Raby Convener of the Co-ordinating Council of Community Organizations (CCCO) hailed Holmgren's appointment. The article pointed out that Raby and Doctor Martin Luther King, Jr. were co-chairmen of the Chicago Freedom Movement (CFM) and they led the summer open housing marches which led to the agreement in Chicago on August 27, 1966, regarding open housing.

An article appearing in the November 30, 1966, issue of another Chicago daily newspaper, "The Chicago Daily News", stated that Holmgren would be chairman of the Leadership Council for Metropolitan Chicago Open Housing Communities which is a group formed following the August 26, 1966, agreement on open housing in Chicago, Illinois. This group is also known as the Metropolitan Chicago Leadership Council for Open Housing.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on April 26, 1946, that Edward Lee Holmgren, 1541 East 61st Street, Chicago, Illinois, a student, had applied for membership in the Communist Party, USA, in 1946.

A second confidential source, an agency which collects intelligence-type information in the Chicago area, advised on May 9, 1955, that Edward Lee Holmgren was a member of the Hyde Park Club of the Communist Party in 1946 and was active in attending meetings.

A third confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Edward Holmgren was a member of the Nate Schilling Communist Party Club in 1946 and 1947.

A copy of this communication is being furnished to the United States Attorney's Office, and United States Secret Service, both Chicago, Illinois, and Region I, 113th MI Group, Evanston, Illinois.

On 12/3/66, at the outset of the meetings, HERBERT APTHEKER, Theoretician for the CP, USA, announced that his daughter, BETTINA, was returning to Berkeley, California, because of student unrest on the campus where both students and faculty in large numbers were stating their opposition to the war in Vietnam. APTHEKER requested those present to send funds to help the students in opposition to the war.

During the 12/3/66, session, which was chaired by ELSIE DICKERSON, GUS HALL, CP General Secretary, talked on the November, 1966, elections in the United States. In substance, he urged CP members everywhere to oppose the ultra-right and exert every effort to end the war in Vietnam. Discussion on this topic lasted the rest of the day and continued through the 12/4/66, session, which was chaired by JOHN STANFORD of Texas.

On 12/5/66, the meeting was chaired by a RALPH (LNU) from Oregon. CARL WINTER made a report on The Worker. He said $100,000.00 was needed to rebuild the plant which had been damaged by a bomb in September, 1966. A fund raising campaign which was to last through June, 1967, was to be undertaken to raise the $100,000.00. WINTER requested $2,000.00 new subscriptions to The Worker.

On 12/6/66, the session was chaired by a white, male, from Chicago, who operated the CP book shop in that city. HENRY WINSTON, CP, USA, Chairman, talked about the Negro struggle. He described the Civil Rights movement. He pointed out that "black power" arose naturally out of the Civil Rights movement and was part of the struggle. He stressed that the CP must support the struggle of the Negro everywhere though the Party could not endorse such aspects of the struggle as "black power" since it was divisive in nature.

On 12/7/66, HELEN WINTER acted as Chairman. A spokesman for youth who is a member of the National Committee said that the Youth Commission had met and was fully opposed to the war in Vietnam and the draft. He urged mobilization of students on college campuses so that they could voice their opposition to the war. GUS HALL then talked about his recent world wide trip. He emphasized communist solidarity though pointing out that the Red Chinese were not in full accord with the rest of the communist world and that a world conference was needed to settle the dispute.

GUS HALL then stated that the National Board had met on the evening of 12/5/66, and had proposed the following individuals for membership on the new National Board:

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT
WILLIAM PATTERSON
JAMES JACKSON
JACK KLING
GUS HALL

Security Matter - C

On January 5, 1967, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that information had come to his attention which disclosed that Stanley Levison, Martin Luther King and Bernard Lee (assistant to King) were in contact on that date. The source said he learned that they discussed the following matters:

Levison related to King that Carey McWilliams, the Editor of "The Nation" magazine, had contacted him to see if King would be willing to participate in a conference on February 25, 1966, in California, which is being held by "The Nation". In describing the affair, Levison said it would be for the purpose of examining United States foreign policy as it concerns the Pacific, and in particular, as it concerns Vietnam. Among the participants will be Senators Eugene McCarthy of Minnesota and George McGovern of South Dakota.

King's presence on the panel, according to Levison, would be to talk on what he testified to during his presence before the Congressional Committee of Senator Abraham Ribicoff on December 15, 1966. In particular, Levison was of the opinion that King should say that the war in Vietnam is getting in the way of the civil rights movement in this country.

King mentioned that he would have to check on his schedule before giving Levison a reply. He was pleased to hear that he would receive a $1,000.00 honorium to appear.

Another matter taken up by Levison and King was a request from Harry Wachtel that King meet with a group in New York City on Tuesday, January 10, 1967. It was Levison's opinion that the group, composed of Norman Thomas (leading National Socialist), William Coffin (Yale University Chaplin) and others, want to talk to King about the possibility of getting him to run for President of the United States in 1968.

King, after hearing this, said this (his candidacy) would admittedly be not with the idea of winning, confirming that it would be to give an alternative. King opined that such a meeting would be for the purpose of discussing politics, adding that he thought running would be an interesting idea.

Levison was of the opinion that in view of the way things are going, with the prospect that 1968 could be one of those frustrating situations for people, he thought some sober thought had to be given to King's candidacy.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in April, 1964, that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA) in July, 1963. In late 1963 and early 1964, he criticized the CP for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. Levison was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position on civil rights. His differences with the CP, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism. (U)

The April 13, 1964 issue of "The New York Times", page 23, contained an advertisement of the Emergency Committee for Civil Liberties (ECLC) which lists Carey McWilliams of New York as a member of the ECLC Executive Committee.

A characterization of the ECLC is set forth in the appendix page.

Regarding Harry Wachtel's wife, Lenora, the same source advised on March 5, 1944, that her name and address were on a list of names of newly elected officers of the Bath Beach Club of the Kings County CP.

COMMITTEE TO SAVE POWELL,
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS
RACIAL MATTER

The January 8, 1967 edition of the "Chicago Sun-Times" contained an article reporting that a press conference was held by Russell Meek, as the Press Coordinator of the captioned committee. This press conference was held at the Sherman House Hotel, Chicago, Illinois, on January 7, 1967. Meek was quoted as soliciting support from all Black Power advocates in the campaign to save Representative Adam Clayton Powell's seat in the Congress of the United States. Meek urged Negroes to save Powell's seat by "all means necessary."

An article appearing in the "Chicago Defender," a local Chicago, daily Negro newspaper, on January 8, 1967, stated that Meek is a radio personality with station WXFM and is Public Relations Representative for the Chicago Unit of the Congress on Racial Equality, (CORE).

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on December 22, 1966, that Russell Meek attended a meeting of the Coordinating Council for Black Power (CCBP) in Chicago, Illinois, on December 21, 1966. The main discussion at this meeting concerned the desirability of Negroes possessing guns to defend themselves.

This source advised that following this CCBP meeting on December 21, 1966, several of those in attendance, including Meek, visited a home where a Negro family had recently moved into a white community. It was the purpose of this CCBP group to provide protection for this Negro family and several of the CCBP members had guns in their possession.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. It is the property of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

The source advised that Meek did not have a gun in his possession, however, a female Negro, accompanying Meek, had a .32 caliber automatic in her purse, which allegedly was for Meek's use if necessary.

The source advised that the CCBP is a loose amalgamation of various organizations, including CORE, ACT and the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee. The source advised that CCBP affairs held to date have been attended by representatives of these organizations at which the concept of Black Power has been discussed, however, no actual functioning CCBP organization has yet evolved from these meetings.

A second source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on March 9, 1966, that Russell Meek, residing at 3333 West Washington, maintains a carbine rifle with a scope and an automatic shotgun at his residence for the purpose of defending himself and advocates other Negroes possess firearms for the purpose of self protection.

This source advised on January 9, 1967, that Meek continues to reside at 3333 West Washington, Chicago, Illinois.

A third source, who has furnished insufficient information on which to determine reliability, advised from records on April 14, 1966, that Russell Charles Meek, date of birth, September 9, 1923, at Springfield, Illinois, has resided at 3333 West Washington, Apartment 902, Chicago, Illinois, since March 30, 1964. The source described Meek as follows:

Sex:	Male
Race:	Negro
Height:	5' 11"
Weight:	160 lbs.
Birthmark:	On left temple
Characteristic:	Walks with a limp
Employment:	Self employed - promoting various entertainers and is a radio announcer

COMMITTEE TO SAVE POWELL
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

A fourth source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on May 2, 1952, that Russell Charles Meek had been expelled from the Communist Party, USA, a short time previously. This source advised Meek was expelled mainly because he was suspected of embezzling funds and also because he was a trouble maker and had been engaged in illicit love affairs.

RUSSELL CHARLES MEEK HAS BEEN REPORTED ADVOCATING NEGROES ARM TO DEFEND THEMSELVES AND IS REPORTED TO BE IN POSSESSION OF FIREARMS. MEEK SHOULD BE CONSIDERED ARMED AND POSSIBLY DANGEROUS.

BAYARD T. RUSTIN

On page 11, of the January 5, 1967, issue of "The Evening Bulletin," Philadelphia newspaper, Philadelphia, Pa., there appeared an article entitled "Rustin Denounces Negroes Who Refuse Help of Whites." According to this article BAYARD T. RUSTIN attended a testimonial dinner for the Reverend E. MARSHALL BEVINS at the Downingtown Motor Inn, Downingtown, Chester County, Pa. Father BEVINS, age 46, resigned last month from his post as Vicar of two small Episcopal churches in Chester County because he split with his congregation on civil rights. RUSTIN told the more than 200 persons who attended this dinner that Father BEVINS is one of those white men whom Negroes need. It is not the radical group of the right, such as the John Birch Society, that hurt the drive of Negroes for equality. It is rather the apathy of the good people who know what is the right thing to do but don't do it. RUSTIN also denounced as "idiots and fools" those Negroes who want to exclude whites from the civil rights movement. He noted the attempts of several civil rights leaders to drive whites out of the movement as reverse racism. White men who have the courage and nobility to stand up for equality for all men are needed by the Negroes and "we want them in the movement."

In the "Saturday Evening Post," issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, BAYARD RUSTIN is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights." In it, RUSTIN is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party." Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, RUSTIN gave most of his earnings to the "Party." He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states.

BAYARD T. RUSTIN

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily Worker," February 11, 1957, page 1, column 2, reported that BAYARD RUSTIN, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America, (CPUSA), held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958.

On September 25, 1963, PH T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that during a meeting of the National Board, Communist Party, USA, on September 25, 1963, BENJAMIN J. DAVIS remarked that, "RUSTIN calls me constantly--openly." (U)

On February 19 and 20, 1964, PH T-2, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that BAYARD RUSTIN contacted BENJAMIN J. DAVIS on February 19 and 20, 1964, and sought his advice as to how he could escape from a speaking engagement to which he was committed. On the latter contact, DAVIS told RUSTIN that he was working on his request and had contacted friends who had contacts with the group to which RUSTIN was to speak.

C.P. member

On January 14, 1967, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that he had learned that a conference between Martin Luther King, President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), Bayard Rustin, Stanley Levison, A. Philip Randolph (President of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters), Andrew Young (Executive Director of the SCLC) and Ralph Abernathy (Secretary-Treasurer of the SCLC) took place on that date. It was further learned by the source that their conference was in regard to the controversy over Congressman Adam Clayton Powell and in particular, the refusal of Congress to seat Powell. According to the information received by the source, the following was, in substance, what transpired during their discussion: b7D

First of all, Randolph announced that on Monday, January 16, 1967, he would hold a meeting at his office in New York City to discuss with civil rights leaders and other leaders in various walks of life, Congressman Powell's arrogance and misconduct and then issue a statement pointing out that the Negro leadership does not condone his conduct. b7D

King announced that he would not be able to attend the meeting at Randolph's because he was going on vacation to Jamaica. However, he was glad to hear that some action was being planned since his organization needs a sense of direction on the matter. b7D

The question arose as to what kind of organization Randolph has organized to handle those matters pertinent to Powell's difficulty with Congress. It was learned from Randolph that he had organized a committee called Justice and Congress which will be made up of civil rights leaders and some church leaders. This committee, according to Randolph, will be an Ad Hoc Committee until a meeting of rights leaders takes place in Washington in two weeks, at which time the committee will go out of existence. XU

It was Rustin's opinion that some decision must be reached on Monday to control Powell. He mentioned that Powell had been running around the country telling everyone that he had Randolph and that "stupid King" in his pocket. It was Rustin's conclusion that unless Powell is stopped, he will ruin the entire civil rights movement. Rustin, the source mentioned, has very little sympathy for Powell. XU

King pointed out that he had received numerous letters from people who were outraged because he supported Powell. Those people, King mentioned, were disillusioned and felt that Negro leaders had been very dishonest in supporting Powell without pointing out that he was responsibile for the treatment he is receiving. It was King's conclusion that in supporting Powell, it looked as if they (Negro leaders) were condoning immorality in terms of conduct when it comes to the money questions and all of the other things that finally came out concerning Powell. King admitted that he would not mind facing the criticism and loss of money that he would surely suffer as long as Powell appreciated it, but was of the opinion that he (Powell) did not appreciate the support. XU

Randolph agreed that many white people who have a very fine record on civil rights, feel that when the Negro leadership came out in support of Powell, that it had displayed a lack of civic righteousness. In order to offset this attitude, Randolph felt that it must be made clear that the Negro leadership has a Constitutional obligation to support Powell. XU

It was Rustin's feeling that what they (the Negro leadership) should say in any press release is that with regard to the tragic situation with Powell as with others, what we (the Negro leadership) now call for is the abolishment of the Rules Committee as it is now set up, and that an ethical standard be established on which all people could be judged. X U

It was Levison's position that no longer could the Negro leadership "pussyfoot" on the issue. He maintained that the Negro leadership was already in an unbalanced situation, in that the country believes that the Negro leadership had backed Powell on everything he had done. Levison enumerated two points which he said had to be gotten across to the public: one, the Constitutional and Congressional issues that are involved in the hope that they can understand; and the other, what the Negro leadership feels about Powell. In explaining what he meant, Levison was of the opinion that if Negro leaders could call Powell arrogant in private, they should also say the same in public. X U

Levison expressed confidence that if the most prominent Negro leaders were to make a statement that Powell's misconduct was misconduct, it would get a press play that would be big enough to wash out any preliminary or temporary confusion that he may have created. X U

The conference concluded on a note of agreement that on Monday, January 16, 1967, following the meeting at Randolph's office, a statement would be issued pointing out that the Negro leadership concludes that what is involved in this case are principles that are bigger than ordinary Congressional rules. But these rules, whatever they may be, have to be applied to everyone, the statement will include. The statement will also urge that Congress respect the Congressional District which elected Powell. X U

Rustin announced that Monday's noon meeting will be attended by Randolph, Rustin, representatives from the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), Whitney Young, Director of the Urban League, and representatives from the SCLC. X U

A review of available information reflects that Albuquerque has no one in its division believed to be identical with this individual.

A review of other informant reports concerning the CP National Committee meeting held in New York City during December, 1966, reflects that the individual in question is probably JOSE CASTILLO of San Antonio, Texas.

It is suggested that San Antonio furnish the Bureau and interested offices their comments upon this identification.

Communist Influence in Racial Matters

With regard to individuals who attended the meeting, the same source advised on January 14, 1967, that Rustin planned on the following to be present: A. Philip Randolph, Whitney Young, Director of the Urban League; representatives from the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP); representatives from the SCLC, and Rustin.

It was decided during the meeting referred to, that a statement which Rustin prepared, should be issued on behalf of the Negro leadership. In essence, the statement, when issued, will point out that differences exist within the civil rights movement as to the accomplishments of Congressman Adam Clayton Powell. But without condoning the actions of Powell, the civil rights movement has two things to say: it strongly objects to the unseating of Powell; that he has been denied due process, but his constitutents have been unduly deprived of representation in Congress. The statement will also point out that this is not an issue among Negroes alone, but concerns all Americans who believe in the democratic process. It will further state that the position of the Negro leadership is supported by New York Senators Javits and Kennedy.

In conclusion, the statement will urge a uniform standard of conduct for all Congressmen, a standard of conduct which should be enforced among all members. The statement will point out that the Negro leadership does not want a double standard of conduct, and that they do not shut their eyes to the shortcomings of Powell or anyone else, but that Powell is the only one who has been judged. When everyone is judged, not Powell alone, the Negro leadership will not demand immunity for anyone.

Communist Influence in Racial Matters

It was Levison's opinion that the last sentence in the statement should be deleted because it was defensive and sounded as though the Negro leadership was asking for immunity for Powell. Rustin acceded to Levison's objection and agreed to delete the objectionable part.

According to the source, Rustin mentioned that the statement would not be released until Martin Luther King gave his approval and agreed to sign it.

It was Levison's opinion that the statement mildly castigates Powell and less than heatedly condemns what was done.

II. GENERAL RACIAL CONDITIONS

Los Angeles, California

In the Los Angeles "Herald-Dispatch," a Los Angeles Negro newspaper, issue of January 5, 1967, page 1, was an article reporting that Ben Peery, President of the Watts Coordinating Council, had objected to National Broadcasting Company filming of a television epic entitled, "Losers Weepers," on the basis it gave a bad or false image of Watts, California. The play was written by Harry Dolan, a newcomer to Watts. Peery stated the film was an "insult to every decent Negro woman in America and ...a slur on the attitude of motherhood in our community."

In the "Los Angeles Times" of January 11, 1967, II-1, was an article reporting that five of the original seven persons given temporary appointments to "represent the poor" on the Los Angeles County anti-poverty board could not qualify for the positions today, because they make over the $4,000 a year minimum required for the position. Three of the five persons now work for the anti-povery program.

In the "Los Angeles Times" of January 11, 1967, II-6, was an article reporting that Los Angeles had instituted a two million dollar Community Analysis Program to chart the "physical, economic and social profiles" of the city. The study is to take three years and will furnish data for planners and administrators. Other cities call the same program the Community Renewal Program. The study will be financed two-thirds by the Federal Government and one third by Los Angeles. Critics feel the study will produce no tangible results.

In the "Los Angeles Sentinel," Los Angeles Negro newspaper, issue of January 12, 1967, page A-1, was an article reporting the United States Department of Urban Development had funded approximately $350,000 to survey and plan for a redevelopment of the Watts area of Los Angeles. Congressman Augustus Hawkins and Mayor Samuel Yorty expressed pleasure over the funding, which is hoped to solve many problems in the area.

A similar article in the "Los Angeles Times" of January 11, 1967, II-1, reported that after the above survey, more than six million dollars would be available for the actual reconstruction of the area, which should take several years.

On January 12, 1967, source 1, a highly placed official in the Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD), advised that Father Luce of the Episcopal Church Teen Post in East Los Angeles, had stated the Happy Valley Community Alert Patrol had been disbanded as there was no longer a need for it. He stated, however, that his assistant, Father Woods, was still on the steering committee of the Police Malpractice Complaint Center at 2222 East First Street, Los Angeles. Father Woods is a member of the State Bar of California and a graduate of Stanford Law School.

In the "Los Angeles Times" of January 17, 1967, I-3, was an article reporting that two million dollars was voted by the Los Angeles Board of Education to establish a new Southwest Los Angeles Junior College in the Watts area of Los Angeles. The site is considered controversial, and Stephen Reichardt of the Los Angeles College Teachers Association stated the new school would be an all-Negro school, extending 12 years of segregated education to 14 years.

POSSIBLE RACIAL VIOLENCE
MAJOR URBAN AREAS
RACIAL MATTERS

Monrovia - Duarte area

Monrovia and Duarte are cities in the San Gabriel Valley, approximately 15 and 20 miles respectively east of Los Angeles.

In the "Los Angeles Times" of January 11, 1967, II-9, was an article reporting the installation of new officers for the Monrovia - Duarte Human Relations Council (HRC). Mrs. Richard Ray of Monrovia heads the group. She announced open housing was the most important concern of the organization and stated the HRC would maintain a listing service to help citizens find housing outside of traditional areas.

In the "Los Angeles Times" of January 11, 1967, II-9, was an article announcing that 210 teachers and administrators of the Duarte Unified School District were to attend two programs on human relations at Duarte High School, to aid the district in awareness and planning regarding minority groups in the area.

In the "Los Angeles Sentinel" of January 12, 1967, page A-2, was an article reporting that Duarte city councilman Kurt Hahn stated he vigorously opposed a plan to merge the LAPD and the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Office (LASO), being studied by the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors. Councilman Hahn stated he "wanted no part of central Los Angeles racial or poverty programs which would become an overriding consideration in a merged metropolitan police agency." The LASO presently polices the city of Duarte.

In the "Los Angeles Times" of January 16, 1967, II-1, was an article reporting a citizens school committee had been established in Monrovia to study "obvious racial imbalance" in the school system.

III. CURRENT EVALUATION OF VIOLENCE POTENTIAL

Los Angeles, California

On January 17, 1967, source 1 advised the general racial situation in the Los Angeles area appeared calm, with no particular incidents of racial tension at the present. Source stated, however, that Negro leaders have indicated concern over cut backs in the poverty program and over possible further cut backs by the new Reagan administration. Source could predict no racial violence in the foreseeable future.

In the "Los Angeles Sentinel" of January 12, 1967, page A-6, was an article by Archie W. Hardwick, Executive Director of the Westminster Neighborhood Association, analyzing the riots during the summer of 1966. He stated the basic reasons for the riots were "bitterness and frustration fostered by overcrowded slums...unemployment...and ineffective cooperation between the races." He stated until Americans realized this and did something about conditions the riots would continue. He pointed out that Americans apparently do not realize this because of the so-called "back lash" to the riots, and the blaming of them on "outside agitators... and Communists." He stated most of the riots would not have occurred had the conditions which caused them been changed in advance.

Venice, California

Venice is an area of Los Angeles immediately adjacent to Santa Monica, California, policed by the LAPD.

On December 21, 1966, John Fleming, Director of "Project Action," a Negro self-help organization in Venice, stated his group was conducting training programs for youths from poor and broken homes in the area. He stated in his opinion the reported incidents during the summer and fall of 1966 in Venice by the police and residents were minor in nature and were exaggerated by the newspapers. He stated he was at the scene of each incident and they were grossly exaggerated. He stated he anticipated no racial trouble in the Venice and Santa Monica areas in the near future.

On January 12, 1967, California Health and Welfare Administrator Spencer Williams announced the closing of eight out of 13 Service Centers throughout California. The centers had been instituted to provide varied services to residents of poverty areas after the Watts riot of August, 1965. Among the centers closed was the center at 324 Lincoln Boulevard, Venice.

On January 13, 1967, source 1 advised there had been a meeting in Venice on the night of January 12, 1967, where a protest over the closing of the Venice Service Center (VSC) was planned. Speakers at the meeting stated if they did not get what they wanted they would "burn" outside of Venice. Source considered the remarks a baseless threat with no location for such "burning" being mentioned. Pickets marched in front of the VSC on January 13 and on January 16 to 18, 1967, and picketed the Los Angeles residence of Governor Reagan on January 13, 1967.

Source 1 advised the organizations sponsoring the demonstrations were "Project Action" and the Venice Community Improvement Union, described by source as a non-existant union headed by Robert Casteel, male Negro who participated in the demonstrations. Source further advised John Haag had been active in planning the demonstrations.

Source 2 advised on November 3, 1966, that John Haag was area chairman of the W.E.B. Du Bois Club (see appendix) in Los Angeles until he resigned in early 1966 to assume a position with a new political group.

POSSIBLE RACIAL VIOLENCE
MAJOR URBAN AREAS
RACIAL MATTERS

The office of the Watch Commander, Venice Division, LAPD, advised on January 16, 1967, that the situation in the Venice area was normal, other than for the above demonstrations. Source 1 advised on January 16, 1967, there did not appear to be an increase in tension in the southeastern and Watts areas of Los Angeles as a result of the demonstrations.

Source 3 advised on January 18, 1967, there had been a meeting of the City-wide Central Committee of the W.E.B. Du Bois Club in Los Angeles on January 17, 1967, at which plans were announced for a demonstration at the VSC on January 19, 1967, which might be "unpleasant" if Governor Reagan's office did not meet demands of those at the VSC.

In the "Los Angeles Times" of January 19, 1967, II-1, was an article reporting a confused state of affairs regarding the VSC. Center Director Phillip Carter announced the center would remain open because of promised Los Angeles city and county participation. Mayor Samuel Yorty announced the city council would appropriate $50,000 to keep the center going, however, Carter stated operating costs were $25,000 per month. A statement from the office of Governor Reagan made it plain the governor expected the city and county to provide any services.

IV. IDENTITIES OF ORGANIZATIONS INVOLVED IN LOCAL RACIAL SITUATION

On January 17, 1967, source 1 advised there is a Social Action Training Center at 1423 East Florence Avenue, in the southeastern Los Angeles area. John McKee Pratt, Executive Director of the Commission on Church and Race of the Southern California Council of Churches, stated the center is financed partially by the above commission and partially by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare. The purpose of the center is to instruct young Negroes and Mexican-Americans in history and sociology. The program is designed to identify those who are leaders of their groups and to try to influence them toward constructive social action. One of the supervisors of this center is Woodrow Coleman, an active member of the Los Angeles chapter of the Congress of Racial Equality and a member of the Non-Violent Action Committee. The center is directed by Mr. Walter Bremond.

On March 25, 1966, source 4 advised Woodrow Coleman was a speaker at a meeting of the Los Angeles Local - Socialist Workers Party (see appendix) on March 4, 1966, at 1702 East Fourth Street, Los Angeles.

In the "Los Angeles Sentinel" of January 12, 1967, page A-8, was an article reporting that Congressman Augustus Hawkins has saluted the Community Alert Patrol (CAP) for the excellent services it had rendered citizens in his district. He praised Al Bailey and Jimmy Brown for leading the CAP.

In the "Los Angeles Sentinel" of January 12, 1967, page A-6, was an editorial by columnist Leon H. Washington, Jr., reporting that data gathered in "Upward Bound" projects reflected that youths from poor backgrounds who now go to college at the rate of eight per cent could be motivated by continuation of the program to go at the rate of more than 50 per cent. The editorial urged expanded support for the program by the Office of Economic Opportunity.

V. IDENTITIES OF LEADERS AND INDIVIDUALS INVOLVED

The following individuals have been involved in the local racial situation:

John Fleming, head of "Project Action," is active in the racial situation in the Venice area (see Section III).

Walter Bremond, director of the Social Action Training Center, 1423 East Florence Avenue, Los Angeles. Woodrow Coleman is one of the supervisors at this center (see Section IV).

Al Bailey and Jimmy Brown head the Citizens Alert Patrol in the Los Angeles area (see Section IV).

Benjamin Peery, President of the Watts Coordinating Council, remains active in the racial situation in the Los Angeles area (see Section VI).

In the "Los Angeles Sentinel" of January 5, 1967, page A-1, was an article reporting that Thomas L. Galloway, whose arrest triggered a night of rioting in Watts in March, 1966, was sentenced to a term of one to ten years on three counts of battery of a police officer and one count of felony rock throwing. He was convicted on these charges in June, 1966, but sentencing had been delayed to permit a psychiatric examination of Galloway.

In the "Los Angeles Times" of January 17, 1967, II-2, was an article reporting that Edward Lee King, convicted of arson during the Watts riots of August, 1965, on the basis of "voice print" testimony had been sentenced to a term of one to ten years in Superior Court, Los Angeles.

VI. EXISTENCE OF CHANNELS OF COMMUNICATION BETWEEN MINORITY LEADERS AND LOCAL OFFICIALS

In the "Los Angeles Times" of January 18, 1967, II-1, was an article reporting that a citizens advisory council in the 77th Division area of the LAPD had hailed the LAPD for opening up communications with the community in the past months since Chief of Police Thad Brown has been in charge of the LAPD. Reverend Joe B. Hardwick, pastor of a Baptist church in the area, stated the council meets with the LAPD Division every month. He said allegations of mistreatment have been presented to the LAPD with "satisfactory results." Benjamin Peery, President of the Watts Coordinating Council stated "the old tenseness is gone" and "you no longer encounter the feeling of hostility" toward police.

VII. OBJECTIVES SOUGHT BY MINORITY COMMUNITY AND POSSIBLE POINTS OF CONTENTION

In the "Los Angeles Times" of January 11, 1967, II-6, was an article reporting a major integration move is being planned by the Los Angeles City School District. Called the Mid-City Secondary Education Project, it is to cost 1.4 million dollars. The plan emphasizes an exchange of as many as 750 students by bus among five high schools in a modification of the national concept of "educational parks." Different schools will specialize in laboratories in different subjects, with students traveling to another school for these special subjects. The project is voluntary and has been approved by the State Department of Education and the United States Office of Education.

In the "Los Angeles Sentinel" of January 12, 1967, page A-6, was an article by Wesley R. Brazier of the Urban League, congratulating the Los Angeles City Board of Education for approving the above project. He considered the plan "psychologically significant" and stated it was a significant application of community action.

VIII. REACTION OF LEADERS AND MEMBERS OF THE COMMUNITY TO MINORITY DEMANDS

In the "Los Angeles Sentinel" of January 12, 1967, page A-6, was an article reporting that President Johnson and Poverty Director Sargent Shriver were being urged to save some of the anti-poverty programs in Los Angeles. Mayor Samuel Yorty announced the pleas were made by his office in recent letters. Yorty stated that the ten million dollar cutback could be serious, "undoing much of the good that has been accomplished."

MITCHELL ZIMMERMAN AND ARKANSANS FOR PEACE IN VIET NAM

The "Arkansas Gazette," a Little Rock daily newspaper, carried an article in the February 14, 1966, edition captioned "LRU Speakers Differ on Who's Aggressor In the Vietnam War." This article reported the result of a "teach-in" held at Little Rock University on February 12, 1966. The article states that the anti-Vietnam war standpoint was presented by CHRIS HOBSON, a graduate student at the University of Chicago and a writer for the Students for a Democratic Society, and MITCHELL ZIMMERMAN, a Princeton University graduate student on leave to serve as Research Director of the SNCC. ZIMMERMAN is quoted in this article as follows:

"ZIMMERMAN said the United States should withdraw from Vietnam. 'We are fighting what is recognized as being a tragic, costly war,' he said. He said the South Vietnamese regime had violated the Geneva Accord by refusing to have popular elections in 1956 because it knew that HO CHI MINH, president of North Vietnam, would win. ZIMMERMAN said the Geneva Conference divided Vietnam into north and south zones with popular elections scheduled in 1956.

"ZIMMERMAN said the future of Southeast Asia does not depend on whether South Vietnam falls or is saved from communism. 'It depends on internal situations in the other nations,' he said. ZIMMERMAN said the leaders of other Southeast Asian countries must meet responsibilities to the people."

Some of the individuals who organized and participated in the February 12, 1966, demonstration against the war in Viet Nam at McArthur Park in Little Rock, Arkansas, sponsored by the National Coordinating Committee to End the War in Viet Nam, held an organizational meeting about two weeks after this demonstration at the Wesley Foundation at 3204 South Taylor, a Methodist Church-sponsored student center located near Little Rock University. Among those present was MITCHELL ZIMMERMAN, a SNCC field worker.

The purpose of this meeting was to establish an organization and to decide what direction future activities of the organization would take. Considerable discussion was had concerning the possibility of additional marches and demonstrations, but it was eventually decided that there would be no more marches or demonstrations at this time. It was decided that initial efforts would be directed to prepare an advertisement to place in the Little Rock newspaper protesting the war in Viet Nam. Those present were advised that a proposed ad would be prepared and everyone would be notified of the time of the next meeting. It was decided that the organization would call themselves "Arkansans for Peace in Vietnam."

Those who attended the above meeting received in the mail on June 4, 1966, a form letter advising that a meeting would be held on June 5, 1966, at the Wesley Foundation. Enclosed with the announcement were three pages of a mimeographed form setting forth the proposed ad to be placed in the "Arkansas Gazette."

LR T-4, 6/4/66

A characterization of the National Coordinating Committee to End the War in Viet Nam is contained in the appendix attached hereto. N.J.

A meeting of the Arkansans for Peace in Viet Nam was held at the Wesley Foundation on June 5, 1966. One of those attending the meeting was MITCHELL ZIMMERMAN, a SNCC field worker who appeared to be in charge of the meeting. ZIMMERMAN stated he was not the spokesman and wanted someone else to take the lead at the next meeting. ZIMMERMAN stated during the meeting that he wants to have seminars for education studies Ark.

for members and friends who agree with their position on the war in Viet Nam.

LR T-4, 6/6/66

On October 17, 1966, HOWARD ~~K~~ HIMMELBAUM, Field Secretary for SNCC, advised that MITCHELL ZIMMERMAN had returned to Princeton University where he will be engaged in writing a thesis for his doctor's degree. DRK.

The Arkansans for Peace in Vietnam have not held any meetings for the past several months and this is no longer considered an organization. The individuals involved continue to maintain their associations; however, it is not believed that the organization will function again as an organization. The organization was not successful in obtaining sufficient funds to run the proposed advertisement in the "Arkansas Gazette" protesting the Viet Nam war.

LR T-5, 9/15/66

VINCENT O'CONNOR

The National Coordinating Committee to End the War in Viet Nam (NCCEWV) held a conference at Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio, from June 10 to 16, 1966. The purpose of the conference was to hold training sessions for the summer organizing projects of the NCCEWV. Among those listed as being in attendance at a conference held on June 11, 1966, in this connection is VINCENT O'CONNER, SNCC, Arkansas.

LR T-6, 6/16/66

The United States Attorney, San Francisco, California, by letter dated August 9, 1966, requested investigation concerning O'CONNOR who failed to report for civilian work as ordered by his Local Draft Board.

On August 12, 1966, MARY SLIFER, Clerk, Local Board 40, San Francisco, California, advised that O'CONNOR, in correspondence with the Local Board, has indicated he is a "non cooperator" in regard to the "UMTS Act." He also states in his correspondence to the Local Board that he has commitments to the SNCC in Pine Bluff, Arkansas, "which he doesn't see himself terminating as far into the future as he is able to plan."

LR 100-3564

VINCENT JOSEPH O'CONNOR was interviewed by SA [redacted] on September 2, 1966, Pine Bluff, Arkansas, at which time he advised he had received the orders from the Draft Board. He stated he did not report because he is not cooperative with the Selective Service Act. He stated he does not feel he is obliged to serve in the Armed Forces and does not feel he is obliged to serve otherwise. He stated he does not feel that Local Board 40, San Francisco, has a right to say where he would serve. He stated he felt that what he was presently doing was in the long range of the best interest to the country, and he did not feel that the Local Board had a right to say where he was to serve or to instruct him as to what was to the best interest of the country. O'CONNOR advised he is no longer a field representative or employed in any way or affiliated with the SNCC. He stated he is doing the same type work as he has been doing for the last fourteen months in Pine Bluff, Arkansas, but is not an employee of any particular organization. He advised he is doing work such as getting people registered to vote, getting people to run for school board offices, and dealing with different community problems.

VINCENT O'CONNOR

The Southern Student Organizing Committee (SSOC) held a conference at Memphis, Tennessee, on November 25, 26 and 27, 1966. One of the individuals present at the Saturday, November 26, 1966, session was VINCENT O'CONNOR of Pine Bluff, Arkansas, a white male, about 6' tall, medium build, with thick glasses. He was an intellectual beatnik, wore old clothes and work boots. He said he used to be a conscientious objector but is now willing to go into the army. He was soft-spoken and apparently religiously motivated, but was radical in his approach.

VINCENT O'CONNOR of Pine Bluff, Arkansas, was one of the key leaders in the workshop held on November 25, 1966, on the draft and opposition to Universal Military Training. O'CONNOR, who inferred he had previously studied for the priesthood, upheld religious arguments in opposing military service.

LR T-7, 11/28/66

LR 100-3564

A characterization of the Southern Student Organizing Committee (SSOC) is contained in the appendix attached hereto.

At the above-mentioned SSOC conference held on November 25-27, 1966, at Memphis, Tennessee, one of those in attendance was a white male of Pine Bluff, Arkansas, aged 25, 6'3", 180 pounds, blond hair, glasses, who said he had been kicked out of the SNCC and is mad at the SNCC.

NATIONAL COORDINATING COMMITTEE TO END THE WAR IN VIETNAM (NCCEWV)

A source stated on August 20, 1966, that the National Coordinating Committee to End the War in Vietnam (NCCEWV) had its origin in August 1965, when some participants in the March on Washington of August 7, 1965, decided to establish a center to co-ordinate all anti-Vietnam war activities in the United States. A Steering Committee was formed and at a National Convention, held in Washington, D. C., November 24-28, 1965, the NCCEWV was formally organized and a constitution approved. The Steering Committee included delegates from the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) and the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA).

✓ Characterizations of the YSA and DCA are attached.

A second source stated on January 14, 1966, that at the first meeting of the Steering Committee of the NCCEWV, held at Milwaukee, Wisconsin, January 8 and 9, 1966, the committee included several members of both the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) and the Communist Party.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The first source further stated that a struggle for influence over the NCCEWV at its founding had taken place between the DCA and the YSA, with the DCA and its supporters winning out to become one of the major forces in the NCCEWV.

The NCCEWV has, since its formation, been headed by FRANK EMSPAK and located, since January 1966, at 420 West Washington Avenue, Madison, Wisconsin.

Records of the Registrar's Office, University of Wisconsin (UW), Madison, Wisconsin, in April 1964, showed that FRANK EMSPAK, born [redacted] at New York City, whose father was JULIUS EMSPAK, entered that university September 11, 1961. b6 b7C

A P P E N D I X

The April 27, 1962, issue of "The Milwaukee Journal," a Milwaukee, Wisconsin, daily newspaper, reports that JULIUS EMSPAK, aged 57, nationally prominent labor figure, who was once identified as a communist, died on April 26, 1962.

During the Fall of 1964, Special Agents of the FBI observed FRANK EMSPAK in attendance at meetings of the Madison chapter of the DCA.

"The Milwaukee Journal" in its edition of July 1, 1965, characterized FRANK EMSPAK as President of the Wisconsin Socialist Club (WSC).

A characterization of the WSC is attached.

The NCCEWV issues a newsletter, "Peace and Freedom News," distributes material attacking U. S. policy in Vietnam and coordinates demonstrations and protests against the Vietnam war in the United States and abroad.

SOUTHERN STUDENT ORGANIZING COMMITTEE

On November 1, 1966, a first source advised that the Southern Student Organizing Committee (SSOC), with headquarters at 1703 Portland Avenue, Nashville, Tennessee, was formed on the weekend of April 3-5, 1964, to stimulate activity of southern student groups in areas of civil rights, peace, academic freedom, civil liberties, capital punishment and unemployment. Originally, it was to be, in effect, the white counterpart of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), and it has agreed to and has worked with similar interested groups, SNCC and Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), and it has become a fraternal affiliate of the SDS.

Beginning in the Fall of 1966, SSOC became a membership organization and embarked on a campaign to form local chapters on various college campuses throughout the South.

SSOC publishes a monthly publication, "New South Student," which, according to source, has increasingly defended and espoused the pro-Communist and anti-United States position with particular emphasis on attacking United States policy in Viet Nam.

Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) is described as follows:

Luce describes SDS as the student arm of the League for Industrial Democracy, formed in 1960, and says it was originally opposed to the totalitarianism of Communism and the programs of the Communist Party, USA, (CP, USA). Luce said that the "old left newspaper," the "National Guardian," in its issue of January 9, 1965, described the SDS as "the largest student organization on the left." Luce adds: "SDS has become more and more radical and has espoused the united-front policy of joining with the myriad of young Communist groups in demonstrations.... SDS has carried its program of the united-front to such an extent that it now feels it must involve itself directly with the young Communists in a variety of activities to oppose the war in Viet Nam. . . . SDS shelved its Communist exclusion clause in its constitution and threw open its membership to young Communists." He concludes: "The young Communists are, of course, elated at the ultra-left swing of the SDS and are vying to attempt to bring it under their individual control."

WISCONSIN SOCIALIST CLUB

On December 10, 1957, source one described the Wisconsin Socialist Club (WSC) as then a duly registered and authorized student campus organization at the University of Wisconsin (UW), with a charter membership of 21, including MATTHEW CHAPPERON and RONALD RADOSH, who prior to the dissolution of the Labor Youth League (LYL) were publicly known as officers of the UW chapter of the LYL. On November 30, 1960, source two identified MATTHEW CHAPPERON as then a member of the State Committee of the Communist Party of Wisconsin (CPW).

On June 23, 1958, source three described the WSC as an organization founded primarily on principles closely allied with those of English socialists, with many of its members genuine socialists, but source observed there existed a pro-Marxist element in the club, including CHAPPERON and RADOSH, which element had taken the lead in policy-making functions of the WSC. On September 20, 1960, this source reported that RADOSH and CHAPPERON had been elected president and secretary respectively of the WSC for the 1960-1961 school year.

The November 16, 1963, issue of "The Daily Cardinal," student organ at the UW, identified JAMES DOUGLAS MOORE as the then chairman of the WSC. MOORE, according to source four, also during 1964 became the Midwest coordinator of a movement to form a national Marxist youth organization. During April 1964, source four reported that MOORE had recently been recruited into the CP. This source also identified WALTER ELLIOT GROSS as collaborating with MOORE in the founding of a new Marxist yough organization, and in February 1964, source five identified GROSS as corresponding secretary of the WSC.

FRANK EMSPAK and CHRIS HORTON were president and vice president for the first semester of the 1964-1965 school year, and, when EMSPAK graduated February 1, 1965, HORTON held both positions for the remainder of the second semester. EMSPAK and HORTON were observed by Special Agents of the FBI in attendance at meetings of the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) during 1964, an organization publicly described as communist dominated by FBI Director J. EDGAR HOOVER.

A P P E N D I X

EMSPAK is the son of JULIUS EMSPAK, now deceased but once nationally prominently known as a Communist labor leader. HORTON was identified by source six as recruited into the CP on his 19th birthday.

Issues of "The Daily Cardinal" during the 1964-1965 school year reflected that the WSC continued to function as a student organization at the UW, periodically sponsoring off-campus speakers, including HENRY WINSTON and FRED BLAIR, who have been identified by source seven as vice chairman of the CP, USA and chairman of the CPW respectively.

The LYL is an organization which has been designated by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On December 9, 1965, source eight advised that the WSC did not register as a student organization at the UW, Madison, during the Fall of 1965, and, as of October 15, 1965, was considered as being inactive at the UW.

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE

The May 1960, issue of the "Young Socialist," (YS), page 1, column 3, disclosed that during April 15-17, 1960, a national organization entitled "The Young Socialist Alliance" (YSA) was established at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. The issue stated that this organization was formed by the nation-wide supporter clubs of the publication YS.

The above issue, page 6, set forth the founding declaration of YSA. This declaration stated that the YSA recognizes the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) as the only existing political leadership on class struggle principles, and that the supporters of the YS have come into basic political solidarity with the SWP on the principles of revolutionary socialism.

A source advised on May 23, 1966, that the original YSA was an organization formed during October 1957, in New York City by youth of various left socialist tendencies, particularly members and followers of the SWP. The leaders of this group were the guiding forces in the establishment of the national organization.

The source further advised on May 23, 1966, that the YSA is dominated and controlled on a national basis by the SWP through having SWP members comprise exclusively the National Executive Committee (NEC). The YSA, in reality, is the youth and training section for the SWP and the main source of new SWP members.

The headquarters of the YSA are located in Room 535, 41 Union Square West, New York City.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

A. Communist Party (CP)

At a meeting of the State Committee CP, October 15, 1966, the members agreed that a proposed Draft Program for action by the CP should emphasize mass work in the Congress on Racial Equality (CORE), the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), and ACTION. The latter organization consists of a dissident group which has split off from the St. Louis Chapter of CORE because they do not believe it sufficiently militant.

(SL T-1 October 20, 1966)

The proposed Draft Program was made available to CP groups for discussion. One CP group meeting in early November, 1966, approved a section of the Draft which calls for "an end of segregation and Jim Crow".

(SL T-2 November 14, 1966)

At a meeting of State officers, Missouri District CP, in early December, 1966, there was a discussion of various civil rights organizations. HERSHEL J. WALKER, Chairman of the Missouri District CP, was critical of the NAACP. He said it is "not in the swing of things" largely due to its National officers; furthermore, not much change can be anticipated. He said that any local branch which would try to alter national policies would be expelled. WALKER went on to say that CORE appears to be an organization with the kind of leadership and political outlook which will "meet the demands of the future". WALKER observed that the National CP leaders feel the same way about CORE. He asserted that he believes the CP locally can work with the leadership of the St. Louis Chapter.

WALKER stated a forum was planned in connection with Negro History Week and it was hoped it would be sponsored by CORE, ACTION, and the St. Louis Freedom of the Press Committee (SLFPC). He said the program would include a debate on "Black Power". WALKER assigned a CP member to join CORE and become active in an effort to influence this organization. He said any CP member, who desired to join CORE, could do so.

(SL T-1 December 15, 1966)

SLFPC is characterized in the attached appendix.

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

A. Communist Party

On September 24, 1966, RUSSELL HAYES, a Negro, was shot and killed by an officer of the St. Louis Police Department while handcuffed. Demonstrations in the form of picketing were begun shortly thereafter under the primary sponsorship of the St. Louis Chapter of CORE. However, members of ACTION also participated. HERSHEL J. WALKER advised a local CP leader he had been participating in the picketing and was worried the situation might get out of hand because the Negro community is very disturbed. WALKER said persons in charge of the picketing proved themselves either inexperienced or unaware of the dire consequences of unruly action. He further said that youths participating in the picketing are either school dropouts or trouble makers, who are specifically attempting to foment incidents. WALKER said he planned to get responsible people to take part in the picketing and urged the other CP leader to do likewise.

(SL T-1 October 13, 1966)

WALKER stated he and another CP member were helping to picket the Supreme Management Corporation, 6221 Delmar Avenue, in protest over its alleged discrimination against a Negro family whose application for an apartment in Berkeley was rejected. The corporation was accused of discriminating against Negroes in the rental of property. The picket line was sponsored by The Greater St. Louis Committee for Freedom of Residence.

(SL T-3 October 3, 1966)

During early October, 1966, HERSHEL J. WALKER commented he had been spending all of his spare time in the picketing of the Supreme Management Corporation.

(SL T-4 October 12, 1966)

In mid-October, 1966, WALKER boasted that the job of running the picket line at the Supreme Management Corporation had been "unofficially" left up to him. He said there was some danger of the picket line being discontinued but he had called friends and recruited them. He further said that he discussed the matter with RUTH PORTER, head of The Greater St. Louis Committee for Freedom of Residence, and it was decided not to continue the picket line daily but rather operate it only on weekends. He said it was further decided to picket the home of the President of Supreme Management Corporation and this had been done on one occasion.

(SL T-4 October 26, 1966)

WALKER continued to participate in picketing Supreme Management Corporation in November, 1966. In addition to the company offices and residence of the owner, picketing was also conducted of a restaurant belonging to the owner of Supreme Management Corporation.

(SL T-4 November 30, 1966)

Members of the CP actively participated in promoting a so-called "progressive slate" which ran in the December 5, 1966 election of the St. Louis Chapter NAACP. A veteran CP member was one of the candidates on this slate and CP members were encouraged to attend the meeting at which the election was held and cast their votes. The effort was unsuccessful and no one on the slate won.

(SL T-3 December 12, 1966)

SLFPC sponsored a panel forum discussion at the residence of a member on December 18, 1966. Subject of the forum was "not Black Power, not White Power but Peoples Power". PERCY GREEN, Chairman of ACTION, was scheduled to attend and be one of the participants but he did not appear. HERSHEL J. WALKER discussed "Black Power" saying this is only a slogan and should be viewed in this light. He acknowledged it had caused considerable concern among white people. LORETTA WAXMAN, veteran CP member, discussed "White Power" saying it is concentrated in the hands of a few; that these individuals control the political arena and means of production. WILLIAM E. DAVIS, Chairman of the CP Industrial Area and Educational

Director of the Missouri District CP, discussed "Peoples Power" and concluded that for it to be effective there must be a consolidation of Negroes, whites and labor.

(SL T-2 December 20, 1966)

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

ORVIL T. LEACH, a veteran CP member, was assigned to work in ACTION by the CP. He has served as Chairman of the so-called Community Relations Committee of this organization for some time. Its function is to probe alleged cases of police brutality. LEACH has complained that victims in such cases frequently refuse to discuss the matter with him and he believes it is because he is white. LEACH also has complained to CP leaders that he is spending a good deal of time in this endeavor and it has not been productive.

(SL T-1 October 4, 1966)

The CP has no appreciable influence in the St. Louis Chapter of CORE or the St. Louis Chapter of the NAACP.

ST. LOUIS FREEDOM OF THE PRESS COMMITTEE

On October 29, 1951, a source advised that the Freedom of the Press Committee was organized in St. Louis in the fall of 1951 for the purpose of increasing the circulation of "The Worker" and the "Daily Worker".

On March 8, 1954, Reverend OBADIAH JONES, who was a witness for the Government in the St. Louis Smith Act trial in March, 1954, advised that the principal activities of the Communist Party in the St. Louis area at that time were concentrated in various front organizations of which the Freedom of the Press Committee was one.

In May, 1966, a second source advised that the Freedom of the Press Committee is one of the front organizations in the St. Louis area in which the activity of the Communist Party is concentrated; that the Committee's purpose continues to be distribution of "The Worker"; and that the organization has been continuously under the complete control and domination of the Communist Party in the St. Louis, Missouri area since he became acquainted with it in 1955.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist newspaper which suspended publication on January 13, 1958.

Rerep of SA W. JAMES WOOD, Dallas, 11/1/66; also Manual of Instructions, III, 87C, pages 12a-12c.

The Dallas Office has no positive information to report for the past quarter. There is no information indicating any recent communist influence in racial matters within the Dallas Division. An investigative report covering the past quarter, therefore, is not being submitted.

For the information of the Bureau and New York, the only Communist Party (CP) member who has held membership in or has been active in the National Association for Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), and Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), at Dallas since August, 1964 (when CIRM program was instituted), has been JOE LANDIN. That information was reported in reports each quarter, along with information that he exercised no influence in NAACP or CORE activities. [redacted] b7D

The CORE Chapter at Dallas is now inactive. There has been no change in regard to the NAACP or this informant's status since submission of rerep.

Hereafter the Dallas Office does not contemplate submitting reports for dissemination under instant caption where the sole information to report is activity of a Bureau informant who is not exercising any communist influence in racial matters.

Reports will be submitted in the future if and when any positive information, however limited, is received indicating any racial matters are being influenced by communists (including any type of subversive influence).

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

A. COMMUNIST PARTY USA

1. Local Communist Party (CP) Plans and Strategy

CV T-1 advised on October 31, 1966, that PHILIP BART suggested on October 27, 1966, that instead of there being a Negro History Week during February, 1967, an effort should be made to get the entire month of February to be known as Negro History Month. BART wants a number of Negro CP members in Cleveland to contact the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) and the Congress on Racial Equality (CORE) and other organizations, both Negro and white, to see if they cannot get something started along this line. S.I.

PHILIP BART

CV T-5 advised on November 17, 1966, that BART is the new secretary of the Ohio CP, as announced at an Ohio State CP Committee meeting held in Cleveland, Ohio, on November 13, 1966.

CV T-1 advised on October 31, 1966, that during discussions with HENRY CRAWFORD on October 27, 1966, CRAWFORD pointed out that it has always been hard to recruit Negroes into the CP, but that "since black power came along it is even harder to recruit the Negroes". CRAWFORD said that CP members will have to work into Negro organizations and into Labor Unions, but this will have to be accomplished without being identified as a Communist for as soon "as you are identified as being a Communist or connected with the CP, they will find a way to get rid of you". CRAWFORD said the CP is really trying to do all it can to help the Negro in the Civil Rights Movement. S.I.

HENRY CRAWFORD

CV T-6 advised on June 7, 1966, that HENRY CRAWFORD attended the Ohio State CP Convention held in Cleveland, Ohio, on June 4-5, 1966, and during this Convention he was elected a member of the Ohio CP State Committee and also an alternate delegate to the CPUSA National Convention to be held in New York City in June, 1966.

CV T-1 advised on November 14, 1966, that during a discussion with PHILIP BART on November 9, 1966, concerning ways and means to best further Communism in the United States, BART stated that CP members should make a special effort to work within the Negro struggles since the Negroes are the most depressed people.

HEAD of CLEVELAND BRANCH - CONGRESS ON RACIAL EQUALITY

CV T-1 advised on December 2, 1966, that on November 30, 1966, PHILIP BART advised that he recently had several long talks with DONALD BEAN, who now heads CORE in Cleveland and that BART considers BEAN to be a good man. BART wants the CP to become active in organizations like CORE and he asked one of the Negro CP members to contact BEAN with this in mind. BART advised this member that at the time of contacting BEAN, he should tell BEAN that he, BART, had recommended this contact. BART said that BEAN knows, "who I am and what I am".

OHIO

(See section 3 where it is reported that BEAN has no interest in seeing BART unless BART wants to give financial help to CORE.)

B. SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY (SWP)

The SWP has been cited by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order #10450.

1. Local SWP Plans and Strategy

CV T-2 advised on November 28, 1966, that ERIC REINTHALER and JOHN CLOUD have received permission from the SWP in Cleveland to attend CORE meetings, but have been instructed not to accept any office or official position in CORE. CV T-2 stated that several years ago several SWP members were active in CORE, and both REINTHALER and CLOUD held offices in CORE at the same time. However, the persons then in charge of CORE in Cleveland made it clear that they did not want SWP help or support, and carried out a successful program to defeat SWP supported candidates in an election. CV T-2 stated that as a result, SWP members dropped out of CORE and that REINTHALER and CLOUD have just recently again started attending CORE meetings. CV T-2 stated that the present CORE group does not object to these SWP members taking a part in the CORE meeting, even though they are fully aware of REINTHALER's position in the SWP. They are willing to accept REINTHALER's help because he is a tireless worker, an excellent fund raiser and a good promoter of activities.

ERIC REINTHALER

CV T-2 advised on November 28, 1966, that REINTHALER is currently organizer of the SWP in Cleveland.

JOHN CLOUD

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

A. NAACP

The Cleveland "Plain Dealer", a local newspaper of general circulation, issue of December 27, 1966, contained an article stating that new officers for the Cleveland NAACP had been elected to serve for the period January 3, 1967 through December 31, 1968. Among those listed as being elected to office were the presiding officers and the members of the Executive Committee, both totaling 55 persons. Among these 55 persons was MORRIS JAFFA, elected a member of the National Executive Committee. The article stated that the total members in the Cleveland NAACP for the year 1966 was reported to be 14,000 and an effort is being made to increase the membership.

WILLIAM J. SLADE, Administrative Assistant, Cleveland NAACP Chapter advised on January 17, 1967, that only approximately 12,000 members have paid their dues in the Cleveland NAACP for the next year. OHIO

B. CORE

CV T-3 noted on September 23, 1966, that in the election of the Cleveland CORE officers on September 20, 1966, only 32 persons participated in the election; further that about 15 to 20 persons generally attend CORE meetings in Cleveland.

As set forth in Section I "B", of this report, under the heading "SWP", CV T-2 advised on November 28, 1966, that ERIC REINTHALER and JOHN CLOUD are currently active in CORE, and the present CORE group does not object to these SWP members taking a part in CORE meetings, even though they are fully aware of REINTHALER's position in the SWP. They are willing to accept REINTHALER's help because he is a tireless worker, an excellent fund raiser and a good promoter of activities.

CV T-2 further advised on November 28, 1966, that DONALD BEAN recently stated that PHILIP BART, who is known to BEAN to be an officer in the Ohio CP, has been making efforts recently to get in touch with BEAN and that BEAN is quite annoyed at this. BEAN has stated that he does not know what BART wants and that he has no interest in what BART might want to say to him unless BART is planning to give CORE some financial support.

1. Plans, strategy, Party line and the like made at national meetings, including expressions by national leaders and other functionaries

No information received under this category.

2. Plans, strategy, Party line and the like made at district and lower level meetings, including expressions by local leaders and rank and file members

The East Bay CP Industrial Club held a meeting at 6547 Tremont Street, Oakland, California, on September 26, 1966. At this meeting an educational was given by CP member BOB KAUFMAN in which he told those present that he would discuss briefly with them the political structures of the civil rights movement of the Negro people. He asserted the powerful Negro people's movement as the most dominant domestic force in the nation and these developments create new opportunities and responsibilities for the CP. He stated the CP must be the vanguard to lead the Negro people away from oppression, such as police brutality, and assist them in gaining first-class citizenship and full employment. He said the Negro ghettos must be eliminated entirely from the scene and that Negroes must have the right to live in white neighborhoods and also to be respected by all the peoples, regardless of race, white or black. He said it was necessary for the Negro people to have progressive white people to cooperate with them fully so that the CP can lead the Negro people away from this capitalistic oppression.

A meeting of the Sonoma County CP Club was held at 420 West Railroad Avenue, Cotati, California, on October 19, 1966. The meeting was called to order by club chairman MORRIS RAPPOPORT and he gave a report of a previous meeting of the District Committee of the Northern California District CP (NCDCP). He said that the Committee discussed "black power" and decided that a committee would be set up to draw up a resolution on "black power" for the District Committee. ROSCOE PROCTOR, a member of the National Committee, CP,USA, was the guest speaker for the District Committee meeting. PROCTOR spoke on an article in "Political Affairs" magazine on "Black Power" written by JAMES JACKSON of the National Committee CP,USA. PROCTOR told those present that JACKSON did not go far enough in his article. PROCTOR stated that the CP had to take a deep look at "black power" in the U. S. and that a clear definition of "black power" must be determined since different people have different definitions for the term "black power." Member of the club PLATT WILLIAMS said he knew what "black power" meant to the Negro people and his definition was that they want 20 per cent of the political power in the U. S. ROSCOE PROCTOR said the District Committee would take up "black power" at a conference in December, 1966. ROSCOE PROCTOR was the speaker at the Sonoma County CP Club meeting as well as at the District meeting.

SF T-3, 10/19/66

A meeting of the Negro Commission of the NCDCP was held in Oakland, California, at the residence of ROSCOE PROCTOR on November 9, 1966. The meeting was called to order by ROSCOE PROCTOR and he told those present that the District Committee of the CP wanted the Negro Commission to discuss "black power" and bring in a resolution to the District Committee meeting to be held in December, 1966. PROCTOR pointed out the guidelines for the resolution. He said the resolution should consider the Negroes' fight for freedom in the U. S. and this relationship with the war in Vietnam together with the inaction of the two major political parties in the U. S. as the basis for the resolution. MORRIS RAPPOPORT, who attended the meeting, said the Negro working class is working for political life in jobs and is putting pressure on unions for jobs. He said this is the reason STOKELY CARMICHAEL had to come out with his "black power" program.

PROCTOR stated that Negro CP members have got to start working with young people, church groups, and Negro labor workers, the unemployed, and welfare people. PROCTOR stated he would prepare an outline of what had been discussed at this meeting and send it to all members of the Negro Commission for their consideration in drawing up a Negro resolution.

SF T-3, 11/9/66

A meeting of the Executive Board of the Fillmore CP Club of San Francisco was held on November 29, 1966. The principal subject discussed at this meeting was the hiring situation of Negroes in the major hotels in San Francisco in light of recent developments when an arbitrator decided a dispute between the hotel operators and various unions in favor of the unions' complaint that the hiring agreement pertaining to minority races violated the bargaining agreement with the labor unions involved. It was decided that club members JUANITA WHEELER and ALYTHIBODEAUX would talk to ALBERT J. LIMA, chairman of the NCDCP, and ARCHIE BROWN, former San Francisco County CP chairman, to find out what CP members should say to people in the community when talking on the above subject.

SF T-4, 11/30/66

A meeting of the San Jose, California, Club of the CP was held on December 6, 1966, at 5 Laumer Avenue, San Jose. An announcement was made at this meeting that the NCDCP would hold a conference on December 16-17, 1966, in San Francisco to discuss the topic "Black Power and White Chauvinism." The educational at this meeting concerned a recent speech made in San Jose by STOKELY CARMICHAEL on "Black Power." It was the consensus of the members of the club that they did not agree with CARMICHAEL'S statements to any great degree. CARMICHAEL, according to those in the discussion, condemns the left but then makes socialistic statements and for this reason the club members did not agree with CARMICHAEL.

SF T-5, 12/12/66

A conference of the NCDCP was held on December 16-17, 1966, at 81 Clementina Street, San Francisco. The subject of the conference was "Black Power and White Chauvinism." Representatives from the CP youth clubs in the Bay Area were present and there were CP members present from Los Angeles, California, and a group from Seattle, Washington. It was reported that approximately 100 persons attended this conference.

ROSCOE PROCTOR read a Negro Commission report and he told those present that he had been working with others on the Commission for three years on the problems of Negro rights and the subject had been discussed at the National Convention. PROCTOR read from a discussion bulletin on the subject of the Negro problem for approximately one hour. The discussion bulletin referred to is set out subsequently in this report. During the discussion, trade unions in general were vigorously condemned for not giving the Negroes chances they should have to join unions and secure employment.

One of the speakers at the meeting was BILL TAYLOR, a Negro CP functionary from Los Angeles, who spoke on "Black Power." He said the middle class Negro belongs to the "bribery class." He charged that the Negro can be bribed to do anything anyone wants. He charged that even after the riots in Watts and San Francisco promises were made to the Negro people, but he charged there is more unemployment among Negroes than before. TAYLOR stated the revolution in Russia was beaten down in 1905 but won out in 1917 because of the poverty issue.

3. Plans, strategy, Party line and the like as revealed in Party publications and other propaganda media, such as written directives, press releases, and the like

A meeting of club chairmen of the San Francisco County CP (SFCCP) was held at 241 Frederick Street, San Francisco, on October 10, 1966. At this meeting a press release of October 3, 1966, on the recent rioting in the latter part of September, 1966, in the Hunters Point and Fillmore areas of San Francisco was given out. At the time the press release was issued, club member JOE FIGUEIREDO 52 pointed out that the CP had no program in this area which would enable them to control the rioting in any way. He pointed out that all the programs which the CP had referred back to the Party program in the 1930's and 1940's and stated the CP had no up-to-date program for the Negro people. He pointed out that a program must be drawn up so that if such a situation as the San Francisco rioting came up in the future the CP could take control. FIGUEIREDO stated that the rioting was caused by police brutality and that the CP could not do anything on the subject because of lack of money and Negro organizational program. The press release handed out is as follows:

> "A 16-year-old boy was murdered for the crime of running away from a cop. The car he had run away from was reported stolen hours later. To the policeman, trained to put property rights above human rights, suspicion was justification for killing. Thus, his trigger finger set-off this outbreak of desperate protest.
> "Now, as a result, our city has been painfully jolted into a new awareness of the living conditions which create 'riots' when triggered by police violence. This outbreak can be seen for what it really was: an upheaval against wanton murder and brutality, against poverty, joblessness, slum housing. It was a form of protest against the frustrations of apparent hopelessness, especially strong among the youth who are hardest hit - against the whole way of life this society has forced on the Negro people and other minorities.
> "The local Power Structure - Business, City Hall, and the Police - bears the major responsibility for these 'riots'. In spite of repeated warnings of the pressure building up, they failed to act decisively. Instead they made feeble gestures, threw out a few crumbs, allowed cuts in the paltry 'War on Poverty' funds. Their application of 'footfield field' tactics, of mass police and troop violence against the communities where the outbreaks occured only emphasized their previous failure. It is to the credit of the Negro people that their communities did not respond to such provocation with greater violence.

"In exposing the conditions which created them, these outbreaks should show to all that none of these conditions need to be. Our country could correct these conditions overnight if it truly dedicated itself to do so. If the money, poured by the billions into the unjust war in Viet Nam ($2,000,000 a month), were used to abolish poverty and segregation in the United States, the conditions causing such 'riots' could be speedily corrected. Slums and slum living could be abolished for all, enough new jobs created to greatly increase employment where it is most needed. Schools, hospitals and recreation facilities could be improved, and the social atmosphere cleansed of the present air of violence.

"Instead our country has been following an opposite path which has made brutality part of national policy and behavior. The war against the people of Viet Nam is tied directly to the battle-grounds of San Francisco. Even the pitifully inadequate federal funds which were allocated for use in the 'War Against Poverty' and other social measures, have been slashed as a result of the war. As the war is continued and further 'escalated', still fewer funds will be available for a meaningful local social program.

"The lesson is clear. The war against the Vietnamese people must be ended. The funds released by ending the war must be used to wage a genuine 'War on Poverty' and liberate the people of our country from the intolerable conditions these upheavals have exposed.

"In the meantime the local Power Structure must be continually pressured forward on the path indicated toward an end of all racist policies and abolition of all forms of segregation and discrimination. The ghetto conditions in Hunters Point, the Fillmore and Mission Districts, must be ended. The police department must be cleansed of racism, brutality and disregard for human life. The youth of our city must be given job opportunities and on-the-job training to meet their needs. Throughout the city the people should organize, demonstrate and protest to insure the carrying out of these demands.

SF T-7, 10/11/66 SI

A meeting was held between JAMES FOREST of the SFCCP Committee and AL THIBODEAUX, CP member, on October 27, 1966, for the purpose of discussing CP activities on the Negro question. JAMES FOREST stated when the first sessions of the District Convention were held, a Negro resolution was felt to be insufficient as proposed. He stated later at the National CP Convention, it was concluded the Negro resolution was not satisfactory and the CP was afraid "it was missing the ball on this problem." Therefore, it is necessary for the CP to start all over again on the Negro problem and what to do about it. He stated the CP needs to prepare a Negro resolution which is in tune with the times. FOREST said to that end he was going to set up a meeting with members of the Negro Commission to discuss this matter and turn out a new resolution. He stated this is the most urgent question confronting the Party.
